Who Wants A Good Job?

We have an opening for some young man who wants a job, whereby he can learn a profession and earn a livelihood for the rest of his life. We want to take a young man and train him to be newspaper man.

We prefer to have a young man who has just graduated from high school and train you for a position that there is always job opening for.

We also have an opening for some young lady that wants to make some money during the summer months. This will be a good paying job and will also be interesting work. You don't have to have an automobile, but we prefer that you have access to one a few days each week.

If you are interested in a job, drop by and see the editor and we will see what we can do!

Mrs. D. A. Stephens Succumbs

On Wednesday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Lewellen received a message from Comanche stating that his sister, Mrs. D. A. Stephens, had died of a stroke there while enroute with her husband, from their home in De Leon, to Santa Anna.

Mrs. Stephens had been in failing health for a long time. The deceased was quite well known here, having made this her home before moving to De Leon. Mr. and Mrs. Lewellen visited last Sunday with Mrs. Stephens and her husband.

Mrs. Milford Harris came home from Temple Wednesday of last week, where she had been since Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Burcham of Kermit, who underwent surgery at the Scott and White Hospital there on Monday. She is reported to be getting along quite well.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stockard Sunday were Mrs. Stockard's father, Mr. J. B. Tomlinson, a sister, Mrs. Vivian Akey and two children, Timothy and Judith, and a brother, Walter Tomlinson, all of Stephenville.

Mrs. George McCamey of McCamey visited from Friday until Monday night with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scott. The McCamey family drilled the first oil well at what later became the town of McCamey and named it in their honor.

Band at Battle of Flowers

The Santa Anna Mountaineer Band placed third in the Class C competition at the Band Contest held at San Antonio during the Battle of Flowers, and also marched in the seven mile long parade.

The Mountaineer Band has had a pretty rough time the past few years, but under the direction of their present band master, Kent Martin, they are coming to the front rapidly. During the war years it was almost impossible to obtain a director for the band. The membership dropped to almost none and the band was almost a thing of the past. The Band Mothers Club, with the help of the School Board, the Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club, acquired the services of the present director for this year, and he has done a fine job of getting the band on their feet again. The prospects for the Mountaineer Band in the future are good and we should see some first place winners in the next year or so.

The Band Mothers Club has put on several different entertainments during the past year and have made money to buy new uniforms for all the senior band members. The senior band is composed of 32 members. Eight of these will graduate this year, but some from the Junior Band will be in the senior band next year.

Members of the band participating in the contest at San Antonio were as follows: Carolyn Ray as Drum Major, Joyce Bartlett and Ruby June Humphries as guards, Faye Dunn, Joyce Box and Patsy Fulton as twirlers and Venida Joy Allison, Elaine Burgett, Barbara Bruce, Don Davis, Max Eubanks, Coyita Griffin, Reba Jean Hardy, Paula Holt, Nancy Holt, Kenneth Heallen, Virginia Lewellen, Shirley Lewellen, Geraldine Lewellen, Sue Milligan, June Parker, Ann Priddy, Martha Priddy, Patsy Price, Betty Price, Hazel Jean Rowe, James Rice, Jimmy Region, Sedonia Simmons, Beverly Stockard, C. W. Stephenson, Jr., and Earl Jean Woodard.

The band was accompanied on their trip to San Antonio by their Director, Kent Martin and Mr. R. K. Green, Mrs. Bill Griffin and Mrs. Jesse Lewellen.

Coyita Griffin, the oldest member of the band, is president, Elaine Burgett is Secretary and treasurer and Jean Rowe is the reporter.

SOFTBALL GAME WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The G. I. School will play Cross Roads on the local field Wednesday night, May 26. The All Stars are trying to match a game for the same night.

Miss Lena Boyd Arrives Home

Miss Lena Boyd arrived home Sunday morning, much to the delight of her family and friends, after serving as missionary of the Presbyterian Church for thirty-six years in India. She had landed last week at Long Beach, California, after being on the way for about two months. She was tired from the long journey, but so happy to be home, she didn't mind the fatigue. Miss Lena is now retired and would have been home sooner but for world conditions and the urgent need of missionaries.

During her years of service, she was home several times on furlough. While in India, she taught part of the time in a school for girls, and the rest of the time she did village work. Miss Lena will make her home in this vicinity, where she grew up and lived all her life, with the exception of the time she spent in India. She is at present with her sister, Mrs. T. J. McCaughan. Other sisters here who welcomed her home are Mrs. Paul Van Dalsem, Mrs. Charles Oakes, and Miss Blanche Boyd.

Relatives and friends from Santa Ann who attended the funeral of L. J. Wilson in Coleman Monday afternoon at 5 P. M. at the Methodist Church were Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Blue, Mrs. Tom Mills, Mrs. R. B. Archer, Mrs. John Guthrie, Mrs. Willie Blevens, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Curry and Sam Collier. Those attending from the Buffalo community were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Curry, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Curry and Mrs. U. S. Brannon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wilson and children, Jimmie and Susanne of Austin visited from Monday until Wednesday with his aunt, Mrs. L. O. Garrett and family. On Tuesday night all of them were guests of Mrs. Tommie Starnes, who served a nice picnic supper at the Ranger Park. From here the visitors left for Dallas to visit his mother, Mrs. May Wilson and her people in Arkansas.

Mrs. George Palmer received a message Wednesday morning stating that her sister, Mrs. Fanny Mondy had died Tuesday afternoon at 3 P. M. at Bakersfield, Calif. Mrs. Palmer had returned just recently from a visit with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones of Carlsbad, N. M. came last week and are visiting his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Jones. All of them visited Sunday with their sister, Mrs. J. B. Hambricht and family in Talpa.

Mrs. J. W. Wise and her daughter, Mrs. Bill Steward of Rockwood were shopping and attending to business in Santa Anna Tuesday.

Baltimore was a city of 2,000 population in 1797.

The valedictory address will be delivered by Coyita Griffin. Coyita has the highest average of her class for her high school work. The Salutatory address will be delivered by Jean Rowe, the second highest average for high school work.

The next eight high averages of the Senior Class are as follows: Estle Dixon, Elean Shield (highest boy), Wanda Price, Nancy Holt, Joyce Bartlett, Lynn Pittard, Ernestine Elliott, Newton and Harold Mills. All the grades these students that have made during their high school work are compiled to give their averages.

The following is a list of the prospective graduates:

Softball Play Gets Underway

The Santa Anna Softball Season got under way last Thursday night with the Lions Club playing the G. I. School and the All Stars playing Cleveland. All the officials of the League have been selected and the season is on the way.

The officials of the league are as follows: George Johnson, commissioner; T. J. McCaughan, treasurer; Roy Bible, umpire; D. H. Moore, scorekeeper; James A. Rouse, alternate scorekeeper; L. A. Welch, sound system; Virgil Priddy, receipts and grounds. Mr. Priddy will have charge of the grounds and any teams wanting to play on other nights, besides Tuesday or Thursday, are requested to make arrangements with him.

League games are to be played each Tuesday and Thursday nights, with two of the league teams playing the first game and the Santa Anna All Stars playing a second game with some team from the surrounding communities. The first game will start at 8:00 o'clock promptly and end at 9:10, or upon the completion of 7 innings. The second game will start at 9:20, with each team having a 5 minute warm-up period between games. In order to pay expenses of the league, the hat will be passed each night, and you are requested to be as liberal as possible.

A change was made in the schedule for the Tuesday night game. Due to the fact that the Chamber of Commerce team, the high school boys, was unable to play, the Lions Club played the National Guard and next Tuesday the Chamber of Commerce will play the National Guard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Herrington and children of Belton visited Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell and Carolee and other relatives here over the week-end.

Mrs. Lee Hunter returned last Friday from Austin, where she had visited since Mother's Day with her son, Bronlee and Edwin and their wives.

P. T. A. Hears Mrs. Trapp

The P. T. A. had a very interesting and well attended meeting Tuesday afternoon, May 18th, this being the last meeting of the school year.

Officers for the coming year were installed by Mrs. C. D. Bruce, in a few well chosen words, stressing the point that it should be a pleasure to serve.

Those installed were Mrs. Norval Wylie, president; Mrs. Harry Crews, vice-president; (both of whom were elected to serve second terms) Mrs. Howell Martin, secretary; Mrs. Ben P. Vinson, treasurer. Mrs. Bruce also introduced Mrs. J. W. Trapp of Daniel Baker College, as speaker of the afternoon.

Mrs. Trapp, who is known as a fine speaker, was at her best on this occasion. She told in a very vivid manner of the many interesting places and people she met and conditions in countries she visited last summer which were England, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, France and Italy. It seems that everywhere people were working hard and trying to overcome the war's devastation. She told of the extreme cleanliness of most of the places, and the great profusion of flowers in bloom.

Those who missed Mrs. Trapp's talk, missed a treat. The gathering closed with a pleasant social period, during which refreshments of assorted cookies and pineapple punch were served from a lace-laid table, adorned with spring flowers. The punch was served from a crystal bowl.

The P. T. A. is concluding a fine year's work.

Floyd Goodgion arrived home Monday morning from Clovis, N. M., where he has been teaching the past school year in the Clovis Elementary Schools, which closed Friday, the 14th.

A LASTING MEMORY ...

Will go with you the rest of your life regarding your school days. You are burning the first bridge that will carry you to the heights of success. Let our best wishes and congratulations go with you always.

Self Culture Club Met Friday

The Self Culture Club had an interesting and well attended meeting Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. L. O. Garrett.

A program on "Modern Living for Americans" was given. Roll call was answered with decoration hints.

"Your New World of Tomorrow" was Mrs. F. Z. Payne's subject. Meet Your New Servant, Liquid Heat, was discussed by Mrs. Norval Wylie. The Mother-in-law in the Home was Mrs. Harry Crews' topic and Mrs. O. Weaver told how "Education Begins in the Home."

Visitors present were Misses Stafford, Baxter, Vera, Shield, A. R. Brown, and Maggie Tyler. Members present were Misses, I. O. Garrett, Chap Eeds, Ollie Weaver, Harry Crews, Norval Wylie, J. L. Harris, F. Z. Payne, M. D. Pinkerton, A. D. Donham, Jr., and J. R. Bauster.

The next meeting, the last one of the club year, will be with Mrs. M. D. Pinkerton on Friday afternoon, May 28th.

W. M. S. Met
Friday Evening

The W. M. S. of the First Baptist Church met at the Annex Monday afternoon at 3 P. M. for the regular monthly meeting.

Subject for the month, "Stewardship of Talents" was reviewed by Mrs. Z. D. Kemp.

There were 11 ladies present for this helpful study and Mrs. Kemp reviewed it in a very able way.

100 per cent daily Bible Readers for the month were Mrs. Z. D. Kemp, Seth Risinger, B. A. Parker, Earl Watkins, David Chapman and Ola Niell.

H. D. Club Meets With Mrs. Perry

Mrs. John Perry was hostess to the Home Demonstration Club last Friday, May 14th, when Mrs. Jo Garland conducted an interesting meeting with work items and good grooming as her subjects.

Discarding Sunday clothes are definitely not suitable for work. Garments should be designed simply with few fastenings but of good, sanforized material. Time is precious to the housewife and some patterns require more work and time in construction, therefore the dresses should be easily front and in "action" room, be of good length, comfortable and certainly attractive. Sleeves of such garments are designed for comfort and safety.

Patterns of such garments were designed for the H. D. Clubs by the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics of the Department of Agriculture and made by the Advance Co.

The foundation of all good grooming is soap and water. By the use of tooth brush, hair brush, clothes brush, shoe brush, powders and deodorants housewives can be attractive in work clothes.

Mrs. Vanderford presided in the absence of the president, and led the group in singing America, The Beautiful, and the club prayer.

One new member was recognized.

Refreshments were served to Misses Frank Coen, W. E. Vanderford, A. Holman, Louise Moore, J. E. Haney, D. L. Sides, C. W. Stephenson, Arthur Talley, W. A. Stanley, E. K. Jones, G. C. Daniels, Misses Jo Garland and Ellen Richards and one visitor, Mrs. R. H. Jones of Carlsbad, N. M.

The regular meeting Friday afternoon will be held with Mrs. John Lowe. On Tuesday the club met with Mrs. Clifford Stephenson and enjoyed a covered fish luncheon and quilted a quilt for the president, Mrs. C. T. Conley, which was a pleasant birthday surprise.

Martha Ann Ray
Feted Friday

Mrs. Winford Ray complimented her daughter, Martha Ann with a party on her 10th birthday, Friday, May 14.

Baseball and other games were enjoyed by the guests. The lovely birthday cake was iced in green with yellow candles. Martha Ann's aunt, Mrs. Warren Douglas, sent a coconut cake. Fruit punch added a refreshing drink to the repast.

Lemon drops and bubble gum were plate favors.

An outstanding gift was a Girl Scout uniform.

Mrs. Mildred Loftis and Doyle Wayne returned last week from Midland where she has been employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Clarkson and daughter, Fay of Port Arthur visited their uncle, S. A. Millard last Thursday.

Miss Beverly Stockard and Miss Yvonne McClintock spent the week-end in Abilene visiting Miss Janelle McFadden.

STUDENTS VS. TEACHERS
 Know how to make your teacher exasperated? No?? Then just listen to me. If the class is dull and uninteresting, look out the window. There is probably something going on outside that you would like to see. If you have a watch, look at it, wind it if it needs it. Has it stopped? Just listen and see. If you don't have a watch, then make your neighbor tell you what time it is. He won't mind it.

Comb your hair; it won't bother anyone. And besides, it will give you something to do. Girls, if you don't like that nail polish, scratch it off. It makes a lot of nice noise. No nail polish? Then pop your nails together. It is all the same difference. This will really make the teachers mad.

Another thing you can do is drum on the desk with your fingers. It doesn't bother a soul. And for answers when the teachers gives such long, hard assignments, just say, "But I have 3 (or 4) other lessons, too." If you are in a class when you know the answer, don't raise one hand, raise them both and pop your fingers, too.

Another thing, stupid questions get stupid answers; scribble out something and maybe the teacher will give up and count that one right.

There are many ways students can exasperate teachers, these are only a few. So, see, you can have fun in class after all. But if the teachers seem inhuman, maybe they have a right to be. (I had to add that last remark so it would get past the censor.)

GIRLS TO RECEIVE F. H. A. DEGREES
 There are four degrees of achievement for the Future Homemakers. The first degree is the Junior Homemakers Degree respectively. To obtain these degrees, you must have fulfilled certain requirements. It was not until last year that any of the girls of our chapter had ever tried for a degree. The girls receiving the Junior degree that year, Patsy and Betty Price, Theola and Kathryn Stewardson, and Sue Milligan, were eligible to receive the Chapter Degree if they would fulfil the other requirements. This year these girls did and all are to receive the Chapter Degree.
 This year there has been others working for the Junior Degree. Those who passed the requirements and who will receive this degree are Lea Mitchell, Eddie Emondson, Margaret McCaughan, Julia Bailey, and Patricia Davis.

THE SENIOR TRIP
 On the morning of Friday April 30, the Seniors left for White City, New Mexico. At noon we stopped at a very picturesque roadside park a few miles from Ft. Stockton. We had fried chicken, potato salad, pickles, potato chips and all kinds of cookies and cold drinks. Everything was simply delicious.
 We stopped in Ft. Stockton, naturally, and then on to Pecos. From there to Carlsbad we passed through a few little towns (consisting of a service station and a grocery store.)
 Everyone set their watches back one hour when we crossed the state line. You know, New Mexico isn't a bit different from West Texas. Most of us wouldn't have known we had crossed the State line if we hadn't stopped to report to a State Officer.
 We continued on our way and about 5:30 that afternoon we arrived at White City, which is twenty-two miles from Carlsbad and had a jolly good time.

Saturday morning everyone was up by 5:30. We had breakfast and went to the caverns which are seven miles from White City. At 9:30 we began our journey through the caverns. They were undecipherable. Everyone was amazed at the beauties they saw.

Immediately after ascending on the elevator from the Caverns about 2:30 P. M. we drove the one-hundred miles to Pecos, where we obtained lodgings for the night.
 Sunday morning we started on our way home. We stopped in San Angelo and several went swimming in the San Angelo Municipal pool.

We arrived in Santa Anna around 5:30 P. M. Everyone was tired but happy. This was one trip will be remembered for a long time to come.

WHO'O WHO

Brown hair, brown eyes, and fair complexion describes this five-foot two inch Senior girl, Theola Stewardson.

Theola has been very active in school. She was in the Pep Squad her first three years in high school and has been in the Homemaking Club for the past three years.

She says Homemaking is her favorite subject with Mrs. McCQueen as her favorite teacher.

Bing Crosby heads the list as her favorite actor with Shirley Temple as actress.

Strawberries and fried chicken are Theola's favorite foods. She likes to go to football games.

When asked what her dislikes were, she said, "Just snooty people."

Theola went to grammar school at Shields and came to Santa Anna her Freshman year. She plans to enter Texas Tech the fall semester.

We wish you all the luck in the world, Theola.

This 5' 10", 150 lb. Senior needs little introduction to the people of this community. Nearly everyone knows brown haired, brown eyed Del Ray Stacy. A ready smile and friendly ways lead you to know that he has very few dislikes, the main ones being leaky fountain pens and slouchy girls. Del Ray's favorite teacher is Mr. Chambers and his favorite movie actress is Judy Garland. He likes especially to eat and sleep and have a good time.

Del Ray is very active in school athletics and has lettered two years in football at guard position. He has two years of track to his credit and is one of the boys on the mile-relay team. His ability for sports has won him a scholarship at Howard Payne, where he will attend school next year.

Darwin Schrader was born at Santa Anna Nov. 11, 1931 and attended his first six years of school here and then came back to finish his last 5 years at Santa Anna, Texas.

Darwin's favorites are fried chicken, agriculture, and sport magazines. He has been in the FFA club for three years and plans to attend John Tarleton when he graduates.

And now to introduce one of the most popular girls in the Senior class, Johnnie Ethel Steward. This sixteen year-old lass is five feet, six and one-half inches tall, graced with brown eyes and black hair. Some of the honors she has held during her four years are member of the Student Council three years, vice-president and president as her position the past two years, president of the Homemaking Club her Sophomore year, representative of the Spanish Club her Sophomore year, representative of the Senior Class this year, and was elected FFA Sweetheart in '46 & '47 and football sweetheart of '47 & '48.

Yellow is Ethel's favorite color, shorthand and Mrs. I. Williamson are the favorite subject and teacher. A pleasing smile is the trait she admires most. Fried chicken is the favorite food.

Ethel has only a few dislikes but of those few okra and snooty boys come first.

Plans for Ethel's immediate future are to attend Texas Tech in Lubbock. She will leave June 5 to attend the summer session. Best of luck to you!!!!!!

Another student in the Senior class is none other than our drug store crooner, Gene Smith better known to many as "Smitty." "Smitty" was born in Santa Anna and attended the seventh grade at Santa Anna Grammar School. Brown eyes, Brown hair, 5' 8" tall describes him very nicely. He has been a member of the Press Club for three years of which he represented the Duke of the Halloween Carnival this year. He served as Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Council for two years. Gene was pepleader for two years of the pep squad. This year he is serving as Vice-President of the Senior Class. In the Senior play he portrayed Dr. Chauncey Clooney. He is a member of the Senior Quintette.

His favorite author is Hawthorne and he admires the works of Shakespeare. Smitty's favorite song is "Sunrise Serenade." Spencer Tracy and Joan Edwards are his favorite movie stars with "Sea of Grass" his favorite motion picture. His likes are travel, ticklish girls, sports, and music. His dislikes are but some are olives, celery and unreliable people. Gene's ambition is to retire at 38 with a country home, horses, dog kennel and a private swimming pool. This summer he will work as a soda-skeet at the Corner Drug where he has been working for four years. This fall he is hoping to attend Texas University and become a pharamist. Good luck Smitty in whatever you undertake to accomplish.

Eigean Shield, Photographer and a Senior of Santa Anna High School is 6' 2" tall, has brown hair, green eyes and weighs 160 lbs. He is the largest boy in high school, if you judge by feet and height.

His entire school days have been spent in Santa Anna schools. Here he has set an example for other boys to follow. Upon graduation from Ward School he was awarded the Phillips Loving Cup which represented the boy with highest average and he was fourth highest in his class.

Other than his studies Eigean was a member of the band two years and one half years, vice president of his class two years, president of the press club one year, photographer for the annual two years, class his-the boy with highest boy and ketball one year, and portrayed the part of Billy in the Senior play.

Eigean plans to attend the University of Texas for a degree of Petroleum Geologist.

With his ability, there is no doubt that he will go far in the vast world of opportunities.

Jean Rowe, a member of the Senior Quintette, attended school at Plainview and Line before entering the Santa Anna Schools in the eighth grade where she took the honor of valedictorian. She served as secretary-treasurer of the Freshman class and of the Press Club which she was a member for three years. She represented the Spanish II Club in the Halloween Carnival last year. Jean has served as Assistant Literary Editor of the Annual and this year Literary Editor of the Annual. She is a

For Schools More Taxes

Austin, Texas, May 5—Realizing the need for better education for their children, Texans are taxing themselves more and more through local assessment.

Of the 977 independent school districts in the state, 849, or 87 per cent, had a tax levy of $1 or more per $100 assessed valuation during 1947-48, a survey announced Wednesday by the Texas State Teachers Association.

Figures are from the records of the state superintendent of public instruction.

Eighty-two per cent of the 1,151,999 students in the 977 independent school districts are living in the districts making the levy of $1 or more. That is a total of 947,170 children.

"The misconception has prevailed for years in some circles that the school districts are depending too much upon state aid to finance their institutions," Charles H. Tennyson, public relations director for the teachers association, said Wednesday. "This survey disproves that. I believe."

"Not only do practically all of the independent districts have a high tax levy, but hundreds of them have greatly increased their property valuations during the past few years."

"Assessments of 75 per cent of the real value of the property is the regular practice now, rather than the unusual."

"The State Teachers Association is grateful that Texans are taking such an interest in the education of their children," Tennyson continued. "It has resulted in a climb in our schools' standing in comparison with those of other states."

A total of 559 independent, 65 per cent, with 368 scholastics, had a tax rate of $1 during the present school year. Two hundred and ninety schools had a rate in excess of $1. Those schools had more scholastics than the 559 districts levying $1. Their total was 579,017 students.

Fifty districts, or only nine-tenths of one per cent, having a total of 111,672 students, levied a rate of from 51 to 75 cents.

Fifteen districts, with only 133 scholastics, had a tax of from 1 to 50 cents. Only seven districts, or but one-half of one per cent, which are not composed of state or charitable schools, imposed no local tax.

All of our four largest cities in the state have a tax rate of $1 or more. Houston has a levy of $1.25; San Antonio, $1.08; Ft. Worth, $1.46, and Dallas recently voted an increase in their tax rate to $1.25.

Don't Neglect Picnic Fires This Summer

Austin, Texas. Don't neglect a picnic fire at the expense of someone else's home, is the plea made by Texans by Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

Whether you are roasting weiners near a farm, fishing in a wooded lake area or picnicking on the neighborhood vacant lot, your careless fun around a fire can spell tragedy for someone else, he said.

"The rules for having a safe fire on pleasure jaunts are simple," the Commissioner stated. First, find out if the law allows you to build a fire at the desired spot. Then, extinguish the fire with water or sand and be sure it is completely out before you leave it.

Also be careful with matches and cigarettes, he cautioned. Always be sure your match is out and break it in to before throwing it away. This safety measure originated from an old cowboy custom which worked on the theory that if a person held a match long enough to break it in two, the flame would be out completely.

Cigarettes, cigars and pipe ashes should be crushed out on a rock or other nonflammable surfaces, he warned. They should also never be thrown out of an automobile window when traveling on the highway or in the woods, but placed in the car's ash receiver.

Most hazardous to life-safety is the practice of using kerosene or gasoline to quicken a fire. Many a person has lost his life when such a fire flashes back, engulfing his clothing and everything else nearby.

Hall reminded Texans that last year in the United States, forest fires burned enough trees of saw-timber size to build about 86,000 five-room houses. If all wood burned were of saw-timber size it would provide lumber to build over 200,000 homes.

"In the face of our housing shortage, this is a shameful condition when we know that 90 per cent of the forest fires are caused by the carelessness of people," he stated.

Mrs. Byrd Arnold has returned from Oklahoma City, where she was visiting her son and family.

Veterans' News

Most of the 45,000 World War II veterans taking institutional on-farm training under federal veterans' training programs in Texas, Louisiana, and Mississippi may qualify for increased subsistence benefits due to changes in ceilings, rates and number of dependents, the Veterans Administration reported.

The increased were authorized by Public Law 512, signed May 4, 1948, by President Truman. The law raised pay ceilings, establishes new criteria for computing income from productive labor, and provides for partial increases in subsistence allowances for part time school training and for combination school and job training programs such as institutional on-farm training.

Under the new ceiling for GI Bill farm trainees, earned income plus subsistence may not exceed $210 a month for a veteran without dependents, $270 for a veteran with one dependent, and $290 for a veteran with more than one dependent. Previous limits were $175 for a veteran without dependents and $200 for a veteran with one or more dependents.

Another provision of the new law gives additional increases to veterans training as employees on other persons' farms. Only wages for the standard work week, exclusive of overtime pay, are considered earned income in computing subsistence under the raised ceiling. Previously, veterans included pay for all regularly scheduled overtime work in reporting their earned incomes.

Veterans taking institutional on-farm training under the GI

Bill and Public Law 16 may be paid subsistence increases for that time they devote to institutional school training. The increases are based on the percentage of a full-time course of institutional training that their school work represents. No increases will be allowed for veterans whose institutional school work is not the equivalent of at least one-fourth of a full-time course.

The first adjustments will probably be in the August checks, retroactive to April 1.

Something should be done about people that are late to shows and programs. And Alfred Lunt, the famous actor, does. Several years ago, I was attending a Shakespearean play and the first act had been going on for 10 minutes when a couple entered. Of course, their seats were right in the middle of a row so everybody in that row had to stand to let them get by. Lunt was speaking. He stopped, waited till the late arrivals were seated and then said, "So nice of you to come."

Take Your Choice, Neighbor!

The missus—who writes our Woman's Column in the Clarion under the name of "Nancy Gale"—gets letters about recipes, advice on etiquette, home management, etc.

One letter she got last week was about a recipe she published for Welsh Rarebit—made with tart cheese, Worcestershire, and a cup of sparkling tangy beer. "Turned out great," says her correspondent. "But you didn't mention what beverage to serve with it. Should I serve beer? Cider? Iced tea?"

The missus' answer was simply:

"Any beverage your guests prefer. You don't have to serve cider—any more than you have to serve beer... but it's often courteous to let guests have a choice."

From where I sit, that simple answer applies to more items than Welsh Rarebit. In a world where everyone has different tastes and ideas—we should recognize those differences—and never deny the right of choice to anyone!

BOOST FOR AIR FORCE

Last week the Senate by a vote of 74-to-2 put its approval on the 70-group, air force, previously overwhelmingly endorsed by the House.

Opponents of a strong air force have fought a rear-guard action, some claiming that it is an attempt to sidetrack UMT, and others frankly contending, as did Senator Taylor and his running mate, Henry Wallace, that it is unnecessary and is evidence of warlike intentions. They are afraid it would hurt Joe Stalin's feelings.

These opponents of a strong air force are wholly unimpressed by the fact that Russia is stronger in the air than we are and is, according to Secretary of Air Symington, building bombers and jet planes faster today than we are.

America is, of course, stronger industrially, stronger in oil, stronger in transportation (Russian railroad mileage is but one-fourth of ours), and under our free enterprise system is far superior to the communist system when it comes to capacity for production.

But militarily Russia is said to be stronger at the moment. The appeasers who are afraid of offending the Soviets seem to overlook the fact that the Russian army hovers around 4,000,000 men, not counting the satellites. This compares with a current strength of less than 600,000 men in the United States Army ground forces.

Estimates of the Russian Air Force range from 8,000 to 16,000 first-line combat planes, with from 600,000 to 700,000 men in the Soviet Air Force. This compares with our 2,000 fighting planes and only around 500 bombers. The Air Forces report that the reserve planes are largely obsolescent. In our own air force we now have only 350,000 men.

Yet, in the face of these facts, we find all sorts of excuses being given for opposing a strong army, navy and air force in this country! Fortunately, the appeasers are very much in the minority today. It is generally agreed that this move for a strong air force will have the effect of stilling the hand of Stalin more than any other one thing we could do.

THE DRAFT BILL

The House Committee on Armed Services has reported a selective service bill designed to bring our total military personnel up to 2,900,000 men, including the army, navy and air forces. At the present there are only 1,200,000 in uniform.

The House bill covers men from 19 through 25, with two-year voluntary enlistments being permitted in lieu of induction. Exemptions go to Purple Heart holders, veterans over 12 months' service; to veterans with 90 days' to 12 months' service; to members of organized reserve units; veterans with combat service; reserves in organized units on the effective date of the Act, and persons entering organized reserve units after the Act is passed who enter before 16 1/2 years of age.

Deferments would be fashioned after the wartime draft law, with a more liberal provision for students. Essential workers, including those in agriculture, would be subject to deferment.

The actual rate of voluntary enlistments during the past year has averaged between 12,000 and 24,000 per month. But in order to maintain the present authorized army strength, about 30,000 new enlistments per month is required. The measure may, of course, be altered before passed, and the Senate version has not yet been reported.

The Committee, in its report, found that the danger of war with Soviet Russia has increased since last January. The Communist coup in Czechoslovakia, the excessive pressure on Finland, the Soviet diplomatic problems on the Scandinavian Peninsula, the Soviet reaction to the 1-power mutual defense pact signed at Brussels in March, the severe and annoying restrictions put upon the American occupation forces in Berlin and Vienna, together with resistance to the efforts of the United States and 16 European governments to revitalize the life of Europe, are listed as arousing the tempo of stepped-up Soviet military activity.

While the committee believes the United States will never initiate a war, it strongly believes the possession of adequate offensive power will serve to deter aggression and prevent war.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Parker and Ben Parker visited a part of Monday and Tuesday with their brother and nephew, Henry and Leland Parker and families, at Odessa. They took Bill Browning back to his parents at Abilene, after a visit here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Parker.

Mrs. Newt Gray visited the first part of the week at Kerrville, with her husband, who is in the Legion Hospital there.

Mrs. Mattie Dillinger has returned to her home here from San Angelo, where she spent several months ago to be near her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Berhrend, and family.

Mrs. Pearl Swartz, of Homewood, Ill., who had been visiting for a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Duggins, left Friday for Houston to visit her granddaughter. From there she will visit her daughter in New Orleans before returning home. Mrs. Duggins, who was moved to her home recently from a Brownwood hospital, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McClintock and Roy West left Monday night of last week for Corpus Christi, where they had been called by the serious illness of their brother and uncle, Mr. John McClintock. They returned home Wednesday night, leaving the sick relative much improved.

The thief of time robs us of a lot of accomplishments.

"God give us men! A time like this demands Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands . . ."

In these bewildering days, the world has an urgent and abiding need for men and women with "strong minds and great hearts."

There is a place for you—and a need for you—in a chaotic and badly battered world. As you set out to find your niche, retain that lofty purpose and high resolve which have marked your high school career. Success in full measure will greet those who embark on their every task with "true faith and ready hands."

Large Cotton Crop Expected By County Agent; Despite Large Insect Increase

The cotton acreage in Coleman county, insects play an important part in the production of cotton. The county agent has estimated that the production of cotton this year will be about 100,000 bales. This is a record for the county.

one-seventh of the annual crop is destroyed by insects. This means loss of about $54,500,000 to Texas farmers. Due to high prices of cotton and the high cost of producing it, these cotton insects should be controlled.

BOLL WEEVIL

Calcium arsenate, 20% chlorinated camphene (Toxophene) or a mixture of 5% DDT and benzene hexachloride containing 3% of the gamma isomer 3% gamma BHC is recommended. Chlorinated camphene and the DDT-BHC mixture should each contain at least 40% sulfur for red spider control. They should be dusted at the rate of 10 pounds per acre at each application. Calcium arsenate should be applied at the rate of 7 pounds per acre.

COTTON FLEAHOPPER

The following dust at 10-pound per acre are recommended for the most effective fleahopper control: 10% chlorinated camphene plus 40% or more sulfur, and 5% DDT-3 percent gamma BHC plus 75% sulfur 3 percent gamma BHC plus 40 percent or more sulfur and 5% DDT 3 percent gamma BHC plus 40% or more sulfur. Cost of the material and presence of other insects should determine which of these insecticides is used. The new insecticides give a much quicker and more effective kill of fleahoppers than sulfur alone or than 1.2 mixture of calcium arsenate sulfur.

The most effective dust are 20 percent chlorinated camphene, 5 percent DDT-3 percent gamma BHC, and 10 percent DDT. At least 40 percent sulfur should be added to these materials. The less effective materials are calcium arsenate, lead arsenate and eryolite.

Choice of insecticides for bollworm control should be governed by several considerations, including availability, cost and the abundance of other pests. All dusts should be applied at the rate of 10 to 15 pounds per acre, per application. The amount should depend upon the severity of the infestation, size of cotton, weather conditions, etc. Applications should be made at 5-day intervals until the infestation is brought under control. The tips of plants should be watched for eggs and small worms which usually appear about the time corn silks begin to dry. Begin dusting immediately after eggs and 4 or 5 small worms are found per 100 terminals. To control the bollworm you must apply the dust at the right time and keep the plant well covered with it throughout the period of injurious infestation.

COTTON APHID

Heavy infestations of aphids are likely to occur on seedling cotton or on fruiting cotton, when calcium arsenate or DDT has been used. A satisfactory "knock-out" of heavy infestations may be obtained with approximately 15 pounds per acre of 3 percent gamma BHC or with a mixture of 5 percent DDT-3 percent gamma BHC-sulfur.

CHIROPRACTIC HEALTH SERVICE

PINK BOLLWORM

For the control of the pink bollworm, plant cotton during the periods specified by the State Department of Agriculture. This involves the planting of cotton in various areas during the periods required under state regulations. Even more important is the destruction of the cotton stalks promptly after harvest. In no case should they be destroyed later than the date set for the County by the State Commissioner of Agriculture. All cotton trash should be covered to a depth of more than six inches. This will aid in preventing the carry-over of the pest to the succeeding crop. Where irrigation is possible, heavy flooding of the soil after deep plowing will materially reduce the possible carry-over of the insect. The Extension Service urges the support of the Pink Bollworm Regulations.

OTHER INSECTS

DDT, chlorinated camphene, and the mixture of 5 percent DDT-3 percent gamma BHC also kills thrips, rapid plant bugs, tarnished plant bugs and stink bugs.

Before applying control measures, an infestation count should be made. If the insect is causing very much damage the control measures should be applied. Do not wait until the crop is destroyed before applying controls. Here are some general rules to observe, says Herman E. Jenkins, Co. Agri. Agent.

1. A sound cotton program leads to balanced production, lower cost, better cotton and higher profits. Insect control is one of the important steps in such a program. It pays best when the land is capable of producing one-third bale or more per acre.

2. Dust applications should be made when the air is calm or nearly so. The presence of dew

Not only that but I'd stopped in San Antonio on the return trip to see Col. THE BIBLE TODAY
BY LOUIS B. NEWTON, D.D.

The Temple in the Nation's Life

Lesson for May 22, 1948

OUR golden text is "O come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord our maker." Psalms 95:6.

Dr. Newton

The Jewish temple was a national sanctuary, whether we think in terms of the altars of Abel, Noah or Abraham, the tabernacle at Sinai, or the great temples at Mount Moriah, of Zerubbabel, or any of the other appointed places of meeting with God. The welfare of mankind, in every age, requires the faithful and frequent worship of God.

From the days when they sang the hymns of David, the Jews were prosperous to the degree that they were true to God in their worship and in their reverence for all things holy. This lesson traces the story, leaving no doubt in any pupil's mind about the solemn truth of the golden text.

A HOUSE OF WORSHIP

IN Ezra 3:10-13, we see the picture of priests leading the people to sing unto the Lord because he is good, for his mercy endureth forever toward Israel. "Wherever you live, whether in the city or in some quiet rural community, remember this, the sanctuary measures the attitude of the people of such community toward God to a degree that no other gauge of public opinion can offer. We have our various polls of public opinion, but none of them are so prophetic of a people's ultimate hope as their attitude toward God's house.

Boys and girls who regularly attend Sunday school and public worship will be watched by the men who are looking for trustworthy leaders tomorrow.

HONORING GOD'S HOUSE

SERVE the Lord with gladness, come before his presence with singing." Psalms 100:2. We read how the people in the long ago brought their best gifts to make God's house beautiful. What are we doing with our best gifts? Think of boys and girls today who are helping with their small gifts to erect and equip beautiful houses of worship. Tomorrow they will point with gratitude and thanksgiving to the part they had in making God's house the best house in the community. Thus do we honor God as we honor his house.

WHY WE GO TO CHURCH

M. WANNAMAKER, the merchant prince, was once asked why he went so regularly to church. He replied:

"I go to church for two main reasons. First, because God commands it; second, because it enriches life."

The Jews teach us, in the long records of their faithfulness or unfaithfulness, that the people who go regularly to church are the most dependable people in any community. And we can bring it right down to our day and generation, and get the same answer.

A business man told me recently that he had a check made of the several hundred young people in his employ, and he found that more than ninety per cent of the regular church-goers were advancing in their work with his company. He further discovered that almost without exception, the people who were giving trouble were the people who never entered a church.

OUR NEED OF PUBLIC WORSHIP

OUR bodies require regular nourishment. And our souls are just as dependent upon regular nourishment. I would not say that it is absolutely necessary for one to attend public worship to grow spiritually, but the odds are entirely against those who claim that they can grow spiritually without attending public worship.

There is a place of worship within the reach of well-nigh every person in the United States. We are responsible before God if we neglect to claim the advantages and blessing of public worship.

The place of the temple in the life of Israel is a symbol which teaches us today that we dare not forsake the assembling of ourselves on the Lord's Day in his house. The fellowship of worship in the greatest fellowship on earth. It is our surest road to peace here and hereafter.

is not necessary. Repeat application, if washed off within 24 hours. It is not necessary to repeat applications when chlorinated camphene, BHC, or DDT is used against the cotton flea-hopper.

3. Both ground machines and airplanes are effective for applying poison. When airplanes are used, be sure that the swaths meet or overlap. Set nozzles 6 to 8 inches above the tops of plants when using ground machines.

4. Plowing under cotton stalks immediately after harvest is a good farm practice. The stalks improve the soil and their destruction helps control insects.

For more detailed information, the county agent invites farmers to go by his office and get some bulletins that he has available.

Grasshoppers have hatched all over the county since the rain we had several days ago. The hoppers are small now and should be easy to poison. The bait mixing station located at the Coleman Co-op Gin has been opened and poison is available to all farmers in the county that need it. According to Herman E. Jenkins, Co. Agri. Agent, the station will be open on Mondays, until further notice. If the hoppers start doing very much damage, the station will be open as many days during the week as the farmers want.

Give The Kids A Chance

Every parent whose child rides a bike will want to take a long look at the statistics on bicycle accidents recently totaled up by traffic authorities. Unless something is done about it, the coming year will see more than 25,000 bicyclists, most of them children, killed or injured in street and highway accidents.

Ever since the coming of automobiles, bicycles have been tolerated somewhat grudgingly as hybrids in the vehicle family a sort of cross between a pedestrian and a motor vehicle with neither willing to accept them. Pedestrians don't want them on the sidewalks; motorists call them a nuisance and a danger on the streets. Where there are no proper regulations for their operation, cyclists ride to the right, to the left, through red lights, in and out between moving cars, and sometimes even travel about beside their bikes in crowded traffic.

Such a state of affairs is hair-raisingly dangerous. It is unfair to cyclists, motorists and pedestrians alike; for accidents are often caused by cyclists even though the bicycle itself may not be hit in the crash. But perhaps the worst damage of all is to character. Young people are encouraged in habits of recklessness and lack of respect for traffic laws and this is the worst possible preparation for them as future citizens and car-owners. Cure for this situation would seem to lie not in outlawing bicycles, but in giving them a respectable place in the traffic family. Every community should welcome a constructive program providing for enforcement of such traffic regulations as apply to bicycles and for their registration, licensing, and inspection. Let's give the kids a chance!

Chevrolet To Enter 500 Mile Auto-Race

A Chevrolet will pace the Indianapolis 500-mile auto-race on Monday, May 31.

It will be driven by Wilbur Shaw, a three-time winner of the classic, who is now president of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

This will be Chevrolet's first official appearance on the track and the choice was influenced by the company's top-ranking position in the industry.

In making the announcement, T. H. Keating, general sales manager of Chevrolet, also disclosed two added first-place race awards. The winner will be given the pace car, a dove grey Chevrolet cabriolet, and an especially designed, 40-inch high Chevrolet trophy.

Keating said that the car which leads the field of 33 drivers across the starting line will be strictly stock.

CONGRATULATIONS TO YOU, Graduates!

We could be cynical, instead, and offer you sympathy and commiseration at this commencement time, but there is too much cynicism already and too little room for it. Granted, it isn't a very pretty world right now—the one you'll be meeting soon. But it's the only one you have, and perhaps you'll be able to do something about improving it.

Give it a good hard try, anyway, will you?

Bike Regulations For Youths Urged To Make Future Drivers Safety Conscious

By John V. Grimaldi
 Director, Industrial Division, National Conservation Bureau

10 series to inquire and still 10 articles on street and highway safety, written by nationally recognized accident prevention specialists and published by this newspaper in the interests of greater traffic safety).

Thousands of youngsters take to their bicycles every year, swelling the ranks of America's cyclists to well over 9,000,000. On the basis of past records, it seems tragically certain that unless measures are taken for their protection, more than 25,000 cycling youngsters will be killed or injured, some of them crippled for life, in the coming year.

The responsibility for the chaotic state of bicycle traffic does not rest on any single agent, nor can it be shifted about from one set of shoulders to another. The responsibility is our; parents, teachers, motorists, city officials, cyclists and the power, too, is ours to eliminate these accidents. Legislation and education are the weapons by which this war against tragedy must be waged. Too many drivers automatically label the boy or girl behind the handlebars a nuisance, with no rights on the streets. Thoughtless motorists tend to consider the highways their own private domain, and would deprive bicycle operators of the rights and courtesies to which they are fairly entitled.

Although there has been a growing interest in bicycle legislation in many communities, the number of programs adopted has lagged far behind the ever-increasing needs.

Legislators are understandably reluctant to summon juveniles to court with adults criminals. As an alternative method, a new approach toward ultimate solution of the enforcement problem has been advanced and successfully carried out in cities of varying populations all over the country.

Taking the form of city ordinances, the regulations are designed to compel cyclists to maintain their vehicles in good mechanical condition and to observe the traffic laws.

Many cyclists, too, consider themselves privileged characters, entitled to ride on the wrong side of the street, to zigzag in an out of traffic, to violate traffic lights and to ride on the highways at night without adequate lights.

To combat these dangerous attitudes, alert city officials have adopted programs that call for the registration and licensing of bicycles, for police powers to impound bicycles and suspend and revoke licenses, and also for special bicycle courts, conducted under the direction of the police department's public safety section.

The need for such a program is obvious; the results achieved in areas where they have been undertaken, substantiates its value.

In the addition to the primary purpose of reducing the loss of life and limb attributed to bicycle accidents, parents, teachers and civic authorities are in a position to develop in the "fledgling cyclist" habits and attitudes that will stand him or her in good stead when the bicycle is wheeled into the garage for the last time, and the automobile backed out for the first.

Today's careful cyclist is tomorrow's safe driver, and conversely, today's ill-informed, irresponsible bicycle operator is today's or tomorrow's casualty.

SHAKESPEARE and ME
Of course, Shakespeare is a fine writer, and all that—but what about me? Why can't I write like Shakespeare? He's too old-fashioned. To prove my valour, I have written my revised version of "Romeo and Juliet." There once lived in the town of Verona, two families named Capulet and Montague. These families were rivals. Each family was very rich and always trying to outdo the other. Once the Capulets gave a big shindig and didn't invite the Montagues. But Romeo Montague disguised himself and crashed the party. Here he saw a cute chick and after a whirlwind courtship of two hours, the two become engaged. Then he found out her name. It was Juliet Capulet, his enemy. But love won out as it always does. That night, after he had left the party but not the estate, he was standing there under a window when he heard a girls voice. It was Juliet. She said "Romeo, oh, where is that hand-some hunk of man named Romeo?" Romeo, hearing this, answered, "Well, what do you know, Joe? I'm right here, chicken." Saying this, he promptly found a ladder and climbed to the window where Juliet was. Here the two made plans for the next day. They were to meet and go over to the next state and get married.

Then the gallant Romeo left his fair Juliet and climbed down the ladder. But the nimble Romeo fell when he was almost at the bottom and tore his pants, much to his embarrassment. But he got them fixed in time for the wedding.

The next night they slipped across the state line and were married by a justice of the peace. Then they both went to their respective homes.

The food shortage was still on and each hated bringing home another mouth to feed. And besides the families were still feeding. Soon after this Romeo was called away to another town on business. While he was away old man Capulet found a man for Juliet to marry. He said she could get out of his house if she did. (of course, she ate a lot and he was afraid of going bankrupt.) She decided to go ahead with marrying the man but at the last minute purposely took an overdose of sleeping pills. This knocked her out for a few days. Her fiance, mother and father thought she was dead. They did not bury her for a few days. (They had to wait on relatives that lived far off.) Meanwhile, Romeo heard a rumor going around that Juliet was dead. He hurried home, sneaked into her room, saw that the nuns were there, and wrote a note to the people. Then he pulled out his trusty pistol and shot himself. Just as he did this Juliet revived and saw him dying. Then she picked up the pistol and bravely shot herself. The Montague and Capulet decided then to bury the hatchet.

Moral: Don't be like Romeo and believe everything you hear.
