A clever vitamin quiz was led by Miss Ellen Richards while Mrs. Oder served a refreshment plate of sandwiches, cookies, and punch to eleven members and two visitors, Miss Josie Baxter and Mrs. Kilman.

Next meeting will be the Study of Australia and also a demonstration by Miss Hipp, April 27, with Mrs. Denby Wise and Mrs. Bill Bryan as hostesses.

Capt. Eddie Paul Voss of Camp Meade, Md., came in Wednesday for a few days visit with his family.

We on the home front face one of the most lenge is whether or not we are willing to sacrifice to a sufficient extent to lend our government thirteen billion dollars within the next few weeks.

To do the job, you and I, and everyone we know, are going to have to dig down in our sock—to dig out some of those dollars we have salted away for a rainy day—as well as to take a good hunk out of this month's pay check.

This is a job that has to be done. Sure, we on the home front are feeling the pinch of war. We have gasoline rationing, food rationing, higher taxes and a lot of other little discomforts. But they are nothing compared with the agonies faced daily by our men—men from this community among them—out there on the fighting fronts of the world.

Yes, we know that this constant demand for more money out of our pockets and out of our paychecks—an increasing amount each month—is monotonous. But so is sitting in a fox-hole or lying in a slit-trench day after day, slogging through the hell of a humid jungle or that of Sahara sand.

Our sons, friends, brothers, husbands and others we know are doing that for us. They are facing something more terrible than cutting down on a few things that we once thought were essentials to the American standard of living in order to do it, too. As Secretary Morgenthau has said: "Shall we be more tender with our dollars than with the lives of our sons?"

The Second War Loan is an order to the home front to go on a new offensive. Your dollars are the weapons in this attack. They will make possible the passing of the ammunition to those boys personal challenges of this war to date. That challenge there in the front lines. To win this war is going to cost more and more money—and more and more lives. But the price of freedom is high. We can not; we dare not let our fighting men down.

You can't let George do this for you. You must pitch in with your dollars. Just keep in mind those boys in the front lines. They give their lives—you lend your money! Don't wait for someone to come around and ask you to do it. Do it today—and do it until you feel worthy of them.

Albert Lauder milk, a ginner by trade, but spends his off season with his wife on their stock farm out Grosvenor way was in town Monday, and incidentally let it out about a sale of ten black giant hens, sold on the market in Brownwood last week. The ten hens weighed 81 pounds and sold for $21. Really, the check should have been $20.25 but the cashier donated the other six bits as a premium on the coop of large hens. When an old hen is worth two dollars, we see no need of any one complaining about an income.

Mrs. Jack Gregg of Brownwood spent the week-end with the editor and Mrs. Gregg.

Pastor M. L. Womack of the U. S. A. Presbyterian church and J. T. Oakes, attended the spring session of the Brownwood Presbytery at Brady Wednesday and Thursday.

Vernon Hagar, who was transferred from the sub-chaser to the rescue boats in the U. S. Navy, was here this week to visit home folks, while on a brief furlough and transfer from Miami, Fla. to Galveston, Texas. Vernon arrived Friday night, and was met here Sunday by his brother, Clifford, who came in from San Diego, California. Clifford has been employed in a shipyard, but came in home to see about his draft status.

The trustee election Saturday was a very quiet affair. B. T. Vinson, W. R. Mulroy and J. E. Howard being re-elected unopposed.

Mrs. Hines Baker and daughter, Louise of Houston spent the week-end in the W. R. Kelley home. Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Kelley were also recent visitors in the Kelley home.

A Recent Meeting Of The Federated Missionary Society

When the Federated Missionary Society met with the U. S. A. Presbyterian women, Mrs. T. J. McCaughan rendered hymns on the organ as a prelude to the service.

Mrs. J. T. Oakes and Mrs. Basil Gilmore accompanied by Mrs. Jasper McClellan sang "Take Up Thy Cross," most beautifully preceding the inspirational talk by Miss Dodson, the guest speaker.

The returned Missionary from Korea brought a deep spiritual message to the women, urging upon them to enter into a deeper prayer life. She gave some personal experiences and told of direct answers to some of her prayers. Every one present should have had their faith strengthened, and resolved to do more to make "Thy Kingdom Come On Earth."

Following this fine message and closing hymn the ladies entered into the social and business hour. With Mrs. J. R. Gipson, the president, presiding the officers were elected for the coming year. President Mrs. Tom Hays, Jr., Vice-President, Mrs. J. Edd Bartlett, Secretary, Mrs. Burgett.

A refreshment plate of sandwiches, tea and mints was passed to approximately 75.

The next meeting of the Federated Missionary Society will meet with the Cumberland Presbyterian as hostess May 31st.

Geo. M. Johnson Re-Elected Mayor

In a rather funny triangle cornered election here Tuesday for a Mayor and two City Commissioners, the administration ticket was elected by handsome majorities.

Geo. M. Johnson was re-elected for Mayor over his socialist opponent, W. A. McKean, to the tune of 176 to 56. Leroy Stockard and W. A. Griffin were elected commissioners by safe majorities of 188, 156, and Leon Morgan without the support of the administration, followed with a nice vote of 106, being the extra and odd candidate.

Old Age Assistance News

Austin, Apr. 3 (Sp)—For the first time since September 1940, the trend in Old Age Assistance rolls went into reverse, the rolls making a drop from 183,367 to 183,193 recipients. Despite the net loss of 174 cases the cost of Old Age Assistance increased $49,021 over the $3,470,005 distributed last month. The increase in cost was due principally to the fact that 10,481 reinvestigated cases resulted in raises. The current need status of recipients caused 1,392 grants to be lowered and 2,703 to be sustained. Eight hundred and ninety-eight cases were removed from the rolls because of current ineligibility, and 1,086 additional cases were dropped from the rolls because of death. Investigation of new cases and reapplications resulted in 1,810 being added to the rolls. The average payment this month is $18.92. Each payment is $3 below the authorized grant.

The blind rolls made a net increase of 75, a total of 4,308 blind persons receiving $101,942. This divides into an average grant of $23.66.

Aid to Dependent Children rolls moved up from 11,960 families to 12,135 calling for $259,288, which was $3,432 above the cost of the previous month. The net increase of 175 families represents assistance to 259 more children than in March. Average dependent children grant this month is $21.37 compared to $21.39 last month.

Miss Kathryn Baxter, teacher in one of the High Schools at Waco, spent the week-end here home here.

Hail Does Damage Here

Thursday morning a heavy downpour of hail fell in Santa Anna, doing considerable damage to fruit trees, gardens and other property. At this time we are not prepared to estimate the damage, but if it extended very far out, the damage is great. Young chickens, turkeys and other tender growths suffered where they were not protected.

Health Talk

Austin, Texas, Apr. 5.—Commending the patriotic spirit shown by thousands of Texans who are enthusiastically raising victory gardens, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, declared today that health insurance is included in the crops which will be harvested.

"Point rationing will not be too much of a hardship for the family with a garden," Dr. Cox said. "Using greater quantities and varieties of fresh vegetables in the menu will make for better health conditions in general."

Dr. Cox stressed the fact that malnutrition can lead to serious illnesses, such as beriberi, rickets, scurvy, and pellagra, and that it will certainly result in a lowering of vitality and capacity to work.

"Carrots, beets, lettuce, onions, greens, and all other fresh vegetables supply needed vitamins to the daily diet," Dr. Cox said. "In addition to the beneficial outdoor exercise resulting from the gardening, every individual with a victory garden can be assured of a healthful, well balanced diet."

"You can supply all your nutrition requirements, and your health need not suffer, if you can supplement your meat allowance with a pleasing and healthful variety of fresh garden vegetables."

Pfc. James F. Thompson and wife of Camp Shelby, Mississippi are here for a visit with the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton.

About 400,000 household refrigerators, 148,847 electric and gas-operated and the rest "ice-boxes," will be available to the general public this spring, according to the WPB. Improved Uniform International LESSON

PETER AND JOHN WITNESS CHRIST'S GLORY

LESSON TEXT—Mark 9:2-8; II Peter 1:16-18.
GOLDEN TEXT—A voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son; hear him—Mark 9:7.

Christ is God! The one who comes to know that truth is ready to follow Christ, and to make Him known to others. The want of such a true conception of the Son of God weakens convictions and hinders our usefulness.

Where there is no vision, the people perish," said the wise man (Prov. 29:18). For want of a true vision of Christ as God, and the God-given constraint which makes men give themselves in sacrificial service, the people perish in their sins.

Peter and John saw our Lord in His transfiguration, and the glow of that experience lighted their entire life and ministry. The touch of the supernatural was on these men and their message—for they had seen the glory of Christ.

I. The Amazing Glory of the Son (Mark 9:2-6)

The transfiguration of Christ is one of those wonderfully beautiful and deeply spiritual experiences which defy analysis or satisfactory description. Poetry and art have vainly tried to depict it only to become "in fact a confession of the impotence of the loftiest art to rise to the level of the divine" (Van Dyke).

Peter was so dazzled that he could only suggest that they remain there, forgetting for the moment that down in the valley was demon-ridden humanity waiting for the divine deliverance of the Son of God (see Luke 9:37-42).

What took place on the mount can possibly best be explained as the outlining of the inner glory of the Christ. He had laid aside His glory when He became flesh, but not His divine attributes as very God. There in the presence of God and the heavenly visitors that glory shone through His humanity and His appearance became dazzling in its whiteness.

II. The Approving Word of the Father (Mark 9:7, 8)

A cloud, like the cloud which filled the Temple of old (I Kings 8:10, 11), covered them, and the Father spoke out of it, words of approval of His Son.

These words carry "both judgment and command; judgment concerning Jesus, 'This is my beloved Son,' and command to the disciples, 'Hear ye him'—that is, 'Listen to him'" (Lesson Commentary).

John and Peter came to a fuller conviction that He was the Son of God as they saw Him transfigured and heard the words of the Father. They learned more plainly the fact that He was God manifest in the flesh for the redemption of man. They saw in the indescribable beauty of that moment a foregleam of His coming glory. What important truths—His deity, His redemption, His coming kingdom. Have we learned them as we have beheld His glory?

III. The Assured Faith of the Disciples (II Pet. 1:16-18)

These words were written by Peter when he was nearly eighty years of age—about thirty-five years after the transfiguration. John wrote sixty years after the event and said, "We beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father" (John 1:14).

The one who follows these eye-witnesses in believing in Christ may share their assurance expressed by Peter that we do not "follow cunningly devised fables" in making known to the world the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our faith is built on God's Word, and upon such testimony as this by eye-witnesses. Here is real ground for assured belief in Christ.

Great experiences of spiritual renewing and power lead to effective life and testimony for Christ. They may not be in outward manifestations, in fact they are most often in the inner recesses of man's soul; but they do transform men and send them forth to magnificent living for God. One wonders if much of the dearth of power in the Christian Church is not to be attributed directly to the lack of such experiences with God.

The disciples had an unforgettable mountain-top experience. Even so have many others found the secret of power. It came to D. L. Moody as he walked down a New York street, praying in agony, "Deliver me from myself. Take absolute sway!" The story of what happened to him and through him as a surrendered instrument in God's hand is written large on the pages of history. Others have had similar experiences.

Let us remember that such privileges are not reserved for a few; they are the birthright of every Christian. Power without knowledge is a dangerous and destructive thing, but knowledge without power is a dead thing, resulting in a staid and unfruitful piety that in turn produces a dreadful and unchristian religious system.

Visits From Alumni

Recently we have had opportunity to welcome back to Santa Anna High School a good number of visiting alumni. Louise Calloway ('41) and her big bud Byrnes ('39) were here Monday, evidently very glad to be back. Louise is filing blueprints for Consolidated Aircraft Co. in Fort Worth and Byrnes, home on furlough is stationed at an Army Base in California.

Tom Robin ('41) and Wallace Woodruff ('40) were here Friday to take the primary naval exam given by Mr. Donham.

Kathryn Williamson was seen around Wednesday. She is working at the Greyhound Bus terminal in Odessa.

Carl Williams, Jr. spent a few minutes of his leave at good old S.A.H.S. Wednesday. He is stationed at San Diego naval training station.

Darrel Downs, wearing the Army Air Corps uniform, was here Friday. He is stationed at Childress.

GOSSIP

Boom!! Hear the general explosion? We did, and what's more we saw about everything too. Why we even saw Millie Ruth Wilson with the best looking soldier Sunday week. Now, isn't that right, Ruthie?

Lenora was really worried Friday night for fear John Earl Box just wouldn't show up, but sure enough he did, and weren't we happy. Lenora! Well! How do you like this? Dan Caldwell and Milley Mae Geer! My, My, and we had heard Rheba Genz had a monopoly on him.

Carol certainly pulls slick tricks slipping notes to Mavice Box, so we've been informed.

We've heard that Wanda Henderson and Donald Raye Howard were "that way about each other." What do you think of that?

Say, Juakana you weren't doing so bad Sat. night—come on, tell us his name AND where did he hail from? We aren't nosy either, Bud!

We wonder who the cute soldier is that Eva Dale is seen with so often. They seem to enjoy the show quite a bit too.

We wonder what the little letter was that Wayne Wallace gave Sybil. Could it have been a "love note?" Better watch out Wayne. James England will jump on you like a duck on a June Bug.

Could it be that Miss Lewis has a soldier? Well, from all WE hear AND from the looks of things over the week-end, we should guess, yes. Of course, we wouldn't want her to know we told you, but, how about it, Miss Lewis?

Say, we wonder who this Milton is that June N. worries her pretty head about? Come clean, June let's have the details.

Dorothy Hibbetts, having gone to S.A.H.S. four years, coming from Mukewater school, plans to take a business course. Her hobbies are reading and out of door sports.

Vance Cobb is certainly one more cute freshmen eh, Joyce Hunter?

Well, we gotta go before we use up all our vitamins so be good or we'll see you.

Have You Remembered Bataan?

On April 9, 1942, a year ago today, Japanese forces, estimated as at least 200,000, finally defeated the American forces of 36,853 on Bataan.

Did you know that after January 11, every man that was on Bataan was on short rations? How do you act when you can't get that big steak you are accustomed to eating?

How are you going to act when you can't go on that long vacation trip this summer? Do you realize that these men were under constant torture for ninety-eight days, the last fifteen days of which were ceaseless battle? All during the night of April 8, nurses and troops dazed with fatigue crossed the shark-infested waters to Corregidor, some swimming, some in rowboats, while Japanese machine guns raked the channel and their bombs fell on escaping men and women. Have you done anything to help put a stop to those Jap bullets?

We folks on the home front are the ones to back our boys up in every battle line. Always remember to do your duty and ask yourself, "Have I remembered Bataan?"

Senior Class Play A Great Success

On April 2, 1943 the Senior class presented their play, "The Bright Penny." There was $108.00 taken in. This is the largest crowd in a long time.

We want to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone who came, and also everyone who had any part in making it a success.
We hope everyone enjoyed the play as much as we did putting it on.

Believe It Or Not

If you had attended school last Thursday at S.A.H.S. you would have no doubt been surprised. If you had judged solely by the number of students present, you would never have believed that it was April 1st.

Six weeks tests were given and it was a request that everyone should be present. Very, very few were "not" there and it worked no hardships on anyone.
We, the student body, now understand a statement made by one of the faculty members that probably very few or even not any, would play "hooky" this year on April Fool's Day at S.A.H.S.

Although we might have thought at the time that it was a little displeasing, we are quite sure of one fact, and that is: we will never know the difference a thousand or so years from now.

Who's Who In The Senior Class

Omelia Hartman is eighteen years old. She has attended Santa Anna High School four years and is chairman of the program committee of the Spanish club this year. Her hobbies are reading and all outdoor sports. Omelia is one of the students on the list of outstanding seniors. She hopes to attend business school after graduation.

Loyce Blanton one of the youngest members of our class, being sixteen years, has attended S.A.H.S. four years, coming from Cleveland school. Loyce's hobbies are writing letters and she is planning on working in a defense factory when school is out.

Dorothy Hibbetts, having gone to S.A.H.S. four years, coming from Mukewater school, plans to take a business course. Her hobbies are reading and out of door sports.

Freda Heallen, another of the outstanding seniors of S.A.H.S., has belonged to the Homemaking club and has been vice-president of the club. Her hobbies are reading and sewing and she plans to take a business course after school is out.

Billie Mae Watson, the well known red-head of S.A.H.S., has attended two other schools besides S.A. where she has attended for the last three years. Her ambition is to become a nurse. Billie Mae's hobbies are swimming and horseback riding.

Luther Calloway, one of those few senior boys, has attended S.A.H.S. four years. Luther, a tall dark and good-looking boy, plans to join the U. S. Air Corps when school is out.

There's a quiver in my liver, There's a murmur in my heart, I'm growing bare where once was hair, I'm falling all apart. My eyes are crossed, my teeth are lost, My feet, as flat as can be, But I'm not sore, for in a war They don't want guys like me.

The Pessimist's View

Nowhere to go but out Nowhere to come but in Nothing to wear but clothes Nothing to eat but food Nobody to know but people Nothing to say but words Nothing to study but lessons.

I crave an exam, I think they are fun, I don't cram, I never flunk one, I'm the teacher!

A Week of The War

The German Afrika Korps, retreating up the Tunisian coast toward the Tunis-Bizerte triangle, has been playing a series of delaying actions. Having made a safe exit thru the Gabes bottleneck before the American and British armies could effect a junction Rommel last week turned to make a stand at prepared positions north of Oudref. Attacking Allied forces found their advance hindered by mine fields laid to cover the Axis retreat.

According to OWI Director Elmer Davis, Rommel's withdrawal from the Mareth Line was made under cover of a sandstorm, which saved Rommel from the devastating air pounding the Allies had been prepared to inflict on him and allowed him to get out with most of his material intact. As a consequence, the Afrika Korps will now be in a position to fight a good delaying action, Mr. Davis said, and the more delaying actions it can fight, the longer it will postpone the eventual invasion of Europe.

Reports of Axis losses so far are incomplete, but Secretary of War Stimson said the Axis has lost large numbers of Germans and Italians killed several thousands made prisoners, and large quantities of guns, tanks and vehicles. He said that several American divisions are on this front, to take part in the expulsion of the Axis from North Africa, and predicted that before the final phase of the campaign is over there will probably be a great deal of fighting.

Eighth Army Success

The Allied success at the Mareth line—forcing Rommel to abandon his defense system and flee to the north—was attributed, by both Director Davis and Secretary Stimson, to the leadership of General Sir B. J. Montgomery and the skill of the British Eighth Army. Mr. Stimson explained that what forced the Axis retreat was the Eighth Army strategy of sending a flanking force to the rear of Rommel's troops, but said that coordinated operations of American and French troops in Central Tunisia and the British First Army in the north, plus the able support of American and British fliers, contributed substantially to the Eighth Army success.

All week Allied Air Forces have been harassing the retreating enemy columns, and a cordon of British, American and French ground troops continues to press the Axis forces into an ever-narrowing area in Eastern Tunisia. Through this gap, Secretary Stimson said, Rommel must try to move his forces. And apparently this is what he is trying to do, heading for a union with the Axis forces in Northern Tunisia under Col. Von Arnim. Union of Rommel's and Von Arnim's troops would give the Axis a strong army in good defensive positions—the defense perimeter of Bizerte.

Reports from the Pacific

The recent conference held in Washington between high commanders from the Pacific combat theaters and the U. S. chiefs of staff brought out valuable first-hand reports of developments in the Pacific. There is evidence, Secretary Stimson said, that Japan is augmenting her front line air strength in Burma, China and the Southwest Pacific, but on the basis of the commanders' reports the Army and Navy are preparing detailed plans for forthcoming operations.

All week Japanese positions in the Aleutians and in the South Pacific have been under attack by American planes. In the North, Navy planes hit at Kiska and at Holtz Bay, Attu Island, and the Army Defense Command announced that American bombers in one attack dropped more than 80 tons of bombs on the uncon-

Transportation Rumors False

Rumors now circulating to the effect that the Office of Defense Transportation intends to apply priorities to civilian travel are completely and entirely false, says Joseph B. Eastman. However, passenger transportation facilities are under severe strain and people who have no real need to travel should stay off trains and busses.

Changes In THDA Schedule

COLLEGE STATION, Apr. Several changes in the dates and meeting places for district conventions of the Texas Home Demonstration Association have been announced by Mrs. W. G. Kennedy, Hamilton County, Association president.

The revised schedule is as follows: District 1, Amarillo, May 11; District 2, Littlefield, April 10; District 3, Wichita Falls, April 8; District 4, Ft. Worth, May 4 and 5; District 5, Gilmer, May 6; District 6, Monahans, May 4.

District 7, Coleman, May 11; District 8, Cameron or Waco, May 12 and 13; District 9, Jasper, May 7; District 10, Floresville, May 12; District 11, Hempstead, May 11; and District 12, Falfurrias, May 14.

According to Helen H. Swift, sociologist for the A. and M. College Extension Service who works with rural women's organizations, Mrs. Kennedy will attend the meetings at Ft. Worth, Gilmer, Cameron or Waco, Jasper, and Hempstead.

Standards And Grades For Poultry And Eggs

COLLEGE STATION, Apr. Standards and grades for all poultry and poultry products will be reviewed at a regional meeting in Dallas on April 13 and 14. According to L. P. Cappelman, regional director for the Food Distribution Administration, representatives of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, and Vocational Agricultural and the State Department of Education have been invited, along with federal agencies involved.

Plans for putting Federal grading practices into effect through the Federal-State grading service and cooperating agencies will be worked out. This is necessary in order to comply with maximum price regulations, which are based upon Federal standards and grades. Cappelman explained that establishment of standards and grades is a protection to consumers, producers and distributors.

"Consumers should welcome adoption of state-wide grading of eggs and poultry," he added. "There is no doubt about the quality and price of these products when they are graded and labeled according to Federal standards. Producers stand to benefit because distributors will pay more for poultry and eggs when they can be sure that the products are of high quality. When the quality of the products are not known wholesalers and retailers usually pay lower prices on account of the hazard of deterioration or spoilage."

Reduced Vehicle Speeds
State support of the nationwide 35-mile limit has effectively reduced motor-vehicle speeds on rural roads. Fifty-three percent of all cars still travel in excess of 35 miles per hour; ninety-one percent were exceeding this limit about a year ago. Rationing had little effect on speeds, but the appeal for a 40-mile limit about a year ago reduced average passenger-car speed from 47 to 44 miles per hour. The federal order for a 35-mile limit, effective last October, brought the average down to about 37 miles per hour.
