

STEERS WILL PLAY SUNDOWN, FRIDAY IN SECOND NON-CONFERENCE TILT

FROM THE HOPPER

By HOP

It has been a common expression for many years that you can take a man out of the country, but you can't take the country out of the man.

We thought of this saying a few days ago when we drove by the new and lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ford. After many years on the farm, the Fords moved to town only a few months ago, but they still love to till the soil.

Both of them were out tending their small garden on their limited space and gathering the fruits of their labors.

When you might be inclined to complain about what the newspaperman has to charge you for his products such as advertising, job work, and subscriptions, you need to become acquainted with the expense account involved in operating a newspaper.

This was brought to our minds only this week when we were forced to dig up $147.50 for the services of a specialized mechanic for less than two days work.

Printing machinery, paper and salaries used in getting out a newspaper are in the higher brackets and the newspaperman must have a good margin on his products if he is to remain in business.

Some weeks ago, we cautioned against the practice of filling up the bar ditches along the street in order to provide driveways to garages and places of business. That comment we made drew fire when we had no intention of singling out any individual.

Now city officials are being made the object of criticism for allowing such practice along our streets.

Let's be reasonable and tolerant about this situation. Take a little time out and make a survey of the obstructions you might have innocently placed in the bar ditches. Your neighbor doesn't appreciate having water backed up in front of his home, and some of them are complaining bitterly to the council members.

Bar ditches are a necessity for proper drainage and when we clog them up we are defeating the purpose for which they were constructed. Much of the water along Third Street now flows down and over the pavement because of these bar ditch obstructions.

A hard freeze this winter with the pavement thoroughly soaked would certainly result in heavy damage to the pavement.

Aggie Jones, caught emerging from a Clovis barber shop, was in a rather unhappy mood after being charged $1 for a haircut, plus two cents sales tax. Since the two cents goes to help maintain the schools, Jones couldn't complain much, he being a school prof himself, but he said he would never get over being charged a dollar for the few wisps of hair the barber removed.

"If they keep me another four years, they can keep me from then on," Lewis Meeks observed in discussing his call back to active service with the Army.

BUFFALOES RALLY IN LAST MINUTE TO TIE FARWELL STEERS, 12-12

Concluding a hard drive in the final quarter that saw the use of both long passes and line plunges, the Melrose Buffaloes swarmed back to tie the Farwell Steers 12-12 at Melrose Friday night. Protoges of coaches Hestand and Livingston of Farwell and Thompson of Melrose fought an even contest, as each team scored in two separate quarters.

The breaks went bad for Melrose in the first quarter, especially with fumbles. They lost the pigskin to the Steers three times in that round, but Lady Luck smiled for the Buffs in second, when Skeen scrambled up a Steer fumble deep in Farwell's territory and raced across for the tying touchdown, 6-6.

Farwell's initial score came at the end of a sustained ground drive goalward. A pass, however, clinched the touchdown when Bob Gerles tossed to Dennis Rainey who stepped across after a dash down the sideline. He was accompanied with several nice downfield blocks.

Points-after-touchdown would have made the difference for either

The Farwell Steers play their second non-conference game of the 1950 football season on Friday night, in Sundown, when they are pitted opposite that high school squad.

Even though the Sundown squad was on the losing end in their match with the powerful Dimmitt aggregation last week, Coach Tommy Hestand predicts, "they'll be ready for us". Dimmitt won over Sundown 25 to 0.

According to reports, the Sundowners, along with the Steers, are mostly "greenhands" with a majority of newcomers on the team. The Steers, Hestand said, have only "three or four" experienced lettermen in the starting eleven—and that makes early games a bit awkward for both players, and fans.

The Steers played to a 12-12 tie at Melrose last week and since have been doing exhaustive work trying to iron out the wrinkles in defensive and offensive strategy. Night sessions have been added to get the squad in top-notch shape.

Farwell has not yet played a conference match, and will not until the night of September 29, when the locals invite the strong Dimmitt Bobcats into their home stronghold.

Coach Hestand states that he will probably use the same starting lineup as that employed in the Melrose contest last weekend.

Starting players will be Doshier, LE; Coburn, RE; Pipkin, LT; Dial, RT; Nix, RH; Magness, RG; J. Pool, Q; Jordan, F; Raney, LG; Gerles, LH; and Christian, C.

Farwell operates a double-wing formation, while Sundown is expected to run off the T and spread formations, passing off the spread.

The opponents have a "pretty good size team," Hestand said today, adding, "they are aggressive, rush hard and hit hard."

Lions Club Hears Plea For Scouting

The Texico-Farwell Lions club, meeting Tuesday night at the American Legion Hall, heard a plea by Scout Executive Oscar Cantrell for the Scouting program in the Twin Cities.

Observing that in his opinion, "Democracy was at the crossroads," Cantrell said he knew of no better way to instill democracy into the people than through the Scouting program.

Lion Jack Williams endorsed the Scouting program, and asked the cooperation of the Lions Club in supporting the program here.

Lion Otis Huggins presented the Club with a bronze plaque received from Lions International in recognition of first place winner in membership attainments in District 4 for the year 1949-50.

A caravan of Girl Scouts will visit Texico Friday afternoon of this week which will conclude with a meeting at the Town Hall, scheduled for 2:00 o'clock. Businessmen and civic leaders of the Twin Cities are urged to attend this gathering.

Lion John Getz announced that the Legion Auxiliary would conduct a survey of local opinion on the subject of universal military training on Friday afternoon.

Forty-three members and three guests enjoyed the dinner served by the Homemaking Class of the Farwell school.

Painter Breaks Arm In Fall From Roof

Floyd Steel, Clovis house painter who has been doing considerable elevator and warehouse painting for the Henderson Grain Co., fell off the roof of a warehouse Tuesday and received a broken arm.

Both bones in the left forearm were broken by the fall. He is reported to be doing satisfactorily at his home 1020 East Third in Clovis.

Thompson Cows To Indianapolis Show

Two beautiful shorthorn cows, Gypsy Mae and Roth Acres Rita Mildred, both shown in the Parmer County Fair by John S. and Maxine Thompson, will be among the stock representing the Texas shorthorns at the national showing in Indianapolis.

Gypsy, who is a two-year-old, last year was named as a member of the Texas herd, but when she was classed with cows older than she, finished out of the money. Incidentally, on Friday, in the third year in a row, she carried off the grand championship honors for her breed at the county show.

Rita Mildred is the older of the two animals, being listed as a four-year-old at Indianapolis.

Thompson plans to leave on September 30 for the national show, which opens Oct. 7 and closes on the 14th.

Seal Coat Topping Applied New Road

The final seal-coat topping, followed by a heavy layer of pea-size gravel has been applied Texico's new farm-to-market road that extends south on the state line for a distance of 7.2 miles, where it connects with a Bailey County farm-to-market road.

Presently, the new road comes to a dead end some three blocks of its goal in south Texico, but officials expressed the belief this week that the brief gap would soon be closed, allowing the new all-weather road to enter the business section of Texico.

Failure to reach right-of-way agreements with the Santa Fe Railway Company was given as the cause of the "dead end." At present, the road terminates some three blocks south of the Santa Fe tracks on South Garwood Ave., in Texico, commonly known as the Eason corner.

A stockpile of material to be used in closing the gap has been stored in Texico, and town officials expressed the belief that they would be able to work out an arrangement with either the New Mexico Highway Department or Curry County to finish paving the gap when the right-of-way matter is settled.

By connecting with the Bailey County route, the new road taps the West Camp Community, one of the best farming sections in this part of the country, where irrigation is carried on extensively, resulting in the production of abundant crops every year. This in addition to furnishing an all-weather road to the farmers of the old Locust Grove and Fairfield communities in New Mexico, will prove an important piece of road work to the farmers and the Twin Cities.

Six County Draftees Pass Physical Tests

Of the 40 selectees called by Local Board 18, embracing Parmer, Castro, Deaf Smith and Randall counties, for the month of September to take their physical examinations, six of the number passing were from Parmer County.

They were: Paul Conner Smith, Bovina; Edward H. Johnson, Bovina; J. D. Johnson, Friona; Truitt G. Harrelson, Friona; Don Martin Brockman, Muleshoe; David R. Smith, Friona.

Only one Parmer County selectee has been ordered to report for induction for the month of October and his induction has been postponed for personal reasons. He is John E. Bingham of Lariat.

ENLARGING BUILDING

Ralph Humble, local M-M dealer, is adding a 13-foot extension to the front of his implement building in Farwell. The addition will extend the building to the sidewalk frontage on Third Street.

THE EVIDENCE—David Watkins, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Watkins, proudly displays the evidence of a successful fishing trip he made while visiting his grandparents in New Jersey recently. This was David's first catch, and any old-time fisherman will testify that he is off to a good start.

Work To Start On City Sewer System

The Stockton Construction Co., of Amarillo, informed city officials today that the first work on Farwell's $40,000 sewer system would get underway this week with the arrival of a crew to begin on the disposal plant east of the city.

Materials to be used on the disposal plant have been arriving this week and the contractor informed Mayor C. M. Henderson that a crew, headed by a Mr. Dean, would arrive here Wednesday or Thursday.

Actual work on the system has been delayed pending the arrival of materials, but the Contractor Stockton informed city officials today that delivery on the vitrified clay pipe had been promised between now and Oct. 1st.

TIPTON CHILDREN BETTER

The two Tipton children who have been receiving treatment for polio at the Clinic in Plainview are greatly improved, it was announced by Mrs. Percy Tipton on Tuesday.

Kathlene, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Tipton, was returned to her home here on Sunday, after being under treatment for three weeks.

The other Tipton child, Fern, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Tipton, was reported to be doing well after two weeks at the Clinic and may be dismissed at the end of a three-week period.

Reserve Officers of County Being Called

Parmer County ex-servicemen who are on reserve lists are beginning to be called back to the various branches of service, it was learned here this week.

At least three are known who have received their calls for physical examinations during the past week, and there may be more. Alton Berry, a reserve corporal in the Marines, will report to Albuquerque on Sept. 29. Bass Elliott, Army 1st Lieutenant, took his physical in Amarillo, Monday. Lewis Meeks has already passed his Army physical and is expected to be called soon. He was discharged with M-Sgt. rating after four years.

TEXICO POLIO VICTIM SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

The condition of Preston Cain, Jr., 11-year-old son of Preston Cain of Texico, who was taken to the Plainview Clinic on Monday of last week, is not as serious as first reports indicated, the child's step-mother reported today.

Mrs. Cain said that the youngster definitely had polio and his spine is affected, but she added that his condition was not considered serious by doctors at the clinic.

She expressed the belief that he would be able to be returned home "in another couple of weeks".

Missing Any Chickens? The Sheriff Stole 'Em!

Mr. Farmer, better count your flock as they go to roost this evening. The Parmer County Sheriff has turned to chicken stealing.

Sheriff Chas. Lovelace must have gotten cold feet though, to judge from his actions. He came into The Tribune office and reported, "Say, if anyone has lost any chickens, have them come see me."

Then he confessed that he "picked them up" about five miles east of Farwell. "They were nearly starved to death," he claimed.

Sheriff Lovelace also asserts he questioned farmers nearby the scene of the crime, and said none of them would claim the carful of fowls.

The Sheriff confides that he still is looking for someone to claim them.

City Moves To Open Drainage Ditches

A joint meeting of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce and the City Commission, held Wednesday night resulted in a move being launched to open drainage ditches along the bar ditches that are obstructing proper drainage of water from the streets.

County Commissioner Earl Billingsley will be asked to use county road machinery to clear the bar ditches in the town.

In discussing the accumulation of water along the bar ditches, occasioned by driveway fill-ins, the city officials said there had "been considerable complaint", and it was deemed advisable to restore proper drainage by opening the ditches along the streets.

The joint meeting heard a recommendation of the safety council of the Farwell school that one block on Avenue F immediately in front of the school building, be closed to public traffic between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. as a safety measure.

Councilmen felt that such a drastic step would hardly be admissible since there are no by-pass streets opened up at present to care for the flow of the traffic. It was suggested that portable stop signs be used in front of the school property during school hours.

Meanwhile, the City Council began to open up additional streets near the school property in order to relieve the heavy flow of traffic along Avenue F in front of the school property.

Odus Huggins, local representative of the Southwestern Public Service Company, reported that since Farwell was now incorporated, his company would in the future look to the city for the payment of street lights operating within the city. For several years, the street lights have been maintained by volunteer assessments against individuals in the town.

Mayor C. M. Henderson said that the council would soon act to grant franchises to all public utility companies operating in the city, and would receive a small revenue from all monies collected in the city by the operating companies.

Parmer County Searns Gilts Win at Show

Top ranking pigs issued to Parmer County 4-H clubbers by Sears Foundation were among the winners in Amarillo at the Tri-State Fair competition this week, County Agent Joe W. Jones reported on his return.

Homer Brumley, swine judge at the Parmer fair, named the county representatives to Amarillo: Dwain Menefee, gilt; Jamie Tidenberg, boar; and Troy Christian, pen of three.

Around 18 counties were represented at the Sears showing, Jones said. Menefee's gilt won third prize of $40 in that division; Tidenberg's entry was fifth for a $30 award; and Christian's pen took second and $35.

Also attending the fair were H. L. Tidenberg and Joe S. Menefee. The group returned to Farwell Monday.

SHOWS HORSES

Leonard Smith and L. R. Vincent left early Sunday for Amarillo to enter five quarterhorses in the Tri-State Fair. They also plan to enter the horses in the Albuquerque show.

An estimated number of approximately 20 per cent more hogs and cattle were shown at the Parmer County Fair this year than were entered in 1949 and barns were overflowing even a year ago.

About 125 head of cattle, 96 hogs and over 100 pigs were crammed into the arena and tied outside, every possible bit of space was utilized.

Interest leaped this year with more entries in practically every division, especially Brown Swiss cattle and the Home Arts department. The show was also more county wide than ever before, the object of the fair is to make it even more so.

In the agriculture products department, Farwell won for the second straight year in community exhibits with 638 points. Jimmy McGuire, Alec Bateman and John Aldridge were members who prepared the entry.

Oklahoma Lane won second place with 643 points and Friona had 633 points. Other communities entering exhibits were Black, Lakeview, Rhea, Bovina, and Lazbuddy. All of these teams received fourth place ribbons.

Judges commented highly on the quality and also the quantity of livestock presented at the show. V. M. Peterman of Amherst, shorthorn judge, said it was difficult to make up his mind on winning cattle because they were all such superior quality.

Other judges were J. P. Smith, connected with Tech college at Pantex; Ed White, vocational agriculture teachers at Muleshoe; Ed Mackleroy, assistant county agent of Plainview; and Homer Brumley, swine judge. Smith judged cattle, with White and Mackleroy selecting winners in agriculture booths, and Brumley judging swine.

John S. Thompson, who entered several milking shorthorn cattle in the show said, "There is as good cattle in Parmer County as anywhere."

Thompson and his 11-year-old son, Darrell, competed for Grand Champion in milking shorthorn division. Thompson's "Gypsy Mae" won "Gypsy Mae" will be entered in the International Dairy Exposition Oct. 7-14, at Indianapolis, which is combined with the national milking shorthorn show. With seven dairy breeds represented, "Gypsy Mae" won third last year out of a class of 22 head; she was a year younger than any other cow in the class.

Thompson will be herdsman for Texas State Herd this year. Eleven head, picked from breeders all over the state to represent Texas, will be sent to the show. This is Thompson's third year of showing cattle, and last year was his first trip to national. He will also take "Roth Acres Rita Mildred", a 4-year-old cow.

This is the third consecutive year the Thompsons have taken grand champion rating with a shorthorn female at the county fair.

In the Brown Swiss department, "Hazel Mars' Charlotta" was the mother of "Martina's Charlotta" who competed against her for Grand Champion Female in the Brown Swiss department. "Hazel Mars' Charlotta" won. Twin calves of "Hazel Mars' Charlotta" won the Produce of Dam division.

Other Grand Champions included the Jersey bull, "Willony Sparkle Dragon's" better known as "Elmer Bull" owned by Friona FFA. "Elmer Bull" won out over "Volunteer," grand champion for the past three years.

Sterling Donaldson took grand champion female honors in the Jersey department. "Rothacres Victor Pride 3rd" owned by Eugene Bogge took the grand champion bull title in the milking shorthorn class, "Meadow Lodge Keystone" belonging to C. S. Crow and sons, won the same title in the Guernsey class.

Grand champion female in the Guernsey class was "Meadow Lodge Koanan", also owned by C. S. Crow and sons.

Fulcher and Burnett exhibited the grand champion bull, "Canterfield's King Excellency" in the Brown Swiss department.

Elmer Langford exhibited both grand champions in the Hereford division, with Donna Plus B" winning in the female class and "O.J.R. Seth Domino 17" as grand champion bull. Bruce Parr exhibited the winning Angus.

Arnold Fangman and Troy Christian took grand champion honors in the swine division, exhibiting the champion boar and female, respectively.

Discussing the fair, J. T. Gee, assistant general superintendent, said the quality on hogs had definitely improved since last year, a change is not as noticeable in the cattle. Every division has increased in number, especially the Brown Swiss department.

HEALTH NOTES

AUSTIN—In addition to the general instructions for community sanitation which are important in preventing poliomyelitis, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer, today issued an urgent warning to every individual in Texas to practice strict personal hygiene to protect his own health and that of those around him.

"Of course, cleanliness and personal hygiene are taken for granted," Dr. Cox said, "but at this time with the incidence of poliomyelitis having reached a total of 1395 cases, I would like to re-emphasize some personal sanitary measures which may help in preventing the spread of this crippling and often fatal disease."

The officer stressed the importance of scrupulous cleanliness of the person. Frequent bathing and immaculately clean clothing are vitally necessary. Oral hygiene with thorough brushing of the teeth and the use of a mild antiseptic are recommended. The nasal passages should be kept clean and dental defects corrected immediately.

Sanitation and thorough cleanliness in the home are instinctive with the average housewife, but at times their importance to health must be re-emphasized. Home sanitation includes those taken-for-granted measures as washing the dishes in hot soapy water and rinsing them in hot clear water; keeping sinks, bathtubs, and fixtures scoured clean and rinsed with a mild antiseptic solution; sunning and airing bed clothes; ridding the home of flies, rats, and roaches which, since poliomyelitis is believed to be a filth-borne disease, are suspected as being responsible for transmission.

"If good personal hygiene is combined with good community sanitation and hygiene, it is hard for any disease to get a foothold," Dr. Cox said. "With such a dread disease as poliomyelitis prevalent in the state, no precaution should be overlooked and no bars should be left down for its entrance."

Rheumatic Fever Symptoms Should Be Recognized

While the specific cause of rheumatic fever has not been discovered, several factors associated with it and its onset and recurrence are now generally recognized, said Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Rheumatic fever is serious because it may effect the heart. Age is important. Rheumatic fever usually begins in childhood at about five or six, although adults may have it. There is a susceptibility to the disease which causes rheumatic fever to be more common in some families than in others. The other factors which may favor its onset, combined with an individual's susceptibility, are frequent chilling, damp or over crowded living quarters and a poor diet.

The early signs and symptoms may be slight. Some of them, which may occur singly or in combination are: failure to gain weight, poor appetite, pallor, repeated nosebleeds, low persistent fever, and frequent complaints of pain in the arms, legs and abdomen. These symptoms do not necessarily mean that a child has rheumatic fever, but they do indicate that he is below par and should be examined by a physician and his advice followed.

The more characteristic signs include painful, inflamed joints. The child may be irritable without good reason, cry easily, or develop nervous habits.

It is vitally important to spare the heart unnecessary work for as long as the disease is active and for a period of convalescence afterwards. A child with rheumatic fever should remain in bed until, in the physician's opinion, it is safe for him to get up. Some children recover from rheumatic fever without developing heart trouble, or the damage to the heart may be so slight that the child can live a normal life. In other cases, the child recovers from the acute attack but is left with an impaired heart.

Home Accidents Are Often Caused By Carelessness

COLLEGE STATION—More farm accidents occur in the home than in any other single place on the farm and about the most dangerous room in the house is the kitchen. There are many reasons why accidents happen in the kitchen, says Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension home management specialist of Texas A. & M. College, but few outrank carelessness and household disorder.

Poor connections on the gas stove; overheating or using kerosene in coal or wood ranges; gas escaping when a boiling pot has extinguished a flame, pots and pans containing hot food or water upset by children, using worn-out equipment, especially electrical appliances, matches not placed out of the children's reach and accidents that often happen to the homemaker while frying foods in deep fat—these are common causes of kitchen accidents.

The stairs and steps both inside and outside the home seem to have been made especially for creating accidents by falling since so many home accidents happen there. It is dangerous under any circumstances to walk on stairs with both arms loaded and it is doubly so when the stairs or steps are cluttered. Stairway treads should all be the same width and risers the same height, says Mrs. Claytor, and the treads should not be polished.

The stairway is no place to store the broom, mop nor the children's toys. Scatter rugs should never be placed at the bottom nor the top landings of the stairway. Loose or frayed runners are extremely dangerous. Cellar steps are usually poorly lighted and also catch more of the items that are just temporarily set there until they can be moved into the cellar. These are the items that cause many of the serious home accidents. They are not moved until someone gets hurt.

Yearlings Run Wild, Smear Sudan 18-0

While varsity coaches scratched their heads over Sudan's surprising 0-0 tie with Littlefield last week, the Farwell Junior High Yearlings didn't worry about pre-game dope as they wrapped up the Sudan juniors 18-0 here Thursday night at Steer Stadium (or Farwell Field?)

The visiting team is to be credited for a lot of spunk, however, as this marks the first year they have attempted to field a junior eleven. The Yearlings have considerable experience under their belts, with only one exception, every member of the 1950 team played last year.

Sudan held up well the first half, as in the third quarter the Yearlings led by a lone TD, 6-0. They added two more in the final frame for the 18-0 count, but were unable to make good any of their three conversion attempts.

S. S. Jobes, junior coach, cited Gene Hardage as an outstanding player for the evening. He praised his line backing and blocking.

Crossing into the end zone for the Yearlings were three different teammates. Frank Gulley made the first touchdown on a long 50-yard run around right end.

Calvin Barber tallied the No. 2 score on another long 45-yard run around left end.

Phillip Cassidy powered over from the 1-foot line for the final tally. His score concluded the extended drive down mid-field.

Coach Jobes announced that the Yearlings will have another home game Thursday night at 8 o'clock when they tangle with the Muleshoe juniors.

The Yearling schedule is arranged so as not to conflict with that of the varsity Steers.

Texico Softballers Play Grady, Friday

Invitations are extended to all fans to attend the double-header baseball game on the Texico diamond between the Texico and Grady boys, and girls on Friday, September 22, Fern D. Stout, principal says.

"This should be one of the better games of the season since both teams are considered as among the best in the county," states Stout.

Texico boys played Rosedale, county champions of last year, Friday, and lost 13-8. Grady won over Fields. In the girls games, the Texico girls, who were county champions last year won over Rosedale, while Grady girls lost to Fields.

Another clashing double header which promises to be a close battle will be played at Texico on Friday, September 29, when Ranchvale boys and girls will be guests on the local diamond. Ranchvale played Forrest last week and won both games.

CURTIS BREAKS HAND IN MELROSE GAME

Gerald Curtis, Farwell footballer, received a broken hand in the Melrose skirmish last Friday night.

Coach Tommy Hestand says the hand was fractured across the top, above the fingers. Curtis will be unable to work out for three or four weeks and if returning, will probably be shifted into the line where ball handling is not required, Hestand said.

Whirlwinds Down Cowgirls, 25 To 8

Texico softball girls went all out in defense of their championship title last weekend, walloping Rosedale's Cowgirls in an opening game, 25 to 8. The Whirlwinds made several sleepy errors which should be ironed out in a couple of weeks, Fern Stout, coach, said today.

The locals scored six homers in the contest. Peggy Caldwell accounted for three of the home runs, with Violet Curry, Jo Beth Engram and Patsy Doshier slamming one each. Massey batted one four-bagger for the losers.

Pitching was average for an early season game. Marsha Peterson was on the mound throughout for Texico while Zandra K. Seals twirled the first five innings for Rosedale and was relieved after futile attempts to halt the powerfully-hitting locals.

Texico players this year include: Patsy Doshier, Marsha Peterson, Anita Brown, Margie Reid, Violet Curry, Peggy Caldwell, Bobbie Allred, Yvonne Horton, Claudene Allan, M. A. Peyton, Neva Sparks, Esther McDaniel, Betty Bridges, Jeanne Denney, June Breeze, Carmen Roth, Jo Beth Engram, Bobbie Williams and Margie Brown.

Rosedale Defends Crown, Defeat Texico 13 To 8, Friday

The Texico Wolverines, boys' softball club, dropped the season opener to the Rosedale crowd last Friday afternoon. The locals collected 18 hits off Harrington while Texico hurlers gave up only 14 safeties in losing the match, 13-8.

Tucker and Goldsmith were on the mound for the Wolverines, with Tucker being charged with the loss.

Four home runs were collected by Rosedale, two being made by Trower, with Rucker and Gunnels each getting a four-bagger. D. J. Brown, Texico first sacker, collected the only home run for the Wolverines. Brown also hit a standing up triple in the sixth inning. The game was called at the end of the sixth because of time.

Auxiliary Plans Survey In Twin Cities Friday

Mrs. Dorothy Quicquel and Mrs. Dardanella Helton reported a total of $65 received from the Auxiliary Rummage Sale held last week in Clovis, Mae Porter, reporter, says.

Members of the auxiliary would like to thank all who contributed toward the sale. Mrs. Porter emphasizes. The money will be used for redecoration of the Legion hall, including finishing of the interior walls and making drapes for the windows.

New plans were mapped out for the year's work at a monthly meeting of the organization Monday evening at 8:30 with eight members present. New officers for the coming year had charge of the meeting for the first time.

Asked to Make Survey

In a letter received recently from Marie L. Sheehy, national president, the auxiliary was asked to conduct a survey in the Twin Cities to determine the reaction of citizens to compulsory military training.

Mrs. Sheehy quoted the following question: "In view of the present world situation in which continuing military strength is the only safe guard against attack, and in view of the fact that in war the trained man has a much better chance to come home alive, do you now believe that Congress should immediately provide military training for all young men as survival insurance for them and security insurance for all our nation."

"Please have your minds made up before Friday in order that you may answer yes or no to these auxiliary members," Mrs. Porter says.

All auxiliary women are asked to report to the Legion hall at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon to obtain assignments on the survey.

DEFENDING CHAMPS GO DOWN BEFORE BOVINA

Wilson, defending champions of District 3 in six-man football, proved no match for the Bovina Mustangs when the teams met at Bovina last Friday night.

Bovina romped to an easy victory of 63 to 12 over the defending title holders, who have topped the district for the past three years.

Both of the Wilson touchdowns came on flukes; one on an intercepted pass and the other on a recovered fumble.

Venable led the Bovina scoring with 14 points, followed closely by Denney who racked up 13 points. Fromas and Young shared honors in the scoring division also, with 12 points each, and Lowery marked up a total of six.

After feeling out the strength of the opposition, which was rated to be one of the toughest squads in the district, Coach Ratliff sent his second and third string men into the game, and they gave a good accounting of their abilities.

The Mustangs will be idle this week, but on Sept. 29 will meet the strong Pettit aggregation on the Mustang field.

Graham Guest Speaker To Press Club

"Get it first, but first get it right," was the advice that Sonny Graham, of the State Line Tribune, gave in a speech to the Press Club of the Texico High School on Friday. Graham further stated the advantages and disadvantages of newspaper work.

Graham complimented the Press Club for the splendid job of publishing a school paper, saying he thought it was the best he had ever seen from a school the size of Texico.

"All the Press Club students enjoyed his speech, which was both interesting and informative," Mrs. N. W. Peyton, sponsor, said today.

After completing two years of college at ENMU in Portales, Graham left Saturday to enroll at SMU in Dallas to further his preparation for a career in the newspaper world.

Agent Jones Warns About Johnson Grass

County Agent Joe Jones reminds farmers that September is a good month to poison Johnson grass. The boot stage is the time to kill the grass while it is growing and vigorous.

Three recognized chemicals for killing Johnson grass are sodium chlorate, atalacide and polybor chlorate, says Jones. All of the weed killers can be used in the spray or dry farm.

All three of the chemicals are poisonous to livestock, so they should not be used close to a grazing area, he said.

Texico Senior Class Receive 1951 Rings

Class rings were presented to the Senior Class of Texico by Fern D. Stout, sponsor, at a special class meeting, Monday afternoon.

Designed with a raised "T", and a 19 and 51 on either side, with the students initials on either side also, the oblong rings are 10K gold finish.

The rings were ordered the past spring to enable the seniors to wear their school emblem while still a senior.

Tiny baseboard lights that stay on at night make for safety in the home.

"COURT TRIAL IN ANIMATED PICTURES"

By Bobbie Richardson
 (Ed's Note: Texico eighth graders are working on an interesting spelling project, writing stories using the spelling words. Appearing below is one of the stories which was selected by impartial judges.)

Court Trial In Animated Pictures
 One day in the tiny forest village of Animated Pictures, all of the animals were gathered around the village bulletin board. On it was a sign which read: "All animals sick, dead, but not buried, and alive will meet in the city hall for court on the James Farm Insurance Case at twelve o'clock noon Thursday. Court will adjourn at four o'clock p. m."

The James Farm was owned by James Turtle. He wanted to have his insurance altered. The insurance company said that he had been insured one way for thirty years so they wouldn't change the insurance.

Mr. Turtle had been thinking of seeing the insurance company for ten years but he had never done it. (Turtles are so slow, you know.)

On the day of court Mr. Turtle was about two hours late. His excuse was that he had to put on his jewelry, and fry and eat the yolk of an egg before he was completely ready to come.

The judge, a very dignified mule who had served in congress and had been discharged from the army with honorable merits, was very angry. His face turned red, and his pulse was beating wildly. The judge made Mr. Turtle pay a large tardy fee.

Mr. Turtle was sure he would have to sell his painting of Setting Horse and The Indian Chief to pay his tardy fee, which he valued at a thousand dollars.

Mr. Turtle pleaded with the Judge to let him by without paying his tardy fee. He even told the Judge how sad it would make him to sell his priceless painting.

Judge Mule ruled to let him keep his painting, but said he would have to go to work digging ditches for the new aircraft experiment.

"B-B-But, Judge, can't I pay the fee any other way?" cried Mr. Turtle. "No," said the Judge, "not unless you want to sell the painting."

This made Mr. Turtle very sad, but at least the Judge would have enabled him to keep his painting. "Now the court shall begin," brayed the Judge.

As Mr. Turtle sat there on the witness stand looking at the Judge, he thought how becoming to the Judge a big red lump in the middle of his head would be.

But his thoughts were rudely interrupted by his attorney, Mr. Sly Fox, who said, "Now, Mr. Turtle, we all know you're slow", and so on and so forth into the afternoon.

When court was over he bowed to the Judge, saluted the police captain, and gave a frog a two dollar contribution. He also paid his lawyer a fifty dollar bonus.

In case you wonder about his generous behavior, he had just won the case.

Kelley-Harrelson Vows Read On September 16

Wedding vows for Miss Dorothy Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. DeLong of Salamanca, New York, and Glen Harrelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Harrelson of Sulphur Springs, Texas, were read in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pug Collier in Friona on Saturday, September 16th, at 12:30 p.m.

The impressive home ceremony was performed in the presence of intimate friends and relatives of the couple by Rev. James Tidwell, pastor of the Friona Methodist Church, with the double-ring ritual being used before a background of fall flowers.

The bride chose for the wedding a street-length dress of brown crepe with accessories in forest green. The bodice featured a square neckline trimmed in sequins, and three-quarter sleeves. Her shoulder-corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Collier, as matron of honor, wore a street gown of beige crepe, with contrasting accessories of black. The dress featured a high neckline and tiers formed a modified bustle in the back. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Chock Bracken, of Friona, attended the groom as best man.

Following rites, a reception was held in the Collier home, with a three-tiered cake with miniature figurines, dominating the serving table. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Lee Renner, of Farwell and Miss Eileen Prosser, of Buffalo, New York, while Mrs. Joe Fallwell was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Harrelson has been a resident of Friona since April of 1949, coming here from the Buffalo Children's Hospital, in Buffalo, New York, where she received her RN degree. She is a graduate of the Salamanca, N.Y., high school, and is currently serving as office nurse for Dr. Paul Spring at the Parmer County Community Hospital.

Harrelson has also been a resident of Friona for some time, and is engaged in farm and ranch work with Owen Seamonds, near this city. After a short honeymoon the couple will make their home in Friona.

Leave For Dallas

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Crume and Judy left Saturday to take Mrs. Crume's brother, W. H. Graham, Jr., of Farwell, to Dallas where he will enroll at Southern Methodist University as a junior. The local people returned here Monday night, after visiting friends in Dallas and Wichita Falls.

Large Crowd Attends WSCS Dinner, Friday

Some 125 adults and around 15 children were served at the Methodist church annex Friday, when the local Woman's Society for Christian Service offered a chicken dinner, with all the trimmings, to fair visitors and local residents.

Mrs. Jake Lamb, at the door, reported that the ladies realized a net profit of around $165 from the dinner, with the majority of the food being donated by women of the church.

She expressed the of the sponsors for the generous patronage at the dinner.

"Personalities" Theme At Study Club Meet

"Personalities Revealed Through Books" was the theme of the meeting of the Modern Study Club, held on Tuesday night, September 19th, in the Club House.

Mrs. Seva Struve reviewed the book "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," and Mrs. Connie Tidwell offered a vocal solo, "The Last Time I Saw Paris".

Hostesses for the evening were Mesdames Estelle Caffey and Vera Bainum, and a social hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Local Representatives Attend Tulia Meeting

Representatives from the Friona Baptist Church were in Tulia on Tuesday of this week, attending the Tierra Blanca Associational meet for Baptist churches, with all organizations of the church being recognized and making individual reports.

Rev. Tommy Allen, pastor of the local church, was one of the principal speakers delivering the associational sermon during the meeting which opened at 10 a.m., and adjourned after evening services.

Friona delegates include Mr. and Mrs. George Messenger, Mrs. J. N. Messenger, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hardesty and Rev. Allen.

Girls' Town Founder Will Appear Here

Sponsored by the Modern Study Club, the Friona Women's Club and the local Lions organization, Miss Amelia Anthony, director and founder of Girls Town, at Whiteface, Texas, will appear in Friona on the night of October 3rd at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Ernest Osborn, in making the announcement, added that a definite place for the program would be announced later, as arrangements are still pending this week.

For fifteen years a social service worker, Miss Anthony's dream was for the establishment of a home for girls, where they would receive all the comforts and training of a real home. Last year on March 13, the home was opened at Whiteface, with thirteen girls as the initial occupants.

Miss Anthony's appearance here will be free to the public, and local residents are urged now to make plans to hear this inspiring woman.

Chiefs Lose First Clash To Vega

The Friona Chiefs lost their initial 1950 football scramble, Friday night, to a Vega team that held when the chips were down in the second half and took a victory, 12-7.

Coach Raymond Cook reported that the half-time count was 12-0, favoring the winners, with Friona staging a determined drive that paid off for one touchdown and fell short of another by inches in the last go-round.

Frank Reed, fullback, scored the single touchdown with a plunge over left tackle, and Darrell Robbin, halfback, circled end for the extra point.

Cook commented on the activity of Ross Miller, end, Reed, and Max Cruse, center, in the season's opener, stating that the boys showed much promise.

The first conference match will come off on Chieftain Field next Friday night, September 22nd, when Spring Lake visits here.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Day were business visitors in Amarillo, on Saturday.

Cecil Foster, who is employed at Steed's Mortuary, in Clovis, visited friends and relatives here during the weekend.

Lubbock Boosters To Visit Farwell, 21st

LUBBOCK—A group of Lubbock businessmen will be in Farwell on Thursday, Sept. 21 at 12:35 to publicize the 33rd Annual Panhandle-South Plains Fair to be Oct. 2-7.

The goodwill tourists are functioning under the auspices of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce goodwill committee, headed by O. L. Gibson. A special program, including a costumed group from the cast of "Panorama of the Plains," will serve as a cordial invitation to the citizens of Farwell to visit Lubbock during the fair.

Special invitations will be extended to the school children of Farwell and novelty souvenirs will be distributed by the boosters. School children and Texas history enthusiasts will be especially interested in this year's feature attraction, "Panorama of the Plains."

The production will retrace the development of this area with accurate scenes from the colorful history of the Panhandle-South Plains. Approximately 1000 people will reenact the historical spectacle.

Other outstanding attractions at the fair will include a cotton exhibit which will explain the process required to change cotton from a seed into yarn. The Bill Hames Shows will provide carnival fun for all, and a greatly increased number of educational exhibits will be installed this year.

The premium list this year has been boosted to $12,500. The chief increase in departments can be pinpointed to an approximate $2000 boost in the livestock division.

Fresh paint and paving have changed the appearance of the fair grounds this year. Workmen have been active completing a $25,000 improvement program which includes paving of the streets and Midway, and the walkways in the livestock and swine barns.

Exes Association Plans Homecoming; Names Committees

In a concentrated effort aimed at preventing a recurrence of the sparsely-attended Ex-Student, Teacher banquet at Farwell Consolidated Schools in August, the Alumni Association met last week and set a date for the first annual Homecoming, Nov. 10.

Called by Sonny Graham, association president, the meeting was attended by every member and several other interested individuals. Graham reported, "I am heartened by the interest displayed by these persons. It looks as though our first Homecoming will be a successful one."

On the suggestion of Mrs. Tom Foster, the association decided to call themselves Exes of Farwell Consolidated Schools, inasmuch as "alumni" often is construed to mean an organization only for graduates of the schools.

"Calling ourselves the Exes," Mrs. Foster explained, "will mean that all ex-students, and ex-teachers of the three consolidated schools will be eligible for membership."

Officers discussed at some length plans for Homecoming. At present, they include a football game between Farwell and Springlake, in the afternoon, a Homecoming queen, and a huge bonfire and old-fashioned barbecue that night. "Other attractions will be added," commented Graham.

Officers drew up three committees designed to blanket Homecoming activities. They include:

Correspondent committee — LeMoin Williams, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Henneman, Ruby Meeks, Alvin Cox, and Jerry Meeks.

Entertainment — Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sheets, Mr. and Mrs. Kate Crume, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carpenter.

Food Committee — Robert Morton, Mitz Walling, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crume, Olan Schleuter, and John Aldridge.

Attending the meeting Thursday night were Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Foster, Mrs. C. C. Christian, Mrs. Joe Crume, Mrs. Tom Foster, A. C. Henneman, Jeanne Dudley, LaMoin Williams and Graham.

Work was immediately begun on a list of all potential exes from Oklahoma Lane, West Camp, and Farwell Schools.

Clean Range Looks And Cooks Better

COLLEGE STATION—The housewife who keeps a clean range has the reputation of being a good housekeeper. A clean range not only looks better, but it also cooks better than one which is allowed to gather grease, spilled food, dust or rust.

Cleanliness of a range is important for a full, even, efficient heat. Mrs. Bernice Claytor, home management specialist for the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, says that reflecting surfaces must be kept shining so they will do their job of throwing out heat. She points out that a clean range also helps keep the kitchen clean and free of unnecessary smoke and odors.

Mrs. Claytor recommends wiping up spilled and spattered food promptly with a dry cloth or paper. If acid foods are not removed promptly, they may eat into the enamel surfaces on the range. Other foods scorch on and removing them is difficult and may be hard on the range surfaces. Grease comes off most easily when it is fresh and hot.

After the range cools, the metal and porcelain surfaces can be washed with a moistened cloth. Mrs. Claytor warns that using a wet cloth on a hot range is a hazard to the housewife's hands and may crack the enamel on the range. She points out that many good housekeepers make an after-the-dishes habit of washing the range. Do not use gritty or abrasive agents.

Any charred particles of food on the burners or heating units, or in the bottom of the oven, can be brushed out after the range cools. Mrs. Claytor suggests using a metal hair pen or wire to clean the gas burners if they become clogged.

She points out that ovens are often neglected in cleaning because they are closed and out of sight. However a dirty oven often smokes when heated, giving the food an unpleasant taste.

Scorched-on grease in ovens can be removed by applying dilute ammonia with a cloth, or leaving a dish holding an ammonia-soaked cloth in the oven overnight will loosen the scorched food, and it can be easily removed by scouring lightly with very fine steel wool or fine scouring powder. Mrs. Claytor says that leaving the oven open to cool helps keep it clean and fresh and prevents rusting from closed in steam.

Light laundering of a garment before it becomes badly soiled will increase the life of the material by removing the dirt, dust and perspiration before they become embedded in the fabric.

Resuscitator Fund Is Complete, Fireboys Say "Thank You"

Acting as spokesman for the Texico-Farwell Fire Department, Odis Huggins today expressed thanks to the business of the Twin Cities for their contributions, in completing the fund raised to pay for a resuscitator which has been added to the department's equipment.

Huggins said that it was the wish of the Fireboys that every citizen in the community would feel free to call on them when their services were needed. "Our foremost thought is to help others who are unable to help themselves," Huggins added.

FFA Booths Placed At Tri-State Fair

The Farwell FFA chapter's booth at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo, which opened on Monday, was ranked in the second division, Robert Morton, local director, reports.

The booth, which worked out terracing for moisture conservation, competed for placement with sixteen FFA entries. Placed in the first division were Shamrock, Amarillo and Panhandle.

Orie Jones helped "Prof" Morton prepare the booth here in Farwell and on Sunday Jerry Pool accompanied Morton to Amarillo to set up the exhibit.

Booths from the other three FFA chapters in Parmer County—Friona, Bovina and Lazbuddy—were rated in the third division by the judges.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert (Blackie) Smith have started construction work on a three-bedroom home at their farm just northeast of the city on highway 60. Framework for the structure is going up now. It will be 42x40 outside dimensions and will be of brick veneer construction.

said that heretofore, as many Jerseys have been entered as all the other breeds put together, but this wasn't true this year.

Interest zoomed in the home arts department. Mrs. George Jones, who headed this division, said the department had 24 exhibitors last year, and 65 entered this year.

Harold Lillard, exhibited a leather briefcase and won the leathercraft prize. He was the only male entry in the home arts division.

Among the articles which drew special interest in this division was some knitted lace exhibited by Mrs. Roy Miller, which was given to her as a wedding gift.

A hand woven scarf by Mrs. Lewis Welch, a hand painted organdy apron presented by Miss Ruth Lynn which came too late to be judged; and a vegetable which takes the place of cucumbers, exhibited by Mrs. C. A. Paul, were all noted in the array of displays.

An antique wooden bread tray was shown by Mrs. Jones. The tray belonged to Mrs. Jones mother, Mrs. W. T. Adkinson. It had been in the family for over 100 years and was used every day for 75 or 80 years.

S. T. Thornton donated his booth space to the Women's department so they could better display articles.

The women are trying to make their department in next year's fair self-supporting. In this year's show, they sponsored a Mrs. Friona contest with presidents of the various women's clubs as entrees. They charged a penny a vote with proceeds going into the treasury. Mrs. Roy Miller, president of the Friona PTA won the contest.

Added attractions of the fair included bake sales by various clubs, bingo, frog hops, a dunking board, greased pig contest, and various concessions.

Two western bands, Delmer Shirley's Texas Ramblers and Noble Brown's Deaf Smith County Hot Rocks entertained Thursday night.

A parade climaxed the events of the weekend, Saturday afternoon. An ancient car loaded down with numerous people, pans, wash board, and all the trimmings, furnished the humorous slant to the attraction.

Winners of the school floats division was the Freshman class with the Girls Scouts taking first and the Modern Study Club winning second in the outside floats.

Tommy Jones of the O. C. Jones Motor Company won first in the merchants division with a tiny car which he built himself. The American Legion won second with the car that was awarded Saturday night.

Rockie Hance won honors in the pony division, and Lolleta O'Brian, Frankie Spring, and Lou Ann Hardesty, won first, second, and third in the bicycle division.

Winners in the pet division were Barbara Lloyd, Audrey Slagle and Elvin Horner. All the winning pets shown were dogs.

Judges for the parade were O. J. Bean and Mrs. Henderson, and Ralph Roden.

A complete list of the winners will be found elsewhere in this issue.
