"OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF FARMER COUNTY"

EIGHT PAGES

FIFTY-EIGHTH YEAR

10 CENTS

Monday night, March 2, at 7 p.m. there is a public hearing at Farwell City Hall by the City Council on local sentiment for a paving project in town. We plan to be there and to listen to all the arguments for and against paving. One of our "editorial" planks has been for more and better paving locally. We are sure that this is not a universally popular stance, but we plan to continue to plug for paving. Those not in favor are urged to use the "Letters to the Editor" columns of the Tribune to air their views.

It is our firm belief that as the decade of the seventies wears on that this area of the Panhandle will continue to grow and prosper. The movement of business and industry will not continue to pass us by. Therefore, if we aspire to this future, we must assume the responsibilities of a city. Friona and Bovina are rapidly running away with the county prize and we are sadly in arrears. For growth, for people, for homes, for business, for the future, support a comprehensive paving program for Farwell.

With a fanfare and flourish Texas Tech announces that Tulane University has been added to that school's football schedule for 1970. This is the 11th game that the Southwest Conference has authorized on the current schedules. Phooey -- this sounds to us like another "King" size mistake. We know who and what Tulane is; however, it doesn't impress us or generate a compelling urge to take our money in hand to go see them play. How much better for the sports scene in the Panhandle if Tech's 11th game had been with West Texas. This would have been a sure-fire turnstile clicker from the word "go." Prestige-wise Tech could not have been any worse off soaking up a loss from the Canyon school than from Tulane, and West Texas would always guarantee a financial success. Finance is the name of the game and the only reason for the new 11-game schedules. The way it is TT could lose prestige to a second rate team and money to boot. This may be "Jake" with some, but it stinks to us.

For spine chilling, stomach knotting suspense, Monday night's game with Ralls ranks as one of the area's all time greats. With 1:30 to go and Farwell trailing by eight points, all looked hopeless, but a do-or-die spirit was present on the court and imminent defeat was eventually turned into stunning victory.

Lavish praise, flowing words, galleys of type are all inadequate to convey the frenzy of the hometown rosters as sweet victory looked possible, probable and then certain. If you didn't see it, you will just never know. Win or lose in Lubbock, this year's edition of the Blue and White has won a niche in immortality in the memory of local fans.

The best guess on the game must have come from Joe Jones who before the game called a Farwell victory 71-67 in two overtimes. Joe could quit banking and make a fortune in the stock market with prescience of mind like that.

Hey, Joe, how about a tip for Saturday's game? We could use a little reimbursement for the expenses of going to Lubbock all day.

Meeting Re-Scheduled

The meeting of Farwell City Commission which had originally been scheduled for Friday, Feb. 27, has been re-scheduled for Monday, March 2, at 7 p.m. at the city hall. All persons interested in the paving project for Farwell are urged to be present for the Monday meeting. The project will be discussed and a decision made on paving and curb and gutter installation.

NOTICE

All persons desiring to have their names placed on the ballot for places on the Farwell School Board have only until March 4 to file applications. Application blanks are available at the office of school superintendent W. M. Roberts or at the Farwell School tax office. Two trustees will be named at the April 4 trustee election.

Defeat Ralls In Overtime --

Steers Bi-District Champs

By Steve Blair
The Farwell Steers made a fantastic comeback and then outlasted Ralls in a double-overtime thriller Tuesday night to gain a 72-67 decision over the Jackrabbits and a regional tournament berth this weekend.

The Steers took the court looking calm and collected and jumped to an early lead of as much as nine points in the first period. Their tight defense allowed Ralls only eight shots the entire first quarter as Greg Hargrove netted 13 points to gain the margin. In the second stanza, however, Ralls began to penetrate the Steer's zone and get good shots and had pulled to within two points at half.

A see-saw battle in the third quarter saw the lead change hands four times with the Steers on top by four going into the final period of play. The 'Rabbits came on strong again, surging ahead and opening an eight-point margin over the Farwell cagers with less than two minutes remaining. Then as it looked as though the Steers were down for good, Dean Stovall canned a shot from outside and two quick steals by Gene Sheets and Stovall were converted into points by Brett Hargrove and the gap was down to two with 1:01 remaining.

The teams traded shots, but with 12 seconds showing on the clock, James Langston was at the line shooting a one and one foul shot. The first attempt went wide, Greg Hargrove got the rebound, and with one second on the clock, Stovall ripped the net from the corner to knot the score at 61-61.

The 'Rabbits pulled out to a quick three-point lead in the first overtime. Gene Sheets dropped two free throws and Dwayne Osborne netted one for Ralls, leaving the Steers down by two with less than half a minute to play. Gene Sheets' shot was wide but Stovall again hit the game-saving shot as the buzzer sounded bringing the score to 65-61.

Ralls used up nearly half the second overtime working for their first basket, which came on a driving layup by Langston. Greg Hargrove evened the score and then put the Steers on top after a Gene Sheets' steal. Mark Williams put the icing on the cake as he netted a pair on a one and one foul situation with 19 seconds left on the clock.

The Steers hit 47 per cent from the court, edged by Ralls 48 per cent effort, but the Steers led in field goals, 30-28, as well as free throws, 12-11. The Steers hit 57 per cent from the line, netting 12 of 21 attempts. Greg Hargrove took the high point honors for the contest with 28 tallies, followed by Stovall with 17, Sheets with 12, and Williams' 10 points. James Langston had 20 for Ralls, followed by Osborne with 19. Stovall was the leading rebounder with 13.

"Fantastic is the only way I can describe the playing and spirit of the Steers," commented Coach Vernon Scott following the bi-district win on Monday evening. "With a spirit

TECH COLISEUM --

Blue Meets Clarendon In Regional Tourney

The Farwell Steers, coming home with a victory from their bi-district game with Ralls at Levelland Tuesday night, will go against District 2-A Champions (Clarendon) in a regional game at Texas Tech Coliseum Saturday morning at 8:30.

Although Clarendon is lauded as having a good, well-rounded, and experienced team with much rebounding and shooting ability, no one is selling the Steers short after their bi-district exhibition against Ralls Jackrabbits Tuesday night.

The only common foe the two teams have met this season is Dimmitt, by whom they both were defeated. Dimmitt downed the mighty Steers by a 27-point margin in their first game of the season. They defeated Clarendon by a 12-point margin in early season play.

Neither Farwell nor Clarendon was defeated in conference play during the 1969-70 season. Farwell sports a season record of 25-5 while Clarendon has a season record of 26-2. Coach Vernon Scott said in commenting on the upcoming game, "We will have to slow down 6'3" Charles Lewis, the Clarendon post, to defeat them, but it can be done and I believe our boys can get the job done."

Lewis is a potential All-American choice from area high schools. Coach Scott added "I am looking forward to the game!"

The Steers, although a short team, have super shooting and rebounding ability and this, coupled with their superb speed, may prove to be the deciding factor in the game.

Finals for the regional play-offs are scheduled at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Coliseum. Sixteen teams are left in conference play in the Class A

Farwell School --

Public School Week Set March 2-6

Public School Week for 1970 has been set at the Farwell School March 2 through March 6. During the week parents are invited to come to school and visit with the teachers and discuss any problems or visit classes. They are also invited to come and have lunch with their children during the week.

In the elementary school division a special program will be conducted on Monday night, March 2, with all teachers and principal Jack Williams joining in presenting a program to acquaint parents with the school's curriculum. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will last approximately an hour and a half.

During this time parents are asked to visit the rooms of their children and participate in the programs being presented. Classes will be conducted on a 15-minute schedule and parents are asked to visit as many classes as possible. Samples of the children's work will be on display, bulletin boards will feature work of students, and teachers will conduct demonstrations in various fields, including controlled reading, overhead projectors, mathematics-materials and concepts-and advice on how the parents can best assist the students.

An art display will also be arranged and a display of old books, including the "blue back speller" will be on hand. Each teacher will be available to answer questions concerning any student. In several of the classes a question and answer session will be conducted.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening. Parents are asked to leave their children at home since no arrangements have been made for caring for the children and the program is planned for adults to assist them in helping their child or children.

At the junior high school and the high school no special programs have been planned for the week; however, parents are invited to come any time during the week and visit any of the classes or talk with teachers about any problem concerning any of their children. Amos Tatum, high school principal, says "Our program will be the same as always...with parents invited to come visit anytime." Superintendent W. M. Roberts says that while parents are invited to come visit the school and have lunch anytime, a special invitation is issued for parents to come for lunch on either Tuesday or Friday. Elementary children and their parents will have lunch beginning at 10:45 a.m.; junior high, 11:55 a.m.; and high school 12:25 p.m.

schools. In addition to the play-offs of Class A schools, sports fans visiting Lubbock Saturday can also see area Class AA, and Class AAA high school teams in action.

All sports fans are urged to be on hand to support the Steers when they go into action Saturday morning.

Farwell And Texico --

Observe FFA Week

Vocational Agriculture students in the Texico and Farwell schools are joining Future Farmers of America Chapters throughout the nation in activities to emphasize the importance of agriculture during FFA Week, February 21-28.

Theme for the FFA Week observance this year is "FFA . . . emphasis agriculture." Throughout the week the young agriculturists have been emphasizing the importance of agriculture to the area and the nation.

"We have such an abundance of food in America that people just seem to take farming and agriculture for granted," stated the local FFA advisors, Jerry Mathis and Jon Scott at Farwell and Eddie West at Texico. Actually farming is now and has always been our nation's largest and most vital industry. As the population expands it is more important that men and women train to meet the demand for food.

Each year, FFA Week is observed during the week of George Washington's birthday. Although Washington is usually remembered as a Revolutionary War general and the first president of the United States, it is known that his first love was farming. He was one of the first in the nation to practice contour farming, crop rotations, fertilization and other soil improvements.

Through FFA not only do the students learn farming practices but they also learn many things which help to fit them for jobs in other areas of agriculture.

Both of the local schools have fine FFA programs with various projects carried out each year by members of the local chapters. They participate in judging contests, livestock shows and many other activities throughout the year.

Final score in the game was San Jon 104-Texico 78.

Texico is playing in the district tournament in Portales this week. Their first foe was to be Floyd with whom they have split games this season. No score on the game was available at press time.

Letters To The Editor

Mr. John L. Getz, Editor State-Line Tribune Farwell, Texas
Dear Mr. Getz:

With the solar eclipse due March 7, 1970, there will be scores of people across the nation who will be either partially or totally blinded trying to see this rare phenomenon. You might wish to warn your readers of some of the hazards since many people still believe that they can view an eclipse comfortably and safely with various home-made devices all the way from a smoked glass to dark photographic film sheets. This simply is a mistaken idea. The only safe way is to wait and view it on television after professionals have made pictures of the event.

The real danger comes from the invisible infra-red rays which can cause damaging burns to the eye's light-sensitive retina in a manner similar to the way a magnifying glass will focus the sun's rays on a piece of paper and burn a hole in it. The retina, not being sensitive to pain, would hardly feel a retinal burn at the time. However, all vision specialists realize retinal burns are incurable and produce a blind spot. Should the burn be in the vital macula area (point of most central vision) the patient would most likely lose all usable central vision in that eye permanently.

Other complications of solar damage seen by eye specialists following the last partial eclipse of the sun on May 20, 1966, include bilateral central scotomata, macular hole, severe macular lesions, macular burn, obstruction of central retinal vessels, retinal hemorrhages, etc.

I hope it is possible for the people of our area to get by without a single incident of damage. This is only possible if they fully understand the dangers. The only recommended way to view an eclipse is indirectly. This can be done by taking two pieces of white cardboard and make a pinhole in one, then with the sun at your back focus the eclipse image through the pinhole board onto the second cardboard. Better yet, wait and see it on TV!

Sincerely yours,
s/ B. W. Armstead, O.D.

Longhorn Roundup

by Mike Casey

The South Plains College gymnasium was the scene of the District 5-B basketball playoff game between Hart and Lazbuddie which was played February 13. The playoff game was necessary because of Lazbuddie and Hart's identical records (9-1) in district play. Lazbuddie won the playoff 44-41 and although Lazbuddie led the entire game, Hart outscored Lazbuddie in every quarter except the first. At the end of the first period Lazbuddie held an 11-3 advantage. At half-time Lazbuddie was in the lead 28-21. Midway through the third period of play Lazbuddie found itself in foul trouble and decided to stall the ball.

The decision proved to be justified because at the end of the game two Lazbuddie players had four fouls and three players had three fouls. Leading Lazbuddie's conquest were Darrell Matthews and Mike Casey with 11 points. Monte Barnes had 10 points for the winners. Rickey Farris and Jim Averitt were Hart's high point players with 14 and 13 points, respectively.

Three-Way will be Lazbuddie's bi-district foe on March 2. The game will also be played at South Plains College Dome. Game time is 8 p.m.

Lazbuddie traveled to Farwell last week for a practice game with the Farwell Steers, champions of District 3-A. Farwell met defeat at the hands of the Longhorns 44-43 and were held to the fewest number of points all season. Monte Barnes paced the Horns' attack as he fired 19 points through the hoop. His teammate, Charles Lee, was second in scoring with 10. Dean Stovall and Gene Sheets were responsible for 12 points apiece for the Steers.

The Longhorns journeyed to Dumas February 20 for a practice game with the Booker Kiowas. Lazbuddie downed the Kiowas 44-38 to raise their season record to 17-5. Gail Morris collected 13 points for the winners and Charles Lee tossed in 11 points. James McQuitty had 11 points to lead Booker.

Jones Boys Work Together On Cattle Projects

The three Jones boys, Larry, Harold and Conda, have been working together on cattle projects for the past three years. They are assisted in the project by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melborn Jones, and by their FFA advisors, Jerry Mathis and Jon Scott.

During the three years the boys have been working with show cattle they have shown at least 25 animals including Hereford, Angus and Short-horns. This year they added a swine project to their livestock projects.

Through the years the trio has exhibited several champion animals in the various shows in which they have participated.

They show animals in at least six shows through the year including the Parmer County Livestock Show, the local livestock show, and shows at Houston and El Paso.

A livestock project such as the one in which the Jones boys are involved requires much planning and sufficient time to work with the animals. Animals are acquired early in the year, usually in February or March. After acquiring the animals they are broken to halter within the first week. Each following day the animals are walked for a one hour period and are also brushed and combed and fed a special diet of food to keep them in "tip top" shape.

Prior to being entered in the shows, each animal undergoes a grooming process including bathing and trimming.

Animals raised as show cattle by the Jones boys are sold at the various auctions following the shows and the money acquired in this manner is put back into the project. More calves are bought (usually at the age of two or three months). Work begins immediately with the new animals to ready them for shows the next year.

By the time the Jones boys are ready for college they hope to have realized enough money from their cattle projects to go a long way in financing their educations.

GOOD GROOMING is only one requirement for caring of an animal which is being entered in a livestock show. The animal must be halter broken, taught to walk correctly and then groomed to show him to the best advantage. Larry Jones, left, and Jerry Mathis, Farwell FFA Advisor, concentrate on bathing this Hereford in preparation for a recent livestock show.

SHEEP PROJECT -- Boyce Brown, a fourth year FFA member at Texico School, spends much time working with this herd of sheep, which are only a small part of his sheep project which he began in 1968.

Boyce Brown Raises Sheep As FFA Project

Raising sheep is one of the various projects with which Boyce Brown has worked since becoming a member of the Texico FFA during his freshman year in high school. Boyce, a senior, has had sheep as a project since 1968 when he acquired 15 ewes and a ram to begin his project. His sheep project has reached a total of 43 animals at this time. Since acquiring the sheep Brown has shown champion animals at the Curry County Fair and at Roswell in the Eastern New Mexico Fair. In 1968 he showed the Reserve Champion at the Curry County Fair and also exhibited the second and fourth place ewes at the Roswell Fair.

the same fair and in addition took 14 second places and one third place on his fat lambs, and ewes at the Curry County Fair.

Not only does Brown have sheep as a project but he also has completed building a stock trailer and a headache rack for his pick-up in shop classes at the agriculture department at Texico School.

Last year Brown served as sentinel of the Texico FFA Chapter. He is a member of the wool judging and dairy judging teams this year. Following high school graduation, Brown plans to put to use the knowledge gained in FFA work, by farming. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown of the Pleasant Hill area and has attended Texico Schools during his entire school life.

At Home In Parmer County

By JANICE MILLER
County HD Agent

It's time for you gardeners to start planning your spring gardens. The most important thing is that you have good seed and that it is the proper variety for your area. You will also need to decide your family needs and preferences when choosing the types of vegetables and quantity of each vegetable to be planted. You will need to ask yourself if it's profitable for you to plant and care for each vegetable. But, you will also want to consider your enjoyment in a garden. The pleasure you get for your time may be well worth every penny.

Do you find yourself with extra eggs, yolks, or whites? Why not freeze them?

But don't freeze whole eggs in the shell; the water inside will expand and break the shell. Break each egg and examine it carefully. Freeze only high quality eggs.

Egg whites will freeze successfully without any additional ingredients, but egg yolks become gummy and lumpy after thawing. They will not blend well with other ingredients unless you add a stabilizer.

To prevent this change in the yolks, add a small amount of salt, sugar or other edible ingredient before freezing. Also, you may add the ingredient to whole eggs you freeze. The choice of additive depends upon the use of the eggs after thawing.

For example, add salt to yolks if you'll use later for noodles. Add sugar if eggs are used later in baked goods.

Each cup of egg yolks should be blended with one tablespoon of sugar or corn syrup or one half teaspoon salt.

Freeze eggs in the amounts that you'll use at one time.

WIN REGIONAL!

Frona Boy Wins Contest; Farwell Entrant Wins Third

Larry Johnston, Frona High School student, this week was named winner of the annual conservation essay contest sponsored by the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District.

Larry's essay, entitled "My Stake in the Natural Resources of Texas", took top honors in a field of 55 essays submitted by Parmer County students. His essay will be entered in the Texas Conservation Awards Program sponsored state-wide by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce.

Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnston of Frona. Other winners in the local contest are Jill Riethmayer, Frona, second; Leon Parker, Farwell, third; and Leslie Perkins, Frona, fourth.

District Board Chairman Leon Grissom of Bovina stated that cash prizes would be awarded the winners at appropriate school assembly programs near the end of the school year.

The contest was judged by Jim Wiman, manager of the Gifford-Hill office in Farwell.

Thirteen Enter Ladder Tourney

Thirteen players remain in the ladder tournament in progress now at Farwell Country Club, says Gene Deeds, golf pro at the club.

In contention for top prize money are Jim Lowen, first; Dan Gurley, second; Jack Wardlaw, third; and C. J. Hufaker, fourth.

Each player entering this tournament qualifies for a rung on the ladder and challenges each of the rungs above him throughout the four weeks of play. Persons on the top three rungs of the ladder at the end of play split the prize money.

Two weeks remain in tournament play with players being allowed to participate any day.

Signup In 1970 Farm Programs Going Slow

The signup under the 1970 farm programs is underway and will extend thru March 20. To say that the signup has been slow is an exaggeration according to Prentice Mills of ASCS. There has actually been practically none going on.

The signup period is almost half over and less than 10 per cent of the farms in Parmer County are signed up in any of the programs, Mills says. This means that there is going to be a "mad-rush" to the ASCS office sometime between now and March 20. That is, unless most farms stay out of the program. Farm operators should remember this, Mills pointed out: There is no automatic participation. A producer must sign up during the signup period to be eligible for program benefits.

Castor Beans on diverted acres are expalned. Eight non-surplus crops may be planted on diverted acres. These are castor beans, guar, sesame, plantago ovato, mustard seed, crambe, sunflower, and safflower. Safflower and sunflower may be planted only on the additional diverted acres (the acreage in excess of 20 per cent for feed grains and 30.3 per cent minimum for wheat) with a payment reduction of 100 per cent.

The other six crops may be planted on all diverted acres including the minimum required acres under the wheat and feed grain programs. The payment deduction for these crops will be 50 per cent of the additional payment rate applicable to the additional diversion. This 50 per cent payment reduction would apply where castor beans are planted on diverted acres.

Persons interested in planting one of these crops on his diverted acres is invited to discuss it with the people in the ASCS office. Farmers who are planning to participate in one or more of the 1970 farm programs are urged to come to the ASCS office at their earliest convenience.

Patsy Wilhite, Mike Camp Wed In Impressive Ceremony

The Lariat Church of Christ was scene for the Valentine Day wedding of Patsy Wilhite, daughter of Lariat and the late Mr. Wilhite, and Michael (Mike) Camp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Camp of Garden City, Kan. Jack Pape, minister of the Pampa Church of Christ led the couple in the exchange of vows. The double ring service was read before a setting of the memory candle on a stand, flanked at either side by large bouquets of pink gladioli.

Serving as ushers were Jay Herington, Muleshoe, and Kenneth Wilhite, serving with the army in El Paso, both cousins of the bride, and Larry Rothwell of Clovis, a close friend of the groom.

Music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. James Ensor, Mr. and Mrs. Leamon Stancell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl White, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Curtis and Clyde Powell. The group sang the traditional wedding marches and provided background music for Clyde Powell as he sang, "Whither Thou Goest" preceding the ceremony and "Bless This House," as a benediction. Following the benediction the bride and groom lit the memory candle and as they left the church presented their respective mothers with red roses.

Best man was Bill Roberts of Lubbock. Groomsman was Jack Walker of Amarillo. Both attendants are former classmates of the groom.

Rose Aquilera of Muleshoe was maid of honor. Bridesmaid was Nelda Winegar of Farwell. Both bridal attendants are former classmates of the bride. They wore floor length velvet gowns in shades of pink designed with long sleeves, empire waists and scooped necklines. They each carried a single long stemmed red rose accented by pink streamers.

The bride, escorted by her brother, Delton Wilhite, was given in marriage by her mother. She was attired in a formal wedding gown of white chantilly lace and bombazine. The moulded basque bodice of all lace featured a high-yoked neckline and long lace sleeves gathered to petal point cuffs. The bouffant skirt was accented by a cascade of scalloped lace ruffles at the front and the panners of bombazine was outlined in the scalloped lace.

Her detachable court train of bombazine, caught at the shoulderline with twin bows, was outlined in a border of lace insertion.

Her tiered veil of silk illusion fell from colonial norgay of silk lillacs highlighted by seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red and pink roses and white mums accented by streamers of light and dark pink ribbon entwined with seed pearls.

Following bridal tradition something old and borrowed was a gold wedding band belonging to the bride's great-grandmother; new was her wedding ensemble; and blue was the traditional garter. For luck she wore in her shoes pennies minted in the year of her birth and that of the groom.

Mrs. Wilhite chose a three-piece pink knit suit accented by bone accessories for her daughter's wedding. She wore a red rose corsage.

Mrs. Camp wore a two-piece pink silk shantung coat dress accented by black accessories. She also wore a red rose corsage.

Wedding guests were registered by Barbara Wilhite cousin of the bride.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding at the home of the bride's mother. The serving table was laid with a light pink lace cloth over a darker pink cloth. Centering the table was the tiered wedding cake, decorated with white sugar wedding bells and topped by a bride and groom figurine. The bride's bouquet was used on the serving table.

After the cake had been cut by the bride and groom, it was served with punch, mints and nuts. Presiding at the serving table were Ellen Herington and Cynthia Daub, cousins of the bride, and Celia Aguilera, a close friend of the bride. Napkins inscribed with the names "Pat and Mike" completed table decor. Crystal table appointments were used.

Floating hostesses were Mmes. Margaret Wilhite, Illa Ritchie, Mamie Wilhite, J. W. Herington, Lida Wilhite and Ruby Actkinson, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Soledad Aguilera, a close friend of the bride and groom.

When the couple left on a short wedding trip, Mrs. Camp wore a navy sheath dress with a navy and white houndstooth coat. Her accessories were red, white and blue. Complementing her ensemble was a red orchid corsage. The dress and coat were made by the bride's mother.

The bride, a graduate of Farwell High School and The Careers Academy of Houston, is employed by a Lubbock dentist. The groom, a graduate of Farwell High School, has attended Eastern New Mexico University and Texas Tech and is employed by Southwestern Investment Company in Lubbock.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Camp at a Muleshoe restaurant on Friday evening. Thirty guests attended the social. The decorations were made by a close friend of Mrs. Camp from Garden City, Kan.

Carolyn Helton Selected For 'Outstanding Young Women Of America'

Chris Moss, Society Editor --- Phone 481-3681

Editor's note: The following article written by Susan Lock appeared in the Fairchild, Wash., Air Force Base magazine. Mrs. Helton is the wife of Hal E. Helton and the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Helton of Texico-Farwell.

"Getting involved" isn't just a trite saying to Carolyn Helton, this year's OWC nominee to "Outstanding Young Women of America." Carolyn, wife of Air Force Lt. Hal Helton, works with seven Spokane community organizations, holds down a full-time job as a commercial artist, and still finds time to help out on OWC committees.

One of Carolyn's principal interests is Tri Delta Alumnae. She served as their Panhellenic Representative in 1967-68 and Second Vice-President a year later. Her duties have included decorating for scholarship dances, rush, and setting up a sponsor program.

Carolyn's other activities include the public relations committee of the YWCA, working occasionally as a guide at Cheney Cowles Museum and Campbell House, chairman of the Mozart Chapter of Spokane Symphony Women, and the art committee of the Spokane Club.

She graduated from the University of Tulsa as "Outstanding Student in Commercial Art," and now works for Wesleys and Stachofsky Advertising, Inc., in downtown Spokane. Along with her line of work, she belongs to the Advertising and Sales Association of Spokane and serves on the Association's high school awards committee. Carolyn explains that Mr. Wessels, her boss, encourages his employees to participate in community activities and allows them time to do so.

A few of Carolyn's accounts are Pacific National Security (she tells an amusing story of leaving the "1" out of national on all the billboards in town), Dave's Camper, Hennessey Funeral Home, Denenny's Marina, and Immaculate Heart Retreat House. A project she is currently working on is designing a milk carton for YWCA week. The carton will be used by most of the major milk distributors in town.

This is Carolyn's first job in commercial art, and she obviously enjoys it. She is the only artist on the agency's staff.

Her husband, Hal, is Fuels Officer here at Fairchild. He was a petroleum marketing major at the University of Tulsa—one of two schools in the country offering a degree in this field. Carolyn and Hal met at school.

Another interesting aspect of Carolyn's background is that in Denver there's another girl who looks exactly like her. She's an identical twin.

Carolyn may be outstanding too in that she received two nominations for this award. She was also nominated by Tri Delta Sorority.

As the award states, Carolyn deserves this honor "in recognition of her outstanding ability, accomplishments and service to her community, country, and profession."

Cassie Morgan 84 Years Young

Special guests for the meal were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ford from Clovis and Richard Herin from Cannon Air Force Base.

Mrs. Morgan was also honored for a card shower on her birthday. Several of her children and grandchildren called from across the nation to wish her a "happy birthday" and friends of the Texico-Farwell area stopped for visits during the afternoon. Mrs. John Lockhart and members of the Texico First Baptist Church Girls Auxiliary paid Mrs. Morgan a birthday visit.

PAINT . . . Protects wood and metal GOD'S WORD . . . Protects the soul

As paint protects wood and metal from decay, rust, and corrosion, so the promises found in God's word protect the soul from the evils of sin, anxiety and despair. Hear God's wonderful promises proclaimed from the pulpit in the church of your choice this Sunday. These promises so heard will accomplish wonderful things in your soul and heart, for God says of His Word, "It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Farwell School --

73 Enrolled In Agriculture Classes

Seventy-three boys are availing themselves of the opportunity of learning more about farming and all phases of agriculture by taking advantage of the program offered by the Farwell FFA. Advisors of the group are Jon Scott and Jerry Mathis.

For the first time this year the organization has a complete shop program. Boys in the various agriculture classes have spent much time in completing individual small shop projects, including scoops and feed and water troughs for use with their livestock projects.

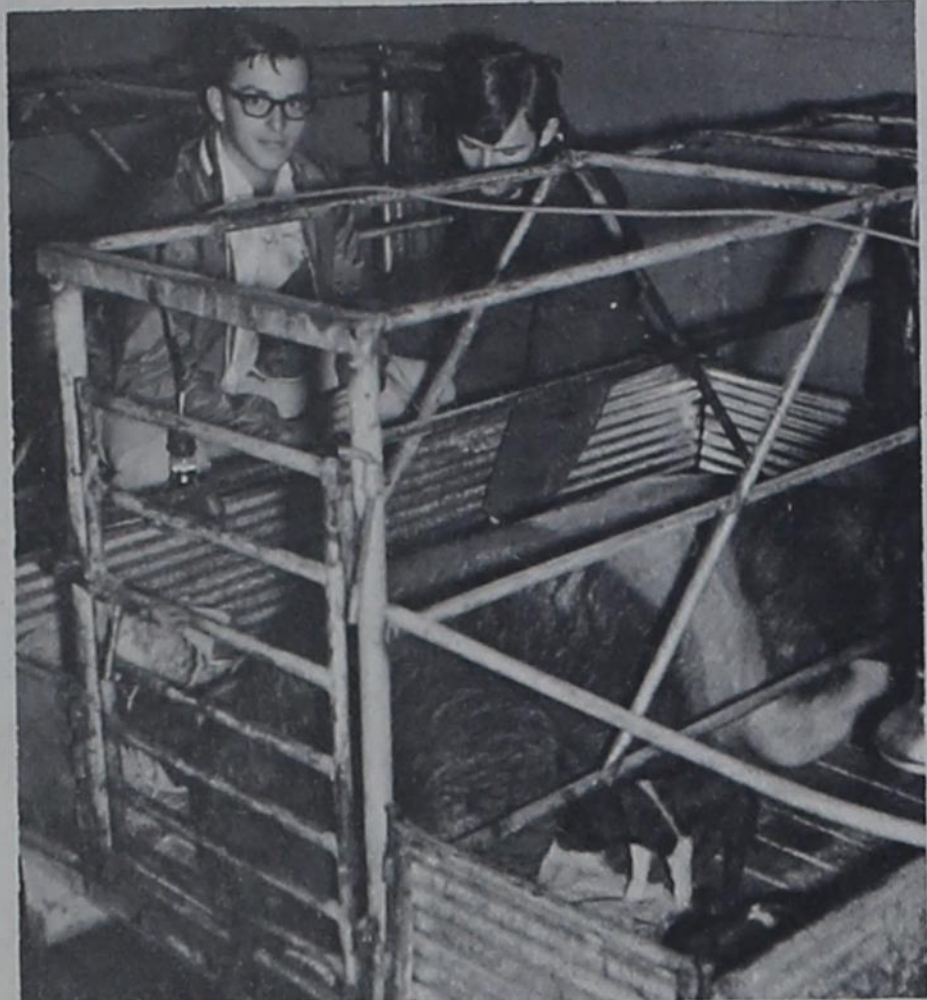

In addition, the group, directed by Jon Scott, has begun work on a "moving motel" for use by FFA members at livestock shows. The "moving motel" is a discarded moving van which is being remodeled into a livable unit complete with showers, cooking facilities and bunks for sleeping several chapter members and their sponsors. The unit, when completed, will drastically cut down on expenses of the chapter members on out-of-town trips.

Chapter members have also remodeled an Army surplus trailer into a usable unit for the school. The trailer is used by the department and also by various other school groups to move equipment and for hauling food supplies and other heavy articles.

Boys enrolled in FFA classes have various livestock projects, including sheep, swine and beef cattle. During the year the members participate in at least six livestock shows including those at Houston and El Paso. Area residents who are interested in the FFA program are invited to stop by and visit with the advisors, Jerry Mathis and Jon Scott, at the school or at the agriculture farm in east Farwell.

The money management class will be offered on Tuesday evenings from 7-9 beginning March 3 and continuing through April 28.

All one needs to do to register for one or both of the classes is to call the Texico High School office, 481-3661; Mrs. Allman at her home, 763-3549, or attend the first class.

Speaker for the event will be Dr. Charles Jarvis, well-known after dinner speaker, from San Marcos. Dr. Jarvis spoke at the local Chamber banquet several years ago, and persons who heard him at that time will testify that anyone attending the banquet this year will have a rare treat.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Chamber of Commerce for $5.00 each.

Joe Jones, who is Parmer County Easter Seal representative, stated that letters are being delivered this week in Parmer County appealing to area residents to make contributions for the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

As the county representative, Jones serves as the local contact for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also as treasurer of the Easter Seal Appeal in Farwell.

The 1970 Easter Seal Campaign will run through Easter Sunday, March 29.

Price Of School Lunches Increase In Texico

Superintendent A. D. McDonald of the Texico School announces a price increase in the school lunch program effective immediately. In making the announcement of the price increase, Superintendent McDonald said, "We had hoped to be able to keep the cost of school lunches at the same level for the remainder of the school year. However, with the increasing cost in price of groceries plus a wage raise for all lunchroom employees, a raise in the price of lunches has become necessary."

The price of lunches has been increased for all students by five cents (this also includes all reduced price lunches). Adult lunches have been increased from 40¢ to 50¢ per meal.

The change in the lunch price becomes effective Friday, Feb. 27.

Bruce Ayres To Appear On Ted Mack Show

Bruce Ayres, son-in-law of Mrs. Edith Blair of Farwell, will appear on national television in the near future on the Ted Mack Original Amateur Hour Show.

Ayres was selected from among men talent acts which auditioned recently in Lubbock. Ayres is choral director in Morton High School. The Original Amateur Hour is seen in this area on Channel 12. It has been a regular feature of radio and television for over 30 years and has been the birthplace of such stars as Teresa Brewer, Jack Carter, and Frank Sinatra. The show usually originates in New York and is seen on Sunday afternoons.

Post Office Department Announces Home Delivery

Postmasters of both Farwell and Texico said this week that a new order from Postmaster General W. M. Blount will mean substantial improvements in mail delivery service. Blount has advised the local postmasters of provisions of a new order making home delivery services available for the first time to 4 million Americans.

The expansion of services should be virtually complete in all of the affected delivery service areas - under actions taken by postal regional offices, acting on recommendations of local postmasters - by February 1, 1971.

The show on which Ayres is appearing will originate in Dallas and will be taped on March 4 to be shown at a later date. Ayres' performance for the audition was an original yodel number and he will probably use the same number for the national program. He is already well-known in this area for his quality entertainment and ability and has written several musical compositions.

The service improvement applies to persons served out of 18,700 first, second and third class post offices over the country that do not have city delivery services. Affected are those postal customers living more than a quarter mile away from these offices and less than half a mile away. Persons living less than half a mile away previously had not been provided this service.

It will be accomplished principally by adding delivery stops to already existing rural delivery routes, or by expanding the area served by some shorter rural route for the purpose, and a limited number of new rural routes may also be needed in other instances.

To get this new service it is only necessary that those living in the eligible areas ask their postmasters to provide it, and a majority of those to be served must want the home service. Under Blount's order, those living less than a quarter mile from the post office will continue to pick up their mail at these offices.

The fact that few persons will be calling at the post offices for their mail will not alter the independent status of any of the post offices where the service change is provided.

Troop 179 Attends Calvary Baptist Church

Although Mrs. Buddy (Aileen) Pearce has never climbed the highest mountain, written a book or done many of various other things which would be called outstanding in the eyes of the world, she has spent most of her adult life working with young people assisting them in working out many of their problems and guiding them to richer, fuller lives.

Aileen was born in Wheeler, Tex., and is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denver May, former Texico residents, who now make their home in Pomona, Calif. Aileen attended school in Wheeler until she reached the junior high level at which time she moved to Texico with her parents. She continued her education at the Texico School and completed work in that school, receiving a diploma of graduation in the late 1940's.

Following high school graduation, she moved with her parents to California and attended Mt. San Antonio Junior College at Pomona. However, in 1949 she returned to Texico to marry her high school sweetheart Buddy Pearce. Since that time she has made her home on a farm northwest of Texico.

The Peaces have four children; Rodney, a sophomore at Wayland College, Danny, a junior at Texico High School; and twin daughters Jo and Kim, freshmen at the same school.

Aileen is active in the Texico Baptist Church where the family maintains its membership. She is director of the Young People's Training Union on Sunday evenings; is superintendent of the adult division of the Sunday School; is substitute teacher for the young adult women's class, and also for the junior girls Sunday School class; is YWA (Young Women's Association) counselor; and sings in the church choir.

She is also a member of the Texico Woman's Club and the Texico Parent-Teacher Association. She has served in most offices of the PTA and is presently serving as its finance chairman. Aileen also participates in all school functions which involve any of her children and many of the young people with whom she works at church.

In addition to leading a full life in her home, at the church and school, she also finds time to serve on many committees which involve young people. Each summer she is coach of one of the girls' softball teams in Texico-Farwell.

Among the hobbies of this energetic homemaker are sewing, cooking and "puttering." Her "puttering" consists on most occasions of doing something to add to the attractiveness of her home. "I am always finding ideas to re-decorate" she said, adding that she finds her husband an able ally in these projects. She has recently completed painting the entire interior of her home.

On the day this reporter visited with Aileen she was busily engaged in making poncho capes and dressy dresses for her daughters for a special occasion at their school.

Aileen confides that although she does not cook as much as she would like due to weight problems in the family, she does find cooking for company and special occasions a great joy. The family has many favorite foods and when preparing a special occasion dinner Aileen has many suggestions from family members as to which foods they prefer.

Included in their favorite food selections are the following recipes:

SNOWBALLS
1 cup powdered sugar
6 tablespoons butter
1 egg yolk
1 tall can crushed pineapple
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 egg white, beaten
Cream sugar and butter, add egg yolk, pineapple, and nuts. Fold in beaten egg white.

Into a large dish place a layer of vanilla wafers. Cover with layer of the above ingredients. Continue alternating layers until all of mixture is used. Refrigerate overnight or at least four hours. Remove from refrigerator and frost with whipped cream. Sprinkle coconut over whipped cream and garnish with cherries. Return to refrigerator for an additional four hours before serving. Makes sufficient servings for 15 people.

BARBECUE SAUCE
2 packages of powdered onion soup
1 cup vinegar
1/2 cup mustard garlic powder (to taste)
onion powder (to taste)
1 teaspoon chili powder
pepper and salt (as desired)
1 cup brown sugar
2 cans tomato paste
1 bottle catsup
2 cans tomato sauce
1/2 cup Worcestershire sauce
2 cups water
Mix all ingredients and cook until mixture thickens. Place in large containers and store in refrigerator until ready for use. The sauce is equally good with all types of meat.
