

Land Sold For Cotton Compress

Fred Carthell, who lives northeast of Farwell, announced this week that he sold 194 acres of land, through Magness Real Estate of Farwell, for the purpose of constructing a cotton compress.

The plot of ground is located from the state line east on the north side of Highway 60 past Bagley's Service Station. Buyer of the land was W. B. Willingham of Tulsa, although others will be involved, Carthell says.

It was reported that a $150,000 investment was planned for the compress, but just when construction would get underway was not known. It was thought that since it was too late for the cotton harvest this season, that work on the compress may not begin for sometime.

Access to railroad facilities is planned through a spur line across Highway 60, according to reports.

Steers to Vega Friday Night

Fresh from their first victory of the season over the Bovina Mustangs last week, the Farwell Steers will be going after win number two tomorrow (Friday) at Vega. Game time is 8 p. m.

After two games, the Steers remain unscored against, and have won one and tied one. Vega has played only one game this season, dropping a 13-6 decision to an Amarillo B team (the Stormies) last Friday.

The Steer coach, Russell Young, said that Vega had a light team with the exception of one man, a 220-pound lineman, and they have a fast backfield. Vega has scouted Farwell in both its games this season, so the coach was certain the opponent would be ready for the Steers.

The Farwell aggregation will be playing without the services of Philip Berry, starting fullback, who suffered a broken hand in the Bovina game. Berry injured his hand in the first half, but played the remainder of the game, finding out that it was broken after the game.

Berry will not see action for three or four weeks, according to Young. Probably starting backfield for the Vega game will be David Willard, and Jerry Henson, Johnny and Tommy Lovelace.

Two changes in the line will be Glyn McDorman and Derrell Garner at offensive end positions, Young says.

Nelson Uninjured In Truck Mishap

Conrad Nelson escaped uninjured when the truck he was driving slipped off into an ensilage pit on the Leon Grissom farm in the Oklahoma Lane community, Tuesday.

Nelson had backed the loaded truck up to the side of the pit and the mound of dirt that served as a warning to tell drivers when to stop was so soft that Nelson backed over it and into the pit. He was examined by a physician, but no injuries were found.

Wench trucks were called to the scene Wednesday to remove the truck, which was standing front end up, from the pit.

MAKES APPROVALS

In a routine business session last week, the Farwell School board approved the budget, and the school calendar for the year. Checks for current bills were also paid.

Steers Defeat Mustangs, 13-0

By Dolph Moten

It was all Farwell's show Friday night in Steer Stadium as Bovina's Mustangs went down to their second straight defeat by a 13-0 count. It was the Steers' first win in two starts.

They played a 0-0 deadlock with Melrose in their first outing.

Featuring two fine backs named Lovelace—Tommy and Johnny—the Steers counted in the second and third quarters. The Mustangs' defense showed improvement over their first game against Sprinklake, which they lost 27-7, but their offense, hampered by injuries to two key backs, Neil Smith and Billy Burnam, couldn't get started.

Farwell's attack was handicapped by penalties that totaled 105 yards during the contest. The Mustangs lost five yards via the penalty route.

Late in the second quarter the Steers managed for their first touchdown of the year. A stub-

Message To Patrons From Agrie Jones

A routine check with the superintendent's office brought forth a message to school patrons which should be passed on verbatim. The following message, given in that manner, expresses the appreciation, hopes and aspirations of Agrie Jones, superintendent of the Texico School.

"We have come back to school this year with the best school spirit that has been exhibited in the past seven years.

"If anyone has a doubt to the advisability of spending money for new buildings and new equipment, a comparison of work being done by pupils with the new building and equipment with that under the old set up, will dispel all doubts.

"A farmer with a new tractor and plows takes greater interest in his work, and does a better job, than he would with antiquated machinery. He certainly will not use machinery that dates back to 1918. Yet in far too many places, our people are satisfied to have their children use 1918 school buildings and equipment for educational purposes.

"The fact that the patrons of Texico School district have seen fit to build new buildings and cast out 1918 equipment in favor of modern buildings and equipment, most certainly is casting a favorable reflection on the school work and attitudes of the children.

"There can be no standing still; we must continue to move forward or we shall find ourselves slipping backwards. It is my sincere wish that Texico School shall continue to march forward as a builder of better citizens for our great country."

COMMENTING

With Carolyn

Once again it is "Hi" to our readers. After a three month vacation, students and teachers are venturing into another school term. We hope this year that "The Wolverine's Tale" can in some way uphold and promote democracy, sportmanship and education at THS.

Members of the office practice class would like to nominate Coeta Doolittle for the title of "All-American Secretary." Recently, this class toured the school office and Coeta explained her daily office routine for them. The students of this class have decided that very few people could handle these many and varied chores with the efficiency that Coeta does.

Wasn't that a good speech Dick Lockhart gave Monday morning in assembly? He really did a sensational job of telling his many experiences at Boys' State this past summer.

At the beginning of their class period each day, Mrs. Jones gives her shorthand II students a thought for the day. These thoughts, which are used as a shorthand warm-up, usually contain a good moral. A recent one was "some people go about doing good, some people just go about."

Heard from a birdie: that the student council is really doing its part to make our school one of the best in the state. Five members of the council attended a workshop at Silver City this summer. They learned many new ideas and projects for the student council. So far this year they have set several new aims and goals for the student council and the entire school; and are working on more.

Two new members of the faculty this year are Edward Choate, high school English teacher, and Mrs. Juanita Byrd, fourth grade teacher. Welcome to Texico!

Don't forget to buy a magazine subscription from some member of the senior class.

of the other team Curd, Dick Lockhart, ler, Glenda Richardson, Hancock, Joe Glaze, A and Joyce Gillean support. Their first day's sales to $73.50.

Life in the newspaper business couldn't be classified as one of "all pleasant experiences."

But the large number of small and interesting stories and the situations that arise in covering these stories, make us glad that we chose journalism as our field.

There is just something about the weekly field, the friends you see each week, the stories about your neighbors and just staying busy at something you like to do, that gets in your blood.

It's too bad so many high school graduates who have the yen to write, are going to miss this field.

Ronny came to us one day last week and thoughtfully inquired "Mommy, if you're naughty, that's not nice, is it?" It took only three years for us to brain-wash him into realizing that one.

And it strikes us, that if you're a parent, you are also a teacher.

Ronny had a treat last week—and so did mama. Mrs. Effie Johnson came over to the front yard of Mrs. W. H. Graham Sr. with her right hand cupped over something she held in her left hand, and a secretive smile on her face.

Ronny has developed quite an attachment for "Grandma" Johnson, and was quite curious to see what she had. Sure enough, he had one of his first chances at nature study.

Mrs. Johnson was holding a baby guinea, that was just pecking out of the shell. Half of the shell was already gone and the little bird was sitting in the other half, just getting ready to finish his job of "getting out of the shell."

Ronny was pretty excited, and even made a trip to see the little guinea the next day—and found the little fellow walking around.

Something tells us that in covering the school news, we could get confused. There is a Jerry Henson at Farwell and also one at Texico.

Wilma Norton called the office last week to give us a note of news. Wilma, who is one of the pretty teen-agers in our town, always impresses us with her vivacious manner.

Father's Day was founded in 1910, in Spokane, Wash., by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our gracious thanks and appreciation to our many friends for the flowers, cards, prayers and every kindness shown us during our bereavement of the passing of our mother. We would especially like to thank Rev. Morgan for his services and Mrs. Margaret White for her wonderful message in song. May God bless each of you.

Hearing moans and groans from the living room, we rushed in to find the three-year-old atop the 15-month-old. "What do you think you are doing," we inquired, to which Ronny glibly replied "Why mommy, were rascal-ing." Maybe he accidentally hit on the right word after all.

It really didn't look much like wrestling.

Life in the newspaper business couldn't be classified as one of "all pleasant experiences."

But the large number of small and interesting stories and the situations that arise in covering these stories, make us glad that we chose journalism as our field.

There is just something about the weekly field, the friends you see each week, the stories about your neighbors and just staying busy at something you like to do, that gets in your blood.

It's too bad so many high school graduates who have the yen to write, are going to miss this field.

Ronny came to us one day last week and thoughtfully inquired "Mommy, if you're naughty, that's not nice, is it?" It took only three years for us to brain-wash him into realizing that one.

And it strikes us, that if you're a parent, you are also a teacher.

Ronny had a treat last week—and so did mama. Mrs. Effie Johnson came over to the front yard of Mrs. W. H. Graham Sr. with her right hand cupped over something she held in her left hand, and a secretive smile on her face.

Ronny has developed quite an attachment for "Grandma" Johnson, and was quite curious to see what she had. Sure enough, he had one of his first chances at nature study.

Mrs. Johnson was holding a baby guinea, that was just pecking out of the shell. Half of the shell was already gone and the little bird was sitting in the other half, just getting ready to finish his job of "getting out of the shell."

Ronny was pretty excited, and even made a trip to see the little guinea the next day—and found the little fellow walking around.

Something tells us that in covering the school news, we could get confused. There is a Jerry Henson at Farwell and also one at Texico.

Wilma Norton called the office last week to give us a note of news. Wilma, who is one of the pretty teen-agers in our town, always impresses us with her vivacious manner.

Southern Union Gas Plans Safety Program

Past achievements and future plans in Southern Union Gas Company's employee safety program were discussed when key personnel from the utility company's southwest division met in Carlsbad Friday.

Some 45 company representatives, including managers and supervisors of Southern Union's Eastern New Mexico and West Texas properties, attended the all-day meeting held in the community room of Southern Union's Carlsbad office.

Highlight of the meeting was the presentation of two awards to the gas company's El Paso district for an outstanding record of one-half million man hours without a disabling injury. The first certificate was the safety achievement award of the Southern Gas Association, an organization with 76 member and 201 associate member companies in 14 southern and southwestern states. Willis L. Lea, Jr., Dallas, vice president of Southern Union, made the presentation on behalf of Southern Gas Association.

The second award was the certificate of merit of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, which was presented by E. C. Sundberg, superintendent of the insurance company's safety engineering department, Dallas office. Both awards were accepted by E. M. Kelley, El Paso, manager of the company's southwest division.

Highway Patrolmen Applications Accepted

Applications for appointment as Texas Highway Patrolmen will be accepted from the present time until October 15, according to an announcement by Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Examinations for the men qualifying will be given statewide during the latter part of October and those scoring the highest will enter the recruit training school next January.

Garrison said that appointments will be made to fill the additional positions authorized by the last Texas Legislature and to fill existing vacancies caused by promotions and resignations.

Salary of patrolmen is $315 monthly, plus longevity. They are also paid during training. Other benefits include annual leave and benefits of the State Retirement System and Federal Social Security.

General requirements for appointment to the State Highway Patrol include: 21 to 35 years of age, inclusive; minimum height of five feet, eight inches; weight in proportion to height; excellent physical condition; and high school education or equivalent.

In addition, applicants must be citizens of the United States and residents of Texas for at least a year immediately prior to filing of the application. They are also subject to a rigid character investigation.

Application blanks or further details may be obtained by writing to W. J. Elliott, Chief, Texas Highway Patrol, at Austin or by contacting the Captain in command of the nearest Patrol District.

ected to the same office two years in succession, Bell will be replaced in a future meeting.

Jerry King, serving as president, was elected in a general election last spring. Paul Frederick, principal, is the sponsor of the group.

The Student Council decided to join the District, State, and National Council Associations, which will enable them to send at least three members to the State Student Council Convention to be held at Los Alamos in the spring. This also will give them a possibility of sending one member to the National Student Council Convention to be held at Roswell this summer.

ELEMENTARY CLASSES NAME OFFICERS

An excited group of 28 fifth graders enrolled in Mrs. Peyton's room this year. Selected to head the class as officers for the year are as follows: president, Callaya Roberts; vice-president, Sue Walton; secretary, Kathleen Smith; treasurer, Wanda Eshleman; and reporter, Wanda Morgan.

New pupils are John Wyman, Lucille Halsell, Ronnie Lawson, and Allen Hill. Only one student, Rosemary Brehm, moved away during the summer.

The class has a good record of only one absentee in three weeks.

Mrs. Rogers' sixth grade class consists of 26 pupils with two new boys, Gary McMullin and James Watts.

For class officers the group elected Carol White, president; Lynn Doshier, vice-president; Jenness Weisler, reporter; and Linda Palmateer, secretary-treasurer.

"Each pupil has been having a good time listening to the reading of 'Tom Sawyer,' watching science films of flowers and leaves, and playing baseball at P. E. period," Jenness Weisler, reporter says.

"REVENGE"

By Betty Pendergrass

Do you ever find yourself trying to think of some way to "get even" with someone for some wrong they have done to you? If you thought of some way to get revenge, would doing it change the situation at all?

Perhaps you know people who hold grudges over a long period of time, finally after a long wait they get the chance to get even. Then most likely they have forgotten for what they are getting revenge.

Revenge is a thing that damages the personality and even the mind. It begins with a minute incident, then it grows until it has dominated the person who is plagued by it.

Often the desire for revenge is caused by the misconception that one is weak if he doesn't strike back. If you will stop and think, you will realize that this is a cowardly and immature approach to the problem.

If anyone hurts you, or does you some minor damage, even if you find it impossible to forgive it, the important and sensible thing to do is to forget it.

So when you find yourself thinking of a way to get even for a wrong done to you, remember the most effective revenge is to forget it.

SENIOR PERSONALITY

Weldon Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bell, has the honor of being the first senior of the week for the 1956-57 school term. This honor came to him by virtue of the fact that he is senior class president.

Weldon, one of the busiest lads on the school campus, is a member of the student council, plays in the school band, is an active agriculture student and is one of the "main-stays" in all athletic activities.

When asked what it means to him to be a senior he replied, "It means I have only one short year to finish my high school education and to do the things I have wanted to do when I became a senior."

Looking back four years in the Texico High School, he advises underclassmen, "Study hard, make all the friends you can, and enter into all the activities you can."

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADES ENGAGED IN VARIOUS ACTIVITIES

The 39 members of the seventh grade class get off to a good start in the day's work by giving the salute to the flag and the pledge of allegiance.

New members in the class are Patsy Hill, H. W. Lawson Jr., L. A. Lawson, Robert Lawson, Johnny Sprows, Ronald Watts and Phillip Fielding.

Class officers are president, Don Reid; secretary, Sharon Hendrix; reporter, Carmelita Doshier; and treasurer, Betty Ruth Lockhart.

Eighth grade students are getting a big "bang" out of writing to pen pals in foreign lands. "This is an excellent way to get some first hand information on geography" says Mrs. Fred Danforth, sponsor. Three new members have been

Details Released for County Emergency Feed Program

Parmer County farmers, reinstated in the government's emergency feed program last week, already are applying for participation, according to John Zahn of the county FHA office.

By Tuesday afternoon, about a dozen farmers and stockmen had been in to inquire for details of the program, which marks the first time Parmer County has been on the "drouth disaster" list since the summer of 1954.

Applications for the program are being taken by the FHA office, and that office also can then proceed to issue purchase certificates for hay. In the case of grain rations, these will be obtained through the county ASC office, but in both cases, applications must begin at the FHA office.

The local FHA committee will rule on the eligibility of applicants, and certify to their participation. They are scheduled to meet Thursday of this week.

Government support on the emergency provisions is $1 per hundred-weight for grain, and $7.50 per ton for hay or ensilage. Both are maximum figures.

"The feed is for foundation herds only," cautions Zahn, "and not for animals being raised to market."

Amounts permissible are 17 pounds of hay, 4 pounds of grain per day for dairy or beef cows; 12 pounds of hay, 3 of grain for heifers (for foundation herd replacements); 4 pounds of hay, 1 of grain for calves on cows; and 20 pounds of hay, 5 of grain for herd bulls.

It is possible for farmers to pick either or both of the programs, says Zahn. There also is a program available for sheep and goats.

Dealers interested in participating in the program must sign a dealer agreement and be approved by the county committee.

THE HAPPY HOMEMAKER

Mrs. Foister Rector, who lives south of Friona, writes that she is one homemaker who still makes her own butter and also makes handmade quilts. Her family enjoys homemade butter very much and has never learned to eat substitutes. That reminds us of a slogan which we see on a delivery truck.

It reads, "Only butter tastes like butter."

Mrs. Rector especially enjoys making quilts. Her favorites are embroidered and appliqued, but she makes patchwork quilts, too. She learned the art from her mother, Mrs. P. B. Griffith, but according to Mrs. Rector, "I don't do as nice work as mother does."

An idea which should be used in every home, new or old, is to provide storage space for anything which might be harmful to children. There should be a medicine cabinet which is out of reach of small hands in every home. Just last week two small children in Friona took overdoses of something.

The two were taken to the Parmer County Community Hospital the same day and were given emergency treatment. Several have been treated in the past year. These were all taken to the hospital before their condition became critical. If you have small children in your home, store harmful mixtures out of their reach.

If you dislike ironing, and who doesn't, check labels on garments and buy only those which require little or no ironing. Some of the new drip dry fabrics look wonderful with a minimum of ironing.

There will be demonstrations of electronic ranges at several of the fairs this year. That we sure want to see. Turning out perfectly cooked foods in seconds instead of minutes or hours sounds almost too good to be true. If you see such a demonstration, let us know about it. We may not get around to attending a fair.

What do you homemakers plan to do with your extra time this winter? It seems that those who make gardens, keep lawns, preserve fruits and vegetables and do so many other summer jobs would have a lot of spare time when the weather gets cold.

Of course, we know that those having school age children put in a lot of hours with them during the winter. To you, we would like to suggest that you take an active part in your local PTA organization this school term.

Let us know about your interests, hobbies, etc. Then after we find out about them, we may be wanting to know how you find time for them. Seems like today's homemakers have a bigger problem finding time for outside interests than they do in becoming interested in an outside activity.

Maybe we need to learn how to use our time more effectively. If any of you have suggestions along that line, we would like to hear about them, too.

Several months ago we saved an article on refinishing old furniture to make it look like antique. The ideas expressed sounded so workable our curiosity was aroused. Learned lately that it is a very good idea. Lorraine Welch tried it. The only thing Lorraine found wrong with it was that the main ingredient necessary was elbow grease.

DOUBLE ACTION—This shows how the heads of the tall sart on the Wells farm are topped and conveyed to a rolling truck, and shortly afterward, the remainder of the stalk is cut to shreds in an ensilage cutter, making total use of the crop.

Sart Dual Crop On Wells Farm

A little over a year ago, Patrick of Roberts Seed Company brought back a bundle of a crop called sart that he had noticed growing in Cochran County. Because of its enormous size, it was examined by numerous farmers and a picture and story was run in The State Line Tribune. Patrick didn't know it, but there were 60 acres of the "new" crop growing right in Parmer County at that time.

It was on the H. C. Wells farm just north of Friona. This week, there is another crop of sart growing on the Wells place, although it has swelled to 165 acres.

Harold Joe Wells, young Friona farmer, and a big crew of harvest hands are busy this week taking the crop in and the system they use to take advantage of both seed and forage presents an unusual scene.

First, a gawky de-header on "stilts" rolls along, its reel pulling the heads into the cutter. The heads continue along a canvas conveyor until they dump into a truck which rolls alongside.

Behind this operation comes a forage cutter which gobbles up the remainder of the stalk and blows it into another rolling truck as shredded forage ready for the silo.

Wells is pleased with the way the crop is turning out this year, and reports that the return from sart is beating considerably what grain sorghum could do.

Fair time is here again and I have already spent two days judging. Friday I judged at the Castro County Fair and Saturday at the Tri-State Fair. There were lots of frozen, canned and baked foods at both fairs. I enjoyed both fairs but I am now ready to go back and "just look."

Saturday, September 22, Katherine Smith of Lazbuddie, Parmer County district 4-H Club council delegate, and Judy Billingsley of Farwell, Parmer County baking queen, will attend the Tri-State Fair Rural Youth Day program.

Highlight of this annual event will be the crowning of the baking queen and wheat king. This event will take place at 10:30 a. m.

The coronation will be followed by the district council meeting.

Stretch Your Clothing Dollars
Are you good at stretching clothing dollars? Outfitting the youngsters with clothes for school or college and planning a fall and winter wardrobe for the family represents quite an investment. Extension clothing specialists say that careful planning before you buy will pay off in savings and satisfaction.

Careful planning is the secret to a wardrobe of costumes or outfits that go well together instead of a collection of miscellaneous items that never seem quite right.

Begin by taking careful stock of clothes on hand. Make necessary alterations of clothes you keep, bring them up to date or put them in first class condition.

Now plan what clothes you need to supplement what you have, keeping in mind your activities. Each family member should have a part in planning. This makes for better understanding of what happens to clothing dollars and the family budget.

K-Farwell Man Lets Write-Up Farm Magazine

The dairy operation of Kenneth Grissom, Lubbock County, is described in the October issue of Progressive Farmer magazine.

The article, "Cows, College, and Grissom," tells the importance of education in Grissom's life. He was brought up on a dairy farm near Friona. When he finished high school, he took one of his father's Jerseys to Texas Tech with him and found a home where he could keep a cow and exchange for room and board. Now he is successful Grade A dairyman.

Grissom's 160-acre farm operation near Shallowford is efficiency. He is especially proud of a refrigerated vacuum milk built at a cost of $3,300. Recently completed modern dairy on the farm is made of concrete block. It contains a tank milk room, large feed room, all milking parlor, and an all feed box. It is large to accommodate twice the 90 grade Holsteins.

Grissom keeps careful records and keeps a cow unless she can't keep a cow unless she can't receive all the ensilage on seed hulls they can eat. secret for his good dairy cleanliness. The barn is after each milking; all milking machines are chlorine water when not

Soil Bank Wheat Can Be Grazed

Of interest to farmers and stockmen of Parmer County is the recent relaxation of grazing restrictions for wheat which had been placed in the acreage reserve of the soil bank.

It will now be possible to graze this wheat up until December 31 without penalty. This has been permitted because of the return of Parmer County last week to a "drouth disaster" status.

Cotton Marketing Cards Now Ready

Cotton marketing cards are now ready for the 995 cotton growers of Parmer County, Prentice Mills, ASC office manager, announces this week.

The cards will be mailed on request of growers, or may be picked up at the office.

The seed, which is certified, will yield about 2,000 pounds per acre and will be threshed and turned over to dealers for cleaning, sacking, and consignment to sart growers in the southern and eastern part of the nation.

Sart is a popular forage crop in a number of states east of the Mississippi, and Wells says that the seed he sold last year went for $11 per hundred.

Boys Given Prizes At Sears Gilt Show

Four Parmer County 4-H Club boys were given prizes in judging of Sears gilts at Clays Corner last Saturday.

Winning first was Wayne Hill, who took a $7 prize. Second was Mike Nelson, $6; third, Tommy Tatum, $5; and Roy Donaldson was fourth and won $4.

Then on Monday, Hill took his Sears pig and gilt to the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo where he won second place and third place, respectively, with the two swine.

Hill netted $85 for his efforts at Amarillo.

Sears pigs are given Club boys by Sears-Roebuck Company which each year sponsors an essay writing contest. County Agent Joe Jones says any Club boy may enter.

Filing Regulations Eased For Farmers

Farmers are no longer required to file social security returns on a quarterly basis, according to H. O. Nichols, administrative officer of the Lubbock SS office.

During 1955 farmers were required to file a quarterly social security return with the district director of internal revenue. Due to a change in procedure, farmers now file one return in January covering all taxable wages paid to farm employees during the preceding calendar year.

A farmer must file a social security return during the year when he quits farming before the end of the year and has paid taxable wages during the year.

PROSPECTS SLIM

Prospects right now are slim for winter pastures, but says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, plans, seed and fertilizer should be ready if and when it rains. The need for winter forage is critical in most areas of the state and winter pastures, if conditions become favorable, can be used to cut wintering costs for livestock and up the output of meat and milk from the farm.

Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian, says gin trash and cotton burrs may be used as a maintenance ration for livestock with no danger from poison if insecticides had not been applied to the cotton plants for three or four weeks prior to harvest.

FACTORS AFFECTING FALLOUT distribution downwind from a nuclear blast are the size of the earth particles carrying the radioactivity, their altitude and the speed and direction of the wind. Generally, in the United States, the winds which would dominate the direction of fallout would be the strong, usually west-to-east winds at about 40,000 feet. For this reason, the Federal Civil Defense Administration warns that only weather experts, with their methods of tracking high-altitude winds, can predict with reasonable accuracy the area to be affected by fallout. Men with radiation monitoring instruments are also required to determine whether an area is "safe" from radio active fallout after a nuclear attack. (FCDA Photos)

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

October 1 will be one day too late for you to file for refund of two cents per gallon on farm used motor fuels. If you haven't already done so, do it at your first opportunity. Your wife can do it for you if you're too busy, and it only takes about five minutes. We'll be happy to assist you in the office if you wish.

This coming Monday night, September 24, is the date of the eighth Parmer County Farm Bureau convention. You are urged to attend and speak your piece on the solution to your problems as farmers. You will be courteously heard.

For the fourth time in a row, our Farm Bureau queen failed to win in the district contest in Lubbock. Judy Bruns, your county queen, made a good showing, and she will ride the Farm Bureau float Thursday in Friona.

Among other things, Bruce Parr and the Farm Bureau weed committee have submitted wheat samples to PGC in Amarillo for milling and baking tests. Two slices of bread, encased in plastic are in the office, if you are interested in the results of some of the tests. One slice is from a loaf made of Early Black Hull and the other is from Comanche wheat. It is not difficult to see the difference in quality in the two. The committee is releasing other information resulting from the tests that they believe will help wheat growers decide which is the best kind to grow for market.

Attending the Farm Bureau policy discussion meeting and the queen contest in Lubbock Thursday were Gilbert Kaltwasser, Harry Hamilton, Roy V. Miller, and Raymond Euler.

The government's Smith-Doxey cotton classing service is getting quite a going over by Farm Bureau leaders in Texas and other states, too. Farmers have shown that government classers classed their samples from $10 to $25 per bale lower than private buyers, in some cases. This makes it look like something should be done, and soon. Farm Bureau has had, and is having more meetings to investigate the cause, and a consequent remedy for such goings on.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

The annual field tour of the Parmer County SCD was held Thursday afternoon September 13, in which a number of district activities were observed. The tour gathered at Farwell and the tour began at 2 o'clock. The tour was attended by some 50 people. There were visitors from various surrounding communities among which were Hereford and Muleshoe.

The first stop was at Arthur Haseloff's farm where cotton fertilized with barnyard manure was observed. The second stop was on the John West farm at Oklahoma Lane where 10 hybrid grain sorghum varieties were observed under dry land conditions. On the Walter Kaltwasser farm, fertilized cotton vs. non-fertilized cotton was observed on a medium textured soil.

At the Cecil Winegeart farm, hybrid grain sorghum under irrigation was observed. The tour then traveled north toward Bovina where the Carl Rea farm was visited. On Rea's farm, grain sorghum following alfalfa was observed as was the use of bench leveled land used for tail water control. Ray Clark's farm was visited next where we saw four rows of cotton with two rows of soybeans inter-

Red Wright's farm was the next stop where the tour observed hybrid grain sorghum being grown for seed.

The last stop was at Rene Sneed's farm where various hybrid sorghums were observed. There was also a session of weed identification in which the farmers presented weeds for identification by Cecil Ayres, agronomist at Texas Tech. Ayres also discussed problems in the production of hybrid for seed.

There is to be an election of a supervisor for subdivision N. 3. The present supervisor for this subdivision is A. L. Black, who has been on the board for eight years. A. L. has done an excellent job in serving on the board. This election will be held in Friona in the American Legion Building on Tuesday, October 2. All land owners who live in the South Friona School District are invited to attend and select a supervisor for this subdivision.

The supervisors held their regular monthly meeting September 13 prior to the tour. Supervisors present were A. L. Black, chairman; Carl Schlenker and Matt Jesko. Supervisors not present were Joe Blair and Lloyd Prewett. During the meeting three conservation farm plans were approved. They were those of Matt Jesko, T. R. Smallwood, and Clarence Byrnes.

The election for subdivision three was discussed and plans were made to hold the election. The meeting adjourned at 2 o'clock.

Parmer Delegates To THDA Meeting

Three Parmer County home demonstration club members are making plans to attend the Texas Home Demonstration Association convention and the National Home Demonstration Council convention which will both convene in San Antonio next week.

Planning to leave Sunday from Amarillo for the week long activities are Mrs. Dick Rocky of Black, Mrs. Floyd Rector of Friona and Mrs. D. C. Looney of Bovina. Alternates are Mrs. Paul Hall, Mrs. L. C. Johnson and Mrs. D. L. Carmichael.

The national meeting will be held from the 23 to the 27th and the state convention will convene from the 27th to the 29th. Most of the delegates to the state convention plan to attend the national meeting and remain in the Alamo city for the state activities.

A tentative program set up for the National meet include vesper services on Sunday evening with Dr. Imogene Bentley, Dean of Women at North Texas State College, in charge.

On Monday all national officers will be presented and regional luncheons will be held. Committee workshops are to be held during the afternoon session. Monday night has been scheduled as "Texas Night" and the Texas delegation will be hostess for the group. A special program to be presented by "Texas ladies" concerns Texas under six flags.

Tuesday, Governor Allan Shivers will speak to the group and a report of the nominating committee will be heard. A panel of work for the year ahead will also be presented. Tuesday evening will be free for delegates. A tour of the city of San Antonio will be on the agenda of several visiting delegates.

Main speaker for Wednesday's program is Omar Burleson, representative from the 4th Congressional District. Climaxing the national meeting will be a banquet with Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby as main speaker.

The state association's program will consist of the election of new officers and the adoption of the program of work for the coming year.

No special programs have been planned as most of the state delegates will be on hand for the programs to be presented by the national group.

THE COST OF CRIME

J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI states: "We complain about high taxes, but last year crime cost every man, woman and child in the United States $122.00, or a staggering estimated total of twenty billions of dollars. Perhaps this figure could become more meaningful if we realized that for every $1.00 spent on education, crime cost $1.46; and for every $1.00 which went to the churches of the nation, $13.00 went to crime."

Mr. Hoover said this in a speech urging improvement in crime control—especially as it affects the parole system and the problem of the repeater. And the challenge of this, he added, "is a challenge to all of us."

Farwell Junior Team Defeats Friona, 14-0

Despite having three touchdowns called back because of penalties, Farwell's junior football team managed to defeat the Friona Braves 14-0 at Steer Stadium on Tuesday night.

Fumbles and penalties slowed the Farwell attack in their first conference game, but their defense tightened to keep the Braves scoreless.

Farwell's first count came in the early minutes of the first quarter when Carroll Huggins got loose and ran 70 yards for the TD. Tommy Williams ran the extra point.

Jerry Lovelace scored the final touchdown which was counted in the final period on an off tackle play originating on the 35 yard line.

A Lovelace touchdown was called back after he scored on a fake kick and run play. A 40 yard scamper to pay dirt by Huggins was also cancelled as was a six pointer made by Benjy Dial.

Farwell's next game will be Tuesday night, September 25, at Lazbuddie when they meet the Lazbuddie eleven for their second conference tilt.
