LESSON FOR JULY 30

THE FIRST RETURN FROM EXILE

LESSON TEXT—Jer. 29:10-14; Ezra 1:1-11.

GOLDEN TEXT—We know that all things work together for good to them that love God.—Romans 8:28.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Psalms 66: 120; 131; Jer. 29.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God's People Return Home.

JUNIOR TOPIC—How God Kept a Great Promise.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How God Kept a Great Promise.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Striking Manifestations of God's Providence.

1. The Return From Captivity Predicted (29:10-14).

It seems that false prophets were flourishing in Babylon telling the people that they would speedily be restored to their own land. To counteract this the Lord moved Jeremiah to send this letter to the captives in Babylon (vv. 8, 9). In this letter he advised them to settle down and quietly pursue their regular callings of life and not to be led astray by the false prophets (vv. 6, 7).

1. The length of the captivity (v. 10). Their coming back was to be "after seventy years." From Daniel 9:2 it is clear that seventy years means a definite time. It dates from the time when the first company was taken captive among which Daniel was found.

2. Recovered by God (vv. 10-14). God's purpose in the captivity was to cure them of their idolatrous practices. He assured them that when His purpose was accomplished he would visit them and convince them of His good purpose toward them. When once this was done they would call upon Him in sincerity and He would be found of them. Their captivity He would turn away, gather them from all the nations and bring them into their own land.

11. Prediction of Captivity Fulfilled (Ezra 1:1-11).

1. The proclamation of Cyrus (vv. 1-4). (1) This was not by accident, but that the word of the Lord might be fulfilled (v. 1). What God has promised He will do; He never forgets. Wherever we find a promise which He hath made we can rest upon it; He will make good. (2) By divine initiation (v. 1). "The Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus." How this was done we do not know. Possibly Daniel brought to his attention the prophecy of Isaiah and Jeremiah (Isa. 44:28; Jer. 25:12). Every impulse to do good in all men is caused by the Lord—even a heathen king who may not have been conscious of doing His will, at God's appointed time took the initiative in this matter. It may have been that Cyrus only saw his own action as a piece of statecraft—the creation of a buffer state nation between his kingdom and that of Egypt. Be that as it may, God stirred him up to do His will. (3) The content of His proclamation (v. 2-4). (a) "The Lord God of heaven hath charged me to build Him a house in Jerusalem" (v. 2). This makes clear that he had some impression of God's hand upon him. (b) Appeal to Jewish patriotism (v. 3). He invokes God's blessing upon such as possess the national religious feeling, and commands them to go and build the house of the Lord God. (c) Build assistance (v. 4). Many of the Jews were established in business and therefore were not free to go. Many, no doubt, had lost their national spirit, and therefore were not anxious to go. All such were to lend friendly assistance in silver, gold and beasts. Those who cannot go to do God's work should strengthen the hands of those who do go.

2. The response of Cyrus' proclamation (vv. 5, 6). The chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin and the priests and Levites presented themselves as willing and ready to go. The company which returned was largely made up of representatives of Judah and Benjamin.

3. The royal favor (vv. 7-11). Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem and put into the house of his gods. This was a great encouragement to every loyal Jew whose heart had been grieved over the profanation of these sacred vessels. Now to have 5,400 of these vessels returned to their owners and sent back to Jerusalem to be put to their original use, met a hearty response by the Jews.

Who Knoweth the Lord's Mind. He that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him?—1 Corinthians 2:15, 16.

SANTA ANNA GIRL MARRIES IN DALLAS

W. J. Hosch and family received the news last week relating the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lottie to one Mr. N. W. Carpenter, an employe on the Dallas News. Mr. Carpenter lives in Dallas where they will make their future home. The News joins in extending best wishes.

INDIANS ATTACK GREGG FAMILY, 1841

In the fall of 1841, Judge Jno. Gregg moved his family from Alabama to Texas. Soon after crossing the Neches river, in Southwest Texas, Indians attacked the family and killed Mrs. Gregg and her eldest son, Thaddeus. Of the other two sons of the family one was wounded and the third carried into captivity by the savages. The story in detail will appear in the Magazine section of the Santa Anna News August 4th.

Many interesting features are being printed monthly in our 8-page Magazine Section—an addition to our regular issue—and sent to all subscribers without extra cost. Say a good word for the News. We will appreciate the favor and it will help to increase our patronage with subscribers and advertisers.

J. M. Knight and family of Prairie Dell, in Bell County, visited several days last week and this with Mrs. Knight's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. England west of town.
Mrs. H. A. Ball and children of Abilene are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hamiter and also her sisters, Mrs. J. S. Blake and Mrs. S. C. Carter of Longview community.

MINERAL RESOURCES OF TEXAS

In the August 4th issue of the News Magazine Section, E. H. Sellards, geologist of the University of Texas, will tell our readers of the wonderful mineral resources of Texas. There are millions of dollars, worth of minerals in Texas yet unmined and to a great extent, unknown. Read this story and keep posted on the potential wealth of your state. Also please mention the Santa Anna News to your neighbor, if he is not now a subscriber, and tell him how much good reading matter and how much valuable information he is missing by not being on our subscription list. The boost will help us to publish a better newspaper.

Bangs, our neighbor on the east, is planning to hold a community fair this fall. The News editor, during the ten years he lived in the town of Rising Star, Eastland county, Texas, assisted in holding several community fairs and we regard them as being real assets to any community. They have an educational value that but a few people realize. We would be glad to support a County Fair in this county.

NATIONAL GUARD GOES TO CAMP

The local National Guard Company under command of Capt. R. L. Mobley, and Lieut. Sam H. Collier, entrained yesterday morning (Thursday) for the annual Guard encampment at Camp Mabry, near Austin. Some of the members of the company know what army life is but the majority of the boys will have their first experience in army discipline, and no doubt will come back greatly benefitted by their experiences.

The designation of the local company is the Howitzer Co., 142nd Infantry and is a new unit, added to an infantry regiment. The officers and men of the company have been working hard in preparing for the encampment, and no doubt the Santa Anna boys will give a good account of themselves while there. The encampment will last fifteen days.

THE VALUE OF PUBLICITY

(The Walters Okla., Herald)
This is an age of publicity. The success of every business or undertaking of any character depends largely upon publicity. People who do things realize this fact and their first thought in the promotion of an enterprise is to secure publicity to put it over. The newspapers are the avenues through which most of the information which it is desired for the public to have is disseminated. The newspaper therefore is the most important institution in the community so far as its position to render service is concerned.

But not alone is the newspaper an absolute necessity to the business and material progress of a community, it also has to do with the moral, educational and religious life in a most vital way. There can be no intelligent and systematic growth along these lines unless the public is kept informed of what is being done or is proposed to be done. There can be no life without activity, and without constant publicity, and chiefly through the press, the cause will languish and die. People look to the newspapers for announcements, and through the reports of what is being accomplished they have their ambitions aroused and are encouraged to greater efforts along all lines of endeavor.

Any town or community that has a good newspaper has reason to congratulate itself. A paper that is so conducted that it will be welcomed in the homes of the people and that every member of the family will be glad to read, is an asset to the community where it is published. Of course it will not be run just as every person in that community thinks it should, or as he would run it, but if it runs, and maintains its self-respect, pays its debts and stands for the general upbuilding of its town and county, it is entitled to the whole-hearted and enthusiastic support of the people. It is a public necessity, and every intelligent, progressive citizen who is alive to his own interests and of his town wants to see it prosper in order that it may aid in the promotion of every worthy enterprise.

The wider the circulation the greater the service it is able to render, for it is the medium of publicity to all affairs of importance to the welfare of the town and country where it is published. Help to circulate it, give it your financial patronage, and thus build it up in order that it may promote your interests.

THE MENACE OF THE FLAPPER

Kathleen Norris, writer of national importance, analyzes the cause of the flapper in the August 4th issue of the Santa Anna News. She places responsibility for the flapper with parents and the present age of materialism. Read her story and tell the editor what you think of it.

A. U. Weaver and the News editor were among those who looked after business matters in Coleman Monday.

ANNA VERY QUIET ELECTION IN SANTA

The primary election Saturday was a very quiet affair, notwithstanding the fact, Santa Anna rolled up a record vote. It was our contemplated plans to publish the returns of the election by giving the number each candidate received at each box in the county, but due to several conflicting reports and the impossibility to get the report correctly, we will just summarize the result in this issue and in our next issue we will try to give the tabulated report in general over the county.

It seems at this writing, Tuesday, that Governor Pat M. Neff has a safe lead over all three his opponents and will not have to make the run-off in the second primary on August 26.

In the Senatorial race, Mayfield is leading with former Governor J. E. Ferguson second and the run-off will be between them on August 26. Mr. Mayfield, it appears, was the choice of the candidates among the Ku Klux Klan, which has been made an issue throughout the campaign, and the bunch often referred to as the "Dallas Clique" or "Dallas Demagogue," who five years ago led the forces in impeaching J. E. Ferguson and putting him out of the Governor's mansion at Austin has waged as hard fight as they could put up in this campaign against the so-called Klan Ticket, and now the question is, which one of the two evils will the "Demagogue" choose for the lesser one and line up with in the run off primary? Combining the vote of the two candidates endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan, Mayfield and Henry, and we only have about forty per cent of the total vote cast, and if the Klan is made an issue, which it most surely will, the anti-klan supporters will have to either support Ferguson or stay at home, and the question is, which had the "Demagogues" rather do, silently ignore both candidates or aline themselves with one or the other and stay with the party pledge? At any rate the campaign promises to be a hot one and the result is still a matter of wild speculation.

For Lieutenant Governor Mayfield and Davidson are leading and the run-off will be between them.

For State Treasurer, Terrell and Garrett will be in the run-off.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction, Marrs and Bently will be the run off candidates.

For Congress in the 17th district, in which Coleman county is situated, Blanton is leading the ticket but has not got a sufficient vote to give him the nomination over the other three candidates, Cunningham is the next highest man and may continue in the campaign until the last chance.

Civil Appeal Court, Third District, Judge Baker of Coleman and Judge Blair of Belton will be the run off candidates.

In the County Judges race, S. J. Pieratt of Santa Anna is leading by approximately 200 votes and Judge L. G. Mathews of Coleman second, and this contest will be a warm one in the county until the close.

For Tax Collector, J. C. Lewis is leading with Marlin Smith second, and the run off is between them on August 26.

For Sheriff, Dick Pauley is leading with W. R. Hamilton second and they are the run off candidates.

For Treasurer, Mrs. Collins is leading with Nolan Barmore second, we have not been informed whether or not Mr. Barmore will continue the contest, but it is predicted and expected that he will.

In the local precinct, Pearce defeated Vinson for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2. Flores is leading for Public Weigher with Bell second. Flores and Bell will be in the run off for Public Weigher.

For Constable of Justice Precinct No. 7, Conley defeated Hosch.

The other candidates had no opponents and in so far as we

B. I. CLUB

There seemed to have been a revival of the Idlers this week as almost every one was present Friday afternoon when the weekly meeting was at the home of Eudora Garrett. Truly a great deal is being accomplished in this club in the way of fancy work and though our minds may be idle, and wondering our hands are ever swiftly flying, and the results are at times amazing.

After two hours of conversation and work, and refreshments of cantaloupe sundaes, the following guests departed: Misses Ruth Crosby, Mildred Stockard, Inez Marshall, Lucille May, Ruth Stephenson, Grace Ewing, Georgia Gilmore, Athalie Moon, Ruby Brannan, Annie Lou Parker, Lois Verner, Winnie Todd, Hazel Verner, Thula Standley, Florence Dodgen, Zetta Parrish and Mildred Pearce.

DELEGATES TO COUNTY CONVENTION

In the precinct conventions held in Santa Anna Saturday the following delegates were elected to the county convention which meets at Coleman next Saturday.

South Ward: S. D. Harper, J. R. Pearce, Wallace Kirkpatrick, J. A. Parrish, Howard Kingsbery, J. D. Williamson, J. M. Weathers, O. C. Wallace, M. R. Cheatham, and S. A. Neill.

No resolutions were offered and the delegations were instructed, except to vote as a unit.

BASE BALL NEWS

One of the most sensational ball games of the season was played on the home diamond last Thursday afternoon, it being the second game between the Fats and Leans.

The Fats, having won the first game, were over-confident of victory in the second, but the Leans come-back with a vengeance and took the Fats into camp.

The game was a give and take affair from start to finish, neither side being sure of the outcome until the last man was out in the Ninth inning.

The feature of the game was the effectiveness of the pitchers on both sides, especially Dr. Sealy for the Leans and Jap Weathers of the Fats. No less than 35 hits were made on each side.

This ties the games in the series and therefore necessitates playing another game to decide the championship. The third game of the series will be played in the near future.

The score stood 22 for the Leans and 18 for the Fats.

BUY A SOUVENIR

The Junior members of the Baptist church have ordered 100 beautiful aluminum trays with a picture of the new church building in the center and dated data on each end of the tray, which they will offer for sale at 25cts each, the money to be used for improvements in the basement of the new building. The editor considers the souvenir worth the price and would love to see them disposed of in short order.

AT THE BRINK

There comes a time in the life of every man when he pauses upon the brink.

He is face to face with the crucial moment of his career, when another step forward may mean riches, yet wealth that is sustained by the odium of deliberate and intentional wrong.

If he takes the forward step his fate is sealed. He may repent of his act and make restitution, but the memory can not be eradicated from the minds of his generation.

If he retraces his steps and sets a different course he may not achieve the riches that are all but within his grasp. But he retains honor, which wealth can not but; respect, which integrity alone will command; and contentment, which is the heritage of a clear conscience.

The friend of today whom you admire and welcome to your home did not respond to the stained blandishments of a glittering future. He chose the path of honor.

The man whom you shun, the one whom your door is ever closed, took the forward step.

Time and repentance may cleanse his soul, but an eternity can not clear his name.

In order to have an efficient economically run government we must sidetrack the politicians and elect to fill offices with men capable and honest. Most of our financial troubles are bred in Washington and range from there over the entire country. If we want a government that will permit us to have peace and prosperity we must put the right

AS THE EDITOR SEES IT

One man says: "Times are not good but they will be better some day, and in the meantime I will just do the best I can and be thankful that I can do that much when the world is topsy-turvy."

Another man says: "Times are awful. It's a struggle to keep soul and body together. Everything is up in the air and I don't know what we are coming to."

Two sides of human nature—the optimistic and pessimistic.

One man is enjoying life under difficulties, doing his part toward making the world happier and leading it out of the chaos in which it has been plunged.

The other, his vision obscured by the darkness cast by his own shadow, sees only clouds where the sun is beginning to shine. Nothing satisfies him, because he expects miracles in a day when they do not exist. Nothing pleases him, because he is unable even to please himself. He is just here, can't help it, and wouldn't if he could.

Each of us is one or the other, or in between and don't know which way to turn.

Think well before speaking—look twice before you turn.

It is worth while watching the performances of young men who have completed their education and are just starting on their business careers.

You will note that some go quietly to work, continue faithfully at their tasks, and are often surprised when it is time to check off for the day.

Others don't start until the last stroke of the clock and quit at the first.

One class of these youngsters will get along in the world and as they go.

The others will never set the world afire. They won't even create a smudge.

Some of our esteemed foreign governments are strongly and religiously of the opinion that United States should go to the financial rescue of Germany.

The North Texas Normal College at Denton has just closed the first month's work for the summer term. The enrollment of more than 2440 students puts this school in a class with the largest summer schools of the country. In addition to that enrollment in the different departments, more than two hundred children are enrolled in the Training School maintained by the college. The faculty and administrative force for the summer consists of one hundred fifteen teachers and officers. In this student body are the following from this county: Pearl Sanders, Santa Anna; Mrs. Daisy Baum, Coleman.

An editor in Kansas who had announced he would put forth his best efforts to print the truth and nothing but the truth on a certain week recently is still in the hospital. One of his truthful productions read thus: "Married: Miss Sylvia Rhides to James Cannaham Sunday at the Baptist church. The bride was an ordinary town girl who did not know any more about cooking than a rabbit and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a gait like a duck. The groom is an up to date bum; has been a loafer living off the folks all his life and don't amount to shucks. They will have a hard life while they live together."—Ex.

THE JOY OF SERVICE

Everybody is seeking happiness. It is the chief object of life, and properly so. The Bible teaches us that eternal happiness is the reward for faithful stewardship in our labors, here among men, and we are admonished to endure suffering as "good soldiers" that we may inherit the crown of life and enjoy a home beyond the skies.

The person that loves is the happiest, and love begets unselfishness service to others. It is not always the ones who smiles most that is the happiest. Happiness is a state of mind—of the soul—and give peace and satisfaction that is often of such a deep nature that it is not known by any outward sign or demonstration. One cannot hate another and be happy. He cannot find pleasure in causing pain, or get satisfaction from revenge. Neither is the greatest happiness found in what others do for us. It is what we do to make others happy that gives us real and true happiness. There is joy in sacrifice, and nothing can take the place of the life of genuine and helpful service if we would have the full measure of satisfaction and contentment as we pass through the world.

There are so many pretty girls in this town it is difficult for a young fellow to decide which one he wants.

Goodrich announces new tire prices

—lowest cost mileage ever known

Effective July 20th, Goodrich establishes a revised price list that is a base line of tire value. It gives the motorist the buying advantage of knowing that whatever size tire he selects is of the same quality—the Goodrich one-quality standard. It gives him the longest mileage, the most satisfactory service and the highest quality his money can buy. Results will prove that it is impossible to buy tire mileage at lower cost.

Think of being able to buy

SINGING CONVENTION

The regular meeting of the Eastern District of Coleman county will be held at Rockwood next Sunday, July 30. All singers are invited to attend and participate in the singing.

Many parents complain that as their children grow older they cast off their obedience to parental law and lose their respect for parental authority.

But the child is not alone to be censured.

The parent who does not demand respect and obedience in the beginning will not receive it in the end.

Humoring and coddling does not produce either. Instead, it creates selfishness, ingratitude and ultimate indifference.

WHY BE HEALTHY?

Is there any special reason why we should take care of some abstract thing called health, or go out of our way to take certain precautions against disease that our fathers and grandfathers never heard of? They seemed well enough, we say, and they didn't worry over a long life free from disease. Nevertheless, it has been proven that our physical fitness is not a thing of chance. We didn't just happen to have a sound or weak body, as the case may be, and we most absurdly can improve the condition, and prevent future illness and weakened powers, no matter how excellent it may appear now.

Some may be astounded at the statement that health is the most important factor in a person's life, but it is a fact. It is above morals, influence, wealth, wisdom, and it should be the first consideration in every deal or adventure we go into. Who can enjoy education, money, power, and such pleasures, with a weakened physique? Who can appreciate God in spirit, in the highest sense, when a diseased body effects the mental and spiritual parts of his make-up? Can a man's morals keep at the top when suffering and physical inferiority are forever dragging him down?

Na, the first requisite of a normal, sane, harmonious, happy and successful life is health and we were not created with a flaw. There is no inferiority about the man that God made. The only inferiority in us is what we put into ourselves. What God made is perfect. The trouble is that most of us are but a burlesque of the man God patterned and intended. And perhaps our bodies are the most neglected, run-down parts of all.

People who have attained success, those who are above the average, didn't just happen to be it that way. There is no personal magnetism like health.

Here is the advice given by a successful singer to every person who wishes to make their possibilities into realities and be somebody: "The first requisite for success is a healthy free, vital body, throbbing with vitality, power, self-mastery. To this add a live, alert mind, as much spiritual quality as you can hold, faith in yourself and others, courage to face life, patience to work and wait for success, and love for people."

The person who follows those rules, whatever they do for a living, can't be a failure or a nonentity, and will over and above their occupation as a real person. Slice the twenty-four hours into three-eight hour shifts, one for work, one for sleep and one for recreation, and get to work to improve that body of yours—its your duty, and health, remember, comes first of all.
