T. & P. CUTS OFF TRAIN EACH WAY TO MEET STRIKE

Midnight Eastbound and 3:32 Westbound Oil Field Special Canceled.

Effective tomorrow, the Texas & Pacific will temporarily discontinue two night trains "owing to conditions brought about by the present strike situation," it was announced this morning by S. B. Tunnell, agent. The trains to be discontinued are No. 12, eastbound, which is made up at Breckenridge, and arrives in Ranger at 2:28 a. m., and No. 11, westbound, made up at Dallas and arriving in Ranger at 5:32 a. m. The trains are known as the Oil Field Special and operate between Dallas and Breckenridge. They are the trains that handled the Ranger sleeper before this service was cut off on account of strike conditions.

The cancellation of the two trains will leave the following night service over the Texas & Pacific: No. 6, eastbound, arriving in Ranger at 3:32, and No. 5, westbound, arriving in Ranger at 12:28. Both are through trains and No. 5 will handle the Breckenridge sleeper. Day service consists of the Sunshine Special and a local train, each way.

10 TRAINS SUSPENDED.

AUSTIN, Aug. 2.—Because of strike conditions the railroad commission today granted a request of the Texas & Pacific Railway company for authority to suspend operation of ten passenger trains.

They are trains 11 and 12 between Dallas and Cisco, 9 and 10 between Fort Worth and Mineral Wells, 21 and 22 between Longview Junction and New Orleans, 33 and 34 between Whitesboro and Texarkana, 35 and 36 between Sherman and Clarksville.

OPEN SHOPPERS AT CISCO FACE BITTER FIGHT

CISCO, Aug. 2.—Resolutions declaring the "ill advised and untimely" action of forty or more Cisco business men Friday night in declaring for an open shop policy as representatives of the business interests and citizens of the city, were adopted Monday night at a mass meeting of several hundred Cisco citizens.

The open shop movement, Friday night is declared in the resolutions adopted Monday night to have been composed of "a hand-picked body of men," which met at the solicitation of the mayor and other persons.

The open shop movement, the resolutions continue, "is only an outcropping of the attempts of organized capital, organized industry, the coal barons and the railroads, to destroy organized labor and reduce wages and living standards, if possible, to the level of the Chinese coolie or Mexican peon."

It was further brought out in the resolutions that the open shop movement came as a bid for the Katy shops which are to be removed from DeLeon, and while condemning the action of the open shop advocates, the mass meeting pledged itself to "co-operate with the road in every fair and honorable way to protect its property and to support its rights under the law."

The mass meeting was presided over by Judge Eugene Langford, who in the course of his remarks asserted that the twelve-hour day was the foundation stone of the open shop plan and that this alone would be sufficient to condemn it. A. C. Smith, union carpenter of Cisco, told of conditions in steel mills and copper mines, operated under the open shop plan.

MAGNOLIA TEST NEAR DALTON WELL ON SAND

MINERAL WELLS, Aug. 2.—The Magnolia Petroleum company well on the Fearis tract is reported to be spraying oil at 2,500 feet. This is an offset to the Jack Dalton discovery well.

McGarr & Sons, drilling on section 1787 of the T. E. & L. survey, a mile and a half south of the Jack Dalton well, at 3,750 feet, are setting 6-inch casing with the hole standing about 800 feet in oil.

Dalton Oil and Gas No. 1 on the Love tract is making 2,000,000 feet of gas at 1,700 feet. Fifty to 75 other operations are well under way in the Dalton district.

STORK AWAY ON VACATION

Ranger's mortality rate exceeded its birth rate by 300 per cent during July, according to the reports on file in the office of the city secretary. Where from fifteen to thirty births have been reported each month heretofore, only three were reported during July. Nine deaths were recorded during the month.

The birth reports include: James Kell, Robinson Reynolds, to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Reynolds, South Austin street. Son, to Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Victor Matthews, Eastland Hill. William Gifford Clegg II, to Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Clegg.

THIRD CUT IN CRUDE MAKES PRICE $1.50

Pipe Line Officials Blame Rail Toup for Continued Reductions.

The expected cut in Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas crude, the third within the last month, came this morning when the Prairie company posted a 25-cent reduction, bringing North Texas and North Central Texas crude to $1.50 and Oklahoma and Kansas crude to $1.25.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon the Texas Pipe Line company, the Gulf Production company and the Magnolia company here said they had not received notice of any reduction.

The reduction started about a month ago from the $2.25 level, the highest reached since the slump which started in January, 1921. It is the belief in oil circles that the steady slump is due directly to the rail strike.

CONTRACT LET ON BRECKENRIDGE-EASTLAND HIGHWAY

BRECKENRIDGE, Aug. 2.—Contract for hard-surfacing the Eastland road has been awarded by the county commissioners' court to the McCollum Construction company, whose bid was $212,000.

The contract calls for the surfacing of 17 miles running south from Breckenridge to the Eastland county line, to be finished within six months' time. The work is to begin in the near future.

BOY REPORTED DROWNED WAS ELECTROCUTED

BRECKENRIDGE, Aug. 2.—Investigation into the death of Webbnie Touchstone, Breckenridge youth who was reported drowned in a water tank on the Smith lease south of town has brought out that Touchstone was electrocuted and not drowned.

Young Touchstone and several companions, it is reported, were swimming in the tank. While standing on the side of the tank the boy's feet slipped and he grasped a high-power wire strung over the tank. A heavy electric charge passed through his body, resulting in his death within a few moments after he had been brought to a local hospital.

He was the son of W. W. Touchstone, who was out of the city at the time of the accident.

BIG GAS WELL IGNITES.

AMARILLO, Aug. 2.—The Master well, one of the gigantic gassers of the Amarillo field, caught fire here late Saturday night and is burning like a huge torch, shooting a tongue of hissing flame high in the air. The flame is burning from a jet only, but even at that it is impossible to get near the burning gasser. The roar may be heard for many hundred yards away from the well and so far it has been impossible to extinguish the blaze. It is not known just how long the fire will burn and it is believed to have been maliciously set on fire.

SIX-INCH HAIL!

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Aug. 2.—Hail falling to the depth of six inches over an area two miles and nearly 50 miles long caused damage amounting to more than one million dollars to crops in Delaware, Lynn, Jones and Dubuque counties today. Nothing was left standing in the path of the storm. Hailstones were as large as eggs. Many farmers lost their entire crops.

HARDING PLAN IS ACCEPTED BY RAIL STRIKERS

Rejection of Seniority Compromise by Executives Halts Peace, However.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—Chiefs of the striking railroad employees today voted to accept President Harding's proposals for ending the rail strike and appointed a committee to draft the acceptance and forward it to the President immediately.

The actual vote was taken among the more than 100 chiefs of the six federated shop crafts under B. M. Jewell. Timothy Healy, president of the stationary firemen's organization, the only other on strike, announced his organization would concur in the shop crafts' action.

The proposals were understood to be the same as those which the railroad executives refused to accept in full at their New York meeting, the executives rejecting the proposal that strikers be restored to seniority rights if they returned to work.

Union leaders refuse to speculate as to what effect their action might have on peace proposals. The action of the union here was the one encouraging event in the rail strike situation today.

The New York Central railroad announced that the action of the executives yesterday concerning seniority had resulted in many strikers applying for work while many roads posted notices to their new men that their seniority rights would be protected fully.

EXECUTIVES REJECT PLAN.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Secretary Hoover after reporting to President Harding today on the railroad executives' meeting yesterday in New York, which the commerce secretary attended as a representative of the President, said he did not look for any action, during the day by the executives in the rail strike situation. The executives late yesterday rejected the President's proposal on the restoration of seniority to striking employees but accepted the first two provisions of his plan—the adjustment of all disputes by the railroad labor board and the withdrawal of all law suits growing out of the strike.

SANTA FE GUARANTEES JOBS.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 2.—Assurances of all new employees in the service of the Santa Fe railroad that their seniority rights will be fully protected was contained in a notice posted in the Santa Fe shops here this afternoon.

STRIKE LEADERS CHARGED WITH ASSAULT AT AMARILLO

AUSTIN, Aug. 2.—Three charges have been filed against strike leaders at Amarillo as a result of a court inquiry into an attack several days ago on three employees of the Santa Fe railroad at that place, Adjutant General Arton announced today. The charges admitted being members of groups that attacked the three men, Barton said.

Barton also announced that Major Machen, Mexia lawyer and member of the national guard, had been ordered to Denison to act as judge advocate of the troops stationed there.

DENISON SHOPMEN LAUD HARDING'S PEACE PLAN

DENISON, Aug. 2.—Sporadic shooting in and near Ray yards, Katy Freight terminal, early this morning was being investigated today by military authorities. Guardsmen on duty in the yards reported to Col. Charles W. Nimon, commanding officer, that shooting was heard from several places in the yards, but a thorough search failed to reveal the source.

Sailroad guards on duty in the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf yards reported shooting at a negro who ran at their command to halt. Striking shopmen in mass meeting adopted two resolutions, one commending the President for his efforts to bring about peace in the rail strike and condemning the executives for their rejection of the plan, and the other to B. M. Jewell, urging him to stand on the Harding proposal. The resolution was telegraphed to Washington and Chicago.

SMALL CHILD BURNS TO DEATH AT SEMINOLE

LUBBOCK, Texas, Aug. 2.—A small boy, 2 years and 6 months old, the child of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hillhouse, living two miles from Seminole, burned to death Sunday.

The mother left the house to go to the windmill and the house caught fire from an oil stove.

The mother was severely burned in trying to rescue the child. The body was not found until the house burned to the ground.

POLICE DOGS GUARD BANK MESSENGERS

Bank Messenger Guarded. Trouble is lurking for the hold-up bandits who attempt to rob the messengers of a large New York bank, which has imported a number of trained police dogs to guard the men who carry fortunes daily through the streets.

RING LARDNER WILL SCAN GAME TODAY FOR BIG LEAGUE TALENT

This afternoon at 4:30, the Lions and Rotarians tangle at Nitro park in their second effort to reach a decision. According to an anonymous letter received by the Times, Ring Lardner himself is here or hereabouts, with an eagle eye scanning the spectacle in search of talent. Ring's letter says:

Well, I'm here, but don't tell nobody. I started up to my room last night and as I was passing Teal's house I saw more automobiles standing around there on West Main street than I thought was in all West Texas. I ask somebody what was they doing there and he says, "Guy, you must be as green as you look, these people are attendin' Divine Worship." "Well," says I, "ain't you all got no synagoges in which for the people to worship?" "We have," says he, "but they don't pass the hat here, and then people gets religion here sometimes which seldom happens in the regular synagoges." There still being a few people left in this country who doesn't poke fun at the other fellows' religion, one of whom I am which, I strode on downst the street.

Barefooted Phenoms.

Just before leavin' Rough Neck, L. L. my phone rang and who should be on the other end but my old chum, Connie Mack of the Athletics. He says excitedly, "Ring, Huggins just phoned me that you was going out to Ranger to rite up a ball game, and while you are there see if you can find a couple of birds by the name of Tunnell and Pitcock. Back in 1912 I tried to get those guys but neither had never played ball except bare-footed and used a fence rail for a bat and I give them an outfit and told them to familiarize themselves with it."

(With customary apologies.)
RING W. LARDNER.

In Missouri, Senator Reed is running approximately 16,000 ahead of Breckenridge Long, on returns from two-thirds of the precincts, while William Sacks, the "beer and light wine" candidate, is leading R. R. Brewster, indorsed by the "old guard" for the Republican senatorial nomination, by 2,400, on returns from less than half the precincts.

Miss Elizabeth Wooster, who created a stir by opposing dancing and the use of cosmetics in the schools, is 5,000 votes behind her leading male opponent, in her appeal for renomination as superintendent of public instruction.

W. W. Hastings, who was defeated two years ago by Miss Alice Robertson, is expected to win the Democratic nomination for the Second Oklahoma congressional district.

In West Virginia, Senator Howard Sutherland, Republican, was renominated, with M. M. Neely the Democratic choice.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Since dry laws became effective, 22 federal prohibition enforcement officers have been killed, according to a statement issued today by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes.

Texas led the casualty list with four deaths while Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee and Oklahoma were listed with two each.

RAILROAD SUED BY STRIKEBREAKER GIVEN TAR AND FEATHER COAT

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 2.—The Chicago & Alton railroad was today the defendant in one of the most unusual damage actions ever filed against a railroad.

It is in the nature of a little bill for $20,000 which Clifford Keil would collect for tar and sundry feathers which were applied to Keil while he was working as a strikebreaker in the shops at Slater, Mo.

Keil charged in his petition that the railroad guaranteed him a safe place to work and good treatment when he took the job in the shops. According to Keil, however, the railroad was grossly negligent and even careless. He was taken out of the shops by two men, he alleged, stripped from the waist down, tarred and feathered, and then brought to this city and photographed.

He received only $5 from an agent of the railroad to remove the tar and feathers, he asserts, a sum entirely inadequate, and seeks to recover $20,000 as the proper amount for his experience.

TWO STRIKEBREAKERS SLAIN IN ARKANSAS

FORT SMITH, Ark., Aug. 2.—One man was killed and another fatally injured in a riot in the Missouri Pacific freight yard at Van Buren, six miles east of here, early today, according to reports. Both men were employed as strikebreakers, it was stated.

One hundred and fifty shots were exchanged during the riot.

TELEPHONE'S INVENTOR DIES AT AGE OF 75

Alexander Graham Bell Said to Have Contributed Greatest Gift to Civilization.

BADDECK, Nova Scotia, Aug. 2.—Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone and one of the country's foremost scientists, died at 2 o'clock this morning at his estate near here, at the age of 75.

Although the inventor had been in failing health for several months, he had not been confined to bed and his death was unexpected. Dr. Bell will be buried on the top of Mount Belm Brough, a spot chosen by himself.

Bell was born in Edinburgh, Scotland in 1847. He was a graduate from several European universities and came to Canada in 1870, leaving there and settling in Boston one year later. He concentrated on his work on the telephone while professor of vocal physiology in a Boston university. He also invented a phonograph in connection with C. A. Bell and Sumner Tainter. The invention of the phonograph is also credited to the scientist.

Bell was well known for his efforts to assist the deaf. He was the founder of an association for the teaching of speech to the deaf and contributed a quarter of a million dollars of his fortune to the cause. He contributed portions of vast sums received as royalties to several scientific endowments.

The scientist was the recipient of many honors from universities all over the world. The governments of France, Belgium and Great Britain decorated him in 1914, in recognition of his achievements.

America's Greatest Gift.

Alexander Graham Bell's telephone has been called America's greatest gift to modern civilization. From a crude tangle of wires and magnets in his experimental workshop in Philadelphia, Bell saw his invention grow into a vast system that weaves instant speech all over the world.

The discovery of the telephone was an accident. In 1874, Bell, then a young college professor dabbling in science, was trying to improve upon Morse's telegraph, by sending 10 or 12 messages at the same time along a single wire. In Boston he enlisted the aid of Thomas A. Watson, mechanic in a small experimental workshop, and after working on the original idea for several months without much success, Bell suddenly hit upon the idea of sending speech by wire.

NO KIDDING.

The roughest kidders in the world live in Ranger. Let something be said or done, and so long as a person associates with his friends, he will never hear the last of it.

The latest victim of genial persecution is Leonard Davenport, poundmaster of the city of Ranger, whose associates profess themselves as much grieved and astonished that the Times should criticize him for allowing stock to parade around at night.

Now the Times did not criticize Mr. Davenport. It did not criticize the police department. It merely pointed out that many citizens were annoyed by a practice of stock owners which is against the city ordinances, and which it thought the police department did not know about.

Mr. Davenport is a pretty busy man. In addition to picking up loose stock, he is emergency man at the police station, and of a surety he cannot be expected to work day and night. The Times idea was solely that arrangements would be made to meet the situation by a different disposition of the police forces. Otherwise, it would seem that residents must continue to ignore the four-footed disturbers of their slumber.

Perhaps the stock law is inoperative after curfew. As to that, we cannot say. But if such is not the case, then it is the duty of the police department to corral loose stock at whatever hours are necessary, and Mr. Davenport should either have an assistant or be given leisure during the daytime to make up for night work.

This matter of stock at large may seem too insignificant for comment. However, in the past it has been important enough to gain the attention of legislators as well as city dads; so perhaps it is important, after all. Several persons who yesterday assured the Times that their sleep was disturbed and their property damaged seem to think it is worth attention.

It is said that Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio is being groomed for the presidential nomination. It only goes to show what strange conceptions of the presidency exist in some Democratic minds.—Houston Post.

Mr. De Valera has supplied the world with a new type of war leader; namely, the kind that you have to go after with a search warrant and can't find even then.—Boston Transcript.

President Poincare of France says that the interest on the war debt consumes half the French annual budget. M. Poincare thus corroborates M. Sherman.—Chicago News.

General Luderdorf has decided that America started the war. Possibly an error of a translator. The general must have said "finished."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Roosevelt and Cleveland furnish a notable brace of precedents for President Harding in meeting his strike problems.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

ECCENTRIC WILL DATED FROM "THE RIVER STYX"

AKRON, Ohio, Aug. 2.—A cello and a few other musical instruments constitute, it is said, the personal property making up the estate of the late Melville F. Wilson Wadsworth, an eccentric musician, who ended his life in New York some weeks ago.

The will, dated "River Styx, August 27, 1907," has just been filed for probate. A cousin, Mrs. Hallie Harpley, of this city, was named as sole legatee of Wadsworth's personal property.

WOMEN'S RACING STABLE IS PROFITABLE

Mrs. R. PENN SMITH dr Mrs. F. A. CLARK

After a year's secret experience, three noted society women have found that their "pin money" racing stable has turned them in a $3,000 profit. The three women are Mrs. R. Penn Smith Jr., daughter of the late E. H. Harriman, and Mrs. F. Robert L. Gerry and her sister, Mrs. Ambrose Clark, wife of the millionaire turfman. They decided to buy a few horses, never paying more than $1,000, and arranged standard bets on every race. Their stable is the "Syndicate Stable," most of their horses having names that begin with an "S."

Minneapolis Girl Typist Proves Sex No Handicap In Forestry Service

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 2.—From the clack and clatter of a downtown office to the dead silence that reigns at the top of a 60-foot tower.

From movies and parties to a lookout post, where eyes must strain ten hours a day, seven days a week, for the first thread of smoke creeping up out of the distant forest wall.

"It's quite a change," says Eileen Carr, 23-year-old Minneapolis girl, who has chosen a log shanty and a lonely fire tower, in preference to a comfortable Minneapolis office.

"I've never tried it before," said Eileen, on the eve of her departure from Ely, Minn., over the trail of the United States forest service outposts at Slim Lake. "But I'm anxious to get there."

Couldn't Stand Office Work. For this Minneapolis girl, who dutifully learned the idiosyncrasies of the typewriter and prepared to be a cog in the business world's big machine, found cogging not at all to her liking, and she simply up and asked Calvin A. Dahlgren to give her a job. Mr.

Dahlgren is supervisor of Superior National forest. And he rescued Eileen from the office she didn't like, and gave her the job she wanted. She is a part of the United States forest service now, charged with the responsibility of spotting forest fires from the top of her lonely lookout tower. And also charged with the responsibility of deciding just where in the sweep of forest each fire is burning, and report it promptly and correctly.

Map of Country on Table. "The towers," says Mr. Dahlgren, "are located on high points which overlook a large territory. The structures themselves vary from 50 to 65 feet in height, and at present are all of logs and poles cut in the forest with an ax. This year we are buying three new 80-foot steel towers to replace some of the wooden ones, which soon will have to be condemned on account of rot."

On each tower a map of the surrounding country is carefully laid out on a table fastened solidly to the floor of the platform. It is laid out so that directions on the map correspond to the directions of the compass.

When a "smoke" is sighted, Eileen must sight toward it along an alidade, from the spot on the map which represents the location of the tower where she watches. Once she gets the "sight," a line on the map running from the location of the tower toward the smoke indicates the azimuth of the smoke from the tower, or the angle which the line of sight to the smoke makes with due north.

At the same time that the eyes of the Minneapolis girl ranger are sighting from the top of her tower, another pair of eyes miles away will be sighting toward the fire from another tower.

As soon as Eileen sights a smoke, she telephones to the supervisor in Ely. She tells him the azimuth of the smoke and the distance it is estimated to be from her tower. Eventually, there will be enough towers in the woods so that a fire anywhere can be sighted from at least two towers, Mr. Dahlgren says.

As soon as the reports reach the supervisor's office, the lines of sight are laid out graphically on a big fire map. Each fire lookout also tells the wind direction. Knowing this and the location of the fire, the man going to it with a crew can plan how to get there most quickly and how to attack the fire after he arrives with his tools and fire fighters.

DRY MEN MAKE BIG HAUL AMID RAIN OF BULLETS

PENSACOLA, Fla., Aug. 2.—Rifle and pistol shots were fired, one man went overboard and disappeared, one new five-passenger automobile was seized, a fine speedboat was also taken and more than 100 quarts of whisky, gin and champagne were seized by United States Marshal Miller and Prohibition Officers Stearns and McMillan today. One automobile loaded with liquor managed to escape amid a rain of rifle and pistol shots.

LORAIN, O., Aug. 2.—William Heiman, a guard at the municipal beach here, is believed to be the champion lifesaver in Ohio.

During his eight hours on duty the other day he rescued eleven persons from drowning. Heiman was kept busy by treacherous undercurrents.

RAMPAGEOUS NITROS AGAIN BEAT LUBBOCK

By R. B. WAGGOMAN.

LUBBOCK, Aug. 1.—The Ole Boys poured it on Sled Allen's Alleged championship nine here today by the tune of 4 to 2. Slim Thomas, recently acquired from the T-O league, made his first appearance for the Nitros and he is a beeb; has a cool and heavy windup; pulled out of several holes without a scratch.

Brooks played a wonderful game at short, getting even with Sled Allen for releasing him, although he is not sorry of it now. At the bat he got two hits while Jimmy Flagg failed to connect.

The boys are fighting for all that's in them and Lefty Phillips, who pitches Wednesday, promises a win, which will put the boys in the running and ahead of Lubbock. When the Ranger fans see the boys again in action it will look like a different nine. They have the fighting spirit and feel confident of the second half. They are expecting a mob to meet them in Sweetwater the 3d and promise the whole series. Lefty Phillips says they are going to lose only one game on the entire road trip and may be not that.

The Nitros won by grouping four of their seven hits in the second round, which with a hit batsman and an infield bonthead gave them four runs. Earnshaw and Battle were the only ones who could dent Thomas successfully and these two were responsible for both the Lubbock run.

T. O. LEAGUE TO QUIT SUNDAY

ARDMORE, Okla., Aug. 2.—Owing to lack of transportation funds and general dissatisfaction among club owners of the circuit, the Texas-Oklahoma baseball league will end its playing season on Aug. 6, instead of Labor Day, as originally planned, it was announced here today by Walter Thompson, owner of the Ardmore club.

Ardmore is the only Oklahoma town represented in the league, which now is composed of six clubs. Two weeks ago the Bonham and Cleburne (Texas) clubs dropped out of the league because of financial reasons, it was said.

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 2.—Leon Crammer, theatre owner, killed his own son, Herbert, five, while returning home from Long Beach in his automobile, it was learned today.

The lad was on his way home from his father's theatre on his bicycle. The father rounded a corner in the car and ran him down.

INDIFFERENCE RUINS STARS

By HENRY L. FARRELL, (United Press Sports Editor). NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—I'm sure about Dave Robertson, after he had been released by the Giants several years ago, John McGraw said, "He's just as good a ball player as he wants to be."

The same words for the same purpose cover a number of present day players who are just outside stardom because they won't step in.

Robertson, instead of being a star outfielder working for good pay, today is back on the New York bench going to bat now and then in a pinch to give some one else a seat in the dugout.

McGraw and several other managers failed to make Robertson take his work seriously. The same perplexing problem is being studied by Miller Huggins, manager of the Yanks, in the case of Bob Meusel.

A born ball player, with a wonderful batting eye, a pair of slugging shoulders and the best throwing arm in the game, Meusel is just something short of being one of the sport's greatest stars.

That something seems to be nothing but the desire.

Meusel works in streaks. In spurts lasting over weeks, he will murder the ball, run the bases like the Georgia Peach, glide back to the wall for drives and mow them down on the bases with his deadly wing.

Then, just when all hands are rejoicing, he will recede back to a protracted slump and play like a green bushier.

Because he plays with a "don't give a darn" attitude, the New York fans never have been crazy about him and perhaps he is a bit vindictive.

With his indolent grace, Meusel looks like he loafs down to first on every hit, but his friends on the club maintain that he gets down as fast as any man on the club, his long stride making his speed deceptive.

Some players get that way in the desire to move away from a tail end team, but there should be no reason for a smart ball player to get away from the big salaries on a New York club.

BRITAIN TO AID U. S. IN HALTING BOOZE PIRATES

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The United States government's request for close and sincere co-operation of British authorities to curb liquor smuggling into America from Bermuda and the Bahamas has been officially endorsed by the foreign office and steps will be taken immediately to prevent bootlegging from the West Indies.

It is understood that both the state department at Washington and Sir Auckland Geddes, since his arrival have represented to Downing street the grave menace and serious complications to the governments if British craft persists in running through the United States revenue cutters' blockade, as eventually it is feared bloodshed will ensue with a resultant diplomatic tension.

The American authorities emphasized their determination to prevent bootleggers from landing through force, and investigation has shown that some British vessels, manned by desperate crews anxious to enrich themselves by landing valuable cargoes of liquor, carried arms and were prepared to fight rather than surrender.

Hereafter the British coast guards, customs authorities and police in Bermuda and the Bahamas, will exercise more careful surveillance of suspected vessels, and tip off revenue cutters and American authorities by wireless if necessary.

A close watch will also be kept on airplanes leaving the British West Indies.

The Canadian authorities will also be requested to co-operate with the United States to prevent vessels ostensibly carrying liquors for Canadian ports from disembarking it in America. Heretofore there was no liaison between British and American authorities over smugglers.

LONDON FEARS AIR BOMBS OF FUTURE WARS

LONDON, Aug. 2.—London is still thinking of what might happen to it in case enemy airships again ever flew over the city, and the picture is not a pleasant one. The executive committee of the parliamentary air committee has sent a letter to the prime minister in which, after referring to what was accomplished by air fighters in the European war, it proceeds to draw an appalling picture of the next air war. The letter says:

"The bombs dropped on London during the last war averaged less than 100 pounds in weight. Bombs of 4,000 or 5,000 pounds weight, containing a mass of high explosives. The effect of a dozen bombs of this character dropped on London can readily be conceived. There is not merely a possibility but a great probability that in the event of war, this country would be raided and London and other towns destroyed by squadrons or even fleets of airplanes, traveling at 150 miles an hour at a height of 20,000 feet, silent as to their engine, and certainly by night invisible."

The committee prophesies that all great wars in future will begin with terrific battles in the air, and says that if the country suffers a real defeat in this first battle, the victor will in a few days destroy her ports, her railways, her munition factories and her capital by intensive bombardment from the air. It considers that at present England is not in a position successfully to combat an air attack, and that the government should appoint a strong commission to investigate.

'OFFICER' PLUM RUINS WORTHAM POKER GAME

WORTHAM, Aug. 2.—Sunday night at the Brown hotel in the eastern part of the city, while six men were in a room playing poker with over $600 on the table, a strange man entered the room and told them he was an officer and had been watching them gamble in this room for several days.

He put them all under arrest, told them to hand over their money one at a time, and he would give them a receipt for same. He stated large amounts of money had been stolen in Wortham, and he wanted the money to take up to town for examination; that the money lost was marked and it was possible this examination would reveal the fact that some of the money in the poker game had been stolen.

The stranger left one of the men, believed to be an accessory to the robbery, to guard the other five while he went up town to test the money. After a short while the man left on guard went away and neither of them has been heard from since. They received an order for $600.
