

County Seeks Sale for Mineral Royalties

One fourth of the oil and mineral royalties on two leagues of school land, comprising 8,856 acres, owned by Parmer County and located in Gaines and Andrews counties, will be offered for sale to the highest bidder, it was decided by the Parmer County Commissioners Court in session here Monday.

County Judge Lee Thompson was authorized by the Court to advertise for bids on the royalties, and said today he planned to place the advertising in the proper publications at an early date.

Result of Negotiations

The move to advertise for bids on the royalties came as a result of negotiations during the past several weeks for the disposal of one fourth of the royalties to at least three concerns who have been seeking the purchase.

Judge Thompson said that a cash consideration of "a pretty good price" had been tendered the court for the royalties, but the Commissioners took the position that it would be fair to all concerned to advertise for sealed bids before deciding to close a deal for the sale of the royalties.

The bids will be opened in the courthouse at Farwell on June 28. The county reserves the right to reject any and all bids submitted, Judge Thompson explained. He also added that Parmer County would retain three-fourths of the royalties on the lands involved in the proposed deal.

Other Matters Disposed

Other matters transacted at the regular meeting of the Court here on Monday included the payment of current bills and passing of an order authorizing the county treasurer to transfer $4,000 from the Jury Fund to the General Fund.

Thomas Sells Stock To Canyon Company

The hardware stock of the Thomas Hardware company in Texico is being invoiced and transported to Canyon, Texas, this week, having been sold to the Thompson Hardware company of that city.

Claude Thomas, junior member of the local firm, announced the sale the first of the week.

Albert Thomas, senior member of the firm, and his son, Claude, have been devoting all their time to farming interests in the Field section of Curry County for the past several months, with the result that the local store has remained closed most of the time.

The announcement was made that the building and fixtures would be retained in Texico.

Malone Buys Williams Building, Will Move

Elton Malone, operator of the Malone Ice & Produce company of this city, announced this week that he had purchased the business building of Perry Williams on Main street and would move his business to the new location at an early date.

Applications for New Ration Books Arrive

Applications for Ration Book No. 3, which is scheduled to be distributed through the mails late in June, made their appearance in local postoffices this week and have been issued to residents.

Specifically, the new book is not intended to include new goods under rationing (at least, no such announcement has been made by OPA) but will be used as replacements for Books No. 1 and 2.

The forms are to be carefully filled out in ink, or typed, bearing the names of the family, but, OPA stressed, they are not to be mailed before June 1 or later than June 10. The applications are self-addressed to the OPA, but will require regular postage.

Applications for Families

One application must be made for each group of persons who are related by blood, marriage, or adoption and who regularly live at the same address. Persons temporarily away

Concrete For Church Annex Run Saturday

Concrete that will form the walls of the basement and the foundation of the building for the annex being constructed by the Baptist congregation was poured last Saturday.

Rev. W. C. Wright, pastor of the church, said that they were hoping the walls and roof of the main structure could be completed at an early date. Priorities on materials to be used in the structure have been delaying the progress of the work, he said.

The annex is 30x50 feet with a full basement underneath, and adjoins the main church building on the west.

GOING TO DALHART

Most of Parmer County Gets Rains Normal Wheat Yield Predicted Here

Despite greenbugs, dry weather and high winds, Parmer County will produce a near-normal wheat crop this year, in the opinion of many observers contacted during the past week.

The 1943 crop will not compare with the record crop of 1942, observers agree. But, on the basis of observations made during the past few weeks, all fields that have not been destroyed entirely by one cause or another, give promise of yielding upwards to 15 bushels per acre this year. Admittedly, some fields will hardly attain a five-bushel average, but such fields are not the common run.

Bill Sherley, one of the largest farmers in the Lazbuddy community, whose estimates are always on the conservative side, stated Monday that his section of the county would produce a normal crop of wheat this year. The same condition, judging from reports, will prevail over a large section along the east side of the county.

Bill Eberting, manager of the Consumers Supply at Bovina, who has had occasion to visit a large scope of country north and northwest of Bovina, brings in the report that there are a number of good fields of grain in those areas. He predicts at least a 12-bushel average over a large part of the Bovina trade section.

Greenbugs have damaged a number of fields in the Friona area, but still there will be a "fairly good harvest", as one observer put it, over a good deal of that part of the county.

Wheat farmers point out that many fields with low yield prospects which in previous years would not justify harvesting expense, will be gathered this year because of the attractive price offered. Fields that will produce as much as five bushels to the acre, they say, will bring in more than the expense of harvesting.

Wheat growers are predicting that harvest operations might get under way by June 20, but the general opinion is that most combining will begin around July 1st.

LAUNDRY RE-OPENS

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blair were back in charge of their laundry business on Wednesday morning of last week following a two-day close-up. They explained that they had been called out of town "on business" and that OPA officials were not responsible for their temporary shut-down.

Former Reporter Is Now Proud Poppa

The following notice, printed on regular newsprint, has been received locally from Mr. and Mrs. James O. (Pinky) Martin. Pinky is a former Farwell boy and Tribune reporter.

Fort Worth, Texas
May 13, 1943

Dear Folks:

This is just a little note to let you know that I arrived safe and sound at 1:07 p. m. today.

Both Mother and I are doing just fine (she used to be Laverne Yeagan, you know). She's very pretty and I love her, oh, so much.

I think Daddy'll be all right too in a few days. When I saw him about 1:30 today he looked awfully pale and his head and chest seemed to be swelling rather fast. But mother said that was because I was 7½ pounds of boy and he would probably get over some of that before long.

You know Daddy. He's Jimmie (Pinky) Martin, a linotype operator down at the Star-Telegram. I thought I'd just let him set this up for me as I'm very busy sleeping, and anyway a man can't half think in this noisy nursery. He said he would run off a few proofs and send them to you folks. He said with the war, victory tax, the draft, and my coming c.o.d., he was sure you'd understand why we didn't send a fancy announcement.

Love and kisses,
JAMES MORRIS MARTIN.

P. S.—We'll be at home in a few days at 3905 Frazier Street,
Route 3, Box 133AF,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Report of work done during the year will be reviewed at this time, Harper said, adding that all interested dairymen are invited to attend.

All of the above, with the exception of Roy Hart and Owens, will depart from Farwell at 9 a. m. on May 27th for the induction center at Fort Sill, Okla. Owens waived his furlough privileges and went direct into the services from Lubbock. Hart is scheduled to depart on the morning of May 29th for Fort Sill.

Those accepted for the Navy were: Champ McCuan Landrum, Marvin Darvell Haun and Blufford Horace Dorsey. They reported back to Lubbock on Tuesday of this week.

Everett Louis Gee was accepted for the Marine Corps and was immediately assigned to duty.

METHODIST REVIVAL IS POSTPONED UNTIL AUG.

The revival meeting scheduled to begin at the Methodist Church, in this city on June 3, has been postponed until August 12, Rev. Paul H. Tripp, pastor, announced today.

Rev. Tripp explained that Rev. J. C. English, who had been secured to conduct the services for the forthcoming revival, had been transferred to El Paso to take over other work, resulting in the cancellation of his engagement here.

Rev. C. A. Calhoun of the Wesleyan Church of Clovis, has agreed to do the preaching for the revival, now scheduled from August 12 to 22.

Takes Another 4H Club Merit Award

In recognition of outstanding 4-H Club work, Miss Barbara Foster of Oklahoma Lane was an honor guest at the banquet of the Grain Producers Corporation at Amarillo, May 19.

Each year the Corporation offers a "Talent Contest" to 4-H clubbers, and Miss Foster was one of the five girls named as winners. She received an award of $25, which she has pledged to invest in a useful demonstration in her home or on the farm.

During the year, she will keep progress and financial records of her demonstration and make a report on the year's accomplishments. Also, she will compete for a prize of $50 which will be given one of the five girls, in preparing an essay dealing with "Cooperatives".

Rains, running all the way from more than an inch to "hardly enough to lay the dust" fell throughout Parmer County on Thursday and Friday of last week, bringing at least temporary relief to agricultural activities.

Reports indicate that the moisture was very unevenly distributed over the county. Most sections report between three-quarters and a full inch of rain, but some areas were not so well blessed.

Some farmers claim that enough moisture has fallen to proceed with planting operations, which have been at a standstill this spring in most sections. On the other hand—other farmers state that the rain was insufficient to safely put their seed in the ground.

Scattered Moisture

Land that has been listed, farmers say, did not retain enough moisture on the beds to insure germination, while land that had been "one-wayed" seems to have fared somewhat better in most localities.

This seems to sum up the general condition over most of the county, except in isolated instances where the rain was considerably heavier. A narrow strip along the Parmer-Castro county line, judging from reports, seems to be the most favored area in the county. Two good rains fell there around the 1st of April and planting operations are said to be in full swing.

On this side of the county, the most favored section seems to center around the Wilsey Switch and Bovina sections, and some planting is in progress there.

In Farwell, .86 of an inch of moisture was recorded over the weekend, which, farmers claim, is hardly sufficient to cause the moisture to meet. Experienced farmers claim that plantings made here by June 10 will have time to mature before killing frosts in the fall.

E. G. Blair reports that there is plenty of moisture throughout his neighborhood southwest of Texico to proceed with planting operations and that all farmers in that section are busy. E. M. Deaton says most farmers in the Lariat section are going ahead with their planting.

As conditions now stand, some farmers are planting, with many others waiting—and hoping—for more moisture.

Seven Parmer Masons To Take Shrine Work

It might be well to remind owners of small dairy herds that they should collect a red stamp from ration book 2 for each pound of butter they sell. This is in keeping with the spirit of food distribution regulations intended to insure everyone his share of scarce items. Moreover, violation of the order is sure to lead to investigation and possible prosecution of the offender.

Goals For War Crops Given

The local AAA office has received notice from the state office of the final goals assigned to Parmer County for three war crops as follows:

Grain sorghums, 130,000 acres; soybeans, 13,000 acres; potatoes, 75 acres.

It will be necessary to revise upward the grain sorghum goals of county producers in order to meet the assigned acreage. Notices will be mailed within a few days of the final production goals for all county farmers. There seems little doubt that actual plantings will easily exceed the goal for grain sorghums, but every producer should see his full share of the soybean allotment in order to make certain the county goal is met.

Extension Service To Work on Labor Crisis

A new program whereby state extension services, through county agents and home demonstrators, may cooperate with farmers in compiling information and securing farm help has recently been authorized by congress.

Through this program, it is hoped that such labor as is available in the various states will be put to maximum use in production of essential crops.

According to County Agent Garlon A. Harper and Demonstrator Elsie Cunningham, the first thing necessary will be compilation of a file from both farmers and laborers, the farmer stating how much and what type of labor he needs, the worker listing his experience and preference.

These records will be filed in the state office and will be available to all counties. Such registration is expected to begin immediately.

Establish Connection

The second step in the program will be establishment of connection between the farmer and laborer, with the two to work out such plans as they desire, Harper said, adding, "It is definitely not the place nor intention of the Extension Service to set up any regulations governing wages for services, housing etc. That will be left strictly to agreement between employer and employee."

"We are aware of the fact that substitute labor is not always the best," local agents said, "however, with conditions as they are now, it becomes necessary that what help is available should be utilized to its best advantage, and we hope that both factions will cooperate in making the best of a critical situation regarding labor."

"One thing we cannot allow," Harper pointed out strongly, "is for people to obtain the impression that they can come into the office

Proceeds of Poppy Day Sale Are Explained

"I hope everyone understands what becomes of the coins they contribute when they take a poppy from an American Legion Auxiliary worker," said Mrs. Foister Rector today, reminding that Poppy Day is May 29.

Mrs. Rector continued, "I wish everyone could know the need for these contributions, especially this year when war is increasing that need so greatly".

First, she pointed out, every penny of the money paid for poppies goes into the rehabilitation and welfare work of the Auxiliary, and because this work is done by volunteers it goes a long way. Disabled veterans and children left fatherless by war are the special concern of the Legion and Auxiliary, she said. It is for them the poppy dimes and dollars are given, not so much for their material needs as for their human needs.

Only the billions of the government can bring adequate relief to the nation's disabled defenders and their families, Mrs. Rector pointed out, "but there are things which the government with all its billions cannot do. It cannot provide the understanding, aid and personal attention that so often are such big factors in rehabilitation, which so often holds his family together until he is able to return home."

"This," she concluded, "the Legion and Auxiliary are doing with the help of the money you give on Poppy Day. By wearing a poppy you aid the disabled as well as honor the dead."

Prescription for Morale: Think of Your Victory Motor Trip!

It's a blessed relief just to putter around fixing up the trailer more efficient-like... and sort of pipe-dreaming where you're going. But will you need a new car? All reports say it will be a long time after Peace before you can hope to get one. Be ready to go—in your present car...and why can't you?

Since rationing began you've probably "saved" more car-mileage than you ever made on your grandest tour. After Victory you'll have those "stored-up" miles to use, especially if you don't allow present restrictions to cause acid-damage. Vicious acids are formed by normal combustion in any engine. When it stops it's an acid trap. It used to get rid of acids fairly well by warming up on long fast runs. But now it often "just sits" with those acids inside, and what can you do?

You can have your engine OIL-PLATED internally to combat acid corrosion... much as outer parts are chromium-plated to combat water's corrosive effect. All it takes to OIL-PLATE your engine is the change to Conoco Nth motor oil. Patented Nth oil seemingly "magnetizes" OIL-PLATING to metal—much longer than just temporarily.

This steadfast OIL-PLATING, joined direct to inner engine surfaces without all draining down to the crankcase while standing, is your shield against acid. Now when even new parts are scarce—let alone new cars—you'll cast off a big worry for the present and future by having your engine OIL-PLATED. Just change to Nth oil—at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company

Farming Talk

With GAPLON A. HARPER
County Agricultural Agent
Texas A. & M. Extension Service

I want to talk to you older boys (commonly known as father) about the 4-H Club work your boy is doing or could do. In Parmer County this year we have approximately 185 boys enrolled in 4H Club work. Most of these boys are doing a grand job of learning to be farmers. And, they are going farther than that. THEY ARE PRODUCING NOW TO HELP OUT IN WAR FOOD PRODUCTION PROGRAM. These boys have, as their 1942 goal, a program to produce enough food to feed themselves and one fighting man each. Of course, some of the younger boys can't do this but then some of the older boys are doing much more than this. One 4-H Club boy in the county will produce enough meat to be the equivalent of enough food to feed 10 to 15 fighting men. This same boy will have invested approximately $1,000 in War Bonds and Stamps from the proceeds of his 4-H Club work by the end of the year.

These boys need your help and encouragement in this work. In fact, if they don't get it they won't be able to do all the job. So why not sit down and talk with your boy about his 4-H Club work and give him some encouragement? When he forgets to feed his pig, remind him that feeding the pig regularly and well is what makes a good 4-H Club boy of him.

I am going to list below some 4-H Club contests your boy can enter. Talk these over with him and see if he would be interested in them.

1. 4-H Meat Animal Contest, a gold medal to county winner.
2. 4-H REA Contest, a gold medal to county winner. Trip for state winner.
3. Santa Fe contest, 19 trips for state winners.
4. National 4-H Victory Achievements, three $25.00 war bonds in the state.
5. 4-H Dairy Production contest, county winners gold and silver medals. State winners a trip to Chicago.
6. 4-H Safety Activity, gold medals for county winners. $100 war bond for state winner.
7. 4-H Garden Contest. Gold medals for county winners. $25 war bonds for state winners.
8. 4-H Club Achievement contest. For national winner, a trophy presented by the President of the United States.
9. County, achievement award, gold medal to winner.

Canning Sugar May Be Bought on Stamps

A new ruling made public by OPA during the past few days will relieve a good deal of confusion and registration for 1943 canning sugar. Stamps No. 15 and 16 in ration book 1 are good for five pounds, each, of sugar to be used for canning.

Additional allotments of sugar may be secured through local ration boards, although a strict 25 pound per person limit will be observed in all instances, officials said here.

Concerning persons who have already made application for and been granted certificates from the ration office authorizing purchase of the sugar canning limit, officials indicated that grocers were being charged with the responsibility of seeing that they did not also receive sugar on the stamps.

If a certificate for canning sugar has been used at a store, the information should be written on the ration book, and additional sugar on the stamps refused.

The stamps will remain valid through Oct. 31.

Conversation today is in reply to the many inquiries coming to my desk—How to put up pineapple?

Pineapple is getting ripe enough now to be good for canning and eating, the first on local markets was too green. You may tell a ripe pineapple by its orange color and its characteristic odor. Also if the spines pull out readily, you may be sure the fruit is ready. In event you get one too green lay it up for a few days before canning. To prevent too great a loss of moisture wrap in paper.

To prepare pineapple for canning scrub with a brush. Dry; twist out top. Cut thin slices from bottom then cut the pineapple into 1/2 inch slices crosswise. Peel and core each slice. A doughnut cutter may be used for shaping round slices or you may remove the core from each slice or cut it into tidbits.

Cook slices or tidbits in sirup until tender—about 8 to 10 minutes. Pack in hot jars. Seal and process in a water bath—allow 15 minutes for pint jars and 30 minutes for quarts.

Juice or sirup for canning the fruit is best made by cooking the outer trimmings. Add the cores to the trimmings and enough water to cover. Simmer until fruit is clear, then strain the juice and add sugar to make desired sirup. A satisfactory sirup may be made by combining equal parts of sugar and juice made by cooking trimmings.

If you have space in your locker perhaps you will like to freeze some pineapple. I thought the pineapple I put in the locker last year was excellent. Prepare as for canning, pack in freezer locker container and cover with a cool sirup. The sirup for frozen pineapple is made by cooking 1/2 cup sugar with 1 cup water.

Army Chaplain Speaks To Local Mens' Club

Prefacing his remarks with, "Army chaplains don't ask any preferences, our work is wholly voluntary and we are going to see it through, regardless of the costs," Chaplain Metzner of the Clovis Army Air Base addressed the local Mens' club at the Methodist Church on Friday evening.

Chaplain Metzner observed that "Mens' clubs, such as we have here, are the worthy successors of the old meeting house days of pre-revolutionary history, out of which arose some of the great issues in our national life."

Turning his attention to the post-war period, he predicted that the nation would see many things in a different light. "We will have to see through the other man's viewpoint." And in this connection he offered the suggestion that "we will see that India and Japan will have certain common interests with New Mexico."

"One of our great problems," he said, "is teaching people to live together, and the army furnishes a fertile field to that end."

At this point he pictured the cross-section of personalities to be found in Army life, and stressed the importance of "living together constructively".

Warning that "when the last gun is fired, we will have a still bigger battle to win the peace," the speaker stressed the importance of "the proper spirit in dealing with the defeated nations".

Following his address, Sgt. Pinkney sang two solos, accompanied at the piano by Cpl. Jones, both of the Clovis Air Base.
