

COTTON HARVEST GAINS SPEED

Both Yield and Grade Better This Year Than Last, Believe Happy Ginners

What about last Thursday morning's frost—shall we call it a real freeze, or not? Some farmers tell us that it pretty well took care of their cotton, while others tell us that it wasn't cold enough to really nip it badly.

Most feed seems to be still going strong. There are varying reports from over our circulation area that seem to indicate that the frost was pretty spotted, and that it affected crops differently from one field to the next.

All in all, most farmers seem to think it will take a much more severe freeze to put a stop to growth so that combining and cotton stripping can get underway. The grain, of course, is far ahead of the cotton at the present time so far as the portion of it which has been harvested is concerned.

We would appreciate some advice on whether to consider Oct. 14 as our first freeze for the fall of 1954. We can't quite decide, ourselves.

Someone was kidding us the other day about the holes in the soles of our shoes. To us, that is the mark of an enterprising newspaperman, or one of them, at least.

Contrary to what some idle dreamers seem to believe, it is not the newspaperman's lot to spend all of his time in the office happily pecking away at a typewriter.

Neither does he spend many of his working hours under the wheel of an automobile. Most of these hours find this newspaperman out beating the streets drumming up news tips, warming up a businessman to an advertising promotion, or pepping up the paper's public relations department.

The time that is spent inside is no less active than that spent outside. In fact, we have probably burned more leather off our shoes hustling copy and instructions from the back shop to the editorial offices than many a weary army recruit has done in field training.

Another mark of a newsman that is really going somewhere, we think, is a cluttered desk. Since we are setting the standards by which newspapermen should be judged, we will pick this as an important criterion, for we certainly score highly in that respect.

It gives us a sense of accomplishment to look out over the vast expanse of our office desk and know that buried somewhere in that pile is just about anything that we might ever have need for.

If we need an idea for a good editorial, enough digging in the morass will surely uncover it. A sure-fire ad sale lies dormant in that jungle, also.

There are matches for the occasional cigar smokers that visit our office, a few toothpicks in good condition, band aids for any emergency, rubber bands of all sizes and colors, and of course the general assortment or corruption that piles into our post office box each day that somehow always manages to end up on our desk.

If we ever see a newspaperman with a clean desk, we will know that he is either a genius or a failure. A clean desk is supposed to convey the notion that everything is "caught up" and in good shape. This has never before been known to happen in a newspaper, and the first guy who does it will end up being one of the two creatures mentioned earlier in the paragraph.

The good wife, who will pass another birthday this Sunday, will be expecting us to comment on her youthfulness. We are planning to say that 25 years doesn't sound so bad, but when you think of it as a quarter of a century—well.

Who says that people have run out of ideas for making money? We have just spotted a genius on the road toward earning his first million, and he has our blessings and admiration.

This fellow is a total stranger to us—lives in New Jersey—but already we feel a strong bond of companionship. He is doing what we wish we had had the nerve—and intelligence—to have thought of doing long ago.

The guy's name is R. W. Hensch, who calls himself president of the Husbands Protective Association, dedicated to the emancipation of the American husband from the chains of his better half, especially if she is the kind who doesn't believe in letting him have any fun.

We received a membership prospectus through the mail last week. If any of you husbands are interested, here are a few quips selected at random from the literature they send out:

"Every single girl knows she's just got to have a husband. When the right man comes along, she goes all-out to let him know she thinks he is wise and wonderful. The guy is sure she means it. They become engaged and set the date. Then what happens?"

"As soon as the man says 'I do,'"

Millions of bolls of fluffy white cotton are going begging for pulling this week, and as yet the cotton harvest is only beginning.

For the vast majority of cotton farmers in Parmer County, the harvest this year will not begin in earnest until after a killing frost, or at least one hits that is much harder than that of last Thursday.

On this part of the High Plains, which is a relatively new area for cotton farming, housing and labor management has not kept pace with the rapid development of irrigation and mechanization of farms, and as a consequence, this is still a rather minor area for hand pulling methods.

Several gins in the county indicate that they plan to bring additional housing in before another season, which should result in spreading the harvest over a longer period of time than it now is taking.

Considering these factors, county ginners seem to feel that things are rolling along pretty well, however, and as The Tribune went to press Thursday morning, over 3000 bales had been ginned by the 10 gins of Parmer County.

Mills & Fleming Gin, near the Hub community, was leading ginning figures with 1049 turned out by Wednesday afternoon. Lawlis & Ely of Bovina had ginned 650, and Watkins of Lazbuddie 600.

Both grade and yield are considerably improved from last year, believe ginners, with Doyle Watkins of Lazbuddie exclaiming that this is the best quality cotton he has ever seen grown in this part of Texas.

Here's a spot check of the gins:

BLACK
Tri-County Gin

Mrs. Sam Patterson reported that they had just gotten started, and although there was a lot of cotton open, there were virtually no hand pullers available to bring in the earlier cotton.

She said that a number of farmers were hoping for a bale an acre in that area this year. Tri-County is one of several gins who plan to set up some migrant labor housing facilities before another harvest season.

FRIONA
L & H Gin

It was about the same story for L & H of Friona, and John Davis, manager, really get things rolling in that vicinity. The cotton that is coming in is yielding well, with most estimates running from 1 to 1½ bales, he says.

The grade is "pretty fair," according to Davis, who added that plans for boll puller housing are being made by the gin.

Legion Schedules Patriotic Program

The third annual patriotic program sponsored by members of the local American Legion post on November 11, will be scheduled this year announces Kirt Crume, commander. Emphasis will be placed on Veteran's Day, better known as Armistice Day.

The program will begin with a parade at The Furniture Mart in Texico at 1:45 in the afternoon and will feature the marching unit of the American Legion and three high school bands—Texico, Farwell and Bovina. The parade will terminate at Steer Stadium, where the conference football game between Bovina and Farwell will be played.

John Getz will present a short talk on Veteran's Day, preceding the game, which is to begin at 2:30 in the afternoon.

TO HAVE RUMMAGE SALE
Farwell juniors have scheduled a rummage sale in Littlefield Saturday afternoon as a money-making project. The students will be accompanied by their sponsors and possibly some mothers of the group.

More Workers Needed For X-Ray Saturday

More workers are needed to assist with registration and other duties, when the mobile tubercular unit is in town Saturday, says Mrs. J. T. Lockhart, who is in charge of arrangements.

The TB unit will be situated at the Furniture Mart, and will take free X-rays to determine the presence of lung disorders. The service will be available from 12 o'clock noon until seven in the evening.

Mrs. Lockhart urges that anyone who can assist with the program for an hour or more to please contact her this week. She also asks that local citizens take advantage of this service.

Two More Break-Ins During Past Week

Two more break-ins occurred in Parmer County during the past week, both of them in Friona, according to Sheriff Chas. Lovelace, who investigated the burglaries.

Over $250 in cash was stolen from the Friona Piggly Wiggly in the early morning hours Wednesday by thieves who broke a window in a back door of the store.

They broke into three cash registers near the front of the business.

During the same evening, the Elk Drive-In west of the city on Highway 60 was broken into, but nothing was taken in that entry, reports Sheriff Lovelace.

The concession stand of the Drive-In was broken into for the second time within a month, and there was evidence that they were "looking for money," believes Lovelace.

Lag Is Noticed in Use Of ACP Applications

As much as $25,000 may go begging for Parmer County farmers this year because of conservation practices that have not been carried out, a check with the Parmer County ASC office this week revealed.

Explaining that county farmers were appropriated $81,000 to use to help defray expenses on approved conservation practices, Joe Camp, ASC office manager, says that all of the funds have been "tied up" in applications, but only $31,000 used so far.

It is true that quite a bit of work is now underway and is scheduled for completion by the end of the year, he notes, but it is unlikely that more than half of the $50,000 still tied up will be taken care of.

Because of this situation, the office is making an appeal to farmers to turn back requests on which they now see that they will not be able to complete before the end of the year, in order that their money will be released for other practices.

Funds that are applied for but never used will be lost to county farmers at the year's end, emphasized Camp.

Camp stresses that to be eligible for ACP assistance in 1955 the Agricultural Act of 1954 provides that farmers must comply with all basic crop acreage allotments established for their farms.

The additional ACP funds, according to Camp, will be used to encourage farmers to carry out recommended conservation practices on the diverted acres. The fact that the Secretary of Agriculture has eliminated the "total allotment" requirement of the 1955 adjustment program and has removed the original restrictions on crop plantings on diverted acres does not effect the need for conserving these acres.

Specifications for practices for the 1955 ACP are now being prepared, including practices that will apply to land diverted from allotment crops.

POLITICS WAXES WARM

Politics really heated up the atmosphere at Farwell Schools this week, as the Fordocrats (seniors) campaigned against the Alphabetical Party (juniors) for the vote of the student body in electing a president and supporting officers for the year. In the upper picture, Troy Christian is lifted on the shoulders of his boosters. He is the juniors' nominee. In the lower picture are Don Gerie, James Roberts, Don Pool, and Glenn Lee, billed as "cheerleaders" of the senior class, who show their classy style to an appreciative political rally. They were boosting Doyle Ford for student body president. He was the winner, too.

Fordocrats Sweep Student Election

After one of the hottest political races in history, the Fordocrat party swept to a landslide victory in Farwell School student council elections this past week, placing all four of their candidates in office for the coming year.

The Fordocrats had named Doyle Ford as the candidate for president. Other candidates on the winning ticket were Windol Pike, vice-president; Carolyn Huffaker, secretary-treasurer; and Loretta Stancell, reporter. The winning party was made up of members of the senior class.

The Alphabetical party opposed the winning group, with four candidates from the junior class. They were Troy Christian, president; Truitt Hardage, vice-president; Elaine Magness, secretary-treasurer; and Bert Williams, reporter.

Platform of the Fordocrat party, which seemingly appealed to the student voters was to provide organized chow lines, to provide noon recreation and entertainment, to promote better understanding and respect between students and teachers, traffic safety around school, to provide first aid equipment in the high school building in easy access to teachers and students, and to generally promote a democratic and more organized student body and student council.

Improvements sought by the opposing party were: better library, better control of traffic in the halls, better recreation, more equipment in the athletic department, and more cooperation among the students to do the best for the benefit and future of the school.

Elections were conducted parallel to state and national elections to teach students the procedure of voting.

Steers Win Again Take Anton 43-0

Pressing toward what they hope will be a conference championship this year, the Farwell Steers Thursday night ran roughshod over Anton in a game played there, the score being 43-0.

It was the first conference victory for the Steers, and except for one loss to Eunice, N. M., they are unbeaten in non-conference play also.

As evidenced by the score, the Farwell backs had a field night, with four different boys getting in on the scoring honors. Versatile Doyle Ford led scoring with four touchdowns, and was followed by Gene Hardage, Jerry Poteet, and Don Gerie with one each.

Gerie collected six points by receiving a quick jump pass and covering 32 yards toward paydirt, and also added another point with a well aimed kick on a conversion attempt.

Poteet, right end, also scored on a pass play, receiving the aerial from Gene Hardage and being off for 54 yards. Ford scored his first TD on a keeper good for 30 yards, an off-tackle 10-yard smash, a pass interception for 35 yards, and a quarterback sneak for 10 yards.

Gene Hardage scored his touchdown on an off-tackle play from the 15.

Cited by Coach Smokey Cates as outstanding on defense were Troy Christian, James Norton, and Jerry Owens. Poteet and James Roberts were stalwarts in the Farwell line on offense, said Cates. Poteet and Norton smothered two passes that likely would have been scores against Farwell.

Turnout Exceptional For Grand Opening

Response to an invitation for the public to visit during an open house Saturday was reported to be "very good" by Guy Nickles of Nickles' Gin of Farwell this week.

An estimated 300 persons milled around the gin yard Saturday, watching the machinery as it turned out 30 bales of cotton to the delight of the visitors.

Refreshments were served the guests, and they were awarded a television set and 10 bales of free ginning as door prizes. John Holland of Farwell won the TV set.

To receive free ginning on one bale of cotton are A. J. Jones, Farwell; B. P. Davis, Clovis; Frank Gulle, Oklahoma Lane; C. M. Coffer, Farwell; Joe Blair, Farwell; G. L. Medley, Farwell; D. O. Rolland, Farwell; Bert Williams, Farwell; R. J. Renner, Lariat, and Glenn and Bunk Phillips, Farwell.

Many businesses sent flowers to the opening, and Nickles and his employees expressed their appreciation for the response to the event.

A Far Cry From Old Burr Burners

Modern gins are a far cry from the old burr burners of only a few years back, as this picture will illustrate. This is the interior of the Nickles' Gin in eastern Farwell which was opened last Saturday for public inspection. That's Guy Nickles standing by one of the stands. The interior of the gin is spotless and the machinery, all electrically powered, is finished in gleaming aluminum and burnished steel. One woman was heard to say she wishes her kitchen looked as neat.

of it stemming from the State Bar of Texas.

The argument, a most logical one, is that the 2-cent ad valorem tax now being paid into the treasury for pensions of confederate veterans and their families is piling up much faster than it can be used for the simple reason that most of the confederate veterans have died. In fact, there is only one left in the state, and only 400 widows. Meanwhile, the surplus continues to grow, as the beneficiaries become fewer in number each year and the state's revenue continues to climb.

It is proposed that this surplus be used to erect badly needed state buildings such as a state court building, a state office building, along with appropriate memorials of Texans who served as confederate soldiers and fought in the Texas war for independence.

This amendment would in no way affect the pensions of those now participating in the benefit program. It would merely put to use the more than $6,000,000 that will have accumulated by the end of this year.

The state is now spending $233,589 a year for rent because there simply is not enough room in the present buildings to house a tremendously expanded state government. So, the amendment would actually effect an indirect savings for taxpayers. We support it.

Next week, we will have brief reviews of the four others of the 11 amendments on which we shall all vote November 2.

NUMBER 1—Permitting the legislature to increase spending for old age assistance, aid to the blind, and aid to dependent children from $35,000,000 to $42,000,000 per year; and requiring that names of recipients be made available to the public.

Most of us agree that those needy persons on assistance programs of one sort or another have found their monthly checks lagging far behind the acceleration of higher costs of living, and most of us would gladly increase money available to these people.

Yet, we seriously question whether the first part of the proposed amendment under discussion would do the job. The maximum available to individuals will not be increased by the amendment. That is to say, the $7,000,000 increase proposed would likely help very few persons on the rolls—it would merely make it possible to admit more to them.

It is healthy for the country to have several agencies trying to do the same job at once, and that is the case in which our State Department of Public Welfare finds itself, as its purposes parallel those of the federal social security program in many instances.

The trend has been to transfer more and more people from state rolls to the federal rolls. It strikes us that the reverse would be the better, but the fact is that there is no advantage to be gained by enlarging two systems for one purpose. One system should retire from the field.

The amendment is not likely to increase benefits to those who now receive aid, and at the same time will add to the duplication already existing in the assistance field. Even though we favor the part of the amendment which would make names of recipients available to the public, we shall vote against the amendment.

NUMBER 3—Would authorize the legislature to make agreements between the state and federal governments to obtain federal social security coverage for "proprietary" employees of its political subdivisions.

This is a minor point, but it would remove an inequity that exists in some counties. Our county officials tell us that there are no "proprietary" employees in Parmer County, and that all employees are already participating in the Social Security program through a special agreement with the state and federal government.

NUMBER 4—To transfer surplus funds now accumulating in the confederate pension fund to the state building fund. We have received a great deal of literature on the above amendment, most

Over 100 Inquiries Into Loan Program

B. R. Boling, assistant to Walter Johnson, county FHA administrator, this week reported that there have been "one hundred or more" persons inquire about the new soil and water conservation loans that are being handled by the FHA.

However, most of the persons visiting the local office were merely seeking additional information on the program, as only three have made written application for loans under the new laws, says Boling.

Grain Sorghum Loans Picking Up Steadily

Loans being made for grain sorghum in government storage were picking up steadily at the county ASC office, this week, reflecting continued good weather for the maturing and drying out of fields in the county.

Manager Joe Camp reported that 203 loans had been made by Tuesday afternoon of this week, with Monday being the biggest day of the year registering 35.

by Smokey & Fred BRAKES NEED ATTENTION

One of the most important parts of your car so far as safety is concerned is your ability to bring your automobile to a quick and controlled stop.

Today, all automobiles are equipped with modern hydraulic braking systems, and some of them are actuated by power. Brakes of the automobile today are a far cry from those of even 15 years ago, but they still need frequent attention.

You should be especially quick to get attention for your car from a competent mechanic if you notice that the car swerves to the right or left when the brakes are applied.

Also, in the case of a person who drives a car each day, it is often not noticeable to what extent his brake pedal is lowering toward the floor through usage. Keep those brakes in proper adjustment—your life and the lives of others depend on it.

We have the complete facilities for caring for this or any other part of your car. Come in for frequent safety checks.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

MR. AND MRS. W. F. MARKHAM

Reception Honors Couple Sunday

Four people who attended the wedding of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Markham 50 years ago, were here Sunday to help the couple celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary.

They were three sisters of Mrs. Markham: Mrs. Ovie Barrington of Ontario, Calif.; Mrs. Angie Mullino of Haskell; Mrs. Susie Sloan of Spur; and a nephew of Mrs. Markham, Foy Vernon of Spur.

Rev. and Mrs. Markham were honored with an open house at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McManigal, Sunday afternoon.

A lace cloth over gold taffeta covered the serving table which was centered with a large gold upright wedding ring encircling the letters "50". At the base of the ring were golden wedding bells tied with sparkling ribbon of a matching hue. From this arrangement, five streamers extended to individual crystal holders of roses, arranged in a half circle. Flanking the setting were gold candles in crystal double holders to emphasize the chosen theme of gold and crystal. Tableware was dierlyte, further enhancing the gold theme. Napkins were gold and white.

The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with the numerals "50" and was served by Mrs. Jack McCrary of Lubbock from a glass basket, which was used at the wedding reception of the couple. Also served were gold mints, nuts and pineapple punch. Presiding at the serving table were Mesdames Clyde Magness, Lenton Pool and Edd Hardage. Mrs. McManigal registered the guests.

All flowers were used throughout the house and gold doilies adorned all tables in the home. The honoree wore a corsage of mums and Rev. Markham had a matching boutonniere.

The Markhams were married at Rule, Texas at her home. The wedding was followed by a reception with many relatives and friends attending the service.

The couple had met while in school, and became engaged when she was only 14. But they weren't married until five years later when she was 19 and he was 23. When he went calling on his lady friend, he rode horseback 15 miles each way. But if they were going to a party or special entertainment, Rev. Markham would go to the lively stable and rent a buggy.

After their marriage, the Markhams remained at the home of her parents for a year, and he assisted his father-in-law with farming. They moved to Spur in 1910, then he surrendered to the ministry in 1916 and they moved to Abilene where he enrolled in Simmons College. He completed his work there in 1923 and has been in pastoral work since. The couple moved to Farwell eight years ago.

Although Rev. Markham is not now a pastor, he says "I still preach when I can—I may be too old, but I like to." Asked about the good old days, they relate that there are many pleasant memories, "but these days are even better."

Mrs. McManigal is the only child of the Markhams and their only grandson is Mike McManigal. Signing the guest register Sunday were the sisters of Mrs. Markham; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda Vernon of Ontario, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Herren and Jan, Has-

A LITTLE RAIN OR TWO ALWAYS HELPS BUSINESS

In the auction business, just as in most others, a little rain will go a long way toward pepping things up. This week, after the good rains we have had, is the time to start thinking about that sale of yours.

The wheat looks good, pastures are snapping out of it, and folks are feeling a lot better about buying. What about YOU? Would this be the ideal time for your sale? Call on us at any time.

Miss Jo Ann Williams has a specialty recipe too—a salad that is a meal in itself. She rarely serves it alone because she likes to cook too well—with the salad as a side dish. It makes a very attractive arrangement and is also especially good. We have eaten it.

- Salad
- 1 head lettuce (preferably romaine), cut lengthwise.
 - Carrot (cut in thin slices and place in cold water, to make carrot curls)
 - Radishes (split on each edge and also place in cold water to make radish roses)
 - Small green onions (cut in small thin slices)
 - 1 pod garlic in minute pieces
 - 4 small sweet pickles, cut thin

- 2 tablespoons purple cabbage shreds
- 1 sweet pepper (cut half into small slices, and save half for top of salad)
- Green and ripe olives (handfull)
- 8 small strips of sharp cheese
- 8 small strips of boiled ham
- 6 small green hot peppers
- 1 tomato cut in 1/8 wedges
- 2 boiled eggs, diced
- 2 stalks celery, cut into small pieces

- DRESSING
- 1/2 cup olive oil
 - 2 tablespoons wine vinegar to taste
 - celery, salt
 - garlic salt
 - sesame seeds
 - salt, pepper, paprika
 - 1/2 tsp. Roquefort cheese
- Shake well, put over salad, mix lightly with two forks. Over top arrange a tomato sliced in eighths, three pepper rings with radish rose in center of each, few ripe olives, ham and cheese slices, and anchovies.

- Serve with garlic bread.
- GARLIC BREAD
- Slice French bread loaves thick, about an inch, brush lightly with olive oil and spread with butter. Place three small chips of garlic between each slice, cover with Parmesan cheese and toast.

Mrs. W. N. Foster had settled down to the job of writing to her daughter and family Monday, and was interrupted by the ringing of the telephone.

So she left her letter and lifted the receiver to hear the voice of Loyd Cain at the depot, telling her that an elderly lady had just alighted from the train, and wanted to see Mrs. Foster. "I was so surprised and thrilled and happy," exclaimed Mrs. Foster, "why, I had no idea she was coming."

The visitor was her mother, Mrs. Jennie Churchwell of Hillsboro, who is to remain here a month with her daughter and family.

We failed to ask Mrs. Foster if she completed that letter.

Uncle Tom Randol is home after spending the past weeks as a guest of his grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson of Roswell. He was there during the flood and remarks "I was on high ground, but I never saw so much water in my life. I'm sure glad to be home, but I did have a nice visit."

The Johnsons returned Uncle Tom home and visited with the Russell Johnsons, over the weekend. While away, Uncle Tom also visited briefly with the Arthur Massey, Bob Maddox and Lawrence Ham families.

Mrs. Jack McManigal had planned to wear her mother's wedding "waist" at the Golden Wedding anniversary celebration of her parents, the W. F. Markhams, Sunday.

"But I changed my mind in a hurry," says Mrs. McManigal "when I took a look at the 18-inch waist-line on the garment."

Mrs. Glen Phillips was quite surprised when she sent her husband to town for a large piggy bank this week. Their son, Craig, was to play the part of "Tom, Tom The Piper's Son" in the Tom Thumb wedding and he was to carry a pig to illustrate the nursery rhyme. Glen came home with a pig all right, but it was a live one—and was one of the highlights of the program Tuesday night.

Attendance Good For Novel Wedding

The Tom Thumb wedding sponsored by members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha and presented at the Farwell auditorium Tuesday night, was quite successful, with about $200 in proceeds.

Children of the community were cast in the production, and the bride and bridegroom were portrayed by Jimmy Mace and Deborah Hargrove. Mike Booth served as commentator for the show. Darlene Hromas was pianist for the wedding and Mrs. Shelby Jobs and Miss Pat Morgan were accompanists.

A garden setting formed the background for the program and guests for the wedding were nursery rhyme characters wearing original costumes designed by their mothers.

Members of the immediate wedding party were Bill Roth, minister; Jimmy Goolsby, best man; Linda Hudson, maid of honor; Steve Foster, Dale Gober, Mike Watkins, Terry Neice, David Meeks and Larry Fought, ushers; Sandra Rundell, Phyllis Christian, Mikala Austin, Marilyn Doshier, Marlene and Darlene Bell, bridesmaids; James Symcox and Keith Crooks, ring bearers; and Marsha Lovelace and Debbie Doolittle, flower girls. Danny Huffaker played the part of father of the bride. Vocalists for the wedding were Cathy White and Peggy Martin and Melody Coffman pantomimed a number sung backstage by Mrs. W. H. Graham.

Assuming the roles of family members who were guests at the wedding were grandparents of the bride, Wanda Eshleman and Alan Busbice; grandparents of the groom, Julie Routon and Byron Brewer; parents of the groom, Carl G. Davis and Linda Phillips; and mother of the bride, Wanda Morgan. Minister's wife was played by Janice Lee.

Dignitaries were also portrayed: Ike and Mamie, David Chappell and Linda Smart; king and queen, Jeanne Blair and Mike Camp; governors, Mark Hopkins and Mike Spearman; movie queen and friend, Donna Gail Spurlin and Jimmy Armstrong; mayors, Bob Scott Martin and David Anderson.

Other guests were led by Old Mother Goose played by Carol Brock. Attending were Little Boy Blue, Richard Haseloff; Little Red Riding Hood, Candy Meeks; Little Nancy Eddicote, Janie Watkins; Little Jack Hornor, Greg Martin; Peter, Peter Pumpkin Eater, Kyle Sheets;

Little Bo Peep, Pamela Roberts; Little Miss Muffet, Gyla Cohee; Mary, Mary Quite Contrary, Mary Coffey; Mary Had A Little Lamb, Susan Patrick; Jack and Jill, Jimmy Morton and Judy Gast; Humpty-Dumpty, Steve Milford; Jack Be Nimble, Scotty Rundell; Tom Tom the Piper's Son, Craig Phillips;

Little Betty Blue, Teresa Quickel; Ride A Cock Horse, Milton Lee Walling; Twinkle Little Star, Sharon Williams; Clown, Gary Doshier; Old Woman who lived in a shoe and her children, Vicki Kaltwasser, Vicki Blain, Cheryl Kaltwasser, Mark Williams and Randy Crook; and clown, Danny Gulley.

Texico Teams To Enter County Softball Play

Texico softball teams are getting ready for the county tournament to be held this weekend in Clovis.

The local girls play Grady at 2:30 Thursday afternoon, in their first game of the tournament. Winner will then meet the top team of the House-Melrose encounter at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Championship game is set for 1:30 Saturday.

The Texico boys will play Ranchvale at 4:30 Friday afternoon; if they should win, will meet the winner of the Rosedale-Grady match Saturday at 12 o'clock. Championship game is at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The above time is CST time.

Visit Mrs. Lovelace

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lovelace of Vernon and Mrs. Alton Hoke and daughter, Kathy, were here over the weekend, as guests of Mrs. Willie Lovelace.

Bill Richardson of Roswell was here over the weekend to visit the home of his parents-in-law, the Blacks. His wife has been a guest of her parents here.

HOPPERS—

The situation begins to deteriorate. He isn't wonderful any more. Somehow he isn't as wise as he used to be. In no time at all, she is telling him what to do, how to do it and then giving him heck for doing it right. And she keeps right on doing it. And that isn't all.

"He works hard to pay for all the things she wants and when she squanders the dough on something foolish, he's suppose to say he likes it, otherwise he is a brute. He must always pass out the compliments and show his appreciation, but compliments he doesn't get and appreciate he is not."

"The Husbands Protective Association understands the plight of the married man and attempts to make the going for him a bit easier. To help him bear up, the Husbands Protective Association publishes the Husbands Home Journal (not to be confused with the Ladies Home Journal.)"

They sent us a copy of Husbands Home Journal, a magazine with some daringly different attitudes on the position that the American Male is entitled to. "Washing dishes is not for us," they say, adding that "There's nothing like a dish towel for wiping that contented look off a married man's face."

A very interesting article is devoted to "How To Get Along with the Little Woman." The basic tenet of the article is that a man would be wise to always let his wife have her way on the small things—but refuse to budge on the big ones. A risky attitude, we are afraid.

The one that really kills us is their report on "alibology—the term created by the Journal to identify our science dealing with the creation and presentation of credible stories to be used by husbands in explaining unauthorized absences."

The technicality of this study seems to have advanced to a rather fool-proof state, if the experts from the Journal are any indication. We plan to study this matter further at our leisure. There may be something really worthwhile in it.

However, we would rather see some of these daring approaches tried out by somebody else first—not us, please.

POPPIN' OFF... WITH POP

The Scot is frequently the goat when jokes are on tap, but not always. Listen to this:

In an English political oration: "I was born an Englishman, I have lived an Englishman, I hope I shall die an Englishman." From the back of the hall in an unmistakable accent, came the question,

"Mon, hae ye no ambection?" Back from his day's work, father asked of his children whether they had been good.

"Oh yes," said his little daughter, "I washed up the lunch dishes."

"And I wiped them dry," added his small son.

Turning to the youngest of the trio, he asked, "And what did you do, Margaret?"

In high glee she reported, "I picked up the pieces."

Folks, in thinking of the high prices of most everything today, have you ever stopped to think what a great buy gasoline still is? Yes sir, quality has gone way up, and prices are still within the reach of just about everybody.

Report Given On Recent Polio Drive

L. S. Pool, Lee Thompson, B. N. Graham, Sterlyn Billington and Loyde Brewer met recently to attend to business of the county polio committee.

They paid expenses of the recent emergency polio fund drive, and out of the proceeds of the drive, sent $175.51 to the National Polio Prevention Fund; $175.50 to the National Foundation; and an equal amount remained in the local chapter. The committee then decided to send a $500 contribution to the national foundation as emergency aid in the present fight against polio.

Brewer informs county residents that in the past years, the county foundation has drawn about $2500 aid from the national foundation, during county emergencies. "Although, we are not asked to pay it back, we feel that our help is needed there now," he says. Last summer, the local chapter sent $1000 to national to aid in research on polio.

Successful Hunters Come Back with Deer

Eleven hunters returned to Farwell Tuesday, bringing with them eleven deer. Each man in the party bagged a deer, but Alvin Mace was the top man, getting an 18-pointer.

The hunters left last Wednesday for Carbon Dale, Colo. They reported they ran into a snow storm on the trip there and had to turn around and go back forty miles and take another route. After arriving at Carbon Dale, they found the weather quite warm and some of the men returned home at night to avoid spoilage of the deer.

Men making the trip were Melvin Snider, Melvin Snider Jr., Buddy Jones, G. D. Anderson, Alvin Mace, Elmer Kennedy, John Aldridge, LeRoy Faville, Bill Sherry of Lazbuddie, C. B. Barger of Ft. Worth and Ike Gober.

Whitharral Visits Steers Friday Night

A heavier-than-usual club from Whitharral will visit the Farwell Steers this weekend for a Friday night conference football game. It will be the second game of the year (conference) for the Steers.

The Whitharral team, which runs a wing-T formation is defending conference champion this year.

The visitors have won two, lost three games this season, according to Farwell Coach Smokey Cates. He says their line will average 155, their backfield 145.

Mrs. Bess Mansfield left Wednesday for Tyler, Texas to visit her mother who is very ill.

HARVEST—

Way Wright Williams summed up the harvest situation at North Plains. He said that 70 hands were being housed there, and that they had been pulling for about two weeks.

Still, by Wednesday, 316 bales had been ginned, even if the figure was slower than the same time last year. "We could use 300 pullers if we could get them," he said.

Williams said Hardy May pulled 21 bales off of 23 acres the first time over on the Elmer Euler place east of Friona, and J. L. Stowers of the same area was getting a similar yield.

Mills & Fleming, Hub South toward Hub, Mills & Fleming was already on a 24-hour shift, with cotton coming in Wednesday at a slightly faster rate than it could be ginned out. They had 40 on the yard at that time, having received 156 bales Tuesday.

Mills & Fleming is "way ahead of last year" even though they estimated that the rain of two weeks ago knocked them out of about 300 bales.

Grade is reported better than last year, about 80 percent making strict middling. They too, are short on pullers, short on housing, with a crew of about 20 on hand now.

Mills & Fleming brought a large amount of cotton and dumped it on the ground last year rather than see it leave the country to be ginned. They reported that they hope they don't have to do it again, but that it will depend upon further developments.

Charlie Barton of the Parmer County Gin at the "crossroads" west of Lazbuddie could not be reached by telephone, and there is no report from that sector.

LAZBUDDIE

Watkins' Gin
Doyle Watkins reported good yields from the Lazbuddie area, one of the older cotton-growing parts of the county, and estimated that the frost of last week helped cotton toward maturity. They are using one crew on a 16-hour-per day basis.

LARIAT

Nickles' Gin
A total of 450 bales had been ginned on Wednesday of this week at Nickles' Gin in Lariat, which represents a drop in ginning compared with this time last year.

Good grades and turn-outs are reported at that gin, and also they say they are still having "quite a few calls for boll pullers."

FARWELL

Farwell Gin
Arnold Reed, manager, reports that things have not really gotten started in this area as yet, and that it will take a killing freeze before the strippers can get out into the field and really start the harvest moving.

Nickles' Gin

Guy Nickles reported that they had ginned 69 bales up until this morning (Thursday), and like other ginner, said the slowness of the harvest was a result of being "way short on pullers." He plans to add housing next year.

Asked about the yields for 1954, Nickles said he would estimate that most will beat a bale to the acre in this area, adding that "A lot will make close to a bale and a half, and quite a bit more about a bale and a quarter."

Homecoming Is Slated For Next Friday

A homecoming for Friona Schools, which will be sponsored by the Pep Club and Student Faculty Congress, was announced this week for next Friday, Oct. 29. Several events have been scheduled to make the day an outstanding event for the school, and the highlight probably will be the football game that evening between the Chiefs and the Dimmitt Bobcats. It will be "color day" for Friona Schools, and students who fail to show up wearing red and white clothes will be sentenced to wearing a Bobcat emblem, a mascot of the Dimmitt team.

Early that afternoon, a special assembly will be held for the purpose of revealing the football queen of the school. She and her attendants, who will be selected by the Friona football players, will be recognized and the queen will be crowned.

Then, a parade will pass through downtown Friona and the public is invited to come out and participate in the fun-making. All floats in the parade will be from classes and organizations of the school.

To have floats will be the Thespians, 4-H classes, the pep club, the Student Faculty Congress, and FFA and FHA organizations. In addition, there will be a float for the queen and one for the football boys.

This will be the first time the band and pep club have had a chance to show off their new uniforms in a parade.

That evening at halftime of the game between Friona and Dimmitt, the queen will be crowned by the football boys, and all ex-football players of the school who can be on hand will be recognized.

The day's activities will wind up with a party for the entire high school after the game.

"Tiny Tots to Teens"
Friona, Texas

in & around FRIONA with the gang

Of interest to residents in and around Friona is the candidacy of Louie Welch for the office of Mayor of the City of Houston. Louie is the son of Mrs. Nora Welch of this city, and will be remembered by many local residents.

To be elected as mayor of the largest city in the South would be quite a feat for an amateur politician, as Louie claims to be. He is in the race with two other opponents, however, and it is not known at this time what will be the outcome of the contest.

Mrs. Welch showed us the front page of The Houston Press, one of the city's three major dailies, which was supporting his candidacy. They devoted the top one-third of the front page to an editorial supporting Louie, and it would appear that the young man must certainly have some strong backers to earn that kind of play.

Among others, the editorial told of an episode in the life of the Welches:

"The Welches a few months ago became parents of their fourth child—their first girl.

"Because the baby would make it necessary for Mrs. Welch to get around so much, taking the baby to the doctor for checkups and that sort of thing, Louie bought his second automobile.

"The family was laughing about a two-car family. One of the 12-year-old twins spoke up wistfully and said:

"Dad, Mom told us that all you had was a bicycle when we were born.

"And again we think this comes closer to being the pattern of the typical business man than some of the more spectacular financial manipulators do. It's the sort of thing that would appeal to a good Houstonian—worth 10 million or 10 cents."

The Welches have two small auto stores in the big city, but Louie seems to spend a good deal of his time dabbling in politics. He has served two years on the city council.

Parents, relatives, and close friends of boys in the armed services who are serving overseas are urged this week to get their Christmas packages off before the deadline of Nov. 14.

The earlier the better, it seems. Christmas-time is one time for sure that the boys in foreign lands don't want to be forgotten.

Mrs. Fred Barker, who lives east of town near the Lakview community, is writing up the news for those folks out there. She started only last week. We hope to have a regular mailing from the Lakeview area, as some of the most active farm folks we know of live around those parts.

When the editor and his family took the papers to Friona Thursday, they had a minor setback, but all clouds seem to have their silver linings.

But first, we might reconstruct the incident. In the past few weeks when we have been so terribly swamped with work, the papers have been barely getting to the post office. Last week, the boss

Junior Red Cross Drive Is Successful; Friona Outstanding

Rev. J. L. Knight, Congregational pastor in Friona, who is in charge of the Parmer County Junior Red Cross Drive this year, reported this week that the drive was going over "pretty good," and that he expected it to be more successful than last year's.

Rev. Knight, who also headed the campaign in 1953, this week gave final reports for several groups, the Friona contribution being outstanding for the county:

Friona grade school, $38.40; Friona high school, $10; Lazbuddie grade school, $9.46; Lazbuddie high school, $6.03; Farwell grade school, $8.50.

A report from the Bovina School was expected by Monday of next week.

Metal Red Cross lapel buttons were handed out to grade school youngsters who participated in the drive, and membership cards were given to high school students who contributed.

Lions Members Hear Booster Talk

Members of the Friona Lions Club heard Boss Granville McFarland give a talk on ways of advertising Lionism, at their meeting Thursday evening.

It was pointed out that the Friona club is near the bottom of the list in attendance in its district, the average running about 35 percent each meeting.

There will be a zone meeting in Dimmitt Nov. 9. Charles Allen is the Friona zone chairman.

had a flat in Bovina, in the city limits fortunately, and was able to make it to Friona just before the post office closed.

So this week, we got started a little earlier. We managed to get the papers in the post office and other deliveries made, then stopped by LuNora's briefly. Sure enough, when we returned to the car, we had a flat. But there was the "cloud". We hadn't picked up our repaired tire before leaving for Friona—the flat we had had a week before. So there we were, stranded, Ronny was hungry, and no spare.

We called the service station and there is where the "silver lining" was noted. Mrs. Welch, who was sympathetic with our plight, offered us her car to take Ronny to get something to eat. By the time we got back, we could proceed home.

It was a generous gesture, and we appreciated the hospitality shown us. It was cold that evening, and Mrs. Welch's car kept peace in the family. Wonder what will happen if we ever have a flat outside the city limits.

Friona Methodists Have Homecoming

The Methodist Church was officially organized in Friona on the third day of November, 1914. The present congregation will celebrate their fortieth anniversary on Oct. 31 with a homecoming. Invitations have been sent to former members, pastors and district superintendents.

Special services will be held at the church. Rev. DeWitt Seago, who was pastor of the Friona Church when the present sanctuary was begun, and is now pastor of the Forrest Heights Methodist Church in Lubbock, will preach the homecoming sermon at 11:00 a. m. Rev. Lester L. Hill, who was pastor at Friona during World War II and went from his pastorate to serve as a Chaplain in U. S. Army, and is now pastor of the First Methodist Church in Canyon, will speak at 7:30 p. m.

A basket dinner will be served at the school cafeteria at noon. In the afternoon, beginning at 2:30, there will be an informal meeting at the church. The Hammond organ which was presented to the church last Christmas by Mr. and Mrs. P. L. London and children will be dedicated. Following the dedication of the organ there will be special music, group singing, and the introduction of former members, pastors, district superintendents, and visitors.

Rev. W. M. Pierce organized the church, and was its first pastor. It was then a part of the Bovina Circuit. There were nine charter members: J. T. Berry, Mrs. J. T. (Elizabeth) Berry, Miss Irene Berry, Miss Louise Berry, A. J. James, Mrs. A. J. James, Mrs. Fern Taylor, Mrs. Gertrude Sherrill, and W. H. Safford. For a number of years the congregation worshipped in an empty store building on main street, and in 1922 moved their meeting place to the school house. In 1924, during the pastorate of Rev. I. E. Walker, the old adobe church was built, and is still in use as a fellowship hall. Several years later the basement was built, and in 1945, the present sanctuary was completed during the pastorate of Rev. C. C. Hardaway.

Pastors who have served the Friona Methodist Church are: Rev. W. M. Pierce, Rev. Z. R. Fee, Rev. B. Y. Dickinson, Rev. Preston Florence, Rev. I. E. Walker, Rev. W. B. Gilliam, Rev. Carter C. Porter, Rev. DeWitt Van Pelt, Rev. O. B. Annis, Rev. H. L. Thurston, Rev. C. Reginald Hardy, Rev. Lester L. Hill, Rev. J. W. Price, Rev. Edgar A. Irvine, Rev. David Binkley, Rev. DeWitt Seago, Rev. C. C. Hardaway, Rev. James E. Tidwell, and the present pastor, Rev. Ural S. Sherrill.

According to Rev. Sherrill, the public is cordially invited to attend and enjoy the worship and fellowship of the day.

Mrs. J. T. Gee's Sunday School class will serve a buffet supper at the Methodist annex the night of the homecoming.

They have been beaten by both Amherst and Dimmitt. The chances for the Chiefs to break into the win column are not helped, however, by reports from the Friona athletic department.

Coach Raymond Cook says it is "very doubtful" that either Jerry Houlette and Joe Allen will be able to start for the game this week. Both are suffering pulled back muscles.

Scoutin' Around FRIONA SCHOOLS

WITH PATSY ANTHONY AND GLADYS BAXTER

A pep rally was held the last period Friday in front of school. Students formed a circle with the seniors and sophomores on one side, and the juniors and freshmen on the other. Each group tried to "out-yell" the other. If you see an FHS student going around, yelling, you'll know he is just keeping in practice for the next pep rally.

The pep club had a Coke party after school Wednesday. Games were played on the lawn in front of the school and plans were made for the Amherst and homecoming games. Lollipop with "Lick Amherst" written on them, were given out Thursday and Friday.

Committees were appointed for the homecoming preparation. Committee to plan assembly is Patsy Anthony, chairman; Joyce Hadley, Billie Ray McKee, Phyllis Hinds, and Maldean Stowers.

On color day, anyone not wearing red and white will have to wear the emblem of the opponents, Dimmitt. On this committee are Alice Palmateer, chairman; Ina Jo Brooks, Juanita Fulks, Betty Dukes, Floyce Balduin, Naomi Gardner.

Pep Club float committee: Ina Jo Brooks, chairman; Alice Fay Palmateer, Kathryn Dunn, Barbara Deaton, Phyllis Fairchild.

Some of the FHA officers went to Lazbuddie Monday for formal initiation and installation of officers. Mrs. J. T. Gee and Mrs. G. B. Buske went with the girls.

An FHA meeting is planned Thursday, Oct. 21, at 10:45 in the study hall for FHA week which is October 31 to November 6.

FFA initiation was Monday night. A slave auction was held Friday afternoon. Starting price was not less than 25c and the highest bid was $11.30 for Allen Neff, Wesley Barnett and Phillip Weatherly. Competitors were Burr Blake and Burkie Hand. Judge Barker and Donald Petty held the auction. Funds will go into the Friona FFA chapter.

Each greenhand wore a sale tag, and only FFA members could buy a greenhand.

Monday, each slave dressed as his purchaser wished and was a slave on Monday and Tuesday.

The initiation Monday night ended with a scavenger hunt. Refreshments of cookies and hot chocolate were served to 27 freshman boys and all other upper classmen. Greenhands initiated were: Leonard Burnett, Darrell Buske, Jerry Darby, Randy Dickson, Bryant Dukes, Larry Fair-

The Friona High band awaits new uniforms. Some of the shoes have already arrived. The band played at the pep rally Friday afternoon. They went to the Friona and Amherst game, played a few numbers and performed.

There will either be smiling or unhappy faces this week because the report cards will be sent.

SFC presented a program on school spirit. October 12, a few high school students presented a short skit.

Scene was in a student's home for a studying session. They got an idea that Friona High School needed some school spirit. One student thought the idea was silly but the rest convinced him.

Those in the skit were Mickey Ready, Weldon Fairchild, Jerry Chiles, Deann Buske, Betty Agee, Doris McFarland, Don Lewis, Jerry Houlette, and Harold Taylor. Gordon Wright was master of ceremonies. Raymond Cook, football

"WHY WE ARE GIVING TO THE BUILDING FUND OF THE PARMER COUNTY COMMUNITY HOSPITAL"

This is a picture of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. "Walt" Mabry and two of their eight children. The boy is Randy, 2; the girl, Belinda Ann, 4. Other children include Laverne, 11; Larry, 10; Doyle, 7; Joe, 6; Jerry, 1; and Terry, 8 weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Mabry moved to the Hub community in February of 1948 from Frederick, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mabry, who live near the Hub community in central Parmer County, are the parents of a family who are especially interested in seeing a new building erected for the Parmer County Community Hospital.

It was in the present building that the youngest three of the Mabry's eight children were born, and the parents are keenly aware of the fact that had it not been for the hospital as it now exists, there would be no Randy, their 2-year-old son.

Randy, the picture of health today, owes his life to the untiring work of the staff of the Parmer County Community Hospital, assert Mr. and Mrs. Mabry. He was born a victim of typhoid meningitis. When only one month of age in June of 1952, Randy was rushed to the Hospital by his parents late one night when he appeared to be ill. His condition was diagnosed and treatment began immediately.

"I'll never forget how the doctors and nurses of that hospital went to work for us," says Mrs. Mabry. "They called out the whole staff in order to save our boy's life," added her husband. The couple feel that without the untiring effort of the hospital staff which attended the sick youngster for nine days, Randy would never have made it.

"Dr. Paul (Spring) was so wonderful to us," says Mrs. Mabry. "He told us that it didn't make any difference what day it was or what time it was—whenever we needed help to be sure to come get it."

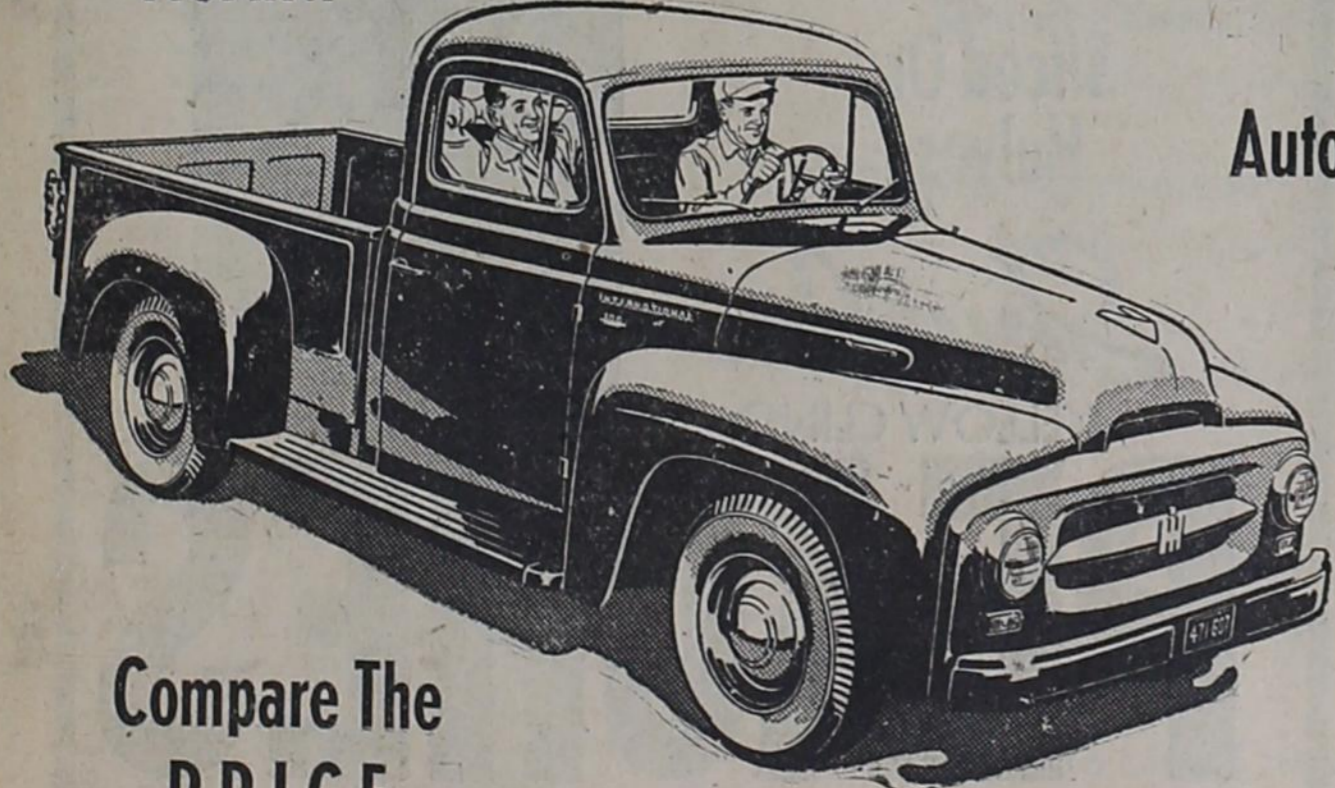

The Mabrys can be especially appreciative of the value of having a hospital because of this one experience, but they feel that there are many other reasons why people should support the drive to construct a new building.

They maintain that no person can ever know when it will be necessary to go to the hospital in case of an emergency, and that it is only right that the hospital be adequately prepared to receive them. Except for crowded conditions, the Parmer County Community Hospital is always ready to receive them, regardless of financial ability or any other factor.

The Parmer County Community Hospital is now providing the very best in medical care. It is competently staffed, and adequately equipped. It lacks only additional room—room to serve a rapidly growing territory.

Mr. and Mrs. Mabry are aware of the problems facing the Hospital, and they are among the many families all over the county who know that this needed building MUST be built. And with people like them, it WILL be built. Remember, friends, this hospital is here to serve YOU. You never know when you may need it, but it is always ready, just the same. It needs YOUR help now. The drive to raise $50,000 in cash to start the new building is beginning anew. Make YOUR investment in YOUR hospital. It is needed NOW.

PLEASE NOTICE

Ministers and Others Interested in Church Activity:

The Church Calendar, which usually runs in this column next to the regular monthly church feature on this page, is being omitted from publication this week.

The reason is because so many churches are changing the times of meetings at this particular time of the year. We would like very much to present a brand new and up-to-date calendar next month.

So, will you please cooperate in sending in to The Tribune the names and pastors or ministers of all the churches in the Texico-Farwell, Parmer County area, together with a complete listing of the times of each regularly scheduled service.

We then will provide this as a public service made possible through the generosity of the businesses listed in the lower portion of the church feature.

Thank you very much.

An Aquarium WORLD

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Williams Newspaper Features P. O. Box 231, Ft. Worth, Tex.

It's a little world for these fish caged in an aquarium. The oceans and the seven seas may seem prisons enough. But when their home is reduced to a small pittance of the space God made, then that is very different. Of course, they give passing visitors a bit of pleasure. They sport their gleaming fins and put on "big fish shows," but they are imprisoned. They are homeless and ill at ease.

Are you and I like the caged fish? Are we confined to small man-made prisons? Do we serve the Almighty in the great world He made? Or do we live only for what we eat? How many people are affected by what we say or do? Are we examples for better citizenship in this world and the world to which we are going? Have we ever suggested the eternal, the abiding... do we love humanity enough?

We are rich in the relationships of human living but many are blind to the goodness of God. We live day after day without offering one thankful prayer for the bounties He gave. Many of us have chosen an aquarium world to live in. Like the fish, we live for what we eat. God is long-suffering, but He expects us to attend His church and help bring His Kingdom in. Will you be a worker?

Bovina Beats Plains In Conference Tiff

The Bovina Mustangs rolled to a 13-0 lead at half-time Friday night over the visiting team from Plains, and iced the game down in the third quarter for a 25-14 conference win.

This was the first conference game of the Mustangs, who along with Farwell are rated at the top of the heap in their circuit. Bovina is scheduled for a well-earned rest next week, according to their schedule.

The first score for the hosts was set up on a 74-yard pass-and-run play featuring Neil Smith who tossed to Erith Hawkins. Two plays later, Don Barron rammed over from the 2. There was no extra point made.

Dame Fortune smiled on the Mustangs as they kicked to Plains and the visitors fumbled. Edmund Hobby recovered on the Plains 40, and the Mustangs were off to another score.

Smith dashed around left end for two yards and a touchdown several plays later, and Darrell Read passed to Don Owens for the point after. This ending scoring for the first half.

Things started off fast in the third quarter, with Bovina returning the opening kickoff 75 yards to the Plains 2. Barron picked up the two yards and a TD on the next play. The try for extra point failed.

Plains showed spirit and returned fire with their first score of the evening, Brontley carrying the ball over from the 1. Barlow ran over the extra point to make it 19-7.

Receiving Plains' kick, the Mustangs marched up field again for another score, Smith passing to Barron for the TD. Again, no conversion was made, and the score was 25-7.

A fumble by the Bovina backfield on their 35 set up Plains for their second and final score of the game. Brontley scored from the 1 after a drive toward the Bovina goal. Barlow again ran over the extra.

There was no scoring in the fourth quarter.

She explains that it was during depression days, and school buses were not in operation in Oklahoma, and that she found it advisable to come to Bovina for her schooling.

Gene and Genevieve were school-day acquaintances, and as the years went by, they were drawn together and were married in February of 1937.

Women Study About Children

The Progressive Study Club met last Thursday night at the Friona Club House. Subject for the program was "Children and Their World."

Mrs. Avis White gave a reading "Know and Understand Your Child." Mrs. Sue Proctor gave a talk on "How Funny Books Affect Our Children?" Mrs. Thelma Coffey gave the devotional. Two guests were Mrs. Lunell Horton and Mrs. Ed Url Lunell. Mrs. Luttrell was voted in as a new member. Hostess was Mrs. Betty Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Drake and granddaughter, Betty Drake, went to Canyon, Sunday, to visit with their daughter and aunt, Mrs. Treva Reece.

Bulldogs Nip Chiefs 32-14 at Amherst

In their second conference game this year, the Friona Chiefs were beaten 32-14 by the Anton Bulldogs there, Friday night.

Except for a couple of "sudden death" scores by the 'Dogs in the first two minutes of the game, the Chiefs played Amherst even money, believes Coach Raymond Cook.

Friona was shocked to find itself behind 12-0 almost before the game got warmed up Friday night. A fumble by the Chiefs cost them the ball and a score, as Martin Hardwick, halfback, plunged over from the 5 for the first Bulldog score.

Then, scarcely a minute later, a Chief punt was blocked and another Amherst touchdown was set up, this time Hardwick carrying over from the 12 on a cross-back play over right guard.

Outside of those two disastrous miscues, Coach Cook reported that the Chiefs played "fairly good ball" Friday night.

In the second quarter, Amherst scored once again, with Hardwick again stepping into the end zone from a left end run on the Friona 15, but Friona bounced back featuring Jerry Chiles, Chief half, scoring from the 4 on a line plunge. Dudley Bainum kicked the extra point.

The Amherst drive on the third score started on their own 10 where the Chief offense machine bogged down. The Friona score came after Quarterback Wesley Barnett sneaked from the 35 to the 4. The second quarter ended 18-7.

Amherst moved ahead still further in the third quarter, as Halfback Porter Nutall passed to his brother Delvin, also a half, for 25 yards and a touchdown. Hardwick ran over the extra point. The third quarter ended 25-7.

Both teams scored one TD in the final period, Friona getting theirs on a quarterback sneak by Wesley Barnett from the 1. Bainum again added the extra point.

Porter Nutal scored the last touchdown for the hosts with an 8-yard scamper around right end. Billy Grant then passed to him for the point-after.

The Chiefs, whose passing game had been looking much improved lately, were ineffective through the air Friday night, according to Cook. Wesley Barnett found himself rushed often by a charging Amherst line, with James Anderson, Bulldog center, leading the defense.

PLUGS From Paul A well-known scientist was on a lecture tour, and when he had finished his speech he customarily asked the audience to put to him any questions they cared to have answered. One night an old lady raised her hand and inquired, "I've often wondered, but nobody has ever been able to tell me—why do wet tea leaves kill cockroaches?" The scientist was at a loss, but refused to give his audience the satisfaction of admitting it. "Why, madam," he said, "when the cockroach comes upon a wet tea leaf he says to himself, 'My goodness, here's a blanket,' and curls up in it, catches pneumonia, and dies." When Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tatum received their Albany News this week, they were surprised to find it was over two years late, still neatly rolled up though slightly frayed at the edges. It was the February issue, 1952 and came in from Harrison, New Jersey.

Roberta Campbell of the Hereford Brand was out at the E. W. Tatum farm Friday, taking pictures of Weldon and his calf for the Brand.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper of Hereford were at the Tatum home one day this week to look at Weldon's fine calf, and help him in any way they could.

Quite a few families from Black attended the concert at Friona Tuesday night. Noticed were quite a few Hereford folks in the crowd. Mrs. Henry McLean of San Antonio and Mrs. Jim McLean of Friona were dinner guests in the Fern Barnett home Thursday.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

Scotch lite stickers free at the Farm Bureau office. One of these may save a life or a lesser accident. Send your kids by. They'll see that they're applied if you're too busy. They advertise Farm Bureau, too, of course.

Ellison, Bruns and Parr attended the district secretary's and president's meeting in Lubbock Thursday night. Smith visited the Farm Bureau office in Hobart, Okla., last week, too. We haven't found a group of farmers anywhere that favor compulsory social security for themselves yet, and that includes the Oklahoma group mentioned. This, we think, is a healthy indication of rural opposition to the socialistic trend, and we hope it grows in evidence in other groups until individual responsibility is again the rule among Americans.

Farm Bureau urges you to vote in the November election. Read and study and ask all you can, particularly in regard to the proposed State Amendments before you are asked to express your opinion on them. You will make the rules you live by for years to come. Be sure they suit your taste by voting yes or no. Remember that if you don't go to the polls, you will be voting with the majority of the minority that does go. That may not be what you want.

If you can and will go to the State Farm Bureau Convention in Galveston, beginning November 7, please let us know at your earliest convenience. Seven voting delegates will go, and you may be eligible as one of those, with part of your expense provided. The directors were authorized to approve delegates at the County Convention. If you are interested, submit your name.

Several Friona people rode in a helicopter Friday and Saturday. It is a new experience for most civilians that makes you wish you had one with the ability to operate it.

Watch for your annual financial report in this week's Muleshoe Journal. The Friona Star and State Line Tribune carried it last week. We think you'll like it.

Have you tried tithing as the starting level for giving to your church, if you're a Christian? That could be the answer, to your economical problems, if you have some.

Senior Plays To Be Presented

The senior class has selected five one act plays to be presented this year.

On November 12, two plays entitled "It Can't Be Done" and "Quiet Home Wedding" will be presented. The cast for "It Can't Be Done" is as follows: Joan, Patricia Morgan; Jack, Rex Harris; Darby, Marvin Pendergrass; and Jill, Bobbie Richardson.

The cast of "Quiet Home Wedding" includes: Wilbur Dodd, Rex Harris; Gertie Pringle, Bobbie Richardson; Junior Dodd, Kenneth Reid; Jody Dodd, Naomi Hapke; Emmy Dodd, Georgia Weisler; Connie Dodd, Shirley Stover; Mrs. Tweedy, Patricia Morgan; Mrs. Gadwood, Nadine Thornton; Billy Gadwood, Johnny Peterson; Miss McSnoop, Wanda Smith; and Horace Pottle, Allen Lockhart.

November 20 is the date set for the remaining three plays which are as follows: "Home To Mother" with Jimmy Don Moss as John Wingate, Naomi Hapke as Betty Wingate, Patricia Morgan as Nancy, Nadine Thornton as Grace, Ronald Hutson as Mr. Billings, and Bobbie Richardson as Hallie. "Nothing In Its Place" features: Georgia Weisler as Kitty, Darral Smith as Jim, Naomi Hapke as Mrs. Reynolds, Nadine Thornton as Barbara, Wanda Smith as Stella, and Shirley Stover as Mrs. Shannon.

Judges Are Selected For "Looks" Contest

Judges for Wolverine Beauty and most handsome contestants have been selected. Pictures are to be judged sometime in the near future, but announcement of winners will not be made until a later date.

Frank Davis, a former academy-award movie director and present writer of movie scripts, of Springfield, Illinois, has been chosen to judge the pictures. In a recent letter, Davis stated that he would be glad to judge the photos and would secure the assistance of Herb George, who owns and operates a commercial film and TV studio in Springfield.

Davis, who has spent most of his life in show business, says of George, "He is a very clever guy," and "top-drawer" motion-picture cameraman, who was sent to Florida to shoot the special shots and stills of the movie, "The Greatest Show on Earth," starring Betty Hutton."

Members of the annual staff feel fortunate in securing the services of these two men.

Demonstration Given For FHA Club

In the regular meeting of the Home Economics Club recently, Mrs. M. A. Snider of Farwell gave a demonstration on pleating squaw skirts and showed how to make a screen to be used in the pleating. She also exhibited several attractive squaw dresses.

Both the demonstration and exhibition were enjoyed by the girls since squaw dresses are certainly a fad at Texico High School.

Band Participates In ENMU Homecoming Festivities

Texico band traveled to Portales, Saturday, to attend the college homecoming activities. The band marched in the parade held in the morning. They were then given a free barbecue dinner.

In the afternoon, the bands marched out on the playing field before the game where they were introduced and then joined in the playing of the National Anthem, directed by Floren Thompson, ENMU band director.

All the band members enjoyed watching the football game in the afternoon.

Press Club Makes Field Trip

"To be a good newspaperman you have to have the desire to be one and start out when you are young", said Charlie Fischer, publisher of the Clovis News Journal, when the press club visited the News-Journal Thursday. Fischer also stated that one had to have a good background of grammar to be a good newspaperman.

After Fischer gave a talk, he showed the group through the shop part. They saw the press run Thursday's paper, which was very enlightening.

Those attending were Susan Levins, Sue Reid, Kenneth Reid, Jimmy Don Moss, Ronald Hutson, Shirley Doshier, Johnny Peterson, Mary McDaniel, Wanda Smith, Georgia Weisler, Nadine Thornton, Darral Harris, Carolyn Curd, Bobbie Richardson, Patricia Morgan, Naomi Hapke, and Mrs. Jimmie Allman, sponsor.

FFA Boys Building Barn

The Texico FFA boys are certainly busy these days building a new ag. barn. This barn, with dimensions of 28'x68', will contain a feed room 12'x28' and twelve separate feed pens. Each pen will have an automatic feeder and waterer with a drain in each one.

The barn is mainly for the ag. boys who live in the city. They will house their projects in the barn and keep an accurate record of their projects. This record will be posted above each individual's project so that any person wishing to, may see how the projects are progressing. Mr. Hudson and the ag. boys wish to invite everyone out to see the barn when it is completed.

The FFA boys will receive a new Chevrolet pickup soon. Max Meadors Company of Clovis is supplying the pickup.

Are You Back There?

By Bobbie Richardson

Are you, as a parent, showing the interest you should in your children? Probably you think that's a silly question. You say, "Of course every parent is interested in his children." True, but are you backing your children in the way you should?

Perhaps you don't realize how much it means to a student to see his or her parents at school functions. You can't be expected to attend all school activities, but let your children know you're behind them by coming when you can. Not only will you enjoy it, but you'll find out what's going on in the place where your children spend seven hours a day.

Make up your mind now to show a greater interest in your school; yes, it is your school; and therefore, let your children know you're backing them all the way.

MOVIES SHOWN TO FOURTH GRADE

Fourth graders have seen some very interesting films. One of the most interesting pictures was "England". It showed the ship, Queen Mary, on which Jackie Dyer made his trip to England. Jackie recognized other scenes in the film. He brought a miniature sight seeing bus to show the class.

Linda Palmateer brought a pot plant for the room, also Edward Dean and La June Burris brought flowers for the room.

The boys and girls have been very busy making Halloween decorations for the bulletin boards.

NEW DESKS IN FIRST GRADE

The first graders are very proud of their desks received this week, according to their teacher, Mrs. Wanda Faville.

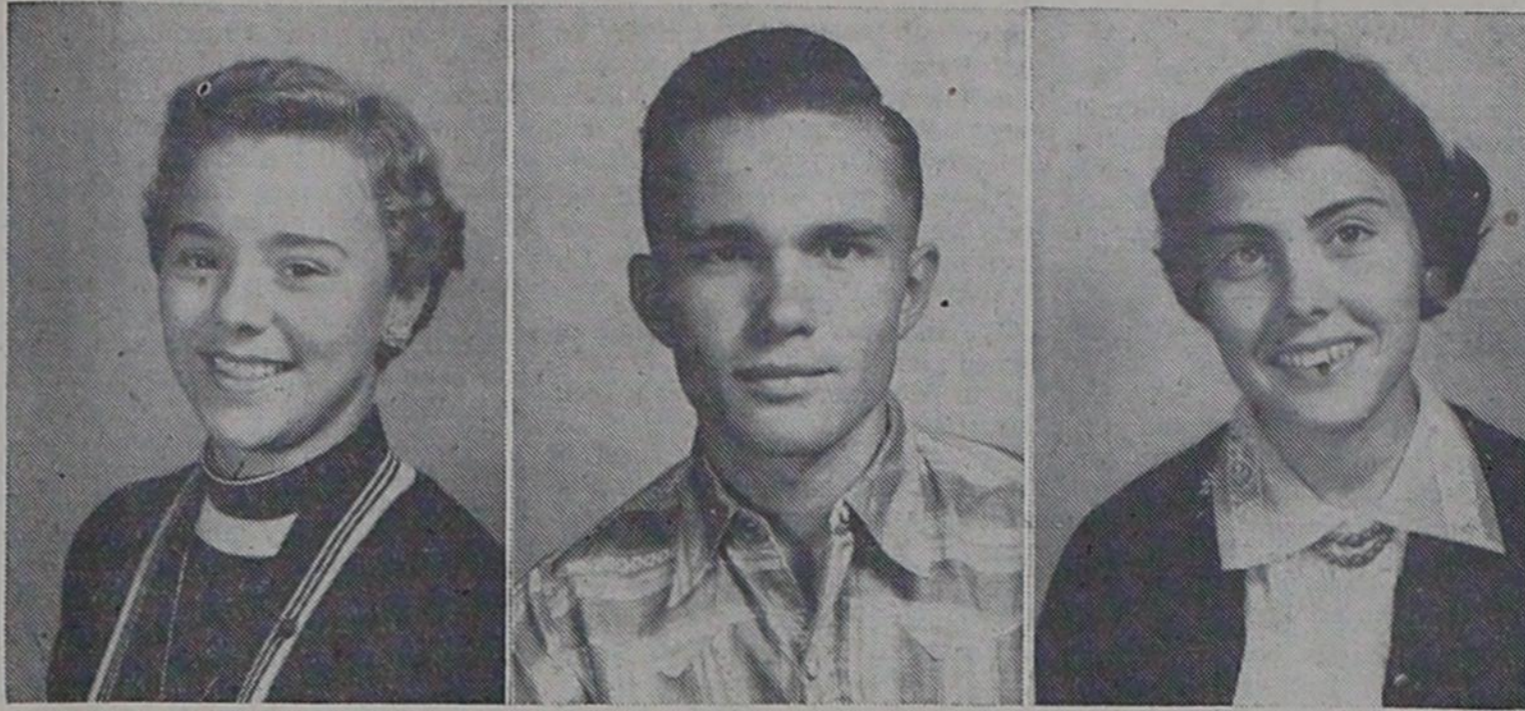

Wesley Raulie is absent because of the illness of his mother. She is recuperating in an Oklahoma City Hospital.

New addition to the class is Charles Brinegar from Elkhart. Movies of "Navajo Children" and "New Mexico" were enjoyed by students.

BUSINESS ED. CLUB MEETS

Thursday, the Business Education Club met to discuss the program for the coming year. Suggestions were made for a speaker to the club, and plans for the singing of Christmas carols were made also.

The above students have been selected as favorites at Texico School. Chosen by the FFA club as their sweetheart was Shirley Doshier, junior (right), while FHA girls voted Allen Lockhart, senior student (center), as Prince Charming. Band students picked as their sweetheart, Sophomore Susan Levins (left), head majorette of band.

The next games to be played by the Texico teams will be in the Curry County softball tournament this weekend in Clovis.

IT IS NOT EASY—to apologize; to begin over; to admit error; to be unselfish; to take advice; to be charitable; to be considerate; to endure success; to keep on trying; to avoid mistakes; to forgive and forget; to keep out of the rut; to make the most of a little; to maintain a high standard; to recognize the silver lining; to shoulder a deserved blame—BUT IT ALWAYS PAYS!

We read this recently in a 1935 edition of a church bulletin from the First Baptist Church, Lubbock. It impressed the editor with the fact that time doesn't change everything. Wouldn't it be wonderful, here in Texico High, if every student applied these standards to his personal life? This would be our conception of the proverbial Utopia.

There are three people in the school administration who certainly deserve a lot of credit, but too often go unthanked. Who are they? Why, the three women who are responsible for the delicious meals students receive every day, Mrs. Hightower, Mrs. Tucker, and Mrs. Hall are doing a wonderful job this year! Oh, yes, Mrs. Allman has a lot to do with it, as she plans each lunch.

Pat.

Maid Of Cotton Contest Opens

LUBBOCK—South Plains cotton industry leaders have begun their search for an attractive young woman who will be crowned 1954 South Plains Maid of Cotton and represent this area as one of 20 finalists in the national Maid of Cotton Contest early next year.

Officials of the contest, which has been called "the world's most dignified beauty contest" by the Associated Press, have received confirmation that again this year the South Plains Maid will be an automatic entry in the finals to be held in Memphis, Tenn., early in January. Only five other state contest winners throughout the entire South will receive this rating.

Complete plans for this year's South Plains pageant are still pending, but entries are now being received. The contest likely will be held in Lubbock's Fair Park Coliseum about Nov. 22.

All contestants for the South Plains title, which offers an all-expense-paid trip to Memphis and a glamorous cotton wardrobe among the prizes, must be between the ages of 19 and 25 inclusive, at least 5 feet 5 inches tall, never married and must have been born in a cotton producing state.

Entry blanks and details of the contest are available by writing: South Plains Maid of Cotton Contest, Box 561, Lubbock, Texas, or by calling at the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

The competition is not a "beauty contest" in the usual sense of the word. Judging is on the basis of intelligence, personality and poise, as well as appearance.

Young Women from throughout West Texas are expected to enter this fifth annual South Plains pageant. Last year's program attracted 21 attractive girls from a dozen different towns who appeared before more than 1,600 persons at the contest finals. Officials are expecting this year's finals to draw a crowd of more than 2,500.

I'd like so much to be in Farwell for a weekend and see all the good people, but guess it's impossible.

Dependable Pumping Power

New 800-6A power unit develops 148 hp on LP gas and 134 hp on natural gas at 1200 rpm.

Here's another dependable MM power unit designed to furnish low-cost, trouble-free performance. Smooth, 6-cylinder high-turbulence power and counter-balanced crankshaft reduce torsional vibration for longer engine life.

Newly designed heat exchanger base plan keeps oil at proper operating temperature, greatly increases engine life and lengthens period between oil and filter cartridge changes. Pan acts as a cooler as well. Sight oil glass provided in base pan can be converted to oil-flow control valve for adding oil directly to crankcase from a barrel of oil, thereby keeping oil at a constant level. Pan attaches directly to an SAE standard flywheel housing and provides a rigid mounting of the power take-off for heavy belt drives, etc. Double-disc clutch and power take-off are of heavy-duty design.

MM heavy-duty power units are noted for their long life. Nine models to choose from. Stop in soon. Let's talk over your power needs.
