Cotton Farmers Are Invited To Take Advantage Of Marketing Services

Cotton farmers were invited today by H. J. Matejowsky to take advantage of the marketing services provided by the Smith-Doxey Act so they can get the highest prices for their cotton this fall.

Matejowsky is in charge of the Abilene cotton classing office, U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration. This office serves farmers in Andrews, Baylor, Callahan, Coke, Concho, Coleman, Dickens, Fisher, Glasscock, Haskell, Howard, Jones, Knox, Kent, Martin, Midland, Mitchell, Nolan, Runnels, Scurry, Stonewall, Schleicher, Taylor, Throckmorton, and Tom Green counties.

"Every cotton farmer can get this year's crop classed without paying a fee as well as USDA market quotations mailed to him if he belongs to an organized improvement group," Matejowsky explained.

About ninety groups of farmers were organized in the Abilene territory last year.

"Prospects for increased cotton production this year should result in larger participation in the program," Matejowsky said. "This means Smith-Doxey applications should be filed immediately so that this office will be better prepared to serve all groups."

Applications can be secured at the county agent's office.

Leon Todd Freed Of Murder Charge In New Mexico

Some months ago Leon Todd, a former Santa Annan and now employed as a druggist in Mineral Wells, was charged with killing a man in Rudoso, New Mexico. Todd was accused of the murder by a man that he did not even know, and who was at the time a convict in the Arizona State Prison.

The dead man was Floyd Hewlett, who according to the Justice of the Peace report, said the gun shot wounds were self-inflicted. The convict claimed Todd paid him to kill the "man" ten years before.

After eight months of nagging worry and spending his life savings, Leon Todd has cleared himself of the murder charges. After all information was presented to the court, the case was thrown out, and charges against Todd were dropped on May 1.

His employer, Pete McCleskey of Mineral Wells, stood by Todd all during the eight-month period.

It seems that this is one of those cases we often hear about, but do not come in contact with. Leon has a number of good friends here, as well as a large number of relatives, who lived through the eight months period of worry with him. It seems that this was another case of the man having to prove himself innocent, rather than being innocent and proven guilty by the courts, of the law taking the word of a proven convict and arresting an innocent man without taking the trouble to do a little investigating before making such accusations.

Now, there is nothing Todd can ever recover in time, worry, money or health.

Mrs. W. T. Wheatley and her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Black returned Sunday from a visit with a daughter and sister at Mt. Ida, Ark. They left Tuesday for Mrs. Back's home at Torrance, Calif., where Mrs. Wheatley will stay indefinitely.

The Legion has taken over the care and maintenance of the Ranger Home and has made considerable improvement around the home the past few weeks. There is still a number of improvements planned and in order to complete them, the Legion must raise money to pay for the repairs.

Let's all join in with the Legion and help see that the Ranger and Legion Home is kept in top condition.

About the most discouraged person we've ever seen was the fellow who had written a long overdue letter, and then lost it before getting it mailed.

An old-timer is one who remembers that when two girls discovered a man following them they called a cop. (Now they match for him!)

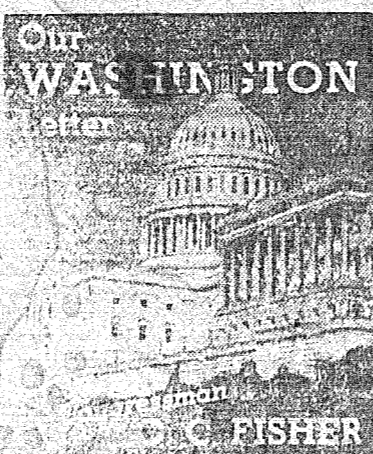

Mrs. Earl Hardy came home from the Coleman hospital on Friday of last week, after a stay of several days there. She is now able to be up and about.

SALE CONTINUES AT LADIES SHOP

WHEN THE OPS ORDERED a roll-back on cattle prices, many feeders as well as producers sustained financial losses, according to an admission by an OPS official when he testified before the House Agriculture Committee last week.

An example was given of a cattle dealer in Kansas who, before the roll-back, bought 100 cattle in Texas, weighing 500 pounds each, and paid 37 cents per pound. Then came the unexpected roll-back of 10% on May 20, 4% on August 1 and 4% on October 1. The buyer had planned to keep them on pasture until October at which time they would gain about 200 pounds in weight. But now he finds that if he keeps them until October he cannot then charge more than 26 cents a pound, and will sustain a net loss of $49 a head.

Similar examples have been multiplied hundreds of times. Last January Eric Johnson told the Nation that roll-backs on meat would not work and would mean less meat for the consumer. The producers were thus led to believe they could buy and contract without fear of such roll-backs. Then, suddenly the roll-back order was issued, and it caught large numbers of people with heavy investments and faced with unavoidable financial losses.

Actually, the order is not helping the consumer. The shopper is still paying as much as before the roll-back, the packers and distributors are, in some instances, reaping some benefits at the expense of the grower. There will be much less incentive for feeders to buy and fatten cattle, and the consumers will in all likelihood find less meat on the counters, and will pay very little if any less for it in the future.

Except for live cattle and hides, there has been no roll-backs. There have been no roll-backs on feed, transportation, wages, etc. On the other hand, there have been several rounds of wage increases over the nation. Shortly after announcing the roll-back on live cattle, the Government granted a 10% increase in wages for slaughter-house workers.

The price of cattle and of meat are admittedly high. But so is everything else. Actually, according to the Department of Agriculture, factory workers can now buy one and one-half pounds of round steak with one hour's work, whereas before World War I they could buy only 9-10 pound of round steak for the one hour of work.

Thus, the roll-back, amounting to 18% by next October, is proving unfair, unsound, discriminatory and unworkable. There would have been little objection to a price freeze, but by picking out one industry in our entire economy and subjecting it to an 18% roll-back without the costs of production being also rolled back, the OPS has invited amendments to the present law to prevent such actions in the future. The present law expires at the end of June unless continued by Congress. Congressional committees are now engaged in hearings on the subject. The new law if one is passed, should protect against arbitrary and unworkable orders such as the live cattle roll-back.

"THE FRIENDLY BANK"

If You Must Hoard "Hoard" Money...

BANK IT SAFELY... SPEND IT SENSIBLY...

Hoarding makes for scarcity and scarcity makes for high prices.

That's simple, isn't it? If you buy more sugar than you need — and your neighbor buys more coffee than she needs — and thousands of other people and their neighbors do the same thing — soon there is a shortage of coffee and sugar and the prices go up. And so does the price of everything else that is hoarded.

And that means an increase in the cost of living for all of us. If that were all there was to it — that would not be so bad...

BUT NOTE THIS: When people buy more than they need — they soon stop buying. Suddenly, prices tumble — and in their wake comes depression and unemployment.

And so we say — if you must hoard, "hoard" money — in a safe bank account, where your money works for you and for your country... Money in the bank works for all — but only when it's safe — available — ready to be used when it is needed.

Air Planes To Be Used To Kill Mesquite

For the first time in Coleman County History airplanes will be used for controlling mesquite by spraying. This practice is still more or less in an experimental stage. The Spur Experiment station has carried out experiments by airplane spraying of mesquite for the past 4 or 5 years and have found that this is one of the best ways of controlling mesquite on rangeland.

P. C. Pipes and W. T. Hemphill, Jr., who represent the Northeast Aviation Service, Inc., of Monroe, La., were in Coleman recently contacting farmers and ranchers who are interested in getting their mesquite sprayed. This service is carried out by a Stearman type plane which is a former Army primary flight ship. This company has been licensed by the Department of Agriculture at Austin to carry out this service. They are also required by law to operate under a bond.

Only 2 chemicals have been approved for this type spraying. These are: propylene glycol butyl ether ester and butoxy ethanol.

All producers are advised not to use these chemicals since a number of useful plants and shrubs are susceptible to this spray. This work will be closely supervised by a representative of the County P. M. A. Committee. No spraying will be done within 3 miles of cotton. This spray, under favorable conditions, will kill most all of the top growth of mesquite and about 60% of the entire tree. It will also eradicate undesirable weeds. Grass seems to do better in areas sprayed by these chemicals. No spraying will be done before June 4 and it may last for 50 days.

Ranchers and farmers are required to furnish 2 flagmen who direct the fliers when they are spraying. The plane covers a swath of about 34 to 40 feet. A landing strip around 1500 feet long is required within a mile or two of the area to be sprayed. The total approximate cost of this practice is $3.30 per acre and the Government is offering assistance of $1.75 per acre. If this practice is carried out under P. M. A. specifications, a signed application is required so that your area may be inspected and an approval set up by the committee for the practice.

You may contact Mr. Hemphill if you wish to carry out this practice without Government assistance. You may reach him any time at either the Coleman Hotel or by contacting him through the county P. M. A. office.

Mrs. Cordelia Walton and Mrs. Galie Dees returned early last week from Dallas, where they visited with their sister, Mrs. E. G. Bishop and family. Mr. Bishop had been seriously ill since November, but is now greatly improved. Out of Ruins Lesson for June 3, 1951

GERMAN who came through World War II recently said: "At present there is no country in the world where a man can live more like a man than in Germany. This is because yesterday has been reduced to ruins and rubbish..."

Dr. Foreman

At Last They Believed If you had asked a resident of that city, at the hour when the enemy army was burning his beloved home, if God's hand was in the catastrophe, most likely he would have said, "No, not by any means. This is Nebuchadnezzar's work, or the devil's—certainly not God's."

Consider what good came out of it. For one thing, it taught the Jews that God is really a God of justice, after all. The nation that sinneth, it shall die; the nation that takes the sword shall perish by the sword. The prophets had been trying to tell them that for many a long year, but no attention had been paid.

The sins the prophets had said God would surely punish, went on and on, and there seemed to be no reckoning and no punishment. The little nation was deluded into thinking it could get by with anything for as long as they pleased. But after the crash of 586 B.C., they all knew the prophets had been telling the truth.

Yesterday Is Dead FOR another thing, the exile cured the Jews, for a long time, of trying to be a political nation like other nations. God had called them to another kind of existence. So long as they had been an independent nation they had kept fooling around with politics, armies, international intrigue. After all that had been swept into Nebuchadnezzar's dustbin, the people's hearts turned more and more to God and his laws.

Another way in which that city-wide ruin was a blessing was that it "killed yesterday." Before the fatal year 586, the Hebrew kings, and people had more or less looked backward. Every king wanted to be a great conqueror like David, a wealthy potentate like Solomon. But they never would look the cold fact in the face, that those days were gone forever.

But when the exiles came back to rebuild the ruins, the younger ones at least looked forward. Yesterday was dead; they built now for tomorrow.

Harrison Family Reunion In S. Angelo

The daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harrison, old time settlers of Coleman County, who later moved to San Angelo, held a reunion Sunday, May 13, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hill, 211 E. 23rd St. in San Angelo. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Foubler, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Edward Jay and Mick of Rockwood, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stuchman, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Chechuga, Mrs. and Mrs. M. J. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Brumby, Mr. and Mrs. Erston Barber, Rita Beth and Preston Jr. of Law, Mr. and Mrs. George Steward, Maureen, Mandie and Mr. and Mrs. Ebert Usery of Roscoe.

Present from San Angelo were: Mrs. Laura Keegan, Mrs. Ella Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steward, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Bill, Mr. and Mrs. George Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McElquinn, Garland Ferguson, Christine Morton, Mrs. Bill Casselberry and Billy Christian, Cathy Proctor, Mrs. Betty Denton and Charlie Ferguson.

Mrs. Johnson Reports On District Meeting to Rockwood W.S.C.

Mrs. Morris Johnson gave an interesting report on the District meeting held in Rockwood, Texas, on May 26. She reported that the meeting was very successful and that the women of the district were very helpful in their work.

Mrs. Olin Horton Honored At Tea

Numerous friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. Olin Horton for a tea on May 26. Mrs. Horton is the former Miss Inez Ethel Steward and the two were graduated together from the Santa Anna High School and have attended McMurry College together.

Blessed With Ruins

RUINS can be a blessing in more ways than one. So Chicago and San Francisco and Baltimore were better cities after their big fires; Louisville improved after its great flood; the "New South" of today is blessed as the Old South, for all its glories, could not have been.

Sometimes a man who has been depending on anything but God for hope and happiness—on his money, on his friends, on his health, on his position—finds these things swept out from under him, and then at last comes back to God.

After a man's childhood faith has been shattered by manhood's disillusionments, it has often come to pass that out of the ruins of the childish beliefs he rears a tower of faith far stronger than anything he has lost.

Let's Not Make Ruins

THIS does not mean, of course, that we ought ever to go out and deliberately make ruins. The best way to improve other nations is not to drop bombs on them; the best way to be improved ourselves is not to act in such ways as to tempt other nations to drop bombs on us.

The best way to build a better faith is not to scrap all the faith we have. The best way to find God is not to go out and find him in a fox-hole. The blessings of ruins are not the best God has; but sometimes they are what it takes to bring a man to his senses.

And if the crash does come, and the towers fall, and life lies in rubble around us, we must remember what the Hebrews learned: that even in the ruins we may, better than ever, come to know the living God.

Whon W.M.S. Has Royal Service Program Monday

The ladies of the Whon W.M.S. met at the church Monday afternoon for a Royal Service Program. Songs were sung by the group as the meeting opened. The devotional was given by Mrs. Deal and Mrs. Buse. Mrs. Smith led in prayer.

A large cardboard pin representing our W. M. S. pin and the globe of the world were the center-piece of the table. A white, gold and purple ribbon was fastened to the pin. As Mrs. Deal announced each topic, Mrs. Gill spoke on Mission, Day of Prayer and Lottie Moon, while Mrs. Buse entwined each color of ribbon and pinned them to the world. This symbolizes our W. M. S. work all over the world.

A special song, "I Need Thee Every Hour", was very nice. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Switzer and Mrs. Barnes also had interesting parts on the program. We each closed with a prayer for our leaders with the young people.

Those present were: Mmes. Buse, Deal, Gill, McFarlin, Switzer, Smith, Barnes and one child. —Reporter

Blue Bonnet Club Has Flower Quiz At Thursday Meeting

The Blue Bonnet Club was called to order May 24th at 8 o'clock by the president, Miss Thelma Casey, at her home. Mrs. John Lauder led the prayer and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson led the singing of a new song.

Mrs. E. D. Bouchillon led the flower quiz that was based on a wedding. After committee reports, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson gave the Council report. She announced that annual camp will be on the 17th and 18th of July. Also that reflector type name plates for mail boxes may be collectively purchased for 60 cents each.

Mrs. Rex Garrett and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson were appointed to make a game sheet which will be sent to our County Agent, Miss Mary Alice Smith, who will send game sheets from this county to clubs in countrys that have not had recreation training.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson gave the flower quiz. Each member gave the nature and care of the flower she brought, then the flowers were numbered and drawn for. The club is glad to welcome another new member, Mrs. Herchal Casey.

The hostess served refreshments to Mmes. E. D. Bouchillon, Evelyn Casey, John Lauder, Solan Wilson, Woodrow Wilson, Joe C. Brooks and Herchal Casey. The next meeting will be June 14th at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Will Casey, an associate member who lives in Coleman.

Between the hours of 3:30 and 4:30 p. m. on Wednesday, May 23, Mrs. Clyde Haynes entertained in her home with a party, in honor of her son, Kenneth's ninth birthday. Indoor games were played and the honoree received a lot of nice gifts.

The white iced birthday cake was decorated with the words, "Happy Birthday Kenneth" in deep pink icing, with green candies and other green decorations. Bottled drinks and suckers were served with the cake.

Those present were: Jimmy and Dixie Crews, Janet Scarborough, Mary Wigger, Roy Payne, Dean Constable, Tommy Hale, Alice Anna Lovelady, Larry and Tommy Taylor, Sherman Stearns and the honoree.

Mrs. Winford Harris was a guest and assisted the hostess in entertaining and serving. Kenneth enjoyed the occasion but was still getting about on crutches, from injuries he received recently in a fall from the side of the mountain.

Self Culture Club Has Final Meet of Year

Marking the close of the club year, the Self Culture Club had a very interesting meeting on Friday afternoon, May 25th, in the home of Mrs. R. C. Gay.

Preceding the business period, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. Z. Payne, served lovely refreshments of punch, angel food cake iced in pink, topped with strawberries.

Mrs. Preston Bailey, president, presided. The new year books were distributed.

A program on art was given. Mrs. Olie Weaver spoke on the "Angelus", showed pictures and told of seeing the original in her travels.

Mrs. Ford Barnes spoke on "Sculpture" and told of seeing much fine statuary, especially in Italian cities, on her trip abroad last year.

Mrs. McCartney exhibited a number of drawings of her third grade pupils, that showed real talent.

Words of appreciation of her labors in our midst were voiced, and regrets expressed that she will not be with us next year.

Mrs. J. W. Vance Completing Tour Of Wool Growers

Mrs. J. W. Vance of south of Santa Anna, president of the Womens Auxiliary of the National Wool Growers Association, is completing a study of the Wool Bureau's operations as part of an extended tour in behalf of the nation's wool growers.

The tour has also included a talk before the Texas State Senate and meetings with Congressmen in Washington.

"The Wool Bureau's work in championing the cause of the wool grower is imaginative and stimulating," she asserts. "It is an organized force in focussing and coordinating efforts toward the common goal of maintaining and increasing wool's markets."

During her stay in New York Mrs. Vance has had an opportunity to observe the Bureau's activities in consumer and retail education, research, merchandising, promotion and publicity. As National Contest Director of the fifth annual "Make It Yourself With Wool" Home Sewing Contest, she has devoted much of her time to a study of the handling of the contest.

Mrs. Vance arrived in New York May 16 after a visit to Austin, where she addressed the Texas State Senate as a representative of the wool industry. Introduced by Senator Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, she told the Senate that she considered it "a privilege and honor" to speak before the group.

In Washington she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Byron Wilson; Mr. Wilson is a director of The Wool Bureau. During her stay in the nation's capitol, she was honored at a luncheon held by Congressman Q. C. Fisher of San Angelo.

She left New York Saturday for Chicago, where she will spend a few days completing her work. She will return home next week end.

Mrs. Vance has been an outstanding leader in Auxiliary and home sewing activities in Texas. Prior to her marriage to John Will Vance she was a Home Demonstration Agent in the Extension Service. Now she and her husband make their home at the Golden Hoof Farms, eleven miles south of Santa Anna, where they raise Corriedale and Suffolk sheep and polled Herefords. They have an 18-year-old son, Kenneth, who is attending John Tarleton State College at Stephenville.

Visitors in the George Hipp home over the week end were: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bowden and James Hipp and family of Abilene. Visiting with them Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hipp of Santa Anna and his son, Bobby Joe, of Leaky.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Campbell of Slaton visited several days last week with his mother, Mrs. A. E. Campbell. While visiting here, Mrs. Campbell was quite sick. She had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Sue Creamer in Beaumont and together they made a trip to Galveston, and into Old Mexico, before coming to Santa Anna.

Preston Bailey went to Denton Wednesday, to bring home Julia Ann, from TSCW, where she has been a student.

Building Activities Due To Take Drop

Local building activity is due for a precipitous drop unless defense agencies in Washington modify their extreme and unnecessary controls affecting construction, according to O. J. Albro, local lumber and building materials dealer and member of the Public Affairs Committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

"Restrictions on housing and other building have come so fast, in the effort to conserve critical metals for the defense production program, that surpluses of many building products are developing rapidly," Mr. Albro said. "Yet these excess inventories cannot be used because of the emergency restrictions."

"The cutbacks in construction are only beginning to be felt, because work planned or started some months ago is not affected."

"While the controls are not as in World War II, when the country went into all-out war production, they nevertheless are more restrictive than they need be under the circumstances. For some unexplained reason, the building industry is being singled out for greater sacrifices than any other major industry."

"Under the latest defense regulations, some types of construction are forbidden outright and many others, including stores, large factories, garages, office buildings, and warehouses, cannot be built unless a special permit is received from the National Production Authority."

"The cumbersome permit system in itself is a serious obstacle because many weeks often are required to get the necessary permission to build, even when the government has no objections. NPA already was six weeks behind in handling applications for permits before it expanded the list of buildings for which permits are required."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert See of Shreveport, La., were recent visitors with his father, Mr. Will See.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCrary have only recently been able to come to town and attend church services, after an illness of about six weeks in their home.

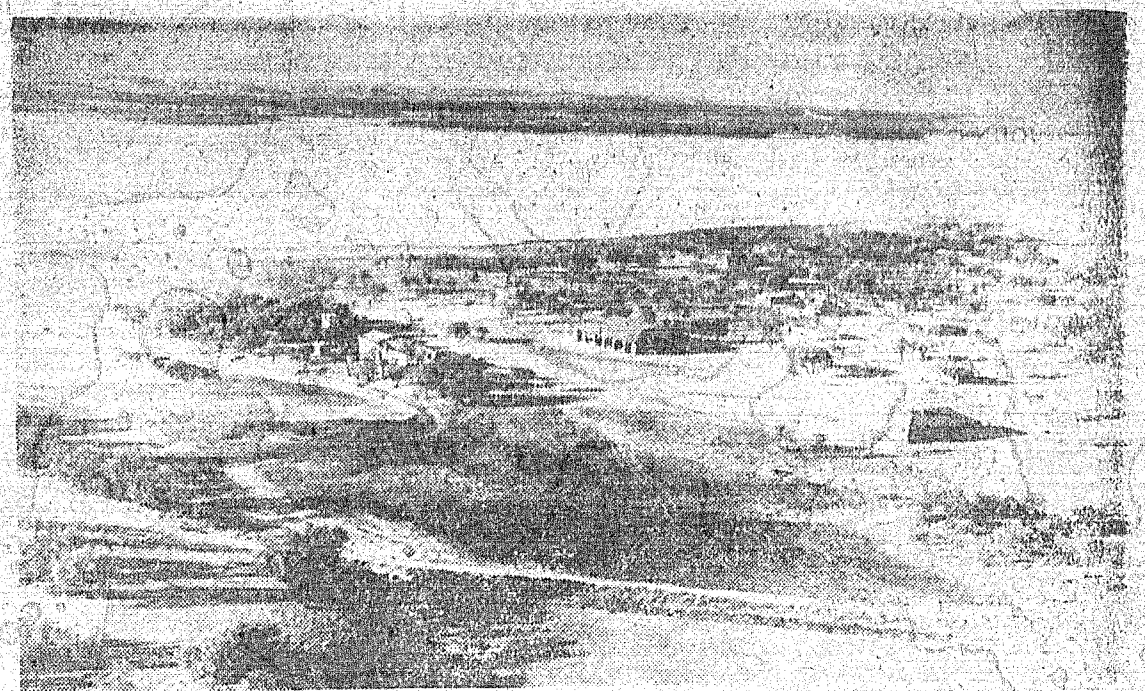

Mrs. Norval Wylie left Tuesday morning, with her sister, Mrs. P. B. Snook of Coleman, to visit the latter's daughter, Mrs. C. R. Nichols, at New London, Texas.

"We've never been able to figure out—'When a doctor gets sick and another doctor doctors the doctor, does the doctor doing the doctoring have to doctor the doctor the way the doctor being doctor'd wants to be doctor'd, or does the doctor doing the doctoring of the doctor doctor in his own way?'"

They say the darkest hour comes just before the dawn, but there aren't many folks that can prove it.

The tax medicine Washington mixes for us isn't so palatable but it's worth any price just live in this country.

Success is built on smaller margins. The fastest runner in the world can't run five per cent faster than ordinary runners.

TO LATE FOR LAST WEEK — Our community had about seven inches of rain Monday afternoon. It was enjoyed by everyone.

Brother Saul Suddeth filled his appointment at the Cleveland Church of Christ Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Herring visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Perry Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Doty visited Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cupps Friday night.

Mr. S. E. Blanton and boys visited Monday night with her mother, Mrs. A. E. Genz, and her sister, Freda Genz, from Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lancaster visited in Rockwood Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. King.

Mr. and Mrs. Deisco Woods visited in Brooksmith, Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Knutson and children.

Local Methodist Church News

The large attendance the fourth Sunday included a number of visitors. Among those out-of-town was Mrs. Joe I. Patterson from Graham, whose husband was pastor here twenty years ago. Using as a Scriptural base a portion of the 6th chapter of Isaiah, the pastor discussed the need of men, the call of God, and man's response.

The new mimeograph purchased a few weeks ago was presented in honor of the pastor by Mr. R. K. Green.

There was no evening service due to the Baccalaureate Service at the High School.

Our workers have been quite busy preparing for Vacation School, which has been announced for several weeks, to be in progress this week. We hope to have a good report to give later regarding the school.

Mrs. Crews was devotional leader when the W. S. C. S. met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Blake with Mrs. Zachery as co-hostess. Mrs. Albro, assisted by several others, presented a view of the work being done in various Mission Fields. The presence of some new members was happily noted.

This week concludes our conference year. A most outstanding report is being made, for which all who had a part in are justly proud.

First Baptist Church News

The Vacation Bible School is in full swing, around 90 have enrolled through Tuesday. The Principal for the school is Ladson Worley; department superintendents are Barbara Bruce, Beginners; Mrs. L. McClellan, Primary; Mrs. Ladson Worley, Junior; and Mrs. Paul Pembroke, Intermediates; Mrs. Billy Day is the general secretary. The school will run through June 6 with the commencement program that night. The school meets daily 8 a. m. through 11 a. m. All of the boys and girls of the community are invited to attend.

Sunday morning, June 3, special recognition will be given to the Extension Department. Bro. Ladson Worley, the Educational Director, has been called to the First Baptist Church, Artesia, New Mexico. This will be his last Sunday with the local church here. The public is invited to attend the services of the First Baptist Church.

The men started working on the camp building last week. It was slowed up some this week because the men were able to work in the fields. Everytime anyone works on the building it will hasten its completion.

Sunday morning, June 3, special recognition will be given to the Extension Department. Bro. Ladson Worley, the Educational Director, has been called to the First Baptist Church, Artesia, New Mexico. This will be his last Sunday with the local church here. The public is invited to attend the services of the First Baptist Church.

The men started working on the camp building last week. It was slowed up some this week because the men were able to work in the fields. Everytime anyone works on the building it will hasten its completion.

Just "Can't Get Over" Easy's Fence

Few years ago, Easy Roberts took a lot of kidding when he planted that hedge of Multiflora roses — along his property line. Folks said he was getting pretty high-salutin'.

But today plenty of people who laughed at the idea slow down when they drive by Easy's place — just to look at those roses. Most beautiful sight you ever saw.

Practical, too! The hedge is a good four foot high now, and at least five foot thick — even a shoat couldn't get through that prickly mass of shrubbery. Best of all, it cost less than ordinary fencing. (Might be well worth your while looking into.)

From where I sit, there's no sense in looking down on something just because it's different from what we like. For instance, some people think ice-cold lemonade's the best "cooler-offer" on a hot day. Some of us would rather have a glass of beer. The important thing is not to "hedge ourselves in" against other people's ideas and preferences.

Auto Center Revealed By Chevrolet Motor Division at Detroit

Detroit, Mich. — Where is the center of the American automobile "population"? How old is the average automobile?

To get the answers to these questions, the Chevrolet Motor Division checked the registration records of its more than 10,000,000 vehicles in service in the United States.

According to the company's calculations, the center is in the vicinity of Watscka, Ill., a town near the Indiana border and 80 miles south of Chicago.

The average passenger car is a 1941 sedan.

To illustrate the typical automobile, the company next selected a 1941 Chevrolet sedan owned by Don Sobkoviak, an employee of the Iroquois Farm Bureau Service Station in Watscka. Sobkoviak bought the car third-hand and its excellent condition gives little indication that it has traveled 107,000 miles.

In determining the auto axis of the country, Chevrolet statisticians discovered that a line drawn eastward through northern California, splitting the midwestern states of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio and passing along the southern Pennsylvania border would divide registrations approximately in half.

Similarly, a line extending southward slightly east of the Wisconsin border and cutting across Illinois, Kentucky and Tennessee would balance cars in use in eastern and western sections.

These lines intersect near Wat-cka. The model year of the car was arrived at by averaging the age of all Chevrolets registered.

Mrs. Bella Alexander has returned from a two weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Bill Price at El Paso, and with a sister and brother at Lometa. Mrs. Alexander has about recovered from recent surgery.

Farmers Asked To Increase Castor Bean Production

Castor oil is fast becoming one of the critical materials in the preparation of our national defense. Castor oil manufactured from castor beans is rapidly growing in value for use in everyday living items such as paints, varnishes, lacquers, hydraulic fluids, plastics, rubber compounds, textiles, cosmetics, inks, asphalt, floor tile, nylon, lubricants, electrical systems and a number of other products.

Imports from South America are not filling our needs at the present time. We must turn to our own production for our sources of supply. An agronomist from Oklahoma A&M who has been studying castor bean production for a number of years has developed a strain of seed known as the Conner Variety. This plant grows from four to five and one-half feet tall and will produce under very favorable conditions 1800 pounds per acre. Coleman County has been pronounced "ideal" for castor bean production.

A limited number of seed are available this year and due to a cleaning plant being built at Brownwood, a special effort is being made to get as many castor beans planted as near Brownwood as possible.

Castor Beans will grow well on a lighter type soil, but will produce more heavily on more fertile land. It is a drought-resistant crop and the plant has been known to shed all its leaves in the summer and with fall rains produce a good crop of beans before frost. The Government is supporting price of castor beans at 16 cents per pound, clean seed basis. If the market price is higher, the Government will pay the market price. At the present time the market is a little over 12c per pound.

All the production must be delivered to the cleaning plant at Brownwood and the cost of cleaning the seed is 1/2c per pound, clean seed basis.

The farmer will bring his official weight receipt to the County PMA office and receive a check for his production.

The Coleman County PMA committee has been issued an ample seed supply due to the fact that other counties east of Brownwood have not planted their seed; therefore, no limit has been placed on the number of seed the farmer may get for planting. The seed will cost 1 1/2c per pound and 10 pounds will plant an acre. The seed may be planted up to the 15th day of June and you can still get a normal production.

The Coleman County PMA has been assigned this job of getting an increase in castor bean production. Since it is getting late for most kinds of grain sorghums, the committee is asking that all farmers consider the castor bean production before planting all their acreage this year.

Very little cultivation is needed and the harvest cost will not run over 1 1/2 cents per pound; therefore, this crop will net you a cash profit comparable to any other crop that you might plant at this time. Machine pickers will be available, but small acreages are usually harvested by hand. Pickers prefer castor bean fields to cotton pulling. All seed will be available at the PMA office and the committee is anxious that you come by and discuss this matter before planting all your crops.
