Thoughts From Our Pastors

Robert Stumpf Seventh Day Adventist Church

Almost twenty centuries ago the Son of the living God walked directly, into sin's most concentrated radiation and let it take His life.

The accumulated guilt of the ages released its deadly contamination over calvary. And He whom made the atom permitted Himself to be nailed to the tower at ground zero; He allowed unfeeling men to trigger the cruel device we call the cross. But by that act, He broke the chain reaction. He broke the power of sin. And the people said, "He saved others; himself he cannot save.

Could it be that a tragic nuclear accident could help us understand?

It was May 21, 1946. The place - Los Alamos, New Mexico. A young and daring scientist was carrying out a necessary experiment in preparation for the atomic test to be conducted in the waters of the South Pacific atoll at Bikini.

He had successfully performed such an experiment many times before. In his effort to determine the amount of U235 necessary for a chain reaction - scientists call it the critical mass - he would push two hemispheres of uranium toward each other.

Then, just as the mass became critical he would push them apart with his screwdriver, instantly stopping the chain reaction. But that day, just as the material became critical, the screwdriver slipped! The hemispheres of uranium came too close together.

Instantly the room was filled with a dazzling bluish haze. Young Louis Slotin tore the two hemispheres apart with his bare hands !

By, this instant, self-forgetful daring, he saved the lives of the seven other persons in the room. He said to one of his colleagues a little later, as they waited for a car to take them to the hospital, "You'll come through all right. But I haven't the faintest chance myself."

It was only too true.

Nine days later he died in terrible agony.

Tell me. Did that nuclear accident demonstrate that now, since that accident, it is perfectly safe to fool around with hemispheres of uraniumeven with our bare hands? Or did it demonstrate the deadliness of nuclear radiation?

And what of Calvary? Did it demonstrate that now, since the cross, it is safe to fool around with sin? Or does the fact that sin took the life of the Son of God demonstrate for all time the deadly nature of sin?

Recognizing Those Who Have Helped Shape Local History Mrs. Tom Rutherford

Along with all the other activities that keep her busy, Mrs. Tom (Alline) Rutherford, has written the Whon News for the two county newspapers for the past 52 years, beginning in June of 1941.

During those years she has seen many changes in Whon and in this entire area.

Alline was born in Brown County near Brookesmith but the family moved to what she calls "This part of the world" (the Whon area), when she was a small child. Her parents were Sammie and Bertha Smith Shields. She attended school at Whon and recalls when there were 4 teachers and 150 students. She fondly remembers her teachers were sisters, Learlee and Thelma Casey

In 1932 she married Tom Rutherford in Maretta, Oklahoma. He was the son of. George and Lula (Cooper) Rutherford of the Rockwood community and also attended the Whon school.

Mrs. Rutherford spoke of the time when Whon boasted of three stores, a blacksmith shop, laundry and barber shop and a gin which was operated by the late Ed Tisdale. It had two churches and a post office which was the last Whon business to close, that taking place about three years ago.

Alline was assistant postmaster there for 10 years retiring in 1978 and then served as substitute postmaster until the facility closed its doors forever.

She drove a school bus in the Whon School District for 4 years and then 19 years in the Santa Anna School District after the Whon school closed and the students transferred to Santa Anna. After delivering the students to school she was not allowed to drive the bus back home until the after school route. Not wanting to shuttle a car back and forth she chose to stay in town and work during those hours. She was employed at various times at each of the three grocery stores here at that time. She also worked as a nurses aide at the hospital. She retired from the bus driving job at the end of the 1978 spring term spending her time after that helping her husband on the farm.

In May of 1984, Tom Rutherford died of a heart attack that struck him down while the couple was out checking cows and calves. She took over the operation of the farm with the assistance of their children, Thomas Ray, who lives in New Hampshire, Patsy June Smith of Abilene, Hilary of Coleman, Loyd who lives on the Taylor Ranch in the Trickham area and

Linda Wheeler of LaGrange. After her busy days are finished Alline relaxes with her crocheting, a hobby she picked up not wanting to be idle in the evenings. She shared some of her beautiful work with this writer, for which I am deeply grateful. She enjoys a close-knit family that includes 10 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Stewardson Haithcock, Stewardson Vows Exchanged In Home Ceremony

Karen Haithcock, daughter of Penny Haithcock and Ward Stewardson, son of Burgess and Gayle Stewardson were united in marriage on Jan. 7, 1994 in the home of the groom's parents near Rockwood. Dr. Clyde Majors of Brownwood, interim pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Santa Anna performed the ceremony. Matron of honor was Toni Stewardson, sister-in-law of the groom. Best man was Judd Stewardson, brother of the groom. The ceremony took place in front of the fireplace which was decorated with white poinsettia. A reception followed with a Mexican supper being served to those present. The couple honeymooned in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Santa Anna News, Thursday, January 20, 1994- Page 5 AISE Looking For Host Families For Foreign Students

The American Intercultural Student Exchange Program announces the opening of foreign exchange student placement for the 1994-95 school year.

Students from ages 15 to 17 from 31 countries are seeking host families for the next school year.

Gary Absher, director of the AISE program for our area advises this is the best time to pick students. This allows seven months for the exchange student and parents to communicate with the host family.

The excitement of exchanging photos, learning each others customs, explaining family rules are all part of the bonding that happens during the next seven months. The student is not only exposed to the 'American Way of Life' but is exposed to Christianity and the family unit.

The exposure to these young people actually changes my life, according to Absher, and the influence we have on these young people actually changes the world.

Students come to America with their own spending money and health insurance. There is also a $50 per month tax deduction during the time the students are placed.

If you would like to know more about the program or if you are prepared to share the kind of love that lasts a lifetime, please call Gary Absher at 915-348-9106.
