

TWO CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH

New 200,000 Bushel Elevator for Roberts

FROM THE HOPPER
By HOP

Here's a card from Nelson C. Smith, local rural route carrier, who is up in Grand Falls, Mich., attending the annual meeting of the National Rural Letter Carriers Association. From there he goes on a tour into Canada with a lot of other letter peddlers to make a study of the postal service in the Dominion. What are the requirements for a rural carrier? Sounds like these guys have a real snap. On second thought, however, I recall some of the experiences they have delivering the mail in the dead of winter over unimproved roads. Guess I'll stick with newspapering.

The ink had not gotten completely dry on last week's issue of this newspaper, in which this column called attention to the dangers of speeding automobiles across rural crossroads, when an accident of this very nature happened up near Summerfield, in which three persons barely missed being killed. Statistics of the Texas Highway Department reveal that a large percentage of automobile accidents are now occurring in the rural areas, along what are commonly called "country roads." Drivers seem to think that when they are out on these rural roads, out in the open spaces, there is no occasion to use caution. They get the feeling that they are driving the only car within miles of them. They zip across crossroads, which are blinded by growing crops, unaware of any danger whatever. Dashing across these road intersections, where vision is completely cut off, is far more dangerous than entering a cross-country highway from a crossroad. Let's keep that in mind when we drive in the country.

We turned down another nice piece of advertising this week from a customer that wanted to advertise liquor in this newspaper. We don't, and never have, accepted liquor advertising. Talking to a businessman in Clovis just this past Monday and he recalled that his business was better when Clovis was wet, and he longed for the return of liquor sales in that city. To my knowledge this man never indulges in liquor of any form, yet he would put it in front of every man, woman, boy, and girl in Clovis and surrounding territory just for the sake of a little additional revenue that might come through his store. Open saloons may increase business in some lines, but we take the position that when we seek to induce people to drink just for the sake of a little additional business we have paid too much for that additional business. Everybody to his own notion, but that's the way we feel about the question.

Our advice to the person who wants a mess of fish is to go to the market and make his purchase. You will find that it is far less expensive than going out and trying to catch them.

I understand that I have been the subject of some unfavorable comments for the part I played in causing the arrest of a drunken driver on the streets of Friona recently. One man protested, "She hadn't hurt anybody and it was none of your business". My answer to him was, "Do you want to wait until a half dozen people have been killed before you do anything?" I still believe I was right and my opinion is shared by lots of worth-while citizens of the county. As a citizen, under the laws of Texas, we are obligated to assist in preventing a felony whenever the occasion arises. So few of us do it. On the contrary, we seem to think these matters are for law enforcement officers to look after. What kind of a citizen would you be if you discovered a burglar entering a neighbor's house and went merrily on your way without taking some action to stop him—not even reporting it to officers? The question needs no answer; it answers itself. Please do not infer that I am holding up myself as a criterion; far from that. But I do say that if every man would lend the proper assistance to law officers there would be a marked decrease in criminal offenses.

Construction work got underway the first of the week on a new 200,000 grain elevator at Roberts Seed Company in Texico, which is scheduled to be completed for the handling of the feed crop this fall.

The new structure will be all-steel and will consist of five steel tanks and a head house. Each steel bin will be 36 feet in diameter, rising 70 feet above the ground. The elevator proper, housing the grain lifts, dumps, etc., to be topped off with the head house, will be 81 feet high.

The new plant will be located west of the large plant already occupied by the seed firm. Contract has been let to George M. Rogers Construction Co. of Ranger, Tex.

The contract calls for the completion of at least two of the storage tanks and the head house by Oct. 23, and the remainder of the plant by Nov. 1.

The addition will increase the storage capacity another 200,000 bushels, to give a total capacity of Roberts Seed Company's holding in Texico of 375,000. In addition to the bulk storage, a 200,000-bushel warehouse for sacked grain is located on the premises.

M. C. Roberts, owner and operator of the business, came into possession of the present site in 1938. At that time only a small grain elevator occupied the location. Since that time, he has expanded the business until it is one of the largest to be found in the Southwest. In addition to his Texico holdings, Roberts owns grain elevators in Clovis and Portales.

Postpone Action On Request For Moving County Agent's Office

Taking the position that a full attendance was not present, Parker County Commissioners' Court declined to act on a request made by Nelson Welch of Friona that the office of the County Agent be moved to Friona, when the court met here Monday.

Action was also deferred on a request that a county home demonstration agent be employed. Further consideration of both these requests will come up when commissioners meet Sept. 12, according to the minutes of Monday's meeting.

Commissioner W. S. Menefee of Lazbuddy was not present at Monday's meeting, and other members of the court felt that a full attendance should be on hand when these matters are acted upon.

September 12 at 2 p. m. was set as the date for public hearing and adoption of the county budget. A road petition, bearing the signatures of I. S. B. K. Greason and seven other signers was presented to the court, which was accepted, and the following were named as the jury of view: Fern Barnett, Giles Cobb, D. C. Allman, B. K. Greason, and Roy Coker.

Car Accident Sends Sundown Man To Jail

J. B. Thompson, who gave his address as Sundown, Tex., is serving a 30-day jail sentence in the Parker County jail as the aftermath of an automobile collision southeast of here Sunday night on Highway 70.

In addition to the jail sentence, Thompson was fined $75 and costs in county court, on a charge of driving while intoxicated. His wife, Beatrice Isabel Thompson, drew a fine in justice court on a charge of being drunk. Their drivers licenses were revoked for six months.

The Thompson car collided with an auto occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Irwin Stewart of Compton Calif. The California vehicle was badly damaged.

Investigating officers said Mrs. Thompson sustained painful but not serious injuries when thrown from the Thompson machine.

School Bells to Ring Soon

Texico School Starts Monday, September 5th

Registration for Texico school students will begin Friday, September 5, according to Agrie Jones, incoming superintendent for the school. Jones, when contacted Monday by a reporter, said various improvements were being carried out on the grounds, and the premises soon would be in shape for the coming term.

"I am still minus one teacher in the high school," the superintendent revealed, adding Mrs. R. K. Neal, grade teacher, had recently resigned her position in the grades and had been replaced by Mrs. C. B. Stockton. Jones said the vacancy in the high school probably would be in the Spanish-English department.

Asked what the school intended to offer for athletics, Jones replied that coach Stockton had hoped to offer football this year, but due to inadequate facilities and equipment, the sport would be postponed from the school curriculum for an indefinite period.

"Wrestling and boxing probably will be offered this year," said the superintendent. (Continued on last page)

90-Year-Old Man Sees After Five Years Of Blindness

Mr. J. T. Shockley, 90-year-old father of Mrs. Edgar Blain in Texico, who underwent eye surgery for the removal of a cataract from his eye, is reported as being able to see again, following five years of blindness.

Dr. Murphy, surgeon at St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, who performed the successful operation, stated that Mr. Shockley had "perfect eyes."

He was returned to the home of his daughter in Texico the past Thursday and is reported much improved.

Mason Farm Sale Is Booked For Aug. 30th

Hailed as "the biggest sale of the season," a public farm auction will be held as the Marvin C. Mason farm three miles east and two north of Muleshoe on the Plainview highway, Tuesday, August 30, starting at 10 a. m.

In addition to an extra-large collection of farm machinery, cattle, hogs, and household, a 60-acre irrigated farm will go under the hammer to settle an estate.

Two auctioneers and two clerks have been engaged to handle this large sale. Col. Dick Doshier of this city, and Col. W. D. Wanzor of Muleshoe, will cry the sale. Orval Francis and H. C. Elliott will act as clerks. Ladies of the Y-L community will serve lunch at noon.

See a complete list of the offerings in this issue of The Tribune.

Cars Damaged When Meet At Crossroads

Two automobiles suffered heavy damage last Sunday afternoon when the machines met at a crossroad four miles south of Summerfield.

Lee Abert Campbell of Friona was traveling north, and another car, driven by Miss Zelma Allman and accompanied by her sister, Phillis Allman, came in from the west to strike the Campbell car just back of center. Damage to the Campbell machine was estimated at $500, and the Allman car suffered an estimated $150 damage.

Highway Patrolmen who investigated the accident, said the vision of both drivers was obscured by high feed crops at the intersection. Neither of the drivers was blamed for the accident.

GOES TO SCS OFFICE

County Board Declines Action On School Deal

The County Board of Education meeting here the first of the week, declined to take any action on the school disagreement existing between Friona and Black districts.

"The Board just left the matter for them to work out," County Judge A. D. Smith reported.

According to information furnished The Tribune, all children in the Black district above the seventh grade have been transported to Friona with the Black district providing transportation.

The Friona district, it is understood, feels that Black should consolidate with Friona. But the Black district so far has declined to take this move, on the basis that it would increase taxes.

Just where students above the seventh grade would be sent this fall, should the Friona district refuse to accept them, remains a problem, since Black cannot qualify as an independent school.

CROSSING BEING REPAIRED

Being smoothed up somewhat by installation of new crossies is the five-track crossing between Texico and Farwell. The work, under supervision of Santa Fe Railways system, is expected to be completed this week.

Fire Loss At Bovina Amounts To $1500

One feed bin and a quantity of ground feed, property of the Triple-Pringle Cattle Co. of Bovina, were lost in a fire last Friday afternoon.

Bob Pringle, manager and operator of the large cattle feed lots, said today that the loss amounted to "around $1500," which was covered by insurance. Pringle gave it as his opinion the fire was caused by sparks from a piece of steel that had gone through the feed mill.

The town of Bovina is wholly without fire protection, and a call was sent to Texico and Friona for help. Both departments answered the call, and succeeded in putting out the conflagration before a great deal of damage resulted. In complimenting the fireboys, Pringle said, "We would have been wiped out again if they had not come to our aid."

During the winter of 1947, this same firm suffered a heavy fire loss.

MERCHANTS TO LAUNCH WEEKLY "TRADES DAY"

Texico-Farwell merchants have launched a move to conduct a weekly trades day, with the first event to come off Saturday, Sept. 3 at 4 p. m.

Merchants of the Twin Cities are putting up a cash premium list as an inducement to attract trade here, and each merchant of the town will be asked to contribute at the rate of $2 per week toward the "kitty."

Complete details, insofar as postal regulations will permit, will be published in The Tribune next week.

Directors Of Exhibitions Discuss Fair In Bovina

Five communities were represented at a meeting of directors of community exhibits for the coming Parker County fair at Bovina school Monday night. Represented were Black, Friona, Oklahoma Lane, Bovina, and Lakeview. Men appointed to represent the other three county communities, Farwell, Lazbuddy, and Rhea, were not present.

Last week fair directors appointed men to represent each community in order that all eight might have several exhibits at this year's fair. Those men met Monday night with County Agent Ollie Liner, who discussed with them exhibit possibilities, and methods for displaying them. Interest ran high.

Ten representatives were present, and included Bruce Parr, Joe S. Menefee, Clyde Sherriff, Roul Barron, T. G. Hudson, Henry Reynolds, Fred Barker, Harold Carpenter, A. J. Doshier, and Elton Wiley. Other members of the committees not present at the meeting were John Aldridge, Steve Struve, Jimmie McGuire, Joe Camp, Fred Barker, Jr., Russell O'Brian, D. B. Ivy, J. W. Gammon, Glen Dunn, Nelson Foster, Owen Patton, Charles Schlenker, Raymond Schueler, D. C. Allman.

Liner went through the complete list of possible exhibits for the committee, and explained how each should be displayed. Each member is responsible for exhibits from his community, and Liner stressed the importance of community citizens assisting these men.

"Look over the list of possible exhibits, and if you happen to grow a particular vegetable or grain you would like to have exhibited for your community, contact the community representative and he will advise you in preparing the exhibit."

Two small Negro children were burned to death at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon when flames completely destroyed the servant headquarters at the John Armstrong farm home two miles northeast of this city.

The body of Vera Alice Clark, 18-month-old baby girl, was taken from the smoldering ruins of the building after the fire had been brought under control by firemen. Carl Stephen Clark, 3-year-old boy trapped in the burning building, sustained burns that resulted in his death three hours after being removed to a Clovis hospital.

Both were children of Mrs. Beatrice Clark, who has been employed at the Armstrong home the past ten years.

Bodies of both children are at the Steed Funeral Home in Clovis, where funeral arrangements had not been completed at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The two small children were alone in the building at the time of the fire, which was not discovered by members of the Armstrong household until passerbys drove off Highway 60 and informed them. At that time the building was completely enveloped in flames.

Lawson Canipe, laundry truck driver of Clovis, fought his way into the burning building, crawling on his hands and knees, and succeeded in getting hold of the three-year-old boy and dragging him from the raging inferno. He was taken to a hospital by Buck Ellison and R. L. Douglas, who were passing along the highway that nears the Armstrong home.

The exact cause of the fire was not determined, although the three-year-old boy is said to have admitted he had been playing with matches.

The local fire department responded to the call, but the small building was a mass of flames when fireboys arrived. They said efforts to fight the fire were hampered by continuous explosion of an undetermined amount of ammunition in the quick and effective work, however, on the part of the fireboys, prevented the flames from spreading to a nearby garage and the Armstrong home.

Mrs. Armstrong said she and Mrs. Clark were in the kitchen at the time of the fire and had no knowledge of it until passerby along the highway informed them. Mrs. Florence Golliday, mother-in-law of Mrs. Armstrong, said she was in the garden a short distance to the east, and had no knowledge of the fire "until I heard the women screaming."

Work Starts On New Hardage Building

Work started last Friday on the new business building on main street that will house Hardage Hudson Company at its completion, in addition to furnishing a second-story living apartment for the Hardage family.

Walter Hardage, owner and operator of the business, said today the contract had been let to Mauldin Lumber Co. of Clovis, and the new building was expected to be ready for occupancy by Oct. 20. The automobile agency and the tire business of the firm will be moved into the new building as soon as it is completed.

Walls will be tile and a concrete floor will be laid on the ground floor of the structure.

Ft. Worth Man Fined For Drunken Driving

Albert Fulton Bishop, who gave his address as Ft. Worth, but is said to be employed in the onion harvest near Hereford, entered a plea of guilty in county court here Monday, and was given a fine of $75 and costs, and had his drivers' license revoked for six months.

Highway Patrolmen said they picked up Bishop east of Friona on Highway 60 after he had pulled his machine off the highway.

Health Note

Texas State Department of Health

AUSTIN — Correct posture in school children, and adults as well, is necessary to proper physical and mental health, says a warning from the Texas State Department of Health. "Good posture is a sign of self respect and plays an important part in winning the respect of others," said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Many of the ills of childhood and the deformities of adult life have their beginning in poor posture acquired during childhood," he said, "and it is particularly important that the child's posture conform to nature's dictates. Most children are born in good physical condition and yet examination of large groups of school children show a high percent to be suffering from poor posture.

Malnutrition and fatigue are productive of poor posture. These lessen the size of the chest and decrease lung capacity. Abdominal organs may also be pushed out of natural position, which may seriously interfere with their action. These conditions must be corrected before the body is able to attain normal weight and nutritional standards.

"School children who have a poor posture are said often to average lower in attendance and in school mental and physical activities than those who have good posture. A child may be forced to hold his body in an unnatural position by a desk that is too high or too low. Desks and work tables should be just high enough to allow the feet to rest on the floor and the forearms and hands to rest upon the tops without the shoulders being hunched up.

"Begin early in life to teach your children to stand straight and sit straight for health and self-confidence, and they should grow into strong, well-built men and women."

Neglected pastures and abandoned crop land overgrown with yankeeweed may need to be put back into cultivated crops for a time to control the weeds and re-establish the pasture.

Frosted Tweed

This chic combination of soft tweed and crisp linen was found guilty of traffic-stopping by Cosmopolitan's Male-Tested Fashions jury. The dress is part of the $150 wardrobe featured in the magazine's August issue. A Surrey Classic with leather belt and bone buttons all in a row, it sells separately for about $17. You can vary its effect with a silk ascot at the neck, white collar and cuffs are in the wash. Ezio Pinza, Peter Lawford and Montgomery Clift were the "all in favor" of this dress. Available in brown, green or black mixtures.

Humble Will Start New Pipe Line To Gulf Coast

HOUSTON—An $18 million pipe line from West Texas to the Gulf Coast will be started by Humble Pipe Line Co. toward the end of 1949 and completed around the middle of 1950. The new line will be of 18-inch pipe, extending 375 miles in a direct route from Kemper in Reagan County to Satsuma, 20 miles north of Houston, where it will connect with Humble's existing lines to Baytown.

Upon completion of the new line, Humble plans to take up a part of its old system from West Texas to Baytown by way of West Central Texas, which has a capacity of 50,000 barrels per day. No changes are contemplated in Humble's other line from West Texas with a capacity of 70,000 barrels per day to Corpus Christi.

The new line will have an initial capacity of 95,000 barrels per day with one intermediate station between Kemper and Satsuma. The capacity can be increased to 120,000 barrels per day by the addition of a second intermediate station.

The direct route to be followed by the new line from Kemper to Satsuma will pass through 16 counties. Kemper is a central point on Humble's extensive pipe line system serving West Texas and New Mexico.

Texas Model Builders Win

WINNERS in the annual model car competition of the Fisher Body Craftsmen's Guild are Jimmy Powers (left) of Lubbock, who took first state honors in the Junior Division (ages 12 through 15), and Bert Ray, of Austin, whose beautiful model car won first in the Senior Division (ages 16 through 19). Each received a cash award of $150, and both models went on to take regional honors and a chance to win a university scholarship in the national competition.

Prospects Look Good For A Big Harvest

COLLEGE STATION—Right now farmers of Texas and the nation have prospects for a big harvest. The overall production could be the second largest in history. For the nation, last year holds the record, but Texas farmers, in 1948, did not approach their record production for wheat, cotton and some feed crops.

The 1949 Texas wheat crop is the second largest, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist of Texas A. and M. College, and cotton production—per acre—could set a new record. There is an 18 per cent increase in cotton acreage over last year in the state.

The acreage of peanuts in Texas is down about 21 percent from 1948. The harvest is underway in South Texas and production for the state is likely to be above average, says Bates.

Texas corn and grain sorghum crops should be above average this year even with the decrease in acreage. Weather conditions have been favorable and the corn crop looks especially good.

Now, what does this all mean to Texas farm and ranch operators? Bates says it means that supplies of most farm products have accumulated to the point that reduction in acreages planted may be desirable. The era of surpluses has definitely returned.

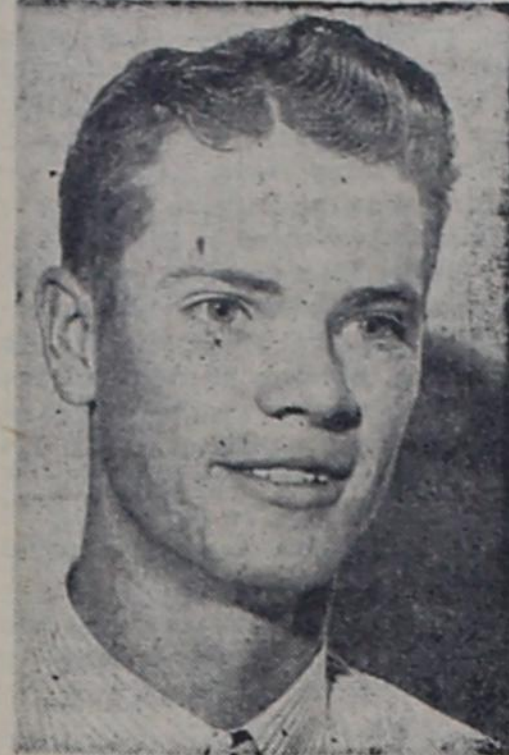

Any reduction of land devoted to cash crops offers an opportunity for a shift to the production of livestock and livestock products, he thinks. This adjustment of farming operations toward more livestock may prove profitable, and permit better conservation of land resources.

For the period just ahead, he says, the demand for meat, milk, and eggs should be stronger than for most crops. At present prices and those probable for the next few months, the efficient livestock and poultry producers should be able to make good profits.

Are You A Victim Of Gadgetitis?

COLLEGE STATION—Are you a victim of gadgetitis? Many folks are and you usually find much more of the storage space in their homes full of gadgets they seldom use. Many of the household gadgets now offered for sale are good, says Miss Gladys Darden, assistant extension specialist in home management of Texas A. & M. College, others are actually bad because so much energy is required to operate them.

Before purchasing these home appliances, it might be well to check them for the following points, says Miss Darden. It should be easy to operate, safe, save time and effort, and have the capacity to do the job for which it was built. How much space is required to store it and does its use warrant the storage used?

The cost of upkeep and the length of service are two items that should be checked carefully, says Miss Darden. The initial cost might be considerable but if the appliance will give good service for years, the yearly cost will remain low.

The most economical gadgets or appliances are those that can be used for doing more than one job, and their use can effect a saving in foods or lessen the labor required for keeping the home, says Miss Darden.

Magazine Story Recalls Visit With Royal Prince

Ed's note: A short time ago, an article appeared in Life magazine about an old royal family that still exists in Germany. Vividly portrayed within the walls of this old castle is the essence of old and fabulous Germany—a land of princes and prosperity. Now, the castle stands amid a chaos of government and people to remind visitors that once there was a great and magnificent country there, Luther Graham, young man from Oklahoma City who is visiting in the home of the editor this summer, was both surprised and pleased to find an article about the old castle in the magazine, because he had had the occasion to tour the palatial grounds when overseas with his father, an officer with the army of occupation. Here he tells a few of his impressions about the royal family and the palace:

Being a poor boy from Oklahoma, naturally I was overwhelmed to come in contact with a real live prince, tour a palace of 317 rooms, see priceless porcelain statues and chandeliers, and view gold plate employed as freely as we Americans put chrome on our automobiles. The magnitude and pricelessness of it all was enough to make one weak in the knees.

While my father was in the Army of Occupation during the war, my mother and I took the opportunity offered us by the government to go overseas and be with him until he returned to the States.

While he was stationed in Amberg, Bavaria, which is about 50 miles from Regensburg, the family went to Regensburg to see a famous Catholic church that we had heard a great deal about. The Red Cross was conducting tours through this old palace free of charge, so we decided to visit it, since there wasn't anything else to do.

After touring the palace my father asked to see the prince, and we were surprised that his request was granted. The word "prince" brings to mind a relation of youth, but when I first saw him it was a little disappointing, because he was eighty-one at that time.

However, this disappointment quickly vanished when my father and I were greeted with a warm handshake and well-spoken English. Being a prince didn't alter his attitude against the common man because he is exceedingly polite and one might even think him a trifle humble. In reality though, he is an educated and polished gentleman.

While there, we spoke of economic, political, and social conditions that existed at that time. He was very much concerned over the future of the German farmer and the inflation of German currency.

He also mentioned how impossible it was for him to obtain a good grade of coffee and cigars, so on our next visit we took him a supply of American caffeine and nicotine.

My father still carries on broken correspondence with the prince, and with every letter received he relates how Germany is gradually getting to its feet with the help of the U. S.

Government Will Help Farmers Drilling For Livestock Water Wells

The federal government, through loans by local ACA offices, will help farmers finance well drilling projects for watering livestock. This information was released early Monday morning by Joe Camp, secretary for the Parmer County ACA offices.

Camp, in releasing the news, told a reporter the government was prepared to pay farmers sinking wells $3 per foot for a six-inch well, the size customary for this section of the country.

The ACA secretary gave the following information concerning the government program for support of well drilling:

"Wells, other than artesian wells, with casings of six inches or more in diameter, and uncased wells with a bottom hole diameter of 6 and three-eighths inches or more will be supported $3 per linear foot. No payment will be made for any well dug or drilled within one-fourth mile of farm or ranch headquarters, for use of headquarters, within one-fourth mile of any feed pen or dairy barn, or where the county committee determines that the area served by the development is overgrazed.

In regard to the well specifications, Camp said, "For payment purposes, wells that are not cased to the formation producing the water will be considered uncased wells. Wells will be approved only for better distribution of grazing on noncrop pasture and range land.

"Wells must be cased sufficiently to prevent caving. The farmer is required to erect or install a windmill or power pump, together with adequate pumping equipment and storage tanks. A dry hole will not qualify. An inadequate well may be deepened at the rate and under the specification for drilling a new well."

Camp said he hoped Parmer County farmers would take advantage of this government aid because such help would make for better cattle distribution over the grass of the county.

Farmers desiring more information regarding the project should stop in at the county offices in Farwell, where they will be further informed by the ACA representatives.

Many Loans This Year

"For the year of 1949, through July, 879 warehouse wheat loans were disbursed by the Parmer ACA for a total of $2,796,538," revealed Joe Camp, secretary of the local office. For this loan, a total of 1,490,274 bushels of wheat was transacted for the government. Wheat loans applied for by Parmer farmers totaled 975, and 897 of these were accepted.

Also, said the secretary, forty barley loans were granted over the same period of time for a total of $22,221 on 24,203 bushels of grain. Forty-two loans were applied for by farmers.

July was the "rush month" for the loans, said Camp.

Winburn Hardage, Lee Mason, and Lacey Hardage returned home Saturday from Elephant Butte Lake, where they succeeded in landing a couple of nice catfish. One of them weighed 52 pounds and the other was just a little 22-pounder.

Farwell Exes' Banquet Coming Up Sunday, 28

It's banquet time again at Farwell schools. The season opener will be a big affair for ex-students and ex-teachers of the Oklahoma Lane, West Camp, and Farwell rosters.

This will be the second such banquet, and the school intends to make it an annual affair, under auspices of the junior class. Bettie Foster, junior class president, informed the banquet would be in the Farwell cafeteria Sunday, August 28 at 1:30 p. m.

The class president reminded exes last week that over a hundred and fifty guests were present at the banquet last year, and said this would be an ideal time to renew acquaintances and meet old classmates and teachers.

Tickets are $1.50 each, and may be obtained from any member of the junior class. Miss Foster said attendance was not limited to exes alone, and they may bring friends, provided a ticket is purchased for each.

In order that those who live at a distance from Farwell and wish to attend the banquet may come, the president said a card or letter written to the class would reserve a seat for them, payment being made at the door.

Carlene Guess Is Bride Of Billy James Moore

In an impressive double-ring ceremony performed at the Calvary Baptist church in Clovis, Sunday, August 14th, Miss Carlene Guess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Guess, of Clovis became the bride of Billy James Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Williams former residents of Farwell and now of Clovis.

The vows were read by the Rev. Virgil Hunton, pastor of the church, before an altar which was draped with white crushed velvet on which rested an open Bible, a lighted white cathedral taper, and a single rose in a crystal holder. Palms formed the background white gladioli and asters arranged in tall white floor vases completed the setting.

Casting a soft glow over the wedding party were the lighted white cathedral tapers in seven branched floor candlebra placed on either side of the altar.

Mrs. R. W. Meadors played a selection of nuptial music as the bride entered attired in a navy blue suit with peach and gray accessories. She carried a white Bible on which rested a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses with cascades of stephanos and satin ribbon streamers tied at the ends in lovers' knots.

During the ceremony Mrs. Virgil Hunton, Jr., sang, "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "Oh, Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Meadors at the piano.

Attending the bride as matron-of-honor was her sister, Mrs. Waymon Mitchell, who was dressed in beige crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of copper brown gladiolis.

Waymon Mitchell served as best man, with John Dowdy and Barry Lovett acting as ushers. The ring bearer was little Miss Carolyn Dowdy, dressed in pink taffeta.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose a navy blue crepe dress with a corsage of white gardenias, and the groom's mother was attired in a green taffeta with white, and a gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the high school library. The serving table was beautifully draped with a lace covering with crystal and silver making the arrangement complete surrounding a lovely two-tiered wedding cake which rested in the center of the table.

Punch and cake were served to approximately one hundred relatives and friends by Mrs. Johnny Dowdy, Mrs. Henry Minter, and Mrs. Dorothy Bell, while Hawaiian music was furnished in the background by Mr. and Mrs. Troy Waltrip.

Instant Cake Mix Makes Downy-Textured and Delicious Layers For Fruit Shortcakes

Don't feel put upon when the family urges another, and still another, fruit shortcake for dessert. With summer fruits now at their delicious best, and with a downy-textured cake so easy to make with a box of instant white cake mix, it's a real pleasure to grant their request.

A one-pound package of instant cake mix contains enough for a 9x9x2-inch square. Split this layer crosswise and pile the fruit and whipped cream between and on top of the two layers thus formed. If you want a round shortcake, bake the mix in two generous eight-inch layers. One is adequate for the shortcake. Cut the other in half and put it together with frosting for a layer cake to serve next day. Or else bake only half the package of mix.

The white cake mix is made with finely-sifted cake flour that assures a light and delicious cake. Only milk is added to make the white cake. Recipes on the box tell how to make a yellow cake, cookies and other favorites with the same mix.

When making a shortcake, sweeten the fruit before putting it on the cake. If you use quick-frozen peaches or strawberries, both especially delicious for shortcakes, you'll find they were sweetened before quick-freezing sealed in their summer goodness.

There is a difference in taste about sweetening the whipped cream. Don't overdo it, anyway. Sweeten it lightly, if at all, with confectioner's sugar.

chison says this can be done by spreading them on the ground in a cool shady place, covering them with straw, damp sand, sawdust or old rags. Keep them moist for several days until sprouting begins, then plant immediately but not in dry soil. If necessary, irrigate a day or two before planting.

The rows should be three feet apart. Drop the seed potatoes about 14 inches apart and cover three to four inches deep as soon as possible. Exposure to heat and light increases the chances for decay and a poor stand, says Hutchison.

After the potatoes are up to a stand, they should be worked every few days. If the plants wilt during the day, it is an indication they need water and should be irrigated. Toward the end of the growing period when the potatoes begin to form, it is important that the soil be kept moist.

Fall grown potatoes keep well in storage—don't let them freeze. Cellars and sweet potato curing houses can be used for storage. The cotton seed house on the farm is a good storage place. Scoop out a hole in the seed large enough to accommodate several bushels of potatoes, then pile the seed back over them. They will keep well and will be free from dirt.

Start Pen-Feeding That Calf Now For The Locker This Fall

COLLEGE STATION—Now is the time to start getting that milk pen calf ready for the locker plan this fall, says Roy W. Snyder, extension meats specialist of Texas A. and M. College. You want tender, juicy and tasteful beef in your locker box and you can have it if the calf you butcher is fat.

Snyder adds that a thin animal with no external fat usually produces meat that is dry, tough and stringy but a fat calf furnishes the kind of meat that we all like to eat. There is fat mixed with the lean muscles and that is what makes a juicy steak or roast.

Snyder says, he likes a calf that will weigh about 500 pounds on foot and is fat. It will dress out about 270 doesn't include the heart, tongue and liver. It is easy, he says, to cut to fit any size family. The roasts can be cut either large or small and you can't do this with a thin small calf. The shortribs from this kind of calf are also very good. You'll find them juicy and tasty because of that mixture of lean and fat.

A beef type animal is desirable but a milk pen calf makes a good substitute and they are available on most farms, says Snyder. So long as the calf gets milk and good grazing, it will do well but when the grass begins to dry up, supplemental feeding is necessary. This is the feed that will make the good beef. The grain ration should be increased as the calf gets older and if grazing is not available, it is advisable says Snyder, to feed hay or other roughage with the grain.

It's Time To Start Your Fall Garden

COLLEGE STATION—It is time to begin the fall garden. Recent rains over most of the state should make it possible to get the garden off to a good start, and you'll want to include in the early plantings, Irish potatoes. Before beginning the plowing job, clean off all weeds and grass for if turned under at this season, they'll heat and cause the soil to dry, says John E. Hutchison, associate extension horticulturist of Texas A. and M. College.

If well dried barnyard manure is available, spread it over the garden and plow it under five to six inches deep. It adds plant food and increases the water holding capacity of the soil. Three to five pounds of 5-10-5 fertilizer per 100 feet of row space will also help increase the yield.

Home gardeners may select seed potatoes from the spring crop, says Hutchison. Small potatoes may be planted whole. Larger potatoes should be cut into pieces about half the size of hen eggs. He recommends the Bliss Triumph. The Bliss Triumph (red) reaches maturity in about 70 days. Five to six pounds of seed potatoes will plant 100 feet or row.

Seed potatoes from the spring crop must have a rest period of six weeks from time of harvest to planting time. It is often a good idea to sprout the potatoes before planting and Hut-

Public Invited To Attend Open House New 'Phone System

In response to widespread interest shown by the people of Clovis in the operation of the dial telephone system, the Telephone Company will hold an Open House to which the general public is invited.

Council session in Chicago will march onto Mesa Mecca from the Canyon rim and will execute various drill maneuvers. One of these drills will see more than 100 members of the gaily dressed Uniformed Bodies forming a colored crescent scimitar and emblem of the order.

One thousand red-fezzed Shriners will be needed to help form the colorful background for the initiation of the novices into the order. The initiation will be viewed from the rim of the Canyon. There will be no second sections. Visitors may sit or stand at thousands of vantage points along the rim of the Canyon. These places have been cleared for the occasion.

This is expected to be a field day for movie, color camera and camera fans and special consideration will be shown them. The public is invited to the Park.

L. L. Gracey, Clovis Manager, announced that on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights or August 24, 25, and 26 the new building will be open to visitors, and Clovis telephone employees will conduct groups through the building in guided tours. Visitors will follow telephone wires, which enter the building in cables, through distribution frames where they are fanned out to connect with the dial equipment located on the first floor. Operation of the dial switches, which now handle a daily average of 28,000 Clovis telephone calls, will be demonstrated to the public, with other complex equipment which goes into the making of modern telephone service.

People attending the open house also will be shown the new long distance switchboard on the second floor, manned by operators busy handling out-of-town calls. Plan installation men and cable splicers will demonstrate some of the techniques of telephone work, including splicing of wires in cables which contain as many as 1200 pairs of small gauge wires.

Coaxial cable, similar to that buried underground across the southern part of the United States, including New Mexico, also will be shown. This remarkable development of the Bell Telephone laboratories will transmit up to 600 conversations simultaneously on a single pair of wires.

People are urged to visit the open house on Wednesday or Thursday nights when possible, as the last night of a program of this kind is usually the busiest and crowds generally are larger.

Guard Your Roses Against Mildew and Black Spots

COLLEGE STATION—The damp rainy weather that has existed over much of the state during the past weeks is causing rose gardeners much concern. The reason, says Miss Sadie Hatfield, extension specialist in landscape gardening of Texas A. and M. College, is, this is just the kind of weather that favors the spread of mildew and black spots.

The leaves on rose plants infected with mildew have a grayish white appearance as if flour ashes had been dusted on them. They curl up and slowly die. Buds often fail to open and if they do, the blossoms are misshapen. Some roses have a naturally strong resistance to mildew, says Miss Hatfield, while others are so susceptible, they should be grown only in full sunlight. Shade and water sprinkled on the leaves encourage attack in years of normal rainfall.

Black spots is easily recognized by the spotted leaves. The tiny black spots grow and spread until the leaf turns yellow and falls off. Stems die back until the entire plant may be killed. Few blooms can be expected from plants infected with black spot.

Both diseases can be controlled, says Miss Hatfield, by using copper sulphur dust, cotton dusting sulphur, phygon dust or bordeaux spray. A light dusting or spraying will give control; however, the applications must be repeated after each shower or after several mornings of heavy dew, she says.

A vendetta is a feud.

Portales Cops Top Honors As Texico-Farwell Loses Final Tilt

Winner of the race for top place in the West Texas-New Mexico Amateur League is Arnold's of Portales, through information received here by Wilfred Quickel, manager of the Texico-Farwell Bluesox.

The Bluesox, in their last game Sunday afternoon at the Farwell field, were defeated by Elida by a score of 13-7, and tied cellar honors with Lazbuddy No. 2.

The Sox got off to a poor start by allowing the opponents to score six runs in the first frame. Manager Quickel recalled the local team had lost nine games during the season due to their late starts. The score was 8-0 in favor of Elida in the seventh inning before the Bluesox scored. They got two that inning.

They tallied another hopeful five in the eighth, but were retired in the last frame before scoring again. Elida scored an additional two in the eighth and a final duo in the ninth to win 13-7.

Smith pitched for the Bluehose; J. Lathrup hurled for the visitors.

Manager Quickel, in closing out the season, said he could see an improvement in the local team as the players gained experience. The school hot-lunch cafeteria has been completely renovated and will be expected to open with the school. Facilities will be available to serve "about seventy-five" students at one time. Jones said about one hundred were served daily last year, and expected a considerable increase this fall. Mrs. Gladys Johnson will again be in charge of the hot-lunch room.

Asked if he would be able to reveal a complete faculty list and their positions, Jones replied this could not be done because some of the teachers might be shifted in the meantime. "We try to avoid confusion by securing teachers on an assignment basis, and therefore they may be dispersed where needed," the superintendent explained.

of Wilson, Okla.), sixth grade; Wilma Snider, fifth grade; Mrs. R. D. Hensley, fourth grade; Mrs. C. E. Sanders, third grade; Mrs. Lenton Pool, second grade; Mrs. Harry Whitely, first grade; Mrs. Erma Jobs, music.

Enrollment for students, both high school and grades, will begin Friday, September 2, at 9 a. m. Buses will run their regular rural routes. Superintendent Williams said registration should be completed by 12:30 and children will be dismissed for the remainder of the day, buses again running.

Williams said the lunchroom would not be open until Monday, September 5, which will mark the beginning of classes for the term.

The school head said lunchroom personnel for 1949 would number five women cooks, and would include Mrs. Travis Brown, supervisor and head cook, and Mrs. Willie Hardage, Mrs. Hazel Petree, Mrs. J. J. Terry and Mrs. McDorman, helpers.

Transportation department personnel number seven, and include R. D. Hensley, bus foreman and driver and Bro. J. J. Terry, S. S. Jobs, Bobby Dollar, Ray Magness, Duane Curtis, and Mr. Kittrell, drivers.

School custodian for the coming year will be R. S. Tucker. Jerry Pool will assist with duties.

First general assembly for the school will be Friday morning September 9, at 9:15. Williams said the public was invited to attend.

Footballers Now Active

At present the only formal activity for the school is spring training for prospective griders of the Farwell Steer eleven. They are in their second week of practice, and are being coached under Louis Purvis. Shelby Jobs, grade school principal, also hopes to begin football practice soon with the junior boys, who include seventh through the ninth grades. Jobs said he hoped to begin soon, as a large number of prospects for a junior football team were available.

Flour Mill Official Warns Against Soft Red Winter Wheats

Frederic T. Dines, agricultural agent for Tex-O-Kan Flour Mills of Amarillo, warned County Agent Ollie Liner last week that some Farmer farmers were planting soft red winter wheat varieties unsuitable to this section of the county.

The official, encouraging Liner to inform wheat growers, said a sample of Canadian Five Point sent him by the county agent, was actually determined to be Jones Winter Five.

Dines said, "I am sure that you (Liner) will agree with us that a soft red winter wheat variety such as this would not be expected to do well in our Panhandle area year in and year out, as it requires a climate such as the soft red winter wheat belt in the eastern United States has."

"I would encourage you to call these facts to the attention of any anticipated growers of this variety, as I believe it is to their interest as much as to the interest of wheat farmers and processors of the Panhandle to not grow a type such as this on commercial acreage."

It won't be long before the old narrow roads, where two cars can barely pass without colliding, will be replaced by splendid highways on which six or eight cars can collide at the same time.

Junior High Football Squad Now Organized

The young 'uns will get their chance to tote the pigskin and hear the leather pop this year, if things go ahead on schedule, according to Shelby Jobs, gradeschool principal, who will coach the lads.

Jobs, in making his announcement early this week, said interest had been running high for such a team ever since late last year when a practice game was held between twenty-eight aspiring junior footballers.

By making boys eligible for playing to include the seventh through the ninth grades, the mentor hoped to have sufficient material on hand to shape a winning eleven.

"Some of those boys looked pretty good last year," said Jobs. "Besides, practical experience is the best thing they can have at this stage of development, and they'll get it with a junior team."

The team plans to have a full 8-game season. They have contacted a similar number of schools, those including Friona, Muleshoe, Portales, Clovis, Olton, Dimmitt, Littlefield, and Sudan. The coach said he could not expect to have games with all these schools, but it was hoped that a number of contests could be arranged from this selection of opponents.

Here is the junior high roster, as released by Coach Jobs, that contains names and positions hoped to play.

Ronny Dial, b.; Frank Gulley, f.; Leonard Rundell, g.; Vane Doshier, t.; Junior Poteet, b.; Jerry Bradshaw, b.; Dennis Roney, b.; Troy Christian, b.; Gene Hardage, b.; Don Gerles, b.; Teddy Magness, b.; Phillip Cassidy, g.; Pudge Rose, ct.; Bull Dollar, t.; Dwain Herrington, t.; Billy Medley, e.; Jerry Poteet, e.; Darrel Hicks, b.; Jimmie Bateman, e.; Don Pool, b.; Bobby Foster, g.; Don Utsman, t.; Lavar Jones, g.; Max Magness, e.; Truitt Hardage, e.; Deon Branscum, t.; James Roberts, g.; Dale Bergren, g.

Season Tickets Now Available For 1949

Season tickets for nine home football games will be available this week, said Superintendent of Farwell schools, Jack Williams, early this week.

Williams, in making the announcement, said the tickets would be offered for $6 each, and would entitle the bearer to see five Steer games, and four junior high Yearling games. With the purchase of two tickets per family, added the superintendent, the entire group would be admitted to all home games for the 1949 season.

Tickets will be available through the athletic department of the school.

Johnston Is Named Assistant Professor

LUBBOCK—Paul S. Johnston, a man who has worked at everything from roustabouting, pumping, roughnecking, tool pushing and drilling in the oil business to captain in the Army, has been named assistant professor of petroleum reservoir engineering at Texas Technological college.

Johnston, age 29, graduated from Oklahoma Military Academy High school and Junior college, at which time he received a reserve officer's commission in the army. Interspersed with his schooling were several summers of work in the oil fields.

Following this, Johnston entered the military service, and upon his discharge was employed in Hobbs, N. M., as a tool pusher.

In January 1948, he received his BA degree in petroleum engineering at the University of Oklahoma and started work immediately toward his Master's in that field. During this time he served as graduate assistant and special instructor in petroleum engineering.

Johnston was the first president of Pi Epsilon Tau, national petroleum engineering fraternity, at the University of Oklahoma, and holds membership in AIMME, Tau Omega, national honorary aeronautical fraternity, and Sigma Xi, national honorary research society.

He is married and has one child, age 6. They will move to Lubbock August 15, and he will assume his new duties at Texas Tech, September 1.

Agent Says Chisling Needed On Farm Land

Speaking of an observation he made last week, County Agent Ollie Liner said today that it was his conviction that many of the farms in Farmer County need a deep chisling job to loosen up the hard-packed underneath soil.

Liner told of inspecting a cotton field where the leaves on the lower part of the stalks were turning yellow and falling off. "It had me stumped for a while," Liner admitted explaining that there was ample moisture on top of the ground and topsoil showed appearance of having an abundance of moisture.

Liner said that he studied the field for some time then decided to resort to a probing rod. Shoving the rod into the soil, he discovered about 14 inches underneath the surface the rod struck a hard pan that "nearly as firm as concrete." Underneath this hard pan, however, he said there was plenty of moisture, but the roots of the cotton could not penetrate through this layer of hard pan.

It is the agent's belief that repeated rounds over the fields with heavy tractors have packed the underneath surface, and the only way to loosen it up will be by means of deep chisling.

When the roots sink into the soil for moisture and contact this hard pan, then the entire root system turns back up toward the surface," Liner explained. He added that this condition is not only to be found in cotton fields, but in feed crops as well, and he suggested that deep chisling be carried out extensively on fields where crops are dying for the apparent lack of moisture where there seems to be plenty of moisture on top of the ground.

"You may be surprised how little moisture is underneath the surface once you shove a wagon rod down into the ground," he added.

New Advisory Council Formed For Ag Work

A vocational agriculture advisory council is the newest organization connected with Farwell schools, and is designed to assist and counsel the agriculture department in its outside-the-school work.

The board, in its first meeting at the ag department Monday night, elected C. M. Henderson president. Other officers include Alec Bateman, vice-president; and Lenton Pool, secretary-treasurer. Members are Lester Norton, Dick Gerles, Austin Jones, and Frank Phillips.

Henderson, when contacted Tuesday morning, said the organization did little formal work Monday night, other than organization, but the group made some plans and suggestions in regard to 22 acres now owned by the school ag department.

He said the board recommended the department to continue cultivation on the plot of land, since it was now giving the ag boys a fair return. The president revealed that plans were in the future for a concentrated development of the land.

The board meets once a month, every third Monday, at the ag department building of the school.
