Heart Attack Claims Life of J. T. Hanna

Stricken with a heart attack, Joe Terry Hanna, 68 years of age, who for more than 20 years had been a resident of the Oklahoma Lane community, died suddenly at the family home Monday morning, July 31.

Hanna had been troubled with a heart condition for the past several weeks, and on the morning of his death, arose from bed at about 4 o'clock. Mrs. Hanna accompanied him to the front room of the home, where, after taking a dose of medicine, he sat in a chair and appeared to be feeling better. Mrs. Hanna then retired to the bedroom for several minutes, and when she returned her husband was slumped over in his chair, apparently having gone quietly following another heart attack.

FIRST PARMER MARINE PILOT—Morris Edwin Martin, son of Mrs. Lora Martin of Fort Worth, who was graduated on July 19 from the Naval Air Training Center, Corpus Christi, and commissioned a lieutenant in the U. S. Marine Corp Reserve. Formerly of Farwell, Lt. Martin is well known here, and is believed to be the first Parmer county boy to serve with the Marine air wing.

Forty Head Cattle Listed For Big Sale

Already 40 head of cattle and a large collection of good farm machinery has been listed for the big community sale to be held at Larjat on Tuesday, August 8, Col. Dick Doshier, auctioneer, announced today.

Doshier said that listings were continuing to pour in and predicted the biggest collection of chattels and livestock ever to go under the hammer in a similar event in this section, when the bidding gets under way at 10 o'clock, Texas time.

He said that the large bills, giving a complete list of all items to be offered, would be issued the latter part of this week. In the meantime he suggested that parties having items, especially household goods to consign to the sale, would do well to make such consignment at once.

Farm Boys May Get Crop Harvest Time

Hopes that Parmer county farm boys under 26, who have recently been placed in 1-A by their local board, would be allowed to remain on the farms until after harvest, were heightened here on Monday, when Gen. J. Watt Page, state director of Selective Service, advised in a telephone message to the local board that Parmer County would not be required to send any men during the month of September.

"Beyond that I cannot say definitely at this time," the state director said, adding, "we will do our best to give every consideration to young farmers who have been caught unexpectedly by the new regulations."

Gen. Page's message was in response to a plea sent to the State Director by the local board, requesting that calls from now until the first of the year be held to the minimum or by-passed altogether, in view of the fact that it would mean the uprooting of a large number of young farm boys who are carrying on good-scale farming operations, and would not have time to gather their crops if called during the next three months.

"In cooperation with General Page, the local board is doing everything it can to hold essential farmers on the farms of this county until fall harvesting operations are completed," a member of the local board said today. He added, however that no definite promises to that end could be made at this time, and advised local registrants to "stay where you are and keep plowing corn . . . many things could happen between now and the time you are actually inducted that would give you additional time to wind up your farming operations."

GETS JAP OFFICER—PhM2-c Jim Cleve Dixon, son of Mrs. Ruby Dixon of Farwell, got his first Jap, an officer, in a recent engagement, by slashing the Nip's throat.

Foxhole Night Is Not An Uneventful One

By S-Sgt. Jack Pepper Marine Corps Combat Correspondent

SAIPAN, Marianas Islands (Delayed)—For four hours a small, outnumbered Marine headquarters detachment fought a 30-man Japanese raiding party which stumbled on the Leathernecks while trying to get back to the main Nipponese lines late at night.

The Marine unit was camped a little behind the front lines and expected a Japanese attack only from the front, not from the rear. The Japs had been hiding in a swamp. The Japs, discovering the Marines, immediately started yelling their blood-curdling cry of "Banzai" and screaming at the top of their lungs. They dashed through the woods, jumping into foxholes and trying to bayonet the Marines.

Every Man For Himself

It was every man for himself. Composed mostly of communications men, the Marine detachment was at a disadvantage. They had to hold their fire until sure the dark figures were not their buddies.

Cpl. Wesley R. Veach 25, Alexandria, Ind.; Cpl. Reo J. Bacon, 26, Oregon City, Oreg., and Pfc. Elmer M. Narrow, 22, Tupper Lake, N. Y., were in a foxhole together when a dark figure crept up to the edge.

"What's the password?" asked Veach.

The Jap fired a revolver straight at them, the bullet lodging in the earth just above their heads. All three men fired at the same time, killing the interloper.

Ju-Jitsu Tactics

Hardest hit was a medical detachment. The men were sleeping outside lines of the Marine detachment.

A Japanese officer evidently the leader, jumped into the foxhole of Pharmacist's Mate Second Class William F. Brin of Huntington Park, Calif., and Jim C. Dixon of Farwell, Texas.

Grabbing Brin, he threw the corpsman over his shoulder, using ju-jitsu tactics, and then came at Dixon. Dixon grabbed a knife and slit the Jap officer's throat.

No Second Primary, Committee Decides

The Parmer County Democratic Central Committee, in a meeting held here last Saturday, voted to conduct no second, or run-off, primary election in Parmer County this month.

The action was taken primarily because none of the Parmer county officers were involved in run-off contests this year, "and it would be a needless expense", County Chairman G. D. Anderson said, also going on to express the opinion that less than 100 votes would be polled in the entire county in the state run-off races.

A tragedy that took the life of one of Parmer county's most beloved farm boys, and named the outstanding county for 1943, occurred at the Elmo Dean farm 11 miles north of the 4-H Club achievement lad of Bovina late Tuesday afternoon.

C. L. Calaway, Jr., 13 years old and youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Calaway Sr., met a tragic death while plowing with a tractor in the Dean field. The exact details of his death will never be known, but it is presumed that he was knocked from the machine by a bolt of lightning and then his body badly mangled by a one-way plow that he was using in the field.

His mother had just left the young boy after taking him some cold lemonade, and had gone to an adjoining field on the Calaway farm to take his father some fresh water. A light thundershower, accompanied by two close bolts of lightning and a high wind, swept the field where the young lad was plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. Calaway, a half mile distant, turned their eyes to the field where their son was plowing, only to have their vision obscured by a cloud of dust. "When the dust cleared away, we saw the tractor going around in a circle and knew something had happened," the grief-stricken father related.

They rushed to the scene to find the lad, lying face downward on the freshly plowed ground. Mr. Dean, who had watched the approaching cloud with similar anxiety, ran a quarter-mile across the field from his farm home to reach the lad just behind the parents, and gave it as his opinion the lad was dead when they arrived.

Dean expressed the opinion that young Calaway either fell off the tractor and was run over by the plow or was knocked from the machine by a bolt of lightning. Dr. V. Scott Johnson, who examined the body, said that he found no burn about the body.

Adding to the belief that lightning must have stunned the lad, causing him to fall from the tractor, was the fact that an undamaged watch in his pocket was stopped at 6:20, leading to the belief that an electrical shock might have caused the watch to stop.

Prominent in Club Work

C. L., as he was familiarly known, has been prominent in 4-H club work since he was 9 years old, and last year was named as the most outstanding club boy in Parmer county. He carried on many projects and achieved notable success in livestock and hog production. He would have been 14 years old on Nov. 24.

Besides his parents, he is survived by one brother, Robert of Bovina, and one sister, Mrs. Ola Lee Jones of San Diego, Calif.

Funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of his sister from her home in California.

Large Truck Tires Quota Is Reduced

Only 416 large truck tires will be available for the entire 71 counties in the Lubbock OPA district during the month of August, Howard R. Gholson, district director, announced today. The June quota was 1,473 and the July quota 1,472, making the quota for next month less than 30 percent of previous allotments. The number of truck tires of size 8.25 and larger available for rationing in August is the smallest since rationing began. The national quota, certified to OPA by the Office of the Rubber Director, will be only 60,000.

Reasons given for the drastic cut in heavy truck tire quota are demands of military services, diversion of military and manpower from production of truck tires for civilian use to production to large size airplane tires, and a shortage of manpower skilled in the manufacture of these large size heavy duty tires.

Gholson stated since the August quota is too low to permit setting a quota for all rationing boards as in the past, a temporary expedient has been adopted.

Under such plan, truck and bus operators are to continue to apply for tires to local boards. Instead of the board passing finally on the applicant's needs, the application will be routed to a special truck tire rationing panel for approval. This panel will issue the certificates and return them to the local board for delivery to the applicant.

Since it is inevitable that some trucks must go off the road because of lack of tires, the panel must make certain such trucks are not those essential to the war effort and civilian economy.

Parmer Clubbers To Have 4-H Encampment

Boys of the Parmer county 4-H clubs will leave Thursday of this week, August 3, for the Eastern New Mexico Park, near Portales, to enjoy the annual summer encampment, County Agent Garlon A. Harper has announced.

He urges that all boys who plan to go be on hand at his office not later than 12 noon, Thursday. Each club group is to bring a sponsor to accompany the clubbers on the outing, he added.

The affair this year will be strictly recreational, Harper went on, with arrangements being made for softball games, etc., and, if the weather continues at its present temperature, campers likely will spend the majority of their time in the lake. The group will return here on Friday evening, August 4.

B and C Drivers Are Required to Fill Cars

Rationing boards have been instructed, as of August 1, to refuse all gasoline rations to B and C card drivers who use their cars for home-to-work transportation and cannot show that they belong to a car pool and are regularly carrying a full load, according to John Armstrong, chairman of the Parmer board.

Exceptions will be allowed those persons who use their automobiles during the day for business purposes, or those who travel back and forth to work at such hours that they could not conceivably carry full loads, it was understood.

General observation seemed to be that the crackdown was aimed principally at towns larger than the Twin Cities, where such car pools can operate with a maximum of efficiency, but board members also warned that, where expedient, B and C card drivers should make arrangements to share their car, as much as possible.

Used automobile purchasers were reminded today by John Armstrong, chairman of the Parmer county ration board, that OPA "certificates of transfer" must be completely and accurately filled out and filed with the local board on or before the date the buyer applies for a gas ration.

To protect from overcharges, he urged that buyers fill out blanks completely, showing the facts about the make of car, model, year, body type, extra equipment, and price.

OPA is requiring presentation of this certificate to prevent sales of automobiles at prices higher than ceilings, the chairman said today.

Cost of Education At University Listed

AUSTIN—It will cost $3,676,278 for the next fiscal year to educate sons and daughters at the largest educational institution in the South, the University of Texas, according to budget allotments made by the Board of Regents recently.

A $120,000 appropriation to adjust salaries in the University to the war time living scale helped push this year's budget total slightly above the $3,506,256 sum spent last year by the school.

Extension work of the University also received an increased allotment this year with a $143,175 allotment which is some $13,000 above last year's appropriation.

Other allotments this year included $403,170 for general administration, $2,174,703 for instructional costs, $220,250 for the library, $434,325 for physical plant operations, and $13,500 for fellowships, scholarships, and research.

When the reformer told the drunk that he would never get anywhere by drinking, the inebriate replied: "Ain't it so? I've already started home from this corner five times."

VICTORY GARDEN OF THE AIR

COLLEGE STATION—An innovation in war-time education is scheduled in September when the A&M Extension Service will sponsor a Victory Garden School of the Air on a four-station network in Texas. Persons in charge say the school will offer a series of eight practical how-to-do-it lessons which will teach Texans, particularly those who have never planted fall gardens previously, everything from soil preparation to storage of surpluses.

Enrollment will be open to both farm and city gardeners, youths and adults. Those participating will be provided with free bulletins on subjects related to fall gardens. Enrollment cards can be obtained from Extension headquarters at College Station.

The school will be featured on the Texas Farm and Home Program and dates have been set for Sept. 4-29.

Home Canners Advised How to Avoid Deadly Botulinus Poisoning

THERE is vital need to can as many vegetables as possible as well as fruit; but the only safe way to can any vegetables, except tomatoes, is by correct use of the pressure cooker," advises Katharine Fisher, Director of Good Housekeeping Institute. "This method is the only one which provides the hotter-than-boiling heat that's necessary to kill botulinus germs which may be on any non-acid food you can—and that means all vegetables except tomatoes. When botulinus germs are not killed in the canning process, they thrive in sealed jars and create a powerful poison."

"This botulinus poisoning comes from bacteria that live in the soil and cling to vegetables. Although rare, this poison is particularly dangerous because it usually does not change the food's appearance, odor or taste. Analyses of soil indicate that there is a chance that botulinus spores may be found almost anywhere. Fortunately, they are harmless until they get in air-tight jars of canned food."

Use Pressure Cooker

"Correct use of the pressure cooker also protects against other types of spoilage," Miss Fisher said. "A recent national survey showed that home canners who put up non-acid vegetables by the hot water bath method reported a hundred per cent greater rate of spoilage than those who used the pressure cooker method."

"Never taste to discover spoilage," Good Housekeeping advises. "All home canned products should be examined carefully when opened and, if there is any evidence of spoilage, the food should not be used."

RESEARCH WORK LISTED

AUSTIN—Special study into more than a score of significant facts, ranging from civil law to the effects of vitamin B, has been authorized at the University of Texas by $12,060 in grants from the University Research Institute approved by the Board of Regents.

Objects of these grants is to aid studies by the University faculty in fundamental arts and sciences, as contrasted to the applied sciences supported by special research bureaus. The funds are spent for needed equipment, research assistants, or publication of findings.

Largest single grant went to Judge R. W. Stayton, professor of law, $1,420, to study pendency of civil law cases before the Texas Supreme Court.

Other fields supported in the list of grants include: genetics, physical education, Western Hemisphere mineral resources, Latin-American sociology, food preservation methods, and oil field folklore.

Victory is Everybody's Job.

TELESCOPE IS PRAISED BY MANY ASTRONOMERS

AUSTIN—In five years of service atop Mount Locke in the Davis Mountains of West Texas, the huge 82-inch telescope of the University of Texas' McDonald Observatory has won glowing praise from some of the Western Hemisphere's leading astronomers, officials have learned.

"All astronomers who have used the telescope agree that it is the finest and most efficient piece of astronomical machinery that they have encountered," Dr. Otto Struve, director of both McDonald Observatory and the University of Chicago's Yerkes Observatory, recently wrote University authorities.

The minutely accurate driving mechanism with which the telescope is equipped makes it possible for the observer to follow the stars through the heavens.

"This type of mechanism is not new," Dr. Struve added, "every large telescope is provided with it, but ours is of a very fine and modern design and is perhaps more accurate than similar devices used in other telescopes."

Several distinguished visiting astronomers have used the 82-inch instrument—second largest in the world—recently, Dr. Struve said.

Prof. Frank Edmondson of Indiana University spent six weeks at McDonald in May and June, he said, explaining that Indiana University has been granted permission to use the telescope for ten clear nights each year. The observatory was built by the University of Texas and is staffed and operated by the University of Chicago.

Two Argentine astronomers—Drs. Carlos S. Casco and Jorge Sahade from the National Observatory at La Plata, Argentina—spent February and March at McDonald securing photographic materials. Dr. Helen Steel, formerly connected with Harvard University, visited in April.

GET MORE CASH

AUSTIN—Texas farmers got 38 per cent more cash for their products in June this year than in June, 1933, with increases in marketing rather than increases in prices responsible, Dr. F. A. Buechel, University of Texas marketing expert, reports.

Wheat shipments and livestock marketings were well above last year's figures, boosting the total income for June to $98,000,000, an increase of 18 per cent over the $83,000,000 received in May, 1933.

The July 1 crop report of the Department of Agriculture indicates a record wheat crop in the offing for Texas this year with a prediction of more than 70 million bushel harvest. If the present $1.40 per bushel price holds through the season this would result in a crop value of approximately $100,000,000.

Watch where you place your confidence or you may lose it all.

COTTON SUREST MAJOR CROP FOR TEXAS GROWERS

AUSTIN—Livestock and livestock industries may bring more money to the state, but King Cotton—standby of Southern farmers—is still the "surest major crop" for growth in Texas, Dr. A. B. Cox, University of Texas cotton specialist, declared recently.

Pointing out that cotton's ability to stand drought and to produce on second growth makes it ideal for the Texas climate, Dr. Cox emphasized that no other major crop will give as much to the producer and take as little from his soil.

"The welfare of the whole world, the nation and especially the cotton-growing South demands that there be developed constructive policies to lower costs of producing cotton by eliminating hand labor and by building up and maintaining soil productivity," Dr. Cox said.

If planted year after year on the same land cotton will reduce humus and cause soil depletion through erosion, Dr. Cox added, but this may be overcome on the better lands in Texas by following proper practices.

Dr. Cox also pointed out that the rich livestock and cotton industries are supplementary rather than competitive. High protein concentrate feed is vital to the livestock and dairy industries, he explained, and

ANY FEED MAKES SILAGE

COLLEGE STATION—Feed in a silo will keep indefinitely says E. R. Eudaly, dairy husbandman for the Extension Service. Some crops make better silage, but anything that cattle will eat is good filling for the silo.

It is not necessary to have a big crew and fill the trench in a day or two, he explains. A farmer with one helper could fill a 20-foot section of a 100x6 foot trench in three days by putting down a 2-foot layer daily. In this way the trench could be filled completely in 15 days, using a cutter or by "singling" in the bundles. In upright or pit silos, however, bundles could not be used.

Groups like corn, grain sorghums and sweet sorghums may be handled in the same manner for making silage. Other groups or crops require different treatment. If any of the former group is destined for the silo immediately after cutting, the grain should be in the stiff dough stage. If the majority of the leaves are a heathy green and chopped into one-half inch length or less, no water need be added. If feed is put down in bundles enough water should be added to dampen it.

If the majority of the leaves are dry and little juice is in the stalk enough water should be added, even when chopped, to dampen the feed. Bundles should be wet thoroughly. Protein content of corn and grain and sweet sorghums in the stiff dough stage is five to six percent. To increase the protein, cut the sorghums in the bloom stage and the corn in the milk stage, and allow them to lay in the field until about half dry enough to bale for hay. When put in the trench add enough water to dampen it.

Johnson grass, which if saved is abundant enough to feed all of the cattle in Texas, and sudan grass both make good silage. But if put into the silo immediately the seed should be in the stiff dough stage. In that state the protein content will be about 6 percent, but if the grasses are cut before heading the silage will analyze from 12 to 14 percent protein. However, these grasses, when cut before heading, should be allowed to lay until two-thirds dry enough to bale for hay before being stored in the silo, Eudaly says.

Soldiers to a number of 2,000,000 buy $13,000,000 worth of war bonds every pay day.

Warning

NO COAL FOR CIVILIAN USE WILL BE SHIPPED DURING SEPTEMBER, OCTOBER, NOVEMBER, DECEMBER, JANUARY, AND FEBRUARY

The United States Government has notified all coal dealers and all mine operators that the Government will need the entire output of the coal mines of this country from September through February.

During these months the coal will be required to keep the war plants booming, the supply trains rolling and for the men in camps and on the battlefields.

With fewer miners and less transportation this promises to be the most critical year so far as the coal supply for civilian use is concerned.

Order Your Coal Now!

July and August are the only two months remaining in which reasonably prompt deliveries can be made . . . so all who use coal are urged to store it now. It is the only way you can be sure of having coal next winter!

Graham-Neill Rites Are Held in Summerfield

In a double-ring ceremony performed at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, July 30, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Roberson, sister of the bride, Summerfield, Miss Edith Neill, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Neill of Black, became the bride of Sgt. John Austin Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Graham of Farwell.

The vows were read by Rev. Paul Tripp of Farwell, before an improvised altar decorated with roses and candelabra holding ivory tapers. On either side were tall floor baskets filled with gladioli.

Before the ceremony, Miss Carrie Neal Russell played "Intermezzo". Miss Joanne Russel sang "O Perfect Love" and "I Love You Truly". The couple and their attendants entered to the strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" played by Miss Gayle Roberson, niece of the bride.

During the ceremony, "Liebestraum" was played softly by Miss Russell. The traditional wedding march was used as a recessional.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white satin and net with a tight fitting bodice and full skirt. She wore a finger-tip veil and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and blue forget-me-nots on a Bible brought from the Holy Land and belonging to the groom. For "something old", she wore a cross belonging to Mrs. B. N. Graham, mother of the groom.

The maid of honor, Miss Berthamae Thomas, wore a gown of blue taffeta and net fashioned similar to that of the bride. She had a corsage of red roses. Attending the groom was his brother-in-law, Raymond C. Ross, of Morton. Little Miss Ray Ann Ross carried the rings on a small white taffeta pillow. She was gowned in blue net.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, with the entertaining rooms decorated with dahlias and gladioli. The bride's table was centered with a two-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. After the reception the couple left for a short trip to San Angelo, Texas. Mrs. Graham traveled in a suit of brown and white checked linen with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

After their trip the couple will be at home at 1619 18th St., Lubbock. The bride is a graduate of Merkel high school and Wayland College. She has attended West Texas State, and formerly taught at Bethel and Farwell. Sgt. Graham was graduated from the Farwell high school. He attended West Texas State and Texas Tech as a pre-med student. At present he is stationed at South Plains Army Air Field, Lubbock.

Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Roberts of Farwell; Mrs. Ross of Morton; Mr. and Mrs. Oren Neill and family, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ray and son, Abilene; Mrs. B. C. Roberson of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Roberson and family.

Club Women To Study Bandage Rolling

Mrs. M. T. Jones and Mrs. Carman, of Clovis, will be here next Monday, August 7, for two special meetings with the local Woman's Club, concerning the making of bandages for the Red Cross.

The Club is sponsoring the work in the Twin Cities, and announced that demonstrations on bandage rolling would be given by the two visitors.

The group will meet at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the Farwell home economics building and, in order that those who are employed, may also attend, another meeting will be held at 9 o'clock that evening, in the same building.

Due to the need of such work donations to the Red Cross, members of the Club urge that every local woman—whether a club member or not—attend one of these meetings next week.

Staff Sergeant D. D. (Bud) Maffett, former Santa Fe signalman, who is now with the services in Italy, proves that he is not too busy to continue his usual harangue of local people, by a letter received here. Some time ago, Bud penned a lengthy "bull" letter, offering to "eat The Tribune" if it was printed. The editor took him at his word, as witness Bud's reply:

"Now look, Hop, don't get the idea we are on speaking terms again. Just because I am willing to eat my own words when wrong, is no sign you should throw in a couple of sheets extra. And the quality of that stuff you print—phooie; That old coarse, rotten paper you use, well, there should be a law against it. However, I was doing OK, all those little faults considered, until I came to that Red Cross (local pharmacy) ad. There I just gagged and gave up. "Not much new over here, Hop.

Same old grind, seeing some new country, however. Rome was nice. Some of the most modern buildings I've seen, labor and good material seems to have been cheap at one time—and they sure like beauty. Don't we all? Only their minds are a little higher, they prefer it in marble or tile. St. Peter's Cathedral is not so modern. But boy! would it hold some wheat! I was able to get some good pictures there. Not all of buildings, however, or statues. I prefer the flesh. The cognac there was good for a week or ten days, until they found out GI gasoline would bring the same price, and leave nearly as good a hangover. My nightly prayer is that none of these civilians get home ahead of us and let the public know what suckers us dog-faces are."

IN AND OUT OF STATES

J. L. Walling, of this city, has learned recently that his son, Major Craig Walling, stationed in Sardinia with the AAF, was recently in the States, flying high-ranking officials in on a mission so secret that he could not even let his family know he was in the country. The information came from a soldier recently at Clovis, who was a member of a party Major Walling flew to the States, but, unlike Walling, was allowed to remain here. It is reported that the crew was taken over the Walling farm near Farwell and pointed out by the Major.

The Farwell faculty also needs two teachers to make it complete for the year, Supt. J. T. Carter said, the vacancies occurring in the fourth and fifth, and sixth and seventh grades.

Revival Series Begins For Bovina Baptists

Rev. T. G. Nanney, popular pastor of the First Baptist Church, Wewoka, Okla., arrived Monday in Bovina and is conducting special evangelistic services twice daily at the First Baptist Church of that city.

Rev. Nanney has been with the Oklahoma church for 18 years, during which time he has seen the membership grow from around 700 to over 2000, a large percent of that number coming by profession of faith. He has held several responsible positions in the denominational work in Oklahoma. Each year more invitations to speak before conferences, assemblies and revival work are received than he is able to fulfill. Rev. Nanney has written five or six books the last few years, the most popular being "Comfort Ye My People", and "A Successful Church".

Splendid groups are hearing the revivalist twice daily. Morning services are conducted at 10:30 except on Monday. Evening services begin at 9:00.

Rev. Fred Stumpp, pastor, is in charge of the singing, and today issued an invitation to all people to hear Rev. Nanney, saying, "If you are a stranger to God you will need to hear this man of God. If you are a friend to God you will be nourished and fed upon the deep truths of the soul by hearing this preacher."

McElroys Leave City; To Live in California

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McElroy, who for more than twenty years have been residents of Farwell, completed arrangements the first of the week for disposal of their property to Mr. and Mrs. Karl Gast, and left on Tuesday evening to spend a few weeks with their son, Pete, in Clovis, following which they plan to make their home in California.

They are well known members of the community. "Mr. Mac" as he was more familiarly known to his friends, has in the past served as both county commissioner and a member of the Farwell school board. Until the local utilities company closed its ice manufacturing plant in Farwell, he was manager of the company. Following his retirement from active business, he has done some farming and handled a chicken ranch at his home in southeast Farwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gast will take over the property in a few days, it was understood.

Morton Calls FFA's To Meet on Friday

GOES AFTER BUS

Conservation Practice Survey To Open, 9th

Reports on the extent of conservation practices carried out in 1944 by Parmer county farmers will begin at the AAA office in Farwell Wednesday and Thursday, August 9-10. Residents of the Farwell and Oklahoma Lane communities are especially invited to appear during those days to turn in their measurements, but the community committeemen and office force will be glad to take the reports of others who happen to be in town.

Midway and Lazbuddy farmers are asked to come in on Friday and Saturday, August 11 and 12, for their performance reports. Further schedules will be announced in the paper next week.

A greatly simplified procedure will this year shorten the time required for a farmer to complete his report. In many cases the entire job can be done in a few minutes, especially if each farmer will bring to the office the simple measurements outlined in individual notices mailed this week. Where a single practice, for instance contour drilling, occupies an entire permanent field, no measurement is needed, since such fields have known areas already on record. Where only part of a field is occupied by a certain practice, measurements of length and width in chains, rods, yards, feet or rows will enable the assistant to make a rapid calculation of acreage.

Performance reports have been purposely delayed this year until the interval between wheat harvest and the maturing of fall crops would give most farmers the required time to come in. Office personnel express the hope that Parmer County farmers will show the same cooperative spirit which made plan sheet sign-up 99% complete within a short time this spring. Next to the actual application for payment, the report of performance is the most important part of the 1944 AAA program.

KICA Joins Mutual Broadcasting System

On August 1, radio station KICA, Clovis, became a full time affiliate of the Mutual Broadcasting System. This is perhaps the most important event in the history of the station which began operating in Clovis on June 9, 1932. It marks the accomplishment of a plan formulated when the present management took over less than two years ago. And, according to R. B. McAlister, manager, had it not been for the exigencies of war which have made it impossible to get the necessary facilities, Eastern New Mexico and West Texas would have had this network station several months earlier.

The many fine Mutual programs, with which you will become familiar in the near future, offer the finest in entertainment and the best in radio news coverage, as Mutual has gained the reputation of being the "Network for News". This plus the fact that the station is served by a 24-hour United Press Radio wire news service, makes KICA truly an up-to-the-minute news station.

On September 1, 1942, when the ownership of the station was transferred from the Western Broadcasters, Inc., to DeWitt Landis, KICA was operating 13 hours a day, from 2 a. m. to 3 p. m., Mountain War Time. The present 17-hour schedule is from 6 a. m. to 11 p. m.

It is the policy of the present management to support every move that is of civic or community betterment, and in such cases, those in charge are eager to cooperate in promoting them. Program director Grady Maples urges listeners to either write or visit the station in regard to such matters, because, as members of the KICA personnel have frequently stated, "We have the finest radio audience in the world, and we'll do our best to give that audience the finest of radio programs." Watch this newspaper from time to time for announcements concerning outstanding programs over KICA.
