DR. TRUETT TO MAKE TRIP TO HOLY LAND

Dallas, Texas, June 14.—Dr. Geo. W. Truett, pastor of the First Baptist church of Dallas, will leave next Tuesday for New York, with a party of Dallas church workers, preparatory to sailing for Stockholm, Sweden, where he will be the convention speaker for the World Baptist Alliance, which will be in session there July 21 to 27.

Besides Sweden, Dr. Truett's party will visit Denmark, Germany, Austria, Egypt, Palestine, and the Holy Land, Italy, France and Switzerland, before returning home in October.

LOCAL GUARD COMPANY ENJOYS OUTING

The local National Guard company spent Saturday and Sunday in camp on the Jim Ned creek. The members of the company enjoyed the brief camp and are eagerly awaiting the time for the summer encampment at Camp Morby, Austin, Texas, the last two weeks in July. They expect to leave for Austin on July 15th.

LARGE RATTLESNAKE KILLED NEAR BANGS

H. P. Hall, farmer who lives south of Bangs in the western part of Brown county, recently killed a rattlesnake with 47 rattles and the usual button.

The snake was said to have measured about 6 feet in length and 3 inches through. Mr. Hall tried for some time to capture the monster reptile alive, but was unable to do so. He reported the snake to be a vicious one and fought him manfully.

T. E. L. CLASS

The T. E. L. class of the Baptist Sunday school met at the church last Friday for the purpose of reorganizing. The following officers were elected for the next year:

Mrs. R. C. Gay, president.
Mrs. Ford Barnes, 1st vice-president.
Mrs. Ed Wallace, 2nd vice-president.
Mrs. J. P. Matthews, 3rd vice-president.
Mrs. B. D. Kelley, secretary.
Mrs. J. W. Fulton, treasurer.
Mrs. W. B. Sparkman, reporter.

Mrs. Tom Campbell, teacher. It is especially urged that each member of this class be present at Sunday school next Sunday.

Reporter.

Sam Collier carried his wife to a Temple Sanitarium Wednesday for special treatment.

MORTUARY

W. T. Simms, age 62, passed to his reward last Friday, June 15, at the Timberlawn Sanitarium in Dallas. His remains were brought to Santa Anna and buried Saturday in the City cemetery, Pastor Leon Williams conducting the funeral services.

Mr. Simms made his home since the death of his wife, who died January 6th, 1919, with his son-in-law and only daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, south of town on the Whon road. He was carried to Dallas in April of this year for special treatment in hopes of regaining his much coveted health, but failed to respond to the treatment and death was the result.

Mr. Simms was a native of Tennessee, coming to Texas in the year of 1877. He lived first in Burnett and Bell counties, then moved to Cross Plains in Callahan county, where he lived until he moved to this county about twenty-one years ago. He was a member of the Christian church and lived a consecrated Christian life.

The News joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

A MANUFACTURING JOURNAL SAYS

"during our two-years political wrangle over ratifying the Versailles treaty we allowed the League of Nations to be butchered to make demagogues a holiday." The wrangle, if we remember right, was over the ratification of the league itself. And finally, when certain "reservations" were agreed on that would preserve the sovereignty of our government, the ones who had been the most insistent in their demands for ratification voted against it. The question then naturally arises who were demagogues who took the holiday? Certainly it could not be those who wanted to protect the independence of this country. In America the people are taught to believe that they are sovereign, and that no other nation has a right to dictate as to what we shall or shall not do. We still claim that much, anyway, and are not bound up in any kind of league that would rob us of that sovereign right.

Today (Friday, June 22) is the longest day in the year. It used to be dreaded when people worked "from sun-up to sun-down", but what do we care how long it is now? The only thing we hate about it now is the nights are too short.

I can do your NOTARY WORK, and will appreciate it.—J. T. MILLER.

STATE WILL ATTEMPT TO COLLECT OLD DROUTH LOANS

An Austin dispatch, June 12, says: "The House current resolution authorizing the attorney general to take steps to collect $193,000 due the state by 20 west Texas counties, representing a portion of the $4000,000 loaned to the counties by the State in 1918 during a drouth, was adopted by the Senate. An amendment specifying that the attorney general take such steps as in his judgment is necessary to collect the money, instead of such steps, 'legal or otherwise,' was appended to the resolution by the Senate committee."

Offeratory.
Closing Song—Blest Be the Tie that Binds.
Benediction.

HOUSE PARTY

Mrs. W. I. Mitchell and Miss Ruby Brannan were hostesses at a house party the past week. The guests were entertained with a swimming party on the creek, a trip to Coleman, and a slumber party last Thursday night, as well as other forms of amusement.

The out-of-town guests were Misses Edna Griffin, Johnnie Brannan, Loise Steward and Sidney Ritchie of Brownwood and Miss Ila Ruth Turney of San Angelo.

A Texas Lawmaker introduced a bill in the legislature fixing a small tuition fee for those who enter the state university and other institutions of higher learning, but the bill was promptly laid on the table. Why shouldn't a boy or a girl pay something for higher education, which cost the taxpayers so much, and which confers such advantage in actual money-earning power on those that receive it? The state owes it to every child to give him free a high school education, which is as much as 90 per cent of the children ever get, but any boy or girl who wants college or university training should be willing to pay for it. Furthermore, if the state gives a boy 2,000 in the way of free tuition to enable him to become a lawyer or civil engineer, it should give another boy $2,000 to start life as a farmer or stock raiser. The fact is, this country needs the latter about as bad as it needs lawyers, doctors, and engineers.

BAPTIST CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

A letter from Pastor Reynolds dated 18th inst., at Alvin, Texas, gives the following information: Dr. M. E. Davis, teacher in the Bible department of Howard Payne college, Brownwood, will preach next Sunday.

Rev. E. W. Goss will be here the first Sunday in July to do the preaching in the protracted meeting to begin here on that date. Mr. Payne of Abilene will lead the singing for the meeting.

Pastor Reynolds states that the meeting at Alvin, where he is now in the midst of a revival, had a good start and he feels they are going to have a great meeting.

In the rival contest between the two Sunday Schools here and at Coleman, Santa Anna gained a considerable lead over Coleman last Sunday, the reports being as follows: Coleman 58 per cent against Santa Anna 77 3-7, or a lead of 19 3-7 per cent, based upon the 6 point record system. Coleman voted unanimously to beat Santa Anna at the close of the Sunday School last Sunday, but if they do they will be going some.

This little friendly rival contest should be of great worth to the two Sunday Schools, and each place can improve grades by doing some real work of the right kind. Let all come out next Sunday.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION FOUND $565,000 MAY JUSTIFY RATE REDUCTION

(From Democrat-Voice)

The Commissioners' Court, sitting as a Board of Equalization, finished its labors after several days tedious and tiring work. In a number of instances property valuations were lowered and in others the renditions were raised it being the intention of the court not to raise valuations but to equalize them, as the court is required by law to do. Approximately $565,000 were added to the county property valuations. The increase came principally from non-resident and large land holders and live stock, the board raising valuations only where they appeared to be rendered at a lower value than other lands and property of like value and being careful not to do injustice to anyone, whether resident or non-resident owner.

It is possible that the increase in valuation may justify a reduction of the tax rate for next year. At the August term of the Commissioners' Court the court will fix the tax rate for the ensuing year, as required by law.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend thanks to those who were thoughtful of us and rendered us sympathy and in any way aided us during our recent bereavement in the death of our father and father-in-law, W. T. Simms. Friends are more valuable than any other possession, especially so in time of need.
J. W. Johnson, wife and family.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY IS CAUSE FATAL SHOOTING ON STREET AT LUBBOCK

Lubbock, June 17.—Alvie Hooper, 30, automobile salesman of this city, was killed, and John T. Halbert, 45, deputy constable, was seriously, perhaps fatally wounded at 1 o'clock this morning in a street duel across from the First Methodist church.

Halbert was shot first, having been wounded in the abdomen, after which he pulled his six-shooter and fired four or five shots into Hooper's body, who fell dead.

Halbert ran to the Lubbock Sanitarium, falling upon the lawn of the institution.

Halbert made a statement at the hospital saying that he saw Hooper, who was a dark complexioned man, walking down the street with two women, and that he followed them for a distance, after which he started to return to town. He said he took Hooper for a negro. He had walked four blocks, he said, when Hooper caught up with him and inquired if he were the man who had been following him.

"I might be," replied Halbert. Hooper then shot him says the deputy constable.

Halbert has a wife and several children, while Hooper leaves a wife, who was with him when Halbert accosted them this morning.

Mrs. Hooper and a friend, Mrs. J. H. Brown, were going home from town when the officer met them according to the woman, first brushed against them and then passed around them twice more. After reaching their residence Hooper turned on the porch light and then Halbert left. Not knowing the identity of the man who had been following them, Hooper obtained a weapon and started after him.

Both men used .38 caliber pistols. Hooper's father formerly was sheriff of Hale county.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon Halbert was still alive and it was announced at the hospital that he stood a fair chance of recovery. Halbert has been employed as a clerk by a mercantile firm here and was not serving full time as deputy constable.

The only explanation of the tragedy available is that both men made a mistake in identity. Both Hooper and Halbert have been regarded highly, Halbert having lived here for a long time. Hooper came here recently from Plainview.

Mrs. Chas. Eck and daughter, Evelyn, visited Mrs. Eck's mother in San Antonio last week. The mother accompanied them home for a visit in this city.

PICNIC SEASON IS APPROACHING

The picnic season is approaching and many live communities are making preparations for a big celebration some time this summer. Up to this date the News has not been informed of any intents on the part of Santa Anna to hold an annual picnic or celebration this summer, but we would gladly hail with welcome the news of such intentions, either on the part of the community as a whole or under the auspices of some local organization.

People can stay at home and live in the same place until they drift into a spirit of selfishness and their attitude toward their neighbors and fellowmen are very indifferent. Every community should have an all day picnic and celebration one day during the summer of each year, where all the neighbors can turn out in mass, mix and mingle with each other, re-hash and relate to each other their experiences and needs. We dare say there are communities in this country that have not held get-together community meet since the close of the World War. It may sound silly in us, but to break the monotony and regular routine of business there is nothing more exhilarating to us than a real old honest-to-god community picnic, where all the neighbors turn out with well filled baskets, have a good speaker to deliver a talk on the needs of the hour before noon, set a community table in regular picnic fashion, all come up and eat of the good things prepared for the occasion until their inward capacity is entirely filled; then retire to a tabernacle or some place prepared for such and spend an hour discussing the local needs of the community and how to accomplish them, then pull off a real ball game between two of the best teams the county can afford; mix in with all the other good things a few bottles of red soda pop and lemonade and such other accessories as is usually sold on such occasions; and late in the afternoon return to our homes tired, sore, saturated with new ideas and invigorated with new enthusiasm and thinking more of ourselves, our neighbors and the country in general. Who will be next? Personally the editor must attend at least one or two real picnics this summer.

Weatherford has a "Maggie and Jiggs" club. We suppose they entertain their husbands with a "corned beef and cabbage" banquet occasionally.

Those bootleggers who stole $50,000 worth of booze from the cellar of a Chicago millionaire ought to be able to sell it back to him for at least $100,000.

If the federal government is powerless to enforce the prohibition law, there are many old hickory democrats who believe it ought to surrender its authority and turn the question back to the respective states to be handled as the people of those states wish.

A pickpocket in El Paso, Texas, recently extracted money from the person of a man who was kneeling in prayer. He was caught and given five years in the penitentiary. A man should pray like he sleeps—with one eye open. The old style won't do in this progressive age.

Are you boosting for Santa Anna? If not, why not? It is the best town of its size in Texas and no other place even claims to be in its class. Talk about it, brag about it, and tell everybody and his uncle and aunt that you live in Santa Anna, the best little city in Texas and are proud of it.

Don't carry a grudge around with you all the time. It makes you look bad, and besides it makes you feel miserable. Get rid of your frowns and look cheerful. This is a pretty good old world and there are lots of things about it to make you happy. Meet your neighbor with a smile and a pleasant word.

Santa Anna needs a public park. This is one thing that should be taken up by the Chamber of Commerce and the other clubs of the city and put thru. A City park, equipped with such equipment as shades, water, lights and seats, where the home folks could go for Sunday school and class picnics, and other social functions and outings would be a great asset to our city and not cost very much compared to its worth. Tourists would also enjoy a stop-over in our little city if we had a nice park for them to rest in.

According to reports from over the country as given in our exchanges, this county is not hurt any worse if as bad as other places with the grasshopper pest. Coleman county has suffered along with the others but her farmers have put forth a fight second to none to rid their premises of the depredate pest. The victory has not been won but the fight continues and we feel that great progress has been made and fair crops will be made amidst the grasshopper invasion. We urge a continuance of the warfare as we believe that much good has been accomplished in the use of poison and other methods of fighting the pest. Keep the good work up.

Hard Daniels, a former resident of Brown county, and for several years a peace officer here, but who now lives at Sterling City, was a visitor in Brownwood for a few days this week. Mr. Daniels says that he has been traveling through different sections of the western part of the State of Texas, and that he finds the crops probably the best, on the average, that he has ever seen them during his long residence in this section. He says it is true that considerable damage is being done in certain sections by the grasshoppers, particularly in Coleman and adjacent counties. Everywhere, he observes, the farmers are up in arms, fighting the pests with every conceivable means.—Brownwood S-W News.

The Coleman merchants staged a Pure Food Show and Exposition in their fair city last week, which proved to be amusing and entertaining for the people of this county who saw fit to attend. Several from Santa Anna and this part of the county attended the show and exposition and were pleased with their trip.

Young People Who Know It All Should Not Read This
Are you chained to a small job and a small salary? Are you in a rut where you are just holding your own, where you are not improving yourself and have no future? Don't think you are standing still. You can't. You either move forward or backward. If you are not progressing you are losing ground. You have ambition, you want a good position and prospects for success in the future. Don't allow yourself to stay on a small job and a small income, without making any progress in life. Get your feet on the ladder of success. How are you going to do it?

There are several ways from here to there. You can travel the twenty-five thousand miles around the earth and arrive in the next street, or you can take a straight line across the block and reach your destination in two minutes. The world is full of the people trying to cross the block by going around the world. The ones who get somewhere are the ones who know how to select a direct route.

The direct route to a good business position is thru The Tyler Commercial College.

If you don't believe this, go out some day and make a dozen applications for positions. Approach, the employer and say "I would like to have some kind of a position," and when you are asked what you can do, tell him you haven't any particular training, but that you can do most anything. Ninety-nine times out of a hundred he will tell you he wants a bookkeeper, stenographer, typist, somebody who can do someone thing in a superior way.

There is a short cut to business success and there is a long route and when you are young you have the opportunity to select the one or the other. Successful business men are too busy to teach school in their office. Don't underestimate the difficulty of the task of working up. Select the shorter, direct route, through Tyler Commercial College, and you will reach your destination early enough to enjoy the fruits of the journey.

You do not have to be a sage to understand that these things are true but you will be a wise young man or woman if you realize their significance, realize that they apply to you and not to someone else, and take advantage of the opportunities that the right sort of a good paying position will open up. Take a course with us and we will place you in a good paying position as soon as you finish. Fill in coupon below and mail to us for free catalogue, descriptive of our courses of Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Business administration and Finance, Telegraphy, cotton Classing, etc., and of the largest commercial training, institution in America.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION No. 16.

Proposing an amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, which relates to taxation and revenues, by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 9a, directing the Legislature to provide for the construction, operation and maintenance, under State control, of a State system of public highways; providing for an election for the ratification or rejection of amendment herein proposed, and making an appropriation to defray the expenses of said election.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That there be submitted to the people of Texas, for ratification or rejection at a special election provided for herein an amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, amending said Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 9a, which shall read as follows:

Section 9a. The Legislature is authorized and directed to provide for the creation, establishment, construction, maintenance and repair of a system of improved highways throughout the State to be under the control of the State; and in order that the State may provide the means, revenues and instrumentalities the establishment and maintenance of such system of highways, the Legislature is empowered to levy and cause to be collected specific excise and ad valorem taxes, in addition of those permitted for other purposes in the Constitution, but such an ad valorem tax shall be imposed only for the purpose of retiring the bonds authorized by vote of the people of this State as provided for hereinafter in this Section.

When said system shall have been designated and taken over for the State as provided in Section 4 hereof, the Legislature is authorized to make provision for the equitable compensation to such counties for the value of such improvements as have been theretofore constructed by the Counties in the State.

Provided, also that save for the State highway system, in all other respects, Counties shall have the right to build, construct and maintain roads, turnpikes, and bridges within their respective boundaries and the Constitutional provisions relating thereto are not qualified or repealed by reason hereof.

The Legislature, at any Regular or Special Session, is authorized and directed to pass and enact all appropriate legislation necessary to carry out and effectuate the purpose and intent of these Articles.

Sec. 2. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to cause to be issued his necessary proclamation for an election to be held on the fourth Saturday in July, 1923, at which election this amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection and shall make the publication required by the Constitution and Laws of the State. Said election shall be held under and in accordance with the General Election Laws of the State, and the ballots for said election shall have printed or written thereon in plain letters the following words: "OFFICIAL BALLOT". "For the amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." "Against the amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways."

Those voters who favor such amendment shall erase by marking a line through the words "Against the Amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." Those who oppose such amendment shall erase by marking a line through them the words, "For the amendment to Article 8, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, providing for a State system of highways." And the result of the election shall be published and declared according to the majority of the votes cast in such election.

Sec. 3. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the necessary expenses of the proclamation and publication of this amendment and the election to be held hereunder.

S. L. STAPLES,
Secretary of State.

"Feeling Fine!"

"I was pale and thin, hardly able to go," says Mrs. Bessie Bearden, of Central, S. C. "I would suffer, when I stood on my feet, with bearing-down pains in my sides and the lower part of my body. I did not rest well and didn't want anything to eat. My color was bad and I felt miserable. A friend of mine told me of

CARDUI

and I then remembered my mother used to take it. After the first bottle I was better. I began to fleshen up and I regained my strength and good, healthy color. I am feeling fine. I took twelve bottles (of Cardui) and haven't had a bit of trouble since." Thousands of other women have had similar experiences in the use of Cardui, which has brought relief where other medicines had failed. If you suffer from female ailments, take Cardui. It is a woman's medicine. It may be just what you need. At your druggist's or dealer's.

CITATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS To the Sheriff or any Constable of Coleman County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. S. Martin, J. S. Martin, Sr., J. S. Martin, Jr., L. J. Storey, Administrator of the Estate of J. S. Martin deceased, E. A. Ford, Joseph S. Martin, Mary E. Caruthers, and Samuel R. Mathews, Defendants, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Coleman County, Texas, to be holden at the Courthouse thereof in Coleman County, Texas, on the 22 day of October A. D. 1923, then and there to answer the petition filed in said Court on the 11th day of June A. D. 1923, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 2803, wherein W. D. Mathews, is Plaintiff and the Defendants hereinabove named are the Defendants and all the Defendants in said cause; said petition alleging that heretofore to-wit: On the 1st day of June, 1923, Plaintiff was the owner of and in possession of the following described land and premises, lying and being situated in Coleman County, Texas, owning and claiming the same in fee simple from and under the sovereignty of the soil, to-wit:

278 acres of land in Coleman County, Texas, being 208 acres, a part of the J. S. Martin Survey No. 221, Abstract No. 491, and 70 acres being a part of the Brooks & Burleson Survey No. 1, Abstract No. 84, described as follows:

Beginning 916 vrs. N. from the N. W. corner of the Jno. F. Crawford Survey, No. 1, at a set stone. Thence N. 928 vrs. to a stone mound for corner; Thence E. 1266 vrs. to the E. line of the Jos. S. Martin Survey No. 221 and the W. line of Brooks & Burleson Survey No. 1, continue E. through said B. & B. Survey No. 1, 428 vrs. to a stone mound in the E. line of B. & B. Thence S. 63 with E. line of said Survey No. 1, B. & B. 928 vrs. to stone mound the same being the N. E. corner of a tract owned by J. R. Featherston and the S. E. corner of this tract. Thence W. 427 through said B. & B. Survey No. 1 said W. line continue W. through said Jos. S. Martin Survey No. 221 with N. line of said Featherston tract 1266 vrs. to the place of beginning.

That afterwards and on the 2nd day of June 1923, and while Plaintiff was the owner of and in possession of said land and premises as aforesaid, owning and claiming the same in fee simple, the Defendants unlawfully entered upon and disposed Plaintiff of such premises and unlawfully withheld from Plaintiff the possession thereof, to Plaintiff's damage in the sum of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

That in addition to his title in fee simple of said land and premises aforesaid, Plaintiff is the owner of same and entitled to hold the same under the five years Statute of Limitation as a further basis to his title to said land. Wherefore premises considered Plaintiff prays the Court that Defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition and that upon hearing hereof Plaintiff have judgement against said Defendants for the title and possession of the lands and premises and for all costs of suit and for such other general and special relief as he may be entitled to in law and in equity.

Herein Fail Not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Coleman, Texas, this, the 11th day of June, A. D. 1923.

W. E. GIDEON, Clerk, District Court, Coleman County. 24-4tc.

Great Men and Women of the Old Testament—Devotional Reading, Psalm 99.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us."—Heb. 12:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Favorite Stories of the Quarter.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Favorite Heroes and Heroines of the Quarter.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Some Great Characters of the Old Testament.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Lessons for Today From the Lives of Old Testament Characters.

Three methods are suggested. The first method is taken from Crannell's Pocket Lessons. The general subject is, "What Twenty Centuries Teach the Twentieth."

1. The Lesson of Vision.
  1. Abraham, the Pioneer—Lesson 2.
  2. Moses, the Nation Builder—Lesson 4.
  3. Isaiah, the Kingdom Seer—Lesson 9.
  11. The Lesson of Leadership.
    1. Samuel, the Foundation Layer—Lesson 8.
    2. David, the Soldier—Lesson 7.
    3. Nehemiah, the Rebuilder—Lesson 11.
  11. The Lesson of Courage.
    1. Elijah, the Reformer—Lesson 8.
    2. Jeremiah, the Truth Teller—Lesson 10.
    3. Esther, the Intercessor—Lesson 12.
  - IV. The Lesson of Character.
    1. Ruth, the Woman Who Claved—Lesson 5.
    2. Joseph, the Son Who Remembered—Lesson 3.
    - V. The Lesson of Life.
      1. Jesus, the Summit of the Old Testament, Foundation of the New, Life of Both—Lesson 1.

The second method—Character Study. The different characters can be assigned the week before, upon which the pupils are to bring a brief essay or report giving a sketch of the particular hero.

A third method is to give a brief summary of each lesson.

Lesson 1—The truth concerning the risen Christ is the answer for all our questions and the impulse of our testimony to others.

Lesson 2—Abraham in obedience to the call of God went out not knowing whither he went. He so completely trusted God that he was willing to go all the way with Him.

Lesson 3—Though Joseph was sold into slavery because of the hatred of his brethren, God exalted him to a place of power in Egypt.

Lesson 4—Even though Pharaoh's decree was for the destruction of all the male children of the Hebrews, Moses was preserved and educated in the Egyptian court.

Lesson 5—When Ruth became acquainted with the true God, she chose to turn her back upon her native land and kindred and identify herself with God's people.

Lesson 6—Samuel was given in answer to his mother's prayer. In early boyhood his mother gave him back to the Lord.

Lesson 7—When Samuel went to anoint a new king over Israel, he had all the sons of Jesse pass before him. Although to human eyes the eldest seemed fitted to be a king, and although outer appearances were favorable, the inner reality as seen by God was against him.

Lesson 8—Elijah threw down to the people a ringing challenge, calling upon the people to decide between Baal and the Lord. The God who answered by fire was to be the true God.

Lesson 9—Upon the sight of the Lord, Isaiah was convicted of his sin. When cleansed by fire from the divine altar he heard and responded to the call of God.

Lesson 10—Jeremiah, for his faithfulness in making known the Word of the Lord, was most bitterly hated and persecuted. Though he was regarded as a traitor and put into the pits of death, he remained faithful to God.

Lesson 11—When Nehemiah heard of the distress of his brethren in Jerusalem, he was moved with pity for them. Although he enjoyed prosperity, he grieved over the grave distress of his people.

Lesson 12—In the providence of God, Esther came to be the queen of Persia at an opportune time to save her people. There is a definite place and purpose in every life.

Life-Force.
Life-force, which is another name for God, seeks ever for new outlets; it breaks through mind into something higher still.—G. A. Studdert Kennedy.

The Art of Pleasing.
The art of pleasing consists in being pleased. To be amiable is to be satisfied with one's self and others.—Hazlitt.

Banish Self-Conceit.
The first business of a philosopher is to part with self-conceit.—Epictetus.
