JAPS WILL DISCOURAGE IMMIGRATION INTO VALLEY

Will Conduct Advertising Campaign in Nipponese Newspapers.

International News Service. BROWNSVILLE, Jan. 11.—The local Japanese crisis has been passed, at least for the time being, and members of the anti-Japanese committee of the American Legion have announced themselves as satisfied with a tentative agreement with reference to the Rio Grande valley land dispute.

The Japanese in the valley have agreed, following a conference with the American Legion to discourage further influx of Japanese to the valley, and conduct a campaign through newspapers published in their own language, advising California Japanese not to purchase land in the Rio Grande valley. In return, the legion has promised to assist Japanese participation in the agreement in protecting themselves against molestation.

The legion also promised to aid the Japanese land holders in obtaining nullification of deeds recently acquired by Japanese landholders.

JAPANESE WILL COMBAT IMMIGRATION RESTRICTIONS

International News Service. FORT WORTH, Jan. 11.—Japanese business men and farmers, residents of Texas, decided here today to combat the proposed anti-Jap legislation, contemplated by the Texas senate, who go into session at Austin late today.

No Japanese colonization plans are contemplated in Texas, it was announced following the conference, though many rice farmers in South-east Texas have asked for Japanese to instruct them in rice culture methods.

STATE DEPARTMENT WILL ASK DEPORTATION OF CORK LORD MAYOR

International News Service. WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Acting secretary of State Davis today requested Secretary of Labor Wilson to deport Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who entered the United States as a stow-away.

Secretary Davis notified Secretary Wilson that the state department has decided that it cannot waive the regulations requiring a passport and requesting that O'Callaghan, who is now on parole, be taken into custody at once and his deportation executed.

WILL FILE DEPORTATION.

International News Service. NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—After a consultation between Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork and his counsel, Mike Doyle of Philadelphia, it was decided this afternoon to contest the legal right of the state department to issue any order of deportation in O'Callaghan's case and to take all steps "necessary to protect the Lord Mayor's legal rights."

BARN ON R. R. LINE CAUSE OF $40,880 SUIT

J. C. Dysart, stating in his petition that seven of his mules and horses died from exposure to the vicissitudes of the elements through the action of the defendants, has instituted suit in the district court asking for $40,880 damages. The defendants in the case are the Wichita Falls, Ranger & Fort Worth railroad, M. H. Hagaman, John Gholson, R. A. Hodges, M. R. Freeman, Rex Outlaw, J. H. Hankins, A. L. Duffer, W. M. Little, R. H. Hodges and C. O. Terrell, all of Ranger, and who were the committee to secure the right-of-way for the Hamon road.

The petition sets up that the committee acting for the railroad, entered on the property that Dysart owns in Ranger and tore down a horse and mule barn of the plaintiff. That on account of this the mules and horses of the defendant were exposed to the vicissitudes of the weather and seven contracted diseases and died and the others were greatly depreciated in value.

The petition represents that the business of the plaintiff was totally destroyed for two months and that the defendant's income was $7,500 a month.

The plaintiff alleges that the committee under a contract with the railroad had a court ruling allowing them power of eminent domain, but that the contract as made with the committee was void and of no effect, due to the fact that the contract could not be made with a committee.

The plaintiff further alleges that due to the tearing down of his barn that was 37x140 feet he was forced to rent another barn and pay a big sum of money for it and that his business has been greatly disturbed. He asks for $15,880 actual damages and $25,000 exemplary damages.

STOLEN SMOKES FOUND HERE BY STATE RANGERS

Five cases of cigarettes, said to have been stolen from an interstate shipment, have been located by Ranger. Captain Blackwell and his men at a local drugstore. No arrests have been made as yet. The store owner stated to Captain Blackwell that he thought he was getting the goods cheap but really did not think that they were stolen. It is thought that no blame will attach to the buyer.

This find, it is believed, may lead to the discovery of the other interstate shipments that have been stolen, and may lead to several arrests.

NORWEGIAN STEAMER IN DISTRESS 1,200 MILES FROM N. Y.

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Wireless distress signals calling for "help the first possible moment" were picked up here today from the Norwegian steamship Ontana, which left here Jan. 1 for Yakkedal, Norway, carrying a general cargo.

The message gave the position of the ship as at between 1,200 and 1,500 miles from New York. Later a message also was picked up from the British freighter, Philadelphia, saying that it was rushing to the assistance of the Ontana.

Fine for Tree Planting

This rain is fine business for those who have planted their trees during the last few days, and it is just as good for those who still desire to participate in the shipment received Friday by the Times. About 100 of the poplars are left, and may be obtained by calling at the Times office. They range in price 50 cents, 75 cents and $1, according to age and size. This is about one-half the retail price, as the Times did not bring these trees here to make money, but to help in beautifying Ranger. They are the Carolina (spreading) poplar, by the way, and are the fastest growing tree of any of the hardier varieties.

The 1920 club endorsed the tree planting campaign emphatically yesterday when it purchased eighty trees, forty for Young school and forty for Cooper schools, which will be planted by the Parent-Teacher clubs.

DAVENPORT FINDS ROADS ARE HORRIBLE

Twenty Miles From Caddo to Ranger Takes Same Time as 36 to Graham.

In making the trip from Ranger to Caddo, a distance of twenty miles, it required two hours. From Caddo to Graham, thirty-six miles, the same amount of time is required. The distance was traveled by A. Davenport Sunday and the time and condition of the roads carefully noted. The wear and tear on a car, as well as on the disposition of the passenger, was something terrific on this end of the route. Mr. Davenport said, "From Graham he returned to Breckenridge and back into Ranger by Necessity."

Nothing toward Ranger. Breckenridge, he said, was doing some work on its roads north of that town, but towards Ranger nothing was being done. However, he explained that the Necessity route was in very good condition except in the immediate vicinity of Ranger. This road, Mr. Davenport thinks, can be put into fairly good condition by filling in chudholes.

But to Caddo he believes that it will be necessary to grade the road the whole distance before it ever can become passable.

It is pointed out that persons in the Caddo district can go sixteen miles farther into Graham in the same length of time that they can come twenty miles to Ranger and do it for less cost to machine and person. Naturally, Mr. Davenport says, many of them pursue that course. However, he is certain that with the road into Ranger equally as good as the one leading into the other town, this condition would be overcome, and to see that this is done is vital to the welfare of the city, he thinks.

In Ranger, following the meeting at the churches Sunday the action of the Retail Merchants' association and Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Davenport is sure that the citizens at large have become awakened to the necessity of remedying road conditions and will do their best to help even to the extent of shouldering a pick and shovel and going forth to labor themselves.

DAVENPORT DISSOLVES INJUNCTION AGAINST OLDEN SCHOOL BOARD

OLDEN, Jan. 11.—A temporary injunction recently granted by Judge Geo. I. Davenport was dissolved yesterday. The writ was issued restraining the Olden school board from conspiring with George E. Ford and giving him school bonds in the amount of $75,000 in return for a school building which he would erect at a cost of $50,000.

The defendant in the hearing answered that the bonds were in the hands of the president of the school board, T. E. Judice, and had reposed there since their issuance several months ago, and that they had never been in the hands of Ford and that no conspiracy existed to have him exchange the bonds for labor and material in the proposed school buildings as had been alleged.

The injunction was dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff.

STATE UNIVERSITY ISSUES BULLETIN FOR TEACHERS

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 11.—Announcement is made that the latest number of the University of Texas history teachers' bulletin, containing articles, suggestions, criticisms, etc., of special interest to teachers of history, is off the press. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 11.—Saturday's fire at England, Ark., in which seven persons perished, claimed its eighth victim today when Dan Campbell, 65 years old, died at a local hospital.

Wonder What Fort Stockton Thinks of This

ELDORADO, Ark., Jan. 11.—A test well, a mile of this city was reported to be gushing from 20,000 to 40,000 barrels a day. The well is said to be the first gusher brought in in Arkansas.

HUGHES' TRIAL UP AT DALLAS ON JAN. 25TH

BRECKENRIDGE, Jan. 11.—H. B. (Anglo) Hughes will be tried in Dallas Jan. 25 under a charge of murder in connection with the deaths of Stevens and Lockhart, alleged hoodluggers. Hughes, an ex-deputy sheriff, was indicted jointly with J. M. Ellis in connection with the men's deaths. Ellis has since been acquitted by a Stephens county jury.

OBSTINACY IS CHARACTERISTIC OF O'FLANAGAN

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Father Michael O'Flanagan, acting priest of Sinn Fein, who sent the famous telegram to Premier Lloyd George asking him what steps he proposed to make peace in Ireland before Christmas, is described by one who knows him as "the sort of man who would not hesitate to argue with the Pope himself."

"When he was curate at Crossna," says Prof. Robert Mitchell Henry in "The Evolution of Sinn Fein," "Father O'Flanagan had taken a very active part on the side of Sinn Fein in the East Cavan election, when Arthur Griffith was returned."

"Soon after he was deprived by his bishop, Dr. Byrne, of all his faculties as a priest, including the right to say mass. The technical offense for which he was punished was that of having addressed meetings within the boundaries of three parishes of the local parish priests.

"Everyone knew that the real reason for his punishment was not the technical offense, but the fact that his speeches had been strongly, and even violently, Sinn Fein."

The people of Crossna retorted by shutting up the parish church and refusing to allow mass to be said in it by anyone else.

After the Easter rising of 1916, Father O'Flanagan took Eamonn de Valera's place.

In appearance he is described as a smiling man in early middle life, with just a suspicion of silver in his jet-black hair. His conversation is easy and witty, and on the platform he is an effective speaker, with a crisp command of epigram.

FRENCH HYDROSLIDES WOULD OPEN NEW TRADE TERRITORY IN CHINA

SHANGHAI, Jan. 11.—By means of the hydraulic, which the British used successfully in Mesopotamia during the war, another effort and one wholly novel to China is to be made to conquer the rapids of the Yangtze gorges. At places there the current attains a velocity of more than thirty miles an hour.

The ordinary head of navigation for steamers on the Yangtze is at Ichang, a thousand miles from the coast, but Czechoslovakia's most populous province, and one of its richest, lies nearly 400 miles further up the river, beyond the wild bandit-hidden country of the gorges.

Steamer navigation by means of specially constructed vessels of high power is possible for seven months of the year. In the other five months products from Szechuen and Tibet, and imports upriver are carried by native junks. Boats bound upriver commonly are laboriously dragged by hundreds of coolies.

The use of the hydroslides on the upper Yangtze is the enterprise of a French company with headquarters in Shanghai. A number of these craft were sent up the Yangtze from Shanghai in December for trial runs.

Gambling House Was Under Law's Protection, 'Nig' Prince Asserts

Says Many Games Were Running and Asks Why Owners Are Not Prosecuted.

EASTLAND, Jan. 11.—The Pine Street gambling house in Ranger, which he helped to rob, was operated under a protection of the law, according to a statement made here yesterday by John (Nig) Prince. The statement, which is directed to an Eastland newspaper and citizens at large, was mad after Prince had been recaptured.

It gives the details of the fall delivery in which he and Dan Hamilton, also under charge of robbery, and two other men escaped. He stated that he bled the cell door so that it would not lock and by this means gained access to the corridor and later saved the bars of the jail and made his escape.

The statement sets out that at the time he and his companion held up the gambling house in Ranger, five or six different games were running, which he names as two stud, three draw, two blackjack and two dice games, and says sixty men were in the room. He described the place where the lookout was located and declared that he was placed there for the purpose of killing any one who interfered with the operating of the house. Names were given of the men whom he said owned the place.

The statement recites that the man in the lookout was equipped with a .45-calibre gun loaded with 28-40 calibre Winchester shells. This he said, was for an alibi in case the lookout ever killed anyone.

Foreign Exchange Adjustment Would Stabilize Credit

GALVESTON, Texas, Jan. 11.—Stabilization of exchange as well as the granting of huge foreign credits is necessary to end the period of depression in the United States, according to William W. Morrison, executive secretary of the Galveston Cotton Exchange.

Sluggish business conditions in this country, according to Mr. Morrison, are due to a combination of events which have resulted in suspending the normal demand for approximately one-half of the country's raw and manufactured products.

The war, the resultant chaotic aftermath, the reconstruction programs in many countries and the crying need on the part of a multitude of important industries abroad for huge American credits, Mr. Morrison said, were among the causes for the depression. These contribute to holding the American dollar to a big premium over foreign money, and this boost has in itself acted as a virtual embargo against the marketing abroad of our products, he said.

"The outcome has been," Mr. Morrison stated, "that the pound sterling, for instance, will buy more of the same kind of products which we have to sell, in almost any other country than it will purchase in the United States. Hence American manufacturers have been unable to compete with the foreign product, being undersold by European manufacturers in the markets of our own country."

Granting of generous credits to businesses abroad, Mr. Morrison said, was important to American industry. Even more important, he believed, however, was the stabilization of the present uneven exchange rates between nations, which caused the American dollar to soar too high for European hands to reach.

SAYS WARLIKE TOYS OF CHILDREN MAY BE CAUSE OF WAR

LONDON, Jan. 11.—The mother who gives her boy a top cannon on his birthday may be the cause of another European war.

"There are a few mothers who are aware of this. You would find them giving toy soldiers to their children or rushing with them to the window when troops march past or allowing books that glorify war to lie about the house,

MORE SHACKS SHOW NEED FOR SCHOOL BONDS

Central School and Young School Are Already Overcrowded.

A two-room shack is being erected on the Central school grounds to care for the increased attendance of the school. The rooms of the Young school, occupied since the holidays are already crowded and it is thought that the peak of the attendance has not been yet reached. It may be necessary to again use shacks there.

No stronger argument could be advanced to urge the total voting strength of Ranger to cast their ballots at the school election to be held Jan. 12, to vote $250,000 in school bonds for the erection of a new high school building and probably a new ward school, according to the view expressed by many Ranger people.

Civic leaders who note the present upward trend of the city, in spite of the business depression prevailing over the country, believe that when the fall term of school opens in 1921, there will be greatly increased enrollment of pupils even over those who are now attending and who are crowded for space. If this forecast comes true it is said that congestion almost equal to that of the boom days will result, unless the new buildings are provided. The lack of the buildings will also work a hardship on the children because advanced courses, now planned, cannot be installed.

The men and women who are deeply interested in the outcome of the bond issue do not doubt that those voting will support the measure almost to a solid majority, because the need is so vital, but they do fear that the number of votes cast will be so few that the issue will be disapproved by the attorney general's department. The city has a voting strength of nearly 4,200.

If the ballots in the coming election should fall to say, half that number, it is thought that this would cause the attorney general's department to say that the result was not a true test of the citizens' wishes and the issue might disappear for this reason.

It is believed that the need for the buildings is too great to risk any chance of such a contingency to come to pass and for this reason every voter is asked to make it a point to vote when the time comes.

WOULD DYNAMITE FORT WORTH UNLESS MEXICAN LABOR IS REMOVED NOW

FORT WORTH, Jan. 11.—Department of Justice operatives today are seeking the writer of an anonymous letter received by the Chamber of Commerce last night. The letter threatened to "blow up, burn, pillage and disfranchise the city of Fort Worth," unless steps were taken to rid the city of cheap Mexican labor while the men were here. The letter was signed "M. and 263 others." It is thought to have been written by a crank.

MUST HAVE BIGGEST NAVY, DANIELS SAYS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Casting aside the proposal for a naval holiday between the United States, England and Japan as a makeshift understanding of no real value, Secretary of the Navy Daniels appeared today before the house committee on naval affairs and in a discussion of the armament question declared that the United States must either join at once in a world wide agreement to reduce armament or else embark on a great new building program which will make the American navy equal to any if not the greatest in the world. No half-way measure will suffice, he declared.

MAKING THE WORLD SAFE FOR SODA WATER

WAKEFELD, Ill., Jan. 11.—More than 130,000 quarts of wine, whiskey and beer were poured into sewers here today by a posse of federal prohibition agents. The liquor represented the catch obtained by federal officers in recent raids on illicit liquor stores in Lake county.

MILLIONAIRE'S HEIRS ACCUSED BY THEIR UNCLE, W. P. SLAUGHTER

Damages Asked Are Largest in History of American Litigation.

DALLAS, Jan. 11.—Alleging breach of contract and slander, a suit for $3,000,000 damages was filed in the Forty-fourth district court here late yesterday afternoon by W. P. Slaughter, a brother of the late Col. C. C. Slaughter. This is said to be probably the largest sum ever asked in litigation of this kind in an American court.

The plaintiff in his petition names as defendants his niece and four nephews, all children of his dead brother, who shared in the $16,000,000 estate of Colonel Slaughter. The petition alleges the plaintiff made a verbal agreement with Colonel Slaughter whereby the plaintiff was appointed manager of three Slaughter ranches, but after the death of Colonel Slaughter he was discharged by the defendants.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 11.—Rain, extending throughout West Texas and all over the Panhandle section today, will be of great benefit to wheat fields and complaints of dry weather on cattle ranges of the west will be lessened. Oil field operations, hampered by lack of water in many places, now can be resumed.

UNMASKED BANDITS SLUG BANK MESSENGER AND GET THOUSANDS

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 11.—Two unmasked bandits today held up and robbed John Kelleher, messenger for the Produce Exchange bank, of $28,000 in the heart of financial district. Kelleher was slugged by one bandit, while his companion grabbed a satchel containing the money. Both then fled in a high powered automobile, which was standing at the curb.

SOCIETY ORGANIZED TO DRIVE NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE FROM KANSAS

SALINA, Kan., Jan. 11.—The American Defense League of Kansas launched at a meeting here today of 1,000 world war veterans, is organizing its campaign to drive A. C. Townley, Non-Partisan League organizer, and his colleagues from the state.

"War to the finish," was the slogan adopted by the former service men. Plans are under way to hold meetings in every rural community in the state, while each service man was delegated to preach anti-Townleyism throughout his home section.

Closing Law Is Peeving Owners Of Paris Cafes

PARIS, Jan. 11.—Night cafes and dancing houses in Montmartre are very much displeased with the Paris prefect of police and have just sent him a bitter complaint against establishments situated down town which under various appellations, such as clubs, dancing palaces, etc., are authorized to remain open all night.

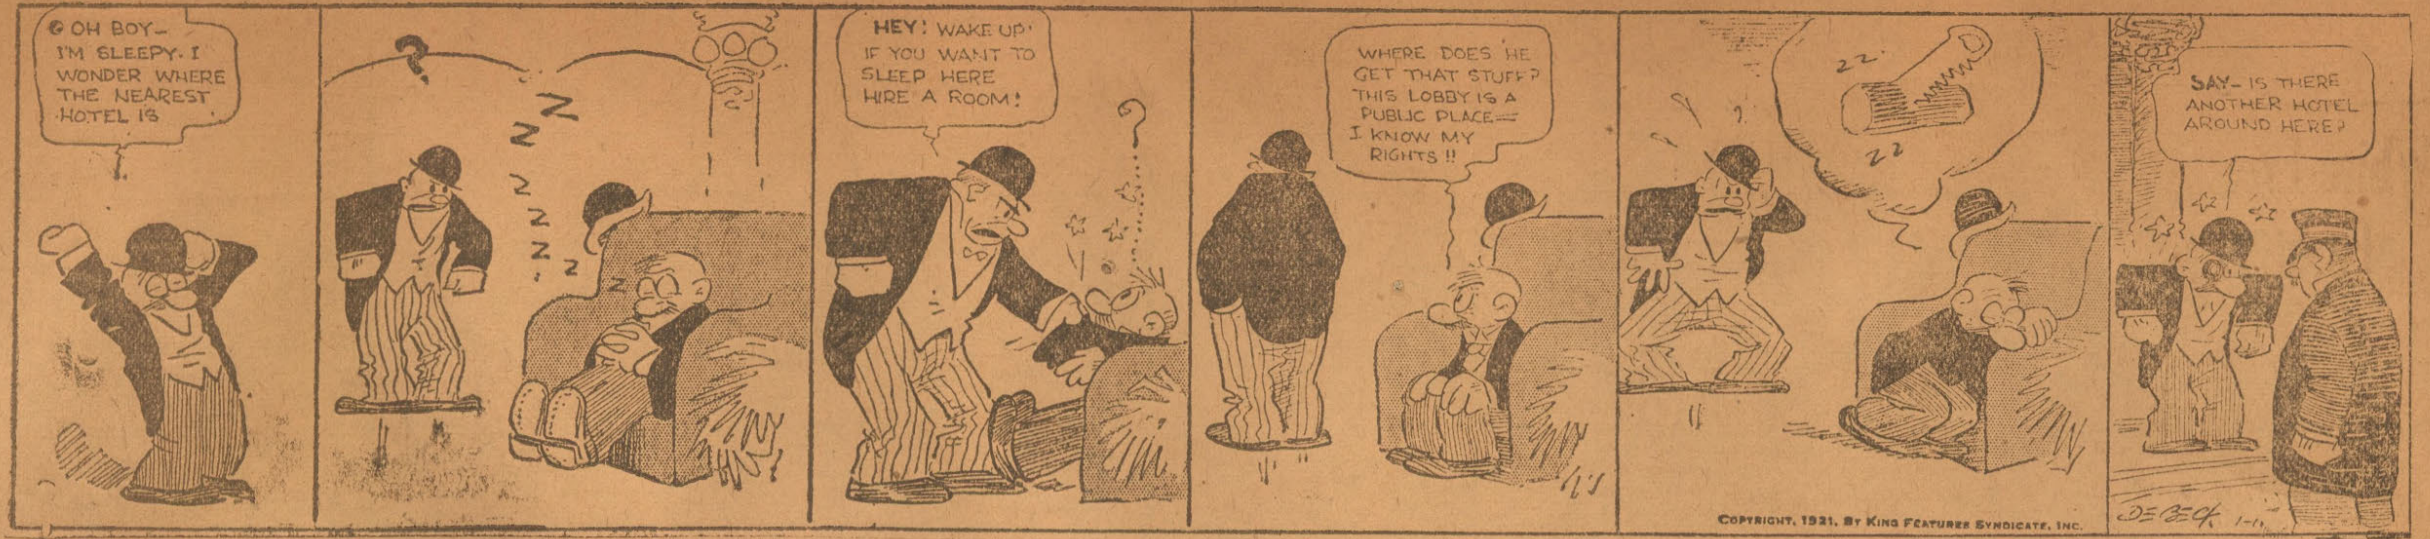

In their protest the latter point out that various clubs are but clandestine cabarets and furthermore the city funds do not receive any percentage on the receipts of these establishments, whereas the Montmartre establishments have to pay heavy duty.

Finally, they ask to be allowed to remain open all night and in so doing give work to hundreds of unemployed waiters or that the other downtown places be limited as to hours and heavily taxed.

Simultaneous with this protest comes a decision taken by the Union of Music Composers to combat the growing evils of jazz music "which is detrimental to French music composers and particularly to those who served in the war."

Ball Players' Letters Are Signs of Spring; Managerial Aspirations Air, to Play in Hodges Oak Park

More performance, less posing, will be the motto of the prima donna of the diamond this year, if one is to judge by the letters which find their way into the P. O. box of Rex Outlaw, of the local club.

Young Mr. Steve Ellis and young Mr. Anderson, who last year were driven by temperament into refusing to report and hopping the meal ticket, respectively, have written in and signified their intention of being good boys this year.

Managerial Prospects. Within a few days the club directors will choose a man who they hope will fill Jim Gallaway's shoes to the satisfaction of the populace and the prestige of the Nitros.

Slud Allen is still in the running for the job, depending upon his present ability to play ball and what kind of financial arrangements can be made. Slud is an catcher, which gives him a big edge, as that is the very position most of the directors want the player-manager to look after.

White-Freidman Fight Will Be Grudge Affair

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Boxing contests, as a rule usually are advertised as "grudge" affairs if for no other reason than publicity.

But there will be a genuine grudge fight staged in Kenosha, Wis., when Charlie White and Sailor Friedman, rival Chicago lightweights, meet in a ten-round contest Jan. 14. They have been bitter enemies for years. Friedman has sought a match with White for two years, only to be turned down a dozen times. White has declared he would never give Friedman an opportunity to make a dollar in the ring with him.

A Kenosha promoter finally induced White to box by meeting his terms—a guarantee of $3,500. Friedman will not receive a cent unless the gate receipts exceed $5,000. Then he will share in a small percentage. Because of the interest in the match among their Chicago admirers, the "house" was virtually sold out a day after the match was made. White and Friedman both are of Jewish parentage and have a large Chicago following. Special trains will carry their admirers to the battle ground.

White insisted on the weight being 133 pounds at 3 o'clock, knowing that Friedman will have difficulty in making that figure.

White and Friedman have cordially hated each other from the time they engaged in a training bout in a Chicago gymnasium. Friedman walked into White with all the desperation of a champion. Since then White never asked his rival to put the gloves on with him, and they have managed to avoid each other in the gymnasium and elsewhere.

TEXAS DICKERS WITH VANDERBILT U. FOR STATE FAIR GAME

AUSTIN, Jan. 11.—Negotiations for a game with Vanderbilt University at the State Fair in Dallas for 1923 for the University of Texas Longhorn football team have been entered into, as a result of a trip made during the holidays by L. Theo. Belmont, athletic director. Vanderbilt is scheduled for the 1921 season at Dallas, and Mr. Belmont stated that he had offered a one-third better financial proposition for 1923. A decision will be made by the Vanderbilt authorities in the near future, and Mr. Belmont feels sure the attractive offer will be accepted.

Final arrangements were also made on the trip by Mr. Belmont for the game with Mississippi A. & M. in Austin Armistice day. This game promises to be one of the best for the 1921 season, and much satisfaction is felt over its final assurance. The contract is now in the mails, with the promise that it will be immediately signed.

WOULD DISCHARGE ST. LOUIS WOMEN TO GIVE FAMILY HEADS WORK

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 11.—The discharge of women whose jobs are not their sole source of support, to make way for heads of families who are losing their positions because of the industrial lull, was recommended to corporations in a resolution passed by the St. Louis chapter of the American Association of Businesswomen.

"It is a fact," the resolution declares, "that many wives of men who are employed are holding positions that could be filled by married men with families. Single women also are holding positions that could be filled by someone with dependents."

The report of F. D. Ammen, chairman of the chapter's committee on conciliation and co-operation, was submitted at the meeting. The report recommended the representation of the employes in the control of industry, the establishment of the open shop principle and compulsory incorporation of labor unions.

The American Legion announced that the proceeds from bouts here staged by it go to aiding former soldiers and their dependents.

TEXAS A. & M. TO GET ONE OF FIVE AVIATION SCHOOLS IN COUNTRY

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 11.—With the establishment of an air training school at A. & M. college here, Texas will have the only college aviation unit in the south, according to Major Clinton Russell, former commander of Barron Field, Fort Worth, Texas. Major Russell has been assigned as commandant of the new aviation unit of the reserve officers' training corps here.

Equipment for the air schools, of which there will be five in the United States, will be furnished by the war department. The equipment probably will come from one of the flying fields in Texas and is expected here before January 22, when the second term of the college opens, the R. O. T. C. officers said.

One hundred cadets from the R. O. T. C. ranks here will be selected to train for officers in the air service. They will be picked from the infantry, cavalry, field artillery and signal corps. Freshmen and sophomores are eligible for the training, as are juniors who have served an enlistment in an aviation ground school.

PLANS FOR SUMMER NORMAL AT STATE UNIVERSITY

AUSTIN, Jan. 11.—Preliminary announcements relative to the 1921 summer normal at the University of Texas have been made by Dr. Frederick Eby, dean of the summer sessions. The demonstration school which was held last year for the first time will be repeated, giving from the first through the sixth grades. Both students desiring college credit and those who take work for the sake of gaining a better grasp of the teaching art will have the benefit of this demonstration school.

BIDS SUBMITTED FOR STATE SCHOOL LANDS

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 11.—Approximately 1,200 bids ranging in price from $150 to $20 an acre were submitted to the general land office for state school lands which were placed on the market Jan. 3, according to J. H. Walker, chief clerk of the land office. Until the bids are tabulated, no announcement of the purchasers will be made.

Because of the decision of the land commissioner not to sell at this time any land forfeited for non-payment of interest, only about fifty tracts of land were placed on the market. Many of the bids had to be rejected because they were on tracts of this character.

Jail Bird Who Flew Coon at Indianapolis Is Winged in Ranger

Smith, according to the officers, acknowledged that he had escaped from jail in that city. He was being held in connection with illicit dealing in narcotics. While it has not been yet verified, the officers think that a reward of $100 has been offered for his recapture.

TALK MADE EASY.

Along about 1870, and before, when a person wished to communicate with some one else in the same neighborhood, he hitched up the old gray mare and ambled forth to see them, as the quickest way. Then came the telephone.

The world and his wife became accustomed to talking over the wire. Masculine America transacted a large part of his business with his feet on the desk, thereby contributing largely to bodily comfort and mental clarity.

As far as communication has been concerned, Ranger for three years ago more has lived in ante-bellum days. In stead of hitching up, one twisted the crank. That was the only difference. Some 200 telephones strove manfully to aid you, as you will—to attend to the wants of 16,000 persons. They failed naturally, despite the best of efforts of a part of the personnel. Business was hampered, social life made largely impossible by the sheer difficulty and slowness of communication.

Now all that is to be changed. Let us hope with reasonable promptness. The telephone company has started work on the remodeling of its spacious quarters. That will take a month. Perhaps in stillation of the equipment will take a longer period, but nevertheless a period which will be short in comparison with that through which Ranger has waited patiently and impatiently, with exhortation and prayer. Soon the telephone bell can tinkle in each and every home and past resentment will be forgotten.

Which is well. One more step in the making of a city will have been taken.

TRY A WALK.

If one will look around Ranger, he will be surprised at the amount of substantial construction that is going on. Not so much as in times past, perhaps. When there was a mad rush to build houses as fast as people poured in to fill them, but nevertheless more than some months ago. The larger buildings of the city have been erected. It is not probable now to be expected that others will go up until some definite need or use for them can be foreseen, but in the line of smaller permanent construction, there is fresh evidence every day that it times are had they could be worse. The amount of new construction going on right now would make many towns think they were experiencing a boom. It is enough in Ranger to show that the town is sound to the core, and to keep the pot boiling until an easement of national financial conditions makes possible that still a larger building program which Ranger has in store—a building program which would be profitable if the backing could be obtained.

If you are downhearted, take a walk or ride around town. You will be pleasantly astonished.

THE WOMAN WHO SAW

The Advantage of a College Education.

It was not so very many days before Christmas that the Woman, passing west on Thirty-seventh street, saw in a basement shop window a familiar face. Was she dreaming or was that actually Mary D. in a long gingham apron, engaged in the homely, if praiseworthy task of scrubbing floors? To ease her mind and allay her curiosity she descended two stone steps and entered to the cheery hall of "Take off your things and get to work; we need help."

Mary D. it was indeed, and with her a pretty young thing in a corset, who, brush in hand, was mounted on a chair, painting the dingy woodwork of a one time basement mantel shelf. "Excuse me," called Mary. "Certainly." By "tomorrow afternoon"—and she waved a fleecing rag—"this will be the Wellesby Gift Shop and Book Shelf, to be run by the New York Club for the College Semi-Centennial Fund. Doesn't look promising? No, not to an outsider. But I blush to hear such sentiments from one who has made her costume for Tree Day two hours before the procession formed or who has composed the lines of a Hallow'E'en play even as she spoke them. Shame on you! That attitude is a sign of insidiously advancing age."

Just then Cerise Togue spoke up: "Look at me," she said, "critically. 'Come into town all dolled up for what I thought was to be a matinee party. Instead I was given this apron and a paint pot and told to get busy. The party had busted up to do errands and 'lores for the Shop. If it isn't a success after such initiative, then business enterprises were never built up on energy and originality."

Her faith was justified. Two days later the Woman was leaving an order for a dozen Christmas books in a shop that looked as if it had been running for two weeks. Behind the blue curtains were hidden the trunks of the kindly gentleman who had moved his belongings into half their wonted space to help the cause of women's education. Volunteer saleswomen took orders and checked up sales as if trained at a certain famous school of salesmanship. Now and then there dropped in a well-to-do man, and of course when he tapped the stone of Knowledge and the Wonderful Creature came to him she knew what he wanted and they started away on the trail of the Birds. The King did not know where he was going. All he had was the desire. But he knew that they would arrive somewhere.

Lady Duck was at home for, in the days of her youth, she had traveled this way many times. She remembered the Cotton Mice and the land beyond and all of the peculiar things that it brought to the point.

"This is the most wonderful time I have ever had," said Tinker. They were passing over hundreds of trees and they were loaded with oranges and grapefruit and lemons. "I never saw anything like that before in all my days. What are those things that hang from the trees?"

Tinker Bob did not know much about anything of that kind. "Quick, quick," said Lady Duck. "That's some kind of fruit that men eat, he had better stop and see what it might be, and get a little for himself. That is what he did and when he came to a stop he was in the midst of an orange grove, and the beautiful fruit was hanging so wonderfully."

"Well, what do you think of that?" cried Tinker Bob as he looked through the grove, examining the fruit. "I am going to taste some of that fruit. He took from a tree a fine looking orange and began to take the thick skin off that he might find the part that was good. This was something very new to the King of the Forest, and he was happy. Suddenly there came to his ear a cry that sounded very familiar. It came closer and closer. He had heard the same kind of a cry in the Great Forest.

RIPLING RHYMES

THE OPERATION FAD.
When something hurt our well known dads, the doc prescribed his pills, or liniments, or liver pads, or compound juice of squills; but now he'd take his saw or adze, to cure us of our ills. There was some sense in being sick in brave old days like those, for then the tired and footsore hick in illness found repose; what time the doctor, summoned quick, prescribed the proper dose. I often saw the village doc, when I had ache or pain, and he would give me pills of chalk that nearly broke my heart; but never did this healer talk of reading me apart. He gave ten drops of melted wax—much virtue in it lies; and stuff that tastes like carpet tacks, and pills of giant size; but never did he shake an axe before my shivering eyes. But now when the doc I trot, because of ache or pain, he prods me in the tender spot and says that pills are vain; he wants to lay me on a cot, and split my form in twain. He says, "Oh, thunder!" and "Oh, pshaw!" when I old methods name; he says there ought to be a law against that ancient game, he wants to take his cross cut saw, and punch it through my frame. I have about a hundred ills and cannot have them healed, because, while I will swallow pills, I won't be sliced or peeled; I won't be cured of mumps or shills by tools; the surgeons wield.

The King Hears a Cry.
Tinker Bob's desire was to be taken in the course of the birds so he might know how they found their way. NEW GREEK PREMIER IS ARDENT ADMIRER OF KING CONSTANTINE

ATHENS, Jan. 11.—Demetrius Rhalis, the new Greek premier who succeeded Venizelos when the latter was defeated in the elections last Autumn, hates the sight of Venizelos and has by no means always been an admirer of Constantine, who now has been recalled as king. Rhalis regards Venizelos as a political adventurer. This in part may be due to the fact that when Venizelos came from Oreste to Athens and gained the political ascendancy, Rhalis' reputation as a politician was somewhat damaged. In his long political career, the new premier has generally been at loggerheads with the crown. He often had disputes with King George and it was not until Constantine was dethroned by the Entente powers that Rhalis really regarded him seriously. This action of the Entente, however, converted Rhalis to become a supporter of Constantine's cause and since 1916, he has been devoted to that ruler. Rhalis is one of the most interesting characters in Greece. He is a polished statesman and is often referred to as a "dear old man." (He is about 80.) His favorite pets are goats and fowls, which he owns in great numbers, and feeds with his own hands. When not in public office he practices his profession of applier to both women and men. A John J. Pershing receives pay amounting to $21,000 a year as ranking general of the United States army. His allow of the law. In his younger days he spent a considerable fortune in politics $7,500.

COMMERCIALISM OF NATIONAL PARKS WOULD STRIKE AT NATION'S LIFE

By Associated Press
DES MOINES, Iowa, Jan. 11.—Attacks on the national parks by commercial interests seeking to promote hydroelectric power and irrigation schemes are attacks on the very life of the nation. Emerson Hough of Chicago today told the first national conference on parks. Mr. Hough, author of many books and magazine articles, spoke from the experience of many years spent in the national playgrounds, more especially from an exhaustive trip of investigation which he made last summer through Yellowstone which is affected by several bills pending in congress.

"We have, through political and industrial fear, allowed America to become a feeding ground, not a country," Mr. Hough said. "The ruthless and hurrying commercialism of today has almost finished the work of wiping out the old, the real America. It snails the last remnants of our once wild and beautiful empire, that which lay so alluring and so unknown to the men who loved it even so long ago and demanded that 'it must and shall be preserved.'"

"The fight on our National Parks by commercial interests is a fight on the Union, on America itself. It is a denial of the existence of the spiritual body of America. It is a denial not only of patriotism and of national consciousness, but a denial of altruism, a denial of nobility and growth in gentle things. "The fight on the parks by water power and irrigation interests is a fight on the honor and chastity of a nation. It is as bad as commercialized vice in any form whatever."

"A blow at our parks, small replicas of an old America, is a blow at the soul of America. If we can not preserve our national parks, we shall never preserve our country as a country, as a nation."

"In this crisis the duty is that of each individual man to act to prevent such outrages. The politicians will never act except under the whip of an aroused public. We should say 'Must' to them, not 'Please,' and we should say it now."

HAWAII TO PRODUCE HUGE QUANTITIES OF FUEL ALCOHOL

By Associated Press
HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 11.—Within two years the Territory of Hawaii will produce enough motor fuel for its own needs, including the requirements of the army and navy forces here, should their bases of supply be cut off, according to Colonel Howard Hathaway, collector of internal revenue.

Commercial manufacture of fuel alcohol from sugar molasses has been made practicable on a large scale by amendments governing the manufacture of denatured alcohol, Col. Hathaway said.

Already a small plant is being operated on a sugar plantation on the island of Maui, which is producing sufficient motor fuel for the plantation's own needs.

NINE TOWNS GET LOWER INSURANCE KEY RATE

By Associated Press
AUSTIN, Jan. 11.—Nine Texas towns on Jan. 15 will be permitted three per cent off in the fire key rate because fire prevention is being taught in the public schools, a State Fire Insurance commission announcement says. This is the first credit to be so allowed. The towns are: Athens, Calvert, Comanche, Farmersville, Henderson, Jefferson, Mission, Plano and Yorktown.

MAJORITY OF SLACKERS CAUGHT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Attorney General Palmer has informed the House judiciary committee that the Department of Justice "has made every effort to procure indictments or information against all persons guilty of violation of the selective service act," and that "it is not believed that any considerable number of persons guilty of a willful violation of the act have escaped the notice of this department and its investigators."

Comparison of Popular Votes for Presiden

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Interesting comparisons of the popular vote for President in 1920 and 1916 are made possible by official figures of various state election canvassing boards, compiled by the Associated Press and made public here today. They show a total popular vote of 26,757,708 for the candidates of seven parties as compared with a total of 18,515,349 for the candidates of five parties in 1916. The returns from Tennessee alone are unofficial.

Harding's plurality over Cox was $7,001,763. Four years ago President Wilson's plurality over Charles Evans Hughes was 591,855. New York state gave Harding a vote of 1,868,411, his largest return in any one state, as compared with 780,744 for Cox. Ohio, that state of both the Republican and Democratic candidates, gave Harding 1,182,022 and Cox 780,037. Illinois gave them respectively, 1,420,480 and 534,394, and Pennsylvania 1,218,215 and 503,202.

The 1920 vote for Eugene V. Debs, Socialist candidate, was 914,830, while in 1916 Benson polled only 585,113. Four years previously, however, Debs rolled up a vote of 897,011. The Socialist party vote in New York state was 205,115, a gain of 157,170 over 1916 and of 139,743 over 1912. Debs polled only 26 votes in North Carolina and 38 in Idaho while in Vermont the party filed no nomination.

Prohibition Vote.

Dr. Aaron Watkins, nominee of the Prohibitionists, polled a total vote of 187,470, a decrease of 33,036 from the party vote of 1916. Out of a total of more than half a million votes cast in North Carolina the "dry" candidate received 17. Georgia gave him 8. Greater New York, including New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens and Richmond counties, with a total vote of 1,270,708, polled 1,990 "dry" ballots.

The total vote polled by Parley Christensen, Farmer-Labor nominee, was 252,435, all cast in eighteen states. Cox, the Socialist-Labor candidate, received 42,950 votes and Macaulay, nominee of the Single Tax party, 5,747.

WRITES NEW YEAR'S MESSAGE ON TURNIPS

AUSTIN, Jan. 11.—A unique report of the meeting of the Wood County Farmers' institute, together with Christmas and New Year's greetings, was received at the office of J. W. Neill, director of farmers' institutes. The message was written with ink on a two-pound turnip, which was tagged and mailed unwrapped to Mr. Neill. The text of the report follows:

"Wood County Farmers' institute had a very enthusiastic meeting yesterday in the town of Quitman. All parts of the county were represented. Several important subjects along agricultural lines were discussed. The low price of cotton hit our pocket books hard, but thank the Lord, it did not take away the taste of our ribbon cane syrup and batter cakes, fatty bread and collards or yam potatoes and backbones. Growing something to eat is where a Wood county farmer shines."

NOTICE OF BOND ELECTION.
Notice is hereby given that an election will be held at the Directors' Room of Farmers & Merchants State Bank in the town of Ranger within the Ranger Independent School District on the 22nd day of January, 1921, to determine whether the bonds of said district shall be issued to the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00), payable serially as follows:

OIL

CONZOLUS ANNEX CO. OPENS RANGER OFFICE

The Gonzolus Annex Oil syndicate of Breckenridge has opened offices in Ranger at the McCleskey hotel, in charge of A. A. King. The company has one well drilling at 1,400 feet on its 14-acre lease near the Gonzolus No. 1 well on the Breckenridge townsite. Much of the stock in the Annex syndicate is held by Ranger people, it was stated.

NEW DOMAIN WELL MAKING MUCH GAS
The New Domain company's well on the Williams lease is nearing the pay depth and is expected in within a few days. The well is making a considerable volume of gas.

The Ringling well, on the same tract, has resumed drilling at 2,000 feet after having replaced the rig which burned recently.

RANGER INTERESTS GET NEWS FROM BLUE RIDGE

Ranger people who are interested in the Blue Ridge Oil syndicate in the west Columbia field today received word that the first well has been spudded on its acreage. The location is within 700 yards of four producers, one of which is at present flowing 12,000 barrels.

FORT STOCKTON WELL MADE WATER AND SEEPAGE

The latest news to reach here from the Fort Stockton 90-foot well, which a few days ago was reported flowing at the rate of 250 barrels an hour, is that the flow has now subsided and that the output was principally water which mixed with seepage oil gave the appearance of crude when the stream was encountered. It is understood that the drilling will be continued to a greater depth in hope of finding sufficient gas pressure to force a flow from the seepage.

In the history of the United States navy no ship has ever been in the hands of mutineers.

Six thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($6,250.00) on the first day of March, 1921, and six thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($6,250.00) on the first day of March each and every year thereafter, to and including the year 1931, and bearing interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, payable annually, for the purpose of constructing and equipping public free school buildings of brick material, and for purchasing sites therefor within the said district, and if there shall be annually levied and collected on all taxable property within the district for the current year and annually thereafter, while the bonds or any of them are outstanding, a tax sufficient to pay the current interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund sufficient to pay the principal at maturity.

C. A. Love is hereby appointed manager of said election which shall be held as nearly as may be possible in conformity with the general election laws of this state.

No person shall vote at said election unless he be a qualified voter in the constitution and laws of this state and a taxpayer in said Ranger Independent School District.

Those in favor of the issuance of the bonds and the levying of the tax shall have written or printed upon their ballots, "For the Bonds and the Tax." and those against the issuance of the bonds and the levying of the tax shall have written or printed upon their ballots, "Against the Bonds and the Tax."

Public notice of said election shall be given by publishing notices thereof, signed by the President and attested by the Secretary of the Board, in The Ranger Daily Times in accordance with the requirements of R. S. of 1917, said paper being in the Ranger Independent School District; and by posting notices thereof, signed by the President and attested by the Secretary of the Board, in three public places in said Ranger Independent School District at least thirty days before the date of said election.

Said election was ordered by the Board of Trustees of said Ranger Independent School District by an order passed on the twentieth day of December, 1920, and this notice is issued pursuant to said order.

Present Jno. M. Gholson, V. V. Cooper, E. H. Mize, T. G. Deffenbacher, J. M. Smith, Lee Williams, and M. H. Hagaman.

Dated this twentieth day of December, 1920.

Reds' in Germany Plan Wholesale Massacres Soon

Lists of Prominent People to Be Killed Are Being Passed Out.

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, Jan. 11.—German radical disciples of what is called here "Red Russian terrorism," who say they are planning to overturn the present German government and establish a proletarian dictatorship, openly announce that they have drawn up lists of "capitalists and undesirables" who shall be killed when the revolution begins.

One of these men, a hotel waiter, who calls himself a "precinct leader," complained the other day that his list included "nearly everybody around here," who has influence, property or money. He said a "superior" came to him one day and read a list of names and announced these were to be the "precinct leaders" quota when the killing began. The waiter declared he acknowledged "orders," but thought the program was being carried too far.

"As leader in this precinct I am expected to kill a lot of folks when the revolution gets under way," he said. "My list is certainly big enough. And do you think about that?"

Apparently his opinion of his orders was very low, but when asked if he would carry them out if opportunity offered, he merely laughed.

Radicals of the most pronounced tendencies toward revolution and destruction may be encountered everywhere. They appear quite proud of the fact that Germany today is "a land of the free, peace on earth," and sometimes ask what would happen to men who preached their doctrine in the United States. Frequently they are students, carrying along with their textbooks all sorts of radical literature. They discuss their "plans" with great liberty. One of them, a small, mild-mannered person, of distinctly Slavonic type, said it would be necessary to kill many people during the next revolution in order to impress upon the bourgeoisie that they "meant business."

"There will be piles of dead in the streets," he declared. "We'll just have to do it. We can't treat these bourgeois kindly, for they wouldn't appreciate it. We'll have to impress them with our earnestness. We will line them up by the score against buildings on the main streets and shoot them. We will want all to see what we're doing. That will throw a wholesome terror into the hearts of the reactionaries. Of course, I will do my share and if necessary will give my life for the cause."

Police authorities apparently are not much concerned about the "red terrorism" for their policy is to permit the radicals to have their say, and go their way in peace. Arrests are very infrequent.

STRIKERS TIE UP INDIAN INDUSTRY

CALCUTTA, Jan. 11.—(India Information Bureau)—A general strike wave has been sweeping over the industrial sections of India affecting every industry. The labor situation in Bombay city is reported to be growing more serious. The strike of the postal and telegraph workers, of the street railway men and of the gas workers still continues. A summary of the situation shows that the postmen have been on strike for sixty days now, gas workers for fifty days and street railway men for forty, and that the condition of the strikers is serious. Recently a new strike of 2,000 milkmen was declared and Bombay's milk supply cut off. The city's business interests continues to be disturbed.

In Madras a lockout of operatives of the Ruckman mills has been in progress for four weeks. The mill owners have announced that 1,500 of the 5,000 strikers have been permanently dismissed. They offered to take back the other 3,500 at an increase of 50 to 75 per cent in wages beginning with the new year. Latest reports indicate that the mill owners' offer has not been accepted.

PARIS, Jan. 11.—The French "see," Charles Nungesser, who ranked second to Foeck as a successful military aviator during the war, and who has been prominent at many aerial meetings since the armistice, has decided to give up driving his automobile, saying it is too dangerous and expensive.

Nungesser was racing through Neuilly lately when he knocked down and killed a cyclist as a result of which the court ordered him to pay the widow of his victim 30,000 francs for damages.

"I think I'll stick to my airplane hereafter," he told the judge. "If anything breaks there I'll be the only one to suffer."

PHYSICAL COURSE FOR DISABLED AT STATE UNIVERSITY

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 11.—Physical training classes have been inaugurated at the University of Texas for those men students having disability of such nature as to bar them from the regular classes. These classes are under the instruction of Dr. Eckdahl, who carried on work of this nature during the war in the army and navy hospitals. Regular examinations of the men will be made by the University physician, Dr. Goddard. Heart trouble, it is stated, seems to be the most prevalent ailment among the men enrolled in these classes. Curvature of the spine is another rather prevalent trouble. Special gymnastics will be used for treatment, and results carefully checked.

The American Legion has now 9,863 posts.

POLICE SAY IDLENESS IS INCENTIVE FOR BIG PERCENTAGE OF CRIME

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 11.—The old adage that "Satan finds mischief for idle hands to do," is substantiated, Fort Worth police say, by the department's annual report. "The police blotter is a barometer of the economic and social conditions," the report said.

During 1917, when there was a period of financial depression, according to the report, the arrests in Fort Worth were nearly 100 per cent more than 1919, when there was plenty of work and the industries were thriving. Similar conditions obtained in other parts of the state, it was said.

In 1920 the number of arrests declined still further, although there were more in the latter part of the year than in the first part. Prohibition has reduced the number charged with intoxication to a very low figure compared with previous years; the report said.

NOBLEMAN BECAME CLERK TO WIN HER

News from London of the engagement of Miss Violet Selbridge, daughter of a wealthy Chicago merchant, to Viscount of Sibour reveals a story of more than ordinary romance. The viscount went to Mr. Selbridge several months ago and asked for his daughter's hand. His answer was that he would have to become a bread-winner. It was agreed upon and the viscount went to work in Mr. Selbridge's London store.

OFFICIALS CONFER TO END CRIME WAVE

New York and New Jersey officials recently assembled at Trenton, N. J., to recommend measures to curb criminals and make difficult a continuance of their operations. PROPELS HIMSELF 500 MILES IN WHEEL CHAIR

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11. Five hundred miles in a wheel chair is the record of B. E. Davis, an invalid, aged 60, who left Los Angeles a month ago and propelled his chair by hand to San Francisco. He made the trip as a demonstration of the good roads of California. "I got a lift once, invalid and invalid chair, from a passing machine," said Davis. "The rest of the way I propelled myself with two cranks on the wheel chair. I can travel about six hours before my arms give out and I averaged sixteen miles a day on my trip."

SMITH-COX.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Cecil Clay Smith and Miss Othell Cox were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cox. Rev. W. A. Webb, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated, using the beautiful ring ceremony.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. A. Cox and was reared in Greenville, where she is known for her beautiful character.

The groom is the son of Dr. J. A. Smith of Greenville, where he also was reared to young manhood, coming recently to Ranger, where he has a responsible position with the Southern Business institute.

Out-of-town visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde White of Eastland, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mrs. Ernest Harkrider and Miss Geraldine and Allen D. Dabney, Eastland; Miss Wilma Smith of Greenville, sister of the groom.

The newly married couple will make their home in Ranger.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN MEET.

The committee appointed to look after the building now occupied by the exchange is composed of Mesdames Watkins, Monday, Liles, Hailfry and Peters. The East Side circle will meet in the exchange Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Abney as hostess.

ENGINEERS HERE FOR CONSULTATION WITH RANGER WATER MAN

E. F. Morey of the firm of Morey & Morey, engineers, of Dallas, is in the city holding a conference with R. R. Nelms, manager of the Ranger Waterworks.

The Morey firm is building the Dallas filter and sedimentation plant at White Rock. Mr. Nelms was formerly water commissioner of Dallas and an authority on water questions of that city. While in that office Mr. Nelms, perhaps most of all officials of Dallas, had the distinction to have the Dallas News comment on his work editorially. The occasion was one when the water crisis which was facing Dallas was solved by Mr. Nelms.

The nature of the conference between Mr. Nelms and the engineer was not stated.

BRITISH INSTITUTE NEW SILVER COINAGE STANDARD

LONDON, Jan. 11.—A new standard of silver coinage has just been put into effect in the United Kingdom because of the great increase in the value of silver. New sixpences, shillings, florins and half-crowns, now only contain one-half of pure silver instead of 37-40th as heretofore.

A larger admixture of alloy became necessary when the old coins became worth more than their face value.

The new coins are harder, and are expected to outlast the old ones, which are being called in and will be minted into new currency.

Great Britain has 1,700 cemeteries throughout Europe for her soldiers.
