GIRL SCOUTS PLAN FOOD SALE FOR SATURDAY

At the regular meeting of the Farwell troop of Girl Scouts, held at the water tower park Monday afternoon, it was agreed that the girls would conduct a food sale on Saturday morning, June 22nd, in the old location of Gus & Mabel's Cafe, beginning at 10:30 o'clock.

The girls will offer various types of food for sale, and local people are urged to save themselves baking trouble by dropping in and buying a pie or cake. Part of the proceeds will be given to the Red Cross, with the remainder going into a Scout trip fund.

LOUDELL ROSE MARRIED TO PORTALES MAN

Miss LoudeLL Rose, formerly of this city and well known locally, was quietly married the past Wednesday evening at four o'clock to Clarence Franse, of Portales.

Glen Parks performed the double-ring ceremony in the home of Mrs. Roy Crain, before an improvised arch lighted on either side by glowing candleabra.

Mrs. Franse wore a silver-blue net dress with a full skirt and a fitted bodice, her shoulder-length veil being held in place by a garland of cornflowers about her head. She carried a white leather Bible, belonging to Miss Bobbye Crain, from which gardenias and white satin ribbons were draped.

The bridesmaid, Miss Vivian Crain, was attired in a brown net dress and wore a corsage of gladioli. J. K. Hilliard, of Portales, acted as best man.

Mrs. Franse is the daughter of Ted Rose, of Tucumcari, and formerly lived in Farwell with relatives. She attended the local school, and is now enrolled in the Portales College. Mr. Franse is employed at the New Mexico Drug in Portales, where the couple will reside.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Claude

Rose, uncle and aunt of the bride, were among the guests at the wedding.

Beetles, Worms Join Hoppers in Ravages

County Agent Jason O. Gordon reported this week that he had received information from over the county in general to the effect that May beetles and wire worms are joining the grasshopper pests in threatening the crops of the county.

"The beetles particularly are going after young cotton plants," he said, adding that the bugs didn't bother to eat the young stalks after cutting them off close to the ground. "The beetles seem to be interested in clipping down as much cotton during the evening as they can," he added.

Poison can be put out for the pests, he went on to say, but cautioned that the poison should be put out late in the evening, as the beetles seem to get in their dirty work principally in the cool of the evening, and hibernate during the heat of the day.

He went on to add that the poison material on hand in this county was not obtainable for destruction of the beetles and worms, having been specifically allotted the county for use in eliminating 'hoppers. Asked about the grasshopper situation, the agent said that he had been called on for "only around 150 pounds" of poison during the past week, and added, "that isn't going to do a lot of good. One man's poisoning of his crop of hoppers will fail to stop the damage unless the county as a whole cooperates."

Representatives Are Named to State Meet

Fred Barker, of Lakeview, chairman of the Farmer county land use planning committee, Mrs. E. G. Williams, of Farwell, and Charlie Rogers of Rhea, have been named as the county delegates to the state-wide land use planning meeting, which will be held at College Station July 11-12.

County Agent Jason O. Gordon stated this week that this would undoubtedly be one of the most important meetings for representatives of the county committees that had even been held.

Efforts are being made to have three representatives from every county in the state present, at which time a general survey of the land use problems, considered on a state-wide basis, will be conducted, with the various county delegates listing their particular troubles.

In connection with sending Farmer attendants to the meeting, Agent Gordon added that financial assistance would be necessary from Farmer residents as a whole if the county is to be represented.

"The information that our representatives will bring back will be of invaluable assistance in ironing out land use problems in Farmer county," he said, "and it is thought that the public in general should be willing to make a contribution to send these delegates to the state meeting."

Excerpts from Opening Address of Deskins Wells, Candidate for Congress

Background

When I decided to enter this race for Congress, I did not ask if I could simply talk to Deskins Wells. I walked the fields of my mother's where I plowed as a boy, for there comes to a man from far away ground he loves. I returned to Canyon where Deck Wells first went to school, for there is spirit as fresh as the smell of turned sod in the spring. It is as fresh as the first norther in the returned home. I listened to the men tell me what they were up to, to willing workmen whose children were hungry. I heard the grandfathers and grandmothers whose useful work is done—questions of boys and girls were eager to work, with wives and mothers who want none of their husbands slaughtered in a beyond seas—to others who are and hoping. This thought to me. You know these people, know their needs. Are you willing to work for them and them at I sat once again at my mother's knee and she said, "I think the people will be with you, my son."

I talked it over with my wife, while our little eight-year old daughter sat wide-eyed and silent between us, and she said, "If you are ready, Deskins, I am ready. Where you go, I will go." With these things clear before me, I offer myself as a candidate who can and will serve the Panhandle.

"I was born on a farm near Wellington 38 years ago. I worked there until I started away to school. My first two years in Canyon were paid for by money earned from raising hogs and chickens. After that I attended the University of Texas. During the Summer months I worked as a printer's devil on the Wellington Leader and later on a newspaper in Austin. When I finished school I returned to my home county to start working on the home paper as a reporter. My father died when I was sixteen, so I tell you that responsibility and duty are not new things to Deskins Wells. The need of doing something for others as well as myself has been before me a long time. Men cannot live by bread alone, neither can he live for himself alone. For fifteen years Deskins Wells has worked with and for the welfare of his section.

I have worked for every person, every community, every school, every farmer, every workman, the young, the old, and people, in all walks of life. The moving hand writes and having written moves on. The record must stand as it has been made. Part of the record of Deskins Wells is printed in black and white in the files of his paper. That which deals with work done outside and above my normal duties lives in the minds and hearts of the people of Collingsworth County. Knowing it is there, I tell you at the beginning of this campaign that Deskins Wells will carry his home county by the largest percentage majority of any candidate in the race for Congress.

Aims

"When a man asks to serve you as your congressman, you have a right to ask what he thinks the duties are. You are familiar with the power of Congress to 'lay and collect taxes,' 'to coin money,' 'to promote the progress of science,' 'to declare war,' 'to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers and all other powers vested by the constitution. What you want to know is how do you propose to do this work? What course will you follow? Therefore I tell you that I will be a representative for the entire district and for the welfare of every person in it. I will work to return to this section a fair share of the nation's wealth that we help to produce. Deskins

Wells will oppose those discriminations such as freight rates, high interest rates, unfair and unequal taxes that place our people on the short end of the evenner where they have had to pull for over 50 years.

"My aim is to preserve our democratic form of government, at all costs. I want laws and conditions that will help our people to maintain high moral standards. No nation can truly be great nor long endure where the home, the church, and the schools decay. We need a return to religion, to rededicate ourselves to our homes, and to promote and safeguard our schools. Deskins Wells wants better living conditions for our people. I want them to have the opportunity to earn and achieve happiness and better times. That is the direction Deskins Wells is traveling, and I invite you tonight to join my cause and go with me.

Un-American Activities

"I said in the beginning that here in this Panhandle section is a basic loyalty to our form of government. Unfortunately all of the people living in other parts of the nation are not of this mind and this heart. When we were a young nation, there was more work than our people could do. We invited citizens from many lands, and they came and were good Americans and the country grew great. But we kept the doors open too long. Before we knew it, we had more people than the work demanded. Today ten million of our own are unemployed. Aliens who swear allegiance to other governments and to other beliefs are eating the food and wearing the clothes that should go to our own people. Worse still is the fact that many of these do not understand our government and cannot appreciate its benefits. As a result we are confronted with the growth of every sort of alien 'ism,' and theory that flourishes in lands where tyrants crush the people into slaves. If they like that so well, let them return to it. Some want to undermine our government. Others want to destroy our churches. The destruction of any church of God, never helped a single man or woman and in the long run the government that permits it to be done will surely fall. The destruction of any just government brings misery, terror, and greater tyranny. Today our country needs to be defended from foes from within just as it needs to be prepared against foes from without.

"It is common knowledge that our immigration laws are repeatedly violated. Deskins Wells favors unconditional strict enforcement of our immigration laws, a rigid check on aliens after they have been permitted to enter this country; and I say to you frankly that as long American citizens who are unable to find employment, Deskins Wells does not believe in extending a ready welcome to workmen of another nation. We will tolerate no fifth columns here.

"With many nations at war, with many of the markets for farm products cut off, there is need for continuing the farm program. It should be improved and simplified in every practical way. The rules and regulations should be such that our section will have equal rights with all others. But I intend to be brief on this point. For fifteen years I have been a student of farm problems, not from books so much as actual conditions affecting farm families. Since the government program was started, Deskins Wells has worked to make it effective. This is the reason the farmers and ranchers in the counties where I am best known have pledged their support for me. They looked at something besides statements. They looked at my past work. They know how I feel and how I think. They met and endorsed me without waiting to hear what I stand for, because they already knew. Tonight Deskins Wells comes before you as the preferred candidate in all these counties where he is best known, and they are determined to take this message to every farmer and stockman in the Panhandle before this campaign is over.

Labor

"Deskins Wells believes that the prosperity of this country can be measured by the thickness of the farmer's and workmen's purse. Just as I intend to work in the interest of agriculture—with equal sincerity will I work for labor. For the good of all, living standards should not be lowered. In this great country with unlimited natural resources and abundant labor, problems of distribution must be solved to the end that the living standards of all the people may be increased. Rights of labor have been recognized in the past few to a degree greater than ever existed before. Our Congress has seen fit affirmatively recognize the right of collective bargaining and this right should be maintained.

Oil

"Since oil is an important industry of the Panhandle, I tell you frankly that I am opposed to Federal control of the oil business. Texas is the largest producing oil state. There are only eight producing in quantity. It would be unwise to turn this to the Congressmen and Senators of the other 40 states to fashion a control law that would effect an industry whose production operates in only eight states. They would frame it in their interest and not in our own. Our need is to regulate it right here in Texas. If Federal control ever comes it will be because we have bungled the job down here. It will come because of neglect and corruption in our own state. When you send me to Washington, I will do my part. I will work to keep the control in our state. That is what you need in Congress.

Social Security

"I believe in conserving lives—the usefulness of our citizenship. Before this I have said that I would work for the conservation of the soil, but also for the conservation of the human lives. I strongly favor the Federal government taking an active part in the social security program of the respective states by making financial contributions to the states. It is but proper that an enlightened civilization should contribute to those who have passed their years of strenuous activities. It is likewise proper that a well rounded social security program include aid for the blind, for dependent children, and security for the teachers who devote their lives to the bulwark of democracy, namely education. With equal enthusiasm, I will support a continuation of the CCC program, which gives employment to thousands of young Americans. And until Universal prosperity again is fully accomplished in the United States, and men who want to work, our WPA and PWA must be continued in force. In this connection there is no matter that is so definite in my mind that it should be mentioned today, and tomorrow, and throughout the future until it be corrected. I want the WPA workers in Texas to receive a wage equal to those paid in other states. They receive less today and you know that is not right. The wages paid to our workers should never become a football to be played with in politics where for lertan reasons, one wage is paid in New Mexico and another wage is paid for like work in Texas. Just as in other things Deskins Wells wants balance and fair play for all people.

War

"For years I have been concerned with the problems of the young, and the problems of unemployment, relief, pensions; and all I have mentioned. But last September we knew that sooner or later we would be face to face with a blacker and more dreadful hing. It was war. WHEN WAR COMES, IT SWEEPS ALL OTHER THINGS INTO THE BACKGROUND. If this nation goes to war, we will have little chance to work on pensions for the old, for fair play for the farmer and the laborer, and equal opportunity for our section. No, the old will be forgotten, the young will be led to slaughter. The farmer will return to his yoke and the laborer to his chains. Freedom for all will vanish and dictatorship will rule in our land for the time. If we go to war, it will take long years to regain what we have lost. The present European war does concern us vitally. There is no question where our sympathies lie. We are already selling the allies airplanes, munitions and supplies. But the line should be drawn when it comes to sending men to fight in Europe.

Preparedness

"Deskins Wells believes in preparedness all the way round—the best navy in the world, the largest air force—and the best trained and most highly mechanized army. All of these should be strengthened, but preparedness should go even further. Real preparedness should include a strong and thriving agricultural system. Our great industrial system should be strengthened and not crippled. Labor should be strong and united. Un-American activities that destroy within should be wiped out. Real preparedness starts with the military, of course, but it must include the entire nation.

"With the richest nation on earth, the highest standard of living, vast capacity in industry and agriculture, over seventy percent of the world's gold stored in our land, it would be folly for us to relax our vigilance one second. Every other nation looks at us with envious and greedy eyes. We should defend what is our own.

National Morale

"I want to see this nation prepared in spirit. Patriotism and morale must be strong in the people of any nation that is truly prepared. Preparedness does not stop with material things such as airplanes and tanks and trained men. It must also exist in the minds and hearts of our people. "Deck Wells wants this fact imbedded in the conscious thought of every American citizen. I want loyalty to our American form of government. It is something that should be shouted from the housetops. It is something that should be before us as we pursue our daily tasks regardless of whether the concern the farm, the store, or the factory. It should be taught in our homes. It should be repeated in our schools. It should be printed in our newspapers. It should be heralded over the radio. This is the best defense against those who seek to destroy from within. It is a democratic defense of our chosen way of life. Let the enemies of Deck Wells call it propaganda if they will, but I tell you that these same methods are being used even today to undermine those things that you and I love better than life itself. Therefore I tell you once again that Deck Wells believes in all round preparedness.

"Peace preparedness and better times are our goals. Loyalty, Unity and patriotism are our banners. Fair play, common sense and hard work are our methods. God being our helper, we will perpetuate these blessings as a nation and hand them down to our children as our fathers handed them down to us. This is true course. Deskins Wells will follow it faithfully and steadfastly if you send him to Washington.

"As I stand before you tonight, it warms my heart to think of the people of my own county. Friendship is a wonderful thing, but belief in one another and help to one another, this is as precious as life itself. For weeks the people of my home county have been going over the Panhandle saying that Deskins Wells will serve all of us. They are not paid workers. They are not for hire to the man with the most money. They are doing it because they have known me all my life. They say We know Deck Wells; we know what kind of life he has led. We know of the work he has done. We know he is fair. We know that his heart beats in sympathy for those in need. We know that his word like his father's word before him is a precious thing. We know of his ability. He is a worker. He can get the job done for all of us. He is for every man, woman and child. He is for every community, town and city. He is a candidate for the entire Panhandle. The past points the way to the future; therefore, we say, send Deskins Wells to Congress."

CRACKER CRUMBS

By "ABIE" G.

This weather nowadays is so changeable that one can look out late in the afternoon and say with perfect common sense, "For heaven's sake, what became of those clouds that weren't here this morning?"

Modesty is something the average girl thinks about only when asked how much she has gained.

The guy who has things well in hand today usually isn't greatly alarmed about what may come tomorrow.

After trying to keep up with all the glaring war headlines flung in our faces by the daily newspapers, it's a relief to pick up the small-town weekly and find out that Miss Jones is to be married, or that the Smiths have a new baby.

For years we had "devils" in the back shop who serenaded us with cowboy ballads day in and day out, and now the new one croons the latest Bing Crosby models. Personally, we don't know but what it would be a good idea to put mufflers on all of them.

We don't know of anything quite so annoying as to sit blankly looking at the typewriter and trying to write this column, while a danged fly sits calmly watching us and twiddling his hind legs in the air.

One way to have lots of flowers around the house during the summer is to help yourself to the neighbors' choicest when they are away.

Stubbornness isn't just inherited—we cultivate it until, like the weeds in the garden, it covers up the good we might have.

The people who usually know the most about a subject don't get embroiled in street corner arguments.

Some people act dumb, and others don't have to act.

Land Use Committee Considers Its Duties

The land use planning committee of Parmer county, composed of 18 farm men and women from the nine different communities of the county, met in Bovina last Thursday, at which time the various activities of the group were under consideration.

It was voted by those present that four farms in Parmer county should be designated as demonstration units, on which practical farm practices would be exemplified by the Soil Conservation Service and the Extension Service, who are cooperating in setting up demonstration farms.

No definite announcement as to which farms would be selected was forthcoming this week, but County Agent Jason O. Gordon said that they would likely be named in the near future.

Furthering this line, it was decided that a "guinea pig" farm would be named in the county, on which all the various government agencies now at work in Parmer would be invited to conduct their experiments toward the completed "perfect" farm, relative to land use and conservation. The selection was left to the committee, the agent added.

If this can be carried out to its finest point, Agent Gordon went on to say, persons who are doubtful about cooperating with the various agencies can be taken to the demonstration farm and shown clearly the advantages obtained through cooperation, with no guesswork required on the part of the farmer.

Wells Opens Campaign In Home Town Friday

WELLINGTON, Texas—Offering himself as a candidate who can and will serve the entire Panhandle, Deskins Wells opened his speaking campaign in Wellington Friday night, June 14th.

Addressing the men and women of his home county, many of whom have known him for the entire 38 years of his life, Deck Wells laid down the platform on which he is seeking to represent the 18th Congressional District.

"When a man asks to serve you as your Congressman, you have a right to ask what he thinks the duties are," Deck Wells told his listener early in his speech. "How does he propose to do this work? What course will he follow? I tell you that I will be a representative for the entire district and for the welfare of every person in it. My aim is to preserve our democratic form of government at all costs."

Continuing, Deck Wells outlined the ten points in his platform:

1. An immediate defense program to enable the United States to adequately resist any and all potential threats of invasions of the Americas. In addition to fulfilling add modern mechanized needs of the air force, the army, and the navy, the defense program must be supported by sound and prosperous conditions of American agriculture, labor and industry.

2. Strict enforcement of immigration laws, curtailment of immigration quotas, and rigid check on activities of all aliens by the United States Department of Justice. There is no place in the United States for any 5th column activities.

3. Recognition that international affairs might necessitate the United States furnishing planes and armaments to foreign powers; but opposed to sending American soldiers to fight on the land of Europe.

4. Continuation of the Government farm and ranch programs to the end that soil resources be conserved; and the American farmer and rancher be assured of their rightful share of the national income.

5. Opposed to Federal control of the Texas oil and gas industry.

6. Continuation of the CIO, WPA, and PWA programs, with their future work related where possible to the immediate needs of the emergency defense program. Wages and rates of pay in Texas should be equal to those paid in other states.

7. Continuation of the Federal Social Security Program with government payments to the groups designated in the Social Security Act.

8. Continuation of the recognition of the right to collective bargaining.

9. Represent the entire Eighteenth Congressional District including every person, every county, and every town and city in this district.

10. Dedicate my efforts and my life to the preservation of Democracy which has made us the freest, happiest, richest, and most tolerant people on the face of the earth.

"With the richest nation on earth, the highest standard of living, vast capacity in industry and agriculture, over seventy per cent of the world's gold stored in our land, it would be folly for us to relax our vigilance one second. Every other nation looks at us with envious and greedy eyes. We should defend what is our own," Deck Wells warned.

Completely bomb-proof will be the new archive building of Stockholm, Sweden, constructed on a rocky promontory with rooms blasted out of solid granite to a depth of six stories underground.

Miss Bernice Neely, state food specialist from College Station, was a visitor in Parmer county the past weekend, inspecting the food demonstration of Mrs. Will Jones, in the Hub community, and meeting with the Hub club in the Jones' home.

Prior to Miss Neely's talk, Miss Ruth Boyd, county demonstration agent, gave a discussion on proper refrigeration of food in the home. Miss Neely then discussed food preservation in all its phases, concerning herelf principally with canning and storing foods for family use when the fresh crops were not available.

She went on to stress the fact that a large group of vegetables could be stored, thus saving effort in canning and added a number of tips on time of planting and ways and means of taking extra precautions with gardens and orchards.

It required transportation of 90,000 pounds of bones and attached rocks to assemble five dinosaur skeletons at the University of Utah.
