NUMBER 32

Firemen's Convention to be Here Tuesday

School to Start Mon., Aug. 30

Members of the Board of Education of the Santa Anna Independent School District met in regular session Tuesday night and set Monday, August 30, as the day for the beginning of the 1954-55 school term. They also employed three new teachers for the school year.

Employed as band director was Lewis Graves, who served in this capacity at Lampasas the past year. Graves replaces Carl Gilkerson, who has accepted a position at Decatur, Texas.

Mrs. Gene Conner was employed to teach Commercial subjects in the high school. She comes from Miles, where she has taught the past three years in this field. She replaces Mrs. I. Williamson who resigned during the summer months.

Mrs. John W. Taylor was employed as a teacher in the primary department of the elementary school. She has taught at Rockwood for the past three years and will assume the duties formerly cared for by Mrs. J. Frank Turner, who resigned soon after school was out last spring.

The Board also let a contract to the Haynes Brothers for the construction of a new band hall, to be built on the south end of the gymnasium. It will be 55 feet by 36 feet. The present band hall will be made into an agriculture building. The Board also sold the remaining two buildings on the old Ward School location to Artie Barnett of Coleman.

Fred Neely Dies Of Injuries Received In Accident With Train

Fred Neely, who was 20 years old on July 26, met with an accident on July 27, from which he died at 10:00 a. m. July 28, at Muleshoe, Texas.

He had left here less than two weeks previously and was working for an uncle at Muleshoe. He was a nephew of the late Wallace Collins, Sr.

The accident occurred as he was driving a tractor across a railroad, and apparently because of noise from nearby irrigating wells, did not hear an approaching train.

The tractor went dead on the track and when struck shot several feet into the air and was demolished. In the impact, Neely suffered a crushed skull and numerous broken bones. His mother died when he was a small boy and his aunt, Mrs. Hannah Collins raised him. She had the body brought back here by a Brownwood funeral home for burial.

Graveside services were held at 8:00 p. m. Friday, July 30, in the Santa Anna Cemetery. Elder W. W. Fields, pastor of the Church of God in Christ, of Coleman, officiated.

JACK PAYNE WRITES FROM WAXAHACHIE

Rev. Jack Payne, former pastor of the First Methodist Church, dropped us a short note with his renewal to the Santa Anna News, stating that his wife, Lillie, had undergone emergency major surgery in Georgetown Tuesday, July 27, but that she was resting well enough now. He plans to move her to his father's home at Valley Mills, within the next few days.

Luther Talley arrived home early Sunday morning from Camp Carson, Colo., for a visit with his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Talley. He seems recovered from his serious illness. On August 10th he will report to Camp Carson and after five days will sail for service in Korea.

Rites For Carol E. Smith At Rockwood

Graveside services were held at 3:00 p. m. Monday, August 2, at Rockwood for Carol E. Smith of Los Cruces, New Mexico, with the Rev. V. L. Nichols of Brownwood, officiating.

Funeral services had previously been held at Los Cruces. Mr. Smith met death on Thursday, July 29th at Socorro, New Mexico, while driving a trailer truck.

The truck left the road and struck a culvert, which caused the trailer to hit the cab, crushing it, inflicting multiple injuries, which brought instant death to Mr. Smith. He had to be cut from the cab.

He was born at Rockwood June 18, 1929, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, being 25 years, one month and 11 days old at the time of death.

Mr. Smith was released from service with the Army in recent months.

Mrs. Wagie Montgomery of Santa Anna was a cousin.

Pallbearers were fellow workmen of Los Cruces: Paul Hanke, Floyd Smith, Logan Pricer, Roy Marshall, Melvin Brooks and Marshall Lynch. Arrangements were in charge of the Hosch Funeral Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bivins, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bivins and Duane, attended the annual Bivins family reunion, held in Richards Park at Brady on Saturday and Sunday last. The gathering was well attended. Those coming the greatest distance were the Howard Bivins family of Layton, Utah. Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Heallen formerly of Santa Anna, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Elliott and daughter, Diane, all of Austin, were among those present.

Mrs. Lura Harrington, who has not been well for some time, is now confined to her bed at the home of her son, J. A. Harrington and wife, with whom she lives on East Bowie Ave.

The semi-annual convention of the Hill Country Firemen's Association will be held in Santa Anna Tuesday, August 10, at the school grounds. The general public is invited to attend the firemen's program for the day and are especially invited to attend the afternoon part of the program.

The convention will open at 8:00 a. m. with registration. At 9:00 a. m. all the visiting firemen will parade through the main part of town with the Santa Anna Band taking part in the parade. The parade will start at the fire station and follow the same route followed by most parades held here.

Most of the remainder of the morning will be taken up with committee reports and other business of the association. At eleven o'clock the Ladies Auxiliary will have a program in the auditorium of the elementary school.

Beginning at 1:30 p. m. memorial services will be conducted by Jay Channell, association Chaplain and special music for this services will be furnished by the Brooks Quartet of Bangs, as a courtesy of the Bangs Fire Department.

Immediately following the memorial services, G. W. Fulbright, Fire Marshal of the City of San Antonio, Texas, will deliver the principal address. Fulbright is known as a fine speaker for occasions such as this and the local fire department extends a cordial invitation to the entire citizenship to be present for these two services.

Soon after the principal address the meeting will adjourn so the departments can get ready.

The Buster Woodard and Alfred Williams families are appreciative of the good work members of the Fire Department did in extinguishing the grass fires near them on Thursday of last week. The fire started in a ditch beside the road. Several acres of land, trees and possibly both homes but for the efficient work of the members of the local fire department who responded to the call, would have been lost.

Mrs. J. M. Reynolds returned home Sunday from a three weeks visit with her son, Virgil Reynolds and wife in Waxahachie. They brought her to Stephenville and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reynolds met them there and brought her home.

to enter the pumper races, which is always a part of their convention program. There will be a six-man, three-man, and one-man race to see what department can hook fire fighting equipment up the fastest. Also a Ladies' nozzle race and water polo for the men and women is scheduled. The local department assures spectators they will get lots of fun from watching the polo games.

At 7:00 p. m. the local fire department will serve a barbecue supper to all the visiting departments and at 8:00 p. m. the Firemen's Ball will be held in the high school gym.

Emergency March Of Dimes Drive Starts August 16

An emergency March of Dimes campaign will get underway over the nation on Monday, August 16 and continue through August 31. The immediate need for the National Foundation is $20 million.

The campaign in January of this year was the most successful in polio history, yet it fell far short of the tightly budgeted needs for 1954. The need for $20 million now is to help continue the care for 67,000 patients stricken in earlier years and unknown numbers of victims of the current outbreaks. Simultaneously the cost of increasing the nation's supply of gamma globulin and financing the polio vaccine study must be met.

Reports from the National Foundation state they are now in a state of emergency because there are more polio patients getting aid now from the March of Dimes than ever before and new victims are being stricken daily. March of Dimes funds have been wiped out paying for patients, the vaccine trials and gamma globulin.

We do not plan to conduct a city wide campaign here, but anyone who failed to contribute in the first campaign, or ones who feel they would like to contribute more, are invited to do so.

You may either bring your contributions to the Santa Anna News office or deposit them in the Santa Anna National Bank to the Infantile Paralysis Fund. Every contributor, large or small, will receive due recognition.

CHICK CHATS—
Parasites Pose
Poultry Problem

Poultry growth and production are often affected by insects or external parasites. Birds become uncomfortable and can come down with disease since insects are often carriers of infection.

Pests such as the common housefly acquire nourishment by sucking up liquids. Many insects breed in filth. When a chicken eats a fly, the bird may become infected with worms and other disease conditions.

The mosquito is another harmful insect often found around the poultry house. This insect is a blood sucker and often attacks the chicken's head. The mosquito may carry fowl pox from one bird to another by this method of feeding on the head.

Lice and Mites
Lice and mites are not proved disease carriers but because of their chewing and blood-sucking attacks are injurious to a chicken's general health. These common poultry parasites cause a great deal of irritation and loss of blood. Although the harm done by lice and mites is difficult to measure, there is a substantial loss to poultrymen each year due to these parasites.

Control of insects is a matter of good sanitation and effective chemical spraying. Clean surroundings are important in keeping down insect population. Manure heaps and other filth should be cleaned up. Water breeding places of mosquitoes should be eliminated.

Chicken lice can be controlled by applying a treatment to the roosts from which fumes rise and kill the lice. A number of louse powders are effective for individual treatment. Birds are held head down and the powder is dusted into the feathers of the abdomen, under the wings and along the neck and back.

Pest Spray
As a flock treatment for mites, fleas, ticks and bedbugs, the poultry house interior can be sprayed with a pest spray. Louse powder can be used as an individual treatment for fleas.

Spraying with chemicals is the accepted way to kill pests. Sprays containing DDT or chlordane and other chemicals are valuable both for immediate effects and the residual or lasting effects on insects. Rat control is important in preventing flea infestations in the poultry flock.

By combining sanitation and spraying, you can effectively control insects and make your poultry profits better.

Know The Signs Of Life

The Texas Safety Association is talking this month about a Signs of Life traffic safety program.

The title is a catchy one, but more than that, the program is important to the business of saving lives on our streets and highways. With last years' traffic death toll at 38,000 there is certain need for improvement on the part of every individual driver and pedestrian.

The Signs of Life program focuses attention on the importance of knowing and obeying traffic signs and signals. The main point of emphasis is placed on the five basic traffic sign shapes and their individual meanings.

The Signs of Life program points up the need for a universal sense of individual responsibility in the fight for life on our highways.

A knowledge of traffic signs, signals and pavement markings will help save lives. The fact that the eight-sided traffic sign always says "Stop" and nothing else is of more than academic interest. Any driver approaching such a sign can know immediately what its message will be long before he can see the wording.

The other basic traffic sign shapes include the oblong signs that state traffic laws and regulations; diamond-shaped warning signs that tell of dangerous or unusual conditions ahead; round signs that indicate the approach to a highway-rail intersection; and the cross-buck at the highway-rail crossing.

If motorists — and pedestrians — will take to heart this month's Signs of Life message being sponsored in Texas by the Texas Safety Association, the Texas Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council, we can reduce traffic accidents.

"Know your signs of life" is good advice for everyone — the only thing that's asked is that we put that advice to work for us personally every time we use our streets and highways.

YARBOROUGH:
Thanks, Friends;
Predicts Victory

AUSTIN, Aug. 4 — Democratic gubernatorial candidate Ralph Yarborough said this week he will win the Aug. 28 second primary by a sweeping margin.

Said Yarborough, confidently: "678,000 Texans — a majority of Texans — can't be wrong."

"678,000 Texans have hammered home their belief that integrity in their government can be achieved only by a change."

"678,000 Texans have noted their distrust and disapproval of a third term for their governors. '678,000 Texas Democrats have made it crystal-clear they want a leader whose loyalty is unquestioned, who will never betray them.'"

Yarborough thanked "each and every one of the brave Texans who voted for and with me" in the first primary. He said he was "especially and particularly grateful to the citizens of Coleman County who have joined our common fight to restore decency and honor to Texas government."

Yarborough said the campaign issues now are sharply drawn. He said: "Texans can now choose for or against a tradition-breaking third term, for or against straight-forward Democratic leadership and for or against integrity in their State Capital."

The Democratic candidate repeated his thanks to "his friends of Coleman County and urged their voting support — along with the votes of all other Texans — Aug. 28."

From the bottom of my heart, I want to thank all of you who supported me in the First Primary. Your interest in good government and your enthusiasm in this fight for Texas is an inspiration to me. Together, we will continue to discuss the issues and carry on the clean, hard campaign which will result in a decisive victory for Texas in the Second Primary on August 28.

Sincerely,

Applications For Highway Patrolman Being Accepted

Austin — Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today that the Texas Highway Patrol will accept applications between now and August 25th from young Texans for appointment to the Texas Highway Patrol.

Garrison said that examinations for appointment to the Patrol recruit training school will be given at various points in the state early in September. Some thirty vacancies due to resignations, deaths and transfers will be filled from the roster of those qualified.

The Public Safety Director invites all young men who are interested in a career of law enforcement to make applications as early as possible. He pointed out that they must be between 21 and 35 years of age, inclusive, have a high school education, be at least 5 feet 8 inches in height and weight not less than two or more than three and one-half pounds per inch of height.

Garrison emphasized, too, that applicants must have been citizens of Texas for at least a year and they must be of good moral character and in perfect physical condition and able to withstand a rigid character investigation.

Application forms, Garrison said, may be obtained from all Texas Highway Patrol District Offices or by writing directly to W. J. Elliott, Chief, Texas Highway Patrol, at Austin, Texas.

Choosing the Best

Lesson for August 8, 1954

A MAN grows by the choices he makes. This is to say, he grows taller by his right choices, while every wrong choice shrinks his soul. This is true of the physical life. Mrs. Gurney, that well-known lady on TV, one evening at a restaurant ordered cream soup, a large steak, vegetables to match, a sizeable salad, chocolate cake with ice cream on top, and a slice of melba toast. "I am trying to lose weight," she said. The audience laughed, as well they might. Mrs. Gurney will never get thin if the melba toast she eats tops off meals like that one. A woman who can't choose to say NO! to what she knows will make her fat, will always be the wrong size. A boy in school who can't make up his mind to go out for active sports will probably turn to be undersized compared to what he might have been. Our choices make us, or break us.

God's Scale and Ours

It is not only our health and physique, it is our minds and souls too, that grow by right choices, shrink by poor ones. Everybody, whether he has thought about it or not, has a "scale of values." That is, there are some things he prizes more than anything, others for which he has little use. One man will spend his last cent for a rare stamp, another man will give his last cent to missions, a third will leave his last cent at the race track. The writer's grandfather was known to have gone without meals more than once in order to buy certain books. Tell me what you prize most highly and I will tell you what sort of person you are. But what the Christian wants to know is: How does God look at it? A jeweler will not buy gems without first having them appraised by an expert he can trust. Life spreads many a bright sparkling jewel before our eyes; how can we tell the true from the false? How can we tell how to value life unless God appraises it for us? So when Saint Paul, or our Lord himself, tells us what the true values in life are, we are only hurting ourselves if we pay no attention.

All Values Are Real

Jesus' words sharply provoke thought, and he meant it that way. He clearly taught that things do not matter in comparison with greater values such as peace of mind and health of soul. But some people, reading the Sermon on the Mount, have jumped to the conclusion that he meant for Christians to pay no attention at all to food and drink and clothing, that if a Christian concentrates on the kingdom of God he need not give ordinary things a thought. Jesus certainly did not mean to be taken that way. He himself would ask for water when he was thirsty. He was not indifferent to meals; indeed his enemies accused him of eating too much. He did not build up a large wardrobe; but he wore clothes, and sometimes good ones. It is only a poor translation of Jesus' words that makes him say "Take no thought" for food or clothing or for tomorrow. What he said was "Do not be anxious, do not worry" about such things. What he means is clear: Christians should put their greatest energies of thought, interest, planning and action, into the greatest things.

Don't You Want the Best?

"Bad means: choosing a lower value in the presence of a higher." So a modern philosopher (Urban) has said. The tragedy of life is not that men choose cheap things. The tragedy is that they choose cheap things when they might have had better. It is no tragedy to have a high school diploma—on the contrary it is a good thing. But it is a tragedy to have only a high school diploma if you might just as well have gone on to college. It is no tragedy to be a worker on a farm; it is too bad if the tenant might have owned the farm by harder work and better management. It is no tragedy to be a clerk; one can serve God anywhere. But it is a pity before God if a man is content to live and work in some easy corner when he might have gone into God's great service as a minister or a missionary. God's question to every man is not: Did you choose the good? but, Did you choose the best?

BAIL BOND LAWS EXPLAINED

From time to time there is a great deal of talk about the need for revision of Texas laws relating to criminal bail bonds. Since this is a topic about which most people have more curiosity than knowledge, perhaps a brief explanation of bail bond procedures will be of interest. However, in today's columns there will be no attempt to discuss possible defects in the system.

finally harvested in 1953. Reductions in cotton and wheat were exceeded by a record acreage of sorghums. Plantings of corn, oats, barley, rice, sweet potatoes, and hay crops also were increased.

The 1954 season got off to a slow start in central, southern and southeastern counties. This was due to delayed planting, irregular germination and slow early growth brought on by critically dry conditions. The plains area and South Texas have been relieved by some rain.

Cotton in cultivation early in lion acres or sixteen percent less than the 9,568,000 acres last year. Acreage allotments restrictions account for some of the reduction and the extreme drought is another factor.

Wheat production is estimated at 31,160,000 bushels with a final figure due soon. Last year's crop was 23,935,000 bushels. The 10-year average is 56,221,000 bushels.

Most recent estimate on all sorghum acreage for harvest as grain and forage was 8,661,000 acres — about 65 percent above the 5,240,000 acres harvested last year. This is the largest acreage on record and some 31 per cent above the long-term average.

First forecast of corn for the season placed this year's crop at 38,448,000 bushels which would compare with 33,874,000 bushels last year. The 10-year average is 51,266,000.

Oats production may reach 42,412,000 bushels, topping 1953's 39,150,000 bushels and far exceeding the 10-year average of 26,309,000.

Rise acreage estimate at 620,000 is a record high. It is eight percent above the 1953 record. All hay production is expected to be 1,678,000 tons or about 1.6 percent below last year even with the increased acreage.

Prospective sweet potato production is at 2,475,000 bushels or three percent below 1953. Irish potatoes are predicted at 2,160,000 bushels, 13 percent below last year's 2,484,000 bushels.

Peanuts are growing on about 364,000 acres, some 6 percent more than last season.

In the United States a defendant in a criminal action is presumed to be innocent until his guilt is established beyond a reasonable doubt. His guilt or innocence is established at his trial — not when he is arrested.

With this concept in mind it is not hard to see why the right to bail in criminal cases is guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, with the exception of capital cases. A capital case is one in which the punishment may be death. In Texas murder, treason, rape and robbery with firearms are capital offenses.

All prisoners are bailable in Texas except where the proof is evident that a capital offense has been committed and it is probable that a jury will assess the death penalty.

An officer making an arrest is required by law to take the accused promptly before a magistrate. It is the duty of the magistrate to examine into the truth of the accusation made. He determines whether the accused should be discharged or bailed or held without bail. If bail is set for the defendant, the magistrate must determine the amount. The law provides a procedure for reviewing these decisions before the Court of Criminal Appeals.

When an accused is on bail when his trial commences he has the right to remain on bail during the trial of his case. Where the punishment of a defendant has been assessed at confinement in the penitentiary for fifteen years or less the defendant has the right to remain on bail pending the appeal of his case. If the penalty is more than fifteen years the defendant is kept in custody from the moment the jury returns its verdict.

The Constitution also says that bail may not be set in excessive amount. What is considered a reasonable amount depends largely upon the circumstances and the risk involved. Bail must be set high enough to assure the court and the state that the person will not run away, but will return and submit to trial on the date set.

The judge usually will ask the prosecuting attorney for a recommendation as to the amount of bail. The accused's attorney may then ask that the amount recommended be reduced, giving his reasons. The judge will settle on an amount he believes reasonable to assure the accused's presence at the trial.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Mrs. Lovel Richardson, after being at home for a while, left last Thursday for another visit with her brother, Odell Price and wife at Overton. She stopped in Dallas and the specialist, who is treating her, was pleased with her condition.

HUNTER GROCERY CLOSING DUE TO ILLNESS OF OWNER

Due to the continued illness of Mr. Lee Hunter, the Hunter Grocery and Market closed its doors Tuesday night. The business, established by Mr. Leonard Hunter in 1886, has been in continuous operation since that time. In 1920 the three sons, Roger, Lee and Archie, took over and it was called Hunter Bros. Grocery. A few years back Roger sold his interest to the other two brothers and moved to Austin. Upon the death of Archie three years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hunter purchased his interest and have been operating the store since.

Mr. Hunter, who has been a patient in the Santa Anna Hospital for more than three weeks, most of the time quite ill, is improving and is being moved to his home Wednesday of this week.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON-SERMON

How the individual can find true joy, health, and courage through gaining a spiritual understanding of God will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit" is the Golden Text from Galatians (5:22, 23): "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law."

The blessings bestowed on man by God, divine Spirit, will also be brought out in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following (78:28-30): "Spirit blesses man, but man cannot tell whence it cometh. By it the sick are healed, the sorrowing are comforted, and the sinning are reformed."

From the Bible, the following passage will be among those read (John 4:24): "God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Dodson of Brownwood, were weekend visitors in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Calloway.

Mrs. Don Ewing of Henderson, formerly of Santa Anna, where she still has many friends, has written one of them concerning the recent extreme heat, "This weather is so hot down here it almost cooks you. Sure need rain. Hope its not so hot there." Mrs. Ewing, who gets The News, can be assured by this item that the temperature in Santa Anna recently surely matched anything they had in Henderson.

However, the recent showers have made the weather more bearable.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry C. Wigger and their three children, Harriet, Evelyn and David, of Midland, were here visiting Tuesday, with the Brian deGraffenrieds and other friends.

Mrs. L. B. Parks was in Fort Worth last Thursday and brought her daughter, Mackie, home, who had been in a hospital there. She is improving.

THANKS -

Words cannot express my deep appreciation for the wonderful vote given me in The First Primary Election. Although it was not enough to win, I feel that it was worth the effort, and I have no regrets.

To those who did not vote for me, I hold no ill will. I enjoyed my contact with the voters and want to especially thank my many friends who worked for me during the campaign.

Again, let me say "Thank You."

Look at the 3-way bonus you get in the car that's sweeping the nation!

1. You get the car that's styled for tomorrow - and for just a few dollars more than the so-called "low-price three"!

In Buick today you find the fresh modern beauty that will pattern the styling of other cars yet to come. That's a major reason for Buick's soaring success this year. But the clincher is Buick's low delivered price - lower than you think. No other car at so low a price gives you this advanced styling - plus Buick's great room, comfort, ride and V8 power.

2. You get the car that's a sure high resale value

Of this you can be sure: the new Buick you buy today will look modern next year, too - because that broad panoramic windshield will be appearing on other cars as a 1955 feature. So with the new Buick you buy now, you'll stay right up in the style parade for years to come - and command a higher resale price when you trade it in.

3. You get a bigger allowance from our volume business

Regardless of price class, Buick today is outselling all other cars in America except two of the "low-price three." That's fact. So with this tremendous sales volume, we can offer you a higher trade-in allowance when you buy a new Buick. Come in, see and drive Buick the beautiful buy. Then see for yourself how our volume business means a far bigger allowance for you.

Speaking of PUBLIC SAFETY

20,000 persons are duped to death each year by the fallacy that you are safer driving at night simply because there is less traffic. Actually, you need only a glimpse of the traffic accident picture to realize how fallacious that reasoning really is.

Out of every hundred fatal accidents, 60 occur in the dark when only 25 of every 100 vehicles are operating. In addition to the 20,000 lives, the night toll last year was 900,000 injured and $1 billion of economic loss.

It is because of the greater danger of fatality at night that motorists are urged to observe special safety precautions after dark.

REDUCED SPEED: Driving at night should always be at speeds which permit stopping within range of headlight vision.

WATCH FOR SIGNAL CRASHERS: Never crash lights nor stop signs and don't ever move into an intersection until you have looked in both directions after the light has changed. Don't assume that a green light means safety! Too many drivers like to race through the red end of a light change.

PROPER VEHICLE LIGHTING: Headlights should be accurately focused, kept clean, and rear lights properly operating. Directional signal lights, both front and rear, aid in signaling but no driver at night should assume the mere act of signaling his intent will prevent an accident. He should never intersect traffic unless absolutely sure he has ample time to avoid a "close call".

DON'T DRIVE IF DROWSY: Night driving requires keenness of all faculties. Seconds save lives. If you feel sleepy, don't drive. Thousands of people are killed because either they or the drivers who hit them dozed for an instant.

AVOID ALCOHOL: Darkness which dulls vision and alcohol which slows mental and physical reactions is a deadly combination at night. If you must drink, for humanity's sake don't drive.

Motorists are urged to observe these precautions at night to compensate for the inadequate visibility which will continue to make night driving dangerous until street lighting is made adequate in cities and towns and on critical accident-prone areas of highways.

The Santa Anna Post Office with its recently completed paint job on the exterior and interior is pleasant to look at these days. The interior walls are painted a sage green with wood trim a shade darker. Outside woodwork is painted white. A new air conditioner is a comfort for postal personnel and patrons.

John O. Oakes, aged 80 years, who makes his home with his half-sister, Mrs. Homer Goodgion and Mr. Goodgion, suffered a brain hemorrhage early Saturday night. He was a patient in the Santa Anna Hospital until Monday when he was taken back to the Goodgion home, where he has been living the past six months, coming here from Lovelady, Texas. He had suffered a bad heart attack 10 months ago.

This is election season in Texas. A run-off campaign is now going on. A lot of Texans who were qualified to vote in the first primary did not bother to do so. It seems that Americans, despite our enlightened democracy, have a habit of ducking their responsibility as citizens on election day. At least that is true with many as evidenced by the fact that only a little above 50% of qualified voters take part in Presidential elections.

What we all need to realize is that every vote counts and that every citizen owes an obligation to himself and his government to vote. Above everything, never discount the importance of that ONE vote. An able Congressman was recently defeated by a narrow margin of three-tenths of one percent!

Here's a classic example of how important one vote can be. In 1842 Henry Shoemaker, a DeKalb County, Ind. farmhand, used a homemade ballot to vote for Madison Marsh as State Representative. Officials eventually counted it to break a tie and Democrat Marsh defeated his Whig opponent, 361 to 360.

Next year, in 1843, the Indiana state legislature was deadlocked for five ballots in picking a U. S. Senator. Senators then being elected by state legislatures rather than by popular vote. A Whig seemed likely to win. But on the sixth ballot Marsh's vote elected Democrat Edward A. Hannegan, 76 to 75.

Early in 1845 Congress was voting on admitting Texas into the Union. The House was for it, but the Senate split down the middle. Senator Hannegan's vote for annexation avoided a tie. Thus Texas became a state in December.

To carry Hannegan's role in history a little further, in May 1846 President Polk asked for war with Mexico. The Senate Democrat majority was tied. Hannegan came in — and voted for war. Through these events Henry Shoemaker's one vote changed the course of history.

Voting is a moral obligation that none of us have a right to avoid. It was the great statesman Edmund Burke who said,

"For evil to succeed, it is only necessary for good men to do nothing".

Mrs. D. J. Barnes of Coleman, former long-time resident of Santa Anna, is visiting with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Kingsbery. Soon Mrs. Barnes will be moving into a nice new home in Coleman, being built for her by her son, Bonner Barnes of Pittsburg, Pa. Pvt. Don W. Ogle and his mother, Mrs. Alda Lee Ogle and her daughter, Nancy, of Brownwood and a girl friend, Joyce Weems of Blanket, visited Sunday with Mrs. Ogle's mother, Mrs. Annie Munger. Pvt. Ogle returned home from 15 months service in Korea last week. He has two more years to serve with the Marines.

Mrs. Leo Driskill of Priddy came with several of her children and attended Sunday School and church services at the First Christian Church last Sunday. They were present to see Linda Driskill baptised, after making her confession at the close of the service. Mrs. Driskill and children went home with the Oscar Boenicke's and visited until in the afternoon and Linda, who had been spending the summer with the Boenicke's, went home with them. Linda will be greatly missed in the church services, where she has sung in the children's choir and chorus.

Mr. V. L. Grady, long-time resident of Santa Anna, was 97 year old Monday, August 2. The day was a pleasant one spent rather quietly. As you might know he spent part of the day attending the revival at the First Baptist Church, where he has been a faithful member through many years. To make the day a happy one, he received some visits, gifts and cards.
