

U. S. Leaders at Saboteur Trial

Attorney General Francis Biddle, J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, and Colonel Ristine are shown seated around a table in the courtroom in Washington as they listened to the proceedings of the famous saboteur trial. This is the trial of the eight Nazi saboteurs who were landed in this country by submarine for the express purpose of wrecking America's war machines. Caught by the FBI before they could fulfill their mission, they faced trial as spies. Speaking over the radio, Hoover declared that those who gave these eight Nazis aid were traitors to their country.

Fire Chief Gives His Own Alarm

Fire Chief Ira Selman of the Texico Fire Department doesn't believe in waiting for the other fellow to turn in an alarm when fire breaks out.

A few days ago, Chief Selman was standing in the door at the fire station and saw lightning strike a stack of feed belonging to Bob Williams, and located about a block from the station.

Witnesses say that Selman and his volunteer crew were spraying the feed stack with a hose from the booster tank of new fire engine within three minutes from the time the bolt struck.

A. FOY CURRY, JR., candidate for state representative of the 120th district, was here the latter part of last week from Tullia in the interest of his candidacy.

Mr. Curry is county attorney of Swisher county and one of the prominent young lawyers of this part of the state.

Troop Train Rams 8 Fat Steers Saturday

Eight fat steers, the property of Gene and John Lovelace, were hit by a Santa Fe train, bearing troops, a few miles east of this city Saturday afternoon.

Four of the steers were killed outright and an equal number were so badly crippled that they were knocked in the head shortly after the accident. Six of the animals belonged to Gene Lovelace, and two were the property of his brother, John.

Witnesses to the accident said that the right-of-way fence along the Santa Fe tracks had been removed some time ago. The cattle came from a near-by pasture.

Father Local Man Is Buried At Happy

Funeral services for Rev. Henry W. Carter, age 68, were held at the Methodist Church in Happy, Monday morning and burial took place in the Happy cemetery.

He was the father of J. T. Carter, superintendent of the Farwell school. Rev. Carter died at a hospital in Canyon, Saturday night after a very brief illness. He became ill at his home in Happy early Saturday morning and passed away that night.

He was a native of Tennessee, and had been a Methodist minister for more than 40 years, having served the local church as pastor a number of years ago. He is survived by two sons, Rev. Orion W. Carter, pastor of the First Methodist church at Childress, and J. T. Carter of this city, and three grandchildren.

His wife died at Happy a few years ago and he had continued to make his home there since her passing. He was laid to rest by her side in the Happy cemetery.

Mrs. B. N. Graham was called to Lamesa, Texas, on Monday afternoon, by the death of her aunt, Mrs. Ella Crawley. She will be gone for several days, it was understood here. Mrs. Crawley passed away Sunday night.

Bovina Resident Dies, Buried Sunday P. M.

Funeral services for J. W. Rose, age 75, were conducted at the Baptist Church in Bovina by Rev. E. J. Speegle, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. W. C. Wright, Baptist pastor of this city, on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Rose died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. L. Isham, in Clovis early Friday morning, after being stricken with paralysis about two weeks prior to his death.

He was the father of Claude Rose of this city. Other survivors include Charles Rose of Hot Springs, N. M., Ted Rose of Clovis, Warner Rose of the U. S. Armed forces, and a daughter, Mrs. C. L. Isham of Clovis. Burial was made in the Clovis cemetery.

Tire Quota Continues Below Applications

John R. Armstrong, chairman of the Parmer county rationing board, stated on Monday that the Parmer county tire, tube and retread quota continued to fall far below applications received locally.

Although counties are not allowed to make public the exact quotas issued, Armstrong said, "It's getting smaller every month—and they are asking us to turn back in some of our quotas, if possible."

He went on to say that the passenger retread quota was always more than taken up, but that during the month of June some truck retreads were turned back to the state office as a carryover.

On the first of July, truck tire applications exceeded by 94 the allowable for the county, while there were 159 more applications for tubes (for trucks, tractors and pickups) on hand than the county can fill. Tractor and pickup tire applications (which, incidentally, are counted against the truck tire quota) exceed the allotment by 178, while the passenger tire list is nearest balancing, with only 2 extra applications. On the retread situation however, 58 passenger applications are on file, with no hopes of taking care of them in the immediate future.

Report Is Given Following is the report of the board on the tire, tube and retread certificates authorized at the July 15 meeting:

- Fred Gerles, one tractor tire.
Robert Vice, two retread tractor tires, two tubes.
Andy Marcus, two pickup tires, one tube.
Charlie Baxter, one tractor tire.
Bob Hammonds, one tractor tire.
W. H. Jarrell, one tractor tire.
Clarence Day, one pickup tire, one tube.
Wilbur Charles, one pickup tire, one tube.
H. L. Ivy, two truck tires.
Rudolph Kube, one pickup tube.

COURT IN RECESS

District Court, which has been in session here since July 13, was in recess this week after disposing of some civil matters. Court attaches predicted that Judge James Witherspoon would call up some criminal cases today (Wednesday).

There is little indication that the term will continue for another week, and belief was freely expressed final adjournment would be taken before the close of the present week.

Grand Jury Returns Four Indictments

Four criminal indictments were returned by the Parmer County Grand Jury last Wednesday afternoon before taking final adjournment for the session.

Sheriff Earl Booth stated Tuesday that arrests had been made in two of the cases, but at that time he was not ready to release the names of the parties.

One of the cases, probably both of them, will come before the July session of the district court, now in session, before the close of the present week.

Demonstration Slated By Fire Boys Tonight

A demonstration on the use of a water pump without a plug will be given by the Texico Fire Department tonight (Wednesday) at 9 o'clock, Fire Chief Ira Selman said today.

The fireboys will go through their paces for the particular benefit of auxiliary fire fighters in this community, the Chief reported, and the demonstration is scheduled to take place at the fireplug by the Thomas Haraware building in Texico.

All local people who are interested in learning some of the mechanics of fire fighting are asked to be on hand at 9 o'clock.

Of Interest to Farmers

Producers who have orders or any farmers who are interested in CCC grain bins are advised to contact the AAA office in Farwell, in order to secure one of the bins. At present we have approximately 12 bins which have been unloaded and stored in Bovina, and approximately 12 bins stored in Friona.

Wheat producers are urged to begin thinking of insuring their 1943 wheat crop, since this insurance will be offered to the producers of this county within the next few days. The new insurance contract will be written for a period of three years. Past farming experience has taught us that we do not make a wheat crop every year as we have made this year; therefore, in order to secure a normal income from our future wheat crops we should protect our crop with Federal All-Risk Crop Insurance. You will be notified within the near future as to your 1943 allotments, yields, and premium rates. After you have received this notice we will be glad to explain the crop insurance program to you in detail if you will call at the local AAA office.

As yet we do not have enough boys to measure and for general compliance and if anyone is interested in this kind of work please call at the AAA office at the earliest possible date for an examination which will be given before starting to work. The rate of pay for a performance reporter is $5.00 per day and the rate of pay for a chairman is $3.00 per day for eight hours work.

Parmer County Boasts Good Record in Issuance of Red Cross First Aid Cards

With an approximate population of 6,000 and more than 250 of those residents bearing certified First Aid cards of all grades from the American Red Cross, Parmer County hung up a record today that will likely not be equaled in this area.

At Bovina, where the initial class was taught by Clarence O. Smith and drew an attendance from over the county, 92 persons have completed work. Oklahoma Lane and Farwell are tied for the number two rank in the county, with 44 each, although it was believed here that one advanced class recently completed at Oklahoma Lane was not listed in local tabulations, which might bring the total in that community over the 50 mark.

At Lakeview, some 33 persons have received their cards, while Friona comes next in line with a total of 31. In addition to these larger groups, the small communities have made their mark, with nine completing the course at Hub, while eight were graduated at Rhea.

According to local figures, 262 persons have been issued certificates for junior, standard and advanced work. In addition to the First Aid classes, Mrs. V. Scott Johnson conducted a special class in Farwell for home nursing, with Mrs. Roy Bobst, Mrs. W. H. Graham, Mrs. Ed Eason, Mrs. Frances King, Miss Myrtle Atkins, Mrs. O. B. Pipkin, Mrs. L. H. Bradshaw and Mrs. Felix Monroe being certified.

With the senatorial contest holding the chief spotlight in the minds of the voters, Texans will journey to the polls on Saturday to cast their ballots in the first Democratic primary election.

Three ex-governors are contesting for the six-year term in the United States Senate, with E. Governor Allied and former Governor Moody contesting the seat of Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, also an ex-governor.

Little interest is expected to develop in any of the other state races and there will be a lack of interest in Parmer county voting this year, due to the fact that none of the county-wide candidates are being opposed for re-election.

Commissioners Races Tops

Chief interest in Parmer county politics is expected to center in Friona, Farwell and Lazbuddy, where the present county commissioners are being contested for their bid to succeed themselves.

Commissioner Dave Moeley of precinct No. 1 has drawn two opponents this year, with C. A. Wickard and D. O. Robason in the field against him.

Ed McGuire, commissioner of precinct No. 3, drew an opponent at the last minute in the person of T. E. Levy, who defeated McGuire a few years ago, only to be ousted by McGuire when he ran for re-election in the last primary.

O. M. Jennings, commissioner of precinct No. 4, drew two opponents this year, with W. S. Menefee, former commissioner from that district, and Glenn Dunn, a newcomer in Parmer county political circles, contesting his seat.

Representing precinct 2, Commissioner Floyd Schlenker has come through the campaign without an opponent this year.

Other county candidates who are unopposed for reelection in Saturday's primary are Sheriff Earl Booth, County Treasurer Roy B. Ezell, County Judge Lee Thompson, County and District Clerk D. K. Roberts and County Attorney A. D. Smith.

Shelby Jersig Gets 1st Lieut. Commission

Shelby Jersig, prominent Bovina stockman, has been granted a commission at First Lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve in the U. S. Navy, and will likely be stationed at Pensacola, Fla., it was learned here this week.

Lt. Jersig received his commission direct from the War Department the latter part of last week, signed by Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox.

He graduated from the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell in 1930, and at one time held a commission as Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Cavalry. He is a grandson of General Shelby, famous Confederate general of the Civil War.

Mrs. Clyde Perkins left the latter part of the week for Mountain View, Oklahoma, for a ten-day visit with her father.

Draft Board Classifies 57 Registrants Sunday

The Parmer County Selective Service Board was in session here Sunday afternoon for the purpose of classifying registrants, with the view of being in a position to meet calls during the next few weeks.

Board members delved into the last list of single registrants in Sunday's meeting while determining the classification of 57 registrants. Most of these single registrants have been carried on the books in 3-A class because of the fact that although they were single, they had actual dependents. Under the new selective service regulations, such registrants are now placed at the head in the category classifications, unless the local board determines they are entitled to a 2-A rating.

Mrs. Bessie Lee Henneman, clerk of the board, announces the following classifications from Sunday's session: 1-A, 22; 1-A Rem., 3; 1-B, 3; 2-A, 7; 3-A, 4; 1-C, 10; 4-F, 3; temporary 1-A, pending final physical examinations, 5.

SAVE FATS FOR UNCLE SAM

COLLEGE STATION—Waste fat homemakers save in their kitchens for the nation's salvage campaign may one day sink an enemy battleship or help crumble Axis fortifications on fronts the world over.

Grease makes glycerine, and glycerine makes gunpowder, explains Louise Bryant, specialist in home management for the A. & M. College Extension Service. She explains that every 10 pounds of fat saved in the nation's campaign will produce one pound of glycerine for gunpowder or other explosives needed in winning the war. The two billion pounds of fat wasted in American kitchens every year would provide two hundred million pounds of glycerine.

Recently the War Production Board arranged with meat dealers to receive some of this waste fat from housewives, and the A. & M. Extension Service will cooperate with state and county salvage committees in helping every rural family in Texas know its part. Cooperation in the national fat-saving campaign is in line with the war-time extension program—the victory demonstration—to which thousands of rural Texans are pledged.

The homemakers' part in the campaign is to use grease wisely in cooking and take her surplus fats to her nearest meat dealer or freezer locker plant. She'll receive money—probably five cents per pound. Fat should be strained and poured into clean, wide-mouthed cans, such as a coffee can. "Keep the fat in the refrigerator or some other dark, cool place until you have a pound or more," the specialist advises.

Using fat drippings in preparing food will help in the movement, since it will prevent drawing on commercial stocks of fats and oils. Every tablespoon used means buying less fat.

Some homemaker have mistakenly feared a soap shortage would make it necessary to save their fats for making soap at home. But soap is a by-product of glycerine, Miss Bryant explains, so large supplies will be available.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

The Santa Fe System carloadings for the week ending July 18, 1942, were 26,308 compared with 26,106 for the same week in 1941. Cars received from connections totaled 11,514 compared with 7,943 for the same week in 1941. Total cars moved were 37,822 compared with 34,049 for the same week in 1941. The Santa Fe handled a total of 38,548 cars during the preceding week of this year.

One of the heights of disappointment is reached when a friend of long duration drops back into the limbo of mere acquaintances.

E. C. Nelson

Judge E. C. Nelson is a candidate for Chief Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals. This is one of the highest judicial offices in our State, one that demands the most thorough training and the widest possible experience. Judge Nelson has attended and graduated from the leading universities and law schools in our country, giving him an educational background of the highest order.

He taught school for five years before entering the legal profession, and served two years in the United States Army during World War I, fourteen months of his service being in France.

He has had a well-rounded legal experience. He has been a licensed attorney for more than 22 years. He has practiced law in all of our courts and has been judge of all courts of record up to the Court of Civil Appeals. As an appellate judge, he will be able from his own experience, to review a case from the standpoint of both the practicing lawyer and the trial judge. He is now District Judge of the district composed of Potter, Randall, and Armstrong Counties, and his record as a trial judge is one of the best in the State.

Judge Nelson is 51 years old, just the right age to undertake the work of an appellate judge. He is old enough for maturity, experience, and judgment, and young enough for the years of hard work the position requires.

The size of the district has made it impossible for him to see all the people, but he solicits the vote and influence of all our citizens.

YOU?

Well, fellows, the honeymoon is over in this Bond-buying campaign. We have just been "dawdling along" in selling these bonds . . . as well as in the buying of them. The time has come now when we must put our united shoulders to the wheel and push if we arrive at anything near our quota of $18,900 for the month of July.

This amount is something more than three times any quota to date—all of which have been met with something to spare each month.

It just occurs to the Committee that a lot of people might take this thought home with them:

"We have just harvested a good wheat crop. Cattle, hogs and most every other commodity that we raise or sell in this county are selling at good prices. It seems only fair that we should take a little of our capital and invest it in bonds for the use of the war. In doing this we would of necessity forego some profits. But when we look out our window at the boys who are leaving for the induction center and see the mothers, wives and sweethearts and other relatives who just can't keep back the tears . . . then the fellow who has no one close to him or her to send away feels—or should feel—that he is not doing anything to aid his country in this time of dire need.

"Our boys are being taken away and won't be able to carry on any business at all until the end of the war, and when they come out they will have no capital to go into business.

"All you fellows who were not eligible to get into the battle are well fixed, and the boys who did the fighting to save himself also did the fighting to save you. Of course you think of the war, but not in the way the fathers, mothers, wives and sweethearts are thinking about it. The war is on their minds all the time. What father or mother is there that wouldn't give up their last dime rather than see their son march off to war?

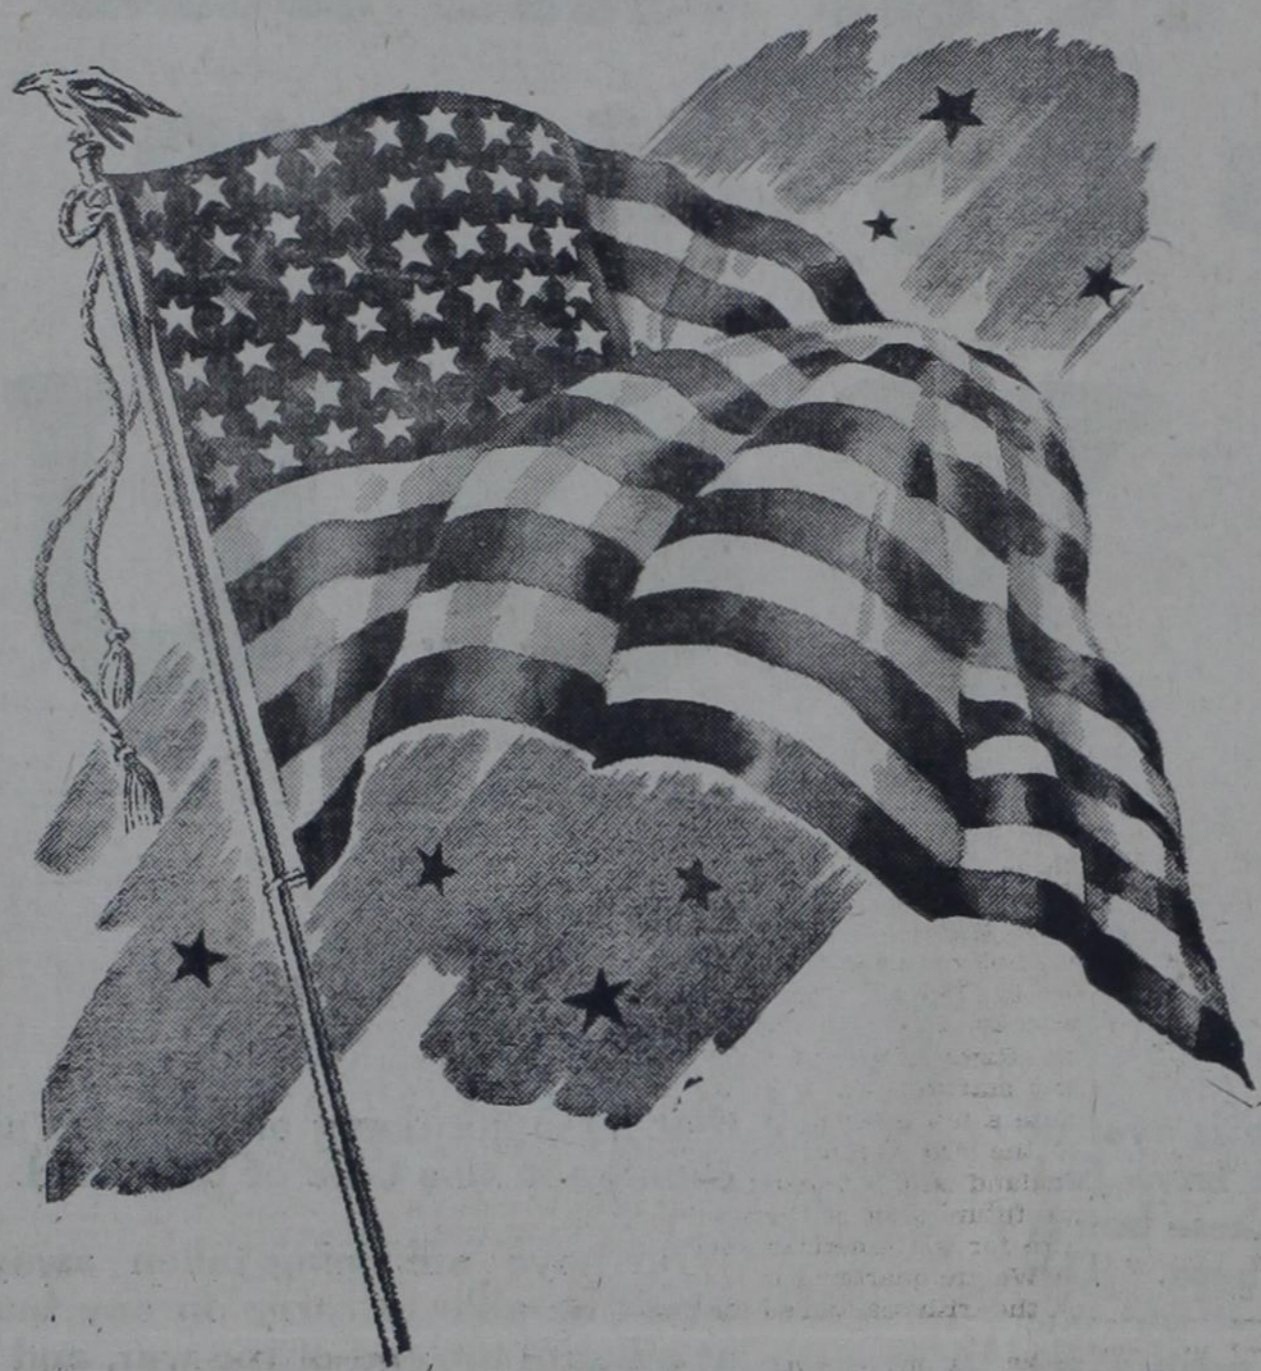

"Now this article is not intended to pick out any particular class of people and to say that they are not doing their part, but it is to bring home the fact that all of us should forego buying that extra bunch of cattle, hogs or piece of land that we think might bring us a nice profit, and put that capital to work for the boys who are doing our fighting.

"If we don't win this war, the profits you might make will only be a memory."

Parmer County War Bond Committee

LET'S GO AMERICA!

To the Voters of Parmer County:

We want to use this means of conveying to the voters of Parmer County our most sincere appreciation for the confidence they have bestowed in us in the past by honoring us to handle the various departments of your county government.

We have done our dead level best to give you the best service of which we were capable, although we might have made some mistakes in your opinion.

Right now we are in the midst of the greatest war our nation has ever faced and it behooves every American citizen to do his part in seeing that a victorious and lasting peace shall come to our own native land at the earliest time possible. Under the leadership of our Commander-in-Chief, President Roosevelt and with gratitude in our hearts for the Stars and Stripes, we want to be found doing our part to rid this nation of every threat the dictators might hurl our way.

At a time like this, we think that it is exceedingly fortunate that we will have no bitter campaigns in this county to distract our loyalty and bring discord over trivial matters that only serve to detract us from our foremost task—that of winning the war.

In presenting us with renomination for our respective offices without opposition, we feel that we have been honored in a very distinctive way. The expense of making a campaign is tremendous, and by eliminating the necessity of making a political campaign at this time we can more fully co-operate with our Government in the saving of badly needed gasoline and rubber, to say nothing of our cars that might be taken over for military use before long.

In returning us to office next Saturday by your vote in the first Democratic primary election, we will be ever grateful for your continued confidence, and pledge you our best efforts in rendering you the best service of which we are capable.

VICTORY PEACHES

By Elsie Cunningham
Home Demo. Agent with Texas
A. & M. Extension Service
Peaches are now coming to the market in quantities, in fact, during the period July 16 to August 5 they have been named the Victory food special. Of course, you know that a victory food special means there is plenty of this fruit—and that it is at its seasonal peak, both in quantity and quality.

So, if you want to take advantage of the peach harvest at its heaviest, plan to serve this fruit during this period. Remember, the prices are lowest when the peaches are the most plentiful.

There are many, many ways to serve peaches—I need name only a few. Peach pie, peach cobbler, peach dumplings and peaches in many combinations in salads; but it's hard to beat fresh peaches, for dessert, served with or without cream. That's the way to eat them to get the full benefit of their vitamin content.

Peaches are good source of vitamin A—especially the yellow ones. Many of the yellow-fleshed varieties rate excellent in this respect. Peaches also contain vitamin C, vitamin B, and little vitamin G or riboflavin.

And while peaches are plentiful, you might put up a few jars for the coming winter.

Canned peaches are always a popular favorite. To prepare peaches for canning, immerse them in boiling water for about one-half minute or until the skins will slip easily, plunge at once into cold water for a few seconds, remove the skins, cut peaches in halves and discard pits.

TO STRETCH YOUR SUGAR for canning peaches, add a small amount of sugar to the fruit's own juice, instead of making the usual sugar syrup. Fruits naturally contain a great deal of water, and you can make the best use of your sugar by sweetening this rather than by adding water in the form of syrup. Canning fruit in its own juice is a good way to hold in its flavor and food value.

You can get more fruit in the jar when peaches are sliced—an important point to keep in mind during this war in view of the shortage of containers and rubber for canning purposes.

Put the sliced fruit in a kettle and add sugar. This is the most economical way to use your canning allotment of sugar. By putting sugar directly on the peaches, you help draw out the juice, waste no sweetening.

Let the sugar stand on the sliced fruit a few minutes before heating, to start the juice flowing.

Then put the kettle on the stove and heat the peaches slowly until the sugar has dissolved and the fruit is hot throughout. But be sure not to cook peaches until they are soft.

Pre-cooked peaches should be packed quickly into hot sterilized jars sealed and processed in a hot water bath.

If peaches are of a less juicy variety, a syrup may be prepared and the peaches may be precooked like juicy fruit, but in the syrup. To make a thin sugar syrup boil together 5 cups of sugar and 1 gallon of water for about 5 minutes. Remove any scum on top.

Many women are asking about using corn syrup and honey in canning. Here are two recipes:

Apple, Peach or Pear Pickles
3 cups honey, 3 cups vinegar, 2 cups water, 1 teaspoon salt.

Bring these ingredients to a boil. Add fruit and cook until tender. Pack in sterilized jars, cover with pickling syrup and seal.

For apples tie the spices (cloves and cinnamon) in cheesecloth sack and boil in pickling syrup. For pears and peaches stick two or three whole cloves in the fruit and allow stick cinnamon to cook in the pickling syrup.

In substituting corn syrup, use 5 cups syrup and omit water.

Peach Butter

Wash peaches. Pare or rub with cloth to remove fuzz. Discard seed. Cook peaches until soft in their own juice, or in just enough water to prevent sticking. Press through sieve, for each cup pulp add ¼ cup water and ¼ cup honey, or ½ cup honey, or ½ cup maple sugar, or ½ cup sugar and ½ cup corn syrup. Boil rapidly until thick. Pour into hot jars. Seal. Process 10 minutes in hot water bath.

American Legion Is Record Drive Sponsor

The Friona Post of the American Legion is acting as sponsor of the Parmer drive to collect and turn in old phonograph records and is asking that all civic organizations and individuals cooperate, according to a message received here the first of the week from Foster Rector, commander of the Post.

The drive for the collection of old records will last through the final days of July, and in Farwell records should be taken to the office of County Clerk D. K. Roberts.

Principal purpose of the drive is to gather in broken or discarded records which will be recast and made into new music plates by cooperating orchestras and bands over the nation, and will then be placed free of charge in service camps.

Any person who has one or more of these old records is asked to make his contribution as soon as possible.

V-Mail Stationery Available Locally

The new V-mail stationery—a combination letter-envelope—is on hand at local postoffices for friends or relatives who wish to write to boys in overseas service.

The term "V-mail" actually means that a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the quickest means to the addressee, and officials point out, it is therefore important that the letter be written very plainly. The new service has been installed as a means of sending several letters in the space formerly occupied by one, it was explained.

If the special service is not available to the point where the letter is addressed, the letter will be transmitted in its usual form, but to all points where the photographic service may be used, a negative of the letter will be sent.

This stationery-envelope is free to persons wishing to use it for sending letters from home, and officials point out that the original letter will be kept on hand until it is certain that the photo-negative has reached its destination.

Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick Green, of Lamesa, are visiting with her father, D. K. Roberts.

Mrs. Tom Grady and children are here from Roy, N. M., visiting with relatives.

ANDERSON WRITES FROM NORTHERN IRELAND

Lt Gabe D. Anderson Jr., known as "Penny" to his friends here, has written an interesting letter from Northern Ireland to John Aldridge of this city, excerpts of which are given below:

"Everything is fine over here and I am in good shape. The country is as pretty as can be with everything as green as a well kept lawn—and just about as well kept even on the mountain tops. The whole place is divided up into two or three acre patches, each being surrounded by a stone or hedge fence. About the only crop grown is potatoes (Irish) and they grow them everywhere. Those that are not consumed at home are shipped to England. The people along the seacoast also do quite a bit of fishing. Right now the herring season is just starting and they are bringing quite a few of them in. I think most of the fish caught are exported to England also, but understand that in the future a lot of them will be kept here for the American soldiers.

"We are quartered in a small town on the Irish sea and so far have been getting about everything we need. The food has been good and once a week P. X. rations come in. Each man can get four or five packs of cigarettes, three or four candy bars and shaving equipment, etc. in limited amounts. I don't know how long it will keep up but so far not a week has been missed. The people over here have a very hard time buying anything except the things that are absolutely essential. There is not a store in town that sells candy, and cigarettes cost about 40c a pack in our money and a cigar, if you can find one, will cost around sixty or seventy cents. There are hardly any cars at all on the roads as civilians can get very little gasoline per month. But you see a lot of bicycles and horses. Men older and more feeble than Jack Butcher pedal around on bicycles like seven-year-olds. Most of the American soldiers give the greater part of their candy allowance to the local Irish girls and kids around the town.

"We have been so busy since we arrived that I haven't had much time to travel around the country. But I am planning to go to Belfast some weekend. I have a friend from Port Worth who is stationed about ten miles away who is trying to find us a couple of bicycles at a reasonable price so we can get out and see a little of Northern Ireland. Glen London was on the boat over but I didn't know it until we had been out some time. He seems to be doing fine and is a sergeant in a tank regiment. It was the first time I had seen him since I have been in the 1st Armored Division and I haven't seen him since we arrived. Hit outfit was out on a problem with us the other day and I probably passed him on the road several times."

As a postscript to the local fisherman, Penny adds: "There is a small stream in front of our billets and one of our K. P.s has caught several ten or twelve inch trout with just a hook—no bait. The stream is low and he sneaks around and sees one behind a rock and drops his hook in the water and snags him. He says they won't bite bait. I think his trick is one even the Irish don't know."

Miss Peggy Schleuter spent the past weekend visiting in Hereford with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Schloss.

Mr. and Mrs. Zene Merrell of Amarillo have moved here, where Mr. Merrell is employed at the City Cleaners.

Must Pay The Price For Allied Victory

"We must pay the price in sweat, tears and blood if we are to emerge victorious in this war," declared Rev. W. G. Bailey, pastor of the Clovis First Methodist Church, in speaking before the regular monthly meeting of the local men's club last Thursday evening.

Emphasizing his willingness to do his part, he said, "I'd rather falter under the load than to be trampled under the feet of any dictators". From that point he went on to paint a very dark picture of the sacrifices to be endured if the United Nations are to gain the victory.

"I verily believe that God is on our side in this battle, but victory is not going to come with the buying of a few bonds and waving flags."

The meeting was attended by about half the usual number, and opinion was expressed that many of the regular attendants were busy in the rush of harvesting wheat last week.

Mrs. Sam Aldridge and children visited relatives in Muleshoe, during the weekend.

How many of you dairymen and farmers are producing good, clean milk? Maybe that's a question many of us don't like to answer; nevertheless, it is a question every man who is milking a cow should answer. A lot has been said about producing more milk during the time of the war emergency, since we will need stronger people, more food for our allies, and good food to feed the peoples of countries which have been overrun during the war. But what good is milk if it is not fit for human consumption?

To produce good milk the farmer or dairyman must have healthy cows. It is easy to know whether your cows are carrying some disease. Simply have them tested. The most common diseases to test for are Bangs and T. B. Every cow on our farms should have these tests.

After we know our cows are free from disease, we should know that our milk is being handled by clean people in the proper fashion. Dirt which falls from the cow's udder or the milker's hand, or which comes from a dusty lot will contaminate milk. Let's wash the cow's udder before each milking. Let's wash our hands before milking each cow. Next, let's know that our milk vessels are not carrying dirt or bacteria. Milk vessels which have open seams are very difficult to clean. Those having sealed seams are not especially high priced. Covered milk pails keep falling dirt out of milk and are not difficult to use. Milk vessels should be washed with an alkaline washing powder (not soap) and should be rinsed with a solution which contains 100 parts of free chlorine per million parts of water (usually a teaspoonful of the commercial chlorine powder which may be bought at any drug store in a gallon of water will do). Above all milk should be kept cool and should be cooled rapidly after milking. If you do not have a refrigerator there are a hundred novel ways you can use to cool milk.

Many dairymen who sell milk have found that they were not producing milk which was clean enough to meet the standards of the milk trade. If your own family is using the milk at home, isn't there still more reason to see that our milk is really clean? Clean milk is the best food obtainable. Unclean milk is the poorest food we can eat.

More Granaries Arrive For Wheat Storage

More than twenty additional Commodity Credit Corporation granaries arrived in Bovina and Friona during the past weekend, John Martin, administrator of the local Triple A office, said today.

However, Martin pointed out, the bins are moving out to farms very slowly, and urged that farmers who had ordered such bins come in after them immediately.

In all probability, the administrator said, no more bins will be received in Farwell, as the majority of orders specified Bovina and Friona as unloading points.

Asked about when bins would be completed at Friona and Black, where 1941 loan wheat is to be moved out of elevators to make room for the 1942 crop, Martin stated that the work had begun at Friona, and that it was likely that the move would be started within the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Crume left Tuesday night for La Junta canyon, near Taos, where they will spend the remainder of this week on vacation.

12 Registrants Are Reported Delinquent

Selective Service officials today released the names of twelve registrants of this county who are reported delinquent for failure to execute and return their occupational questionnaires in due time.

Mrs. Bessie Lee Henneman, clerk of the local board, stated that occupational questionnaires were mailed to these registrants on July 1st, and the forms were scheduled to be returned to the office of the local board by July 10th. Failure to comply with any selective service regulation, she pointed out, is punishable by a fine or imprisonment, or even both.

Notices of suspected delinquency have been mailed to the 12 registrants and they have been given until July 25 at 12 o'clock noon to report by mail, telegraph or in person to the office of the local board. Failure to do so will mean that their names will be turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Delinquents include:

- John Martin Taylor
- James Blake McCain
- Thomas Jefferson Crawford
- Louis Kizine
- John Luther Cornelius
- George Frank Williams
- Jesse Frank Vestal
- Luther Martin Grissom
- Claud John Kykendall

Rains Fall Over Most Of Farmer County

Rains, ranging from a mere sprinkle to heavy downpours, fell over most of Farmer county late Monday afternoon.

Reports indicate that the rainfall was fairly general over most of the county, with the exception of the territory immediately surrounding the southwest corner.

Only a shower fell in Farwell, but reports from Bovina and Friona say the rainfall was heavy. To the west, a half inch is reported at Clovis, extending about half-way to Texico, where it dwindled to a light shower.

The extreme southwestern corner of Farmer county continues in the dry belt with crops badly in need of moisture.

Rains have been good the past several weeks in most of the Oklahoma Lane section, with heavy downpours recorded in the Hub and Lakeview section.

It is believed here that all wheat harvesting operations were completed before Monday's rain. However, many farmers are known to have had much of their threshed grain piled out in the open, awaiting erection of storage bins.

Lee Sudderth Hurt In Fall From Barn

Lee Sudderth, age 63, one of the large-scale wheat and stock farmers of Farmer county, is in the Clovis Memorial hospital suffering with two fractured vertebrae in the middle of his spine.

His condition was reported to be none too good Tuesday by his son, Billy, who had just returned from the hospital.

Mr. Sudderth was injured when he fell from the top of a small granary that was being erected at the farm, five miles northeast of here. A sudden gust of wind whipped him from the building as he was walking with a large board in his hands.

He had just finished harvesting one of the largest wheat yields in recent years, estimated at about 40,000 bushels, and was preparing storage facilities for his large crop when the accident happened.

CROPS GOOD AT ROSCOE

The crops are fairly good in the Roscoe neighborhood, according to J. O. Nix, who with his wife arrived here the first of the week for a visit. Some of the early crops need rain, he agrees, but generally speaking, the crops are in good condition, he reports.

To the Voters of Precinct 3:

On Saturday, July 25, you will elect a man to represent you as County Commissioner for the next two years, beginning on Jan. 1, 1943.

Due to the tire situation, crop conditions and other matters over which none of us have any control, I have not made a very extensive campaign, but I want the voters to know that I shall greatly appreciate their votes in Saturday's primary.

I feel that I am qualified for the job, and if elected, I will use my best efforts to give the people of this precinct a satisfactory administration.
