

This Week in Our Town

RUBEN FULTON IS NOW RECEIVING instruction in watch repair from an instructor holding classes at Comanche. The Lions Club of Santa Anna used its efforts in Ruben's behalf for an extended period, bringing in the State Rehabilitation office as a last resort to secure vocational education for Ruben, who has been a cripple for the past few years as the result of a rock pit cave-in. Ruben will return to Santa Anna able to earn a living for himself and family. Jerry accompanied his father as helper and will attend school at Comanche this term.

SALES MANAGER WILEY OF THE Turkey Egg Co-op was in town Tuesday to arrange a meeting of the Turkey Egg Producers of the county in the very near future, at which time the directors for the ensuing year will be selected and plans made for the approaching egg season. Wiley is just back from the national convention at Kansas City has all of the newest wrinkles to pass on to the membership.

WE REGRET TO STATE THAT John Payne, local jeweler and war veteran, is seriously ill in Sealy Hospital. Our best wishes for his early recovery go with those of the host of friends of the family.

BILL POSTMA, field executive for this council area of the Boy Scouts, was a guest making attendance at the Lions Club on Tuesday. Postma explained the area financing plan and clarified the situation for a number who were puzzled over the set-up in Santa Anna.

BILL GRIFFIN'S STILL YOUNG enough to celebrate his birthday but forty is approaching the turning point. When he hits fifty he will begin subtracting until he's in his second childhood.

BRO. WOMACK LEFT A PIECE of news in the News doorway morning and asked on the phone later if we found it. Yes, we did—also 493098 crickets. D. O. Hawkins is the only man collecting crickets. Deposit them to his account at Oscar's place instead of our door, please. We assume the Reverend considered them news and left them with us.

SHERMAN SHEFFIELD, WHO has a host of friends in and near Santa Anna, left last Thursday for Charleston, South Carolina, where he has a position in the ship yards as an acetylene cutter. Mrs. Sheffield, LaVerne and Don will spend a short time with relatives near here while Sherman locates quarters for them. Sherman's brother wrote him to come alone and find a place to live before bringing the family, as living quarters are scarce.

JODIE MATHEWS IS PROUDLY displaying the new Plymouth Sedan, which is a beauty, trimmed with plenty of cromulm. Lucky the buyers of the present production, as next year's models will likely be of Spartan or Puritan simplicity due to army and navy demands for material for defense purposes.

HOMER SMITH WAS EXTRA glad he was down town Wednesday afternoon. He was the recipient of an award of $73.87 for trading in Santa Anna.

NEWMAN UPTON WHO HAS been the Piggly-Wiggly right bower since Oakes got promoted, has promoted himself to Coleman Flying Field to help Uncle Sam. Odell Box has taken Newman's place.

ANOTHER PROMOTION IN THE grocery business is over at the Hunter Bros. Red & White Store, where Glen Pope has gone on duty stop-gapping for Archie Dean Hunter, who with Garland Bissett, has gone to California to study aviation and airplanes.

T. L. REID HAS BEEN MADE assistant manager of Wacker's 5c and 10c Store at Monahans. Wacker's is a chain store with a good future for capable young men who succeed in getting on their rolls. Mrs. Reid will join T. L. as soon as he can secure a house for them to live in.

HOWARD PEARSON IS MORE than a good C. C. secretary, he's a good neighbor. While our auto is in Mathews' auto hospital, we ride back and forth with Howard. He lives opposite us.

THE LOCAL LIONS CLUB HAD 100% attendance Tuesday. This is 100% attendance week.

SUFFICIENT UNTO THE DAY.

A lake project in progress that will cost approximately $65,000, including federal and local funds and works on an average of about 40 men daily. The working pipe line from the new lake to the pump, rebuilding the old dam, building a road to the lakes, building parks around both lakes, rebuilding the settling tanks. After this project is finished, there is a street project to begin that has already been approved by the authorities in Washington and the money allotted. This project calls for an expenditure of approximately $135,000.

COOKING SCHOOL NOTES

WHITE WING HUNTERS ARE TO REMOVE BANDS ON BIRD

If you're a white-wing hunter and bring down a bird with a band on its leg, don't throw either the bird or the band away.

It's not unlawful to kill a white wing or any other bird that has been banded.

Take the band off the bird's leg and send it to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, Austin, Texas.

The bands are used for purely scientific purposes. Assistance of sportsmen in getting the bands returned to the Commission will be greatly appreciated the Executive Secretary of the Commission said.

Birds are banded so that wild life research scientists may check accurately on migrations and other life habits of birds, and recently hundreds of white wings were banded in the lower Rio Grande Valley. Please help the Commission help the birds by returning any bands discovered!

WEST TEXANS TO CANADA

Three West Texas youths, two of them graduates of Texas A & M. write from Ottawa, Can., that they had a wonderful reception, that there are 15 girls to each man—but you can't understand what they say—after driving 2,700 miles to join the Canadian Air Force. Starting out from Dallas, August 29, the young men who all hail from Texas, arrived in Ottawa during the weekend. The sons of prosperous ranchers, they left home to "get in the fight. If there's a war Texans are bound to be there." Complete with southern drawls, nicknames and one pair of embroidered and high-heeled cowboy boots, the Texans are all well over six feet tall. Their names are Clarence A. (Duke) Rhode, of Brady, who is six feet two inches and is 25 years old; Herbert (Kid) Currie, of Coleman, two inches over six feet and 20 years old; Raymond Gregg is three and a half inches over the six foot mark. Gregg is a Dallas youth who had been living in Coleman, where he was employed by the government, for a year or more. Rhode and Gregg played football at A. & M. College. SANTA ANNA IS FORTUNATE in that so few people had the ambition to be chislers during the not-so-long-ago-past demand for rent houses and apartments. A few people set prices beyond the bounds of reason, but most of them deemed it only just to leave the tenant at least enough to buy groceries and pay running expense. Our little boom did not last long, for we have few rent houses and apartments beyond the local demand. Some cities with defense or military laborers flocking in have passed ordinances setting limits property owners may charge; in others the chamber of commerce set agreed limits and saw to it the figures were adhered to. In other instances the commanding officers of camps have informed nearby towns that hijacking of soldiers would result in soldier trade being taken from them. That forces those who believe in a square deal to sit down hard on the local hijackers and chislers in order that the towns benefit from the increased trade and not resort to robbery under the thin guise of increased rents to earn more money. In one town near an army camp in West Texas a regular $12.50 frame house is rented at $25 and the owner wants to lift it to $37.50 a month. Another old building that has been unused for a long time has been remodeled a bit and the owner asks $65 for an upstairs apartment that is worth a whale of a lot less, evidently, as a prospect said he could better house his family in Hotel Brownwood for less money. In Louisiana reports say a drink stand that did a little bolder hijacking was demolished by irate soldiers. We don't believe in mob action, but hurrah for those boys! Santa Anna people will be satisfied to keep their houses and apartments rented at decent prices rather than become known as some towns— with highpowered cussing used to describe their people.

PROTECTING THE SMALL NATIONS has been one of the self-imposed duties of the Germans. When England and Russia joined hands to keep the Germans from protecting the Iran, there was an awful howl from Hitler over the verdammt englischers invading a neutral small country. Well, it looks as if Adolph is having one sweet time protecting Russia against the Russians and British just now. And Mussolini the Muscle opines the end is not far off, now that the United States is out to protect delivery of its lend-lease goods in Iceland. Adolph has a hard nut to crack in even attempting to keep up with Napoleon's record. Withdrawing vast numbers of troops from France and the Pay Bas is leaving him subject to war on another front, where revolt against his control will aid the invaders.

ADD TO THE LIST OF CURIOSITIES the radio announcer who talks about the "luftwaffah", and the one nearer home who reports war news from the "Eucher-rain" and says the "Mosssoleums" of Egypt are mad at the "nazzies". All this is "unnecessary", of course, as the boys have "sectrics" to watch that they pronounce words "extly" right.

BANK EXAMINING JOBS ARE OPEN TO YOUNG MEN NOW

An opportunity to enter a career of bank examining is offered young men of the country by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, according to a recent announcement by the United States Civil Service Commission. Applications for admission to a competitive examination for positions as Junior Bank Examiners with FDIC, at an annual salary of $2,000, will be accepted by the Commission until October 2, 1941. These positions, which provide excellent experience in banks of all sizes and which involve extensive travel, should interest eligible young readers of this newspaper. Charged with responsibility for protection of depositors in more than 13,400 banks throughout the country, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation believes that sound banking can be furthered by the application of realistic, consistent supervisory standards through the medium of banking examinations. As a consequence, the Corporation always has considered bank examination one of its most important functions, and has tried since its inception to maintain an examining staff of able conscientious men who are trained in banking and finance and who want to make bank examining their career. For three years Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has followed the practice of recruiting junior personnel for its examining staff through competitive examinations, and filling vacancies in its senior staff thru promotions from the junior ranks. Bank examining thus has become a true career service, with splendid opportunities for advancement to higher rank and pay. The Corporation is seeking men between the ages of 23 and 35 who have had at least one year's experience in a bank, building and loan association, or other financial institution, together with either three additional years of such experience or three years of college, acountancy, or law school education. The written examination, to be given in a large number of centrally located cities and towns throughout the country, will consist of two sections, the first designed to test applicants' practical knowledge of commercial and banking and the second to test their education, since its inception to maintain experience and fitness. An oral examination subsequently will

To remove brown stains from china, rub well with a damp cloth frequently dipped in salt. Wash as usual.

When making pea soup, always throw in a slice of bread. It prevents the peas from sinking to the bottom of the pot and burning.

It's a good idea to boil new clothespins in salt water before using. This process toughens them and prevents them from splitting.

Lemon butter does a lot for cooked beets, green beans, asparagus, turnips, and cabbage. Mix two tablespoons of lemon juice with 5 tablespoons of butter and pour over 3 cups of any cooked hot vegetables.

Save all your salt, flour and sugar sacks. Wash them well in plenty of hot soapy water and rinse them thoroughly. They are fine for storing fruits and vegetables in the refrigerator. Give them a good washing and sunning at least once a week.

be given to those ranked highest in the written tests. Appointments will be made, as the need arises, from among applicants with the highest combined ratings for service within the FDIC district which includes the candidate's legal residence.

RATE REDUCTION FOR STOCK SHIPPERS

According to information from Washington, railroads have granted a rate reduction designed to benefit livestock shippers. The rate concession, which became operative August 1, is experimental for one year. Sale-in-transit privileges will be accorded shippers of stocker and feeder animals at central markets at the through 85-percent stocker and feeder rates from origin to destination.

The rate adjustment is important to Texas cattlemen because this state is the largest shipper of livestock in the United States, said Paul G. Haines of the A. and M. College Extension Service.

"The privilege of sale in transit means that when a shipper finds a more favorable market during transit he can unload his cattle and sell them without rate penalty," Haines said. "This does not mean elimination of certain rate differentials affecting the southwest, but it is a step in the right direction." The railroads announced that continuation of the new schedule would depend upon whether increased traffic justified it.

A HOSE PREDICTION

Beautiful cotton hose, the kind women will be proud to wear, will be one result of the present hosiery situation. That is a prediction of Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist for the A. and M. College Extension Service. Just how long it will take to develop that kind of cotton hose, she won't say.

"Somehow I can't get excited over the present shortage of silk hose for something good will come out of the situation," Mrs. Barnes explains. Other fibers, such as nylon probably will be used more and more. Already manufacturers are combining nylon and cotton in hose, making cotton tops and toes and the remainder of the stocking nylon

In addition, rayon will be used more in hose, since the United States ranks third in the production of that material. It can be made into hose that will wear well and are attractive.

Most women use little silk these days, the specialist points out, since so many other beautiful synthetic fibers are available and the cost of pure silk is so high. In many small stores it is impossible to buy pure silk.

Because of the current interest in the hose situation and in new cotton hose which are being developed, Mrs. Barnes will broadcast on the Farm and Home Program from Stations WBAP, KPRC and WOAI on September 16 at 6:15 a. m. Her topic will be, "The Cotton Hose Situation."

ADDED EMPHASIS PLACED ON TERRACING

Terrace your land now and pay later when you get your AAA payment is the new advice Texas farmers will have available under the farm program in 1942.

With the program placing still greater emphasis on soil-building practices in 1942, terracing has been added to the conservation materials and services program to enable more farmers to terrace their land, Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, has announced.

This phase of the AAA program, designed to assist cooperating farmers in carrying out more soil-building practices already makes it possible for them to obtain phosphate, Austrian winter peas and vetch during the planting season and the costs of materials are being deducted from their AAA payments. Similar arrangements may be made in those counties which adopt the terracing program Rennels explained.

County AAA committees, in counties where there is sufficient demand for the terracing program, will let bids on a 100-foot basis to contractors who will be paid by the AAA after the terraces are completed, the AAA official said.

Under this program, farmers may use 70 percent of their total farm payments for terracing.

Maj-Gen. Claude V. Birkhead has been relieved as commander of the 36th division, federalized Texas National Guard because he has reached 62 years, the age set by the war department for retirement of field commanders. He was succeeded by Brig-Gen. Fred L. Walker, infantry commander, Second division.

The opening enrollment of Brady schools totaled 1162.

It's Funny How

Folks Still Call it the "Light" Bill

"WELL, Mary, here's the light bill for last month. Funny, isn't it, how we still call it the light bill! Remember when it really was the light bill?"

"U-u-m-m. Yes, sirc. We were mighty proud to have just electric lights . . . and in those days we paid about as much every month as we do now, and all we got was light. And they were off in the daytime, too, and we weren't too sure of 'em at night.

"It's sure different now. We get darn good service. For about what we used to spend for lights alone, we're lighting the house a lot better and washing and ironing clothes, cleaning the rugs, toasting the bread, running the radio, using the refrigerator, and shaving my face. I'd say we're getting a lot more for our money."

"Why not call it the 'Service' bill?"

Yes, the old-time "light" bill today really is for "electric service," which has taken away a lot of old-fashioned drudgery and added a lot of pleasure and enjoyment. Electric service has been doing these things for less and less money. The thousand men and women in this organization have had the training and experience to serve you more economically. You profit from the business operation and management of the company which has but one aim—to keep on giving you better service at lower cost.

Letters from the People:

"Our present low electric rates, cheaper appliances, and unsurpassed service are indeed a joy when we look back to the old days of frequent interruptions and part-time service. . . . We often resorted to the kerosene lamp, stored away handy. And we paid 15 cents per kilowatt-hour and 50 and 60 cents for bulbs . . ."

WITH FARM PRICES UP, THE FARMER IS CONSERVATIVE

With farm prices up 30% over a year ago, Texas producers of crops and livestock are inclined to use extra money to reduce indebtedness and get obligations in current condition rather than indulge in any speculative expansion, reports Jack Shelton General Agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston.

"Most forward thinking farmers and stockmen realize that they are riding on the crest of a wave and believe this a good time to stay close to shore," he said.

and farmers and ranchers are making a big contribution in increased financing of speculative this way. At the same time, most of them feel that this is the time to reduce debts, cull herds and strengthen their operations.

Shelton said that the four more than 100,000 farmers and permanent units of the Farm Credit Administration serving stockmen in Texas and having more than a quarter of a billion dollars in loans outstanding, have shown considerable increase in the number of borrowers this year as compared with 1940. "The fact that loans to these borrowers were made for amounts that can be repaid from normal income is evidence that this gain is not due to increased financing of speculative operations, but rather to a steady movement toward settling agriculture down to a sound and rounded, long-time program," he said. "This gain reflects a desire of farmers and livestock men to finance at lower rates on a basis where debts can be repaid from normal production income."
