Time To Honor Fathers

By MRS. A. L. ODER

Once again the time has come which has been designated to honor fathers.

Next Sunday, June 17, is the day. I have never learned exactly who launched the observance of Father's Day, but it was some one who knew the Bible teaches, "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother."

We have never been able to surround the day with as much glamor as we do Mother's Day. Maybe because the observance of Easter, Mother's Day, school closing and the like, have left us fagged out, and the hot weather of June adds to our inertia.

A good father is as worthy as any mother, of our respect and homage.

The Bible and history are replete with many instances of fathers; undying love for their children.

No greater love than that of Jacob for Joseph, has ever been told of the love of one human for another, or that of the father for the prodigal son.

All about us daily we see the love of fathers, manifested in their daily toil, battling inflation, to feed and care for their families. One father in our town — with a very good job said — "All I do is work for the grocery stores," meaning it was about all he could do to feed his family. But he was cheerfully doing his best.

Senator Kefauver of Tennessee has been chosen by the Father's Day Committee as the Father of the year.

Senator Kefauver has been pictured playing with his and neighbor children.

Our old-time fathers didn't have much time to play with their children. Working in 40 hour shifts twice weekly, Monday through Wednesday and Thursday through Saturday, especially when the days were long, and several hours of farm chores on Sunday, was about all they could do. But when crops were "laid-by", Dads would take the family on fishing trips, to revival meetings and picnics. Fathers love through the ages may be made known in different ways, but all children may be aware of it, if they are observant.

So, if you are absent from father, and have not written him as often as you should, let me beg you to write him a letter and let him know you appreciate him. Tell him of your apprecia-

The purchasers, owners of the semi-weekly Coleman County Chronicle, were R. A. Autrey, Sr., Roy Autrey, Jr., Milton Autrey and Dick Reavis.

The Democrat-Voice has been published in Coleman for approximately 70 years, most of that time as a weekly. It has been published as a daily paper for about three years. Mr. and Mrs. Smith bought the paper in April, 1950.

The new owners have not definitely announced the publications days for the Democrat-Voice. The sale was effective on Monday of this week. Mr. Smith said his present plans include only a long vacation to "see the country."

Pvt. Leo Shields In Brownwood Wreck Friday Night

Four persons were hospitalized in Brownwood Friday night following a head-on collision at about 8 p. m. on Highway 67-84 near the Sidran plant.

Most seriously injured was Miss Shirley Johnson, 15, of Brownwood. She was hospitalized for treatment of head and face injuries and shock.

Also taken to the hospital were Mrs. P. C. Hayes and daughter, Miss Hazel Virginia Hayes, 16, of Hobbs, N. M. In the 1947 Mercury sedan with them was Mrs. S. T. Mitchell, 77, of Thrifty, mother of Mrs. Hayes. She was also treated at the hospital. None of the three suffered serious injuries.

Occupants of the other car, a 1949 Ford coupe, in addition to Shirley Johnson, were her sister, Miss Opal Johnson, 19; Joe Dell Love of Brownwood, and the driver, Pvt. Leo Thomas Shields, 20, who had returned to his Santa Anna home on a furlough visit from Ft. Riley, Kan. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shields of Santa Anna and was driving the car belonging to his brother, Robert W. Shields. Only slight injuries and shock were suffered by this group.

Now a shatterable windshield glass may have saved the life of Shirley Johnson, who was sitting in the front seat of the Ford. The severe impact threw her head against the right windshield, leaving a big bulge and hundreds of cracks in the glass.

The driver, Pvt. Shields, received only minor face scratches and body bruises.

The collision occurred as he (Shields) was driving west when the Mercury pulled onto the highway from the residence of S. W. Mitchell, 1037 Commerce, located on the north side of the highway. The Mercury was preparing to drive east to a drive-in theatre.

Highway patrolmen and the sheriff's officers investigated the accident. They estimated dam-

City Council Takes Off Nightwatchman Clock For Six Months Trial Period

At the last regular meeting of the City Council a petition was presented, signed by a large group of the business men of the town, requesting the Council to relieve the nightwatchman of the duty of carrying the clock. After due consideration by the council, it was decided that they would give this a trial for six months, before final passage.

The primary purpose of the nightwatchman carrying the clock is a report to the Fire In-

As a result of a recent joint development by Polaroid engineers and the Civil Defense scientists, it is now possible to get equipment that will make the Polaroid Camera capable of measuring atomic radiation in case of an atom bomb explosion.

The Santa Anna News has been using a Polaroid Camera for the past year, and last week we received the extra equipment that makes our camera able to measure the amount of atomic radiation in the air or in water. We do not think we are in any immediate danger of having an atomic blast exploded anywhere near us but since we have the camera and the Civil Defense Authorities suggest that all Polaroid Cameras be equipped in this manner, we have equipped our camera for use in the civil defense effort.

The damage that might result from an atomic blast is so huge that it is difficult for most of us to believe that mankind will let it happen, and certainly no one can predict when or if a bomb might fall. Yet, though "political" facts are lacking, the positive scientific facts are inescapable and they should form the basis for preparedness. Lethal gamma radiation is unseen and unfelt. Like powerful X-ray, it readily penetrates buildings, auto mobiles, and clothing. Its full effect on human beings may be delayed for hours or even days.

Just in case a bomb might fall in this area, our camera is equipped to measure the amount of radiation in a matter of a few seconds, and the results can be reported to the proper authorities.

There will be refreshments for the adults and shelters for the children.

Mr. Williams states that he has had forty years experience in handling meat. That he can process your meat the way you want it and that he will appreciate you discussing your meat processing with him.

age of $550 to the Ford and $450 to the Mercury.

Mrs. W. A. Featherston visited several days at the week end with Mrs. Rene Featherston and Lou and John at Triekham. She attended the party given in honor of Mrs. Featherston's 90th birthday.

Mr. Byrl Sparkman took Mrs. Sparkman to Canyon early last week, where she enrolled for the summer at Canyon State College.

insurance Commission of Texas, in order that they might know that the nightwatchman is making regular rounds in the fire limits, to check on fires in the business district. According to a letter from the Fire Insurance Commission, the Insurance Key Rate will be increased 2 cents as the result of removing the clock. However, this has been requested by the largest number of the business men of the town, and the City Council is giving it a trial to check the results.

Tell the Story! Lesson for June 17, 1951

TELL me the old, old story is a favorite hymn in many places. But the first Christians would have been considerably puzzled by that hymn if you had tried it on them. It was no old, old story for them. It was hot news.

Dr. Foreman

Whatever objections people may have had to Christianity in those days, they never said it was "old stuff." More than that, Christians did not go around telling one another the story of Jesus. When Jesus said, "Be my witnesses," his first hearers did not think he meant "to only to those for whom it is an old story."

The early church was by no means an organization devoted to repeating something they knew by heart, like the ritual of a lodge. It was devoted to telling the good news about God to people who did not know that God had any good news.

The Gospel Is a Story THE saying has been quoted in this column before: Christianity first came to the world not on the editorial but on the news pages. Christianity is not God's new advice to the world. It is first of all the something God has done for the world.

"Gospel" in Greek means simply good news. It is the story of Jesus, the kind of person he was, the kind of truths he taught, the kind of work he did, the death he died. But the story of Jesus is more than the story of a man, uniquely great though he was.

It is, after all, the story of God. God who became man so that in the life of Christ Jesus we can read the unreadable God, see the Invisible, know the Great Unknown. The early Christians were not theologians, and they did not use the language or the formulas that centuries of thought were to hammer out. They never used the word "Incarnation" and seldom used the word "Atonement." But that was what they were driving at.

The Incarnation—that God has lived among us as a man among men, that the glory of God is in the face of Christ, the Atonement—that for Christ's sake God offers forgiveness to all men, that the door to God's love is a wide-open portal.

The early church taught and told this; but not just as a story to entertain or inform, not as a puzzle to be solved, not as something to be believed or not, as

Whom News Mrs. Tom Rutherford

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at 2:30 p. m. for Gayland Lesley Gordon, from a San Antonio Funeral Chapel conducted by Rev. Reedy of the First Nazarene Church in San Antonio.

Gayland Gordon, was born March 7, 1948 to Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gordon, of 124 Venice Street, San Antonio, and passed away June 7, 1951 at 10:30 p. m. of the Baptist Memorial Hospital, being 3 years and 3 months of age.

He seemingly was a perfectly healthy child until Dec. 7, 1950, when he suddenly took ill, and at the time the doctors pronounced it polio, but only a short time later they discovered it was cancer and finally pronounced it cancer of the nerve. He has been seriously ill the past 6 months, having undergone surgery in a Dallas and San Antonio hospital.

Little Gayland is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gordon, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gordon of McHard, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith of Whom, and a great-grandmother, the mother of Mrs. Claude Gordon, also 6 uncles and one aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith and Mr. Elder Smith of Whom; Mr. and Mrs. Dec Smith and Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Smith of Iraan; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Smith of Brownwood; Rev. and Mrs. Howard Smith of Hamby; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Martin of near Brownwood; several cousins. All the boys attended the funeral service except Mr. Ben Smith, Elder and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Martin.

There is very little that can be said to the bereaved parents to make the loneliness less bearable. But they do have the comfort that their little flowers only budded here to bloom in heaven.

The Whom community extends its sympathy to all the bereaved.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Abernathy of Lynda have had as guests the past week, Mrs. Abernathy's sister and family from Abernathy.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gardiner left Whom for several days for a visit to Fort Worth and in the meantime Sunday, June 10, they visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Luby and Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Martin.

Hope "Cappy" Told Him Where To Get Off!

"Cappy" Fisher — who just retired after thirty-five years as a railroad conductor — was telling about a salesman who was often one of his passengers.

"That man was so busy," says Cappy, "he used to bring a dictaphone on the train to catch up on his letters. On one trip he'd been rushing around so much he clean forgot to bring his ticket. Left it on his desk."

When Cappy started to tell him not to worry about the ticket, the salesman busts out with "Who's worried about the ticket? It's just that now I don't know what city I was going to get off at!"

Cappy might have been pulling our leg, but from where I sit, lots of us get so wrapped up in ourselves we often forget "where we're going." Some folks get so narrow they even begrudge their neighbors the right to enjoy a glass of beer now and then. Let's not forget that just as trains run on steam and oil, democracies run on freedom and tolerance!
