MRS. MARGARET BENSON IN CHARGE OF HOSPITAL

In this issue you will find the announcement of Mrs. Benson. Mrs. Benson needs no introducing in cases in and around Santa Anna for several years. The Doctors all know of her ability, and those who have had her in their homes speak of her in the highest terms. Mrs. Benson is a graduate of John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, and has had much experience in the management of Hospitals. We know she will make a grand success as she is perfect in every detail of her profession, and with her efficient help Santa Anna Hospital will be second to none.

The Junior B. Y. P. U. enjoyed a real social hour at the church on Friday night. The Pastor furnished refreshments, and about fifty were present. Our union is growing in both interest and attendance, we had as our program last Sunday the works of Mohammed, the false Prophet, and Bro. Cooper of Brownwood made us a fine talk. Mrs. O. B. Rude is our leader and we all love her. The meetings every Sunday at three p. m. are open to all, and you are invited to meet with us. Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Walters of Cameron, Texas, were here last week visiting their relatives Mr. and Mrs. Ben Vinson.

Miss Elizabeth Walters and her friends, Misses Lyda and Marjorie Gresham spent the week-end with home folks here. Mrs. A. L. Bays and sons, Clyde and Raymond, and Mrs. E. J. Johnson report a nice time at the San Angelo Fair. While there Mrs. Johnson visited her son, W. J. Johnson.

Robert Roberts and Miss Fern Roberts, of Brownwood, spent the week-end with their mother, Mrs. Benson, at the Hospital.

The sand was touched the first of the week, and casing is now being set preparatory to giving the well a thorough test. This well is just a mile and a half from town and will open up a large amount of territory, the well being two miles from the nearest producer.

Bobbie Brown and Mondean Nabours entertained a few friends Friday afternoon from four to six, at the home of Mrs. Macie Blanton. Many childish games and contests were enjoyed, after which they were ushered into the dining room where a delicious refreshment course was served. They received many useful presents. Mrs. Blanton was assisted by Mrs. Floyd Walker and Mrs. Burt Howington, in furnishing entertainment for the youngsters. Those present were: Vonola Johnston, Tiny Parsons, Christine Faulkner, Ethel Jones, Thelma Biggs, Maggie Mills, Gale Erwin, Ola Polk, Dot Rude, Viola Phillips, Kora Rothermel, Mondean Nabours, Bobbie Brown, Master Add Taylor Walker and Mace Blanton, Jr.

At The Methodist Church

We are now closing our year's work preparatory to going to conference. Our conference will convene at Fort Worth, the 10th of this month and will continue in session until after the second Sunday. This has been a good year, and the pastor of the Methodist Church will go to Conference with everything paid in full. We have served a good people, willing to do their work well, and at the head of every good work of the church there is decidedly the best leader to be found anywhere, thoughtful, honest, earnest, unassuming, unpretentious, lovable, Godly in life, a man who believes it to be as honest to pay God that which he owes Him as it is to pay his neighbor (a Tither) need I call his name? No. Ever man in Santa Anna can call the name. (Romans 13. 7). Following this leader is as fine a company of men as any preacher ever served. Our Sunday School has doubled their Missionary contribution from the amount paid last year. The Woman's Missionary Society has almost quadrupled their amount collected last year, one good woman gave the society $100 in cash, she is a tither. The Woman's Missionary Auxiliary is clothing a boy at our orphanage. The pastor's salary was raised $600 over the salary of last year. A new parsonage was bought at a cost of $5000, not quite paid out, but there has been $651.15 paid out on the church parsonage this year. There are but few churches can excel the work of our church. Here I wish to thank the good people in and out of the Methodist church for the many kind words which have spoken to me in the closing of my work, the young and old alike have expressed a desire that I be returned. The little children have been telling me they wanted me to come back. If I return I will do my best to serve the people. If I go to some other place I will always remember my friends in Santa Anna. Come out Sunday morning, Nov. 7, 11 a. m., and I will preach to you. Josephus Lee, Pastor.

JUNIORS

The Juniors have had no report in the paper for quite awhile. We wonder why?

The ball games between the High School classes have been rather interesting. The Seniors said there would be plenty of room in the hospital for the Juniors; we found there was room for some of the Seniors, also.

In history class Miss Poole said, "This exam will count as much as a weekly test." Clifford replied, "Yes, I expect mine will be pretty weakly."

In the foot ball game between the Sophs and Juniors the Juniors came out ahead, despite the fact that the Sophs had eleven players and we had only seven.

Jerry and Norman said that some members of the class ought to be "canned" for hollowness for the Sophs, but "the yellow ones are few."

The Juniors certainly enjoyed (?) the parade. We ought to have won a thousand votes, at least.

We are wondering how the Sophs survived some of the "roughing" the Juniors gave them.

Jerry swore off foot ball if he has to miss Spanish class to play, but we can not see why, when he seems to make good use of his Spanish vocabulary while playing.

"Twelvey" Hosch played fine foot ball in the game with the Sophs.

One of the slender members of the class is taking "the rest cure."

We wonder why Clara wanted the parade to be longer. (Who said, "Walking is a good reducer.")

If the reporter has as good help as was obtained this time, there will be a report every week.

Miss Laura Vinson visited in Temple and Waco last week-end.

The Methodist ladies will render their Annual Missionary Program next Monday afternoon beginning at three o'clock. The ladies of other churches are cordially invited. Every Methodist woman is urged to be present.

Santa Anna Machine Shop

Ed Sanderson, Manager

TRADING WITH SMYRNA.

According to a recent consular report from Smyrna trading in that district since June 1, 1919, has been attended by various difficulties. The districts controlled by the Greek forces of occupation have been almost completely cut off from the interior, and Smyrna as a distribution point for much of Asia Minor has suffered extremely as the result. In addition the very high and constantly fluctuating dollar exchange has greatly handicapped American trade. Imports from the United States have included vast quantities of foodstuffs, as well as petroleum and its derivatives. Orders for considerable quantities of oleo and muton oils have been placed in the United States, also an order for 6,000 horse and ox plows to be given to peasants of this region, both Turks and Greeks. Several experiments have also been made or are to be made with regard to tractors.

1,000 PER CENT PROFIT.

A young bachelor we know is extraordinarily fond of green corn. He has a valet who cooks his food, and a few days ago the valet was ill. So the bachelor went marketing. And bought some fine corn. At 5 cents per ear. The following night he dined at the Astor. Where he ordered corn. At 55 cents per ear. He asks us to explain on what this profit is based. We cannot. Can you?—New York Globe.

GREAT LUCK.

A little golf story from New York. A wife, green at the game, said to her husband: "I had fine luck this morning. I did the nine holes in par."
He looked skeptical.
"I did," she insisted. "Of course it was par. Haven't you always told me that par is 100?"—Boston Transcript.

TIMELY WARNING.

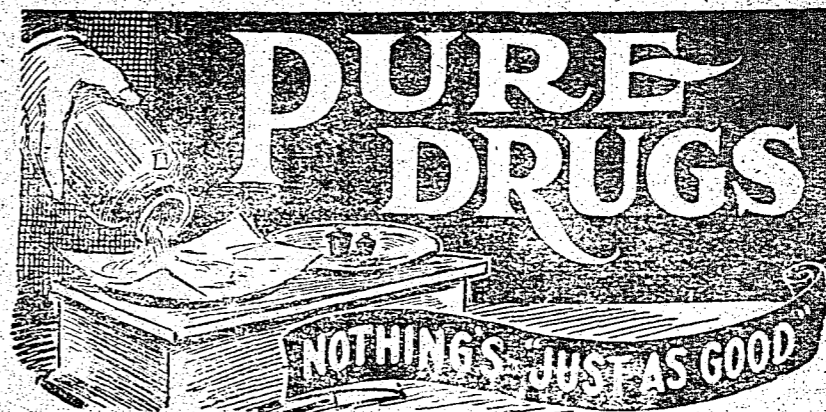

"Let me give you a piece of advice," said the first baseman.
"What is it?"
"When this little argument we're in get's into court don't make the mistake of trying to talk to the judge the same way you would to the umpire."

The Holy Terror.

Lady—They say Father Hooler advanced to the altar with a prayer book in one hand and a bomb in the other.
Returning Soldier—They're always trying to belittle a good man, mum.
Lady—Isn't it true?
Soldier—No, lady; he had bombs in both hands.—The Marine.

The Proof.

"A woman can never come to the point."
"How can you prove such an assertion?"
"Prove it yourself; just watch her try to sharpen a lead pencil."

Regardless of the profit involved we do not recommend substitutes.

Our chief aim is to sell you what you want, as you want it.

You can confidently rely on the quality, the purity, the accuracy of handling of each purchase made at this store.

In Practice.

"I see your wife has one of those hobble skirts."
"She was early in the game. I'm going to make some money this summer."
"How?"
"By taking her around the picnic circuit. She ought to win first coin in any sack race for ladies."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Great Expectations.

A certain hard-bolled lieutenant called in a sergeant to letter his locker. After thinking it over, he said: "You might leave the lieutenant off as I expect to be made captain shortly."
"You are?" innocently suggested the sergeant, "leave a space between the lieutenant and your first name, so you would meet Col.?"—Boston.

The Poet's Corner.

Visitor—Who caused that unsightly fence to be put up in this beautiful neighborhood?

"Oh, that is the home of John Sweetstinger, the famous portrayer of the poetry of child life, author of 'Songs of Childhood' and 'Rattling Voices at Twilight.' He had the fence built to keep out the neighbors' children."—Life.

A Surprise.

"What's the hubbub in the inside office?"
"The old man is savage today and the fool office boy let in an agent with a 'Life of Cromwell.'"
"Well?"
"I suppose he is selling his life dearly."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
