Story not appreciated

As Christmastime approaches, 1 always recall one of the most embarrassing moments of my journalistic career.

It happened many years ago when I was a young reporter. The story began simply enough. The editor asked me to find a heart-warming story for Page 1 play for our Christmas Day edition. No problem there. So I called up several directors of organizations that worked with lowincome folks and handicapped children, asking if they had any ideas for such a story. A couple of days later, one director called me back to say she had just the story for me.

It seems that a local lady, who I will call "Sally" for the sake of this story, had recently moved back to town. She was living in a mobile home with four young children and had very little money. But goodhearted neighbors had brought over a small Christmas tree and trimmings, and had even purchased a few Christmas presents for the kids so they might appreciate this joyous holiday.

Well, the story seemed like a natural: improverished woman and children helped by neighbors. 'Right? Read on... First Baptist mission activities have been varied After fellowshiping with Texico for 47 years in the Texico-Farwell Baptist Church, some of the Baptist of Farwell had a vision of a church in Farwell. Early in March of 1953 some of the Baptist people met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McManigal for discussion of the possibility of this becoming a reality.

Later a meeting was held in the showroom of Hardage Motors and because of interest shown, a meeting was held in the Farwell School Gymnasium on March 14, 1953. Bro. Barto Massey pastor of Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church spoke to the group on organizing a church. At this meeting a date was set for meeting to organize a church. The group selected Sterlyn Billington as first acting moderator and Elsie Hardage as temporary clerk. Sterlyn Billington appointed two committees. Joe McWilliams, Johnnie Williams, and Jack McManigal were to secure a place for organizing and to hold services temporarily. Bro. W.F. Markum, Bro. Ben Atkins, and W.M. Roberts were to secure a minister for the organizing of the church.

On March 22, 1953 the group met with names of 126 people who expressed desire to organize and become members of a church in Farwell. Of this group 114 came on promise of letters from Texico, 1 from West Camp, 7 from Oklahoma Lane, and 4 from Olivet Church Lubbock. Bro. M.D. Durham, pastor of First Church, Bovina, was elected moderator and the First Baptist Church Farwell was duly organized. It was voted that the members that were ordained deacons be installed as deacons --Sterlyn Billington, Dick Geries, Willie Hardage and Joe McWilliams. April 5, 1953 was set as the deadline for charter members. At this date the membership had increased to On March 15, First Baptist Church Farwell met to elect officers for the church. They were: First church clerk - Leatha Jo Roberts, first church treasurer - Joe McWilliams, first Sunday School superintendent - Dick Geries, first Sunday School secretary - Elsie Hardage, first choir leader - Walter Hardage, first Training Union Director - Willie Hardage, first Training Union secretary - Sterlyn Billington, first pianist - Mrs. Jack McManigal. The deacons were elected as the pulpit committee. Otis Branscum, Johnnie Williams, Walter Hardage and Murry Dial were elected as Finance Committee. Charlie Hromas, Jack McManigal, Dickie Magness and Claude Rose were elected as the building committee. Later Bill Garrett was elected to the building committee and Joe McWilliams as treasurer of the building committee. Claude Rose, Sterlyn Billington, and Joe McWilliams were elected as trustees.

Grigsby named Farwell school superintendent

John A. Grigsby, currently superintendent of the Wildorado, Texas School District, was appointed as the new Farwell School superintendent by the Farwell School Board Monday night.

FARWELL, TEXAS

Grigsby will take over the Farwell reins next summer after the retirement of longtime Superintendent W.M. Roberts. Roberts tended his resignation to the School Board in September to give it time to pick his successor.

Grigsby said he is excited about his new post and is looking forward to moving his family here in June. He said he has lived in large communities and has decided smaller towns are more suitable for his family. He was raised in Garland, Texas.

Grigsby, 33, was one of more than 30 applicants for the superinten-

So I drove to Sally's home, interviewed her about the kindliness of the neighbors, took a photo of the family huddled around the tiny Christmas tree that stood firm on a low table, and headed back to work with a "mission accomplished" feeling.

I put a lot of feeling into the story I Apr wrote, which wasn't hard to do. for Sally had explained that her husband had abandoned her so she had 136. come home to where she had some O friends and relatives. She had a Chu part-time job as a waitress, collected some welfare aid, and obviously chus was having difficulty making ends meet. It was not an unusual story lian for a large city.

On Christmas Day, the papers were delivered and my story about Sally got good play. I felt good about it, knowing that her neighbors got credit for their help and that it would be an inspiration for others on how a mother was trying to keep her family together in trying times.

One thing for sure, the story was an "inspiration," but not in the way I realized when I was writing it.

It was about 9 a.m. Christmas morning when the phone rang for the first time (the papers were delivered about 8 a.m.). After ascertaining that I was the reporter who had written the story about Sally, the lady caller informed me that Sally had been a go-go dancer who had stolen her husband away. Oops.

According to the lady caller, the reason that Sally was back was because the lady's husband had finally left her after their fling. The lady caller, in the midst of divorce proceedings, didn't appreciate the heartwarming article -- to say the least.

After the phone conversation ended, I felt pretty badly about being taken in by Sally. Then the phone rang again.

Yes, it was another lady who said that HER husband had left her a year or so earlier to run off with Sally. Her comments were quite similar to the first caller.

This lady took note that Sally was getting welfare assistance although she should not have qualified. She planned to call the welfare department the first thing the next day to expose "poor Sally."

That was about the end of it. I couldn't believe that a person would want an article in the newspaper which contained a bunch of, shall we say misleading statements, when she should have known it was going to get her in a lot of trouble. You

The church met in the school gymnasium until the first unit of the educational building was built. The church parsonage was built at the same time as the educational building.

Bro. J.D. Horton became pastor of the church on June 10, 1953, and served until July, 1954.

August 2, 1953 was a joyful day for members of the First Baptist Church, for they had seen a dream become a reality and now had their own building for a place to worship. This was move-in day and Sunday School and Worship Services were held in the new building for the first time.

First revival meeting for the church was held August 16-23, 1953. There were several additions to the membership with 16 by baptism. The first anniversary of the church was observed March 21, 1954 by having a basket lunch at noon and afternoon services. Sunday School A cabin was built at the Plains Baptist Assembly at Floydada, Texas, in June, 1956.

Bro. Sidney Cox was pastor from August 1, 1958 to January 31, 1961. The auditorium was started in July, 1959, and was completed in the spring of 1960.

Bro. J.L. Bass became pastor in May, 1961, and served until November 7, 1971. In March, 1962, the church purchased a building for a Negro Mission and helped finance the mission's work until 1978, when it became self supporting.

In May 1962, extra lots, adjoining the church property on the north, were purchased to extend ownership of the entire block. This purchase was made in order to provide for any future expansion.

A church library, under the direction of Mrs. John Zahn, was set up in 1963. Mrs. Zahn was elected by the church to become the first librarian.

The newest unit of the church was constructed in 1963. The unit would facilitate many of the Sunday School classes and also include the Pastor's study. The church indebtedness for this new unit was paid in full on June 5, 1968.

In 1968, the church began sponsoring Boy Scouts, but at the time of this printing, they are no longer meeting at the church.

In July 1968 First Baptist Church Farwell voted to contribute to the financial support of two churches in the Northwest.

in April, 1971, the lot between the church and parsonage was paved for parking space and a sprinkler system put in the parsonage yard.

Clifton L. Ennen became pastor in March, 1972. During the five years Dr. Ennen served as pastor, the church participated in two crusades. In December, 1974, a group from the church membership, along with Dr. Ennen went on mission to Guatemala. Then in January, 1976, a group with Dr. Ennen also went to El Salvador on a crusade.

During the years 1972-1976, the church began sponsoring two churches in the Phoenix area, and the churches in the Northwest became self supporting.

The church purchased a bus in December of 1972, and began a bus (Continued on Page 3) dent's post. He was interviewed by the School Board in November, then met with it again Monday to work out the particulars.

His wife's name is Deborah. The couple has two children -- Amber, 8, and Zachary, 5.

Grigsby received a bachelor's degree in 1974 from West Texas State University and a master's degree in education in 1980 from WTSU. He has a superintendent's certificate. After college, he taught social studies and coached at Obanion Middle School and South Garland High in Garland, and at Darrouzett High in Darrouzett.

From 1979 to 1981 he was principal and athletic director at Darrouzett. He became Wildorado superintendent in 1981.

His religious and civic activities have included: director of Explorers, United Fund drive chairman, Bible class teacher, foster parent, a member of a county child welfare board and board chairman of the Wildorado United Methodist Church.

His honors have included being named "favorite teacher;" being a member of Phi Delta Kappa, professional educational fraternity; a nominee for the U.T. Superintendent Fellowship Program, and serving on state school committees for personal relations, and membership.

Grigsby's philosophy of education is:

"The goal of education is to prepare each and every student to become a positive and contributing John and Deborah Grigsby have two children -- Amber, 8, and Zacháry, 5. Sitting on Mrs. Grigsby's lap in this photo is a foster child who has

Lillian Benderman recalls her life

Lillian Benderman, long-time area resident, was born to Roe (R.A.) and Della Jane Davis, at Old Fort, N.C., about 30 miles from Asheville, on Sept. 10, 1899.

Mrs. Benderman came to this area with her parents in 1908, when Texico was bigger than Clovis. The family came here from North Carolina on the train. They got off the train at Taiban, N.M., then traveled 15 miles south of there, where they lived on a claim for several years. The claim was a dry land farm, where Mrs. Benderman, her parents, and 10 brothers and sisters lived in a one-room half dug-out, which had a tin roof. All 11 children, of whom Mrs. Benderman is the eldest, managed to go to school, even though the family was poor. They walked five miles to the school. Mrs. Benderman didn't start school until she was nine years old, but her father taught all of his children to read before they went to school. At that time, the school year was only three months long. Later, it increased to five months. The Davis family didn't have it easy, to say the least. They were considered to be "nesters" by the surrounding ranchers. At one time, their fences were cut and cattle were run in on their crops. After several years, the Davis family never know.

Anyway, I took good-natured ribbing from my fellow staffers for quite some time about my Christmas story. And the one positive aspect was that the following Christmas my editor did NOT ask me to find another heart-warming story for the Yuletide edition. I wonder why?

Santa Claus is coming

All you kiddoes, mark your calendars for the 19th of December, because that's the day Santa will be in Farwell.

Rumor has it that he will arrive, about 4 p.m. in an ENMR helicopter, and will be landing just east of Capitol Foods.

The Lion's Club will pick him up in their "Hooligan Wagon" and take him to the parking lot in front of Capitol Foods to talk with all the children in the Texico-Farwell area. He will be there until about 6 p.m.

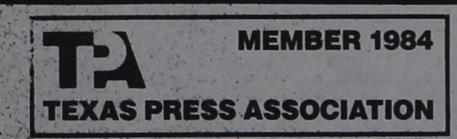

On Dec. 20, Santa will pay a visit to the Farwell Convalescent Center in conjunction with family night.

moved, because a good source of water couldn't be found.

An incident which Mrs. Benderman recalls from her youth is that on June 4, 1920, she had appendicitis. She needed an appendectomy, but there was no hospital in Clovis then. Three doctors rented a room in a home in Clovis, and performed the surgery on the dining room table. When Mrs. Benderman was 16 years old, in 1915, she was baptized in a stock tank south of Taiban by a Baptist minister. The minister was the grandfather of Mrs. Childs, a resident of Farwell.

Area churches plan Christmas events

With Christmas fast approaching, area churches are planning special Christmas events for those interested in the religious aspect of the holiday, including Christmas services, program, and cantatas.

At Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church, the "hanging of the greens" has already been observed. On Dec. 12, the United Methodist women will get together for their Christmas choir will perform a cantata at the regular morning worship. On Dec. 23, at 6 p.m., there will be "carols, candles, and communion" to further everyone's Christmas spirit.

Texico to pay part of sewer cost

The Texico City Council Tuesday to pay the cost - $3.84 a foot for night agreed to pay for a sewer line to the property of Ralph Autrey.

Autrey appeared before the council to ask that the city pay the cost for the line from the existing sewer to his property line. Then he will pay for extending the line onto his property. He plans to put up two trailer homes there.

The council unanimously agreed (Mayor John R. Hadley was absent) about 50 feet of line.

In discussing whether to do it, it was brought up that the council earlier this year had turned down a request from Charlotte Pierce to pay a similar cost. So the council last night also decided to pay the portion of sewer cost that Mrs.

Pierce earlier had sought -- $3.84 a foot for about 20 feet of sewer line.

sheet metal and wood.

As part of its decision, the council instructed City Attorney Duane Hamar to come up with a rule, resolution or ordinance within two months concerning city participation in such projects. Thus, the council won't have to decide so much on a request-by-request basis, but will have some basic guidelines to follow:

In other business, the council:

-- Scheduled public hearings at its Jan. 8 meeting for proposed landfill and procurement policy ordinances. -- Approved a contract with the state for the senior citizens center remodeling -- if changes in the language (including insurance) that Hamar suggested are acceptable to the state.

-- Rejected an offer from the state of $900 toward starting a meals pro-until its January meeting.

-- Again discussed the growing problem of street potholes. Councilmen Lewis Cooper and Bryan Kube will talk to city employees about it. The council is very unhappy about this problem.

-- Heard Hamar report that the state is willing to abate its lawsuit for one year concerning the landfill. During this time, the state EID will monitor the landfill, especially how it's being covered. The council said this was okay with it, but asked that if no landfill problems are found during the 12 months than it would result in automatic withdrawal of the lawsuit. Hamar pointed out that the EID has the right to inspect the landfill whenever it chooses, anyway.

Baptist Church adult choir will perform in "A Festival of Carols" at the evening service, which begins at 7 p.m. The children's choir will have their program at 7 p.m. on Dec. 19. On Dec. 24, there will be a candle light service at 7 p.m.

At St. John Lutheran in Lariat, they are planning their usual Christmas Eve service on Dec. 24 at 6 p.m., with the children's program included. On Dec. 25 at 10:30 a.m., there will be a special Christmas Worship service. They will also have a New Year's Eve service with communion on Dec. 31 at 7:30.

First Baptist Church

ministry. Also the church voted in June, 1973 to redecorate the auditorium with new furniture, lights, choir loft and choir robes.

The year 1976 saw the resident church membership up to 576. The library had increased to over 1,300 volumes. The church had 8 paid staff members and Dr. Ennen conducted a daily radio ministry and Sunday morning worship service broadcast on KZOL.

Dr. Ennen resigned March, 1977, to assume the pastorate at Calvary Baptist Church, Las Cruces, N.M. Bro. Dudley Bristow was called July 10, 1977, and filled the pastorate July 31, 1977.

A puppet ministry was begun in October, 1977. Those participating in this ministry were Pam Monk, Karen Bristow, and the High School Youth Department.

Missions activities of the church have been wide and varied in the years from 1976 to the present time. A crusade mission to Guatemala was participated in by our church in January, 1979. In the same year the church also began a support program for Bo and Jeanne Bartley, for El Rancho De Los Ninos. This endeavor by the Bartleys was to become a Guatemala-based children's home, begun by the effort of this couple and First Baptist Church, Farwell. Many other churches and individuals in the area of Farwell, have been instrumental in the support of this mission effort. In January, 1980, the church voted to commit themselves to the raising of funds to construct the first dormitory for El Rancho De Los Ninos. That dormitory is presently completed and houses 30 children, plus the Bartley family.

A committee was established in April, 1980, to look into remodeling the church library. Initial work began in January, 1981. Moving-in began on March 31, 1981. The newly remodeled "Media Center" now holds 1,700 volumes with capacity to also store the church audiovisuals. The center can also be used on Sunday mornings as a Sunday School room. The new Media Center has at present five volunteer staff members, with Susan Johnson serving as Media Director.

In November 1981 the Buildings and Grounds committee recommended the church repair roofs, put new ceiling in parts of the educational building, insulate and put in new heating, air duct, refrigerated

Lillian Benderman

In 1920, Mrs. Benderman married George Ferman Nuzum. They were married in Farwell, because Nuzum's father was away, and Nuzum wasn't quite 21. In Texas, there wasn't a law saying that a man under 21 needed his parent's consent to marry. They lived in Clovis for awhile, but later moved to Belen, N.M. When they had been married for 21/2 years, Nuzum died, leaving his young wife with a 17-month-old son and an infant daughter who was born two days after her father's death.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Benderman went back to school to complete the new requirements for teaching school, after which she taught school in order to support her two children. She worked at Yeso, N.M., a three teacher school, and then at Guadalupe, N.M., a one teacher school. While at Guadalupe, her sister-inlaw introduced her to J.B. Benderman, a railroad man. They were married Nov. 23, 1929. Benderman was a widower who had a threeyear-old daughter. Shortly after their marriage, the Depression hit, and Benderman was laid off his job. Mrs. Benderman continued teaching school until 1935, when they moved to Ft. Sumner after her husband went back to work again.

was nine years old. Ten months later, in 1936, J.B. Benderman, Jr., was born. When he was 10 months old, George, Mrs. Benderman's son, who was then 15 years old, died of complications following a football injury.

The Bendermans lived in Ft. Sumner until 1942, when the railroad moved them back to Clovis. They lived there in the same house for 25 years Benderman retired in 1963, when they moved to Farwell. He died five years later. After her husband's death, Mrs. Benderman sold her home in Farwell and moved into a comfortable apartment in Texico, where she has lived for 11 years. Mrs. Benderman has remained very active. She worked in Clovis until she was 75. She places much importance on "doing as much as she can for as long as possible." She still plays bridge, with a foursome every two weeks, and on the alternating two weeks with a bridge club. Aside from teaching school, Mrs. Benderman has sold insurance, preneed funerals, cemetery lots, vitamins and silverware. She has one daughter, Leona Harlin, who lives in Albuquerque, and one son, J.B. Benderman, Jr., who lives in Dallas. She also has five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

air, and put an electric heater in the church secretary's office. Approval was given for this work and this was completed in late 1982.

Bro. Dudley Bristow resigned in June 1982, moving to First Southern Baptist Church, Mesa, Arizona.

In September 1982 First Baptist Church purchased a 3/4 ton 15 passenger Ford van to be used for church related activities. A trailer hitch was installed on the van and the brotherhood had a trailer built so that the van can be used completely for passengers and the trailer will carry their luggage.

Bro. Pat Riley became the pastor of the First Baptist Church Farwell in October 1982. The church regularly broadcasts its worship services over the radio, but no longer has a daily Bible Study ministry. The church does support a program called "Baptist Hour," which began in November, 1978, each Sunday from 9:00 to 9:30 a.m.

In addition to gifts to our own Llanos Altos Association, the Cooperative Program, and special mission offerings three times a year, the church supports on a monthly basis; El Rancho De Los Ninos, El Peten, Guatemala; Mountain Top Mission, Peoria, Arizona; Liberty Baptist Mission, Peoria, Arizona; Trinity Baptist Chapel, Aurora, Colorado, and Estrella Baptist Association, Phoenix, Arizona.

In February of 1983 a group from

First Baptist Church Farwell participated in building a church in El Peten, Guatemala at El Ranch De Los Ninos. The vision for the Bartleys in 1979 was now a reality.

Patrick Dan Riley (or Brother "Pat") graduated from Zephyr, Texas High School in 1971. He attended Central Texas College at Killeen, and Howard Payne University at Brownwood, where he graduated Magna Cum Laude. Brother Pat was also listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. He won an Outstanding Business Student Award, and was on the National Dean's List.

The U.S. Army claimed Brother Pat's service from 1971-1978. During his service years, he was awarded two Army Commendation Medals, a German Shootist Medal and a French Commando Medal.

Brother Pat was licensed to the ministry at Clear Creek Baptist Church in 1974, and was ordained at Pecan Grove Baptist Church, San Saba, Tex., in 1980. He served as Interim Pastor at Clear Creek Baptist Church, as Pastor at Pecan Grove Baptist Church from 1980-1982. In 1982, he became the Pastor of the Farwell First Baptist Church, where he remains.

Brother Pat is married to Deborah Jean (Debbie) Riley. They have three children, Amanda, who is 8 years old, Kyle, 21/2 years and Deirdre, 7 months.

Woman killed, man burned in accident

A Clovis woman died and a Texico man suffered severe burns in an accident Monday evening.

The accident occurred at 6:55 p.m. at the intersection of West 21st and State Road 108 (the road from Texico to Pleasant Hill).

New Mexico State Trooper David Collier reported the fatal victim was Edith Lucille Singleterry, 67, of Clovis.

Ted Richardson, 26, of Texico, suffered third degree burns over 35 percent of his body. He is in serious condition.

Collier said in his report that Mrs. Singleterry's car was eastbound on 21st Street when it apparently ran a stop sign and pulled in front of Richardson's pickup truck, carrying a butane tank. Richardson was southbound on 108.

Collier's report said that Mrs. Singleterry died at the scene. Richardson was airlifted to the burn ward at University Hospital in Albuquerque.

The police report said that witnesses to the accident tried very hard to help the victims and did everything they could possibly do. Funeral services for Mrs. Singleterry are pending at Steed-Todd Funeral Home in Clovis.

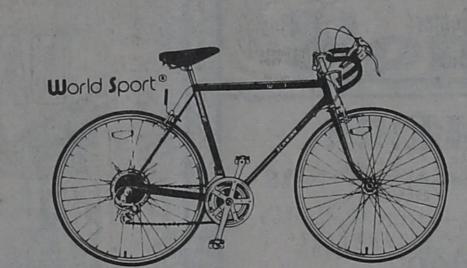

Mrs. Singleterry started teaching in 1936 at Pleasant Hill. She also taught in Clovis and retired in 1983. She was active in church groups and Sunday school, was a member of Central Baptist church and the Retired Teachers Association.

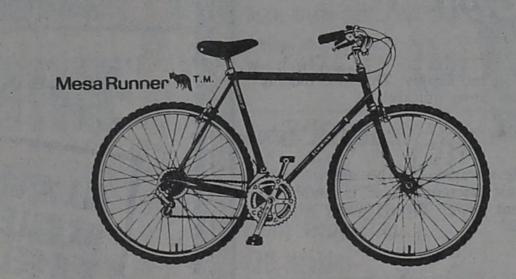

Survivors include two sons, Gary and wife Kay, of Pleasant Hill, and Monte and wife Rosabeth, of Albuquerque; three sisters, Ruby Harper, of Las Vegas, Nev.; Gladys Goodman and Billie Hartley, both of Portales, and six grandchildren, Kym, Monika, Glen Ray, all of Albuquerque, and Melissa, Martin and Samuel, all of Pleasant Hill. She was preceded in death by her husband, Glenn, in 1966.

Mrs. Moyers also gave the ladies some advice about shopping for microwave ovens and using a food processor. She feels that a touch panel may be one of the best features to get on a microwave, as this gives more accurate timing than the dial control does. She suggested that for those lucky enough to have a food processor, a lot of cheese can be grated at one time. put into plastic bags and frozen for up to two months. This means only operating and cleaning the food processor once for enough grated cheese to last a long time; and how nice to have grated cheese just by opening the freezer.

She also stated that a food processor is good for cutting shortening into flour and for heavy mixing, such as cream cheese or cheese balls.

'Physically challenged' athlete runs to L. A.

Jeff Keith, followed closely by a motor home with its lights flashing, ran down the Amarillo Highway and through Texico Wednesday.

This may not seem remarkable, except that it was freezing out there -- and Jeff Keith has one leg.

Keith is 22 years old. He lost his leg to bone cancer when he was 12.

His run, which began when he left Boston on June 14 and will end when he reaches the Pacific Ocean at Los Angeles before the end of January, is sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Altogether, he will have run 3,100 miles when he reaches his destination. He is accompanied by five young friends, including his brother, who support him every step of the way. They follow him in the motor home, give him water every mile, and run with him at times.

Keith's main purpose in the run is to get across to kids that "physically challenged" is better than "physically handicapped." He often finds time along his way across the country to stop and visit children's hospitals and rehabilitation centers.

The day he came through Texico, he said he had run 17 miles. He runs eight miles each morning and about eight miles each afternoon.

Local Cancer Society chapters have used his run to spotlight fundraising for cancer research. Citizens are asked to send a contribution to their local chapter, marked for the Jeff Run Campaign, or to pledge a donation by calling 1-800-J-E-F-F-R-U-N.

Label drive picks up

The UPC label drive is starting to pick up, according to Ronnie Warmuth, the math teacher heading the drive.

Warmuth credits the prizes of candy bars and stickers for the increase in labels being brought in.

As of Tuesday, 686 labels had been collected. Terry Whitener is still the individual in the lead, with 105 labels to his credit. The seventh grade class is still the leading class, with 144 labels, but Mr. Schwartz's fifth grade class is running close behind, with 124.

In Farwell, there are collection containers at Capitol Foods and at Hughes True Value. There are envelopes at these locations which may be picked up for your convenience. These envelopes have pictures of the products on them, which will help to remind everyone to save these labels. In Texico, the collection containers are located at the schools and at the Citizen's Bank.

The deadline is Feb. 28.

The labels are needed to buy school computers.

True responds to USDA proposal

Any serious discussion of reducing funding for agricultural programs by 50 percent does not recognize the reality of the economic problems facing farmers," Texas Farm Bureau President S.M. True, Jr. said Friday.

True responded to proposals made by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, that funding for agricultural programs be reduced by roughly half of the present level by 1988.

The head of Texas' largest farm organization, with 317,575 member families, said the proposal by Agriculture Secretary John Block was "unsettling, but not surprising." True said farmers expect some modifications in farm policy when Congress passes the new farm bill next year, but cannot accept cuts of the magnitude suggested by USDA. The Texas Farm Bureau completed its annual state convention in San Antonio on Nov. 29, and the delegates reaffirmed support for the concepts of loan rates and target prices in federal farm programs. True said, "The Texas Farm Bureau convention adopted policies that did not reflect any support whatsoever for severely reducing the price support system that has served farmers well for so many years."

Law enforcement get-together held

The second annual get-together of law enforcement officials from Parmer, Curry and Bailey counties was held Monday night at the Farwell Community Center.

Hosting the dinner were Jerry and Gloria Atchley.

Afterward, foreign exchange student Franka Bungarten showed slides of her home in Krefeld, West Germany. And a Curry County bluegrass band performed.

The price support system was originally designed to provide farmers with a marketing tool in the form of loans to pay off production expenses following harvest. Farmers could avoid post-harvest price drops and repay the loans after selling when prices were higher.

True said that most farmers believe that loan rates and target prices are basic provisions necessary in a new farm bill because of serious economic circumstances which continue to plague U.S. agriculture. "Reduced exports, domestic surpluses, increased production costs, and low commodity prices are reasons enough not to tamper with farm policy in any sort of drastic manner." he said

Before hanging strings of lights, spread them on the floor and check for fraved or bare wires, cracked insulation, loose connections, and damaged plugs or light sockets. Check extension cords for wear or damage and don't run them across walking areas. Test lights before putting them on the tree. Unplug them before making repairs or replacing bulbs. Overloading circuits with too many lights can cause fire. Follow manufacturer's instructions about the number of lights allowed on one circuit. Choose a fresh, green tree, trim its base and keep it in plenty of water. If the needles are brown and break off easily, it could be a fire risk. If you buy an artificial tree, make sure it has been tested for flammability by Underwriters Laboratories (UL). Place your tree away from the fireplace or other heat sources and out of the traffic pattern. Never string lights on a metallic tree. Light strings with damaged insulation can electrically charge a metallic tree. Instead, shine unattached colored floodlights or spotlights on the tree. Always turn off lights before leaving home or going to bed. You'll save money and be safer, too. Never use lighted candles on a tree or near evergreens. And don't burn evergreens in the fireplace. Do not use inside lights on the outside. All outside lighting equipment, including lights, cords and plugs, should be waterproof and made for outdoor use. Also, hang sockets downward and don't leave a socket empty. When hanging lights on the rooftop or in tall trees outdoors, stay clear of electrical lines. Make sure you or Set 11 your decorations don't come in contact with them. Should you receive a CB radio or television this Christmas, let a qualified serviceman install the CB base unit or television antenna for you. This delicate job is best left to the professionals.

Be sure electrical toys are tested for safety. Look for the UL mark.

Farwell basketball action

Farwell participates in Sudan tournament

Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Farwell varsity basketball teams traveled to Sudan to play in their tournament, which proved to have some stiff competition, giving the Farwell teams a run for their money.

On Thursday, the boys' team played against Hale Center, and the Farwell boys lost, 62-41.

Farwell was only down by six points at the beginning of the fourth quarter, "but Hale Center has some big players that finally wore us down," commented Coach Mike Martin about the game. He also said that the boys were not shooting well from the field, with an average of 25% in this game.

Scoring were Mark Cole and Jody Ketcherside, with 10 points each; Roger Robertson, 7; David Woods, 6; Jesse Coburn, 5; and Kevin Owen, 3.

The Farwell girls also played against Hale Center on Thursday, with Hale Center winning 84-11.

Hale Center is No. 1 in the state in their class, which is 2A.

Scoring for Farwell were: Sherilyn Thigpen, 7 points; Alma Nicolas and Sheila Smith with 2 each.

On Friday, the Farwell boys played Lockney, this time reversing the results of the previous game, winning 60-43.

According to Martin, "This time we played miserably in the first three quarters, then picked up and played well in the fourth quarter."

Farwell was behind seven points going into the fourth quarter, then scored 27 points to Lockney's 3, clinching the game for Farwell.

Scoring were Mark Cole, 18 points; Roger Robertson, 17; David, Woods, 15; Eric Williams, 4; Kevin Owen, Jesse Coburn and Jody Ketcherside each with 2.

The Farwell girls played Littlefield Friday, with Littlefield beating Farwell, 62-25.

Coach Larry Gregory said that the girls played much better in this game than they did against Hale Center. He said that Littlefield has a very good team and is picked to win district in their class.

Scoring for Farwell were Shonda Foster and Alma Nicolas with 5 points each; Sheila Smith and Sherilyn Thigpen, 4 each; Cheryl Stanton, 3; and Trena George and Dana White, 2 each.

Friday, the Farwell boys won their consolation trophy game over New Deal, 73-66.

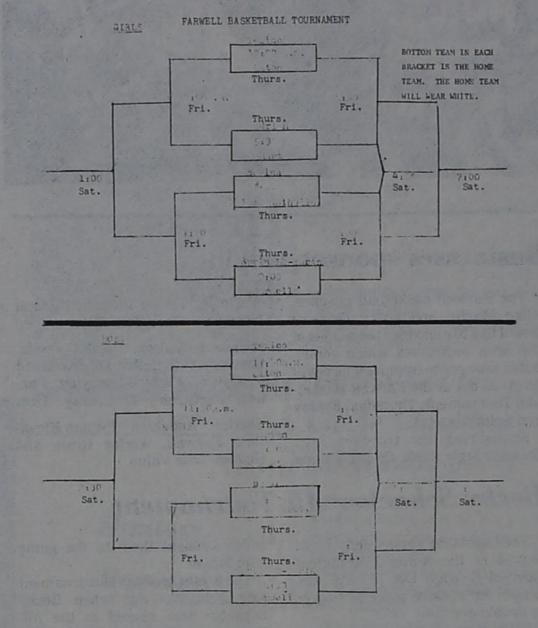

Coach Martin said that offensively, the boys played real well in this game, shooting 48% from the field, but not so well defensively.

The top scorer was Roger Robertson, who scored 18 points; Kevin Owen was next in line with 13; Jody Ketcherside, 12; Mark Cole, 11. Eric Williams, 8; David Woods, b; Jesse Coburn, 3, and Brian White, 2. The girls' last game was against Sundown, which Farwell just barely lost, 39-32. Gregory felt that the Farwell team could have won this game. The girls' shooting was at 44%, which was a great improvement. Gregory said, "The girls are still turning over the ball some. They've got to stop the turnovers."

Scoring for Farwell were: Sheila Smith, high scorer with 14 points; Shonda Foster, 6; Dana White, 4; Sherilyn Thigpen, 4; Alma Nicolas and Cheryl Stanton with 2 each.

Temple Baptist Church attempts new start

Four or five years ago, there was a Temple Baptist Church, but due to its small membership it closed.

Just recently, two families, along with visiting worshippers, started the church up again. They rented a building at 102 Ave. A in Farwell (it says Chancy's Swap Shop on the building until it gets a paint job) and are trying hard to make a new start. At the present time, the group is without a minister, so they are having Bible studies, and in the process, have had several children saved.

The Temple Baptist Church is a Fundamental Independent church. They have a different system for studying the Bible which they believe results in a more thorough Bible study than most other churches offer. They want to be what a Southern Baptist Church was 100 years ago. Their means of accomplishing this is "Back to the Bible," and "Back to God."

Donald Mason is serving as the Bible study teacher. His wife, Olene

Mason, teaches a class in flannel graph for children, but according to Mason, everyone benefits from this class.

Dwayne Williams is the director of music. His wife, Carolyn Williams, teaches a fast-moving Bible story in narrative.

This small group has even undertaken a mission program, now helping the International Jewish Mission, which is concentrating on helping Jewish people in New York City. According to Mason, religion started with the Jews, so they figure that's a good place for them to start helping. Also, he said that this particular program spreads their money around to a lot of different areas.

The church practices an open door policy, and welcomes anyone who is interested in their studies, and in helping to get the church started.

For more information, call Donald Mason at 481-9208 or Dwavne Williams at 481-9231.

Area students in Who's Who

Twenty-one students from this area have been included in the 18th annual edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1983-84.

Who's Who, published by Educational Communications, Inc., Lake Forest, Ill., is the largest high school recognition publication in the country. Students are selected by high school principals and guidance counselors, national youth groups, churches or by the publishing company based upon students' performance in scholarship award contests or extra-curricular activities.

Final selection is determined on the basis of criteria which include high achievement in academics and leadership in school activities, athletics or community service. Traditionally, 99% of Who's Who students have a grade point average of "B" or better and 97% are college bound.

The 18th edition of Who's Who, published in nine regional volumes, features 392,000 students, or 6% of the nation's 6,500,000 high school juniors and seniors. They represent 18,000 of the 22,000 public, private and parochial high schools in the country.

Who's Who students also compete for over $50,000 in scholarship awards and participate in the publication's annual opinion poll of teen attitudes. The book is distributed on a complimentary basis to over 15,000 high schools, colleges, universities, and public libraries throughout the country.

Local students selected for this year's volumes are:

From Farwell, Delia Bermea, Shelley Ford, Christina Pena, Sheran Smallwood, Mark Cole, Elaine Vaughan, Ray Galvan, Casey Riddle and Sharla Stewart.

From Texico, Elayne Horner, Kelly Luck, Danny L. Powell, Rachel Smith, Doug Thornton, Chary Jesko, Dana Morris, Sammy Sanchez and Karen Snodgrass.

The students from Bovina are Mark Englant, Tamie Nabors and Stephen McClaran.

Farwell fifth grade presents Christmas play

The fifth graders of Farwell Elementary presented their Christmas play, "Leon and the Christmas Starship," Dec. 7.

The play, written by Hal Leonard, is a musical, and the fifth graders did a good job of singing the songs.

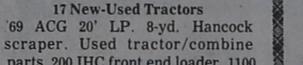

There were five starring characters in the play: Kermit, played by Steven Vidana; Candy, played by Becky Barnes; Joy, played by Amy Foster; Dot, portrayed by Misty Stewart; Scott, played by Chad Byrd, and Leon was played by Cody Monk. The rest of the fifth grade classes were the chorus.

Thanks were given to Mr. Craig's woodworking class for constructing the props; the class mothers, for the play. The children saw a bright light in the sky, and wondered if it was the Christmas star; but Kermit didn't think so. He had been bad, and wasn't expecting to receive any gifts; so he wasn't in much of a Christmas mood.

As it turns out, the "star" is an alien starship. Leon is the alien from the ship, and the children try to explain to Leon (who says his name os Noel, which is Leon spelled backwards) what Christmas is.

They go about telling Leon how Christmas is old-fashioned, but somehow, that explanation comes up short. Then they tell him that Christmas is happy. Well, that doesn't quite get it either. Finally, they decide that Christmas is Peace, Love and Joy. The children think that Leon's visit may be Kermit's Christmas gift, which is the best of all possible gifts -- Peace, Love and Joy -- they last all year long.

A chili lunch was provided by the Pleasant Hill Women's Club and members of the community Saturday as a fund-raiser for the new fire department. A large number of pheasant hunters turned out for the

Pleasant Hill pheasant hunt big success

The pheasant hunt sponsored by the Pleasant Hill Fire Department and the chili dinner sponsored by the Pleasant Hill Ladies Club were both huge successes, and they are looking forward to bigger and better hunts in the years to come. According to Richard Kelley, they heard no complaints from the hunters nor from the landowners who permitted the use of their land for the hunt.

As a result of the hunt, the new fire station is now three-quarters paid for. The Ladies Club made about $700 on food alone, which also went toward the fire station.

The department is going to meet with the game department, and try to stock about 2,000 pheasants around Oct. 1 next year, so the birds should be plentiful for next season's hunt.

Kelley said that everyone had a good time, but the birds were a little scarce this year.

Major Cawthon said, "All available DPS Troopers will be on patrol throughout the holiday period in an effort to reduce, both by their presence and actions, violations that could lead to accidents. But it is only through the help and cooperation of the motoring public by their self-

Major Cawthon stated, "Possibly the most prevalent accidents oc-curring this period will be the one car run-off-the-roadway type accident which is directly attributed to driver inattention and/or intoxication."

The Major suggested that adequate travel time be budgeted in holiday plans, stop frequently and rest, reduce speed for road conditions, and above all, don't mix alcohol and driving. If you drink at a party, let a sober friend drive you home.
