

City Commissioners Discuss Fireworks, Purchase Sprayer

A short discussion on fireworks and the purchase of a spraying machine were the main items of business for the Farwell City Commission when it met in the City Hall Friday afternoon.

The fireworks problem was brought up by Commissioner L. E. McKillip, who said that he had been approached by several citizens asking that something be done. All commissioners agreed that something should be done about the popping of firecrackers at all times of the night.

Passing of an ordinance, prohibiting the shooting of fireworks after a designated hour, was discussed, but no action was taken. Mayor Sam Aldridge said that an ordinance to this effect could be passed, but would be of little effect unless it could be enforced.

Presently, there is no city law enforcement here other than the county officials. It was the mayor's opinion that without a city law enforcer, the ordinance would be useless. It was decided to let it ride for the present time, until something could be worked out.

It was said that the commission could ban the sale of fireworks, but it would only force the firecracker stands outside the city limits, and still not stop the youngsters from setting them off in the city limits.

Commissioner Smokey Gast suggested that the teenagers be asked to regard the elderly people of the community, as well as others, who go to bed early and find it impossible to sleep if firecrackers are booming near their homes.

It was pointed out that the fireworks would not be so bad if they were shot off only on the Fourth of July, but "it goes on here the year around," said a commissioner.

The spraying machine purchase, which was approved, was the obtaining of an air compressor from Farwell School. It had been purchased as a war surplus item at Lubbock and the cost to the city was $96.40.

It has been used twice for spraying the city with insecticide. The unit is pulled with the city clerk's pickup, which also contains the insecticide tank.

The commissioners set a rate of $5 per hour for the use of the sprayer for other than the city's use. The fee includes the services of the clerk, Wilfred Quickel, in operating it. The clerk was put in charge of the machine and is to operate it on all spraying jobs.

Other business for the afternoon included a decision to investigate the possibilities of obtaining war surplus pickups for the city's use. The clerk was asked to check into this and if one or two vehicles could be purchased at a small figure, the city will probably acquire them.

It was decided by the commission that one was needed for city business and one for the fire department. However, the cost of the vehicles will determine whether or not they are purchased. It was thought by the commission that low-mileage war surplus pickups could be purchased for less than $100. At the suggestion of Gast, the commission also voted to have the clerk's present pickup overhauled. The clerk has been using his pickup for city business for a long while and has only been paid operating expenses, it was pointed out. The clerk was instructed to have the vehicle overhauled at some local garage, wherever it could be done the cheapest. Closing out the meeting, the mayor gave a report on a recent trip to Lubbock, where a proposed road route for Farwell was discussed. Too, the mayor told the group that Bill Sheehan, (Continued on Last Page)

FIRST FIREPLACE — These three Texico citizens are building the first fireplace for the new city park, which is presently being built in the community. The fireplace is being made from a 36-inch piece of concrete pipe, which was donated by Gifford-Hill Western. Preparing to run the concrete base are Russell Johnson, left, C. H. The official opening of the park, being sponsored by the Texico Woman's Club, will be after all equipment is purchased and installed.

TWO KILLED IN BOVINA WRECK

Two teenagers were killed and two were injured Tuesday afternoon when the car in which they were riding went out of control and turned over several times a mile east of Bovina on Highway 60.

Dead are Gilbert Castle, 14, and Cathy Bannon, 17. Injured in the wreck were Donna Castle, 16, who is in critical condition at Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona, and Jerry Martin, 17, who suffered a broken leg.

Homer Gilcrease, 17, the other occupant in the car, apparently escaped injury, says Kenneth Thompson, hospital manager. All of the occupants were from Oklahoma City and enroute to Arizona.

The accident occurred about 3:45. According to a report given to Thompson, the car, a 1951 Ford, belonged to Gilcrease. He was asleep in the back seat at the time and did not know what caused the tragedy. Martin was reported to have been the driver. The injured were all taken to the Friona Hospital, where they are presently confined, and the dead are at Claborn Funeral Home in Friona.

Kenneth Maxwell, highway patrolman, who investigated the accident, estimated that the car turned over three times.

Roney was arrested and charged with illegal possession of alcoholic beverages for the purpose of sale. He was fined $100 and court costs by Judge A. D. Smith in county court Monday morning.

Making the raid on the place were Chas. Lovelace, sheriff, and Tom Atkins, and Jim Roberts, deputies. The liquor will be turned over to the state liquor board, the sheriff says.

It was the only arrest by the sheriff's department during the Fourth of July week.

The lone accident occurred when a 1955 Chevrolet, driven by Roy Comby, Clovis, smashed into the back end of a truck near Wilsley Switch on Highway 60. The truck, driven by Mike McManigal of Farwell, was turning off on a side road as the automobile attempted to pass, the sheriff says.

Damage to the Chevrolet was around $400, according to the sheriff. The truck, owned by John Lovelace, was not damaged.

The accident was investigated by state highway patrolmen, who issued a citation to Comby for attempting to pass within 100 feet of an intersection, the sheriff says. He was fined in justice of peace court at Farwell Saturday morning.

Alan Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Price, was sworn in as a midshipman at the academy at Annapolis, Md., on Monday, July 1.

Price left for Maryland by plane on Sunday, June 30, after receiving orders a few days prior to that. He is a graduate of Farwell High School where he was valedictorian of his class.

During his three years in Farwell High School, he was active in basketball, baseball, track and tennis. He participated in the junior play, was a member of the annual staff one year and was drum major of the band his senior year.

Among those to present special music during the three day YAW include Martha Blair of Farwell; Judy Roach, Brenda Jones and Charlotte Hromas, a trio from Bovina; Harriette Charles, Bovina; Ruby Hilcock, Oklahoma Lane; Ava Lee Shofner, Muleshoe; and Susan Levins, Texico.

Further details will be announced next week.

The Widener children, Connie and Linda Ruth, have been visiting in the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Langford, and David and Charles were guests in the home of their uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Judge Barker, until the first of the week. The Wideners were former residents of Texico. She is also a sister of Mrs. Joyce Coffman of Farwell.

Texico Citizens To Vote in Local Option

For the first time since 1939, Texico citizens will join other Curry County voters in a local option liquor election on August 20. The special election was called by the county commissioners last week after they received petitions, bearing the names of over 2,600 county residents.

The petitioners asked the commissioners to hold the election for the purpose of determining whether Curry County should adopt local option provisions of Section 46-3-1 of New Mexico statutes. The election called for by the signers was for the "licensing, taxation, and regulation of persons, firms and/or corporations disposing alcoholic beverages in Curry County."

Fay Southard, Curry County clerk, said this week that by law, signatures on the petitions have to total 25 percent of the total number of votes cast for governor in the last general election. The 2,600 signatures were more than enough, but they have yet to be checked to see that only signatures of legal voters are counted.

Should the majority of votes favor legalized liquor in Curry County, there will be 16 licenses issued, says Miss Southard. This is based on one license for each 1,500 population in the county. The liquor stores could be located anywhere in the county.

In the 1939 county-wide election, the county went dry for the first time, except for Clovis. The wets won in Clovis that year and the county-seat town didn't go dry until 1943. Since that time, there have been several wet-dry elections, but each have been confined to Clovis alone.

When asked if the upcoming election was for package stores only, the clerk said that the petitions did not specify package sales only. In the more recent Clovis elections, the issue has been only for package stores. If the election carries, it would go into effect after 90 days, says Miss Southard.

County Man Fined

Parmer County law enforcers made a raid on a farm house east of Bovina Saturday afternoon, and confiscated 34 quarts of beer and eight pints of wine. The residence was that of Willie Roney.

Roney was arrested and charged with illegal possession of alcoholic beverages for the purpose of sale. He was fined $100 and court costs by Judge A. D. Smith in county court Monday morning.

Making the raid on the place were Chas. Lovelace, sheriff, and Tom Atkins, and Jim Roberts, deputies. The liquor will be turned over to the state liquor board, the sheriff says.

MOTHER'S DAY BY ACCIDENT

It was Mother's Day at the N. W. Peyton home Sunday! It just happened that way.

It wasn't planned that way exactly, but when the family and their guests were seated for their noon meal, Beth Ellen, a junior member of the Peyton family, noted that mothers of all the assembly were present.

Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dobbs of Loveland and her mother, Mrs. J. B. Adams of Altus, Okla., and his mother, Mrs. J. O. Dobbs of Altus.

Mothers of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Daniel were Mrs. Sally Newman of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. C. E. Daniel of Texico. Mrs. Daniel is also the mother of Mrs. Peyton and the mother of Mr. Peyton is deceased. Also enjoying the day were Beth Ellen and Sharon Peyton and Glenn Daniel.

All of the guests in the local home left the first of the week for a trip to the mountains in the Pecos New Mexico region.

The collision of Spearman's 1955 pickup and a 1948 pickup driven by Jack Donahay, also of Route 1, Texico, occurred early Tuesday morning. Donahay was reported as escaping without injury.

John Spearman Seriously Injured

John H. Spearman of Route 1, Texico, was reported in serious condition at Clovis Memorial Hospital where he was taken following the collision of two pickup trucks at an intersection of two country roads near Pleasant Hill.

The collision of Spearman's 1955 pickup and a 1948 pickup driven by Jack Donahay, also of Route 1, Texico, occurred early Tuesday morning. Donahay was reported as escaping without injury.

Sikeses Home After 27,000 Mile Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Sikes likely have the distinction of being the most-traveled residents of Texico-Farwell. If they are not, then the persons who have beaten their record will really have a story worth telling.

The Sikeses arrived home last week from the second leg of a 27,000-mile journey that took them through and completely around the United States, a few miles into Mexico, and into all of the southern tier of provinces of Canada.

"We enjoyed every minute of it," says Sikes, "and never did get tired of traveling—except the last three or four days when we knew we were coming home, and we got in a hurry to get back."

In spite of all the fun the local couple had on their trip, they admit that there's no place like home, and they maintain that they have the traveling bug out of their system for good.

During the trip that took eight months and seven days, they passed through enough states to be able to now say that they have been in every state in the union except two—Wisconsin and

Vermont. "We passed real close to Vermont, but because it's a small state, we just overlooked it and didn't get an opportunity to add it to our list," says Sikes.

In reality, the Sikeses took two trips. Their first began back in the fall of 1956, and included the eastern part of the country. When they returned from that jaunt, they rested in Farwell for a few days, and then struck out westward, visiting New Mexico, Arizona, California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, and Oklahoma. They also saw Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia in Canada.

Asked what part of the nation they enjoyed the most, Sikes says he and his wife enjoyed best the New England states, Florida, and the Pacific Northwest.

Those would be three of the four corners of the nation. Asked about the fourth corner, California, he says that their choice between California and Florida is the latter. His reason: "California is man-made. Florida is

Nine Scouts Receive Badges

Nine Texico-Farwell Boy Scouts received their first badges last Tuesday night at a special presentation ceremony at the Texico Teen Center.

The boys received their Tenderfoot ratings and the presentations were made by Mrs. Curtis Miller, president of the Texico Woman's Club.

The Scouts are being sponsored by the Woman's Club and the Tuesday presentation was the first ceremony since the troop was organized several weeks ago.

Receiving the badges were Kenneth Bowers, Donald Caillouet, Bobby Hapke, Kenneth Murdock, Buddy Spence, Robert Tomlinson, Fred Warren, Willard Richardson, and James Hudson.

Scoutmaster Jerry Stallings reports that the regular meeting date for the Scouts has been changed to each Monday night at 7:30 in the Teen Center. Previously the troop has met at the Baptist Church on Thursday nights.

The Scoutmaster issued another invitation for all Texico-Farwell boys between the ages of 11 and 18 to join the organization. He added that an all-night outing was coming up soon, but the exact date for it has not been set.

Lions Committee Chairmen Named

The Texico-Farwell Lions Club launched a new club year Monday night when it met at the City Cafe. It was the first meeting under the new administration and main item of business was the appointing of various committee chairmen by the president, Robert "Prof" Morton.

The committees are to perform the various club functions during the year. Each chairman is to appoint his own committee, the president says.

The chairmen are as follows: Finance, Paul Wurster; public relations, Dick Hapke; convention, Joe Helton; boys and girls, Paul Frederick and J. D. Atwell; citizenship and patriotism, Hurschel Harding; civic improvement, Cary Joe Magness and Helton; community betterment, Harding and Magness; health and welfare, Lenton Pool; safety, Otis Huggins; sight conservation and work for blind, Agrie Jones and Jack Williams; greeter, L. B. Penick and S. N. Kerner; program, John Getz and Williams; information, Huggins; and agriculture, Herbert Potts.

"We urge each of you to study this proposal, and let your wishes be known to our state officials."

Lazbuddie Asks 10% Tax Raise

With the raise in the "economic index" of Parmer County this year by the state education agency officials, the four independent school districts of the county are feeling a tightening of money matters now that their state aid is being reduced.

This squeeze, plus the constantly mounting pressures of higher operating expenses and the need for an expanding system because of more students each year, caused the Lazbuddie school board to take unusual action this week.

They have proposed a 10 percent increase in taxes collected within the district, and are also making requests to the state legislature that a state-wide sales tax be adopted to cover increasing costs of education.

Their notice, which is being made to district residents, says: "Due to increased operating expenses and a raise in the Parmer County economic index, which will cut down our state aid, it becomes necessary to raise our school tax or cut down on school services that we think are essential."

"We propose a 10 percent tax raise and at the same time we expect to review our school budget at a meeting open to the public and with the cooperation of pupils, teachers, and patrons, hope to make some reductions."

They add further: "Schools all over Texas have much the same problems as we do, and with the rapidly expanding school population in the future, we realize school taxes will become a burden if we provide the type of schools our children are entitled to."

"Therefore, we propose a two percent state sales tax at the retail level, to be distributed among public schools according to their scholastics. We are writing the governor, senator, and representative, urging a special session of the legislature to enact the proposed sales tax into law."

Needless to say, we deserted the place after a few moments of disenchantment with Galveston (widely advertised as a honeymoon mecca), and took

There are reasons for this, of course: Chevrolet's balanced weight distribution that takes excessive loads off the front wheels, the wide stance of outrigger rear springs, Ball-Race steering, spherical-joint front suspension. Sure, you can admire the sculptured lines in the showroom. But Chevy's a car specifically designed for beautiful motion—you have to travel in this one to know just how terrific it is. Jobeses Home From Trip To New York

Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Jobes returned home Friday, July 5, from a trip to New York and New Jersey. The purpose of the trip was to attend the wedding of their son, Sam, and Miss Nancy Gibson in Bridgeton, New Jersey.

The local couple left Farwell on Friday, June 14, going by way of Tulsa, Okla., and St. Louis, Mo. At St. Louis they had to make a detour because of high water over Highway 66. They then went through Illinois, Indiana and into Ohio where the road from Cleveland to Buffalo, N. Y., runs along the coast of Lake Erie.

At Buffalo they got on the New York Thruway which is the longest toll expressway in the world and comprises 562 miles of superhighway.

Arriving in Syracuse, N. Y., at the home of their son on Monday, they visited there with him until the following Friday when they left for Bridgeton, N. J. On the way to Bridgeton, they visited awhile at West Point Military Academy, located on the Hudson River.

In Bridgeton they met their then future daughter-in-law, Miss Nancy Gibson, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gibson, her sister, Mrs. Geoffrey Heddon and her two small daughters.

They also met Nancy's brother, Leslie Gibson Jr., and his wife, who have three daughters and one son. The latest addition to the family, another daughter, was born on the day of the wedding to add to the excitement.

While staying at the Gibson home, Mr. and Mrs. Jobes met many of the Gibsons' friends, some of whom entertained them in their homes. One family who owns a summer home on the Atlantic beach invited them there for a seafood dinner.

Mrs. Jobes reports that the afternoon prior to the wedding, the time was spent preparing the garden for the reception which was to follow the ceremony. Tables were set up and cloths and candles were placed on them and Japanese lanterns were hung in the trees. Then, just as everyone was dressing for the wedding, a short, but violent rainstorm came and "played havoc" with the outdoor decorations, says the local woman. She then remarked she thought they ought to return to Texas and bring their tornadoes with them, but as it was, everything turned out nicely, she says.

The day after the wedding, the Jobeses started home, going by Williamsburg, Va., where, Mrs. Jobes says, a portion of the city has been restored as nearly as possible to the way it was in its beginning.

From there they went to Jamestown and across the James River on a ferry. They then came down the crest of the Blue Ridge Mountains on the Blue Ridge Parkway through the Great Smoky Mountains. They then came through Chattanooga, Tenn., Birmingham, Ala., and parts of Mississippi and Arkansas. They report that the trip was wonderful and that the wedding "was just perfect."

Nortons Spend Weekend In Aztec

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Norton, David, Wilma and Charles Wade, spent the past weekend in Aztec, N. M., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Norton and Mr. and Mrs. Ewin Norton. During their visit, the group went to Lake Vallisco in Colorado for fishing, boating and water skiing. They also visited the Aztec Indian ruins and found this to be very interesting.

The local family returned home Monday and report that they had a very enjoyable weekend.

Undergird Your Life with Faith

We had a most wonderful service Sunday with a fine spirit manifesting itself amongst our congregation. Hal Ed Helton was received into the fellowship of the church by profession of faith along with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Teel and children, Joe and Peggie, by transfer of membership from Portales. We welcome them into our fellowship of love and service.

The MYF'ers had a fine meeting under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Williams. This next week they will meet at the regular time for an evening of study and fellowship led by Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Graham, adult counselors in the area of Christian citizenship. The lesson will be on "He Told Them A Parable."

Our vacation Bible school will start on Monday morning, July 15, at 9 a.m. and will continue until Saturday noon. We will have a picnic to close our lesson sessions. Every child in this area is invited to attend this school. The age limits are 4 to 12. Our graduation exercises will be Sunday night, July 21, at the evening services. A special sermon will be delivered for them at that time.

Our evening services were well attended with 67 in attendance this week. The pastor is speaking on the doctrines and practices of the Methodist people. This past Sunday night the sermon was on "The Holy Spirit." Next Sunday the sermon will be on "Assurance." This Sunday we had 141 in Sunday School with our goal of 150. We will break that goal next Sunday with your help. Our Sunday School starts at 9:45 a.m. and closes at 10:50 a.m. The teachers and divisional superintendents are to be commended for their fine transition. Our morning service was attended by 108.

The young adult class elected the pastor as their regular teacher with an assistant who will teach each first Sunday of each month.

The assistant teacher for the first Sunday in August will be Jack Williams. We are planning a class social for Thursday night, July 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bunk Phillips at 8:30. All young adults are urged to come and have a fine evening of fellowship.

We will have a baby bed available for the class period next week. We are going to cool the room with an air conditioner, too.

Within the next 10 days every family of the church will receive a copy of our new budget and a letter explaining our plans for this year. Your constant support and loyalty are asked.

The choir will meet each Wednesday night at 8 o'clock to practice special music and to prepare for the weekly worship services. Mrs. R. W. Anderson and Mrs. W. H. Hardwick will serve as choir directors until the second Sunday in September. We need some faithful singers to help these women in this task.

The pastor is in the Sacramento Mountains this week teaching in an intermediate camp. Those attending from the church are Mary Anne Hardwick, Hal Ed Helton and Billy McDonald. The group will return home Friday evening.

The Layman's Retreat is to be held August 3 and 4 at Sacramento. All of the churches of this district are trying to have at least two laymen from each church in attendance. The cost will be $8.50 and the program begins at 2 p.m. on August 3. We must send in a pre-registration list by July 22. Contact Johnny McDonald for further information.

County Winds Up Best Wheat Crop In Past 8 Years

What is figured to be the best wheat crop produced in Parmer County since 1949 is pouring into the elevators this week, although the peak of the harvest is past and in some cases is considered about ended.

The showers of late spring pulled a last-minute "save" for much of the estimated 35,000 acres of dryland wheat, and for the first time since 1949, non-irrigated fields made a substantial contribution to the county's estimated yield of 2,100,000 bushels. In dollars, the crop is worth about $4,000,000 to county farmers.

The showers also enabled irrigated wheat raisers to turn in the best yields ever, with most warehousemen of the area figuring that irrigated wheat has averaged between 40 and 45 bushels.

However, the rain wasn't the only reason for increased yields in 1957. Area farmers gave their irrigated wheat more attention this year than ever before in their pursuit of the squeezed farm profit dollar.

Most-made careful preparations, fertilized heavily, and watered adequately throughout the growing season. The records show that their investment in a better wheat crop paid off.

Here is the yearly report on the wheat crop from the viewpoint of area elevator operators:

SHERLEY - ANDERSON GRAIN COMPANY, LARIAT—Asa Smith, manager, reports harvest virtually complete there. "It's the best crop we've had in several years," he says. Acreage is about average, but yields are up considerably. There is some 50-bushel wheat in the area. Charlie Nix cut 52 bushels from 15.7 acres, and Walter Kaltwasser made 48 bushels after a 25 percent adjustment from hail. The Lariat area irrigated wheat averaged about 40 bushels an acre, believes Smith. On the basis of the good results with wheat this year, Smith predicts that the full allotment will be planted next year and the use of fertilizer will expand.

SHERLEY - ANDERSON - PITMAN, INC., FARWELL—Johnie Williams, manager, expects harvest to conclude this week. He says that their elevator has handled about twice the wheat this year that they took in last year. In fact, he believes the harvest is the best since 1947 for the Farwell area, and irrigated is especially good. Some dryland has made 20 bushels, and A. L. Tandy of Oklahoma Lane was one farmer reporting such a dryland turnout. The dryland average, however, has been much lower—possibly 10 bushels, believes Williams.

NEW MEXICO MILL & ELEVATOR, TEXICO—Pat Patrick, manager, reports they are winding up this week, and that the yields have been "way above average" in the Texico area. He says that many irrigated fields have yielded from 45 to 50 bushels, and that Marcum Chadwick northeast of town hit between 50 and 60. This year's wheat, better "filled out" than usually, however, is low in protein content and generally will make poorer quality flour, believes Patrick.

WORLEY GRAIN COMPANY, FARWELL—"It's about all over," says Herbert Potts, manager. He estimates the irrigated average to be about 38 to 50 bushels. Junior Doshier of Oklahoma Lane harvested an average of 60 bushels from about 20 acres, he says. The quality of the wheat is excellent, and a lot has hit 64 pounds per bushel.

TRI-COUNTY ELEVATOR, BLACK—Pete Braxton, manager estimates receipts to be about 40 percent greater this year, with the average yield being from 40 to 45 bushels. There was little or no dryland wheat in the Black area. One irrigated farmer reported 60.5 bushels on 34 acres. Harvest is about over. There was considerable red rust on some wheat, but it came too late to do too much damage.

BLACK GRAIN COMPANY, BLACK—D. C. McWhorter, manager, declares the 1957 wheat the best quality they have ever handled. Yields have been much better than the average for the past seven or eight years.

CONTINENTAL GRAIN COMPANY, FRIONA—Very little more wheat was expected this week from the Friona area, and G. "Preach" Cranfill says this year has been the best over-all for irrigated wheat he has ever seen, and also that the dryland has been better than customary in recent years. Greenbugs hit the Friona area, but weren't too serious. A few reported smut, but again, damage was negligible. The average around Friona has been about 40 bushels, and from 10 to 15 on the dryland that has been cut.

FRIONA WHEAT GROWERS, FRIONA—About 405 carloads of wheat will be shipped from Friona Wheat Growers this year, estimates Arthur Drake, manager, and that will be the largest amount of wheat ever handled by that firm, except for 1947. There was quite a bit more dryland cut this year, and he also figures the irrigated yield to be around 40 bushels.

LONE STAR, TEXICO-FARWELL—Bill Dollar says the harvest in their area "sure has been good this year." The average irrigated yield is running between 40 and 45 bushels, and some dryland is ranging around 15 bushels.

LARIAT ELEVATOR, LARIAT—Boone Allison, manager, says things are over in the Lariat area, and irrigated yields have been in the 30 to 50 bushel bracket. He estimates the average to be around 37 bushels. Scarcely any dryland wheat was planted in the Lariat area, he reports.

MACON ELEVATOR, BOVINA—J. P. Macon says, "It's the best crop we've had since 1949." He also notes that this is the driest crop he has ever handled, with the hot weather toward the end of the growing season being responsible for that condition. Irrigated is yielding from 40 to 45 bushels, he feels, but there isn't much dryland in the Bovina area. Late grazing hurt dryland wheat, and it did not mature well in the hot weather.

The best yield reported in the county so far went to Macon Elevator, and came from a field owned by Don Williams and Elmer Hargrove of Farwell. The farm is near the state line in the Pleasant Hill community. There, the partners figured they made 73 bushels per acre from a 55-acre tract.

BOVINA WHEAT GROWERS, BOVINA—Roy Whisler says the harvest is about ended there, and that it has been considerably above earlier expectations. Irrigated yields are ranging from 30 to 60 bushels, and dryland (what is being cut) is about 17 bushels, he believes.

SHERLEY GRAIN COMPANY IN BOVINA—Penrod Anderson, manager, says their elevator is about to wind up a harvest that has produced the best quality wheat in a long time. Quite a few irrigated yields were reported there in the 50 bushel class, though the average was around 43, believes Anderson. Dryland has fallen from 9 to 18 bushels. Sherley handled from 50 to 60 percent more wheat this year than last year, he estimates.

Payment Rates Set for Wool

Incentive payment rates for shorn wool under the 1956 program will amount to 40 percent of the dollar returns each producer received for his wool, according to Joe W. Magness, chairman, county ASC committee.

This means that for every $100 received by the producer from the sale of shorn wool, a payment of $40 will be made. The method of payment calculation results in the grower who receives the higher price for his wool being eligible for a larger incentive payment than the grower who gets a lower price for the same quality and quantity of wool.

Magness also explained that the payment rate on sales of unshorn lambs—to compensate for the wool on them—will be 71 cents per hundredweight of live animals sold. No payments will be made on mohair sold during the 1956 marketing year because then mohair price received by producers averaged 84.4 cents per pound, which is well above the 70 cents per pound incentive payment set by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

STREET DRESSES STUDIED

New man-made fibers, new finishes and new blends of fibers within a fabric, pose more problems for women as they shop for ready-made street dresses. Labels with more detailed information might be the answer to many of these questions.

A study of the labeling of women's street dresses by research workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station gives some important clues to improving labels.

Women were asked about the information they want when buying a dress and the majority said they look for a label giving several types of information about the dress. Most helpful information was instructions on care. They also like to find specific information on fiber content.

Almost half the group preferred to get information from the label only. Nearly as many wanted information about the dress from both the label and the salesperson. Very few wanted information from the salesperson only.

The survey also indicates the advantages of informative labeling to the dress manufacturer retailing the garment. It also emphasizes the importance of retailers having their sales personnel accurately informed about the dresses they sell.

Prices Sag, But Fords Dig Onions

Harvesting operations were hastened last week in the face of a declining onion market on the Plains. In Parmer County, the biggest concentration of onions is between Farwell and Bovina, and is being grown by Euvon and J. T. Ford and sons. Digging on the Fords' 80 acres is going full speed ahead this week, and on Monday, J. T. described conditions as "pretty good" although he indicated the rosy outlook of a few weeks ago has disappeared.

For a time—about a month ago—prospects for a firm market were excellent, what with the wiped out North Texas competition. Up to $750 was being offered them for onions in the field, and the market was hovering around $3.25 for a 50-pound sack.

When the Plains harvest kicked off the first of this month, however, prices fell rapidly. "We have 17 brokers trying to move their onions this year, compared with five that have been selling for an average year," Ford points out. "They didn't have any place to go, all at once, and the market dropped."

On Monday, the market for white onions was regarded as still pretty good. They were bringing $2.35 a sack. Yellows, by comparison, were down to $1.35, although "jumbo" yellows were bringing $2.25. (Ford figures that about 25 to 30 percent of their yellows will grade "jumbo".)

The first of the week, digging was taking place on Burl Ford's 15 acres of yellow Grinos north of his home. The yield here was pretty good, going from 560 to 570 sacks.

The yield is down from earlier estimates of around 800 sacks. Monday, Ford said he figured that they were averaging "a little over 500" and blamed the early start for the reduced yield. Digging began earlier than plans called for because it was feared that the market would fail.

Asked whether he's glad he refused $750 an acre for the crop earlier this year, Ford replied that it's too early to tell. "We're at the breaking point now," he says. On whites, the Fords are netting from $800 to $900 an acre at current prices.

Labor for harvesting has been troublesome this year. Not only have qualified hands been hard to find, they've been high priced. The Fords had to import the 60 hands they are now using from Carizzo Springs in the "winter garden" area of South Texas.

Early season harvesting costs had been estimated at from 35 to 40 cents a sack. The Fords are forced to pay their hands 64 cents a sack. Still, they are going ahead as fast as conditions permit, hoping to complete the entire harvest within the next week. The aim for this week will be to dig all the Grinos, which occupy about 45 acres, while holding off the sweet Spanish onions until the last.

The idea here is to get more tonnage. A few more days in the field should put the yield from 900 to 1,000 sacks per acre, believes Ford. All Plains growers are shooting for harvest completion ahead of Colorado, which is expected to begin July 15.

Here's the story in easily digested form concerning depth to water measurements in 45 irrigation wells of Parmer County. Well No. 366 near Black, and Well No. 398 near Lazbuddie registered rises rather than declines. The depth to water in Parmer County varies considerably. The shallowest observation well on the map above is No. 375 near Lariat, where the table is 103 feet below the surface. By comparison, it is 287 feet to water in well No. 392 northeast of Pleasant Hill.

Water Table Down 5 Feet in County

By W. H. GRAHAM JR.

Slur-rr! That sucking noise you heard last year was the 2,300 irrigation wells in Parmer County taking a long draw on Texas' biggest "ice cream soda"—the 13,000,000 acre feet of water beneath the rich farms that produced 60,000 bales of cotton, 14,000,000 bushels of grain sorghum, and 1,500,000 bushels of wheat in spite of the worst drought in history.

Coming at the tail-end of a six-year dry spell, the 1956 growing season gave the wells of the county their biggest test yet, and they came through in magnificent fashion.

But—what of this year, and next year, and the next, and the next? Can we keep drawing on our underground water supply, wonderful as it is, indefinitely? The county's wells pulled the water table down an average of 5.18 feet in 1956. That was a slight increase over the decline registered in 1955, when the level dropped 4.04 feet.

If we are going to deal in generalizations, it can be said that on the basis of these declines, the water supply under Parmer County can be expected to continue highly productive for another 50 years, inasmuch as the thickness of the water bearing formation averages something like 225 feet across the county.

But generalizations are of little value to the individual farmer. He's concerned about HIS well and his farm. As an example, there was one well in the county that showed a drop in the table of 14.5 feet last year. Two others went over 10 feet each. These well owners may very well register concern about the expected life of their irrigation units.

However, a couple of wells in the county actually indicated rises in the table. So, it is apparent that conditions vary considerably from place to place. Sometimes measurements are inaccurate. Sometimes the well has been recently pumped (before the measurement is made). Sometimes neighboring wells have caused interference with measuring.

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

A very poor farming practice has been observed being carried on in a few places in the Parmer County SCD. This is the practice of burning wheat straw or residue.

This residue, if handled properly, would become a very important ingredient in a money-making farm. That ingredient is organic matter. Without a good supply of organic matter, the land will not take water as it should and fertility is greatly impaired. We can't do this year after year and continue on the land. It won't continue to support us. A wise farmer makes provisions to use every bit of the residue.

To properly handle wheat residue it should be mulched into the surface of the soil. To kill weeds during summer months, sweeps should be used. This will not disturb or destroy the mulch.

A disk-type oneway is the poorest type of tool for handling residues. It destroys much of the residue and powders the soil to the extent that water is unable to soak into the soil, thus causing water erosion, in the form of gully or sheet erosion to occur.

Very often, farmers work against their best interests just because they think a practice when completed looks pretty or it is easy in their estimation to farm. Research proves them to be wrong.

Something that needs attention: The nation as a whole has become more and more water conscious the past few years. We have a lot of out-of-state people through the district traveling across the country on U. S. Highway 60. In some places along the highway, great quantities of wasted tail water are dumped in the barrow ditches. What do these people think of a country that wastes such a precious natural resource?

Solid columns show decline in annual average rainfall in inches from east to west across Texas. Dotted columns show increase in evaporation for same geographic range. Reference is to open-pan evaporation, that is, the number of inches that would be lost in a year from an open vessel.

It's Hot and Dry On High Plains

There's a big difference in evaporation tables across such a big state as Texas, as the graph above plainly shows. Note that in deep East Texas, the average rainfall exceeds average evaporation rate. Note also that because of the dry, warm climate here on the High Plains, our rainfall would have to exceed 100 inches a year for such a condition to be repeated. This is one reason why more and more farmers are concerned about evaporation losses to both their natural and pumped water supply.

the Plains is fantastic. Wet-weather lakes that dot the region lose 90 percent of their content to evaporation. Very little is ever used by plants on the surface, or taken into the ground by absorption.

The chart which accompanies this story gives the reader a hint of the problem that faces the High Plains farmer. In East Texas, the normal rainfall exceeds the average evaporation rate.

By comparison, in our part of the Plains, the evaporation rate exceeds the annual rainfall five fold!

These are some of the reasons why farmers, concerned with a declining irrigation water table, are interested in putting surface water from lakes back underground. Also, they're improving the efficiency of their transmission methods by doing away with open ditches.

Time for Refunds On Gasoline Tax

Farmers are reminded by C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist, that they may now apply for a refund on the three-cent federal tax on gasoline used for farming. The amount claimed must be based on the quantity of fuel used for farming purposes on individual farms and ranches during the period from July 1, 1956 to June 30, 1957.

Bates says that all claims must be submitted to the district director, Internal Revenue Service, and claims for the past year must be in by September 30. Only one refund claim per farm operator will be permitted and each tax claimant is cautioned to make certain that his refund request includes all eligible fuel used.

Each farm or ranch operator who applied for tax refunds in 1956 will be mailed Form 2240 for filing the 1957 claim. An instruction sheet for preparing the application will also be provided.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

By RAYMOND EULER

Federal road tax in the amount of three cents per gallon should be claimed for refund on every gallon of such fuel used in farming during the period of June 1, 1956 to July 1, 1957, before October 1.

If you did not file last year, and have not received your claim card from the Internal Revenue Department, we have some on hand for you here at the Farm Bureau office. Banks and dealers also have some of them. You can fill them out yourself after getting the gallons of fuel purchased during the claim period from your dealer.

We will be glad to help you if you need help. Complete the address on the envelope with Dallas, Texas, and your return.

Your directors were well pleased with the fine reports given by the 4-H boys and girls upon their return from the Texas Roundup at College Station. We think this is one of the very worthwhile things Farm Bureau has been able to help with on a local basis. Judy Billingsley, Farwell; Lexie Stevenson, Bovina; Billy Hardage, Lazbuddie; and Cooper Young, Lariat; were the ones reporting last week. Our congratulations to these young leaders.

It is not long before the Annual Queen Contest will be held—Saturday night, July 20, in the Bovina auditorium. Seven or eight candidates were reported through Saturday last week. Mrs. J. T. Jones is running the show this year.

We read several "farm" magazines, and we are becoming a little impatient with their impatience with the fact that all farm organizations do not get together and stay together on proposals for solving their problems.

It is quite evident that the editors of the magazines themselves are not as nearly in agreement with each other on proposed solutions as are the varied farm and commodity organizations.

We know that all of these farm and commodity organizations try to some extent, at least, to get the ideas of their members, who belong voluntarily to the group of their choices, before they go to Washington.

The "farm" editor of a magazine has only himself to convince when he starts writing, so it seems to us that he might "get together and stay together" with his fellow editors before writing some of his "enlightening" articles.

Actually, we think it is better to have the varied opinions expressed and discussed everywhere, but before criticizing farmers too much, it seems only right that the critic should set the example he suggests farmers should follow. If everyone agreed on everything, there would be no reason for organizations.

Their final purpose is to gain the condensed and compromise desires that all can conscientiously support until something better can be developed. We are sure of one thing: No one is more aware of the farmer's problem than the farmer himself.

fields when farmers were doing and children used to take to the field work with horses was the forerunner of our modern "coffee break." Many people with whom we have become acquainted in recent years have learned to drink coffee just to have an excuse to get out of an office for a few minutes.

It has been proven that a few minutes relaxation in mid-morning and mid-afternoon increases the efficiency and reduces the fatigue of office and industrial workers. The article states that farmers would benefit greatly by taking off a few minutes occasionally.

Farm wives can serve as break reminders to their husbands by packing a mid-morning and mid-afternoon snack and taking it to the field. If your husband thinks he just doesn't have time to stop his work for 10 or 15 minutes to drink a glass of milk and eat a sandwich or other snack, you could remind him that recent accident studies occur during the late morning and mid-afternoon hours.

If you think you don't have time to be chasing around over the fields looking for someone to eat the snack you have prepared, you might make an adventure out of it by studying the plants, insects, or small animals that you are bound to see. To those of you who have small children, the break will probably be good for you and for them, too. They will enjoy the outing.

The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council advises taking time for a mid-morning and mid-afternoon break and states, "It can pay off in safety, pleasure and efficiency."

Combinations for making no bake pie crusts are getting to be almost as numerous as those for making salads. The newest one we have run across is for Pecan Vanilla Pie with No-Bake Chocolate Crust. The crust is made with crunchy cornflakes and pieces of semi-sweet chocolate. It's a "can't fail" crust and is delicious.

Ingredients:
2/3 cup uncooked white rice
1 1/3 cups water
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
1/3 cup margarine or butter
1/3 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate morsels
1 1/4 cups sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1 cup whipping cream, chilled
1/3 cup chopped pecans
1 teaspoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Put the rice, water and salt in a 2 quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat down low. Simmer over this low heat 14 minutes. Stir in the milk. Cover and cook over the low heat 40 to 55 minutes or until the milk is absorbed. Stir occasionally. Do not allow to boil.

While the rice cooks, make the crust. Melt the margarine or butter in a small saucepan. Stir in the brown sugar and pieces of chocolate. Heat over a low heat until the sugar dissolves and the chocolate melts. Stir in the cornflakes. Mix thoroughly. Press over the bottom and sides of a well-greased 9" pie plate. Chill in the refrigerator.

After the rice cooks in the milk, stir in the 1/3 cup sugar. Cool and stir in the 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla. Cover and chill. When the rice is cold, whip 1/2 cup of the cream until stiff. Stir the rice until creamy. Fold in the whipped cream. Spoon into the chocolate pie crust. Sprinkle with pecans. Cover and store in refrigerator until serving. When ready to serve, whip the other 1/2 cup of cream until stiff. Stir in the 1 teaspoon sugar and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Spread around the edge of the filling. Cut into wedges to serve. If desired, serve with ice cream instead of whipped cream.

If you have trouble trying to keep your daughter's can-cans as stiff as they were originally, relief is in sight for you. According to a recent announcement made by a fashion expert, the newest thing in petticoats is for a softer look achieved by fullness without stiffness. This effect will require yards and yards of batiste.

THE PARMER FARMER

By LELAND BOYD

We notice that Lubbock is now putting the suction on the sandhills. Water from wells near the Lamb-Bailey county line in the sandhills area is flowing at the rate of 4,000 gallons per minute to the thirsty city. We understand that this got started only last week.

It will be a long time before Lubbock gets around to developing the tremendous field it now owns water rights for. There are 76,000 acres in Bailey and Lamb Counties—clear over to the state line, set aside for this purpose. That's a whopper of a water inventory, we'd say!

The project is a rather expensive one for the South Plains city. We understand they've sunk over $5 million in the wells, stations, and lines already, and are just getting started.

Did you get a chance to see the tile delivery pipe? It ranges in diameter from 42 to 45 inches, and can carry up to 60 million gallons of water per day from the sandhills!

These water rights were acquired by Lubbock at varying prices. The latest quotation was $35 per acre.

Doubtless you will notice the map and accompanying story in this issue of High Plains Farm and Home concerning our underground water supply. We have a limited number of copies of the report from the Texas Board of Water Engineers on this subject, and will be happy to hand them out as long as the supply lasts.

The report is a very comprehensive one, and gives maps showing water table levels for 20 counties of the High Plains. Drop us a note or make a call at any Parmer County newspaper office.

Parmer County Vote Biggest In Texas

The vote of 449 Parmer County farmers in the wheat referendum last month was the biggest block of votes in Texas, Prentice Mills, ASC office manager, announced this week. Parmer County even outvoted the big wheat producing counties of the North Plains.

Like farmers the nation over, local wheat growers approved marketing quotas in that vote.

The outlook for improved egg prices in the months ahead is good, says Extension Economist John McHaney. For the first four months of 1957, commercial hatcheries in Texas produced 23 percent fewer egg-type chicks than during the same period in 1956 and in the nation, the reduction was 21 percent. Egg prices to producers, he says, should be higher for the last months of 1957 and the first quarter of 1958.

Research On Grain Sorghums Pushed

The grain sorghum variety and strains tests conducted at the High Plains station of the Texas Research Foundation at Halfway are designed to determine which varieties and hybrids are best adapted to the High Plains conditions. Major items to be studied are production, maturity, and standing ability.

One hundred ninety varieties and strains of grain sorghum are included in the research program at the station, R. G. Peeler, president of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association announced, after conferring with the station staff.

Fifty varieties have been planted in four-row plots 100 feet long with each treatment repeated four times. The two center rows of the four, in each plot, will be harvested to determine the yield. The average of the four separate plots will be used in determining the value of the variety.

One hundred forty-six varieties and strains of grain sorghum are included in the observation tests. Each of these has been planted in four different sites at the 310-acre farm. Included are many new or untried varieties and hybrids that have not been used extensively on the Plains.

The most promising of these will be selected for further plot testing in the future and may turn out to be better than varieties and hybrids now planted.

4-H Boys Plan Summer Camp

Ten adult 4-H Club leaders and 13 4-H boys in the county met at the county courtroom on Monday evening of this week to make plans for the annual summer camping trip.

August 5, 6, 7, and 8 have been set as the camp dates and the camp site will be near Pecos, N. M., where it has been in past summers.

County Agent Joe Jones, who met with the group Monday night, reminds boys of the county that they will be receiving letters concerning the camp within the next 10 days or two weeks. Any 4-H boy who does not receive a letter concerning this should contact Jones.

TO BE CLOSED

The FHA office at the courthouse in Farwell will be closed all day, Thursday, July 11, according to an announcement from that office this week. Office employees will be attending a meeting in Amarillo on that date.

Methodist VBS To Start July 15

All children of the Texico-Farwell area from the ages of 4-12 are reminded of the vacation Bible School which starts at Hamlin Memorial Methodist Church on Monday, July 15, at 9 a.m. Registration will be held at that time and classes are to be held daily from 9 to 11:30 a.m. The final session will be Saturday, July 20, and the highlight of this session will be a picnic for the entire group of attendants.

Commencement program for the group will be held Sunday evening at which time all crafts and other work done by the children during the week will be on display for parents and friends to view.

During the week-long school, classes will be divided in the following departments: kindergarten, beginner, primary and junior.

Every child, regardless of his denomination, is cordially invited and urged to attend.

Children in the four to six year old age group are asked to bring an empty hose box for their work period, announces one of the school's helpers.
