Petit Jury Called For Monday

Parmer County Sheriff Charles Lovelace this week released the names of 48 county residents who have been notified for petit jury duty Monday, December 3, at 10 a.m.

Those notified are Robert Read, Clyde Perkins, Bill Burnam, J. C. Blankenship, Mrs. Kenyth Cass, J. W. Gooch, E. D. Chitwood, Jr., Royce G. Welch, Otho Whitefield, Mrs. Fern

Barnett, Wesley Hardesty, Ovid Lawlis,

Keith Garner, Pierson Adams, W. S. Crow, Dick Rockey, Dean McCollum, Joe Jesko, Joel White, Norman Taylor, Mrs. H. R. Denny, O. J. Beene, Herbert Schueler, R. L. Jones, Jim M. Dixon, Mrs. Milton Walling, Alton Morris, Dale McCuan, Bill Burton, Ray Landrum, Mrs. Dee Chitwood, Jack Woltman, Partain Austin, Mrs. John Dixon, Vernon Symcox, Gus Schlabs, Mrs. Jack Patterson, Clarence Meeks, A. G. Thorn, James C. Russell, Mrs. Ellis Tatum, George H. Anderson, Myron Hillock, C. A. Black, C. W. Bradshaw, Ralph Shirley, Jack Clayton and T. C. Hukill.

Expected to come up for trial is the case of R. G. Sparks, Bovina, charged on two counts of statutory rape.

Ronny, our 9-year-old, I being introduced to the fundamentals of work. I don't mean the "chores" type of work which he's been doing around the house for some time, such as emptying the trash, making his bed, and drying the dishes, I am referring to a sure-nuff JOB.

We gave him one at The Tribune a few weeks back, and although I realize that a good bit of his enthusiasm must be charged off to the excitement every kid feels over a new adventure, I am very pleased at the way the little rascal has dug in.

We are putting him on the payroll at 25 cents an hour, which is big money to him, and so I told him we'd have to get him a social security number now that he was employed.

The conversation between us, as nearly as I can recall, went like this:

"A social security number? What's that?"

"Well, every week we have to take a little bit of money out of your paycheck and send it to the government at Washington. They give you a number so they can tell which is yours."

"What are you going to do with my money?"

"They will keep it until you are sixty-five, and then they will give it back to you a little bit at a time."

"Heck, I may not live to sixty-five."

(Laugh -- half amused, half bitter, by parent.)

"Besides, they may spend it on somebody else."

(Thoughtful silence by parent.)

It is not clear in recorded history whether women's handbags have always been with them. I suspect that they have in one form or another.

Why archeologists have had so little to say about this significant fact of life I don't know, but the way I have it figured out, those baskets and jugs women carried around on their heads in the stone age weren't always filled with food and water. I'd be willing to bet that they had the usual assortment of junk, just as do purses of today's femme fatales.

Fashionland's designers, pressed with the cry for more capacity, have gone from bill-fold-like things to creations big enough to carry the baby's 2 o'clock feeding and last week's washing, but still the need has not been met.

There are some things in this world which are impossible, like attaining the speed of light, balancing the national budget, ending war, and making women's handbags big enough. It's beyond the reach of mortal attainments.

A misconception in the understanding of modern economics which is common is that the free enterprise system, which permits the marketplace to determine what the buyer shall pay and what the seller shall receive, is that such a plan is uncivilized, it is called a barbaric, dog-eat-dog relationship.

This is baloney, and here is why. The marketplace is a hard taskmaster, but it is an arbiter of equity. There is no compulsion in free enterprise. It is based on individual choice. In the free market society, a man exchanges his goods or services, willingly, for what another person or group of persons will pay, willingly. There is no coercion in this relationship. There is no forced sale, there is no forced purchase.

A benefit accrues to both the seller and the buyer. This benefit is seldom absolutely equal, but there is SOME benefit which occurs on both sides. If the exchange were absolutely equal, then all persons would at all times retain their exact share of the world's goods. Naturally, they do not.

In the socialist society, which today has been given the reputation of being "humanitarian," the exchange of goods and services between persons takes place outside of the marketplace. A certain part of society's goods is taken from one segment and placed elsewhere for the benefit of another segment.

The element of free exchange--willingness--is gone. The element of mutual benefit is gone. The exchange is forced and arbitrary. The person or persons who decide on what

Wolverines Play 2 Dist. Games

Texico Wolverines who were out of action last week due to the holiday will be playing two district games this week. On Friday they will take on the Grady Bronchos on the home court and on Saturday they will be playing the Ft. Sumner Coyotes. This is also a home game for the Wolverines. Ft. Sumner is one of the top seeded teams in the district and the game with Texico is expected to be a good one as Dora, defending district champions beat the tall, Ft. Sumner team by three points, and they had previously beaten the Texico team by two points. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

with the "B" team to play in the evening opener.

Texico junior high girls and eighth grade boys were hosts to the Lazbuddie teams, Monday evening.

In the girls game the Texico girls emerged victorious by a score of 13-8. Carol Holland hit for five points for Texico, closely followed by Nancy Brantley with four. Pamela Roberts and Marilyn Doshier accounted for two points each.

Scoring for Lazbuddie was done by Robinson who hit for four. Lazbuddie hit for one field goal during the evenings play with all other points made from free throws.

Turning in good defensive games for Texico were Teresa Luce and LaNelle Ingram. All girls from Texico got into the evenings play.

Texico boys also came out on the long end of the score in their game with Lazbuddie. Final score was 13-6. Garry Burris was high point man for Texico making four of the thirteen points. Other boys getting into the scoring act were Larry Burns, Jimmy Webb, Roy McDaniel and Hardy Jones. David Farmer turned in a fine game defensively.

Rash Of Accidents Hospitalizes Three

A rash of accidents in the county the past week has left at least three persons hospitalized, with others being treated for injuries.

Mrs. Joe Latham, 15, was seriously injured last Saturday when the automobile she was driving collided with one driven by James Stanford Bennett, 33, Hereford.

The accident happened 3 miles south and 4.3 miles east of Friona at the intersection of two country roads. Mrs. Latham, who was expecting, was taken to Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona, where her baby was still-born. In addition, she underwent surgery to remove a ruptured kidney, and was listed in fair condition Tuesday.

Bennett suffered broken ribs and a broken collar bone. He

Steers Win One, Girls Lose One--

Farwell High School Steers and their sister team the "Steerettes" opened season play against the Friona Chiefs and the sister team the Squaws, Tuesday night on the Farwell court. The Steers defeated the Chiefs 32-25; however the girls were beaten by the Squaws 68-18.

Coach Bill Mayfield, says his team made many mistakes in this first game which he hopes to avoid by continued practice. The boys have only been out for practice approximately two weeks following football practice. He says "Farwell has lots of good material but it will take much hard work to develop the team"

Danny Lindop led Steer scoring with 11 points, followed by Charles Roberts with seven. Other boys scoring were Leon Ovalace, who led both teams in rebounding having 15 rebounds for the evening, and Bobby Actkinson. Other boys playing were Alan Busbice, Joe White and Ronnie Reed. The coach sited Danny Lindop as having played a good defensive game.

Probable starters for the Steer squad will be juniors, Danny Lindop and Leon Ovalace; seniors, Bobby Actkinson and Charles Roberts and sophomore Jerry Childs. Mayfield says he has 12 boys who will travel with the "A" squad and a crew of boys who will be playing on the "B" team. In the girls game Patricia Kaltwasser accounted for seven of the Steerette scores, while Nettles of Friona made 31 points for the winners. Twenty-eight of the points were by the free throw route.

Coach White, emphasizes the fact that his girls are young and inexperienced, and few know the fundamentals of basketball. "This is a slow rebuilding process" he says, "but the girls are working hard and are a willing group". He says, he is proud of the way the girls are working.

Probable starters for the Steerette team are forwards, Melody Coffman, Brenda Dale and Patricia Kaltwasser and guards, Patsy Harrington, Margaret Haseloff, and Barbara Conner. Other likely prospects are Becky Strain a freshman and Donna Mills, a sophomore.

The game with Friona was a free throw match with both teams fouling heavily. Farwell made 33 fouls and Friona made 22 in the evenings play.

Next game for both teams will be tonight (Friday) with Bovina, with the games to be played there. Game time is 7 p.m.

Dear Sonny, I thought that I'd drop you a note and inquire about my subscription. On Oct. 9 I sent a check to the paper for $4.08 and it has been returned with my statement. It seems that someone forgot to note this payment since we quit getting the paper about a week or so later. If you could correct this I would appreciate it.

Now that I've gotten that over with, I'd like to ask about you and your family. I suppose that everything is okay; at least the last time I got a paper you had an editorial in it.

Since I haven't seen you lately, guess I should say just a little about what Wanda and I are doing now. I'm still at Princeton in graduate school, however, I hope to be through in about another year and then plan to work either in Gulf area or on the West Coast.

Well, I've got to go now. Tell everyone hello for me and perhaps while we're home Christmas will get by and see you.

Bert Williams

(Thanks for the nice note, Bert. On checking, we find that Uncle Sam's postmaster sent us word to send the paper somewhere in Tennessee, which we dutifully did. I will admit that we should have known better. You've been in that Ivy League so long I'll bet you are getting used to those tight britches. --WHG.)

A man who had been waiting impatiently in the post office could not attract the attention of either of the girls behind the counter.

"The evening cloak," explained one of the girls to her companion, "was a red-tinge design in gorgeous lame brocade with fox fur and wide pagoda sleeves."

At this point the long suffering customer broke in with, "I wonder if you could provide me with a neat purple stamp with dinky perforated hem--the tout ensemble deliberately treated on the reverse side with muclage. Something at about 4 cents."

Dear "Hop" Thank you for your kind editorial. Our effort wasn't wasted, because many elected officials will be more aware of the sentiment back home and less aware of what Mr. Kennedy or Mr. Johnson want when they vote.

I hope to go to the National Republican Convention in '64 and help draft a conservative platform and get a good nominee (not Rockefeller).

Best of luck, and we will continue to work for what we believe to be right.

Debate Rages Around Finland's Mannerheim

By A. E. PEDERSEN JR. United Press International

HELSINKI, Finland (UPI)—A good-sized crowd gathered recently in a room on Mannerheim Street, close by the Mannerheim statue and about a 15-minute walk from the Mannerheim museum and agreed there is such a thing as a Mannerheim myth.

That was about all they agreed on. The panel, arranged by university students, heaped praise and abuse on the head of a man who, in his time, was one of Finland's two best-known figures.

The other, of course, was the great composer, Jean Sibelius. The interest in Mannerheim derives from a series of three novels by Paavo Rintala, who attempts to bring Mannerheim down off his pedestal and show him to be an ordinary human being. One who tampers with the Mannerheim figure in Finland lays himself open to a lot of criticism and Rintala got his share, although his picture of Mannerheim is, on the whole, sympathetic.

Thus it was that the meeting held recently raised a number of temperatures and produced such comment as: —Mannerheim was just a general, not overly intelligent but able to pick brainy subordinates and inclined to act as a dictator. —Mannerheim was a hero of

County Seeks New Demonstration Agent

The Farmer County Commissioners' Court said that a new Home Demonstration Agent would be appointed for Farmer County as soon as one became available through the Amarillo District Extension Service office.

Appointed by the court to inspect the opening of a new county road near Black, for the A. L. Black, et al petition were Clyde Hoyer, Elvin Wilson, Clyde Weatherly, Fern Barnett and Claude Blackburn.

The court accepted a report from another jury of view which inspected a road opened near Lazbuddie on the Juel Treider et al petition, and ordered the road opened. Work began this week on a country barn on county property in Friona. The barn will be used as a storage place for county equipment.

"We hope to finish the game in about three weeks," said Tom Lewellen, commissioner of Precinct 1.

The building will be oval-shaped, of steel construction, and will measure 36 feet by 72 feet.

American physicians are beginning to get more complete, objective information about new drugs and their uses than ever before, and are getting it faster. This statement was made by the American Medical Association on the first anniversary of its expanded drug information program. The expanded program was launched in the summer of 1961 to help practicing physicians keep abreast of the rapidly mushrooming number of new drugs that are appearing on the market today. HST Birthplace Draws Visitors

LAMAR, Mo. (UPI) — A simple clapboard house here, the birthplace of former President Harry S. Truman, has made this southwest Missouri town a drawing place for touring Americans.

The house was converted to a state memorial April 19, 1959, and since has attracted more than 70,000 visitors. Furniture of the late 19th century has been installed. The original furnishings have long been scattered and lost.

A plaque was installed: "In this room on May 8, 1884, was born Harry S. Truman, whose faith in the youth of this country has been an inspiration to all. In honest and sincere appreciation. The citizens of Lamar."

Outside, flanked by Missouri and United States flags, is a granite monument that traces Truman's rise to the presidency and his quotation: "I ask only to be a good and faithful servant of my Lord and my people."

Thanksgiving Rites Unite Gail Hadley - Buddy Harrison

Hadley of Texico became the bride of William Louis (Buddy) Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harrison of Las Cruces. Rev. Sidney Cox, uncle of the bride, from Amarillo read the double ring vows. Centering the altar setting was a white kneeling bench entwined with mums and greenery. Forming the background for the kneeling bench was a candleabra tree and a spiral candleabra arrangement holding white tapers, flanked by white columns up on which large bouquets of white mums in pottery urns were placed. Family pews were marked with white mums and white satin bows. Mrs. Sidney Cox, organist and aunt of the bride, played soft background music preceding the ceremony and accompanied Mrs. Murry White, soloist as she sang, "Because" before the ceremony and "Bless This House" as the couple knelt at the close of the ceremony. ### Claude Whites Married Fifty Years

Miss Edith Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wood was married to Claude A. White, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. White in a quiet ceremony performed in the home of Rev. Doss, the Methodist pastor at Santa Anna, Nov. 5, 1912. Their only attendants were Miss Betty Wood, a sister of the bride and Carl Dodgin, a close friend of the couple. Only other persons attending the ceremony were the pastor's family.

The couple remained at Santa Anna for the next five years and were engaged in farming. In 1916, White came to Farwell, and bought a quarter section of land, five miles east of town and erected a three room frame weatherboard house. In March of 1917 he returned to Santa Anna and brought his wife, Edith, and their daughter DeAlva, to their new home.

Some of their early day neighbors were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. McGuire, A. L. Tandy, the R. A. Hawkins, and Marvin Nash families. They say, there were no fences and when they wished to go to Bovina "We simply climbed into the wagon and drove across the pastures."

Several years after the family came to Farwell another daughter, Majorie, was born to the Whites' completing the family.

After a few years, two rooms and a bath were added to the original house, and the family continued to live there until 1941 when the house was destroyed by fire. The Whites then built a five room modern house on the original homestead and lived there until March of this year when they sold a part of their land and moved into Farwell with their daughters, Mrs. DeAlva Wojinski and Mrs. Majorie Parker, as hostesses. Anniversary cake and golden punch were served to the approximately 75 persons attending the affair from a table laid with white net over gold, and centered with an arrangement of gold mums in a low bowl, flanked by the "Anniversary Cake" which was decorated with wedding bells and rosebuds and topped by the number "50" in gold.

A silver coffee service, a crystal punch service and white napkins inscribed with the names and dates "Claude and Edith 1912-1962" in gold completed the table decor.

Out of town guests attending were Mrs. DeAlva Wojinski and Mrs. Majorie Parker, daughters of the Whites from Roswell, Janet Parker, Alice, James and Buddy Wojinski, grandchildren all from Roswell, A. D. White, Mr. and Mrs. Henry White and children and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Taylor, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross, Morton; Mr. and Mrs. William Thornton, Bovina; and Mrs. R. G. Hammonds, Clovis.

Uncle Ray's "Hot Air"

Willy was sobbing bitterly. Between sobs he told the teacher: "I don't like school, and I have to stay here until I am 16."

"Don't let that worry you," consoled the teacher. "I have to stay here until I am 65."

"But, madam," protested the lawyer, "didn't you suspect that there had been a burglar in the house when you saw all the drawers pulled out and the contents scattered all over the floor?"

"Oh, no," replied she, "I just thought my husband had been looking for a clean shirt."

Charles Van Doren's unfathomable knowledge was a stage stunt. Billie Sol Estes was a crook. Francis Powers said he was sorry he spied on Russia, and Joe Pool beat Desmond Barry.

As if our dreams weren't completely shattered, we now have the Federal Food and Drug Administration telling us that Calories Do Too Count and safflower ain't what it's cracked up to be.

After championing the cause of safflower in these columns for 10 straight years, this is almost too much to take. The FDA and the ASC have about plowed under our safflower hopes.

Actually, the whole thing has a humorous overtone. It turns out that a Brooklyn doctor, Herman Taller, cooked up some diet claims built around the cholesterol-controlling qualities of safflower. The physician was smart enough to figure out the formulas for making capsules, but it took a brainy free-lance writer named Roger Kahn to put the Midas touch to the idea.

Kahn wrapped Taller's drab ideas in a book and came out with the title "Calories Don't Count," which in view of the nationwide mania of counting calories was about the most sensational suggestion in dietary history.

The book, along with about a jillion of Taller's pills, sold like wildfire. Finally, the feds stepped in and put a stop to it when it was established that Taller's claims for his products were largely false and also that he had a financial interest in the book and the products.

This is about the neatest money-raising scheme I have heard of lately, and sort of hate to see the old boys get nabbed like they did. I have to admire people who can dream up such slick con ideas. We are prone to think real con games went out of style in the 1920's but they sure didn't.

The FDA says: "What is shocking about his episode is that the public has been led to believe that Dr. Taller, a licensed medical doctor, prepared the book to advance a revolutionary new dieting idea that he had developed and proved by sound scientific observation. The facts now show that the book is primarily the work of laymen and one of its main purposes was to promote the sale of a commercial product in which Dr. Taller had a financial interest. The book is full of false ideas, as many competent medical and nutritional writers have pointed out."

"U.S. Marshals last January seized more than 280 cases of CDC (Calories Don't Count) capsules with copies of the book 'Calories Don't Count' on charges that the book and other labeling material falsely represented the safflower oil capsule as effective in lowering the cholesterol level of the blood, for treating arteriosclerosis and heartburn, improving the complexion, increasing resistance to colds and sinus trouble, promoting health, increasing sexual drive and for other purposes. FDA said the default decree represents a court finding that the claims made in promoting the safflower oil capsule are false."

Our thanks to A. L. Tandy, who brought in some enormous turnips for our enjoyment this week. This is either the second or third year Mr. Tandy has shared with us and we appreciate it. From the size of this year's turnips, Mr. Tandy must be the world's champion turnip grower.

SEATTLE, WASH., REPUBLICAN CALL: "If we consider all civil spending outside of the defense area since 1954 we come up with some startling and shocking figures. In 1954 such expenditures were budgeted at $12 billion. In fiscal 1963 these costs will have risen to $26 billion, an increase of 126 per cent. These civil expenditures include agriculture, veterans, health and welfare, commerce, natural resources, space research and technology, education, labor and housing. But this total excludes government trust funds, social security, highway, unemployment compensation and railroad and federal retirement programs. If these were to be included in the 1963 budget the grand total would come to $52.4 billion."

Dr. Kay called the present day and "age of confusion" stating that people try to reach the top without discipline. "It can't be done", he says. He added the young people prefer love, respect and honor to material things. He also cited lack of communication leading to misunderstandings as the basis of many problems.

His solution included four points: have respect for God and man, the American education system which is second to none, emphasize the positive instead of the negative and do not underestimate our outh.

mer County. "VICTORY OVER POLIO" is the goal. Q. Who should take the vaccine?

A. All persons residing in Parmer County. This includes everybody, from babies to senior citizens. Q. When will the program start?

A. The first date is Sunday Dec. 2.

Q. What will happen at the Clinics?

A. Each person will be given a dose of Type I Sabin Polio Vaccine -- two drops of vaccine on a sugar lump.

Q. What will this cost?

A. A donation to help defray the cost of the program may be given. Everyone will be immunized whether he contributes or not.

Q. What time may I go to the clinic?

A. The clinics will be open from 12:00 noon until 4:30 p.m. (1:30 - 4:30 in Bovina). It will take you just a few minutes to get your vaccine.

Q. I have had the Salk polio injections. Should I take this too?

A. By all means! While the Salk vaccine was a very important step, this vaccine provides more complete protection for a longer period of time. Sabin vaccine also prevents you from being a carrier of the dread virus. This means protection for the whole community because the virus can be eliminated from the area.

Q. Is there any danger in taking this vaccine?

A. It has been given to millions of people here in the United States as well as millions elsewhere in the world. There have been no reactions in all these people.

Q. What about pregnant women?

A. They should take the vaccine. It will protect them without causing them any trouble, and it may give temporary protection to the newborn.

Q. If I am sick, should I take the vaccine?

A. If you are troubled with vomiting or diarrhea it would be better for you to take your vaccine at a later date.

Q. I am a diabetic. Should I take the vaccine? What about the sugar lump?

A. Diabetics, like all others, should take the vaccine. The sugar lump contains 9 calories, so it will not upset the diabetic. If you wish, the dose can be given to you directly from a dropper.

Q. Does the vaccine taste bad?

A. There is no taste to it. Q. Will this one dose give me complete protection?

A. This dose will give protection to Type I only. Type III and Type II will be given later.

Q. Who is sponsoring the clinics?

A. The Parmer County Medical Society and Home Demonstration Clubs in Parmer Co.

Q. Who recommends the Sabin oral vaccine?

A. The National Institutes of Health, the Surgeon General of the United States, The Parmer County Medical Society, and your family doctor.

Q. Why can't my family doctor give the vaccine?

A. He can. However, because of the increasing number of cases of Type I polio in Texas, the physicians of Parmer County have agreed that the mass immunization program should be undertaken NOW.

Arlin Lee Smith, 23, of Route 2, Farwell, was injured Thanksgiving Day when he was thrown from a tractor he was driving east of Farwell on U.S. Highway 84. Smith's tractor was struck by a car driven by Don Alexander Duff, Lubbock, who stated that the brakes went out on his automobile.

Smith suffered a light concussion and skin abrasions. He was treated by a Farwell physician and then sent to a Clovis, N.M. hospital.

Two accidents resulted in minor property damage in Friona Monday morning. A pickup truck driven by J. C. Claiborn collided with an automobile driven by James R. Fortenberry, 16, at the intersection of Euclid Avenue and 10th Street.

Fortenberry was issued a ticket for making an unsafe left turn.

Another Monday morning accident in Friona found cars driven by Douglas Charles Fry, 15, and Lydia G. Perez, colliding at Main and Sixth Streets. Mrs. Perez was issued a citation for failure to yield right of way.

Ginning Total Tops 25,000 Bales; Harvest At Peak

STRIPPERS UNDERWAY . . . Cotton harvesting was stepped up in Farmer County this week, as the ginning total for the county topped the 25,000-bale mark. Charlie Owens, who farms with A. V. Campbell near Bovina, was one of numerous farmers taking to the fields this week.

Parmer County farmers, who have already harvested one of the best maize crops in the county's history, appear about to follow that up with perhaps the top cotton crop on record.

With good harvesting conditions returning to the county this week, mechanical strippers took to the fields bent on "getting the crop out," and early indications are that the crop is going to be a good one. Figures compiled this week from the 16 Parmer County cotton gins showed that the number of bales ginned had reached 25,792, with estimates of the percentage of the crop already "in" ranging from very little to about one-third.

If the figure represents one-third of the county's crop, then it could easily be the top cotton crop in Parmer's history, and would far exceed estimates for the county's production, which have been placed at both 60,000 and 62,000 bales in recent weeks.

"We're just getting started good," says Paul Scott of Clay's Corner Gin. Scott pretty well summed up the feeling of ginners around Lazbuddie in the southern part of the county -- that most of the cotton was still in the field.

Howard Baker of Lariat Gin said he thought less than one-third of the cotton in his area was harvested. "It might be 30 per cent to one-third completed in this area," stated G. W. Fleming, of Fleming & Son Gin, Hub.

The cotton also appears to be making a good yield as well as grade. "There is a lot of two-bale-per-acre cotton," said Steve Hargus of Friona Country Club Gin. He agreed that most farmers were doing as well as they had hoped, some even better.

Ovid Lawlis, of Lawlis Gin in Bovina, stated that farmers in that area were doing a lot better than last year.

Ray Carille of Plains Farmers Gin, said farmers were getting grades two to three points higher than last year, and yields of three to six per cent higher.

While the figure of 25,792 undoubtedly contains many bales of cotton brought into Parmer County from outside, since several gins are near the county line, it is still a pretty good yardstick by which to measure the 1962 crop, since by the same token a lot of cotton grown in the county probably is taken to gins outside the county.

For peanut butter cookies with a delightfully different flavor and texture, try the following recipe.

Peanut Butter Cookies
 1 jar (12 ounces) creamy peanut butter
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 cup sugar
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
 2 egg whites, slightly beaten
 Blend peanut butter with salt sugar and vanilla. Stir in egg whites until well blended. Chill in covered bowl, 2 hours or longer. Roll on a lightly floured board 1/4 inch thick and cut in desired shapes.

Bake on an ungreased cookie sheet in a moderate oven 12 to 20 minutes. Makes approximately three dozen two inch cookies.

A new product now on the market which is very adaptable to Christmas decorations is artificial grass. It is available in packages with illustrated suggestions for use and detailed diagrams included. It is ideal for crafts.

This material is very pretty and practical for Christmas wreaths, ornaments or scenes. This grass like material can be cut, draped, painted or stapled. It comes in packages of green or natural straw color. The straw color could very easily be dyed any color desired to fit into your color scheme.

Since holiday time is always the time for guests to drop in unexpectedly, it is a good idea to have several items handy for quick snacks.

Dips served with potato chips, corn chips or on crackers may be purchased ready to serve, but making your own is a very pleasant way to add an extra touch to your serving.

The three following recipes are variations of nibblers or may be served with regular meals.

Holiday Dip
 1 package onion soup
 1 pint commercial sour cream
 4 ounces blue cheese, crumbled
 3/4 cup chopped pecans
 Combine onion soup mix and sour cream, then blend thoroughly. Fold in remaining ingredients. Serve on crackers, potato chips or corn chips.

Nibblers
 1 (6 ounce) package pretzel sticks
 2 (8 ounce) cans salted peanuts
 1 package crisp rice cereal
 1 package crisp oat cereal
 1 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 1 package crisp rice cereal
 1 package crisp oat cereal
 1 1/4 cup butter or margarine
 1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce
 1 tablespoon garlic salt
 1 tablespoon onion salt
 1 tablespoon celery salt
 Break pretzel sticks into small pieces and mix with peanuts and cereals in a large roasting pan. Heat butter or margarine until melted and stir in Worcestershire sauce, garlic, onion and celery salt.
 Four over cereal mixture and mix thoroughly. Cover and bake at 225 degrees for 1 hour. Remove cover and bake another hour stirring occasionally.

Cottage Cheese Dip
 With Relishes

1 (12 ounce) carton cottage cheese
 1/2 cup skim milk
 2 tablespoons lime juice
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 clove garlic, crushed
 1 teaspoon onion juice
 dash curry powder
 radishes
 cherry
 carrots
 tomatoes

Rub cottage cheese through fine sieve. Blend in milk. Add the next five ingredients and mix well. Chill. Wash vegetables, cut into serving pieces and chill. Arrange vegetables on plate with dip.

Details on the 1962 state-wide swine carcass test program have been released by T. D. Tanksley, extension animal husbandman. He says the contest provides an opportunity for hog producers to get valuable information on their animals at little cost. Both commercial and purebred producers are urged to participate and details are available from local county agents or teachers of vocational agriculture.

FOOTSAVING EDUCATION

by James E. Edwards

Are They Tight Or Just New?

There is grave danger to a child's foot health to assume that the shoes, purchased for Easter, still fit. Granting that the shoes were worn very little and still look like new, we still have to face the fact that children's feet grow more in Spring and early Summer than they do the rest of the year. We can let out pants cuffs but shoes never stretch lengthwise.

Here is the danger -- garbage men don't smell garbage. They probably do when they start on the job and when they come back from a vacation but their sense of smell tires of sending the same message to the brain. Children don't feel the pinch of tight shoes if they wear them long enough to "get used" to the tightness. Most of our foot trouble is caused by ill-fitting shoes that stop hurting when the nerves stop sending the "hurt" message to the brain. After a summer of barefoot freedom in canvas shoes, sandals, or no shoes at all, it is very difficult to say whether the leather shoes are really too small or just stiffer than the are accustomed to. Healthy feet are the foundation of a healthy body. Nothing that we buy to clothe a child for back-to-school is as important as the shoes that will keep his feet straight or deform them with bunions. Put shoe-fitting high on your back-to-school list.

Special Ruling Aids Housing For Rural "Senior Citizens"

Mr. L. J. Cappleman, State Director, Farmers Home Administration, advised the local County Supervisor, Mr. Billy R. Boling, that recent legislation amends Title V of the Housing Act of 1949 by adding new provisions which authorize loans and grants for moderate cost housing and related facilities for elderly persons and families in rural areas. It liberalizes some regulations on rural housing loans now being made by Farmers Home Administration and sets up new direct and insured loan programs.

This new legislation will be administered in Parmer County by USDA's Farmers Home Administration. Rural housing loans are made by this agency to farmers and other families living in rural areas who need improved housing and cannot qualify for credit from other sources.

One new provision will give those people, who are 62 years of age or over, special advantages not available under the earlier loan program. First, they can buy previously-occupied existing housing as well as improve their homes. Second, they can finance the cost of the building site as well as the dwelling with the loan proceeds; other families must own the land on which to build the homes before they can apply for a loan. Third, cosigners may be used by elderly applicants who are deficient in repayment ability. Like rural housing loans now being made by Farmers Home Administration, these direct loans will bear interest at the rate of four per cent and may be repaid over a period not exceeding 33 years.

For detailed information concerning rural housing loans for the senior citizen, Mr. Billy R. Boling, local County Supervisor, Farmers Home Administration, may be contacted.

Game Association Schedules Meeting

The Parmer County Game Association will meet Thursday, November 29 at the Bovina School Library at 8 p.m.

The Highway Patrol investigated 16 rural accidents in Parmer County during the month of October according to Sergeant W. E. Wells Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for six persons injured and an estimated property damage of $8,387.

The rural accident summary for the county from January through October of 1962 shows a total of 90 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were three persons killed and 45 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $56,457.

We are on the threshold of December which signals the start of our Holiday season and the cold grim "Traffic Facts." During the last five years there has been a total of 11,902 traffic fatalities in Texas. Of this total 2,354 or 20% were killed during the months of November and December. For the year thus far there has been 1,841 traffic fatalities as compared to 1,766 for the same period of 1961, an increase of 75 or four per cent with deadly November and December yet to come.

"These cold grim traffic facts alone are a challenge for every responsible citizen.

Farm Facts

The European Common Market is already the biggest foreign cash buyer of U. S. farm products, according to Raymond A. Ioanes, administrator of the Foreign Agricultural Service.

It includes France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands, and Luxembourg. Eventually, as in the U. S., there will be no restrictions on movement of goods, capital, services, and workers within the area.

"The population of the Common Market as now constituted is close to that of the United States. Another 55 million persons are added by the overseas countries and territories. However, the addition of countries seeking membership or association could well bring the population to over 300 million," Mr. Ioanes notes.

"A strong demand exists in the Common Market for a long list of the farm products we want to sell. The quality of our food and fiber is high, and our prices are competitive.

"These factors, despite restrictions which have hampered access of our farm products to the Common Market, have generally worked in our favor--at least up to now."

HD Agent's Notes

BY MISS ETTIE MUSIL

This is my last visit with you through this news column after completing two full years since I came to Farmer County, December 1, 1960. I remember how uneasy I felt as I wrote my first column for the first week in the county.

Mrs. Betty Baldrige, then with the State Line Tribune, invited me to write a regular weekly column. Since that time I have tried to keep you up to date with research findings and what's new in home economics.

My resignation as Farmer County Home Demonstration Agent will become effective Friday, November 30. However, I shall remain in the county as a full time homemaker as Mrs. Pete Jesko. Hope to see you in the grocery stores in the county and at county events, if just come see us sometimes.

As a final note let us consider the "home shortcuts" to be of great help in taking care of the No. 1 problem of American women today—lack of time. For house care and management have you thought that you can wash plastic shower curtains in the clothes washer and dry a few minutes at the de-wrinkle setting of the clothes dryer? Try it.

Let your clothes dryer fluff and remove dust from shag rugs, chenille items, bed and sofa pillows, Tumble draperies for a few minutes in the dryer to dust and freshen.

Do you always dread spring or fall cleaning? You can avoid spring and fall house cleaning. Consider doing thoroughly one room every week or two, doing some of every day. Thus, all areas get regular periodic cleaning and only one room at a time is then upset.

Time yourself on cleaning jobs. Know which ones can be done in 5, 10, 15, or 20 minutes. Do one or two five-minute jobs while you wait for dinner to cook, or work in a 20-minute one after dinner.

Try these time-saving shortcuts when preparing food. Cook once for two or three meals by preparing double or triple quantities of a favorite recipe and storing away in the freezer for later use.

Cook a pound of bacon in the oven at once, then freeze or refrigerate the slices flat. They will be ready on a broiler pan for breakfast in no time with no mess or grease.

Package hamburgers, bacon, chops, steaks, and sliced meat so they can be removed from the freezer in the desired number of portions. Separate portions, in each package, with a double-thickness of wax paper. At preparation time, insert blunt knife between the pieces of wax paper, give a little twist, and the portions will separate.

Here's a very good time saver. A few minutes spent as you put away food will save many minutes in preparation time later on. Allow time after shopping to put foods away ready for immediate use. Wash, trim, chop, or freeze the food.

Buy in quantity, if your storage permits. Such things as paper items, laundry supplies, bottled goods can be purchased in sizeable quantities. A variety of canned, packaged and frozen foods can be bought in amounts suitable for your use. Buy foods in the container size which fits your serving habits. Three small packages instead of one large one may save time in re-packaging.

When buying new home furnishings, furniture or rugs, consider color or finish in relation to upkeep. Dark rugs and furniture show dust much more than light and medium tones do.

Such seeming luxuries as wall-to-wall carpeting or air conditioning may be worth the money because the carpeting will reduce floor care time, or the air conditioning will cut down dusting and cleaning chores.

Management in the home, on the farm, and in business is our all important secret of time, energy, and money. Next time you start to town make a marketing order or schedule of errands. Did you know that years ago our biggest budget went for housing, foods, and clothing. Now it's housing, foods and transportation.

COTTON ROLLING IN . . . Travis Dyer, who farms west of Bovina, typifies the cotton farmers throughout Farmer County who welcomed the spring-like weather this week by cranking up their strippers.

Vote Explained For Cotton Referendum December 11

Just what a "yes" or a "no" vote will mean in the December 11 referendum on cotton marketing quotas was explained this week by Prentice Mills, office manager of Farmer County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation. All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1962 are eligible to vote in the referendum.

Mills mentioned the fact that vacation; September -- Charlotte Davis; October -- Judy Koelzer; November -- Terri Sue Mabry; December -- Christmas party.

A total of 30 members and 11 guests were present for the meeting. Katie Blackstone led the 4-H Pledge.

Hair can be dried in 10 minutes with a tank vacuum. To clean the air hose, reverse it for one minute. Then wrap a towel around your head, leaving an end of the towel open so the hose can be put in to blow air through. When hair is partly dry, remove the towel and spot-dry wet areas.

The Administration plans to recommend new cotton legislation early in 1963. It is anticipated, however, that such legislation would supplement rather than substantially change the basic program choices to be presented for growers' determination in the Dec. 11 referendum.

"If at least two-thirds of the growers who vote in the referendum approve of quotas," he declared, "then the quotas will be in effect for the 1963 upland cotton crop, marketing penalties will apply to any 'excess' cotton produced on a farm, and price support at a level within the range of 65 to 90 per cent of parity will be available to farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments."

"On the other hand, if more than one-third of the growers who vote oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1963 upland cotton crop, and price support to farmers who comply with their farm acreage allotments will be available at 50 per cent of parity, as directed by law.

"Allotments are not affected by the outcome of the balloting. They will remain in effect -- whether or not quotas are approved -- as a means of determining eligibility for the available price support."

Mills pointed out that, while the Secretary of Agriculture is directed by law to proclaim quotas for the next crop when the cotton supply exceeds normal, it is the growers themselves who decide whether or not quotas shall be used. Previous votes on the subject have been outstandingly favorable. Marketing quotas for the 1962 upland cotton crop were approved by 96.9 per cent of the growers voting.

The polling places for Farmer County farmers will be announced next week, Mills stated.

NEWS FROM THE FARM BUREAU

BY RAYMOND EULER

Frank Hinkson, of the Lazbuddie Community was elected Vice President of Farm Bureau at the last director's meeting. Mr. Hinkson was also nominated to serve on the county Program Building Committee, representing Farm Bureau.

Vernon Symcox was re-elected secretary - treasurer, a position he has held for many years. Mr. Symcox farms several hundred acres between Lariat and Oklahoma Lane, and although he is a busy man, he has never missed a meeting except when ill or out of the country.

Jim Dixon, a new director, was appointed chairman of the Legislative Committee, and Ernest Kube was appointed chairman of the Commodity Committee. Mr. Kube, who lives at Farwell, is serving his second term as director.

Your Farmer County Farm Bureau showed an increase of twenty five members over the previous year, and Texas Farm Bureau had an increase of over two thousand. Sixteen hundred attended the Annual Banquet in San Antonio, and that is six hundred over the previous largest attendance.

Several years ago, TFB delegates deleted the statement supporting the UN from its creed after a motion to that effect. In the recent convention, delegates voted favoring a resolution that would get the United States out of the United Nations and also withdraw its support, dollarwise, beyond its own obligations. This kind of action by our nation would very likely spell the end of the organization, which, according to most constitutional believers would be the best thing to happen to it since its inception.

Did you know that 25.9 per cent of the total population of the United States is on the public payroll? Almost thirty eight million of these are Federal payees, and the balance are State and Civil payees. Do you think this is a good situation? It would indicate that the average income of the remaining people, not on public income, would be reduced by 25% to take care of these payments.

Do you know what is being taught in the school that your child attends? One of the primary targets of Communism is the mind of the child in school. Remember that Communism is the direct opposite of Christianity in every phase, social, economic, moral, etc.

Ford ideas so contagious they started a new trend in cars!

If you think today's cars have a lot in common, credit the Ford sketches above. For these ideas sparked a revolution in car design that's reflected wherever you look on the American road.

Ford ideas have a habit of being exciting—practical, too. Consider the innovations found only in our '63s. There is Ford Galaxie's smooth new velvet ride. It cost Ford $10 million to bring it to you, but costs you not a penny extra to enjoy. There is Ford's full twice-a-year or 6,000-mile maintenance* schedule that cuts service worry and expense to a minimum. There's a new manual transmission that lets you shift down from second to first without coming to a stop. And for '63, there's the biggest choice of models ever offered—44 in all!

Only Ford offers all these advantages now. Other cars will eventually catch up—but if you can't wait, here's a tip. See your Ford Dealer today!

A lot of wheat fields are being affected by wheat rust at the present time. The disease attacks the leaves and leaf sheaths, producing small round orange-red pustules. They may occur on eight side of the leaf, but they do not extend through the entire leaf tissue as stem rust pustules usually do.

Leaf rust is favored by moderately cool weather in contrast with the warmer weather required for the rapid spread of stem rust. The disease may be found in Texas nearly any time during the fall, winter or spring. It often becomes established in the fall and continues to spread slowly all winter. Infected leaves become yellow and die prematurely when infection is high.

The damage caused by leaf rust often is inconspicuous and many growers consider the disease of little importance. Closely controlled experiments show that infected leaves lose more water than normal leaves as photosynthetic tissues are destroyed. Yields are reduced because of smaller seed and reduced seed setting. During severe epidemics some varieties fail to head, plants are weakened and lodge, tillering is reduced and the production of forage is lowered.

Considerable progress has been made in developing leaf rust - resistant varieties adapted to Texas conditions. No variety is resistant to all races prevalent in the State. Races are constantly changing in prevalence and new races may arise by hyphal fusion on the wheat plant. Varieties which are resistant at one time may later become susceptible when races of rust change or new ones arise.

Texas varieties with the highest degree of resistance to present races of leaf rust are Quannah, Ponca and Frisco. Crockett and Know are susceptible in the seedling stage, but develop a high degree of resistance from the boot stage to maturity. Concho, Wearat, Mediterranean, Austin, Seabreeze and Comanche are resistant to many races, but are susceptible to others.

Also, don't forget the Income Tax Meeting which will be held on December 10 at the Hub Community Center beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Mr. James Murphrey, Farm Management Specialist and Internal Revenue People will discuss Records That Should Be Kept, Income to Be Reported, Deduction and Personal Exemptions, Farm Business Expense, Depreciation and Depletions, Soil & Water Conservation Expenses, Capital Gains and Losses, Trades, Condemnation and Disease Livestock, Federal and State Tax and State Inheritance Tax.

After the meeting our Specialist will be glad to discuss personal problems and questions you may have pertaining to the above topics.

New Invention Improves Bale Tagging Method

A new tool designed as a part of a research effort by USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service to improve methods and equipment used in tagging cotton bales has passed its first test.

B. G. Reeves, cotton ginning and mechanization specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says use of the new tool can save money, labor and time for cotton warehousemen. The number of bales which show up with missing tags can also be reduced. The tool is a pair of pliers grooved to hold rings, with a magazine attachment that automatically feeds rings into the jaws of the pliers. The pliers can bite into the bagging and cotton, thus firmly attaching the tag to the bale. Light-weight copper or steel wire has been commonly used for the tagging job. Such wire, threaded only through the bagging, is not strong enough to take the roughbale handling that occurs with mechanical equipment such as lift trucks, clamps and breakout devices. These machines often brush off, tear or mutilate warehouse tags. Warehousemen lose time and money in tracing and identifying bales without tags.

Rings used with the new tool are 12 1/2-gauge copper-coated wire. Tags have wire holes 3/8-inch in diameter instead of the usual 3/16-inch. The heavier rings hold the tags firmly in place, and the larger opening permits tags to move freely, with less chance for them to be torn off in handling operations.

The new method also permits uniform placement of the tags on bales.

Reeves says the tag rings are now being produced by more than one manufacturer and may be round, oval, oblong or triangular. All are designed for maximum strength and efficiency in the tagging operation. The tagging pliers are also being manufactured commercially, he adds.

Little time is required, the specialist explains, to train a worker to use the bale-tagging pliers. He can usually coordinate his actions in handling pliers, rings and tags after tagging a block of 100 bales. The new method works equally well on compressed or uncompressed bales, Reeves says.

National HD Council Sponsors 1963 Traffic Safety Contest

Entries are now being accepted for the National Home Demonstration Council's 1963 traffic safety contest, officials of the national organization have announced.

"Make your community a safer place in which to live by having your club conduct a community traffic safety program," suggests Mrs. Lionel Jarvis, national safety chairman, from Cedartown, Ga.

The annual traffic safety awards program is a continuous project of the National Home Demonstration Council in cooperation with the Allstate Foundation. Any local club of a county and state Home Demonstration Council in the United States and Puerto Rico may enter the contest. Cash awards go to the top three entries.

Entries -- which should be based on a project initiated and carried out between July 1, 1962, and June 30, 1963 -- should be mailed on or before midnight, July 15, 1963. The entries should be addressed to Mrs. Jarvis, safety chairman, National Home Demonstration Council, c/o Allstate Foundation, 1710 H Street, N. W., Suite 800; Washington 6, D. C.

Possible projects might include improvement of rural traffic courts, safety education in schools, improvement of traffic law enforcement; improvement of rural traffic signs, signals and markings, and rural pedestrian protection. Clubs planning to enter should appoint a safety chairman to serve through the contest, and select a committee to share the work and responsibility. The club should secure the cooperation of as many civic groups and organizations as possible.

The entry should be submitted in a simple scrapbook. It must include a typewritten report of the club's traffic safety project--who was involved, why the project was chosen, and what was completed. Publicity given the club's project should also be entered in the scrapbook.

Texas 4-H Members Attend Club Congress

A 31-boy and girl delegation will represent Texas at National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, November 25-29. They will assemble in Dallas on November 23 and after a get-acquainted meeting and a luncheon provided by the First National Bank in Dallas, will depart by special train for the nation's number one annual 4-H meeting.

The delegates come from 23 different counties and 10 of the 12 Extension Districts in Texas. Delegation chaperons will be Marshall Crouch, assistant state 4-H leader and County Extension Agents Uel Stockard, Ellis county and Jimmy Lou Wainscott, Hidalgo county (Former Parmer County Home Demonstration Agent), Miss Peggy Wilsford, assistant state 4-H leader, will accompany two national trip winners, Patricia Hrcncr, Lavaca county and Garry Carter, Montague county. They won trips in citizenship and public speaking and were required to be in Chicago on November 23. The latter three will make the return trip with the state delegation on November 30.

Director John E. Hutchison, Mrs. Florence Low, assistant director for home economics and Assistant Editor J. W. Potts will also attend the Congress. Mrs. Low will speak at a Wednesday morning breakfast sponsored by the Singer Sewing Machine Company for 4-H leaders and invited guests. Potts will serve as a member of the Congress' Press Committee.

The Congress is meeting for the 41st time and will be attended by 1,500 of the nation's most outstanding 4-H club members. Each has been named a state winner in his or her demonstration or project field. Many will receive national awards during the Congress. Delegations from many foreign countries will give the meeting an international aspect.

National 4-H Club Congress is made possible through award programs sponsored by many of the nation's leading business and industrial concerns. Funds which they provide are handled through the National 4-H Service Committee, Inc., Chicago, and the Committee, along with many State and Federal Extension Service employees work together to make Club Congress a national institution.

Approve Quotas Naman Urges

Texas Farmers Union President Jay Naman today urged that "eligible cotton farmers accept their responsibilities by voting for the continuation of marketing quotas and acreage allotments on December 11th, which is the date that has been set for the national marketing referendum."

Naman continued: "A large vote for this program, that has meant so much to cotton farmers, will reaffirm farmers' support for wise supply management programs and reject any contention on the part of some groups that farmers do not want marketing quotas and acreage allotments in return for a fair price."

"The cotton producer will be in a better position to present his case for a long range cotton program including such tools as direct payments, already approved for wheat and feed grains, if he will register a large affirmative vote in the referendum."

"The Cotton Advisory Committee has recently recommended an increase in cotton acreage contingent on the passage of a cotton program that will enable, through deficiency payments, the present overproduction to be moved into consumption without adversely affecting farmers' income. This does not relieve cotton farmers from the duty to support the program by voting, but rather intensifies it."

"Many Congressmen will be watching the results of the referendum to determine the attitudes of farmers toward the continuation and broadening of farm programs designed in their best interest," he concluded.

F.U. Convention Slated In San Antonio Dec. 7-8

Farmers from every area of Texas will congregate at San Antonio at the Granada Hotel on December 7 and 8 for the 59th Annual Convention of the Texas Farmers Union.

Highlighting the convention program will be the appearance of a Hartington, Nebraska banker, Vincent Emmett Rossiter, who has gained nationwide recognition for his speech made before the Land and People Conference held recently in Denver, Colorado.

In the Denver speech, Rossiter told the conference on Land and People "We must restore the profit level in our basic industry of agriculture and thus the total economy, or we will be unable as a nation to sustain the more than one trillion dollars of public and private debt that presently exists at all levels of the financial system of this country." Rossiter went on to ask the questions "When all of the farmers and rural townspeople have moved to the city and the last dollar of credit is spent duplicating facilities that are left to rot and decay in the rural areas, what then?"

Rossiter refers to himself as a "dirt banker" as a counterpart the "dirt farmer" and his varied and colorful career from farm hand to bank president might well be an Horatio Alger success story.

After graduating from high school at Hartington, Rossiter attended and graduated from St. Thomas Military Academy, St. Paul, Minn. in 1932. During the lean years of the 1930s, he worked as WPA laborer, farm hand and a salesman; and in 1936 he went to work for the Bank of Hartington as a bookkeeper. He was promoted through the various departments of the bank until he became president in 1951.

Electricity Recommended For Ice-Free Stock Water

Breaking ice on stock watering troughs or tanks is no pleasant task. It isn't necessary if an automatic livestock waterer, equipped with an electrical heating element, is installed, says W. S. Allen, extension agricultural engineer.

Water should be available for livestock at all times, he adds, even in the coldest weather. Tests have shown that cows watered automatically drank 18 per cent more water and gave 3.5 per cent more milk than cows watered twice daily. Beef cattle and hogs also need plenty of water if they are to do well during the winter months, the engineer adds.

Automatic electrically heated livestock waterers are available in many shapes and sizes and for all types of livestock. Basically, a unit consists of a water tank fed by pressure or a gravity water system, a float valve, a heating element controlled by a thermostat, and a housing to support the tank and exclude outside air movement around the tank.

Allen suggests purchasing the smallest unit that will provide ample water for your livestock. A general purpose bowl type waterer will handle up to 30 head of cattle or 60 hogs. The heating element should be immersed in the water of the tank or attached to the underside of the tank. These types, he explains, are usually more efficient than those which warm the space enclosed by the housing.

The thermostat is an important part of the automatic waterer and one with a 5 degree range between the "on and off" operating points is desirable. Cattle or combination waterers should be insulated on the sides to conserve electricity. Covers are also recommended for reducing operating costs and as an aid to keeping the water clean. Allen says to select a unit which can be cleaned easily.

He says the water temperature should be maintained just high enough to prevent surface freezing. This will usually be between 45 and 50 degrees F. And finally, he suggests a visit with the local county agent for detailed information on selection, installation and operation of these time and labor-saving devices.

The urgency of this action is emphasized by the severe acreage cut announced this week. This proposed acreage cut is a direct result of losing an 800,000-bale market to synthetics during recent months.

RESEARCH-

Institute funds are being used on research projects to ease the cost-price squeeze. Eleven projects are now underway, one of which is to find an effective control of VERTICILLIUM WILT.

Other projects are aimed at developing new markets through new and improved cotton products.

PROMOTION-

The Institute's promotion budget calls for expenditure of $1 million over the next 15 months to sell American consumers on the advantage of buying products made from cotton. The U. S. housewife will be the main target of Institute advertising.

All cotton growers are being asked to participate in this program through their gins, who are cooperating with the Institute Finance plan.
