At the regular meeting of school board Monday evening, Prof. B. T. School Facilities In Santa

Anna Must Be Improved

We just wish the seriousness of the school situation in Santa Anna could be brought out with sufficient emphasis, to properly impress upon the minds of the citizens in this school district, the importance of improving and providing better housing facilities for our school. Regardless of what any one might say with reference to our present high school building, it is a public hazard and the lives of our children are endangered when they are adjacent to the property. The building is not safe, and it is up to the citizens of this school district to vote bonds and build a better building, or eliminate the high school grades in Santa Anna. These statements may not be appreciated by some people, but they are worthy of consideration and steps should be taken at once toward making the necessary improvements.

The following article is published for your information, without further comments from us:

State Department of Education
High School Division
Austin, Texas
Report of School Supervisor on Santa Anna High School
(By Supervisor W. W. Knox)
January 14, 1926.

Superintendent B. T. Withers,
Pres. of Board Dr. T. Richard Sealy.

The work of classifying and accrediting the public schools of Texas is under the direction of the State Committee composed of six members chosen by the public schools and six by the colleges. This committee determines the conditions upon which high schools are classified and accredited for the purpose of establishing educational standards, encouraging schools to attain these standards, and certifying those that have attained them so as to facilitate the transfer of students to any other school or college.

The regulations as prescribed by this Committee are administered by the State Department of Education through high school supervisors. In the visits of the supervisors and in their reports to school authorities, recommendations are offered in the spirit of cooperation and helpful suggestion, with the earnest desire that all school authorities will join with the State Department of Education in their efforts to maintain the necessary standards of secondary education in Texas.

In order that the schools may be properly certified it is essential that minimum requirements be met. To that end the supervisor who recently visited your school makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Department be notified by June 1, 1926, as to what definite action has been taken to provide better housing facilities for the high school. Otherwise, it is recommended that Santa Anna be reported to the Committee on Classification and Affiliation.

The above recommendation is made because of the following reasons:

a. The walls of the present building are badly cracked and these cracks are gradually widening. In spite of braces, the walls are moving outward and menace the lives of the children in whose interest the community should concern itself above all things.

b. The building is not standard and does not adapt itself to the many phases of high school work.

c. Part of the high school work is being conducted in the elementary building which is overcrowded itself to the extent that one class is forced to occupy a shack on the campus.

d. In places where the walls are cracked, the loosened bricks may fall at any time upon the heads of children playing below.

The supervisor is confident that the citizens of Santa Anna would be willing to tax themselves in order to build a new high school building if they were fully aware of the conditions described above.

The school has enjoyed a healthy growth and its continued progress should be encouraged and not handicapped.

2. That at least $25 worth of well selected books be placed in each room of the elementary grades.

3. That the high school library be increased and that it be suitably catalogued and made more accessible to students during the day.

4. That careful consideration be given the material submitted for affiliation.

The material examined indicated that good work was being done. Mid-term examinations were being given at the time this visit was made.

Married Sunday

Mr. Homer J. Smith, son of Mrs. H. H. Brown of Liberty, and Miss Mellie Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bell, also of Liberty, were united in marriage Sunday, Feb. 7, at Bangs, pastor of the Methodist church officiating.

Mr. Smith is from Dallas and holds a responsible position with the Continental Gin Company of that city. Mrs. Smith, at the time of her marriage, was a student in Howard Payne College, having graduated with the class of 1924 of Santa Anna. She is an accomplished young lady, and the News joins other friends in extending congratulations to the newly wed. After a honeymoon spent at different places they will return to Dallas to make their home.

Remains of Mrs. H. J. Loyd Buried in City Cemetery Monday

The remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Loyd, wife of H. J. Loyd, former citizen of the Liberty community, was buried here Monday, the funeral services being conducted by Pastor Sidney F. Martin, of the Baptist church. Mrs. Loyd died at her home in Waco, Saturday, February 6.

Deceased was 72 years old, and was a member of the Baptist church at Liberty. When a young girl she was married to H. J. Loyd, and to this union were born 5 children, one boy and four girls. Deceased lived in the Liberty community for 35 years, and has many good friends there and in this city, who will join the News in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

Lions Club Vote to Have Special Meeting and Invite Ladies

At the meeting of the Lions Club Tuesday, the Club voted to have a special meeting in near future and invite the ladies to attend. If suitable quarters can be provided, a luncheon will be served. G. W. Faulkner, F. P. Bond, Sam H. Collier, I. Williamson and A. J. McDaniel were appointed to arrange for the meeting.

Santa Anna People Have Good Water

The editor accompanied Mayor Baxter, Commissioner Wofford and Ex-Mayor J. O. Martin out to the new City Lake Monday, where we had the pleasure of inspecting the premises and newly installed machinery. The work has not been rushed and is not yet completed, but the machinery is at work, and the water now being used is clear, filtered and pure. Our City Dads are proud of the new system, because they feel they have exercised diligence in the expenditure of funds, and are nearing the completion of the best water works system in the State for the cost.

Wesley Adult No. 3 Entertained
 Mrs. Tom Mills entertained Wesley Adult No. 3 Sunday School class at the home of her mother on Tuesday afternoon. Quilting and piecing quilts was the diversion of the afternoon. A large crowd was present and quite a good deal of work was done. Later delicious refreshments of jello topped with whipped cream and cherries, and cake were served to the guests. Visitors outside of the class were Mesdames R. P. Crum, T. D. Lavender, Josie Joiner, Shelton, Harvey, Burris, Allen and Hardy Blue. The class regrets very much to lose Mrs. Eugene Greer, who has been one of its most faithful and efficient members. Mrs. Greer leaves for Dallas this week where she will make her home in the future.

Yes, It Pays A Church to Advertise.
 Advertising does pay—even a church. That might have started an argument some years ago. Now it is freely admitted and accepted. And to the credit of the intelligence and acumen of the worthy men and women who are active in the work of the church of this country, it may be interpolated that, more and more, are they making use of that greatest medium of advertising, the newspaper, in their prosecution of their labor and love for their fellowman.
 The Logan Baptist church of Philadelphia needed a pastor. The regular methods of filling such vacancies appeared to be fruitless. An advertisement: "Wanted, a Baptist minister" was published in the daily newspapers. The committee in charge was most agreeably astonished at the results obtained. Responses came from men all over the east, the south and from the middlewest. A number of big men, who would never have been suspected of looking for a change in charge and who would have never been approached, made answer to the "ad."
 In fact, the committee states that this method of selecting a pastor has advantages over the usual way. It has operated to afford a line of many eligible men who would otherwise never have got within the range of consideration. There is nothing like advertising to bring together the person who has something to sell and the person who seeks that something to buy, whether it be store or church.

American Legion Auxiliary
 The American Legion Auxiliary met with Mrs. I. Shield on Tuesday afternoon. Each member was asked to bring a box of candy for the sick soldiers in the hospital at Kerville. There were eight members answered to roll call, and after a social meeting a business session was held and the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Jess Hunter, Secretary, Mrs. Glenn Williamson and Treasurer, Mrs. Sam Collier.

WASHINGTON AND THE WORLD COURT

It is significant that at the approach of the birthday of George Washington the Senate of the United States should decide to participate in the World Court. One hundred and thirty-three years ago Washington issued his famous proclamation of Neutrality, which declared that the United States should not enter into the quarrels of the European nations. It did not say we could not enter into movements for peace, but that we must keep out of entanglements of war.

If there is anything in diplomacy—if there is anything in the proposition that a great civilized nation such as ours can direct its good offices for international tranquility—then we ought not shun our duty. America can match her resources, her institutions and her form of government with any other power on the face of the earth. Why, then, does anyone doubt the wisdom of her statesmen and diplomats to keep free from mortgaging her peace and to dutifully promote harmony in world affairs? Any lesser view borders closely to an admission of our inferiority to cope with international situations. Beyond the reservations attached to the entry of the United States by Senate action, there are the reservations of more than 110,000,000 people who will not permit of anything short of justice nor stop at anything short of finding out if after all, there is anything in this "peace business."

REMARKABLE PSYCHOLOGY

When a boy smokes a cigarette he imagines it makes a man of him. When an old man smokes one he thinks it makes him look like a boy.

THE GREAT OPEN SPACES

People who live on the farms and in the towns and villages hear as strange language the appeals for better housing facilities and living conditions for those in the tenement-crowded cities. Human emotions are set afire by the stories of children who seldom, if ever, see a blade of grass or hear the song of a bird.

One third of life finds its sustenance in the three substantial of food, clothing and shelter. Another third is found in the social and spiritual contacts that mean kindness, worship, sympathy and love. The third is traceable to the beauties of nature, to brooks and lakes and sunshine, to forest, mountain and plain, to tides and sunsets; while labor and industry mingle in all.

It is unfortunate that many men, women and children do not receive even sufficient of the substantial and are scarcely one-third living. Yet the world has such, and it is the business of society to provide opportunities for more abundant lives for its kindred whose souls are hungry no less than their bodies.

How's Business In Santa Anna?

How's business?

As a rule, commercial business is conceded to be the necessary element in progress and prosperity, and without a good volume of business all the rest would fail or have difficulty in weathering the storms of adversity. But there is other "business" to look after in order to have a well-rounded community life. Let us see just how good is business.

There is the business of bringing up and educating our children and this business falls to the home and school and community.

There is the business of local government which devolves upon our elective and appointive offices, but who need co-operation from the citizenship at large.

There is the business of being a good citizen—the business of "shooting square" with the other fellow.

There is the "Father's business" spoken of in the Holy Book, and which calls for unswerving faith and devotion in matters of the spirit.

Then there is "everybody's business" which is said to be nobody's business, but it is the business of all of us to transact it in the light of conscience and duty.

Every effort for good put forth by the humblest citizen adds to the general prosperity and culture of all the rest.

So far as we know business is good in Santa Anna.

Merry Wives

Mrs. Sam Collier, assisted by her sister, Mrs. R. B. Hollingsworth, of Coleman, entertained the Merry Wives and several visitors on Thursday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. Besides the usual diversion a very interesting and amusing contest was enjoyed in sewing. Later delicious refreshments of pressed chicken sandwiches, embossed cakes, olives, mints in the shape of a sweet pea, coffee and tea were served to the guests. Mesdames McFarland, and A. R. Brown poured tea and coffee. Visitors outside the club were, Mesdames A. D. Weaver, Roy McFarland, H. L. Voss, A. R. Brown, L. O. Garrett, S. W. Childers, Roy Lovelady, R. B. Hollingsworth and Ford Barnes.

Buffalo Demonstration Club

The Buffalo Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. O. G. Curry, Friday, Feb. 5. Miss Brent met with us and gave a demonstration on cheese making, which was very successful. The hostess served sandwiches, cake, and hot chocolate to 18 club members and 3 visitors. The club will have a Valentine party, Friday night, Feb. 12, at the home of Mrs. B. A. Mungler. The proceeds will go to the club. The next regular meeting will be Friday, Feb. 19, with Mrs. Dan Evans, and a demonstration on how to make baskets and serving trays will be given.—Reporter.

FEBRUARY HOLIDAYS

Two patriotic holidays fall in February, each or both of which should awaken renewed interest in the lives of men whose memory we owe the utmost respect.

Although they wrought in different periods of the American republic's development, each was particularly adapted for the services rendered to posterity.

Washington was a man in whom the people of the new nation had the utmost confidence. He was a man around whom all could gather to make secure the foundation of what was destined to be the greatest nation the world had ever known.

Lincoln's great forgiving spirit, his nobleness of purpose and uncanny knowledge of human nature fitted him for the seemingly impossible task of folding the several states together so that they could fulfill their destiny.

As we come to the time when their birthdays are observed, all true Americans should reconsecrate themselves to the same ideals as those to which the Father of our country held steadfastly when the privations of a people, divided one against the other, weighed heavily upon him.

CONGRESS CLEARS DECKS

In finally deciding the world court issue the United States Senate has given the public a breathing spell after an argument that has extended over a period of more than three years. The argument may continue but not with the dignity of legislative consideration and not to the exclusion of more important congressional issues. It was for that reason that the Senate for the second time in its history involked cloture in its deliberations. In three years ample opportunity had been afforded for exhaustive debate on the question. A filibuster might have interfered with the passage of the tax revision bill in time to put the new blanks in the hands of tax payers before March 15 when returns are to be made. Unlimited debate would have delayed action on other important issues to come before congress. Thus the issue was forced and now it is settled. The world court issue is one of the international questions solved only by theory. It makes a fertile field for prophets. If only fixed events were to be contemplated some particularly pertinent theory could be applied with some degree of assurance of certain results. The United States has voted for adherence to the world court with reservations a majority of the Senators deemed advisable. The wisdom or fallacy of the action taken by the Senate by a vote of seventy-six to seventeen remains for time to prove. At any rate the vote has finally been taken. The decks are cleared for the consideration of some of our domestic problems. For that let us be duty thankful.

SAVAGE EVOLUTION.
ELECTRICITY'S BABYHOOD.
POOR OLD BEELZEBUB.
A BOOMING NATION.

Some African savages believe that gorillas and chimpanzees can talk, but hide their knowledge, lest they be put to work.

Other savages have an evolution theory of their own. The Batagani, Congo natives, tell the Rev. E. C. Graham that monkeys are descended from men that have been disgraced.

"We are better and prouder than the apes," say these practical black men, "therefore we eat them."

Samuel Insull tells the world that electricity is only beginning its work. We are a little way, but not far, from the savage that fell down and worshipped an unknown malignant devil when the lightning flashed.

Roads will soon change from steam to electric power, and that will call for twenty-four billion more hours of kilowatt energy, says Mr. Insull. Farms will be "wired" for electric light and power.

Most encouraging is the prediction of Elmer Schlesinger, Louis Levy's intellectual and dashing young law partner. Elmer Schlesinger says electricity, in this century, will do for the world's troubles and debts what steam did for the world in the last century, after Waterloo, Europe and the nations were called "hopelessly" bankrupt. In proportion, their debts were greater than they are today. Steam camps and debts were paid with the greatest ease instead of bankruptcy, Europe new prosperity such as no one dreamed of. It was so great that nations could not resist fighting over it. What steam did for the last century electricity will do for this. And that is no dream.

"Polygamy is legalized and getting a divorce is as easy as bootlegging," says Mr. Hackenberg, of New York's Legislature, and he wants easy divorces from Paris or Reno made illegal.

Divorce and bootlegging, now so easy, simply prove that when you try to regulate human nature, you invite trouble. "The cat will mew and the dog will have his day."

Milwaukee supplies an account of miraculous exorcism, believed by many, deeply religious, to have been the actual driving out of a devil from the body of an unfortunate insane woman.

The account of the miracle runs as follows: A woman whose mind had become unbalanced was carried to the Chapel of St. Joseph's Hospital, where the "exorcism ritual" was performed, in Latin, not understood by the patient.

The question "Who are you?" was answered, apparently from the throat of the woman in a deep masculine voice, "BEELZEBUB." Asked why he had taken possession of the woman, Beelzebub replied, "BECAUSE OF MALEDICTION."

The fiend promised to leave the woman at 2 o'clock that afternoon, but did not actually leave until half-past 5, which is about what you would expect of a demon. The woman then relaxed and is getting better.

This miracle, not as yet vouched for by church authorities, was an everyday occurrence in the middle ages, when demons were more active, numerous and efficient than at present.

It is romantic, refreshing and interesting to have one of them resume business at the old stand in these days of radios, automobiles, and newspapers. It is said, however, that the voice of Milwaukee's Beelzebub indicated irritation and a feeling that times are not what they were in the good old days.

Our population increases more than two per cent, or about 2,600,000 a year. Business and prosperity increase twice as rapidly as population. We should be grateful as a brother.

Honesty Needed in Government

This is an election year in Texas and many politicians are laying their campaign plans for getting into offices. There will likely be numerous candidates for all positions from the lowest to the highest, all kinds of statements and promises. Comparatively few of those who offer will be qualified for the offices they hope to secure. Most people seem to think that they can fill any office that offers sufficient remuneration. In other words they care far more for the pay than for the service they render. To accept an office with that feeling is positively wrong—it is dishonest, because it is getting pay for a service for which one is not but poorly qualified. There is but a short step from that to plain graft. The man who seeks pay for a service he is unfitted to do is likely to justify himself in getting money without any service rendered. Do not be too quick to promise support to any candidate, and be certain above all things, that those for whom you vote are honest through and through.

Confidence is Greatest Public Need

There is an appalling lack of confidence in public officials. This is evident wherever you hear public matters discussed, and many are ready to cite case after case to show that the mass of office-holders are corrupt. This feeling has reached such a point that many hesitate to ask for an office because they fear their motives will be impugned. They object to the company with which they will have to run, and to be frank about it, the company isn't the best always. Patriotism among office-seekers and office-holders has reached a mighty low ebb. This condition speaks badly for democratic form of government, but only the public can correct it. Men and women in whom confidence can be placed must be elected to offices of importance of unquestioned integrity. Confidence in the government is based on confidence in its officers. It can only be restored by the right exercise of the ballot.

Libel Laws Largely to Blame

Newspapers no longer can be the guardians of the rights of the public, because they are hedged about by too many restrictions. Libel laws prevent the publication of matters about which the people should know. Libel suits are expensive to publishers. Whether guilty of libel or not, they must employ attorneys to defend them and must incur other expenses whenever any one feels inclined to sue them. Newspapers are muzzled by the fear of law suits more than by the fear of having to pay damages for libel. The person who brings a libel suit and fails to maintain it should not only have to pay court costs, but in addition should be made to pay attorney's fees and other costs incurred by the defendant. Until that is done there will be no such thing as freedom of the press. Without such freedom there is no possibility of such publicity as will guarantee good government. The press does not wish, and should not have immunity from libel, but immunity from the expense of unjustified libel suits.

Texas Have Big Plans

Texas is starting in to do things in a big way this year, and each section is vying with all the others in its efforts. Every part of the state that needs irrigation and can get it is planning to that end. Many of the projects are already under way and will be far along before the year is ended. Vast sections are studying how they can bring the overflow lands into successful cultivation. There is more oil development than the state has ever known before. Salt brine and potash will bring great riches to certain parts of the state. The crop production will likely be limited only by the number of laborers that can be obtained. Prosperity is in evidence everywhere, and enforced idleness is unknown. It is great to live in a state that is up and doing.

Educators Should Lead in Education

Dr. Meikeljohn, former president of Amherst College, in a recent lecture in Austin, said in substance that educators are to blame for any failure of a democracy. He reasons that democracy depends for success upon an educated people; but that learning must be of a kind to maintain the best government; and that what learning is best should be decided by scholars, instead of by politicians who are too often unlearned. He attributes the failure of democracy to whatever extent it fails, to lack of courage on the part of scholars in directing the scholarship of the country. They are too much inclined to follow the lines of least resistance and "leave it to George," the politician, to have such things taught as best serve his political ends rather than the interests of government.

Ferd Lehmann's Death

The entire country press of Texas and many daily papers of the state have been saddened by the death of Ferd Lehmann, once editor of the Hallettsville Herald and for 25 years treasurer of the Texas Press Association. It is impossible to pay a tribute that measures up to the life of such a man. He was a true friend, a good man, and in all things dependable. What more could be said of any man? He will be greatly missed by most of the editors of Texas and all who knew him, for they loved him as a brother.

MORTUARY

Cicero Barker, 78, died at his home in the Redbank community last Friday evening, and his remains were brought here for burial Saturday afternoon. Deceased had been in failing health for several months, and the family kept a fire in the heater at nights for the benefit of Mr. Barker and other members of the family when occasion demanded their attention, and while being up about one o'clock in the morning, his night-shirt caught on fire and burned his body so severely before it could be extinguished, that death resulted late in the afternoon.

Mr. Barker had lived in these parts the past 36 years, and was an honorable citizen. His remains were placed in the local cemetery following funeral services at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Kennedy of Coleman, and Pastor Burrow, with Masonic honors. The News joins the other many friends of deceased and family in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

Gloria Swanson at Queen Theatre. Wednesday and Thursday

"Stage Struck" the Allan Dwan production for Paramount, is a broad comedy with Gloria Swanson as a waitress in a small factory town on the Ohio River. She is smitten with Lawrence Gray, a pancake artist in the lunch room, who is fond of actresses. To make a more favorable impression on the young fellow, Gloria is taking a correspondence school course, in stage acting and is given a chance to show what she can do when one of the famous floating theatres which ply their way over the broad waters of the Ohio arrives in town. The scenes that follow, in which Gloria clowns all over the sets in all sorts of get-ups, are said to be far up and beyond anything fans saw in "Manhandled," "The Humming Bird," "Zaza" or for that matter, any of the star's previous pictures.

Cleveland Demonstration Club

Mrs. Bill Rice was hostess to the home demonstration club on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Brent was with us, and demonstrated on the making of American cheese. Lesson for February 14

JESUS, THE GOOD SHEPHERD

LESSON TEXT—John 10:1-30.
GOLDEN TEXT—"I am the good shepherd, the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep."—John 10:11.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Good Shepherd and His Sheep.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus the Good Shepherd.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What the Good Shepherd Does for His Sheep.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Many Sheep, but One Shepherd.

The relationship of the Messiah to His own is set forth in the Old Testament under the figure of the shepherd and his sheep. (Pa. 23, Ez. 34.)

1. He Is the Good Shepherd (vv. 1-18).

He is the True Shepherd (vv. 1-9).
He came by the divinely appointed way. The power exercised by the Pharisees in casting out this man was not obtained by lawful means. It was stolen by them and exercised in the bold spirit of robbers. John the Baptist, and others of the prophets, had performed the function of the porter and opened the door to the Shepherd (v. 28). Despite the deceit, audacity, theft and robbery of those Pharisees, those who were Christ's sheep were declared to be forming a new flock and following Him as the true Shepherd (v. 4). The reason the man suffered excommunication for Jesus' sake was that he recognized Him as the true Shepherd and the Pharisees as strangers.

2. He Is the Door of the Sheep (vv. 7-10).
The way to fellowship with God is through Christ. He is the only door (Acts 4:12). There is absolutely no way to get into the fold of the redeemed but by Him. All who attempt it are thieves and robbers (v. 8). Those who become members of the flock through Him enjoy marvelous gifts (vv. 9, 10).

(1) Salvation—"Shall be saved." Not only saved now but saved eternally (vv. 27, 28).

(2) Liberty—"Shall go in and out" (v. 9).
Only those who accept salvation in Christ know what freedom is.

(3) Contentment—"Shall go in and out and find pasture" (v. 9).
The one who really enters the fold by Christ, the door, receives that which is all-satisfying to the soul.

3. He Is the Good Shepherd (vv. 11-18).

He is so devoted to His sheep that He willingly lays down His life for them. The hireling abandons his sheep in time of danger. The Good Shepherd has perfect knowledge of His sheep and they know Him (vv. 14, 15). He enjoys such personal intimacy with His sheep that He knows them by name and goes before them to lead the way and defend them from every danger. This He will do even unto death. On Calvary this was historically fulfilled. It was Christ's love for such sheep as this poor blind man that caused Him to give up His life in order to find for them the abundant life (v. 10). This sympathy is world-wide—"other sheep I have which are not of this fold." This suggests that the Gentiles have a place in His fold. All who believe in Christ form one flock. In order to save His sheep He voluntarily laid down His life (vv. 17, 18).

4. The Sheep (vv. 19-30).
1. Unbelievers Are Not His Sheep (vv. 19-26).
Christ's assertion that He was the good shepherd caused a division among the people. Some accused Him of being mad, others that He had a devil. To their request that He would tell them plainly if He were the Christ, He referred them to the testimony of His works, declaring that the secret of their inability to recognize Him was their unbelief.

2. They Recognize His Voice (v. 4).
There are many voices in the world, the voice of the hireling, the voice of the thief and the voice of the stranger, but none of these will the sheep hear. The voice of the true Shepherd is recognized by His sheep even amidst the babel of voices in the world today.

3. His Sheep Follow Him (vv. 3, 27).
This is the proof that they are His. The one who does not hear, heed, and obey the Lord's voice is clearly not His sheep. His sheep have unquestioned faith in His ability to lead them.

4. His Sheep Are Eternally Secure (vv. 27, 28).
The sheep are entirely dependent upon the Shepherd. It is the Shepherd's business to look after and care for the sheep. This He does for He knows them by name and is acquainted with their weaknesses and trials.

The Real Blessing
The real blessing, mercy, satisfaction, is not in the having or the lack of merely outward things, but in the consciousness that the true source of life and happiness is deeper than all these.—John W. Chadwick.

Eyes to See
As a face is made beautiful by the sun's shining through it, so the world is beautiful by the shining through it of a loving God. Happy the man who has eyes to see the shining.

CURIOSITY AND MEMORY

"The newspapers had a lot of fun about father's questionnaires," says Charles Edison, son of the famous inventor. And they were entertaining. But there was a good deal more to them, as the son explains them.

"Father started them when he found his foremen were blind to many things happening in the shops. So he hired young fellows to come in, watch the work and make suggestions for improvements, and he had constantly to shift them about."

"So he decided he would work out a questionnaire for selecting his men. He wanted men who possessed curiosity coupled with good memories. That is why he asked such questions as 'What is salt?' and 'Who is the Prince of Wales?'"

Those lists of queer questions provided Mr. Edison with what he wanted. He got a lot of men into his shops and offices who would not only see wrong and wasteful things and suggest improvements the first week or two, but keep up the good work indefinitely.

Curiosity and good memory—there are two great blessings, in business or any other department of human life. The man who has, and retains, mental curiosity keeps alive and makes progress till the day of his death.

Provided, always, it is coupled with power to remember the old as well as grasp the new. Monkeys have the curiosity, but make no progress because they forget what interested them last.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the many kindnesses shown us during the recent illness of our departed loved one, and for the many kind expressions of sympathy tendered in our sad and trying hours of grief and sorrow.

Mrs. J. H. McKinney and Children.

It's easy to listen to both sides of the question if you don't have to decide it.

THE HIGH SALARIED EXECUTIVE OF TOMORROW

Every office is divided into two groups—those who direct the business, the sales and the accounting—and those who carry out the directions. Those who direct are the high salaried department heads and managers. Those who carry out the directions are assistant executives—stenographers, secretaries, accountants, bookkeepers, confidential assistants. As changes take place, or as the business expands, these assistant executives inherit or grow into higher executive and administrative positions.

This is the history of every big organization. The executives of today were the assistant executives of yesterday—the stenographers, bookkeepers, etc., are executives of tomorrow. And the executives of today the owners of tomorrow.

How can you be an executive? Every year thousands of young people—some high school graduates and some with only a grade school education—go to Tyler Commercial College to take the Private Secretarial, General Business, General Banking, General Railroad, General Western Union, Bookkeeping, Shorthand (either Byrne Simplified or Gregg System), Cotton Classing, Civil Service, Radio, or Penmanship. They start the course when they are wholly unfit for positions, yet they graduate a few months later with a greatly increased earning capacity. They are able to enter any line of business; they are placed in responsible positions by the school Employment Department.

What thousands of other young people have done—and are doing—you can do. You can prepare for a position as executive—either in Civil Service or in business. You can create a big demand for your services. You have only to enter Tyler Commercial College for a business training and follow to success the path of thousands of young men and young women have taken. If you do not have all the money to pay for your tuition they will help you.

If you want to get a good position—one with a good starting salary and offers excellent opportunities for advancement—send the coupon printed below for "Achieving Success." The big helpful book will be sent to you FREE. Mail the coupon now.

A PLEA FOR THE CANDIDATE

I would like to make here a plea for the candidate. To aspire to public position is a laudable ambition, and those who tender their services to the people are entitled to respectful treatment and kindly consideration. It is the spirit of the cave man remaining with us that prompts us to treat with contempt those whose cause we do not espouse and one of the marks of a gentleman is tolerance and respect toward those who may oppose his views.

I seldom endorse physical violence toward anyone and yet I was made to rejoice some years ago when a boor was so dealt with. A candidate, who was a stranger in the community, was passing among the people, seeking their acquaintance, distributing his cards and soliciting votes. A card was handed one fellow, who instead of reading it spat upon it and threw it down. A man who was standing near, a stranger to the candidate, took note of the insult and promptly knocked the ruffian down, then forced him to pick up the card and read it.

All should keep in mind the fact that the candidate is at a disadvantage in argument and repartee. He is staking his money and his time with the hope of bettering his condition and must submit to many things that are unpleasant rather than, incur the ill will of those he meets and thus lose hope of their support at the polls. And most of those who seek positions in county or precinct are poor in this world's goods and cannot afford the expenditure of much money. Don't prey upon them for subscription lists to build churches, work cemeteries and care for the unfortunate. To thus force contribution is barbarous.

I was a candidate many years ago, know something of the woes of candidates, and the fellow feeling has made me wondrous kind. Any candidate can get cordial greeting and a respectful hearing by calling on me.—Jim Lowry.

FARM ORGANIZATION

Speaking of farmers' meetings never fail to emphasize the importance of organization. Men of trades, professions and business have found that agreeing on a program and then acting in unison is profitable.

The farmer is the last to recognize this fact. At least, if he has ever recognized it he has failed to act until in very recent years to any wide extent.

William M. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, says that the farmers are twenty years behind the industrial organizations and ten years behind the labor organizations.

Farmers are realizing this and are perfecting organizations as rapidly as possible.

But occasionally some farmers get the wrong conception of the purpose of organization. They feel that if they organize it is "against" something instead of "for" something.

They have been led by some false prophet to believe that all business, industry and labor are organized against them. They are easily persuaded that this is the case inasmuch as the agricultural industry is the only one of any consequence that is not organized.

Some farmers even hold to the view that retail merchants organize to raise prices when, as a matter of actual fact, as anyone who ever belonged to a merchants' association knows, such a thing is impossible because of the keen competition in the retail business.

The farmer, of course, is organizing to raise his prices because forces over which he has no control determine what he shall receive for many of his products, but he should never reason on his knowledge of his own business in arriving at a conclusion regarding the business of others.

The farmer should organize and he should fix the prices on his own commodities, just as ever other business does.

Lohn Man Offers $100 to Renter on His Place Raising Best Garden (Brady Standard)

What might prove to be a gigantic step forward in the history of McCulloch county agriculture was taken at Lohn last Wednesday night at the Chamber of Commerce meeting when Bill Cargill, secretary of the Brady Chamber of Commerce announced that Floyd Smith would put up a prize of $100 to be given to the renter on his place who raised the best garden this year.

It was pointed out that such a step to stimulate production among renters would do a world of good in making them take pride in their work, make them satisfied to locate permanently in McCulloch county, and would have a tendency to make every renter who entered the contest more prosperous along with the prize winners.

The judges in the contest were announced as follows: The county agent, the home demonstration agent, and W. F. Roberts, Jr., of Lohn.

CHEVROLET

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 5.—An unprecedented winter demand for Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks necessitated a production last month nearly three times that of January 1925, it is announced by W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company.

The January production was more than 44,000, which eclipses any previous January production in Chevrolet history. Under the tentative February production schedule, the company will build more than 51,000 units or nearly twice the number produced in the corresponding month of last year.

The heavy winter production is the result of demand which Chevrolet buyers have made upon the company's dealers since the announcement by President Knudsen of reduced prices and numerous improvements on the entire Chevrolet line.

Instead of storing reserve stocks against the requirements of spring business, the dealers report that they are delivering immediately their shipment of cars to waiting buyers.

Last year the Chevrolet Motor Co. led all manufacturers of three-speed sliding-transmission cars by building more than 500,000 units. According to present plans, President Knudsen expects to exceed the 1925 record by a comfortable margin.—From Chevrolet Motor Co.

Pains Very Severe

"I suffered from womanly troubles which grew worse and worse as the months went by," says Mrs. L. H. Cantrell, of R. F. D. 9, Gainesville, Georgia.

"I frequently had very severe pains. These were so bad that I was forced to go to bed and stay there. It seemed to me my back would come in two.

CARDUI

For Female Troubles

"I taught school for a while, but my health was so bad I would have to stay out sometimes. This went on till I got so bad I didn't know what to do.

"One day I read about the merits of Cardui, and as I had some friends who had been helped by it, I thought I would try it. I began to get better after I had taken half a bottle. I decided to keep on and give it a thorough trial and I did. I took in all about 12 bottles and now I am perfectly well. I do not suffer any pain and can do all my housework."

We've just heard a new Scotch story. It's too often the case that all the world loves a lover except the one who should.

VICTOR FLEMING MAKES ANOTHER SEA ROMANCE

Victor Fleming—the man who knows more about the sea and ships than the Ancient Mariner himself! In the past year, through his direction of sea pictures, Fleming has had experience with eight radically different types of boats. In "Code of the Sea," a light-ship, a fishing smack, a motor boat and a passenger steamer were used. In "The Devil's Cargo," he directed the movements of an 1849 side-wheeler. In "Adventure," a sailing craft and a whaling schooner played important parts. In Joseph Conrad's "Lord Jim," which he directed for Paramount, much of the action takes place on an old trading vessel. Featured players in the cast of "Lord Jim," which comes to the Queen Theatre, Friday, are Percy Marmont, Shirley Mason, Noah Beery and Raymond Hatton.

THREE NEW CANDIDATES

Last week and this, three new candidates names have been added to our announcement column. Marlin Smith for Tax Collector, B. M. Kendrick for Public Weigher and R. E. Gaines for County Treasurer.

Mr. Smith made the race for tax collector four years ago. Four were in the race and he was the second high man. Most people will remember him as he passes around to renew his acquaintance. Mr. Smith is a good citizen, well qualified to fill the office, and promises, if elected, to serve you to the best of his ability.

Mr. Kendrick has lived in this vicinity the past 20 years and is a good citizen. He is known for his fairness and other good qualities. In fact, he is too well known to need any further introduction at our hands. He is thoroughly competent to fill the office, and if elected, will serve you to the best of his ability.

Mr. Gaines hails from Novice, but is pretty well known over the county, especially over the western part. He has lived in the county 38 years and is a good citizen. He is competent to fill the office, and if elected, will serve you to the best of his ability.

It is our understanding each of the above expect to make a personal campaign, and your favorable consideration will be greatly appreciated.

How To Quickly Stop Bad Coughs

It is often surprising how quickly the heaviest cough disappears when treated by a remarkable new method.

Here is the method, based on the famous Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs: You simply take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals irritation, but also loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the real cause of the coughing. So the severest cough soon disappears completely.

Dr. King's New Discovery is for coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, spasmodic croup, etc. Fine for children, too—no harmful drugs. Very economical, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

Don't forget that we will have preaching next Lord's Day morning, and evening. A full attendance is expected at all the services of the day.

The Bible School meets promptly at ten o'clock. Classes for all. We are having the best mid-week meetings that we have had for some time. Last week the meeting was led by Miss Josie Baxter. This was the most interesting meeting we have had in quite a while. Some were present from the Longview community. Bro. Scarborough made an excellent talk and Mrs. John Oakes sang a very touching solo. Quite a number told what their favorite chapter is and the reason why it was a favorite. Several called for a favorite song which was sung as requested. If you are missing these meetings you are missing something of great spiritual value. Come once and you won't want to miss the next.
