FHS Homecoming, Coronation Scheduled At 2:45 P.M. Today

by Patti Hall

As the years roll by the Senior and Freshman classes of 1974-75 at Farwell High School will long remember this week for it has truly been their week. The seniors for it is the last homecoming week during which they will be hosting ex-students, and the freshman, for it is their week of initiation.

Activities for the 1974 event began last Friday as senior students drew for their freshmen to guide and direct for one week along the stalwart path of freshmanhood to a day of high school adulthood to be climaxed by Dress Up Day today (Friday) and the coronation of the 1974 Homecoming Queen and Beau.

Homecoming Week got underway Monday with the first phase of initiation. During the week the freshmen have been instructed by their seniors to portray various characters and participate in other initiation methods which have been instituted. Kid Day was Monday with the freshmen reverting a few years only to have to speed up time for Tuesday which was designated Old Persons Day.

Wednesday, Animal Day, the Farwell campus was overrun by lopsided animals of all species trying to arrange their beings in the classrooms in comfortable gentlemanly and lady-like positions. Tacky Day was slated for Thursday with the week ending with Dress Up Day when everyone joined in and became ladies and gentlemen for the final day of Homecoming Week.

Friday (today) in itself will be a day jam-packed with events marking the celebration of Homecoming. Homecoming Queen candidates and Pep Club Beau candidates were announced early during the week with coronation scheduled for 2:45 p.m. today in the gymnasium and the Steers will be hosting the O'Donnell Eagles tonight for the playing of the 1974 Farwell Homecoming game.

Candidates for Football Queen are Lisa Kittrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Kittrell, senior candidate; Sheryl Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carliss Woods, junior candidate; Kathy Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Toby Booth, sophomore candidate; Penny Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hughes, freshman candidate; and Joi Meeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Meeks, candidate-at-large.

Pep Club Beau candidates are Mark Haseloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haseloff, senior candidate; Brad Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones, junior candidate; Joe Haseloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haseloff, sophomore candidate; Russ Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones, freshman candidate; and Charles Christian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Christian, candidate-at-large.

Spirit raising began the first of the week as the halls of Farwell schools were covered with posters promoting spirit and victory for the Steers. The victory spirit moved through the school and to fans when an O'Donnell Eagle was to be burned in effigy Thursday at 8 p.m. before a crowd of ex-students, townspeople, students, Farwell Steers, cheerleaders, Pep Club members and the Farwell High School Band. During coronation ceremonies this afternoon the bubbling of the victory spirit will be calmed for a short time as the Homecoming Queen and Beau for 1974 will be announced. Following the crowning, a spirit rally will once again release the ever-rising cries of "Go! Fight! Win!" The general public, which includes all Steer supporters and ex-students, is invited to join Farwell students in giving their full support to the Steers.

Fans can prepare themselves for an exciting evening of football by stocking up on food energy at a Chili Supper set to begin at 5:30 p.m. in Farwell School cafeteria prior to the Steer-Eagle game. The meal is being sponsored by the Farwell Senior Class.

The final event culminating the week of Homecoming activities will be the playing of the Homecoming football game beginning at 8 o'clock tonight in Steer Stadium. The Steers will be facing the O'Donnell Eagles and are prepared to make the 1974 Homecoming game "a victory for FHS."

Heart Equipment Demonstration Viewed By City Commissioners

Dr. Jerry Don Gregory appeared before Farwell City Commissioners Monday at their regular meeting at City Hall to demonstrate and discuss the uses of the Datascope MD2, a heart monitoring device that aids in diagnosing and treating heart patients.

The machine has a defibrillating system that can be used to administer an electric shock to heart patients in extreme emergencies, according to Dr. Gregory. Through the use of the system, the onset of a heart attack can be more readily diagnosed and appropriate medical treatment can be begun immediately.

The machine is portable and can be taken to the scene of emergencies, commented Dr. Gregory. The machine can be hooked up to a telephone system that will be connected to the offices of heart specialists, Dr. William H. Gordon and Dr. Samuel M. King, 4010 22nd, Lubbock. Immediate information and an EKG report can be obtained from the Lubbock specialists and advice on treatment and handling of patients will be available on the spot.

City Commissioners desire the opinions of all interested citizens as to whether the city of Farwell should purchase the equipment for city use or if it should be handled on a voluntary public subscription basis or a combination of both. Interested persons should register their feelings with the Farwell City Clerk, either by telephone or in writing.

If the city acquires the device, the machine will be the property of the community and will remain with the community in the event that Dr. Gregory should leave Farwell. The machine will be kept at Dr. Gregory's clinic for the doctor's use in diagnosing and treating patients.

The machine, with its component parts, is estimated to cost approximately $4,000, according to Dr. Gregory.

In other business, Ted Abrahamson of Amarillo, a consulting engineer, met with Commissioners to discuss traffic flow and patterns in the city of Farwell. He noted that there were 86 signs on 45 intersections within the city and stated that yield signs were preferred to stop signs.

He stated that the signs need to be seven feet above the ground for easy viewing by (Continued on Page 3)

Steers Slated To Clash With O'Donnell Tonight

The Farwell Steers will be playing host to the O'Donnell Eagles during action tonight (Friday) at Steer Stadium as they take on their fourth opponents of the season during Farwell's 1974 Homecoming game. Game time has been set for 8 p.m.

The Steers will be going into action tonight with a season record of no wins, two losses and one tie game and hopes of overcoming their opponents and putting their first win on the record books.

According to Farwell Head Coach Eugene Jennings, "O'Donnell has a real good ball club. They are both large and fast. The Eagles have a backfield which should be as good as there is in the state in Class A."

In elaborating on the Eagles, Jennings cited several players. "O'Donnell has David Pierce, a 210 lb. senior halfback, Scotty Childress, a 210 lb. fullback, Dean Mott, 170 lb. halfback, and Brwyn Rains, a 190 lb. halfback and end. These boys ran on the sprint relay team that went to state last year. Benny Hancock is a 170 lb. junior who plays quarterback and throws real good. Morris Sanchez is a 230 pounder who anchors the Eagle line and Bobby Follis, a 185 lb. sophomore, is a real good lineman."

Coach Jennings stated that the Steers will be giving away a lot of weight to O'Donnell. "The Eagles run out of a stack-four defense with a multiplied offense. They are capable of scoring from anywhere on the field or at any time due to their speed and size."

According to the coach, O'Donnell has suffered key injuries all year and have played games with three or four of their men out. "But," said Jennings, "all of the Eagles will be in the game tonight." The Steers will be looking for the Eagles to use the pass during tonight's game and Jennings said they expect O'Donnell to "run outside alot."

"For us to win," he stated, "our boys are going to have to cut down on mental errors and have an overall good team effort," continuing, "during the past two weeks our injuries have consisted of Mike Goetsch who pulled a muscle and Jay Alana who has been suffering from the flu." The coach's outlook is to have all players suited out and ready to go at game time tonight.

Homecoming activities were to kick off with a bonfire last night (Thursday) at 8 p.m. with the freshman-sponsored bonfire and pep rally held south of the school buildings.

Today a spirit rally is slated for 2:45 p.m. in the gymnasium during which the 1974 Homecoming Queen and Beau will be crowned.

Everyone is urged to attend the spirit rally, coronation and game tonight and urge the Steers to a Homecoming victory against the O'Donnell Eagles.

HEART EQUIPMENT DEMONSTRATED - Dr. Jerry Don Gregory appeared before Farwell City Commissioners Monday evening at their regular meeting to demonstrate and discuss the uses of the Datascope MD2, a heart monitoring device that aids in diagnosing and treating heart patients. Assisting Dr. Gregory is "heart patient" Clay Williams and observing the procedure are Mayor Gil Patschke, city attorney Charles Aycock and Commissioner Fred Chandler. The Commission desires the opinion of interested Farwell residents as to whether the city of Farwell should purchase the equipment or if it should be handled on a voluntary public subscription basis or a combination of both. Persons interested in this equipment should register their opinion with the Farwell City Clerk, either by telephone or in writing.

District Clash - -

Texico To Take On Ft. Sumner

Following a "fantastic" shut-out of the Melrose Buffaloes last Friday, the Wolverines of Texico High School will be invading Fox territory as they travel to Ft. Sumner to take on their first district opponents of the 1974 football season tonight (Friday).

"We suffered no injuries in last Friday's game and all our boys will be ready to go tonight," said Texico Head Coach Ray Manly. "Our first district opponents are big and quick but they aren't fast and there is a difference. The Foxes are fast for about the first five or ten yards of a run but then they slow down."

Texico's greatest advantage over the Foxes will be speed, according to the coach. "We are basically faster than Ft. Sumner. As far as size is concerned, I believe the teams are comparable although Ft. Sumner may have a very slight edge size-wise."

Manly related that Texico and Ft. Sumner have played three of the same teams so far this season. "In the three games, there wasn't a great deal of difference in the final scores."

Texico will be facing four district opponents in competition this year: Ft. Sumner, Jal, Eunice and Dexter. Manly commented that Jal will be the Wolverines' toughest district opponent followed by Eunice, Dexter, then Ft. Sumner.

"We can take all of these district games if things go right and we play well," he stated. "Ft. Sumner will be our weakest opponent and if we play like we did against Melrose we'll have no trouble." The coach commented that the Wolverines went into last Friday's game with a fantastic mental attitude. "We were ready mentally and physically against Melrose. When we took the field we told them who was boss and this is what we will have to do against our remaining opponents. We can take all of them if we get our mental attitude right."

Game time has been slated for 7:30 p.m. MDT in Fox Stadium at Ft. Sumner.

Texico game activities will begin at 3:15 in the new

Several 4-H members will be on the program presenting highlights of the 4-H year. Recognition and certificates will be given to 4-H leaders who have worked with members of the six clubs in Parmer gymnasium when the Texico cheerleaders will lead all fans, students, administrators and Wolverine supporters in a spirit-raising pep rally.

Coaches Manly and Kenneth Shaw and all Wolverine football players urge everyone to turn out in force for the pep rally and the game tonight to support their home team in a victory against their first district foes of the season.

The 4-H Council has made the basic plans for the banquet with Miss Pronger and Heald finalizing arrangements. Sponsors for the banquet are the Deaf Smith County Electric Co-op and the Bailey County Electric Co-op.

Members of the Farwell 4-H Club met in Miss Pronger's office at the Parmer County Court House Wednesday, Oct. 2, to make posters publicizing National 4-H Week.

Volleyball Girls Post Three Wins

The Junior High, B Team and Varsity girls volleyball teams of Texico posted three wins as they met opponents in action Tuesday, Sept. 24, and Thursday, Sept. 28.

In action against Elida Tuesday Texico's Junior High Volleyballers won two out of three games to claim one win for the home team during the day's action. Texico bested Elida 9-15, 15-1 and 15-9.

During further action against Elida, Texico's Varsity fell victim to their opponents 15-7 and 15-0 for a record book loss.

Thursday, Texico walked off the court with two wins and one loss with the Varsity and B Team putting their first wins of the season on the books.

The Varsity downed Floyd 15-11, 14-16 and 15-7 for their win while the B Team came out on top 11-15, 15-6 and 15-11. Also competing with Floyd, the Junior High volleyball team suffered a loss 15-0, 10-15 and 14-16.

Coach Eldon Smith remarked, "I have some good players and they are improving as time goes on. I am having to start from the bottom to teach my new technique."

The coach further commented, "With district, regional and state contests coming up, we're going to have to really work hard to stay in the running."

The volleyballers will be meeting their next opponents Thursday, Oct. 10, as they travel to Dora to compete. Game time has been scheduled for 6 p.m. MDT and everyone is urged to attend the games.

Rhea 4-H Club Elects Officers

Mrs. Truman McKillip, Parmer County representative of the Texas Home Demonstration Association, invites any interested person who wants information on activities of home demonstration clubs to telephone her at 481-9139.

Home demonstration clubs offer many varied, interesting and informative programs, Mrs. McKillip states, as well as crafts. The clubs serve both as learning and social organizations, she said.

Wolverines Of The Week

When a football squad plays an "almost perfect football game" you don't single out players for recognition and the entire Texico Wolverine team has been selected as "Wolverines of the Week" by Head Coach Ray Manly. "Our boys did a fantastic job and I couldn't ask for a better performance stated Manly. In commenting on individual players, Manly awarded honorable mentions to Wolverines James Steward, offensive player, Roger Pace, defensive man, and Steve Harrington, both offensive and defensive recognition. According to the coach, "Steward gained over 260 yards on offense and Pace caused four fumbles and we recovered one for a touchdown. Melrose tried to burn Harrington deep but he managed to work out from under and caused a pass interception by Sammy West."

Texico Gridder Injured During Practice Session

Tommy Galvan, student at Texico High School and a Wolverine football player, was injured during a practice session at the school Thursday, Sept. 26.

According to Ray Manly, Wolverine coach, Tommy twisted as he kicked the football and complained of an injury. The Texico Fire Department emergency vehicle was summoned to the football field, and transported the gridder to the office of Dr. Jerry Don Gregory in Farwell.

Following examination by Dr. Gregory, Tommy was taken by the Texico emergency vehicle to Clovis for x-rays. Coach Manly stated that Tommy suffered no broken ribs, but he had pulled a muscle loose along his ribcage.

Tommy missed the Texico at Melrose football game on Sept.

27, but Coach Manly said he should be playing "three-quarter effective against Ft. Sumner" Friday, (tonight, at Ft. Sumner). "It should be about two weeks before he will be back to full strength," Coach Manly said.

Tommy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galvan.

Buffaloes Herded In 36-0 Shut-Out

by Rusty Rucker

The lights went out at Melrose Friday night during the last two minutes of the Texico-Melrose game but for the Buffaloes the lights had been out since the first of the game. Texico dimmed Melrose's hopes 36-0.

The Wolverines picked up their first touchdown in the first minute of the game when Kevin Stanley picked up a Buffalo fumble and ran it back for a touchdown. James Steward ran the extra point which put the Wolverines in the lead 8-0.

The Buffaloes couldn't seem to pick up any yardage against the Wolverines and were forced to punt. After a series of first downs, Steward tore loose and ran to the three-yard line. With 47 seconds left in the first quarter Roger Pace forced his way across the line for Texico's second TD of the game. The PAT was no good and the first quarter ended with the Wolverines leading, 14-0.

In second quarter action, the Buffaloes couldn't get a grip on the ball and fumbled but Melrose's Lonnie Scott picked it up and ran toward the Wolverine end zone only to be halted by the Wolverines. It was not enough for a first down and the Buffs were forced to punt. The ball went out of bounds at Texico's 20-yard line and the Wolverines worked it back down the field until Sammy West crossed the goal line for another Wolverine TD. PAT failed again and the Wolverines led 20-0 at half.

In second half action, Melrose held the Wolverines until they were forced to punt. The Buffaloes didn't have the ball long before Sammy West intercepted a pass and ran to the Buffs' 35-yard line. After two Wolverine plays Steve Harrington ran 20 yards for another TD. Steward ran for the PAT and put the Wolverines ahead eight more points. Upon receiving the kick the Buffaloes completed a pass and gained a first down. However, on the following play the Buffs fumbled and Texico recovered.

The Wolverines moved the ball to the Melrose 21-yard line, but a penalty moved them back to the 30. Pace then made his second touchdown of the game. Once again Steward was credited with a successful PAT which ended the third quarter 36-0, Texico.

Strong wind and blowing dirt ended the fourth quarter two minutes early when the lights went out at Buffalo Stadium as power lines toppled over. The Wolverines had control of the ball the entire fourth period but did not score again. Both teams found movement hampered by the wind.

"I was very pleased with the game. Our boys played an almost perfect ball game. It was just an absolutely fantastic job," stated Texico Head Coach Ray Manly in commenting on last Friday's game. "I couldn't ask for a better performance. It was a great job by the whole team."

Texico held a slight advantage over Melrose as the Wolverines were a "shade faster and a little bigger than the Buffaloes," Manly related. "We rolled over 520 total offensive yards against Melrose. Our offense clicked like something else."

James Steward gained over 260 yards on offense for the Wolverines which earned him recognition by the coach along with Roger Pace. "Pace caused four fumbles and we recovered one for a touchdown," Manly commented, continuing, "Great defensive play was accomplished by our defense. Both our offensive and defensive lines controlled the running attack and put holes in the Melrose defensive line."

The coach further stated, "Texico's defensive secondary did and outstanding job. We only had one pass completed on us and Steve Harrington is to be commended on his effort. Melrose tried to burn Harrington deep but he managed to work out from under them and caused a pass interception by Sammy West."

The Wolverines suffered no injuries during last Friday night's game and all Wolverines will be on the field tonight (Friday) as Texico meets the Ft. Sumner Foxes in the first Texico district clash of the season.

Game time will be 7:30 p.m. MDT in Fox Stadium and the coaches and players urge everyone to attend the game tonight.

IF AT FIRST YOU DON'T SUCCEED, try, try again was the motto of the Melrose Buffaloes as they tried to contain the Wolverines running game during action last Friday at Wolverine Stadium. But, alas, their efforts were all in vain as the Wolverines handed the Buffaloes a 36-0 defeat. Texico's win was well deserved as they executed such plays as this end sweep by Steve Harrington, no. 10, Texico's quarterback. On the play to give assistance to Harrington was Sammy West, no. 42.

Phillips Calls Nine For First Place Pay

With Glen Phillips calling nine games correctly in the fourth week of the Area Merchants Football Contest and being closest on the tie-breaker and Brad Jones sliding in to take second place, the name Taylor appeared twice in the winning column.

When the scores were tallied following football action this week, Phillips, along with 19 other persons, had correctly predicted the outcome of nine games on the entry blank. When tie-breaker scores were figured, a 14 point miscalculation garnered first place for Phillips, with Jones following in second place with 21 points off on the tie-breaker. A third place split occurred when both Jack Taylor and Greg Taylor predicted tie-breaker scores which were both 22 points off the mark. For their efforts the weekly winners were awarded prize monies of $5, $3 and the third place split netted the Taylors 50 cents each.

Others boasting nine correct guesses are Pam Erwin, Dodie Actkinson, Jenoyce Ford, Dennis Gerber, Elsie Hawkins, John Scott, Beulah Williams, Jerry Mathis, Jo Walker, Mona Hardage, Charles Hargrove, Kim Marsh, Kristy Chandler, Ray Norton, Linda Gerries and Shawn Smith.

With this week's tallies entered in the season record book only one person is now resting in the first place slot for the Grand Prize of two tickets to the 1975 New Year's Day Cotton Bowl game to be played in Dallas. Leading with 31 points is Missy Taylor, followed by eight persons with 30 points to their credit. Third place slot is now shared by 11 persons who have 29 points.

Among those in second place are Kristy Chandler, Mona Hardage, Brad Jones, Irene Jones, Jerry Mathis, Billy Meeks, Glenn Phillips and Mae Porter.

Third place callers are Bill Boling, Paul Brigham, Charles Didway, Pam Erwin, Becky Taylor, Kim Watkins, Don Gerries, David Norton, Erasmo Rodriguez, Jim Rogers and Jack Taylor.

With the fifth week of the contest kicking off today, new entries are being received each week upping the total number of entries in the contest to 401 thus far. Eleven new entries were received this week proving that it is never too late to get in the running for the weekly prizes and setting your sites on the Grand Prize and Second Prize.

With only one point separating first and second places it is still anyone's contest, so why not pick up an entry blank and begin your bid for the prizes. Entrants must be 12 years of age or older and entries must be in the Tribune office the Friday afternoon of the contest. If mailed, a Friday postmark must appear on the entry before it will be considered for scoring.

CALLS NINE TO WIN - Nineteen persons called nine games correctly in the fourth week of the Area Merchants Football Contest but Glenn Phillips was the most accurate in predicting the tie-breaker score to take the first place weekly prize of $5. Following Phillips in second place was Brad Jones, who received $3, with Jack Taylor and Greg Taylor both predicting a tie-breaker score which was 22 points off the share third place prize money of $1. Phillips was presented his first place prize by W. D. Nicewarner of Pay 'N Save, a sponsor of the 12-week contest.

Drivers Cited In Texico Accident

A two-vehicle accident in Texico Wednesday, Sept. 25, resulted in citations being issued to both drivers and damages to both cars between $500 and $600, according to the investigating officer, Texico Marshal Mickey Fenn.

W.B. Perkins, 63 of Texico, was cited by Marshal Fenn for failure to yield right of way and for having no driver's license. The other driver, Ruben Castillo Jr., 17, of Farwell, received a citation for having no driver's license. According to Marshal Fenn, Perkins pulled out from Garwood onto Wheeler and was hit broadside by the Castillo vehicle. Neither driver was injured in the mishap.

The accidental death total in 1973 was 17,000, which was virtually the same as in 1972, according to the National Safety Council. There were 11.5 million disabling injuries, the Council says, and the total costs of accidents amounted to $41.5 billion.

drivers. The cost of beaded reflector signs is $15.15 for each sign, he said. Commissioner Jim Berry moved to suspend the traffic study until after a comprehensive plan is presented to City Commissioners by the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission.

Commissioners accepted a bid of $3,505.15 from Doc Stewart Pick-up for a 1975 model Chevrolet for the city. Other bidders were Big Country Ford, $3,544.51; Reeve Chevrolet in Friona, $3,597.00; and Friona Motors, $3,598.00.

Mayor Gil Patschke read a letter from Earnest R. Clark of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission offering guidance to the city of Farwell in municipal planning. Commissioners accepted the PRPC offer for assistance.

Farwell city attorney Charles Aycock was authorized to prepare an ordinance controlling advertising signs in Farwell. The ordinance is to be presented to Commissioners for study and action at their next regular meeting.

Aycock was also authorized to take the necessary action to have removed a mobile home on Avenue A, which is in violation of the city fire ordinance.

The city agreed to pay Lynn Mahaney the sum of $35.00 for damages to property caused by city employees.

The Municipal Retirement System was discussed with Commissioners noting the need for a representative from Austin to explain the system. The City Council is in favor of the program and authorized the request of financial figures from Austin for further consideration.

Commissioners approved the cancellation of the present group health insurance for city employees.

A letter was read from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department regarding money available for a grant for improvements to the Farwell city park. The letter stated that it would be a long time before money would be available, so perhaps it would be better for the city to handle improvements.

Attending the meeting was Clay Williams, a representative from Mrs. Frances Boling's sixth grade social studies class at Farwell Junior High School. Mrs. Boling's class had interviewed Mayor Patschke for a special project, and he in turn invited a class representative to attend a City Commission meeting to observe first-hand government in action.

City officials attending the meeting were Mayor Gil Patschke, Commissioner Jim Berry, Commissioner Fred Chandler and city attorney Charles Aycock and city clerk Janie Bowery.

Guests at the meeting included Lee Hutchins, Don Williams, Clay Williams, Ted Abrahamson, John Getz and Dr. Jerry Don Gregory.

Weather tolerance helps fill ears from butt to tip

You can almost guess it's Weather Master by those tightly-packed, well-filled ears. Weather Master breeding selects for characteristics that promote complete ear development; weather tolerance to assure pollination even in hot dry weather, and a root system that draws moisture from as deep as five feet to provide good nutrient uptake during ear filling. You can't count on perfect growing seasons, so plant the sure ones—Weather Master hybrids. Bred to beat the weather, disease and insects.

DOES YOUR FERTILIZER CONTAIN SULPHUR?

Smith Douglass Pelleform does!

You used to take sulfur for granted. You can't afford to anymore. Environmental controls have reduced the amount of sulfur in the air. You don't get carry-over you once did from sulfur dust insecticides and fungicides. How can you economically furnish sulfur to your crop? Use Smith-Douglass Pelleform. It gives you not only nitrogen, phosphorus and potash but sulfur...plus Trel, Smith-Douglass' exclusive formula of trace elements. And it's all combined in every clean, green pellet. Pelleform's easy handling, even spreading. Rely on Pelleform Bermuda Booster to produce high-yielding pasture. The sulfur in Bermuda Booster is important to cattle. The Texas Plant Food Institute Newsletter reports that sulfur helps control nitrate accumulation to minimize losses from grass tetany and nitrate poisoning. Pelleform comes in a special analysis for peanuts. Extra amounts of calcium and potash help produce good yields of firm, heavy, high-quality nuts. You'll like Pelleform. It's the kind of complete and balanced fertilizer you need to make money from farming today. Talk to your Smith-Douglass man! Smith-Douglass makes the growing greater!

Recollections Of Four Years Among The Navajos

by Kay Williamson

Through the news media, many persons have become aware of the plight of the American Indian - the new militancy confronting old traditions, alcoholism, disease, poverty, naive to the white man's culture, boredom, poor housing, government dole programs which discourage initiative, etc.

A new resident to Farwell has first-hand knowledge of the many problems confronting the American Indians with experience as a social worker on the vast Navajo reservation in western New Mexico. Mrs. James (Lir ia) Mast, along with her husband and son, moved to Farwell the last part of July.

Mrs. Mast worked for the New Mexico Health and Social Services Department as a case worker on the Navajo reservation. Her husband, James, is the vocational agricultural instructor at Farwell High School. The couple has one child, son Brent, who is eight years old and a third grader at Farwell Elementary School.

The Mast family spent four years working with the Navajos. She, as a case worker, assisted with financial assistance and worked the aid to dependent children, old-age assistance and aid to the handicapped programs. Mrs. Mast determined the applicants' eligibility for welfare. Mast taught welding, mechanics and agriculture at the public high school in Crown Point, beginning in 1970 and continuing until the family moved to Farwell this summer.

Prior to actually beginning her job, Mrs. Mast trained in Gallup and in the surrounding area for two months. She worked with many different groups of people including Spanish, Anglo, Negro and the Navajo families who lived in town.

Following completion of her training period, Mrs. Mast was assigned to the Crown Point area, where she and her family lived in school housing. She could not speak the Navajo language, so she was assigned an interpreter to accompany her on interviews.

Both Mrs. Mast and the interpreter were assigned a 4-wheel drive vehicle to traverse the vast primitive areas of the reservation. What roads were there were extremely rough, the trails were worse and, more often than not, the pair headed out cross country and canyon to conduct their interviews.

Frequently the roads would wash out, and at times maneuvering through intense snow storms became almost impossible. With a case load of 144 cases, Mrs. Mast had to keep current with her deadlines, so quite often she would have to go out in the worst weather to visit persons needing financial assistance.

Although many of the Navajos live under abject poverty conditions, Mrs. Mast says, "They are, at times, some of the happiest people I have ever seen on this earth." The government has given them their land, Mrs. Mast says, and they are free to do their silver work or make rugs or raise sheep.

Mrs. Mast commented that the Navajo reservation land is too poor to support extensive farming, but many of the Indians engage in raising sheep. "Their main diet is mutton stew with fry bread," she said. The older women shear the sheep, cord the wool, dye it and make rugs or articles of clothing.

One of the most interesting contradictions on the reservation, Mrs. Mast said, was the modern and the old side by side. The government has built new modern housing, but an abundant supply of hogans (the octagonal traditional type of Navajo housing) still dots the reservation.

Even with the new federal housing, the older Indians still prefer to live in the hogans, Mrs. Mast said, and use the new housing for storage. Giving way somewhat to more modern ways, the open top of the hogans constructed to let the open pit smoke escape has been replaced by wood stoves with a vent pipe extending out the smoke hole.

Electricity, running water, central heating and sanitary facilities are still a rarity on the reservation, with electricity being available only close to town.

Another startling contrast lies between the older people, who still cling to the traditional ways, and the young Indians, who are becoming more militant and liberated. "Many of the young people are going to college," Mrs. Mast says, "and a lot work for the Bureau of Indian Affairs." They have accepted a more modern way of life. However, "their grandparents still live with the old ways," she says.

Mrs. Mast views the main problem of the Navajos as a lack of initiative. "This is caused by the government coming in and giving them too much," she says. "The government treats the Indians like helpless children rather than letting them stand on their own two feet." Resulting problems, she says, from being given too much are "alcoholism and poverty" among the Navajos. "However, one is overcome by the complexity of their problems for which there are no easy answers," she concludes.

Every year more young Indian people are becoming educated to care about the quality of their lives, Mrs. Mast stated, and hopefully, through educational programs now available, they will come to value themselves and their lives.

Another study in contrast,

Mrs. Mast explained, was one of her interpreters. He was intelligent, fairly well-educated, and could do fine silver work, yet he firmly believed in the Indian medicine man as a cure for illness.

His wife worked in public health on the reservation and brought information on health, sanitation, birth control, etc., to the Indians, yet they still held the traditional medicine man in high esteem and would go to him for assistance.

Mrs. Mast related numerous experiences of her four years at Crown Point. One particularly concerned the family's attendance at a squaw dance held to make a sick person well again. The squaw dance was held out in the open spaces in a box canyon in the pitch black of night. There were no lights except the campfire. The men gathered around the sick person's hogan and began chanting. "The cadence, sounds and darkness gave us an eerie feeling," commented Mrs. Mast.

She pointed out that these "sings" take place on three separate nights in three different locations. One is held at the home. Ideally, then the person is supposed to get well "and they do," said Mrs. Mast. "Of course, it's psychological," she quickly adds.

Children entering the public school in Crown Point and the government boarding school for younger Indian children often encounter language problems. "Navajo is a hard language to learn," said Mrs. Mast, "and the parents and grandparents don't speak English." Until recent years the Navajo language was a spoken language with no written alphabet. Therefore, there was no way for the children to learn to read and write their native language.

With the advent of an alphabet for the Navajo language, the children, who have long been accustomed to hearing the spoken Navajo, are entering a new world of learning to read and write in the language.

"I wouldn't take anything for those four years we spent with the Navajos," says Mrs. Mast. "The things we learned about their people and culture were invaluable. I also like to think that we did some service."

The Indian influence is reflected in the Mast home in Farwell. Two impressive black ink drawings in the Indian style are on one living room wall and on the opposite wall are two Indian sand paintings done by John Begay. One sand painting features the insignia of the FFA, and is rare because it does not have an Indian theme. The other utilizes a traditional Indian type subject. Mrs. Mast also has an unusual collection of Indian pottery handles mounted on bricks.

Perhaps the most beautiful item she has is an Indian doll costumed in the traditional costume dress of the Navajo women. The dress is of red velvet and is complete with a concho belt and turquoise beads. The doll was made by Kay Bennett, and won first prize at the Bi-County Fair at Prewitt, N.M. Mrs. Bennett has written several books on the Navajos and she sings the traditional Navajo songs at the New Mexico State Fair.

The Masts ended their four-year stay at Crown Point for several reasons. They wanted to be closer to their families, he wanted to complete work on his master's degree at New Mexico State University in Las Cruces, and because of the increasing racial violence on the reservation and their concern for their son growing up in this violence.

"We were ready to come back to Texas," Mrs. Mast says, "and Farwell seemed to be just what we wanted."

Mrs. Mast is originally from Stephenville, Tex., and her husband is from Comanche. Both are graduates of Stephenville High School. While Mast was a senior in high school, he became a master barber. During the couple's college years at Tarleton State University in Stephenville, he worked as a barber to put them through school.

In May 1969 Mrs. Mast graduated with honors with a degree in social sciences. She was a member of Alpha Chi, an honor society. Her husband graduated in December 1969 with a major in agricultural education. During her husband's last semester in college, Mrs. Mast taught social studies at Tolar High School. He worked as a barber until May 1970 when her teaching contract was fulfilled.

The Masts heard about a teaching job with the Gallup - McKinley County School System at Crown Point, and decided to embark on a four-year adventure working with the Navajos.

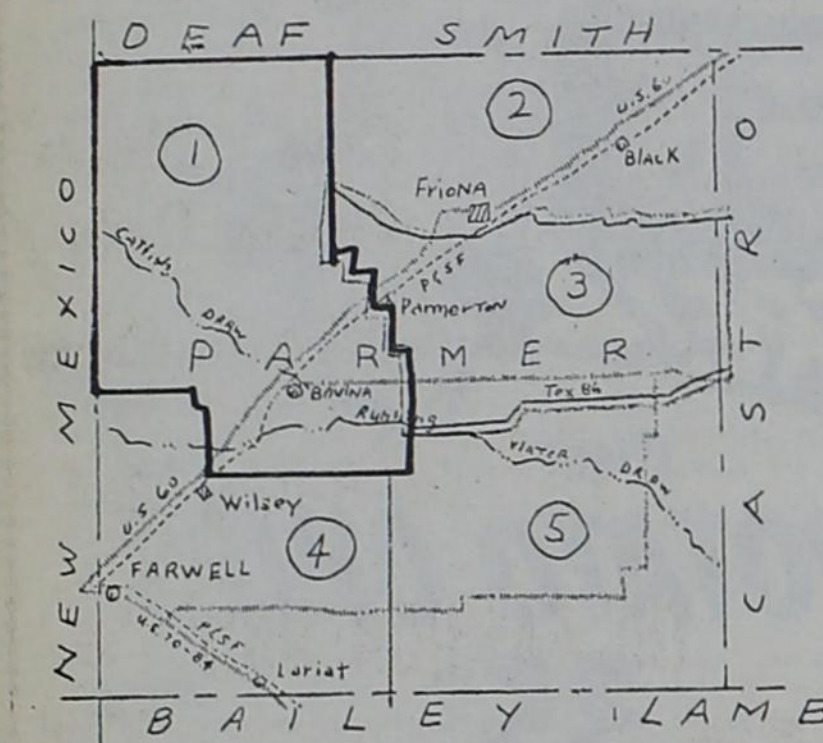

At Your Convenience

Food processors have introduced more than 6,300 new convenience foods during the past five years—an average of more than three a day. Most of the new items were frozen entrees that required cooking or heating before serving.

NAVAJO DOLL - Mrs. James (Linda) Mast displays one of the most beautiful items in her collection of Indian works of art, a Navajo doll done by Kay Bennett. The doll, costumed in the traditional dress costume for Navajo women, won first prize at the Bi-County Fair at Prewitt, N.M. The dress is of red velvet and is complete with a concho belt and turquoise beads. The silver pin which Mrs. Mast is wearing was given to her by the friend of a little Indian girl who was critically ill. Mrs. Mast reported the girl's illness to the proper health authorities, and she was given treatment.

NAVAJO CRADLEBOARD - Brent Mast, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mast, holds a Navajo cradleboard which was constructed in the agriculture mechanics class taught by his father at the public school in Crown Point, N.M. Navajo babies are bundled with blankets and placed in the cradleboards to ride on their mothers' backs. Mrs. Mast says the babies stay quite snug and warm in the cradleboards.

ELECTION SET - Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District Directors Election for Subdivision No. 1 will be held at the Bovina Wheat Growers Elevators Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 9 a.m. All land owners and wives are encouraged to vote for a director to represent them.

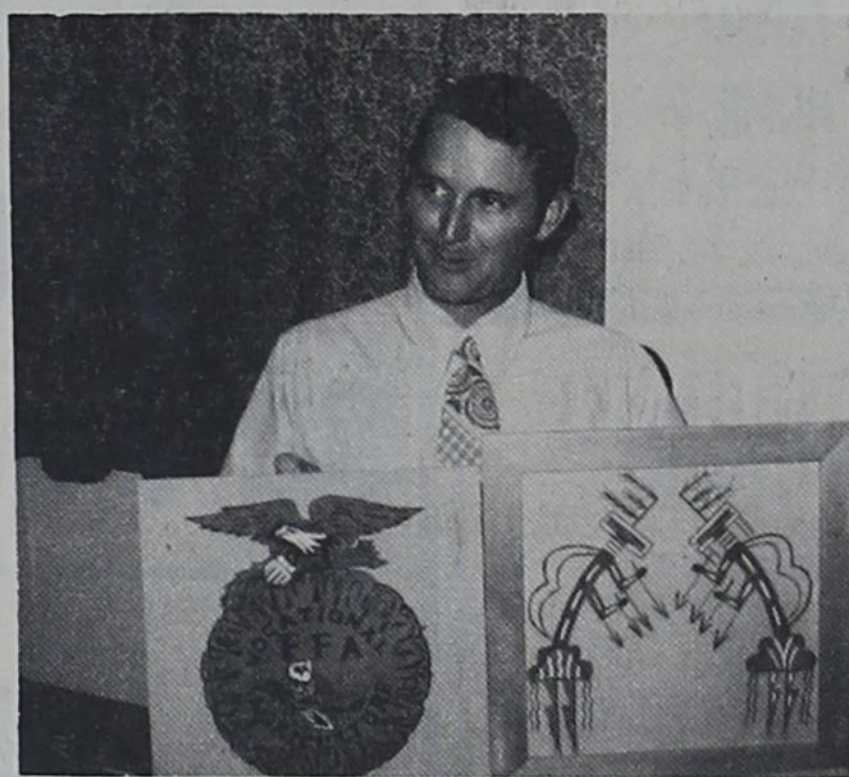

DECKED OUT - Freshmen at Farwell High School have come to school this week dressed in everything from potato sacks to bathrobes to the wildest costumes imaginable. Taking some good natured kidding during freshman initiation week are, left to right, Rachel Sierra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sierra; Linda Gohlke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Gohlke; and Timmy Ellison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ellison.

SAND PAINTINGS - James Mast, vocational agricultural instructor at Farwell High School, shows two different styles of Indian sand painting, with paintings given to him by John Begay. The sand painting on the left features the FFA insignia, a non-Indian theme. The sand painting is rare because it does not typify some aspect of Indian life. The sand painting at right uses an Indian theme, which is traditional.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM PRES.
BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

THE CROSS AND THE CHRISTIAN

Nothing will prove so helpful to a Christian in overcoming sin as an appreciation of Christ's death for sin at Calvary. The Bible teaches that:

1. The cross stands between the believer and his SINS; the wrong things he does, or is prone to do, in thought, word and deed.

"And you, that were once alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath He reconciled, in the body of His flesh, through death, to present you holy and unblemished and unreprouvable in His sight" (Col. 1:21,22).

"Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures" (I Cor. 15:3).

"Who His own self bare our sins in His own body on the tree" (I Pet. 2:24).

2. The cross stands between the believer and his SIN. It is not only men's sins that keep them out of heaven, but their sin; not merely what they have done, but what they are and would do; not merely their deeds, but their nature. But Christ's death took care of this too.

"...by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin...but...much more the grace of God, and the gift of grace, which is by one, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many...That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom. 5:12,15,21).

"For God hath made Him to be sin for us, (Him) who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him" (II Cor. 5:21).

3. The cross stands between the believer and his SINNING.

"What shall we say, then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?...Our old man (nature) has been crucified with Him...that we henceforth should not serve sin...Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal bodies, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof; neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin; but yield yourselves unto God, as those who are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God." (Rom. 6:1, 2, 6, 12, 13).

25-30 Graves - -

Vandalism Reported At Texico Cemetery

Approximately 25 to 30 graves were damaged and a large tombstone was toppled over in a vandalism incident over the weekend at the Texico Cemetery.

Frank and Silas Jones, caretakers at the cemetery, discovered the vandalism early Sunday morning, Sept. 29. Frank Jones said he thought the incident occurred Saturday night or early Sunday morning, as the damage appeared fresh.

Jones stated that a vehicle was backed on top of several graves and the wheels dug into the graves, inflicting damage to between 25 and 30 graves. He also reported finding several beer bottles in the cemetery.

One set of tracks was found, according to Jones, and the vehicle, either a car or a pick-up truck, had "real wide tires." Jones said this was the first incident of vandalism where the damage has amounted to anything since he has been caretaker at the cemetery during the last three years.

"All damage could be fixed for about $100.00 in labor," according to Jones.

The incident was reported to Texico Mayor Manford Turnbough, who in turn notified the Curry County Sheriff's Office. Deputy Sheriff Lloyd Niece investigated the vandalism Sunday and reported he found one set of tire tracks, but no footprints. He gave no estimate of damage, but said the dirt will have to be put back over the graves and one tombstone would have to be repaired.

Former Texico Resident Dies In California

J. Lawrence Bell, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Bell and a former resident of Texico, died Wednesday, Sept. 25, in Lynwood, Calif., following a lengthy battle with cancer. Mr. Bell lived in Texico until a few years ago when he moved to California.

Survivors included his wife and one daughter in Calif.; four sisters, Mrs. Genevieve Randol of Farwell, Mrs. Ruth Doolittle of Texico, Mrs. Gladys King of Amarillo and Mrs. Wilma Smith of Clovis; six brothers, Horace, Glenn, Maurice and Ancel, all of Clovis, Addis of Texico and Donald of Calif.; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Two Trucks Collide, Damage Is Extensive

A two truck accident Sunday at approximately 8 a.m., 2 miles east of 1731 on Highway 84 near Lariat resulted in extensive damages to the trucks involved and in slight injuries to one of the drivers.

According to Royce Keck of the Friona Highway patrol, a truck tractor-trailer hauling lumber ran into the rear corner of a Chevrolet pool truck belonging to W.M. Pool II. The impact sent both trucks off the highway turning both over.

Keck stated the driver of the tractor-trailer apparently didn't see the slow-moving grain truck until it was too late to avoid it.

The driver of the tractor-trailer truck, Joe Rodriguez of Muleshoe, was uninjured in the accident. The other driver, Ricardo Valdez of Paduca, was pinned in the wreckage. After he was freed from the wreckage, Valdez was taken to Muleshoe hospital, treated and released.

According to Keck the tractor-trailer cab and grain bed were extensively damaged and the tractor-trailer truck was totalled.

Sheriff's Report

JeDon Gallman, who lives near Friona, reported to the office of Sheriff Charles Lovelace the theft of a 1962 Volkswagen car on Monday. The car was taken about one-half mile from the city limits of Friona.

Sheriff Lovelace reported the arrest by Abilene officials of a suspect who reportedly entered the Raymond Jones Millwork shop in Farwell in January taking approximately $1,000 in equipment. The suspect is being held in jail at Abilene on charges there. The millwork shop was entered by a former employee with a key. Some of the equipment taken has been recovered.

Darrell Thompson of Friona reported to the Sheriff's office yesterday the theft of a diesel oil pump from a farm approximately four miles east of Friona.

The home of John Draeger, 12 miles west of Friona was entered Friday, Sept. 27, sometime during the day when the family was away from the home. Draeger reported to the Sheriff the loss of two shot guns and two rifles.

It doesn't take a confirmed, orange-dyed-in-the-wool Texas fan to enjoy The Darrell Royal Story by Jimmy Banks. As impossible as it is to separate Royal from Texas football, Banks has managed to tell an intensely personal story of human character and courage. From his early days in Hollis, Oklahoma to the pinnacle of national sports acclaim (all in less than 50 years) Royal's story is one of determination and drive.

He has coached three national championship teams at The University of Texas and has been selected twice as Coach of the Year since taking over the Longhorn coaching job. Banks skillfully shows the steady climb of this man from the boy who shined shoes in a barber shop, washed dishes in a cafe and delivered the Hollis paper.

This is the story of a winner because Banks, too, knows his subject and his craft. Banks was an All-State football player, graduated from UT, and has led a versatile and distinguished career as an Austin and Dallas newspaperman. The Darrell Royal Story goes a long way in showing, in 178 pages with many photographs, what makes "Mr. Southwest Conference" tick.

If you like football, and want to know more about what kind of a person makes a successful coach, order your copy of "The Darrell Royal Story" today.

Mail your order and your check, payable to this newspaper at the rate of $5.95 per copy, plus Texas Sales Tax—30 cents. Your order will be shipped direct from the publisher to you.

Portraying Area Homemakers

by Faye Parr

"I was born in Clovis, but I only lived there three days (in the hospital). The rest of my life has been spent in Farwell," says pretty Lynn Mahaney, our area homemaker of the week. Her name was Lynn White until two years ago when she married Robin Mahaney, her high school sweetheart.

The Mahaneys have a lovely home on Eighth Street, where many of Lynn's talents are displayed. She likes to refinish and upholster furniture, decoupage, embroidery, crochet, sew and cook. She sews for herself, and has also made slacks and a jacket for her husband. She also enjoys yard-work.

Lynn works at the Castor Feed Yards, but on weekends she and her husband enjoy fishing and water skiing, and frequently take trips to the lake. They have an aquarium full of various kinds of fish and frogs in their home.

Robin farms with his father. In the summer months he plays soft ball on the Farwell Hardware team in Bovina and on "The Good, The Bad, and The Ugly" team in Clovis. The couple belongs to the Farwell Church of Christ.

"We have a family garden on Daddy and Granddad's farm," says Lynn, "and the whole family cans and freezes things from it."

Another of Lynn's interests is collecting antiques. She has antique tables, a sewing machine, thimbles and dishes, and a rare edition of a book of Bible stories that her Grandmother got at the World's Fair in St. Louis in 1904, as well as other things.

Some of her favorite recipes that she is sharing with us are these for Chicken Enchiladas, Chocolate Sheet Cake, and a Spiced Tea that she thought would be enjoyable in the cold weather that is coming up soon.

CHICKEN ENCHILADAS

- 1 medium onion, chopped and sauteed in butter
- 1 can chopped green chiles
- 1 can mushroom soup
- 1 to 1 1/2 c. broth

- 1 pkg. tortillas

Soften tortillas in hot grease. Mix other ingredients and pour into dish, alternating with layers of tortillas. Bake at 350 degrees for 40 minutes.

CHOCOLATE SHEET CAKE

- 1 c. water
- 1/2 c. Crisco
- 1 stick butter

- 2 eggs
- 1 tsp. soda
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1/2 c. buttermilk

Bake at 400 degrees for 20 minutes.

SPICED TEA

1 stick cinnamon
1 tsp. whole cloves

2 tea bags
3 lemons
1 small can orange juice
1 1/2 c. sugar

Boil spices in water 6 minutes. Add tea. Simmer 4 minutes. Add sugar, juices of lemon and oranges. Add 2 qt. of water.

ANTIQUE COLLECTOR - Mrs. Lynn Mahaney displays some of the antiques that she has collected as well as some of her handiwork. On the dresser are an antique juicer, a purse that she made, an old-fashioned milk can which she decoupage and an example of her crocheted handwork. She antiques the dresser and bedroom set, part of which is visible in the mirror.

CRISP PRINT of 100% cotton from Waverly Fabrics proves its versatility in this dining area, covering walls and lambrequin for an imaginative, decorative finish. Fabric-covered lambrequin gives illusion of depth, reinforced by repetition of cotton print in cafe curtains and wall covering. Self-adhesive fringe from Joanna Western Mills Co.

Fire Calls

The Farwell Fire Department reported one fire call on Sept. 28 to a house fire six miles from Farwell on the Amarillo highway. Damage was confined to a closet in the home.

The Farwell emergency vehicle responded to a call on Sept. 29 to transport a Farwell woman to the hospital in Clovis.

The Texico Fire Department reported no fire calls during the past week. The emergency vehicle was called to the Texico High School on Sept. 26 to take Tommy Galvan, who was injured in football practice, to Clovis.

With school underway, parents need to remind their young bicycle riders about safety measures.

Darting across streets without looking, crossing at mid-block from between parked cars, and doing bicycle tricks in traffic are several mistakes children must learn to avoid.

If your child is just starting to school, you should make the trip with him the first several days so that you can caution him against careless practices. Children can be warned against some trouble spots before the trip begins. Figures from the Texas Department of Health show:

Well over half the motor vehicle-bicycle collisions happen at intersections.

Seven out of 10 occur during daylight hours.

Most bicycle riders killed or injured in traffic accidents were violating a traffic law at U.S. consumers will soon find more precise open dating information on packaged meat and poultry. The whole idea is to help us tell how fresh a product is.

A new voluntary rule made by the U.S. Department of Agriculture provides the key to help consumers to be sure of freshness.

The rule states that if meat and poultry processors voluntarily put a calendar date, rather than a coded date, on their products, they must let consumers know what that date means.

The calendar date can be identified one of three ways. "Packaging-date" means when the meat was really packaged. "Sell-by-date" is the time this meat must be sold and still be fresh. And the "use-before-date" indicates when consumers must use this meat by before it gets stale.

She pointed out that some processors are coding their products now. But, since some failed to explain just what their dates meant, consumers still can't determine how fresh the product is. This new rule will help them explain their dates so they will really mean something to the consumer.

the time of the incident; and One out of five bicycles involved in accidents had some kind of mechanical defect.

Parents can help their children avoid accidents by teaching them the following safety rules.

--Cyclists must ride on the right side of the street with the flow of traffic-not on the left, facing traffic.

--Hand signals should be used by the cyclists.

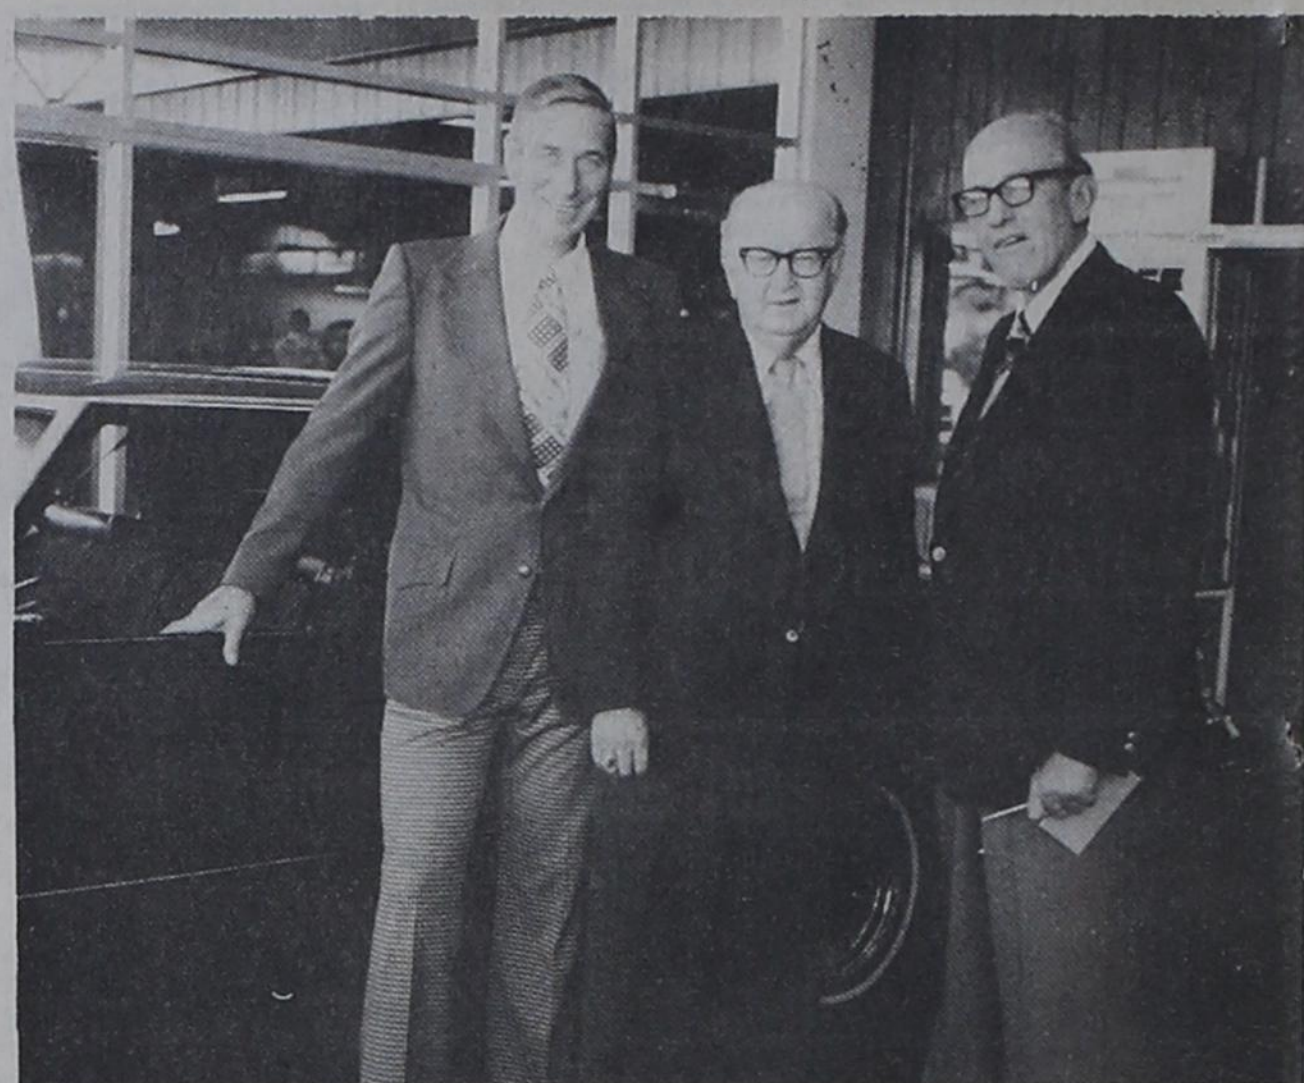

--Carrying more passengers than a bicycle is designed and equipped for is dangerous and illegal.

--Always ride single file and avoid trick riding.

If you would like to help your child or another child, why not help us start a 4-H bicycle club in your community? For more information contact me at Box 683 in Farwell or phone 481-3619.

Social Studies Classes Collect Information On Parmer County

Farwell Junior High sixth grade social studies classes of Mrs. Frances Boling have been studying a unit on the early history of Parmer County and have engaged in several activities to obtain information on this project.

In learning what various scientists study, the pupils assumed several roles to glean information. As students in geography they toured the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office in Farwell to obtain geographical information on the area.

As historians, the students interviewed Ebb Randol, a long-time resident of the area. As sociologists, the group visited with Mrs. E.G. Blair.

In their search for economic data, the students toured the office of the State Line Tribune where they perused numerous old issues of the newspaper to compare prices of today with prices several years ago.

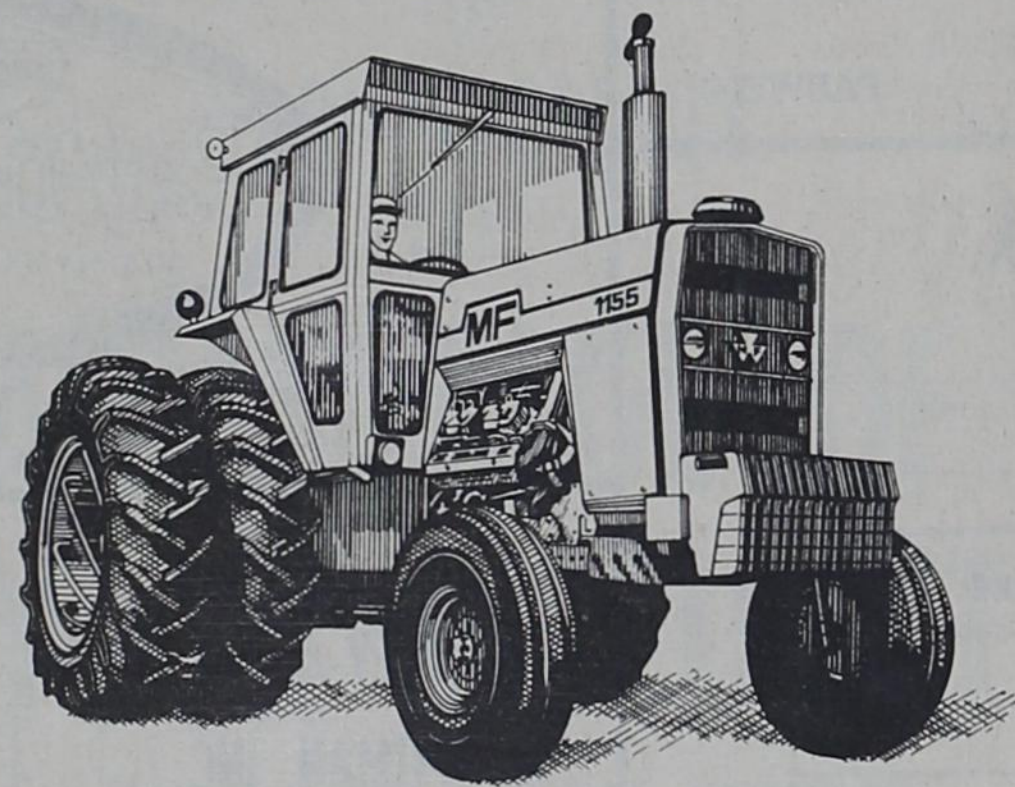

As anthropologists, the students talked with Fred Gerles, who showed them early artifacts of the region. In the political science realm, the group interviewed Farwell Mayor Gil Patschke and also obtained information from the State Line Tribune.

Mrs. Boling stated she appreciated the mothers who assisted in transporting the students from place to place during their studies and information gathering trips.

"Four-H is a part of the educational program of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University. It is directed at the local level by County Extension Agents who work with volunteer 4-H adult and junior leaders and other local citizens interested in the development of boys and girls.

Triangle Emergency Club Formed To Assist Area

The Triangle Emergency Club is in the process of being organized and is conducting a massive membership campaign to get citizens interested in participating and supporting the activities of the club, according to club president, Jim Fritz of Texico.

The club held its organizational meeting in Bovina in August of this year and was formed to meet the need of a warning protection system in the area in the event of a nuclear attack or severe weather alert. Areas in which the club is active include Texico, Farwell, Friona, Bovina and Muleshoe.

Membership is open to anyone over 18 years of age. Persons under 18 are eligible for an auxiliary membership, according to Fritz. At present, the club has 21 members.

Fritz is asking all Citizen Band radio operators to join the group, as one of the most important aspects of the club is communication. A non-profit organization, the club is assessing dues of $2.50 per radio license per month. This will go toward purchasing equipment and meeting any expenses that the group encounters.

Club meetings are held the first and third Tuesdays at the Oklahoma Lane Community Center at 8 p.m. CDT. Meetings are open to any person who is interested in the type of work the club does.

Among plans formulated by the club are to have mobile units with two-way radios to relay weather messages in the event of a severe weather alert and to train members in weather spotting and first aid.

Presently the club is looking for a building with a basement to set up a 24-hour Emergency Operations Center. The club is seeking either a donated location or one for a small rental fee.

Officers of the club include Jim Fritz of Texico, president; Larry Webb of Bovina, vice president; Seth Shaw of Muleshoe, secretary-treasurer; Kenneth Webb of Muleshoe, sergeant-of-arms. Squad leaders are Mark Gist of Muleshoe and Alfred Webb of Bovina. The executive board is composed of Charles Shaw, Donald Prather and Bill Crenshaw, all of Muleshoe.

Persons desiring additional information may call Jim Fritz at 482-9071 or come by his home at 200 Garwood in Texico, or call Larry Webb in Bovina at 238-1290, or Seth Shaw in Muleshoe at 272-3769.
