

War Fund Quota Is Oversubscribed

Parmer County has again oversubscribed its 1945 War Fund quota, it was revealed today by H. Y. Overstreet, chairman of the War Fund drive in this county.

Figures released by Overstreet today showed that Parmer County had subscribed a total of $3,390.50 against an assigned quota of $3,037, representing an oversubscription of $353.50.

"Actually," Overstreet explained, "the cash contributions this year amounted to only $2480.50, but we had a credit of $910.00 (for overpayment the past two years), which was applied to our credit on this year's drive, giving us the grand total of $3,390.50."

He also added that the solicitor in the Hub community was yet to be heard from, which should boost the oversubscription when that report is in hand.

Congratulates County

In a letter to Chairman Overstreet Wayland D. Towner, general manager of the United War Chest in Texas, sends his congratulations to Parmer County on its achievement of going "over the top" for the third consecutive year. In part, Towner says:

"In view of the difficulties of the campaign this year, your achievement is all the more outstanding. This accomplishment is deserving of special commendation.

"To your officers, committee members, workers in the ranks—and to the patriotic citizens of Parmer County, all of us extend our grateful thanks. Your reward will be the knowledge that your county has discharged its responsibility to the men in the armed forces and has fulfilled the opportunity of helping the unfortunate war victims in Europe and the Pacific. You have lived up to the highest traditions of loyal, patriotic Texans."

Brother Local Lady Dies in Germany

Word was received last week of the death of Pvt. J. F. Herron, who is reported by the War Department to have died in Germany on October 30th. Herron was the brother of Mrs. Robert Morton, of this city.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Herron of Sylvester, Texas, he went to Germany last May, just at the time of the German surrender, and since then had been working at a PW camp with American occupation forces.

No details concerning his death were received by his parents.

Big Game Hunters Returning Home

Judging by the numerous cars and trucks that have been passing through here from the west since the first of the week, most of the deer hunters who went to the New Mexico areas last week have been having fairly good luck.

Sgt. Fred Kurilovitch, stationed at the Clovis Army Air Base, who lives here, and Juel Treider of the Lazbuddy community, are believed to be the first to return here with evidence of success. The sergeant brought in a six-point buck taken in the Capitans, while Treider came home meatless.

Lee Bradshaw, who went with a party of Clovis hunters, downed a 10-pointer in the Cloudfroft area, and the rest of his party also got their deer.

Reports from many other hunters from this area are expected to be made before the close of the present week, with the return of the nimrods from the New Mexico wilds.

Draws $100 Fine In Liquor Case

James Watkins of Bovina, was fined $100 and costs in county court here the first of the week on a charge of transporting illegal whiskey.

Watkins plead guilty to the charge when arraigned before County Judge A. D. Smith.

TO OUT-OF-TOWN SUBSCRIBERS

Under new policy, a charge of 10c is made for change of address. Please include this when you notify us of such change. Otherwise, The Tribune will not be forwarded to new addresses.

Tribune Employee Leaves Farwell

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reese, who came here from Bartlett, Texas, to be employed at The Tribune, departed Wednesday after a day spent here in a vain effort to find living quarters.

"The only prospect we had for living quarters was priced at $50 a month, and we just simply won't pay that," Reese said as he got in his car and drove away to make his home elsewhere.

Hughes, Lea, Named On Gas Company Board

C. H. Zachry, president of Southern Union Gas Company, Dallas, has announced that the company's board of directors recently elected Scott Hughes, Dallas, vice president, and Willis L. Lea, Jr., Dallas, general attorney.

Hughes, formerly general attorney of the company and for the past three years on leave of absence serving as a major in the Army Air

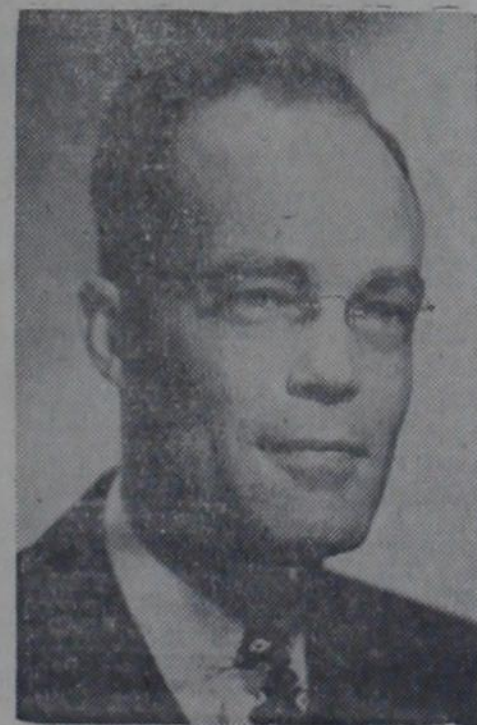

SCOTT HUGHES

Corps, was released from active duty in September. He has been associated with Southern Union 14 years.

Lea has been a member of the company's legal department since 1936, is assistant secretary of Southern Union, and is a member of the Dallas and American Bar Associations.

Other officers of the company are Wofford Cain, chairman of the board Dallas; James C. Reid, vice-president operating manager, Dallas; J. R. Cole, vice president, Santa Fe; Ross Byron, vice president, Chicago; H.

WILLIS L. LEA, JR.

V. McConkey, secretary-treasurer, Dallas; J. Glenn Turner, general counsel, Dallas; Ethel O.E. Johnson, assistant secretary, Dallas; F. D. Bradley, assistant treasurer, Dallas.

Southern Union, with headquarters in Dallas, was organized in Texas 17 years ago and the majority of the stock is owned in Texas and New Mexico. Today the company is serving approximately 60,000 consumers in 29 cities in these two states.

The cities served in Texas are Bartow, Crane, El Paso, Farwell, McCamey, Monahans, Pecos, Pyote, Wickett and Wing. J. R. Barton is agent for Southern Union in Farwell.

OPEN NEW SHOP

Mr. and Mrs. Benny McDonald have opened their sandwich shop in the building formerly occupied by the Farwell Cafe. The new business will operate under the name of the Farwell Sandwich Shop, catering to short orders and sandwiches. No regular meals will be served.

And You Didn't Know It Cost To Publish Weekly Newspaper

Realizing fully that the average reader does not appreciate the efforts and expense involved in getting out a newspaper, The Tribune publisher takes time out this week to give the readers the benefit of a little information.

Two weeks ago, the Linotype machine broke down and since that time the paper has come to its readers through difficult circumstances, culminating in the expenditure of about $550.00 in order that this issue might be printed.

Replacements on the machine cost $392.65 FOB Brooklyn, N. Y. In our desire to see that no issue of the paper was missed, the replacements were rushed here by air express at a cost of $102.56. Add to that the expense of getting a machinist to install the new parts and it all adds up to slightly under $550—all spent in the past week in order that your paper might come to you today.

And while we are talking shop, we might add that there has been no increase in the subscription price nor the advertising rates since the present publisher took over the paper almost 20 years ago.

Experienced help in the printing business is just about the highest paid help in existence today. Yes, it costs money to get out a newspaper!

Second Amputation For Jim Hughes

Jim Hughes, who has been receiving treatment in a Clovis hospital for the past three weeks for injuries received to his right hand, is scheduled to undergo a second amputation this week.

Hughes lost most of the right thumb and the two first fingers when he got his hand in a power saw at the Houston Bros. lumber yard. According to Mrs. Hughes, the second operation will remove the remainder of his thumb and most of the fleshy part of the palm of his hand.

He will likely be confined to the hospital several days yet, she said.

Football Letters Are Given Grid Team

Following the conclusion of the football season, members of the Farwell six-man squad who lettered during the season were presented last Wednesday with small silver footballs inscribed "1945" champions, the presentation being made by Coach Jack Williams.

Receiving the awards were Don Williams, O. L. Thompson, Donald Ray Summers, Sonny Graham, Toby Booth, Junior Robertson, L. C. Herington, Bobby Hart, Harry Sheets, Warlick Thomas and Max Ford.

The youngsters, many of whom had never tried to handle a pigskin before this year, had a successful season, winning all matched games.

Community Sale Is Set For Nov. 20

Col. Dick Doshier, local auctioneer announced today that plans were being made for a community sale to be held at the Santa Fe stock pens in Texico on Tuesday, Nov. 20.

He said that already a large list of chattels had been listed for the sale, and others were being received. Those desiring to consign items to the sale may do so by contacting him or leaving the list at The Tribune office.

Bills for the sale will be printed Thursday afternoon and listings must be in hand by noon of that day, he said.

Both Local Schools Out Next Weekend

Both the Texico and Farwell schools will observe annual Thanksgiving holidays, the latter part of next week, Superintendents B. A. Rogers and H. A. Cliff have announced.

Classes will be dismissed at the conclusion of school Wednesday afternoon, November 21, and Thursday and Friday will be holidays. Classes will be resumed as usual on Monday morning, November 26.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending November 10 were 23,097 compared with 25,308 for same week in 1944. Cars received from connections totaled 11,556 compared with 15,280 for same week in 1944. Total cars moved were 36,653 compared with 40,558 for same week in 1944. Santa Fe handled a total of 37,395 cars in the preceding week of this year.

BENEFACTOR

Leo Potishman, president of Transit Grain company of Fort Worth, has donated $1500 to Texas Christian University to stimulate and sponsor research and scholarship publication in the field of social science. Dr. M. E. Sadler, president of TCU, in making the announcement, said that the fund will be used to sponsor the publication of works of merit in book or pamphlet form.

MENS CLUB MEETS

C. M. Henderson today called attention to the regular monthly meeting of the local Men's Club, Thursday evening of this week.

He said that plans were being made to have Chaplain Galley of the Clovis Army Air Base come over and entertain the members with his magician's stunts. Furthermore, there are a number of local business items that are scheduled to come up.

Attendants are requested to bring the usual contributions of food for the lunch.

BACK AT STATION

Homer Dykes has returned to his old job as operator of the Texico Filling Station, and announced this week that he was ready to receive his old customers—and new ones, too.

The Parmer County Commissioners Court moved swiftly toward getting Highway 86 paved across the county, when the Court met here Monday.

At that time, the commissioners were handed a letter from S. C. McCarty, district highway engineer, at Lubbock, who said plans were being made at Lubbock to let the contract for the highway construction in "the near future, provided right-of-way is secured".

With a few exceptions, all the right-of-way deeds and easements have been provided, but a few remaining deals had to be closed up, including two non-resident property owners who seem not disposed to enter negotiations regarding right-of-ways across their lands.

The Court agreed to pay $25.00 per acre to three land owners, including the Capitol Freehold Land Trust, J. M. Conner and A. G. Thorn with an additional $5 per acre to the latter for re-setting a fence line.

Two non-resident land owners, E. W. Culler and S. M. Butts, having previously declined to negotiate with the Commissioners for right-of-way privileges, were advised that they could accept $25.00 per acre for their land or the county attorney would be instructed to start condemnation proceedings at once.

"The Highway Department is ready to build this highway and we intend to speed up getting the right-of-way opened just as rapidly as we can," County Judge A. D. Smith said, in acting as spokesman for the county commissioners.

Several weeks ago, the Highway Department notified Judge Smith that Highway 86, beginning one and a half miles east of Bovina and continuing east to the Castro County line, would be paved, providing right-of-way could be secured.

"There may be a little delay in getting the right-of-way, but we'll get it," Judge Smith announced some time ago.

This would give Parmer County an additional paved highway to the east, a distance of about 20 miles.

Armistice Program Held At School

A large crowd was in attendance at a special Armistice Day program, held the past Friday afternoon at the Texico school, with Rev. Virgil Hunton, of the local Baptist church, as the principal speaker.

Preceding Rev. Hunton, various musical numbers and readings were presented by the school students, representing all grades through the high school.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Vincent have received word that Mrs. Keith Pigg, of Vernon, Texas, is very much improved after undergoing a major operation in a Wichita Falls hospital, in October. She was critically ill for some time. The Piggs formerly lived in Farwell, moving to Vernon a few months ago.

No matter what the labor unions do, the wages of sin remain just about the same.

A business deal that has been pending the past several weeks was finally closed here the first of the week when C. M. Henderson became the owner of the Farwell Bonded Warehouse, formerly the property of the Brooks-Deaton interests.

The deal was made some time ago, which was to become effective on November 1, but little details arose that held up the actual transfer until the first of the week.

In the deal, Henderson becomes owner of the two large warehouses, all the equipment, and five acres of land on which the property is located in northeast Farwell.

"We are planning big things for this warehouse," Henderson said, and went on to add that if his plans work out he will build a large terminal elevator on the grounds, capable of handling storage up to 250,000 bushels of grain.

For the present, the business will be operated as a grain and cotton storage plant. But negotiations have already been started for the enlarged elevator and general merchandise storage plant that Henderson envisions in the new acquisition.

"The first thing we will have to have is an ample water supply for fire protection, and next will be railroad trackage that will serve both storage houses," he said, adding that "when we get these we are ready to begin our expansion plans."

He pointed out that as a merchandise storage plant, this would be an ideal location, allowing large dealers to store their wares here for truck shipments to New Mexico points. Furthermore, he said, contacts with grain dealers had elicited the information that they would be interesting in storing large quantities of grain here once the terminal elevator is ready for use.

Graham Again Heads ME Official Board

B. N. Graham was re-elected chairman of the Board of Stewards when the official board met at the Methodist Church on Monday evening. C. M. Henderson was named vice chairman and C. F. Bieler was returned to the office of secretary.

Plans were made for the financial program of the church for the coming year, which included the adoption of a $5,000 budget to cover all operating expenses.

Produce House Has Changed Hands

N. H. Goldsmith, who has operated a produce house in Farwell for the past 7½ years, sold his business, including the building, to A. Milstead & Son the latter part of last week, and the change in ownership became effective at once.

Milstead & Son, who have operated a similar business here the past several months, closed their former location and have consolidated their stock with the Goldsmith stock.

Goldsmith said he had no definite announcement to make regarding his future plans.

West Texas State College of Canyon is really three colleges in one: the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Business and Public Administration, and the Teachers College.

Haws Reports On Life of Jap Prisoner

McCLOSKEY GENERAL HOSPITAL, Temple, Texas—Seven days before the fighting stopped, S-Sgt. Alfred Haws, of Friona, nearly bled to death because Japanese civilians refused to put a tourniquet on his arm, mangled during a B-29 bombing raid which destroyed a factory where he had been forced to work.

Sergeant Haws, now at McCloskey Hospital, told how after more than two years in Japanese prison camps in the Philippines (where his brother, Claude, had died) he was shipped to Japan and forced to work in a Japanese steel factory.

"I was shipped to Japan in July 1944," Haws said. "We had trouble with submarines; they sank an oil tanker and an aircraft carrier in our convoy, but missed us. Our ship was crowded; we had very little food or water. There was no water for bathing or washing. One man became insane and later died on the ship. "We unloaded at Moji and were sent to Fukuoka Camp No. 3, where the guards spent most of the first four days making speeches. They told us how to act toward our Jap guards and toward our 'pushers', or civilian supervisors under whom we would work. They put me to work in the steel mills there. I went to work on the big steel rollers, dragging and stacking hot steel plates.

In March 1945 they changed my work to splitting the steel plates, and I worked at that until Japan surrendered.

"When the raids first started the Japs stopped working and ran us about a mile to a big tunnel. It was a good air raid shelter. The planes were usually on their way to some other city and just flew over us, so the Japs quit sending us to the tunnel and made us go into the small shelters near the plant. Toward the end there were at least four alarms a day, but the planes never dropped bombs. The Japanese must have decidated we lost too much working time in the shelters, so they began making us work right through the alarms.

"On the morning of the 8th of August, the siren blew but we kept on working until 9:45 when we knocked off for a break. The raid came about 10 o'clock, but we didn't hear anything because of the noise the shop machinery made. Then the bombs began falling.

"The plant was hit; one American prisoner was killed; my right arm was blown to pieces. I got out of the building and started for the shelter which had been assigned to us. It was already destroyed. I finally got in a shelter where there were eleven Japanese civilians. My arm was bleeding. I tried to get them to put on a tourniquet, but they just looked at me. Finally one said, 'Are you American?' I answered 'Yes'. Then he said 'You die!'— (Continued on Last Page)

Fats and Oils Still Continue Scarce

The fats and oils situation will not change much until supplies begin flowing again in volume from the South Pacific and for that reason every housewife is urged to continue increased collection of used kitchen fats.

"Every drop of used fat is needed to help bridge the gap between what we have and what we need," E. C. Munro, acting district officer for Marketing, Production and Marketing Administration said. The difference must come from the kitchen, the last remaining source of supply.

Glycerine Supplies Low

National supplies of glycerine are the lowest in years, and this lack may slow down production of peacetime goods, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, which points out that there isn't much chance for improvement in the fats and oils import picture for many months to come.

All of this adds up to another reason for saving used cooking fats, officials say. Fats and oils, glycerine and other by-products which come from them, go into practically everything that is manufactured.

"This current shortage may last well into 1946. Until then, every woman is urged to save and turn in every drop of used cooking fat. It helps her get the things she wants and needs for herself and her family, quicker," says the USDA.

Sanders Relected To FCA Directors

HOUSTON—B. L. Sanders of Corsicana has been re-elected to the board of directors of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston, according to word received here by General Agent Jack Shelton from I. W. Duggan, governor of the FCA.

Sanders, who has been a member of this board since 1934, as the elected representative of the national farm loan associations in Texas, has extensive farm and ranch holdings and was formerly secretary-treasurer of the national farm loan association at Corsicana.

As a member of the Farm Credit board, he is also a director on the board of the Federal Land Bank of Houston, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, the Production Credit Corporation of Houston and the Houston Bank for Cooperatives.

Lend-Lease Shipments Continue To Drop

Foods and other agricultural products delivered by the USDA during August were the smallest since the early months of Lend-Lease in 1941, E. C. Munro, acting district officer for PMA announces.

Total deliveries for the month were roughly half as large as during July when USDA deliveries totaled about 541 million pounds. Although showing substantial reductions from the previous month, lend-lease accounted for more than 50 percent of the total, with UNRRA shipments second in volume.

Phillips 66 Commended For Accomplishments

In a letter issued by Maj. Gen. Hugh J. Knerr, commanding general of the ATSC of the AAF, Phillips Petroleum was commended for its accomplishments in the use of its flying laboratory in flight testing aviation fuels. The commendation read:

"The Phillips Petroleum Company in the spring of 1943, upon their own volition, instrumented an airplane for final testing and demonstrated the utility of this type of test procedure to the Air Technical Service Command (then the Materiel Command). A series of contracts were subsequently negotiated between the Phillips Company and the Army Air Forces covering fuel flight testing on detonation problems and volatility problems.

"The Air Technical Service Command wishes to commend the Phillips Petroleum Company for the excellent manner in which they have accomplished the flight test programs for the Army Air Forces, both in the continental limits of the United States and in Alaska, and for their unflinching cooperation in developing flight test techniques and preparing test programs."

Col. Frank W. Cawthon, commanding officer of the Western District of the ATSC, who transmitted the letter of commendation to the Company, made the following comment:

"The fact that the Phillips Petroleum Company, during the most critical days of the war, performed a service so valuable to the AAF reflects much credit upon your organization. Your patriotic and untiring action in accomplishing urgent flight programs and developing necessary flight test techniques for the AAF has aided this command materially in its function of supplying to our combat theatres aircraft fuels of superior quality."

Prior to Pearl Harbor, Phillips had developed a super-aviation gas of more than 100 octane and had augmented its extensive research laboratory equipment with an especially equipped twin engine airplane for testing the newly developed aviation fuels by actual flight test under all flying conditions. The plane was equipped with special test instruments and recording apparatus, much of which was developed and built by company engineers. The flying lab was operated in cooperation with the AAC and upon the entry of the United States into World War II, Phillips entered into a contract with the Air Corps to continue these tests and experiments during the war.

Shrouded in secrecy, this mysterious craft, with its crew of 16 men, has been seen during the past three years at army air fields from the Mexican border to Alaska.

Health Notes

By Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN—With the approach of cold weather, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued some timely advice concerning room temperature and its relation to health.

"It is very important that inside temperatures be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime."

"In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and the moment that the outside temperature is encountered, much harm may result. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in sickness and even death.

"An inside temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more comfortable," Dr. Cox said. "When, added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometer reads. A room temperature within the range suggested, plus careful maintenance of proper humidity, will help to prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

First Aid Treatment For Old Coats

COLLEGE STATION—"If there's wear in an old coat yet, this is a year to give it first aid or beauty treatment, for the clothing shortage is not over," says Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist for the College Extension Service.

Mrs. Barnes offers numerous suggestions. A small hole or tear may be mended with ravel yarns from a straight inside seam; linings worn only at the neck, sleeves, or hem might be repaired with a matching or harmonizing fabric; shields or lining cloth tacked in at worn un-derarms do double duty. An entire new lining for a coat can be made, using the ripped-out pieces of the old lining as a pattern.

"A worn buttonhole can be renewed by machine stitching around it close to the edge and then reworking it," declares Mrs. Barnes, "and the worn edge problem can be solved sometimes by cutting down collar and cuffs to smaller shape or by making entirely new ones. Suitable restyling of sleeves or new shoulder pads often helps the looks of an old coat."

For the final finished look to a repaired coat, steam press it by covering the wool with a dry wool cloth, then a dampened cotton cloth.

Next, set the iron down, and lift it with just enough force to drive the steam through the wool. After pressing, lift the cloths and beat the fabric by hand to drive out steam.

Texas 4-H Delegation To Club Congress

COLLEGE STATION—Big hats and cowboy boots will identify Texas' delegation of 23 members of boys 4-H clubs to the National Congress at Chicago December 2 to 6. They were chosen by competition for the honor of representing their state at the annual affair.

According to announcement by E. C. Martin, assistant state agent for the Extension Service, 19 of the club boys will attend as guests of a big railroad system, while the remaining trio will be guests of sponsors of national contests in which they came through as state winners.

This group is Ray Adams of Swisher County, state winner of the field crops contest sponsored by a farm machinery company; Clyde Jacobs of Goliad County, state winner of the horse and mule contest, sponsored by the Horse and Mule Association of America, and Herman Carroll Fowler of Hall county, state winner of the Better Farm and Home Methods Electric contest, sponsored by the Educational foundation of an electrical manufacturing company. At Chicago they will be judged with winners of similar contests in other states for award of national scholarships offered by the sponsors.

The winners of the Santa Fe railway's award were selected for outstanding leadership in their communities, for wartime production of food, and for purchase of war bonds and stamps. They are: Albert Koenig of Potter County; Jim Bob Steen of Mills; Bobbie Joe Griffin of Taylor; William Lester Mackey of Gregg; Wallace Sparkman of Denton; John Edward Wakefield of Ellis; Jack Booth of Harris; Dicky Broach of Brazos; Johnnie J. Szymanski of Fort Bend; Allen Hillboldt of Austin; Doyle Davis of Castro; Charles Farmer of Cochran; Floyd Terrell of Hole; Garland Rose of Lamb; Berry James Thomas of Lubbock; H. R. Tankersley of Lynn; C. W. Grissom of Parmer; Kenneth

Adams of Swisher; and Billy Cox of Yoakum.

1,000-YEAR LAMP POSSIBLE

The less brilliantly a lamp filament burns, the longer its life. It is theoretically possible to design and build an electric lamp which could burn continuously for 1,000 years. Westinghouse engineers say they aren't interested, not because they won't be around to prove their claim but that such a lamp, hardly any brighter than a firefly, would be useless as an illuminant.

"NEW GANG BUSTER"

Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine of New York City, head of the world's largest municipal police department, has resigned to accept the post of Chief Investigator—Commentator on the "Gangbusters" radio program. Commissioner Valentine's resignation terminated 42 years of active police work and 11 years as Police Commissioner under the LaGuardia administration.

"Gangbusters" is heard on Saturday nights over the coast-to-coast network of the American Broadcasting Company. The program presents a dramatic true story each week of an unsolved crime and seeks public assistance in apprehending the criminal. In some cases rewards are offered for information leading to the capture of the fugitive.

Thank You

In retiring from the produce business in Farwell, where we have been engaged for the past 7½ years, we would indeed be ungrateful if we did not stop long enough to express our most sincere appreciation for the splendid business the people of Texico-Farwell and this trade area have given us during that period.

Without your consideration and good will will during this period, we would have been merely "in business". But you have been very generous to us, and through your kindly consideration we have been fairly successful, for which we owe our thanks to you—our friends and customers who have been so loyal. The full credit for our success during these years goes to you, and we are deeply grateful to each and every one of you.

Post Nuptial Shower Given On Friday

Mrs. Lawrence Ham, the former Miss Marie Barnes, was honored with a lovely post-nuptial shower, the past Friday evening, Nov. 9, in the home of Mrs. J. E. Randol. Mrs. Carl G. Davis was associate hostess.

The serving table was covered with a hand-crocheted lace cloth and all appointments were in crystal. A bouquet of small yellow chrysanthemums was arranged in the center of the table, guarded by yellow candles. Mrs. Lawrence Wagner, sister-in-law of the bride, poured.

Miss Sybil Ham presided over the bride's book, with Misses Ruby Ham, Jeatonne Morris and Glenna Ruth Davis presenting the gifts to the honoree and arranging them on display tables.

The bride's book was signed by Mesdames O. B. Pipkin, Leona Osborne, Estellene Billington, Ima Moore, W. H. Graham, Ruby Dixon, Charlie Lunsford, T. E. Levy, Seth Rollins, L. C. Wagner, Anna Henry, Alvenia Sharpe, Elbert Landrum, W. W. Hall, John Holland, Lewis C. Cox, Lee Bradshaw, J. D. Thomas, Roy Ezell, A. D. Smith, C. M. Henderson, S. E. Morris, Joe Crume, Loyd Cain, Inez North, Russell Johnson, T. J. Randol, R. V. Ham, Lucille Johnson;

Misses Mable Davis, Jeanne Lunsford, Ruby and Sybil Ham, Eddie Sharpe, Jeatonne Morris, Glenna Ruth Davis, Willa Pearl Eeill of Clovis.

Regrets were sent from Mesdames Charlie Lovelace, Sutton, Lee McElroy, C. A. Cassidy, Edd Eason, M. A. Snider, Willie Williams, Mae Magness, Dykes, B. A. Rogers, Lenton Pool, Utsman, Lorine White, Gene Lovelace, B. N. Graham, J. W. Magness, D. W. Bagley, Berenstein, Sam Rundell, W. E. ## Chicken Dinner Held By Farwell PTA

The annual Thanksgiving dinner for the Farwell Parent-Teacher Association was held in the cafeteria room of the school the past Thursday night, with 150 persons in attendance at the dinner and social.

The social committee, composed of Mrs. H. A. Clift, Miss Ann Nabors, and Mrs. W. W. Vinyard, had charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Joe Magness and Mrs. Clyde Magness.

The tables were beautifully decorated with fall leaves, small pumpkins, and bouquets of chrysanthemums, and the chicken dinner was served cafeteria style.

Mrs. C. M. Henderson, Woodie McDermitt and Donald Ray Summers furnished music before the meal, and afterward the guests enjoyed a general song fest and visiting.

During the business session, Mrs. Clift was named as delegate to the Texas PTA conference, and is in San Antonio this week, where the conference is in session.

Mrs. L. C. Cox Hostess On Monday Evening

Mrs. Lewis C. Cox, of Farwell, was hostess, Monday night, when she entertained the Alpha Theta Club of Clovis with an enchilada supper.

Seated at the lovely table were Mesdames Ted Standridge, Skinny Holland, Allan Webb, Loyd Broucher, Gleeson Wood, J. G. Gatura, Mabel Rogers, Truman Dunn, all of Clovis; Miss Berthamae Thomas and Mrs. Beulah Moeller, of Farwell; and the hostess.

Visit in Lazbuddy

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whitley were in Lazbuddy the past Thursday, where Mrs. Whitley assisted in laying plans for the opening of a cafeteria in the Lazbuddy school. Mrs. Whitley has acted as teacher-supervisor of the local cafeteria for the past two years, and is well versed in the efficient operation of a school lunch room.

License Issued

A marriage license was issued on November 10, at the office of D. K. Roberts, county clerk, to Fred H. Thaxton and Yvonne Goad, both of Plainview. It was understood that the couple planned to be married in Lubbock.

NEWS FROM OUR BOYS IN UNIFORM

ENROUTE HOME

Word comes from the Navy staging area at Pearl Harbor, as of Nov. 7, that Mansell Cranfill, storekeeper 2-c, is enroute home to become a civilian again. Later reports here are to the effect that he is in the States. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cranfill of Hot Springs, N. M., Mansell served 31 months in the Navy, participating in the invasion of Normandy in 1944 and subsequently in Pacific operations.

DIXON ON FURLOUGH

Mrs. Johnson Hostess To Wesleyan Guild

The Wesleyan Guild of the Methodist Church was in session, Tuesday night, with Mrs. V. Scott Johnson as hostess in her home.

The evening study program, on the promotion of faith, understanding and fellowship among people of different creeds and races, was presented by Mrs. M. C. Roberts.

At the conclusion of the evening, refreshments were served to Mesdames M. C. Roberts, Charles Walker, W. W. Vinyard, Aubrey Sprawls, Lenton Pool, Frances King and Bess Henneman.

Junior Class Starts Rehearsals On Play

Rehearsals on the annual junior class play, which will be presented for public approval on Wednesday evening, November 28th, at the Texico school auditorium, were started Monday night under the direction of Tom Hudson.

The play, a three-act comedy entitled "Here Comes Charlie", has a cast of ten characters, with roles being assigned last week.

A mixup of slightly terrific proportions, the play deals with the situation Larry Elliott (Marvin Doolittle) finds himself in when he goes to adopt a mountaineer boy, Charlie Hopps, which turns out to be a girl, actually named Charlotte. The latter role is played by Virginia Atchley.

The arrival of Charlie throws a monkeywrench in the plans of Vivian (Claudean Curry), who is supposed to be Larry's fiancée, in spite of the attempts of Mrs. Farnham, played by Minnie Smotherman, an aunt of Larry's, who wishes to marry Vivian off to Ted Hartley (Clarence Fought), a college pal. Uncle Arch, James Paul, mountaineer uncle of Charlie's, further complicates matters, and it is not much help when Mortimer (Quinton Jacks) discovers that he is in love with Charlie.

Nora Malone, the maid, is Delores Green; her policeman boyfriend is Tim McGuire (Jerry Paul), and Mrs. Carolyn Smythe-Kersey is played by Imogene Freeman.

SENIOR CLASS NEWS

We have selected our play for the assembly program, Nov. 21. It is "The Roundup of Minnie". We are also expecting our picture sometime this week.

GULE CLUB NEWS

The Girls Glee Club journeyed to Clovis, Wednesday, Nov. 7, for a 15-minute program over KICA. They sang "Desert Song", "Kentucky Babe", "The Bells of St. Mary's", and "By the Light of the Silvery Moon".

John Sheets, director of the club, raised the requirements of the organization last Friday and thereby has formed a more harmonious group. The Glee Club is made up of the following girls: Macie Watson, Pearl Johnston, Dorothy Rhodes, Rosa Lee Denney, Loyce Trimble, Vanita Smith, Bettie Moorman, Lera Dell Cherry, Delores Wilson, Bettie Jean Alverson, Louise Moody, Mary Alice Englant, Letha Bridges, Patsy Ellison and Nancy Williams. Martha Williams is accompanist.

HOMEMAKERS ENTERTAIN

The Future Homemakers club of the school entertained their mothers with a tea, Thursday night, in the homemaking department.

Pearl Johnson, vice president, who had charge in the absence of the president, Macie Watson, opened the program by extending a welcome to all those present. Loyce Marie Trimble read the club history and told the group that the club was first organized in 1935, but had not been active every year.

Pearl Johnston read the aims and objectives of the club and announced the programs for the year.

Martha Williams sang, "It's Been a Long, Long Time". She was accompanied by Mrs. John Wilson. Patsy Ellison played a piano solo, and Bobbie Edwards played two selections on the accordion.

One of the objectives for the year is to sponsor and cooperate with the community in having a recreation center for the young people of Bovina. Plans and possibilities were discussed, and four mothers agreed to be on the advisor committee for the club.

FOURTH GRADE

The following pupils have been absent from school due to illness:

Rosa Lee Denney, Harold and Huey Lourie had their tonsils removed; Jimmie and Leon Ware, and Billie Fern Green.

The fourth grade lost a member this week when E. T. Smith moved to Clovis.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH

The freshmen boys and the seventh and eighth graders played football, Wednesday. The grade lineup was Eugene Brito, J. R. Ellison, Willie Denny, Billy Ray Horetton, Billie Ray Derrick, Ellison Glover, Eddie Springs and Wesley Ayres. Freshmen players were Clinton Tidener, Jerry Jones, James McKinney, Bobby Englant, L. C. Wilkerson, Ross Jefferson and Jack Harold. The final score was 24 to 0 in favor of the freshmen.

We are planning an eighth grade party, November 17, at the home of Mrs. Cherry, sponsor. We are going to play some games and refreshments will be served.

We have charge of the assembly program Nov. 28 and the Christmas program, Dec. 19.

We have selected our motto, "United we stand, divided we fall."

RADAR CANAL "WATCHDOG"

A signal corps radar set, which passed its initial Army field test in 1938, was a "watchdog" at the Panama Canal a year before Pearl Harbor. The set's key tube, designed and manufactured by Westinghouse, produced 10 times more power than any other ultra high frequency electronic tube built previously.

National Food Situation Reviewed by BAE

COLLEGE STATION—Civilian families will have a larger choice and supply of food this fall and winter than in the first nine months of the year. This conclusion was arrived at by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the USDA after a survey of the national food situation.

A report of the survey received by the Extension Service said that the domestic civilian stocks of meat, canned fruits, vegetables, turkeys, chickens, fluid cream, potatoes and other food supplies will be larger than in recent months, and much larger than the same period last year. The report forecasts that more potatoes, more eggs, and more lower grades of beef may be available than civilians will demand at present prices.

As a further easing of the situation, some increases are expected in supplies of butter, cheese, pork and veal. But little change in lamb and mutton supplies for civilians is looked for because non-civilian takings will be larger in the next few months, the report said.

Some relief from the tight supply of sugar is expected next spring if the Cuban crop turns out well. But no substantial increase in world stocks seems likely before early in 1947 when there will have been opportunity for larger production in the Philippines, one of the large producing areas.

The survey indicated that prices of most classes of meat, other than the lower grades of beef, are likely to continue at ceiling levels at least through the first part of 1946.

Viewing the meat situation from the civilian consumer standpoint, the BAE found some favorable and some unfavorable aspects. Present indications are that supplies will be considerably higher than in the first half of the year and may exceed an annual rate of 140 pounds per capita this winter. Prices of lower grades of beef may even decline from ceilings.

On the other hand, military and export needs probably will be so large as to keep civilian supplies of pork, lamb and mutton below full demand at present prices, and below the heavy rate of consumption in the last quarter of 1944. This seems likely to develop in spite of the probable output of these meats in the last quarter of the year.

The survey indicated that prices of most classes of meat, other than the lower grades of beef, are likely to continue at ceiling levels at least through the first part of 1946.

TELEVISION KEY

Key to all television operation, according to Westinghouse engineers, is persistence of vision—the common optical characteristic which enables the eye to retain what has been seen for a fraction of a second after the image has been removed.

LINES FORM PICTURE

Television pictures are constructed of hundreds of fine horizontal lines scanned in the pickup unit, transmitted individually and reconstructed in the receiver. More than 30,000 lines are required for a single second of high-definition television, according to Westinghouse engineers. Some of our politicians have discovered that they built their fences so high they can't get over them.

We Are Moving— THIS WEEK

Carrying out our plans as previously announced, we are moving our stock of Implements and Parts to Bovina this week, where, in the future, the business will be operated in the old C. A. Norton building on west Main Street.

We are asking our patrons to bear with us during this transfer period, and we hope that we have not caused too much inconvenience to our customers. We tried to select a time when our moving would least handicap those needing supplies and parts.

In our Bovina location, we will carry a complete line of International Harvester Company parts and supplies, as well as a complete line of IHC implements as soon as the full line is available to the trade.

In the meantime, we are looking forward toward the establishment of a complete repair shop to be operated in connection with our business, and hope to be able to announce details regarding this in the near future.

Call on us any time we may be of service to you.

SENIOR NEWS

My, my, but aren't we proud! Our candidate for carnival queen (Sybil Ham) won the race, and she was a mighty pretty one, too. We will probably get our pictures within the next week or two.

The class was very well pleased when we found out how much money we made at the carnival. We wish to thank everyone who made the carnival such a big success.

SOPH NEWS

Well, we're sure proud of the Soph. class, and why shouldn't we be? Maxine Ford (a sophomore of what a cute one she made. I wonder what a cute one she made. I wonder why she blushed when Bobby and Don crowned her, tho?

Congratulations to Sybil, she made a lovely carnival queen. The soph booths turned out well. We made $36.50. We wonder, tho, where Don and Maxine were that night?

We're really proud of the Farwell Steers, and we see Bovina didn't dehorn us. There are quite a few Sophs. on the team.

JUNIOR GABBLE

We were all wondering if our candidate for queen was going to get to the carnival, but she finally showed up, just in time. We were proud of our candidates, tho. They all looked very nice at the coronation.

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

Our booths at the carnival were a great success and we made around $25. We wish to express our appreciation for the help of our class parents. We hope to have a class party in the near future, when we will put the $25 to use.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Boy! Are we glad the carnival is over, although we did make about $13.45 on our booth. The weeks are sure going by fast. Just finished taking six weeks tests and it's nearly time to do it again.

WHO'S WHO

We were all wondering who that guy was on the bottom of that pile of boys, when we played Bovina. I recognized Max Ford and Jr. Robertson as they untangled and struggled to their feet. Next off came that Brock kid from Bovina, and then, well, now, just who WAS that guy? He looked to be about 5 ft. and 6½ or 7 inches tall and I guess he would weigh about 126 pounds. From where I stood it looked like his eyes were blue and from the glimpse I got before he put his helmet on, I'd say his hair is brown and curly. He had the intelligent look of a senior on his face and later on I saw him flying down the field with the pigskin under his arm. It turned out to be the first touch-down for Farwell. If anyone can give me his name I certainly will appreciate it, because I would like to compliment him on his excellent football playing.

SCANDAL

Bobby certainly had a lovely girl friend. Too bad he didn't rate a date with the little lady the last nite she was here. We hope he survives the heart-break!

We wonder who Billie Marie went thru the tunnel of love with? Some fun, Don and Bert?

Who's La Moir's new romance? Say, we wonder who teacher Nabors was with at the party Wednesday nite? Teacher-r-r-r!

It's a wonder Don doesn't have a black eye—Huba! Huba!

We heard that Junior had a fight Friday night. He won't tell who won! Wonder why?

We hear some Farwell girls out-smarted a few of the Farwell boys last Wednesday night. How in the world did you get to Clovis, boys?

It looks as if the Farwell Steers didn't get de-horned after all. They kinda made work horses out of the Mustangs tho, eh, Bovina?

Seems as if Max is going back to his old girl friends again. You all remember Jean Danner, don't you?

Saw a funny show last Friday night. JeDon Porter was literally rolling in the aisles. (I guess he was laughing.)

Heard that everyone had a swell time at Reba's party Friday night, eh, LaMoin and J. W.?

We wonder what's wrong with Berthamae's watch? It's always gaining time!

It's rumored that Jeatonne and Wynelle just love to ride elevators! We just can't wait to see who is going to wear the footballs the boys were awarded last week. I'll bet it's NOT the boys!

RADAR TESTED IN 1938

Three years before Pearl Harbor the Army and Westinghouse electronics engineers drew "beads" on airplanes soaring over the New Jersey coast in "proving ground" tests of radar. The radar set was calibrated by directing the invisible beam at the Empire State Building and other fixed targets in the New York City area.

RUNS 4,315° TEMPERATURE

The filament inside a 60-watt electric light bulb runs a 4,315 degree Fahrenheit temperature when it lights up. This is about 10 times as hot as the temperature inside an oven where a pie is baked.

"Will a SQUARE PEG Go in a ROUND HOLE?"

OF COURSE a square peg won't go in a round hole unless the hole is larger than the peg! You wouldn't even try doing this because you know it cannot be done. That is about as easily done sometimes as finding adequate storage space for fuel that has to be bought in bulk. It's naturally more economical and less trouble to buy bulk fuel by the season or year but where to put it?—that's the problem!

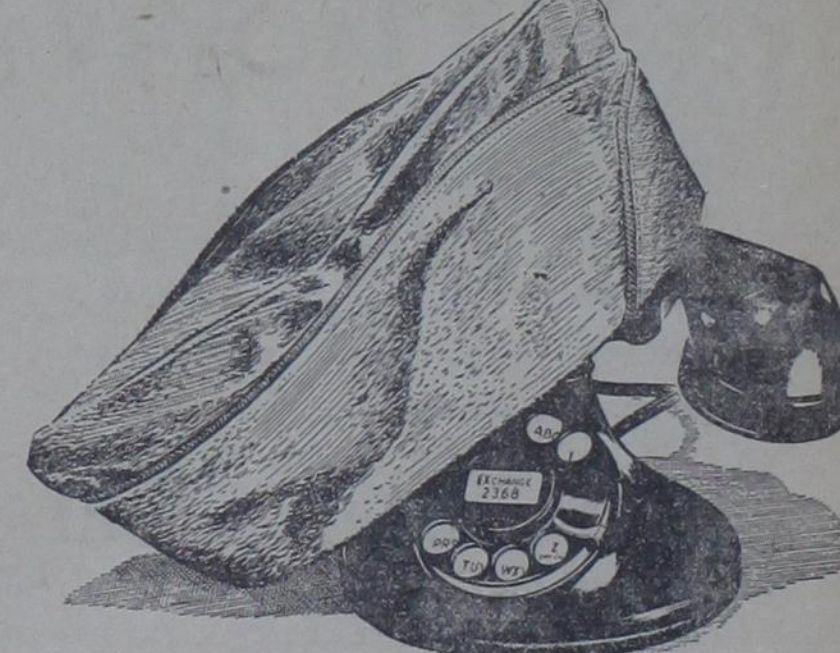

But with Natural Gas there is no problem of storage space because you don't have to store your supply of Natural Gas. Natural Gas is kept in storage just where Nature placed it—deep down hundreds of feet below the earth. Your own private supply of Natural Gas is in this subterranean storehouse and you use it as you need it. You don't have to order Natural Gas in advance; you don't have to pay delivery costs; you don't have the problem of storage space.

New District Formed For Cage Teams

R. J. Kidd, athletic director of the Texas Interscholastic League, has advised Coach Jack Williams, of the Farwell school, that the league has approved an application from Bovina, Lazbuddy, Oklahoma Lane, Farwell, Vega and Adrian to form a basketball district.

A number will be assigned to the district following a meeting of the league in Austin on November 15th. Kidd added in his letter to Coach Williams.

For the last several years, Bovina, Lazbuddy, Oklahoma Lane, Farwell and Springlake have comprised the northern half of District 10, Coach Williams explained. With the withdrawal of the four Farmer county teams from District 10, Springlake will likely be put in with the southern group, it was believed.

Conference basketball will officially open on December 7 for the Farwell teams, when Lazbuddy squads visit here. The tentative schedule is as follows:

- November 27, Oklahoma Lane, here, non conference.
- November 30, Bovina, there, non conference.
- December 4, Open date.
- December 7, Lazbuddy, here, conference.
- December 14, Friona, here, conference, girls only.
- December 18, Bovina, there, conference.
- December 21, Open.
- January 1, Open.
- January 8, Oklahoma Lane, there, conference.
- January 11, Adrian, here, conference.
- January 15, Open.
- January 18, Open.
- January 22, Lazbuddy, there, conference.
- January 25, Vega, here, conference.
- January 29, Open.
- February 1, Friona, there, conference, girls only.
- February 5, Bovina, here, conference.
- February 8, Oklahoma Lane, here, conference.
- February 12, Open.
- February 15, Adrian, there, conference.

Coach Jack Williams is working with some thirty boys at the school, while a like number of girls have been turning out for practice under the direction of Misses Berthamæ Thomas and Ann Nichols, assisted by Supt. H. A. Clift. Workouts have been on fundamentals and limbering up thus far, but the coaches expect to "settle down to business" in a few days.

New Mexico's future depends very largely upon the continued development of its natural resources.

The values of lands and buildings on irrigated farms in New Mexico is more than $82,000,000.

Basketball Schedule Released For Texico

Coaches C. E. Sanders and Tom Hudson have been busy the past week, breaking in their basketball team members at the Texico school, with the season to get underway next Wednesday night.

The tentative schedule has been announced as follows:

- November 21, Pleasant Hill, there, boys and girls.
- November 3, Floyd, here, two boys games.
- December 1, Ranchvale, there, boys and girls.
- December 7, Rosedale, here, boys and girls.
- December 14, Rogers, there, two boys games.
- December 15, Portales, there, two boys games.
- January 4, Dora, here, two boys games.
- January 11, Melrose, there, two boys games.
- January 18, Rosedale, there, boys and girls.
- January 19, Ranchvale, here, boys and girls.
- January 25, Pleasant Hill, here, boys and girls.
- February 8, Clovis, here, two boys games.
- February 9, Vaughn, here, two boys games.

In the boys' division, Coach Sanders has several returning lettermen, and said this week that he expected to work out a "fairly nice team" during the season. Lettermen out for practice include Johnson, Freeman, Baker, Doolittle, Baldock, and May. Asked as to prospects over the county, Sanders said that "everybody seems to be about in the same boat" with most schools having lost a large majority of their first-stringers by graduation last spring.

Coach Hudson also has some returnees in his girls' division, in addition to a number of greenhands. Flye and Baker, who have done considerable playing during the past two years, as well as Evelyn and Beryl Brown and May, are showing promise already, he said.

World War 2 Museum Collection As WT

CANYON—A collection of World War II materials, totaling 23 items, has been given to the Plains Museum here by W. F. Bradley of Amarillo, veteran of the war.

The gift was arranged by "Pinky" Pinkerton of Amarillo. The collection includes nine helmets, two swords, and a number of bayonets. Although obtained by Mr. Bradley in Germany, the items include weapons and equipment from half a dozen countries.

The museum's collections of World War II materials are growing steadily. Assembling of this material will be expedited by the Veterans Association of West Texas State College of which Robert Zeigler is president.

Jack Spurlin Reports On Visit To China

Signalman second class Jack W. Spurlin, of the Coast Guard, has sent The Tribune a letter, reporting on his recent visit to China. Spurlin is the brother-in-law of Walter Hardage, of Farwell. His letter follows:

"We were the first units to land in this North China port to begin occupation operations. My ship was a unit of a large squadron of transports, carrying Marines and supplies. . . . This port is Tsingtao, located in the Shantung province, the second largest in China. This was one of the first major cities the Japs occupied in their conquest of China, and the prisoners were released only two weeks before we arrived. When I speak of prisoners I refer mostly to American priests and nuns, to whom I had the privilege of talking. There is quite an inflation on—here is an example: $1 in US currency is equal to anywhere from $1,500 to $2,000 in Chinese money. A little advice to any mother that might have a son serving out here: Don't fall over in a dead faint if he writes saying he went on liberty and spent $40,000 (I spent $50,000 myself.)

"You have read enough in the papers by this time to know how the Japs operated or ruled the places they invaded. I think this was a typical example. Everything in general was in sad condition when we arrived. It was advisable to dust flea powder on our socks before going ashore and when we returned go through the same procedure, only covering our entire body, plus dusting our sonenirs. First time I went on liberty with a can of flea powder.

"You step ashore and there are herds of rickshaws waiting to greet you. They are being held back by Chinese cops, so everyone can get an equal start, I guess. Then all of a sudden they are turned loose and the drivers tear at you at breakneck speed, all jabbering at once. I said to myself, 'Well, Spurlin, you came through the war without a scratch but things don't look too favorable right at the present'. Take a thousand head of Texas cattle stampeding toward you and you have a faint idea of how I felt.

"After having my uniform almost ripped off, I managed to get in and my Chinese driver started toward the center of town at terrific speed. It made me tired just to watch them run so long without ever stopping. They weave in and out of traffic, which then included jeeps and trucks along with hundreds of other rickshaws, like a professional football player carrying the pigskin. I was scared half to death when I stumbled out of the rickshaw for a few jeeps had brushed my arm along the way. The custom is to drive on the left side of the road—our jeep and truck drivers were not used to that procedure, so you can see what I mean!

"When the Chinese heard the Americans were coming they all came to town with whatever they had to sell, and stayed. You could see them sleeping on the streets at night with only a little straw mat. The number of people on the streets probably equaled our large cities in the States on V-J day. It was advisable to go ashore in pairs, for I tried it alone and was swarmed by curious Chinese trying to see what kind of clothes the American sailor was wearing, and my camera caused quite a bit of confusion. Incidentally, they have a superstition about you taking their picture. It is their belief that when their picture is taken, it goes away with their soul; thus you have a hard time trying to get one of them to stand still long enough for you to snap one.

"You could go in a shop to purchase a souvenir and when you stepped out there would be an audience to receive you. You would have to fight off the beggars for everyone thought we were all rich.

"Our main object was to get souvenirs—think we are thought of as the world's best! I saw a couple of slightly under the weather sailors carrying their purchases back to the ship. One had a live hawk and the other a bird cage with two lovebirds, plus all the silk articles, etc. The Chinese probably sold more merchandise and odd articles the short time we were there than they previously had for 10 years. The most popular articles were silk, robes, kimonos, silverware and dishes—the kimonos cost around $70,000 in Chinese currency.

"We had orders not to eat or drink anything while ashore, but I guess that must have excluded booze—you know how sailors are! They never had to warn me against eating, for after one look at their chow I lost all I had eaten the day before. It was nothing to see some Chink walking down the street with a handful of dead fish heads. All their markets were right out in the streets, mixed with flies and almost every other kind of bugs. That was enough for me, so I excused myself from the market district.

"Back to my short talk with the nun prisoners. One of them said, 'We were fed almost as well as the average Jap soldier, which is nothing to brag about. When we discarded our garbage, the Chinese people would pounce upon it like starved dogs.' I have proof that they were really starved, for when we arrived and were anchored offshore, the fishermen would come out in their scrubby boats and pick up floating pieces of chow we had discarded.

"We departed Tsingtao with everyone yelling 'Hey Joe, One Dollar, Joe'. These were the only words they had mastered during the seven days we were there, but I think they were profitable ones. . . . P. S. Mr. Graham, would you like a rickshaw complete with driver?"

Texas Tech Raiders Go To Oklahoma

LUBBOCK—Jubilant at their 12-0 victory Saturday over the Texas Christian Horned Frogs, the Texas Tech Red Raiders invade Stillwater, Okla., this weekend, with high hopes as they face their fourth 1944 opponent of the year—the Oklahoma Aggies.

"Stop Fenimore" is the cry in the Raider camp this week and Coach Dell Morgan feels his charges, if they play as they did against TCU, will do much better in halting Bob Fenimore, the Aggie All-American, than many others have done. Only minor injuries were apparent among Techs after the TCU encounter. Morgan is depending on his line, rated one of the toughest by TCU coaches to halt the Aggie ace.

Powerful Walter Schlinkman, Texas Tech's All-America candidate added much to his bid for that honor against the Horned Frogs when he sparked the team he captains to victory in his final home game before a 10,000 Homecoming crowd. Despite an injured shoulder, the little senior amassed 137 of the team's 138 net yards on the ground and carried the ball four straight times for 25 yards and the Raiders' second touchdown in closing minutes of play. In addition, he intercepted two passes and punted six times for 199 yards. His season's rushing yardage moved to 729 as the result of the afternoon's play.

The alligator is the only saurian or reptile of the alligator group which is known to make a distinctive noise. It will roar or bellow when angry or disturbed.

PIG FEEDER PROJECT LAUNCHED BY FFA

Supervisor Tom Hudson stated on Tuesday that the Texico Future Farmers of America Club is this week launching an extensive pig feeding project, with twelve Chester-White pigs in the feeder lots.

The pigs were purchased by the FFA last week, from Frank Burnett, of near Texico, and will be put in a lot at the Willie Goldsmith place near the school. The boys of the association are building pens and feed troughs, as well as shelters this week, Hudson added, in view of getting the project actually underway.

The work will be a demonstration with a view to illustrating the importance of proper feeding to achieve economical gain, Hudson said. Several different types of hog feed will be used, and next spring, the club will sponsor a special "feeder day" at which time the pigs will be compared for gains during the period of feeding. Accurate records of the amount and cost of the feed, and the week-by-week gains of the pigs, will be kept by the boys participating in the experiment.

When the pigs are fattened, they will be sold by the chapter, Hudson went on, with the money to be used to finance a trip by the ag representatives to the Purina farms, at St. Louis, Mo., next spring.

Haws Reports—

You die!"

"I finally put on a tourniquet and stayed there till the raid was over. Then I started walking back to the camp by myself. I met three prisoners on my work detail and they took me to the camp, where eight hours later my arm was amputated. The doctor, Lt. Commander Makovitch, a Navy man taken on Guam, didn't expect me to live because I had lost so much blood.

"The shop where I had worked was damaged beyond repair but some of the others were put into production about the 10th of August. About the 15th we heard of the war's end. The Japanese never did tell us, we just figured it out from their actions."

Sergeant Haws was a member of the 2nd Battalion of the 200th Coast Artillery. An older brother, Claude, was a member of the 1st battalion of the same unit. Both men were taken when Bataan surrendered and both made the infamous March of Death. They took malaria within two weeks after their arrival at Camp O'Donnell. Claude died May 28, 1942.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Haws, reside in Clovis, and two older brothers, Leonard and Wesley have, are residents of Friona.

THINKER-UPPERS

is a new word, and includes those who are "thinking up" newer and better ways of producing more and better things with less time and labor. The farmer's part is the production of grain. Our part is the efficient handling and sale of it.

May We Be One With You in this Valuable Combination?
