COLEMAN COUNTY STORY

Early Day History of Santa Anna Summerized By Roy Holt

Editor's note: The following article was prepared by Roy Holt several years ago and has appeared in this newspaper before. However, it has recently been revised some and we feel it ties in well with other stories concerning the early days of this area.

SANTA ANNA
BY ROY HOLT

Santa Anna, located in Coleman County, Texas, is near the center of the state. The present population of the town is approximately 2,000. The town is surrounded by a fertile farming and livestock producing area.

The town of Santa Anna can well boast of one of the most beautiful locations in Texas, for back of the town arises twin peaks which are visible for many miles in all directions. In addition to the scenic beauty of these hills, a pure white glass sand has for many years been taken from the mountains as a paying commercial venture.

Maps of more than one hundred years ago show the twin peaks in this area as "Santa Anna's Peaks." Authentic historical records of the same period show that the Comanche Indians lived in this area and numerous streams and other landmarks bear their names today. These same records tell the story of Chief Santa Anna, Santana, head Comanche war leader, who lived in this section and was well known as a friend of the whites. It is known that he once made a trip to Washington to visit the Great White Father and that he also made numerous raiding trips into Mexico. After such a trip, in the year 1849, this old Red warrior died of cholera which he had contracted on a trip into Mexico a short time before. He was buried within a day's ride of the Santa Anna Mountains. It is logical to suppose that this Old Indian took the name Santa Anna, after learning that this was the name of the President and Emperor of Mexico, where the Comanches loved to raid so much. It is also reasonable to infer that the Santa Anna Mountains received their name from this Old Comanche Chief.

The Santa Anna Mountains have been famed landmarks for more than a century. The Comanches camped here at springs near the foot of the mountains and used the elevated peaks as lookout and signal points for many years. Early surveyors used the mountains in running their lines. In 1857, Camp Colorado was established as a U. S. frontier military post on the Jim Ned Creek a few miles north of the mountains. Soldiers and scouts came to the Santa Anna Mountains and maintained a lookout post here. During the Civil War, Frontier Rangers, or Home Guards, patrolled the frontier and established a camp at the foot of the mountains. In 1862, Lieutenant John Sparks, later Governor of Nevada, Frank Alexander, John Guest, R. C. Morgan, and John Sinclair spent Christmas here feasting on wild turkey. The old military road extending from San Antonio to Fort Mason passed through the gap of the mountains, leading on to Camp Colorado and Fort Bellnap. Soldiers, scouts and frontiersmen camped here often. During the seventies and eighties, the Western Cattle Trail passed through the gap of the Santa Anna Mountains. Rolllicking Texas Cowboys drove wild Longhorn steers along this trail by the countless thousands. The trail led from South Texas by way of San Antonio, on to Fort Mason, Brady City, Trickham, the Santa Anna Mountains and Coleman City, thence northward to Baird, Fort Griffin and on to the Red River.

In 1879, a little store was started in the gap of the Santa Anna Mountains and for some time it was called "The Gap". A few settlers moved in — Duke Jackson, J. D. Simpson, W. C. Brooks, Lewis Taylor, Henry H. Brown, W. J. and Tom Crosby, Bill Brannon, Miles and Frank Wofford, the McGonagills, and others. During the early eighties numerous families settled in the surrounding country. Barbed wire fences appeared over the range, with G. W. Mahoney enclosing a large body of land immediately southwest of the town. In 1879, a post office was established under the name of Santa Anna. Tradition and legend have it that the name should have been "Santana", but there is no historical basis for any name except Santa Anna. Before long, the little town could boast of two stores, a livery stable, a drug store, a hotel, a schoolhouse, and a church. Dr. J. P. Matthews was the first doctor and Sam H. Phillips, the first druggist.

Old timers tell of the immense herds of buffalo in the area in the early days. Antelope by the hundreds could be seen near the town. Wild mustangs ranged the country in bands in all directions from Santa Anna Mountains.

In 1836, the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad extended their rails westward from Temple, and in May of that year, town lots were sold in Santa Anna. The town was moved from the gap to a position immediately south of the west mountain. In March of 1836, the first train reached the new town. L. V. Stockard was the first station agent and the depot was an old box car.

Early-day merchants who moved to the new town were L. R. Shield, Miles Wofford, W. R. Kelley, Sam H. Phillips and L. W. Hunter, who established the first meat market under a live-oak tree close to where the present Piggly Wiggly store now stands. Numerous other merchants moved here also. Con Rowland, published the first edition of the Santa Anna News in a dugout, and this paper is still being published under the same name, now in its 73rd year.

In the course of a few years, the Santa Anna trade territory developed into a prosperous farming and livestock producing area. Cotton became the chief crop with oats, wheat, corn and sorghum grains as important crops. Oil, natural gas, cattle and sheep later became more important sources of income.

ROY PAYNE COMPLETES RECRUIT TRAINING

San Diego, Calif. (PHTNC) — Roy J. Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Payne of Santa Anna, graduated from recruit training June 3 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Angus Peoples Dies In Big Spring

Angus Peoples, well known here, died at 5:30 p. m. Monday, June 9, at Big Spring, where he had been a patient in the VA hospital for several months. His niece, Mrs. Lew Storey, was notified of his death, but was not able to attend funeral services because of illness.

Mr. Peoples would have been 70 years old later this month. He was a brother of the late Mrs. B. M. McCain of Santa Anna.

Mrs. Shirley Crawford On HPC Honor Roll

Fifty-six of Howard Payne's 793 undergraduate students were listed on the honor roll. A student must accumulate a minimum of 36 grade points to make the honor roll.

Robert Perry of Dallas, returned home Monday, after coming on Saturday, for a visit with his wife, in the home of her father, Tellie Allison. Mrs. Perry remained for a longer visit. They attended the singing Sunday afternoon and Mr. Perry led two songs.

Col. Karl E. Wallace of Fort Worth visited briefly with his mother, Mrs. W. E. Wallace, last week and then went to Washington, D. C., where he will be this week. Returning, he will visit his mother a few days.

Mrs. J. T. Baird Buried Tuesday

Funeral services were held on Tuesday, June 10, at 4:00 p. m. in the North Side Baptist Church for Mrs. J. T. Baird, who died in the Santa Anna Hospital at 3:00 a. m. Sunday, June 8th. Mrs. O. B. Yancy of Abilene, her daughter, had come to spend the weekend with her and Mr. Baird. Mrs. Baird became ill at the supper table Saturday evening, her right hand first becoming afflicted, and then her body.

The doctor being called, she was taken to the hospital, where death claimed her. Mrs. Baird had walked to town and back to her home in the south part of town, Friday afternoon.

Officiating ministers were the Rev. C. L. Carroll of Morton and Rev. Charles Thompson, pastor.

Mrs. Baird was born Nov. 29, 1880 in Tennessee, her maiden name being Minnie Menora Vaughn. She came to Coleman County in 1905 and has remained. She had been a member of the Baptist Church since childhood.

At the time of death she was 77 years, 6 months and 9 days old.

She and Mr. Baird were married in March, 1911.

Survivors include the husband, J. T. Baird of Santa Anna; five sons, Bill Henry of Coleman, Richard Baird of Brownwood, J. W. Baird of Abilene, Arthur Baird and Thomas Baird of Olive Branch, Miss.; three daughters, Mrs. O. B. Yancy of Abilene, Mrs. O. D. Smith of Oxford, Miss., and Mrs. Willie Mae Ruth of Lambert, Miss. Twenty-three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren also survive.

Palbearers were Luther McCrary Allison Hagler, Fisher Hagler, Jet Parker, Buster Woodard and Lee Wade Wallace.

Burial was in the Coleman Cemetery with Wright's Funeral Home in charge.

William Switzer Participates In "Indian River" Battle

Fort Lewis, Wash. — PFC William Switzer, son of A. E. Switzer of Santa Anna, returns to Fort Lewis this week after participating in Exercise "Indian River", a giant maneuver testing the Army's new pentomic concept of battle.

The exercise pitted 4th Infantry Division troops against "aggressor" forces in an 18,000-man battle fought the past two weeks at the Yakima Firing Center. The Firing Center spreads across 267,000 acres of central Washington, north of Yakima.

PFC Switzer is assigned to the divisions 2nd Battle Group, 47th Infantry as an assistant Rocket Gunner.

Troops in "Indian River" were involved in every phase of modern warfare — atomic, electronic, chemical-biological-radiological-physiological and even guerrilla fighting. The pentomic organization enables fast movement and wide dispersion to cope with such weapons.

Simulated atomic blasts and devices which harmlessly simulate radioactive fallout and detection added realism to the training.

During the early stages of the maneuvers an entire infantry battle group was airlifted from Fort Lewis to the Firing Center. The men boarded Air Force planes at nearby McChord AFB for the trans-Cascades flight.

Betty Sackett of San Angelo is here for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Annie Meyer.

Be Considerate When Burning Trash, Rubbish

During recent months several complaints have been received at the City Hall about people burning trash at times when the wind is blowing fairly strong and it blows the smoke and unburned trash into other peoples homes and on their property.

People doing this usually do not think about the comfort of their neighbors, in fact they seem not even to give a thought to it. The City Council requests you to put yourself in your neighbor's position, and to please give him the consideration you would expect.

It is important that citizens of any given area cooperate with others in the same area. You are urged to give this consideration when you burn your trash.

Grass and weeds are beginning to get dry enough to burn very rapidly now. Anyone planning to do any burning on their property is requested to pick a day when the wind is not blowing and to keep the fire under control at all times. If you are burning off a lot or some other piece of property and see the fire is getting out of control, DO NOT attempt to bring it under control yourself but call the fire department immediately. Grass fires can easily get out of control when the wind is blowing. You are requested to take every precaution possible.

The fire department was called Monday morning to put out a grass fire near the Campbell Gin in the south part of town.

Stained Window Honors J. T. Oakes For 50 Yrs. Service

A stained glass window was installed in the Presbyterian Church early last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Oakes. In appreciation of their 50 years of faithful service to the church.

Among other activities, Mr. Oakes was assistant and superintendent of the Sunday school of the local church for 47 years.

When Mr. Oakes is able to attend services, there will be a dedication of the window, which is placed just back of the pulpit. The window was an interesting new feature for the marriage of his granddaughter, Frances McClellan, to Allen Pierce, Saturday night, June 7.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Thompson and daughters, Ann, Charlene and Dolly, left Tuesday afternoon on a vacation trip. They planned to visit with relatives in Houston and New Orleans, at Tascagoula, Miss., they will visit with Mrs. Thompson's father and mother. They will also attend the North American Baptist Association meeting in Jackson, Miss. They plan to visit his parents at Laurel, Miss.

Mrs. W. T. Archer of Temple visited during last week with Mrs. Ione Caton. Together they attended a reunion at Meridian State Park and from there Mrs. Caton took her back to her home at Temple.

Carol and Richard Yancy of Benbrook are visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. C. F. Yancy and attending the Vacation Bible School at the First Baptist Church.

Temperature Hits Century Mark Here Tuesday

The hottest day of the season was recorded here Tuesday when the temperature reached 104 degrees in several locations here in town. We do not have an official temperature station here and all we have to go on is the gauges we see over town, but most of them seemed to indicate about the same temperature. We believe everyone will agree it was at least that hot, and may be hotter.

This is apparently the first time this year the temperature has reached the 100 degree mark, although there has been several days for the past two or three weeks that above 90 degrees has been reached.

Reports from official weather stations seem to indicate there is no relief in sight from the hot weather, at least for the next several days.

Violent weather has been disrupting several locations in Texas the past few days. Hail and high winds have hit several towns to the north and west of us.

Rule Changes Made At Q. B. Club Meeting

Some rules for the baseball leagues were changed Monday night at the regular meeting of the Quarterback Club. Attendance was very light.

The primary change made was to allow the Little League age teams to practice all they want to, or at least any time they can get supervised practice. It seems most of the boys this age need much more practice than one work out each week.

Another change from regular rules was to let another 12 year old boy play with the Rockwood team, the Indians, because he cannot get to town to practice with the other teams. However, some regulations were made as to how many innings each 12 year old boy was to play.

Payment for the new lights installed at the baseball field was discussed. The entire cost of the 16 new lights and replacement of one other light was $233.00. It is hoped to get at least 14 more lights put up by next season, making a total of 70 lights in all.

The Quarterback Club has announced in previous years, and would like to announce again, that they cannot be responsible for windshields or other auto damages that might occur at the ball park. When you park your car there you do so at your own risk. There is no admission charge and no regulation as to how you park other than to obey regular traffic laws. Therefore the club cannot take the responsibility for accidents of this kind.

Membership in the Quarterback Club increased to 106 members, this week. New additions are: Joe Mathews, C. C. Gilbert, George M. Johnson, J. A. Mallow, C. W. Plummer, Claude Bible, Roy Bible, Gene Smith, Leonard Moore, Mrs. Leonard Moore, R. W. Mathews, John Guthrie and Mrs. John Guthrie.

Bake Sale To Favor Vernon Herrings Saturday

Friends of the Vernon Herring family will hold a bake sale at Piggly Wiggly Saturday. All who would like to contribute pies, cakes, candy or other pastries are invited to have them at the store by 9:00 a. m. Saturday. Those who do not contribute pastries are invited to purchase your weekend sweets from the ladies who will be handling the sale.

Possibly others would like to make contributions of money. This is being accepted by Mrs. Billie Guthrie at the Santa Anna Insurance Agency office.

During the past several months Lucretia Herring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Herring, has undergone major brain surgery three times, the last operation being last week. Her condition is reported to be very critical in a Dallas Hospital.

Swimming classes for Santa Anna boys who have attended at least one year of school will begin Monday morning, June 16. The classes of instruction will be held at the Marris Swimming Pool, two miles west of Coleman. Plans call for the school bus to leave the high school at 10:00 a. m. and to return there about 12 o'clock noon. The students will go in the pool at 10:30 and get out at 11:30 a. m.

Parents of all boys and girls taking the swimming lessons must sign a release form, releasing the ladies in charge of the swimming program from any liability in case of an accident. Naturally, no accident is expected, but the release is for the protection of those who are working to have some activity for the children during the summer months.

The boys will go for three weeks, then the girls will go for three weeks. This program is being made possible through the cooperation of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Marris of Coleman.

All the students going on the bus are requested to bring 10 cents each morning to help pay the cost of operating the bus and paying the bus driver.

Hardy Blue Has Major Surgery In Abilene Hospital

Hardy Blue had major surgery at Hendricks Hospital in Abilene early Tuesday morning. His condition is reported satisfactory, and he expects to be at home in about a week. Mrs. Blue is with him and his room is No. 312. Friends are wishing for Mr. Blue a complete recovery.

Members of the family and friends present at the time of surgery besides Mrs. Blue, were their daughter, Mrs. Oran Henderson and daughter, Orabeth of Snyder, John Hardy Blue, who flew in from Indiana; Mrs. Blue's sister, Mrs. Kirby from Dublin; Mrs. Clifford Verner of Colorado City; and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris of Santa Anna.

16 New Lights Added To Local Baseball Field

Sixteen new flood lights were added at the baseball field over the weekend and a lot of the dark spots on the field have been removed. The lights on the field now almost meet with regulation requirements of the National Little League Association.

Lighting requirements will likely be met before the end of the season. Although not affiliated with the National Little League Association, the local group is working toward meeting all their standards.

Membership in the Quarterback Club increased to 106 members, this week. New additions are: Joe Mathews, C. C. Gilbert, George M. Johnson, J. A. Mallow, C. W. Plummer, Claude Bible, Roy Bible, Gene Smith, Leonard Moore, Mrs. Leonard Moore, R. W. Mathews, John Guthrie and Mrs. John Guthrie.

Central Colorado Soil Conservation District News

Many of our most beneficial conservation practices were discovered because of what someone DID NOT, rather than what someone DID. Take for example the practice of leaving crop residue or cover on the surface of the soil. Because someone did not turn under crop residues, it was discovered that by not doing soil losses by blowing and washing were greatly reduced.

more rainfall was taken up and less evaporation occurred, and soil temperatures were held at a level favorable for plant growth. Soil blowing and washing, rainfall run-off and evaporation and excessive soil temperatures are very serious hazards to the farmer who wants to do just a minimum job of soil conservation on his fields. He can avoid these hazards to a great extent by not turning under crop residues.

Excessive soil temperature is the least known of the five hazards among farmers because it affects largely the microscopic soil bacteria which are as essential to plant growth as the sun and rain. When crop residues are turned under, the bare soil reaches a temperature as high as 140 degrees for many hours each day and for many weeks through the hot part of the summer. A pretty good job of pasteurizing milk can be accomplished by holding it at 140 degrees for only 30 minutes.

The excellent cover of small grains, on which harvesting has just started, affords a real opportunity to insure against the five hazards of soil blowing, washing, high evaporation, high

Combined State and local long-term debt crossed the $50 billion mark for the first time last year, three times the total outstanding a decade before, with the major push coming from expenditures on needed schools and roads, according to data compiled by the U. S. Bureau of the Census.

State and local spending has been rising steadily in recent years and has been one of the expansive influences in the economy in the period. It seems certain to continue so in the foreseeable future to meet the social investment needs of an expanding population.

Right now combined State and local expenditures are running at a record annual rate of over $38 billion a year, more than double the total a decade ago and equivalent to about 9 per cent of the entire national output. Outlays for construction represent about a third of all State and local spending.

Aggregate long-term State and local debt stood at $50.4 billion on June 30 last year, according to the Census Bureau, as against less than $17 billion in 1947. Schools and roads are responsible for practically half the debt total. Here is how this debt structure breaks down by principal functions:

Educational facilities — $14 billions of the outstanding long-term debt, or more than a quarter of total State and local borrowings. The preponderant part of this debt, amounting to $12½ billions, is local, and reflects the obligations incurred to expand the public school system in response to the post-World War II baby boom. School debt makes up a third of all local long-term borrowing. State long-term debt incurred for educational purposes came to $1½ billions last year. About $700 millions of this sum represented outlays on institutions of higher education, an area where the pressures for more facilities are becoming increasingly insistent.

Streets and highways — nearly $11 billions of outstanding State and local long-term debt, or more than a fifth of the total. State borrowing predominates in this area, and highways are responsible for well over half of all State debt outstanding. Toll roads represented the biggest single item, and alone made up more than $5 billions of State government long-term obligations outstanding. Utilities — $8.4 billions, or a sixth of combined State and local long-term debt. These obligations, issued for water-supply, electric and gas supply, and transit systems, are entirely in the area of local government, and comprise over a fifth of all local Government debt.

run-off of rainfall and excessive temperature harmful to beneficial soil bacteria. All five are accomplished with one practice which is NOT turning under crop residues.

Several methods of crop residue management are available to choose from that will enable the residue to be left on the surface. Chisel plows are widely accepted when the land is plowed in one direction then again at a 45 degree angle. Buzzard-wing sweeps set flat are also in wide use. Contour bedding is used by some. Leaving the land unplowed with founness controlled by use of shredders or by spraying is increasing in use. An acceptable job can be done with a one-way plow or tandem disk if the angle of cut is reduced so that the soil will not be turned.

Claude Hodges was able to be downtown Monday morning after suffering injuries in an auto accident Thursday of last week. His right shoulder, leg and foot were hurt when his pick-up over turned twice when he was returning home from work on the Marvin Niell home in the Buffalo community.

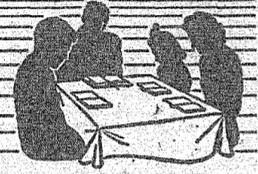

Fire Chief Ben T. Vinson, Cliff Herndon, Bill Griffin, George Johnson and Milton House, attended the annual State Firemen's Convention in San Antonio Tuesday to Thursday of this week. They left here Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Frances Adams and Miss Ruby Volentine of Austin were here at the weekend, visiting their sister, Mrs. A. R. Brown. Bess Shield also came from Austin and visited her mother, Mrs. Vera Shield.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lovelady of Gatesville, visited recently with relatives, the Earl Cozarts of Whon and Miss Alta and Guy Lovelady in Santa Anna.

Mrs. Dora Bell of Dallas, a former longtime resident here, has been visiting friends and relatives recently.

Today's MEDITATION from The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read Matthew 28:16-20. You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide. (John 15:16, RSV.)

It was my privilege to hear a sermon on this text by a young lady who was about to sail for the mission field. I was thrilled as she talked. She seemed completely dedicated. She had sincerely accepted the choice to go to a faraway land and to tell to those who had never heard it the glorious news of Christ. I felt confident that through her the Saviour would become real to the people among whom she would soon begin her labors.

She was not thinking of the many good things she would leave behind. She was thinking of the many wonderful opportunities of service that would be hers in a strange land and amid some physical dangers. By her living and her teaching she would proclaim this glorious gospel so that the people who live in darkness might see the great light that is in Christ, in doing that she would find joy.

PRAYER
Dear Lord, because we have accepted Thee as our Saviour, we have been chosen of Thee to carry the good news to others. By our living and our teaching, use us this day to proclaim the glorious gospel of Christ. In His name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
Christ expects of me every service I can render.

Scientists have known for years that enough natural heat exists in outdoor air, even in the coldest weather, to heat every home in the world. If this heat could be extracted... concentrated... and brought indoors — what a solution to everyone's heating problem!

But that's just what a summer air conditioner does... in reverse. It extracts and concentrates indoor heat and moves it outdoors.

The All Electric Heat Pump Air Conditioner is an air conditioner that can reverse itself automatically to cool or heat as needed to maintain indoor comfort at an even level. An improved reverse-cycle valve, sensitive to indoor temperature changes of even a few degrees, switches from cooling to heating and back again automatically... to maintain the comfort level at which you set the thermostat.

COMPLETELY AUTOMATIC

The Electric Heat Pump is completely automatic. During changeable weather, even if it is within the hour, the Heat Pump will switch from heating to cooling and or back again as the temperature changes require.

You do not need to change the temperature dial, you just set the thermostat for the temperature you desire and forget it. The Electric Heat Pump is the ONLY completely automatic Air Conditioner.

There were plenty of good leaders and pianists, with some attending who had not been present before. New books were on hand and beautiful songs sung from them.

It is planned to have an all day singing on the Second Sunday in July. Meeting will begin at 10:00 a. m. in the high school and dinner will be served at noon in the school lunchroom.

Barbecue, beans, potatoes, coffee and tea will be provided. Those attending may bring dishes of their choice, desserts, pies or cakes.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION THE STATE OF TEXAS

To: William Hull, H. J. Schaulis and Mary Lou Huffman Spireling, Defendants, Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear before the Honorable 119th District Court of Coleman County at the Court-house thereof, in Coleman, Texas, by filing a written answer at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 14th day of July A. D. 1958, to Plaintiff's Amended Petition filed in said court, on the 28th day of May A. D. 1958, in this cause, numbered 8243-B on the docket of said court and styled R. Bailey and wife Nell Bailey, J. C. Dibrell, Jr. and wife Esther Dibrell, Carter M. Dibrell, Jr. and Lucy M. Dibrell, a widow, are Plaintiffs, vs. Phil C. Huffman, Lyter Huffman, Myrtle Huffman, Tom Hull, William Hull, H. J. Schaulis, Mary Lou Spireling and John Floyd as Administrator of estate of Gladys Huffman, deceased, are Defendants.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: Plaintiffs sue for cancellation of oil and gas lease dated May 28, 1941, from J. C. Dibrell, Jr. et al to Gladys Huffman, in so far as said lease covers Section 17, H. T. & B. Ry. Co. Survey, Coleman County, Texas, except the NE 1/4 of SW 1/4 of said survey. Plaintiffs allege that the primary term of said lease expired and that Lessee or her assigns have not produced oil, gas or other minerals under said lease from the land subsequent to Jan. 1st, 1950, in paying quantities, and that said lease was not extended by any other term or provision, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the mandates hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Coleman, Texas, this 28 day of May A. D. 1958.

NOTICE OF HEARING OF A PETITION FOR THE FORMATION FOR COLEMAN COUNTY WATER CONTROL AND IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT NO. 1

THE STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF COLEMAN TO ALL PERSONS WHOSE LAND IS INCLUDED IN OR WOULD BE AFFECTED BY THE CREATION OF COLEMAN COUNTY WATER CONTROL AND IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT NO. 1:

Pursuant to an order of the County Judge of Coleman County, Texas, dated the 27th day of May, 1958, notice is hereby given that a hearing will be held by the Coleman County Commissioners' Court on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1958, at ten o'clock A. M., at the Coleman County Commissioners' Court room in the Court House at Coleman, Coleman County, Texas, upon a petition filed with the County Clerk of Coleman County, Texas, on the 22nd day of May, A. D. 1958, for the organization, formation and creation of COLEMAN COUNTY WATER CONTROL AND IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT NO. 1; at which time and place any person whose land is included in or would be affected by the creation of such district may appear and contest the creation thereof and may offer testimony to show that such District is or is not necessary, would or would not be a public utility and would or would not be feasible or practicable.

That the nature and purpose of the creation of such District is for the better distribution, control, storing and preservation of the storm or flood waters of Muke Water Creek, a tributary of the Colorado River. The general nature of the work to be done will be the construction of a series of eight flood detention dams on the head waters of Muke Water Creek; such detention dams will have a series of draw down tubes which will allow the additional flow of water within Muke Water Creek for a period of fifteen to thirty days after a substantial amount of rainfall, thus materially reducing the damages to crops and rangelands and impounding water for irrigation purposes.

Said District is to be composed of an area of approximately 82.5 square miles all in Coleman County, Texas, and described by metes and bounds as follows:

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman
O. C. FISHER

FOREIGN AID FOR THE next year got Senate approval last week, following House approval a little earlier. The total authorization will be about $3 billion. But actual appropriation must come later and the real test will then come on how much money will be funded. It will probably be somewhat less than the $3 billion figure.

HALF OF ALL IMPORTS to South America last year came from the U. S. A. Our Latin neighbors paid $4.7 billion for the purchases, mostly in cash. In turn, we bought $3.7 billion worth of goods from our southern neighbors. To pinpoint it, we buy 44.2 percent of their products, and 48.8 percent of their imports came from us.

This trade with Latin America is almost as large as our trade with Europe, reports Congressman Omar Bureson of Anson, an authority on South American affairs. Our neighbors to the south buy 35 percent of our auto exports and trucks, a third of our exports of chemicals and electrical machinery, iron and steel mill products, and 17 percent of our exports of foodstuffs.

This record accentuates the importance of our relations with our neighbors in the western hemisphere.

TUG OF WAR TACTICS appear in the Senate mill, as maneuvering to act on the House-approved Alaskan Statehood bill is shaping up. Senator Knowland, Republican leader, wants no part of Alaskan statehood unless he is assured a Hawaii bill follows. If not so promised, then he says an amendment will be offered to tie the two together in one package.

To further complicate the picture, Senator Eastland, who opposes both, threatens to offer as an amendment to the statehood bill the controversial bill to curb the powers of the Supreme Court. And that would be like waving a red flag in front of the liberals who unanimously favor Alaskan statehood but unceremonious liberal opinions by the Supreme Court. And it could set off a talkathon that could smash the whole works. The Senate liberals foresee two CIO-minded liberal Senators from Alaska if it is admitted.

Please help elect Gordon Griffin District Attorney. Pol. Adv.

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner of Health

New bread standards go into effect July 1, to assure that you get the kind of bread you pay for.

After that date, if you buy a loaf of cinnamon-raisin bread, it doesn't have raisins in it, the baker is subject to action.

The standards will require all bread and rolls to be properly labeled so as to truthfully reflect their ingredients and nutritious qualities.

Patterned after federal food standards, they will be administered by the State Health Department's Food and Drug Division. A majority of the baking industry fully supports the standards.

Labeling means much more than a colorful wrapping around a loaf of bread. It includes, among other things, the advertising claims made by the baker for his product.

A food is misbranded when its labeling is false or misleading in any particular, if it is offered for sale under the name of another food, or if it is an imitation of another food (unless its label bears in prominent type the word "imitation" and immediately thereafter the name of the food imitated).

Bread is also mislabeled if it purports to be or is represented as a food for which a "standard of identity" has been described and it fails to conform to that standard.

Standards not only protect consumers in the marketplace; they also protect honest manufacturers by assuring fair competition. The consumer may select and serve standardized foods with complete confidence in their composition and integrity.

The law's basic requirements for clean handling, informative labeling and no adulteration gives consumers an insight into the purity, wholesomeness and nutritious quality of the product.

Bread labels must show net weight or numerical count of the product, such as "net weight, one pound," or one dozen doughnuts, and the name of the product such as "Smith's Enriched Bread," or "Jones' Raisin Bread."

While there is no specific requirements as to type size, the standards do provide that the label shall be considered false if the information is not prominently displayed in such a manner that it can be easily read.

You, as a consumer of bread and rolls, can help make the new standards work by carefully reading the label on the bread you buy.

OPTOMETRY: The Art and Science of Visual Care

Are YOU horse and buggy?

Some people still hold to Horse and Buggy ideas — even about their vision. Some think vision examinations are a simple 5-minute procedure. Actually it takes almost an hour, sometimes more, to make a complete visual examination. That's simply because the demands on vision today are totally different than 50 years ago.

An ethical optometrist always examines not only for present seeing problems, but for problems that might arise in the future. Preventive care is a fundamental part of any profession — especially OPTOMETRY.

NEW HOME GARDEN INSECT GUIDE AVAILABLE

College Station — A good home garden can be a source of much pleasure and reducer of the family food budget. But both the pleasure and saving can be greatly reduced by harmful insects if proper control is not exercised, says Texas extension entomologists.

With few exceptions, vegetable insect control is a preventive program. Control measures should begin before insects appear in damaging numbers. Dusts and sprays, in most instances, are equally effective.

A new leaflet has been released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service entitled "Texas Guide for Controlling Insects on Vegetable Crops." It has a thorough rundown on insects that might harm almost any vegetable crop. It includes information on home garden mixtures, methods of application and precautions and contains a chart outlining a dust or spray program for controlling vegetable insects.

This leaflet should prove most helpful to all home gardeners. It can be obtained from local county agents or the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for Leaflet-225.

Vicksburg—Famous Battleground

ILLINOIS MONUMENT—Vicksburg, Miss.

In Mississippi's Warren County hills, high above the Mighty Mississippi River, 1323.63 acres comprising the Vicksburg National Military Park form a crescent on the north, east and south sides of the city of Vicksburg.

Over 30 miles of scenic roadways traverse this rugged area which marks the site of one of the most famous engagements of the Civil War. For fifteen months, Mississippi was an important theatre of the Civil War in the West. The City of Vicksburg, overlooking the Mississippi River was the most important Confederate stronghold in the area.

The story of the campaign, siege and defense of Vicksburg is recorded in bronze, iron, marble and granite on 898 historical tablets, 274 markers, and 230 monuments, marking the positions of the various military organizations engaged. As the visitor stands reading a marker, he is facing in the same direction as the troops whose activities are thus recorded. Because of the unique topography, and the markers and monuments which have been erected, the military operations at most points are easily understood.

Situated on high ground partially occupied by Union forces during the siege of the city is the Vicksburg National cemetery, considered one of the most beautiful of the last resting places of our soldier dead. The Cemetery contains approximately 120 acres, with 17,519 interments, of which 12,912 are unknown soldiers.

Surrounded everywhere by monuments to its historic past, Vicksburg is still a thriving, modern city of some 32,500 population. Principal employer is the Corps of Engineers of the United States Army, employing at peak season over 2,400 persons at the Waterways Experiment Station. Thousands of visitors each year visit this station to observe studies in operation such as small-scale models of dams, channel improvements, flood-control work, full-scale models of flexible airfield pavements, and certain phases of military engineering. Vicksburg's diversified industries include hardwood lumber, chemicals, mixed feeds, house trailers, towboats, heavy duty equipment, and off-shore drilling rigs. These off-shore rigs for oil drilling are constructed at Vicksburg and floated 400 miles down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico.
