

Bucket Brigade to Start a Fire

Here is a bucket brigade in action with the object of starting a fire. The members of the brigade are soldiers passing ammunition to bombard Japanese positions on Rendova island. The seizure of this island by our forces was followed by rapid surprise actions of land, sea, and air troops, who are steadily advancing toward Japan proper.

Bovina Plans Bond Rally Tuesday Nite

The War Bond Committee of Bovina today announced plans for a big bond rally to be held in that city on Tuesday night, Sept. 28.

Able speakers, entertainment numbers and a pie sale will feature the program, which will be rendered in a roped-off section on Main street. "We plan to make this the biggest bond-selling event ever staged in Parmer county," Aubrey Brock, one of the committee members, stated here this morning.

Brock said that pledges were already being taken and that sales at the rally were expected to reach a nice figure. The public is urged to attend for an evening's entertainment and help in a great cause.

Parmer County's 3rd War Bond Drive

Texico Passes Half Way Mark in Sales

The Texico precinct has passed its half-way mark in the sale of War Bonds, Mrs. Lucy O. Brown, Texico postmaster, announced today.

The precinct has been assigned a quota of $15,000, and she reported today that sales totaling $10,125 (maturity value) had been subscribed in that precinct.

The bulk of the sales came as a result of a bond rally, staged at the Texico school on last Thursday evening, when sales totaling slightly more than $4,000 were made.

Pleasant Hill raised its quota of $15,000 at a single rally on Friday night of last week and became the first precinct in the county to "go over the top".

Service Honor Roll For Farwell 'Exes'

A new honor roll will soon be on display at the Farwell school, bearing the names of former students who are now serving in any of the various branches of the service.

The project is being sponsored by the seniors, who state that it is not necessary that the boy be a graduate of the local school. "If they have been enrolled here, we want their names on this honor list," one of the class members said today.

Persons who have relatives or friends in the service should turn in their names to the class, or to Marilyn Anderson, chairman, as soon as possible. It is not necessary that the rank and location of the man in service be given, as these frequently change and the service roll is to be permanent.

Loan Price on Soy Beans Released Here

The government loan price on soy beans produced in this area this year will range from $1.84 to $1.49 per bushel, it was announced here today by Stanley Hillhouse, manager of the Farwell Bonded Warehouse.

Hillhouse explained that the loan value was based on the grade, color and moisture content of the beans, stating that there were five different grades. No. 1 quality beans are rated at $1.84 and No. 5 have a loan value of $1.49.

Under the new set-up for handling the current crop, he explained that the usual delay in getting returns on the stored beans has been overcome. "They will be handled in the same manner as wheat loans," he added, "with the grower able to get his money at a bank upon presentation of his warehouse receipt."

Like most crops of the county this year, soy beans are described as good in some localities and poor in others, due to the uneven rainfall of the past nine months.

Soy beans are listed as a strictly government crop, and so far as could be learned no prevailing price has been set for outright purchase, Hillhouse added.

TEACHERS TO MEETING

Members of the Texico school faculty agreed Monday evening to attend the New Mexico teachers conference, to be held October 20-21-22, in Albuquerque. During this three-day period, the local school will be dismissed.

Tax Payment Time Opens October 1st

Mrs. Bess Mansfield, deputy tax collector, today called attention to the approaching time for making payments on current county, state and school taxes. Statements will be mailed from the local office during the next few days and payments will be accepted any time after October 1st, she said.

Taxpayers will be accorded the same opportunity to save on their state taxes this year as in previous years of late, she offered. Payments made during the month of October will be subject to a discount of 3%, dropping to 2% discount in November and scaling on down to a 1% discount during the month of December. These discounts, she emphasized, apply only to STATE TAXES and are not to be deducted from county and school taxes.

No discount will be allowed for payments made during the month of January, 1944, and payments not made by the last day of that month will become delinquent on February 1st, after which time penalties and interest will begin to be added.

Mrs. Mansfield said that tax collections had been exceptionally good during the past three years, with the average ranging from 90% to 92%.

Methodists Close Successful Year

The local Methodist Church is closing out one of the most successful years recently, according to the report of Rev. Paul H. Tripp, pastor, made at the fourth quarterly conference, held Tuesday night.

During the year 45 new members have been added to the church rolls, seven of them by profession of faith and the remainder by letter. All financial obligations of the church have been met, and the pastor will be able to report "everything in full" when he goes to the annual conference at El Paso in October.

A resolution asking for the return of Rev. Tripp for another year and boosting his salary to $2,000 was introduced after having been previously adopted by the board of stewards.

Tuesday night's conference session was presided over by District Superintendent M. L. Sims, following a devotional conducted by Rev. H. C. English.

TEACHER RESIGNS

Mrs. Linwood McGinniss, home economics teacher in the Farwell high school, has tendered her resignation to Supt. J. T. Carter with the announcement that she plans to join her husband, Sgt. McGinniss, now in training at St. Paul, Minn. Carter said he expected to have a replacement by the first of next week.

SISTER DIES IN OKLA.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams were called to Wapanucka, Okla., the first of the week by the death of Mrs. Williams' sister, Miss Louise Dunning, age 26, who died Sunday after spending eight years in an invalid chair.

She had been paralyzed from her hips down after being shot with a .22 rifle while visiting in the home of a neighbor, when a small boy fired the gun at her, not knowing it was loaded.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were accompanied to Oklahoma by Archie Hinchey, a brother of the deceased young lady. These same people had just returned from Wapanucka a few days ago, where they had been called by the death of their father.

Much Wheat Fails To Come Up Locally

Many Parmer county farmers who took advantage of light showers during the past few weeks in the hope of getting their wheat crop started have been disappointed, for many fields have failed to come up because of insufficient moisture.

As conditions now stand, most of the wheat farmers of the county are not only faced with lack of pasture for their cattle, but the tremendous hazard of seeing their valuable top soil carried away by the high winds from the north that can be expected to start any day. Multiplied thousands of acres of wheat land has been summer plowed until it is in a very susceptible stage to wind ravages.

Lariat Gin Ready For Cotton Season

The Lariat Gin, operated by E. M. Deaton, is ready for the opening of the fall ginning season, Deaton announced here today.

He said that he had been able to gather a good ginning crew this year and that Harold Berry would act as assistant manager, with Chas. Quisenberry as head ginner.

Asked what the prospects promised for cotton turn-out, Deaton said they were none too favorable. He estimated that the Lariat gin would probably handle "about 700 or 800 bales" this season. He then added that he had been too busy with other matters to give the territory a very good inspection this year.

Due to the shortage of the crop and the added difficulty of getting experienced labor, Deaton has previously announced that no plans were made for opening the Farwell gin during the present season.

One Down, Two to Go

Five days after Allied forces swarmed across Messina, they sailed onto the mainland of Italy, that country surrendered unconditionally, culminating its alliance with Germany. With the war in Italy victoriously finished, the Allies have broken the Axis triumvirate, leaving Germany and Japan to be defeated.

Parmer County has just barely passed the half-way mark in the sale of War Bonds in the third campaign of the war, it was revealed here today by G. D. Anderson, chairman of the War Bond Committee.

To date, Anderson reports sales totaling $158,908.50 have been made in this county. "This means," he added bluntly, "that we've got to sell another $150,000 during the remaining week if we are to reach our assigned quota."

The county quota is $316,500. Small Investors Must Come In

"We have just about canvassed every man of large means in the county," the chairman said, adding "from now on it's going to be up to the small investors, men who can buy five hundred and one hundred dollar bonds—and not overlooking the fifty and twenty-five dollar purchasers."

Commenting further the county chairman said that the job from here on "looks like a tough one, but it can be done if everybody will come in and do his part."

Light crops and income tax payments have had a decided effect on the sale of bonds in this county, he explained, but pointed out, however, "We can't win a war by crying 'I can't'."

Reviewing the sales in this county, Anderson estimated that already not less than one million dollars in bonds had been bought by our people since war bonds were offered, but added, "That's not helping us to raise the present quota."

He made an earnest appeal to every man, woman and child in the county to contact any one of the county solicitors during the remaining days of the campaign and turn in their subscriptions in the hope of completing the task.

Any bank or postoffice in the county has the bonds to offer. In addition, the county chairman directed would-be purchasers to any of the following workers Mrs. Pearl Kinsley, Fronia; W. E. Williams, Bovina; W. M. Sherley, Lazbuddy.

Tops Texas Carriers In Sale of War Bonds

Nelson C. Smith, rural carrier on route 1 out of Farwell, is feeling justly proud this week for the part he is setting in the sale of War Bonds.

He has just been informed that to date he is leading all route carriers in the state in the sale of bonds, with approximately $50,000 already placed. And he adds, "I'll get the fifty thousand before the campaign closes."

He received a card from W. E. Suddarth, chairman of the bond committee in Texas, advising him of his standing. The only other carrier in Texas who has approached Smith's sales is down on the Gulf Coast, Suddarth advises.

Carrier Smith again explained this week that full credit to the county quota would go with sales made by him, regardless of where the purchaser lived, in Parmer or Bailey county.

INSTALL NEW FIXTURES

The City Cafe has just installed some new booths at its place of business, and other new equipment is to be added as soon as delivery can be made. To date only the counter stools and new seats for the booths have arrived.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Ollie Williams was returned to her home in Texico on Sunday from a Clovis hospital, where she had been critically ill for several days. During her illness she was given a number of blood transfusions.

Water Off Sunday

R. V. Ham, caretaker and maintenance man for the Texico-Farwell waterworks, announced today that water service will be cut off at some points in the Twin Cities on Sunday, while emergency repairs are being made.

Specifically, Ham stated that all water would be cut off in Texico, down the entire main street of Farwell, and in the Farwell residential district from the home of Mrs. Bess Mansfield, inclusive, down the street to main, embracing homes on both sides of the alley.

Water service will be discontinued at 10 a. m., unless weather conditions are such that the repair work cannot be made, Ham stated. He urged that all persons having hot water heaters or water coolers, whose water supply will be affected take precautions by turning off cooler motors and extinguishing fires under heaters.

"Unless we run into unexpected trouble, the water supply will not be off more than a few hours," he added.

Farming Talk

By GARLON A. HARPER
County Agricultural Agent

Texas A. & M. Extension Service

Now is the time when most people are interested only in how the war is coming along and how to meet the emergencies created in our farming work by the war—as shortages of labor, machinery, etc. We don't seem to have time to figure out some of the things which we will need to be doing after the war is over. But, now is the time for us all to start doing some post-war planning along the line of agriculture in our county. If we don't start this planning now we are not going to be ready for some of the work which might come our way after the war.

One thing which we might start thinking about right now is soil conservation work. By this I mean a definite program for the conservation and upbuilding of our soils over the entire county and the proper use of the soil for the most profit in farming. Last week I heard a man make the statement that rural homes could be built and rural life put on par with any life if we could only be sure of two things. First, that our land would produce, and second, that our markets would be good. We certainly can do something about one of these things, the first. So let's start making plans right now to do some real soil conservation work in Parmer County.

Under the state law of Texas a soil conservation district may be organized by getting home owners interested and started to work. This soil conservation district is an organization for conservation of our soils which is governed by supervisors you home owners of the county would elect yourselves. These men map out a program of work which is most needed in the county, and in doing this they have assistance of soil specialists, land use specialists and others from whom technical advice may be needed. But the most important thing is that the farmers of the county work out, from their own experience, what is most needed for the county. Then, after the work is organized, it is up to the individual farmer to carry out the work on his own farm, provided he wants to use the services of the soil conservation district.

I hope that the land owners of Parmer county will become interested in this soil conservation district work. I shall be glad to give all the assistance I possibly can to the educational program of work and in organizing such a district if the people of the county desire it.

Texans To Graduate
Into War Industry

AUSTIN—Another 1,000 Texans will "graduate" from University of Texas sponsored war training courses this fall to join the thousands of others who have gone from such classes directly into war industry.

The present 1,000 students are enrolled in 48 courses offered under the federal engineering, science and management war training program which is directed in this state by the university, Reed Granberry, coordinator of the program, announced.

Another 38 courses have been approved by Washington and will be organized within the next two months, Granberry said.

Scholars Will Turn
To United States

AUSTIN—Scholars of the world will turn to the universities of the United States for graduate training after the war, just as they have to Germany in previous years, University of Texas president Homer P. Rainey has declared.

America today occupies the top position in higher education because her educational system has not been destroyed by war, he said. German education is at a standstill, and schoolboys of most European countries are in uniform or assembly lines.

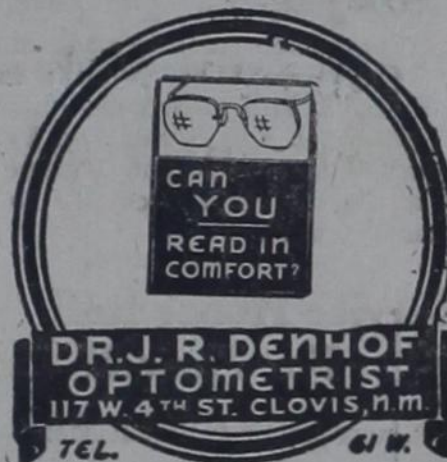

WOMEN TAKE OVER
RADIO BROADCASTING

AUSTIN—Women not only have "invaded" the field of radio broadcasting, but at the University of Texas have made a complete conquest of the field.

As former staff members have left to take up military assignments, more and more jobs at Radio House, the University's broadcasting unit, have been taken over by women.

J. Howard Lumpkin, now an army special services officer and formerly director of Radio House, has been succeeded by Mrs. Elithe Hamilton Beal. Assistant script director Joe Murphy, now employed by the Office of Economic Warfare, has been followed by Mrs. Marye Benjamin.

Student groups participating in radio work show the same trend—the 27-member chorus and orchestra boasts only seven men.

Health Notes

By Texas Department of Health

AUSTIN—With the advent of fall and the attendant seasonal changes of weather, common colds become much more prevalent and widespread in the state.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a warning against the careless treatment of any respiratory illness since they can and frequently do result in the dreaded complication, pneumonia. He emphasized the fact that pneumonia usually strikes with little or no warning, following a simple cold, an attack of influenza or some other respiratory infection.

"A cold or any other infection of the breathing passage, especially if accompanied by fever, demands the immediate attention of a doctor," the state health officer said. "To try to fight such a disease without bed rest and by means of self-medication may endanger life unnecessarily."

According to Dr. Cox, prevention is better than cure and in order to avoid colds, influenza, and pneumonia he advised building up normal physical resistance by sufficient ventilation, adequate nourishing food, outdoor exercise and sufficient sleep and rest. "However," he added, "if, in spite of such care, a respiratory illness develops, the family doctor should be called immediately. The fact that pneumonia is definitely a communicable disease is often overlooked, Dr. Cox stated, but this should be borne in mind, so that the danger of passing the disease from one person to another can be eliminated."

SOUTH PLAINS ARMY AIR FIELD, Lubbock—The Commandos at SPAAF this fall will play one of the more promising football schedules of any service team in the state.

SPAAF's team boasts a big, speedy lineup which should give the fans of the area something to watch during the fall. Southwestern possibly will prove to be the toughest opposition.

Housewives' Pledge Cards Received Here

Are you one of the housewives who carefully checks prices against announced ceilings, and submits the proper amount of points when buying rationed goods—or are you the type that is a definite menace to security on the home front, the scatterbrain who buys what she wants regardless of prices asked, and grabs any rationed item that she can get without points?

In a determined effort to combat black market operations by appealing to the American housewife, the government recently instigated a drive to sign up homemakers on a pledge "not to buy any over-priced foods", and "to give up stamps when required for purchases".

Called the home front pledge, membership cards, windshield stickers and placards have been issued to designate the women who are cooperating wholeheartedly in the war effort.

Mrs. Roy Bobst, at the local ration office, reported today that pledge cards and stickers were on hand at her office, and urged all patriotic women to sign the cards as proof of their intentions of cooperating in all ways necessary to bring the war to a rapid and successful close.

Promptness and a better class of work is our motto. Dial 2131.

This Is To Speed Up His Return Home!

My bones just ache to get out there and take a crack at the Axis, but that is exactly why I can't do it—my bones ache too much. It's those youngsters with plenty of pep and zip in them who are going to show the Japs and Germans what they're up against. And they can do it, too! But we old timers can do something. Buy War Bonds and Stamps to keep our boys properly equipped and buy as many as we can. I'm not just talking to have something to say. It is our duty to give at least 10 per cent of our wages to buy war stamps. We can do that easily compared to the sacrifice all those boys are making. We can't let them down. They're counting on us all. DON'T LET THEIR SACRIFICE BE IN VAIN!

ODT Will Help to Locate Repair Parts

Truck owners and operators will receive help in finding needed repair parts during the coming months through the efforts of maintenance specialists in 142 district offices of the ODT, Richard E. Wood, district manager of ODT's motor transport division, announced today.

In addition to spreading the greatly expanded flow of new parts scheduled for production, the specialists have access to lists of interchangeable parts used in many types of trucks, and will undertake to locate needed parts through ODT specialists in other cities, through parts makers and through the cooperation of the WPB, as well as through local channels afforded by the industry-wide membership of local district maintenance advisory committees and sub-committees.

Through the cooperation of members of local committees, one half of the local parts shortages reported to ODT to date have been relieved locally, Wood said. With the 142 ODT specialists, the local search is put on a nation-wide basis.

Wood pointed out that although materials assigned to parts manufacturers have been greatly increased, there is still a big problem in getting particular parts to the areas where they are most needed. It is in locating needed parts in other areas where they may be available that the maintenance specialist can be of real help.

To prevent avoidable lay-up of trucks, operators unable to find needed parts are urged to immediately contact the specialist at the nearest district office of ODT.

BISHOP TO PREACH

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of the Methodist Church, will preach at the local church on Monday evening, October 5, it has been announced by Rev. Paul H. Tripp, pastor. This will be Bishop Holt's first appearance in Texico-Farwell since he was named a bishop, the highest official position in Methodism.

Farmers, Ranchers To Get Ammunition

At last taking cognizance of the fact that predatory animals and birds could not be controlled if farmers and ranchers have no ammunition for their guns, a new set-up for purchase of such ammunition has been authorized by WPB.

Set up by calendar quarter periods, such farmers or ranchers may purchase 100 rounds of .22 caliber long rifle cartridges or other rim fire cartridges; 40 rounds of center fire cartridges such as .30-30 caliber and 25 rounds of any gauge shotgun shells, it was announced.

Applications for such purchases are to be made to the county war board, at the AAA office.

Under the new program, approximately 100 million shotgun shells, 12 million center fire rifle cartridges and 100 million .22 caliber rim fire cartridges will be available for distribution.

Hawks, rabbits and fox have accounted for much damage to crops and stock on county farms, according to Ellis M. Mills, as the local AAA office, who stated that with sufficient ammunition available, the nuisance value of such pests could be reduced considerably.

Persons living in towns who will certify to the fact that they intend to use such ammunition for killing pests may also make application, he added.

Farmers or ranchers needing a larger amount of ammunition than the regular application calls for can purchase a special quota—50 rounds of .22 caliber long rifle cartridges, and 25 shotgun shells—by using certificate No. 5, provided they secure these amounts prior to Oct. 1 or their written orders are in the hands of the dealer by that date.

Further information is available through the county war board, at the AAA office.

Farmers Must Keep Records on Cotton

Farmers are asked to keep records of their 1943 cotton production and it is highly important that these records be kept accurately, said Ellis M. Mills, of the AAA office, today.

Mills explained that in the past years ginners have cooperated with the AAA by furnishing detailed records of cotton production for each farm, but this year these records will not be kept by ginners, due to suspension of marketing quotas.

Production records, Mills said, serve as a basis for determining the yields used in marketing quota programs, crop insurance, and in determining AAA payments.

"It is to a farmers' best interest that an accurate record of his 1943 cotton production be kept because this record may be needed in future AAA programs," the supervisor remarked. He added that each farmer should keep every gin ticket, bale receipt, or sales ticket for baled cotton and for lots of seed cotton sold. Mills added that the AAA would be glad to keep the records for any farmer who wishes to deliver or mail them to the county office.

KILLED IN CRASH

Mrs. W. H. Graham was informed on Monday of the death of her nephew, Lt. Ronald Faulkner, who was killed in an airplane crash near Metcalf, Ga., on Friday of last week. Lt. Faulkner received his silver pilot's wings about six weeks ago, and was assigned to duty as a pilot on a paratrooper training ship. He had formerly served as an instructor in the ground crew of the air force for several years. Burial will be at his home in Roseburg, Oregon.

Another Ration Book, No. 4, In November

With the expiration of the current "sugar and shoe book" actually ration book 1, on November 1, the No. 4 books will go into effect, according to information at the local office.

Mrs. Roy Bobst, in speaking of the new book today, said, "Actually we have no information as to when registration for the new books will be conducted, for how long they will be valid, or when they will be issued—we just know that there are to be new ones, and that the issuing of them will be handled through our office."

Book 3, as most people will remember, was issued out of the regional office in Dallas, with applications being sent out by mail and returned to Dallas the same way.

"We have heard reports that the books will be valid for two years—for three years," Mrs. Bobst said, "but definite information concerning them certainly has not been received here. When information is available, and when we receive word regarding applications, the public will be informed as far in advance as possible."
