SMOKE FROM THE MOUNTAIN

The News will go to press on Wednesday next week in order that the News office may observe Thanksgiving as a holiday. Correspondents, advertisers and subscribers who want to get news in next week's paper must see that they are in—preferably Tuesday afternoon, but not later than Wednesday noon. It is customary for the majority of business firms to close here for Thanksgiving. Do your shopping early.

The News is still getting word from readers hoping that another article on "old Santa Anna" will be carried soon written by Mrs. C. D. B. We quote from a letter received recently from a subscriber renewing her subscription:

"I hope Mrs. C. D. B. may be persuaded to write more of her memories of early days in Santa Anna. Her recent article appearing in the News was truly delightful; I am sure no native daughter or son read it without genuine interest and a faint nostalgia for the 'days when.' Thank you for refreshing our memories."

Last Mountaineer Game of Season To Be Played This Afternoon At Rochelle

By News Sports Writer

The 1938 football season has come and gone with the rapidity of a shot. This week the local eleven plays the last game of the season with Barney Hale's Rochelle Hornets at Rochelle Friday afternoon at 2:30. The Mountaineers meet the Hornets in their homecoming game and the dedication of their new stadium.

Cocher Hale has a wealth of material at the McCulloch County school, much of it being inexperienced however, but he has done exceedingly well in his first year of Class B competition. The Hornets backfield is sparked by the big bruising fullback Weldon Roper who handles a great majority of the ball carrying duties and does all of the passing and kicking. Roper is one of the best passers and kickers in the entire circuit, and his aerial attack will deal the Mountaineers plenty of trouble. Hale's other stellar performer in the secondary is Penn, the 170 pound quarterback who is also a very versatile man. The majority of the Hornets offensive burdens will fall upon these two men, and if the Mountaineers can stop their thrust they should have a pleasant evening.

The last two days of practice for the Mountaineers has been spent perfecting a pass defense against the mighty heaves of the great Roper, and the results have been rather encouraging to the coaches.

The Mountaineers in this one game can go a long way in making up for the dismal showing that they have made so far this season by winning this game, and thus taking some of the color and joy out of the Rochelle homecoming crowd. It is known to be somewhat of a distinctive feat as well as an honor to defeat any of their homecoming day

Poll Taxes Will Be Assessed With Ad Valorem Taxes

This year all assessed poll taxes, which is a per capita tax and a voting franchise tax in Texas, must be collected at the same time assessed ad valorem taxes are collected, according to a statement made by Frank Lewis, county tax assessor-collector. Mr. Lewis is acting under instructions from the state comptroller, George H. Sheppard and the county collector will be charged with uncollected poll taxes.

Of the $1.75 poll tax, $1.00 goes to the state school fund, 50 cents to the state general fund and 25 cents to the county general fund.

The instructions this year are due in part to the controversy over discussion in the summer of Governor-Elect W. Lee O'Daniel's failure to pay his poll tax and his statement that if he should have paid, the collector should have told him to do so.

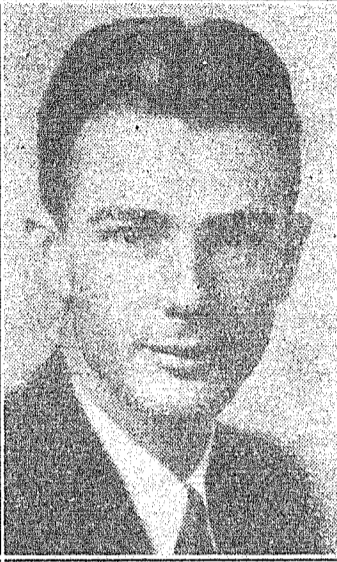

Instructions from the state comptroller include these points:

"1. The tax assessor-collector is specifically instructed to assess each person of his county that is or might be subject to the payment of a poll tax and enter the assessment for such poll tax upon the list or inventory rendered by any person for taxes.

"2. The tax collector is specifically instructed not to accept payment of property taxes from any person or persons subject to poll taxes, except in case of homestead, without collecting for the poll tax, or poll taxes, due by such person, or persons; that is the poll taxes charged to a taxpayer on an assessment and tax roll must be collected at the same time the property taxes charged on the assessment and tax roll are collected. Property, other than homestead, is liable for the payment of the poll taxes."

Chairman Chosen For Communities Red Cross Drive

Red Cross Roll Call Chairman for Santa Anna, Leroy V. Stockard, has appointed chairman for the outlying communities of Santa Anna for the opening campaign next Monday morning. They are W. J. Curry, Buffalo; H. O. Norris, Liberty; A. J. Martin, Trichham; Boss Estes, Rockwood; and G. C. McDonald, Shield.

Chairmen for Santa Anna will be appointed this week-end and all will begin work Monday. Mr. Stockard, elected chairman last week at a meeting of Red Cross officials and civic representatives, will cooperate with County Chairman Dalton of Coleman in raising more donations this year than last when only 25 per cent of Coleman County citizens had membership. This percentage will be increased this year if possible.

Funds from the drive for membership, dues of which are $1.00, are used in aiding stricken families or stricken areas in the nation, when floods, tornadoes, and other catastrophes occur. Most current example in this vicinity of the Red Cross aid was last spring when the San Saba flood destroyed homes, property and lives.

The Santa Anna News has been designated by Chairman Stockard as local headquarters for accepting donations, if the chairmen in the community do not reach the persons wishing to give.

Despite death due to severe winters, crop failures, Indian massacres and lack of necessities of life, they were thankful that they had reached a land of freedom from persecution from members of their own race, where they could worship as they chose.

We, Too, Can Give Thanks

On the day set aside by the United States to give nationwide thanks as did these Pilgrim forebearers, who stood even greater trials than we do today, yet who never forgot to give due thanks for blessings to the One who gave food, clothing and material things, as well as spiritual guidance. We can also pay tribute on next Thursday to these same Pilgrim Fathers for giving America such an example of trust and faith—that no matter what comes, we have an abundance to be thankful for. May we join with you in a true, sincere observance of Thanksgiving Day.

Glad Hand Class Has Banquet

Members of the Glad Hand class of the Methodist Church enjoyed a banquet and social hour last Tuesday evening in the dining hall of the church.

In keeping with Armistice Day, the colors of red, white and blue formed attractive decorations and garlands of fluted crepe paper festooned the entertainment rooms. Flowers were chrysanthemums and geraniums with ferns.

The class motto "Friendly Builders" was brought out in a talk on "Friendship" by Mrs. Jodie E. Baker. Letters of congratulations and good wishes from two former class teachers, Mrs. Homer Vanderpool of Cleburne and Mrs. M. A. Edwards of Fort Worth were read to the group by Mrs. Jim Daniell.

In a class contest which closed last Sunday, Bibles were awarded the seven winning contestants and were presented by Mrs. Chap Eeds who expressed to the entire class her appreciation of their loyalty and cooperation.

Mrs. Jim Daniell, the retiring president, was presented with a Dresden cake plate and server. Mrs. Daniell has served as president of the class for two terms and a rising vote of thanks was accorded her for her untiring faithful and loyal service. She responded with an appropriate talk expressing her thanks to the entire class and the various committees who have assisted her throughout the year.

The nominating committee, composed of Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Adrian Davis and Mrs. Collin Price, recommended the following officers who were unanimously elected by the class: president, Mrs. Harry Cator; vice president, Mrs. R. W. Willis; secretary, Mrs. James Simpson; assistant teacher, Mrs. W. R. Mulroy. Mrs. Chap Eeds had previously been elected as teacher. New officers will assume duties at the beginning of the new church conference year.

Chosen colors of red, white and blue were further carried out in the table appointments and plate favors. The menu consisted of roast turkey, dressing, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, curled celery, English peas, creamed potatoes, fruit
