Getting Acquainted With USA By Spending School Year In S'Anna

Three students from other countries are getting acquainted with America, and Santa Anna, Texas in particular. They are foreign exchange students studying and living here this school year under the auspices of the American Intercultural Student Exchange program, coordinated locally by Gay Absher.

Horacio Tavares comes to Santa Anna from near Cuiba-Mt., Brazil, a city of about 700,000 to learn about life in the United States. An eleven-grade student, Horacio speaks fluent English and has studied French. Portuguese is his native language and he also speaks Spanish. He comes from a ranching background. His father raises cattle and farms soybeans. Nathan and Patsy Starr are Horacio's host parents.

Horacio says he is familiar with small towns as he once lived in a city of about 15,000 population. His favorite pastime is reading, and he is also a bicycling enthusiast.

While at SAHS he plans to get involved in the tennis team. He has already taken part in the local activity of climbing the Santa Anna Mountain and enjoyed that outing very much. He says school is different here as he has some choice of subjects whereas in his home country students are told what subjects they will take each year.

Horacio is impressed with the friendliness of the people of Santa Anna and the way everyone wants to help.

After his school year here he will return to Brazil for one more year of secondary school before entering a university to study agriculture.

Carolina Seches also comes from Brazil. Her hometown is the largest city in South America, Sao Paulo, Brazil, with a population of 12 million. She is, however, fascinated with life in our small town and also comments on the friendliness and helpfulness of the people she has met.

Carolina, also an 11th grade student, is residing with Garland and Phyllis Fuller while attending SAHS for the 1992-93 school year. Aside from her studies, she plans to play basketball. Already accepting responsibilities, last Friday night she was one of those junior class members working in the concession stand during the football game.

Portuguese, of course, is her native language, and she also speaks Spanish and has studied French. Her father is a doctor and her mother a teacher.

Carolina remarks that some of our American food is new to her, but she is familiar with Pizza Hut and McDonalds as they both have locations in her hometown.

She will also return to Brazil for one more year of high school before entering a university. Carolina has plans to study law.

Jaromir Zdrzil hails from Czechoslovakia and is classified as a senior at Santa Anna High School. His host parents are Gary and Teresa Absher. He comes from the 4th largest city in his home country, Ostrava, which the largest industrial city in Czechoslovakia.

He lives with his mother who is an investment counselor. A sister also lives in Czechoslovakia and another sister in Germany.

Speaking in English, (a little more difficult for him than for the other two) Jaromir describes Santa Anna as a very nice place. He likes small cities and has enjoyed meeting the people here. Jaromir is a sports enthusiast and has had training in Judo. While here he plans to try the game of football.

With his size and enthusiasm, the team will probably appreciate his help.

Jaromir has studied the Russian and German languages as well as English, and is taking a class in Spanish at SAHS.

Jaromir says his visa is only good until July and he plans to return to Czechoslovakia then and get a new visa so he can return to the United States to attend a university here.

PTO NAMES NEW OFFICERS

Electricity! How Lucky We are!

By Shirley Rankin
I was sitting in the living room listening to the radio while a storm was going through the county. The electricity was flickering off and on. I was at first thinking how good our power company was to keep our electricity on during a storm and was thinking back over the years when there were times when it did go off and stay off for a while. But in a short time it always came back on, maybe in a few hours but we always got it back. It seemed like most of the time it was at night so it really didn't matter because I didn't need the light to sleep.

Then I got to thinking about when I was a kid. The good old days, when I was still at home with mom and dad. The one thing I always remember when the electricity went off at night was them telling us about when they were kids and didn't have electricity. Then the stories started. My parents told us that they had to do their homework at night with the light of a coal oil lamp. Of course as a child, the question would come up, why didn't you do it before it got dark? Don't every ask that. The answer, well of course, was "we had chores to do". First farming to be done, chickens to feed and put up, cows to milk, etc. It was dark when they got in to do their homework. You know I can remember as I was sitting there listening to the stories I had this picture in my mind. It was kind of like being back in those days of my parents' childhood. I could see them sitting in a room, dark over most of the room, with a lamp on a table. The table and chairs were all handmade out of wood from elm trees. There was a fireplace glowing with the shotgun mounted upon the wall and Grandpa standing there with a pipe in his hand. Grandma standing over an old wood stove. When I look at my mother sitting at the table doing her homework, to my surprise I see me. Then I look at Grandma and Grandpa and it was, of course, Mom and Dad. One of the things I notice is the floors are dirt floors, kind of back in the days of Little House on the Prairie. Then in the middle of my parents story when I realize that it wasn't that far back, I laugh and they look at me like "what is so funny?"

Then it seemed like the lights always came back on at the end of their stories and we were back to the real world, as they say. Mom goes on to her household duties and Dad goes back to his easy chair and watches TV. And I went back to my homework in a very well lighted room. As I sat there, trying to get back into my homework, that image was still floating in my mind and in the background I hear

Jim See First Frenzy Winner

Jim Wesley See has been declared the winner in the first week of Mountaineer Football Frenzy contest. He won by having only four misses of the eighteen games. In placing games on the ads last week, we mistakenly put two on the Simmons Feed Store ad. Since some one found one of those while others made picks from both, we only thought it fair to throw that one out and leave eighteen for the total. Benito Diaz placed just out of the money with five misses.

The games that seemed to give the most problems to the largest group of players were Panther Creek-Cherokee and Cleveland-Indianapolis.

- Scores of last weeks contest games were:
- HPU 42-Sul Ross 21
  - Alabama 25-Vanderbilt 8
  - Abilene High 42-Stephenville 21
  - Menard 13-Ingram 12
  - Tampa Bay 23-Phoenix 7
  - Tulane 13-SMU 12
  - Bronte 26-Cross Plains 6
  - Robert Lee 39-Miles 0
  - Coleman 21-Winters 7
  - Cherokee 26-Panther Creek 14
  - Indianapolis 14-Cleveland 3
  - Eldorado 14-Eden 6
  - Bangs 35-Santa Anna 12
  - Air Force 30-Rice 21
  - Abilene Cooper 20-Brownwood 0
  - Buffalo 40-Rams 7
  - Sterling City 18-Water Valley 7
  - Tulsa 28-U. of Houston 25
  - Denver 17-Raiders 13

Be sure to get your entry in for this weeks games to be found on page 4.

Alice Anna Spillman

Recently I had the opportunity to visit a wonderland for people who love books. By the way, there are plenty of us. The place was full and lots of people were going and coming. The parking lot was full. Half Price Books has 10 locations in the Dallas Fort Worth area. Everyday the price is 1/2 of the original price of the book but we hit the 1/2 of 1/2 price! They also buy books in good shape. Just wanted you to know about this if you happen to be going to the Metroplex. The library will have a map you may want to copy.

We picked up several paperbacks of all types.

Some of you are reading the Earth's Children series by Jean M. Auel. The library now has a set—two are paperbacks and two hardbacks.

There are some new Louis L'Amour westerns and The Walking Drum. This is an adventure of the 12 century, across Europe, Russia, Constantinople to Asia. Certainly not the American west subject L'Amour usually portrays.

Since we can't keep up with Ken Follett's The Pillars of the Earth there is now a second copy.

The Wolf and the Buffalo is an Elmer Kelton book. A black man signed up with the army to become a buffalo soldier. His enemy was the Indians. Then he met a Comanche warrior. Each is seeking freedom.

A Time to Kill is by John Grisham who wrote The Pelican Brief and The Firm. The author is a lawyer and his story concerns a lawyer and his battle in court and in community. The place is Clanton, Mississippi and there is racial violence.

The Novel James A. Michener writes about his own world. A novelist who 'must' write a final book about the community mystery. A reader helps solve it all.

Please return all these books when you check them out so others can enjoy.

I didn't allow myself even a slight pause in the children's section. There were boys and girls there having a lot of fun! Maybe next summer before reading club.

Were you aware that this is the 50th anniversary of the introduction of Little Golden Books? The original books were 25 cents and The Poky Little Puppy was one of the first. It has sold 14 million copies. There will be special re-issues of the first 12 titles. Do you have an original 1942 Doctor Dan the Bondage Man?

The Big Country InterLibrary Loan sent a box of 15 new books last weeks. In the meanwhile there are plenty of books to check out.

The Horned Toad Conservation Society is making a count of these creatures. The society believes they are nearly extinct in Texas. Write the society at Box 122, Austin, Texas 78767. There have been some horned toads in our yard and surely there are others around. Let's give those who are counting, a big boost.

Blessed

"Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought; but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered." Romans 8:26

I heard a song the other day titled "Thank God for Unanswered Prayer." Most of the time we don't know what to pray for. We think we know what is best for us but we don't. God can see from the beginning and also the ending, and so He has a great advantage over our limited knowledge. I found this in a book I was reading, titled "Blessed", author unknown.

"He prayed for strength that he might achieve;
 He was made weak that he might obey.
 He prayed for wealth that he might do greater things;
 He was given infirmity that he might do better things,
 He prayed for riches that he might be happy;
 He was given poverty that might be wise.
 He prayed for power that he might have the praise of men;
 He was given infirmity that he might feel the need of God.
 He prayed for all things that he might enjoy life;
 He was given life that he might enjoy all things.
 He has received nothing that he asked for—all that he hoped for;
 His prayer was answered—he was most blessed."

God has always answered our prayers and always will. We have to be able to see the answers as well as receive the blessing that is always there.

The Way We Were

September 5, 1952

The Santa Anna Volunteer Fire Department voted at their regular meeting Monday night to purchase a uniform for the Santa Anna Band. Cost will be $54.00.

A light shower Monday evening has apparently helped to cool the above normal temperatures we have been having the past month.

Approximately 250 persons attended the annual meeting of the Santa Anna Coop Gin last Friday August 29.

All automobiles and trailers registered in the State of Texas are due to have passed an official inspection not later than Saturday, September 6.

The Santa Anna Mountainers began their fall practice season Monday with a large group of 32 boys reporting.

Mrs. Jackie Turner of Brady was honored with a bridal shower at the Rockwood lunch room Thursday afternoon, August 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Dixon enjoyed having all their children home Sunday.

The 4th annual reunion of the descendants of Mrs. W. A. Brandon was held at the Baptist Encampment Grounds on Lake Brownwood Saturday night and Sunday.

Saluting People Who Have Helped Shape Local History

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen

Ralph and Mae Allen play a very important part in the history of the Leaday-Gouldbusk communities.

Ralph was born one mile west of Leaday, Texas, August 8, 1908, the son of G.R. and Mary Allen. The Allens lived in Leaday till 1914, then they moved back to Grape Creek and the Padgett Ranch. For the next ten years they lived on Padgett and Day Ranch land in the Leaday community. In the late 1920's, Mr. Allen bought a filling station in Gouldbusk, and the family lived in the Gouldbusk community for several years.

In 1928, Mr. Allen leased six sections of land near Shep, in Taylor County, and the family moved to Sweetwater till 1930. It was while working in Shep that Ralph met Mae Self, and the couple married on March 29, 1931. Ralph's father moved back to Valera where he operated a store. His sons moved their sheep to leases near Valera and Leaday. Ralph and Mae lived in Valera till 1932 when they moved back to Leaday.

In 1932 Ralph took a job driving a school bus from Elm Creek to Leaday, known then as the Miller School. During this time four schools consolidated at the site that came to be known as Leaday.....the School at Grape Creek, Miller, Red Wire, and Leaday. There were about 100 students in the consolidated school.

Ralph's father owned a four-drop shearing machine in the late 1920's, and his sons had become accomplished sheep shearers. In 1936 Ralph built an eight-drop shearing machine and began shearing for area sheepmen. Mae would cook for everyone and take care of the camp while Ralph sheared with the crew. They sheared in Coleman, Concho and McCulloch counties. Some of the families they sheared for were the Becks, Hornes, Brysons, Norrises, and Taylors. Ralph remembers that one year his crew contracted to shear 30,000 head of sheep.

Just last year at Christmas, one of Ralph's grandsons gave him a plaque which said: TOP HAND AWARD...In honor of Ralph Allen, believed to be the only man to tag 615 sheep in one day. McGregor, Texas, 1932. (This was with his dad's four-drop machine).

The Allens moved to their present home in 1943. The family owns land in the Gouldbusk area, but had been leasing Day and Padgett land for about 75 years. Ralph and Mae are one of four families who still live in tenant houses built by the Day Ranch Land Company in the early 1900's.

When the construction of Ivie Reservoir threatened to cover the original Day Ranch Land Headquarters, Mae persuaded the builders to let the Allens move the old ranch house, which was built in 1905. The couple went to considerable trouble and expense to move the house, and are presently restoring and remodeling it. Ralph and Mae plan to move into the home when the remodeling is finished.

Ralph and Mae, with the help of their son and grandsons, do most of their own work. They still ride horses and drench sheep - and all the other jobs that go with ranch life. They both love ranch work, and it is their favorite pastime, as well as their work. They have fond memories of when there were rodeos held in Leaday. There would be horse races, and the winner of the race would get a sack of feed. Mae used to ride in the flag race at the Leaday Rodeo. (There are some who contend that flag racing started in Leaday, Texas.) They are active members of the Gouldbusk Rodeo Association, and Ralph and Mae have attended the Coleman Rodeo every year since its first performance.

The Allens have two children, Jerry Allen of Mozelle, and Joan Jones of Voss. Another son, Kenneth, died in 1968. They have four grandsons who graduated from Mozelle High School and two granddaughters who graduated from Santa Anna High School. They have four great-grandchildren.

All of the Allens' family, with the exception of one granddaughter, live and work in Coleman County.

We are proud to salute the Allens as some of those who have helped to shape the history of our area of Texas. We also thank their daughter Joan for her contribution of this article.

Just this past July a nephew wanted to see if Ralph could still shear sheep, so Ralph got in the pen and sheared one while the nephew took pictures.

TEAMS and TAAS Test Will Be Given October 27, 28 and 29

Individuals who are no longer in school and who wish to take or re-take the exit level TEAMS or TAAS tests may pick up a registration packet at the Santa Anna ISD Counselor's office.

The completed forms must be received in Iowa no later than 5:00 p.m. October 6, 1992. The tests will be given October 27, 28 and 29.

Passing the tests will aid in meeting minimum graduation requirements.

Questions concerning out of school examine taking should be directed to Texas Education Agency, (512) 463-9536, Division of Instructional Outcomes Assessment.

Crime Stoppers Crime Of The Week

Crime Stoppers is seeking information this week about the theft of hunting equipment taken from a deer lease during the later part of June, 1992.

A deer blind and stand, a deer feeder and a propane heater were taken from a deer lease in the Blackwell Crossing area near the Brown County line.

Pecan Weevil Control Time Approaching

By Kerry Shropshire, CEA-AG
The pecan weevil is one of, if not the most damaging pests of pecans in parts of Central and South Texas. This insect lays eggs in the developing nut and the resultant larvae devour the nutmeat. The damage is most easily recognized by the round 1/8" diameter exit holes that the larvae make in the shells of empties nuts.

Most of the weevil's life cycle is spent in the soil. Adult weevils begin emerging from the soil in late July and early August; however, spraying at the first sign of pecan weevils is not recommended, simply because it is not cost effective. Dr. Marvin Harris, pecan entomologist at Texas A&M University reports that early weevil emergence is always only a tiny sampling of what is yet to come.

Like clockwork in affected Central and South Texas locations, a handful of weevils begin emerging in early August but emergence doesn't begin in earnest until near August 20 with a historical average of 10% emergence on August 22. After August 22, emergence increases rapidly with 50% emergence by September 1, 90% emergence by September 10 and 100% emergence by October 1.

Granted, the weevils that emerge in late July and early August will puncture a few nuts and cause them to drop, but the loss will be minor in relation to the cost of an insecticide spray. Also, this early nut drop won't contribute to weevil reproduction since the weevil aren't able to deposit eggs until the nuts reach the gel stage -- in late August.

Whether early emerging pecan weevils merit a spray or not is a mute point to those who spray to control the hickory shuckworm in early to mid August. The shuckworm spray will kill many of the early weevils just as the later sprays targeting weevils will do double duty to kill many later developing hickory shuckworm.

To get the most cost effective pecan weevil control, producers

Ten Free Live Oak Trees

Ten free live oak trees will be given to each person who joins the National Arbor Day Foundation during September 1992.

The free trees are part of the non-profit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

"These magnificent wide-spreading trees will be picturesque additions to your landscape," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said. "They were selected for this campaign because of the shade and special beauty they will give your home. Live oaks grow rapidly when young and may live to be centuries old."

The trees will be shipped post-paid at the right time for planting between October 15 and December 10 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

Members also receive a subscription to the Foundation's news magazine, Arbor Day, which includes regular features about tree planting and care.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to TEN LIVE OAKS, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by September 10, 1992.

Electricity! —Continued from page 1

the TV and as my mother passes through I asked another question of her childhood, "Did you have TV?" The answer, "no not for a long time". Which brought on another question from a curious child's mind, what did you do? Then I heard how they listened to a battery operated radio that had stories on it just like TV but to see the picture you had to use your imagination. I can remember finding a radio station that still had an interest to me, because it put me back in the days that my parents were children and as usual my imagination went wild. Now days in 1992 children have machines to do their imagination for them. I laugh as I wrote that line because what else am I using about a computer to type this story. So how lucky we are that in the past someone didn't stay with how things were in the days of their childhood but they invested in things to be. Not so much better in ways, but easier for us. So how lucky we all are for the things we have.

Dragons Fired Up Against Mountaineers

The Santa Anna Mountaineers are looking to have a better time of it this week against Rising Star than they did when they hosted Bangs last week. The Dragons arrived in town last Friday with fire in their eyes and proved that they meant business by downing the Mountaineers 35-12.

The Dragons exploded for three running touchdowns in the first quarter.

The Mountaineers were able to come back in the second period with two touchdowns of their own, but that was to be the total of their scoring for the evening.

Paul Morris scored first for the Black and Gold with an 11-yard run to cross the goal line.

An 11-yard pass from Vicente Frausto to Tony DeLeon was the other Mountaineer TD which cut Bang's halftime lead to 20-12.

Class 2-AA Bangs, with a team

full of seniors and lots of experience, went on to score two more times in the second half to put the game out of reach.

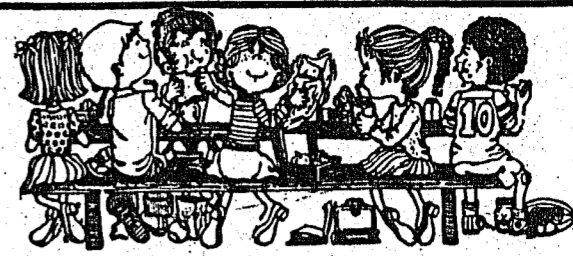

Bangs lost one fumble while Santa Anna lost three fumbles and threw two interceptions.

Santa Anna will be looking for their first win Friday night when they play host to Rising Star here at 8:00 p.m.

The Rising Star Wildcats fell to Rio Vista last Friday in a close 12-7 season opener.

On graduation, the top 34 will receive $1,750 scholarships and an additional $500 in financial assistance if they enroll in The University of Texas at San Antonio.

The program is the only one of its kind among the more than 20,000 Rotary Clubs around the world. It's being funded by San Antonio Rotarians Sam and Art Riklin in memory of their parents.

Sequel Rights

If the legislature agrees with the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, there will be more full professors teaching undergraduates in state universities beginning in the Fall of 1993.

The plan, proposed by Commissioner of Education Kenneth Ashworth, would reallocate faculty salaries at institutions that put more emphasis on assigning top teachers to freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes.

The idea is not new. It reflects a nation-wide movement to make colleges and universities more accountable and to answer critic's charges that undergraduate students are being short-changed.

However, to make the change possible will require increasing budgets at school that emphasize undergraduate teaching and penalizing those with graduate research programs.

If approved, the plan would reduce annual appropriations for a school like the University of Houston by an estimated $1.6 million because 50% of its 22,000 students are in graduate school. Other big losers would be the University of North Texas, Texas Woman's University, U. T. Austin and U. T. Dallas, each of which has major graduate programs serving urban needs.

Schools likely to benefit most are Texas A&M, Southwest Texas State University, U.T. San Antonio and U.T. El Paso.

A DISPATCH FROM THE UNIVERSITY WORLD

The University Of Texas System
NEWS
By Jack Maguire

A New Texas "First"?

Was Texas home of the first human-inhabitants of North America? Scientists aren't ready to say yet, but they're inclined to believe that one of the earliest habitations on this continent was 10 miles northwest of Austin.

Archaeologists at The University of Texas at Austin have uncovered the complete skeleton of an Ice Age Woman, tools and other artifacts leading them to conclude that a settlement existed on the site as long as 11,000 years ago!

The skeleton, the oldest female human ever found in Texas, was discovered in 1982. Studies of the skeleton and tools found near her grave indicate that she lived thousands of years before the building of the Egyptian pyramids.

Now a decade later, a team of 25 scholars is back at the site at what one U.T. researcher says is "virtually the whole archaeological record of Texas."

Publish or Perish?

What's the best school from which to get a law education in America? According to one recent study, it depends on how often their professors write articles for leading law journals, not how well they teach or how their graduates succeed at the bar.

On this basis, the University of Chicago and Yale University took first and second place. No Texas school was even in the running!

Fringe Benefit

Having a college or university in the community can be a financial boom to public schools.

Midland-Odessa taxpayers discovered that recently when the number of minority students exceeded the number of Anglos. The school districts weren't prepared to meet the educational needs of this changing student population.

The University of Texas of the Permian Basin in Odessa was prepared however. It created a special program to provided bilingual teachers to the area schools.

A grant from the United States Department of Education enabled the university to subsidize tuitions, fees, and books for undergraduate Hispanic students seeking training in English as a second language. These students are helping out as teachers in local schools.

Cheering Section

In San Antonio, the 500 members of the Downtown Rotary Club decided to do something to encourage students to stay in high school and go on to college.

Schools likely to benefit most are Texas A&M, Southwest Texas State University, U.T. San Antonio and U.T. El Paso.

Checkoffs Fund TV Program To Educate Doctors About Beef and Pork in Diet

For the first time in history, the meat industry will sponsor a television program aimed at physicians.

"To have the meat industry develop a physician television program was unthinkable just five years ago. This type of innovative approach is what we need to confirm to physicians that lean meat fits in a healthy diet," said Meat Board Chairman Robert Rebholz.

The 24-minute program puts into video form components of the Meat Board's medical continuing education program initiated in 1991.

The program will air October 3 cream on Sunday evening.

Whon News

By Mrs. Tom Rutherford

On Tuesday of the past week, Mr. Douglas Avant of Brady and Mr. James Avant of Coleman were dinner guests of their mother, Mrs. Pearl Avant in Santa Anna. Douglas took his mother to the Coleman doctor Tuesday morning for check up and she had a good report.

My daughter, Mrs. Patsy Smith of Abilene was with me Thursday night and we were in Abilene on Friday to see my doctor. So thankful for a good report. I am doing real well and unless something develops I was dismissed for three months. Patsy with with me Friday night. Also my sons, Hilary Rutherford of Coleman and Loyd Rutherford were Saturday dinner guests with us. Patsy returned home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Fitzpatrick of Abilene were here with his father, Mr. Graham Fitzpatrick Saturday. Don, his wife and father Graham were trying to catch a horse. The horse gave some problems and did not want to cooperate. He ran into Don's wife and knocked her down and stepped on her knee. She was rushed back to Abilene. Graham told me Sunday morning she was painfully hurt but no serious injuries which certainly could have been.

Along with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Deal of Weatherford and some of their children were here on the Cozart farm during the weekend doing some bird hunting. Possibly others of the Cozart family were present and also friends. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Deal are owners of the Cozart house. We were so glad to see Mrs. Billie Joyce (Cozart) Deal was physically able to be here following a long illness of days and months past.

Ora Rutherford of Bangs was with me Thursday. My son Loyd Rutherford came over and thanks to them so very much. They moved my yard.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Rex and Tincy Turney of Santa Anna for the nice pears. Rex brought me Saturday afternoon. I continue to say thanks to every one for all the nice things they do for me.

Hilary Rutherford of Coleman, son Rocky and son in law Bobby Boatright and Loyd Rutherford came down Monday morning and sprayed the cattle. Loyd and Hilary had lunch with me. Rocky and Bobby had to return to Coleman for other appointments. Ora Rutherford of Bangs along with my son Loyd were with me late Monday afternoon.

Mr. Neil Fitzpatrick of near Odessa was here with his father Mr. Graham Fitzpatrick Saturday. He was here drenching sheep.

Mr. Jamie Lee Morris, son of Mr. Floyd Morris was with his father, Mr. Floyd Morris over the weekend.
