FORE!

"The Great Texico Golf Challenge" is scheduled to kick off July 3 at 8 a.m. mst at KKR Park in Texico.

Entry fee is $20. Prizes will be given the first place winner, $100; 2nd place, $50, and 3rd place, $25. Also, the first 50 golfers to sign up will be eligible for drawings for 18 prizes. To enter, send a check to Ronnie Warmuth, in care of the Chamber of Commerce, Texico, NM 88135.

The tournament probably will be over by noon that day, but will depend on the number of participants.

The maximum number of shots per hole will be 5. Here's a "hole by hole" breakdown:

No. 1 - "Straight and Narrow" at KKR Park. It's 100 yards long.

No. 2 - "Triple Threat" at KKR Park. The 70-yard hole features hitting the ball over 3 trees in a row.

No. 3 - "The Pond" at KKR Park. You drive over the pond - and must be careful of the ditch! It's 80 yards long.

No. 4 - "Putter's Paradise" at Lions Park. You can chip or putt within a 40-foot circle.

No. 5 - "The Sand Storm" at the sand volleyball court at First Baptist Church. For an extra $1, you can get a 1-shot deduction but hitting within 5 feet of the circle.

No. 6 - "Plumber's Nightmare" means hitting over the old barracks (which is being demolished) next to the First Baptist Church. A toilet tank has been laid on its side and you must putt into it. If you hit into the toilet bowl, you get a 2-shot deduction.

No. 7 - "Bullseye" at the school football field. You chip into an old tire near the shot put area. There's a 7-shot maximum on this hole.

No. 8 - "Field Goal" at the school football field. The 110-yard hold means hitting within a small circle. And if you hit over the goal post, it's a 2 stroke deduction.

No. 9 - "Extra Point" at the school football field. Like Hole No. 5, for an extra $1 you get a 1-shot deduction if you hit within a 5-foot circle. You get five tries to hit over the uprights. Women will have a shorter hole, and the flag pole won't be in their way.

Holguin is new Texico deputy

Texico's new Deputy Marshal, Gilbert Holguin, thinks police work is better the second time around.

Holguin, a Deming, N.M., native started his career in law enforcement in 1982 as a Luna County deputy jailer. He stayed in law enforcement until 1990, leaving to fulfill a childhood dream - driving semi-trucks. Now he has returned to law enforcement, in spite of a substantial pay cut.

"If you are in law enforcement, you know you aren't in it for the money," says Holguin.

Like many kids growing up in rural New Mexico, Holguin wasn't really sure what he wanted to be when he grew up. He just knew it wouldn't be farming.

Law enforcement was one job that appealed to him early in life, but it wasn't the only job that appealed to him. He gave law enforcement a good try - first as a deputy jailer, then moving to Clovis in 1984 as a patrolman. Later he spent several years with Clovis' canine patrol. He was a sergeant with the canine patrol when he decided that he needed a career change.

Five girls sign up for queen's contest

The Border Town Days Queen's Contest got off to a good start with a Coke Party Tuesday at the Spur Restaurant.

Five girls have signed up for the contest so far. "Contestants really need to sign up before we meet again on June 22," said committee chairman Shandra McIntosh.

The girls will meet at the Texico Community Center on June 22 to make the sashes that they will wear in the contest, and for pizza.

Later this summer the Queen contestants will have a complete beauty makeover at the Vogue Beauty College where they will each have a hairstyle, make up consultation, and professional advice about the colors and styles of clothing which will work well for each of them. "The girls really benefit from this," said Mrs. McIntosh.

On July 10 the girls will participate in a style show sponsored by Rip's Ladies Wear and presented at the Texico Educational Complex.

The girls will also have a swimming party at the Texico pool this summer. And, they may also go to see a play.

Mrs. McIntosh stressed the fact that the girls learn so much from the contest. They meet girls who go to another school, and they learn to overcome their natural shyness.

Development planned here

The Farwell City Council Tuesday learned that a major development company is interested in placing rental apartment units for senior citizens in Farwell to be called "Farwell Senior Apartments."

The council voted to send Calhoun Property Management, of Louisiana, a letter "welcoming them to do the program in Farwell." This letter is needed for the firm to apply for a long-term loan from Farmers Home Administration.

Realtor Daren Sudderth represented Calhoun at the meeting. Mayor Chris Gikas stressed that before Farwell made an official commitment involving services to the proposed development, the council should meet with Calhoun officials.

Sudderth said Calhoun picked Farwell because of U.S. Census Bureau statistics showing a need for housing for senior citizens here. They have an option to buy land from Terry Travis, outside Farwell's city limits at its southwest corner (near State Line Road). It is believed that Calhoun also has 6-month options on property in Bovina and Friona and would lean toward those communities if it doesn't work things out in Farwell.

The $1 million project calls for 12 duplex apartments (24 apartments) in a 3-acre area. The 1- and 2-bedroom units, with 900 to 1,000 sq. ft., would be brick. Lots would be large enough for trees and gardens.

Persons must be 62 years old or older to qualify for them. It's okay for married couples - but no families. Apartments would be maintained by their renters. These are not low-income, subsidized units. The rent would be based on 30 percent of the renter's income - after his basic needs are taken care of.

Once the 12 units are filled, Calhoun would build 12 more. The maximum would be 72 duplexes. Sudderth said he has checked out the company and it's reputable. They have built 88 other projects, with 2,600 units such as those proposed here.

Calhoun would provide curbs and gutters, and water and sewer lines, for its subdivision. But the city would have to annex the area and provide city water and sewer services. That capability is available.

Gikas reported that Travis is amenable to annexation for this property and if the Calhoun project moves ahead, he would offer other parts of his property for estate development.

In other business, the council:

- Approved four building permits: Jerry Stover, 610 3rd St., home addition; John McFarland, 904 6th St., fence; Ralph Franse, Franse Irrigation, 50'x95' metal building; and Marvin Anderson, 400 2nd St., fence and driveway. The council rejected the request of Leo Gonzales for a carport at his home on 3rd Street because of the lack of space for it.

- Heard Larry Cochran, of Southern Union Gas, note that a gas rate price hike is on its way. The company would like Farwell City Council approval. Some of the councilmen had questions that Cochran will answer at the council's next meeting.

- Approved a request from Farwell Schools for its major building construction, with the stipulation that it meet city codes. The school system plans to use PVC pipe instead of cast iron pipe, to save money. Water Supt. Dee Hammit said cast iron piping was safer under buildings - and the city code doesn't allow PVC piping under buildings.

- Approved a peddler's license for Andy's Ice Cream, Lubbock. The fee is $25.

- Heard councilman John Carlson report that the city doesn't need to buy any cellular phones to make sure city employees are contacted in an emergency. The city already rents pagers, and Carlson said the city can use the sheriff's dispatcher in emergencies for paging city workers.

- Discussed using county jail inmates for work projects, such as cleaning up weeds and for cleanup before Border Town Days. The sheriff will be contacted.

- Heard Hammit say that water taps need to be changed for properties belonging to Jack Landrum and Joe Walker. The council approved charging a relocation fee of half the new feet to set a tap. In this case, it will cost each property owner $50.

- Approved replacing the 4" water meter for the schools at a cost of $880. The old one has worn out.

- Gave a pay raise to city employee Joe Serbin, who has passed some courses and now is available every other weekend for emergencies. When he becomes certified in November, another pay raise will be considered.

- Heard Municipal Judge Willie Dannheim report that 3 residents have paid for their dogs to get shots - but didn't get the shots for them. And one person paid for a tag for their pet, but didn't get the tag. City ordinance says every dog must have a tag and shots.

City Clerk Cynthia Thigpen will send out registered letters noting that if those residents don't get the shots and/or tags for their animals they will be in contempt of court.

- Approved a request from Police Chief Roy McGaa to start a ride-along program. It will give folks a chance to see what it's like riding with a police officer on duty.

Also on police matters, Gikas and councilmen Martin Kube and Jerry Stover said they have received reports from folks on how good it is to have a city police officer. Stover said more motorists are stopping at the 4-way stop on 3rd Street.

The city also will look into buying a radar unit for McGaa's vehicle.

Vehicle crackdown upcoming

Farwell is about to begin a crackdown on unlicensed, abandoned and wrecked vehicles within the city limits.

At Tuesday's City Council meeting, a letter asking for a crackdown was received from the Farwell Chamber of Commerce.

Letters will be sent to vehicle owners to begin the process of removing such vehicles outlawed by city ordinance.

Persons who know of vehicles that need to be removed are asked to call City Clerk Cynthia Thigpen at 481-3620.

Lunsford Auto Parts will remove such vehicles at no cost to the owner if called. However, the owner must have the title available. If no title is available, then the vehicle owner needs an "abandoned vehicle certificate" signed by the city police chief and including the vehicle's I.D. number.

The city will not pick up vehicles. And vehicles cannot be taken to the former city landfill.

The city also is having its annual cleanup this weekend. See information elsewhere in today's paper.

Farwell unhappy with '911'

The Farwell City Council Tuesday expressed its discontent with Parmer County's enhanced 911 emergency phone system.

Currently, Farwell calls are routed through a Friona police department dispatcher.

Farwell plans to contact ENMR Telephone to see if it can hook onto ENMR's system and leave the Parmer County one. Last year, Farwell recorded 265 "911" calls.

Councilman Pat Howard reported that Farwell Fire Chief Joel White wants out of the current 911 system.

Parmer County's 911 system used to be handled by the Parmer County sheriff's office. But the sheriff's dispatcher sometimes is away from his phone when he has to check on jail inmates. So the sheriff urged that Friona's police department, which has 24-hour dispatchers, be used for 911. This was approved.

The current problem is with the phone lines. Farwell is on ENMR's system and Friona is on GTE's system. Sometimes, the Friona dispatcher gets calls on its 911 line - without anyone answering at the other end of the line.

For example, lightning reportedly caused two 911 calls to be received at Friona.

Due to this, the Friona dispatcher now calls the Parmer County sheriff's dispatcher (when there is no answer at the other end of the line) to ask for verification of the call before fire and/or police units are sent. If the call is for real, then the sheriff's dispatcher calls the Friona dispatcher back - and the proper emergency units are dispatched.

However, if the Friona dispatcher gets a call - and someone answers at the other end of the line - then the dispatch is made immediately without verification with the sheriff.

So the problem is apparent only when there's no answer at the other end of the line. The extra phone calls made would cause a time delay if it were a true emergency.

Gym program

Texico Schools is planning sponsor a summer gymnastics program for school age children from 9 - 11 a.m. July 5-16. The fee is $20. For more information, call 482-3801.

Keeping Families Together

'B.B. Wolf vs. Curley Pig'

Students in Robin Gregory's 4th Grade class at Farwell Elementary School presented the play, "B.B. Wolf v. Curly Pig" by Carol White on May 19.

Here are two stories submitted by her students, Ashlee Hint and Cody Schilling:

First Story

On Wednesday, May 19, 1993 Curly Pig was found innocent of attempted wolf cooking by the jury in the Parmer County courtroom. The charge was brought against Curly Pig that on August 19, 1992 she opened her cauldron so that B.B. Wolf would be poached as he slid down Curly's chimney. Luckily for B.B., the steam blew him out of the chimney unhurt.

Curly's attorneys successfully argued that B.B. tried to forcibly enter Curly's house and that Curly acted in self-defense, and only wanted to warn him off. The other attorneys responded that she taunted and teased B.B. and that her cook book was found open to poached wolf.

Witnesses for Curly said that B.B. had eaten Curly's brothers and that he thought Curly would likewise be easy pickings. They also testified that B.B. Wolf had previously blown down the houses of Curly's brothers. They reported that the Wolf was trying to do the same to Curly.

In the summary, Curly's attorneys replied that Miss Curly was a law-abiding citizen, minding her own business when B.B. started harassing her. They also stated and that if she had teased him before, she was justified in doing so. And, she absolutely did not try to cook B. B. Wolf.

Second Story

Mrs. Gregory's 4th grade class presented this version of "The Three Little Pigs" in the courtroom on Wednesday, May 19. The play was titled, "B.B. Wolf v. Curly Pig," and it was written by Carol White.

The characters were: The Judge, Cade Christian; B.B. Wolf, Kolby Kimbrough; Curly Pig, Kristin Ford; Jack and Jackie Smith, Lane McFarland and Karissa Foster; B.B. Wolf's Attorneys, Jennifer McIntosh and Kris Norton; Curly Pig's Attorneys, Ashlee Hunt, Kacey Gast, and Lindsey Milloy; Bailiff, Pablo Rodriguez; Jurors, Kristin Coates, Dalia Soto, Shara Taylor, Ben Landers, Michael Hernandez, Timmy Taylor, Christ Hart, Andrea Arce, and Amanda Galvan.

Special guests included: Mrs. Corn, Mrs. Montgomery's 4th grade class; Mrs. Hunt's second grade class, Mrs. Anne Norton (County Treasurer), the Honorable Bonnie Clayton (County Judge), Mr. Coffey, Mr. Flowers, Mrs. Shipp and Mrs. Jordan.

Students in Robin Gregory's 4th Grade class at Farwell Elementary School presented the play, "B.B. Wolf v. Curly Pig," at the Parmer County Courthouse in May. It helped the students learn about how courts work.

Michael Jeter, son of Kenneth and Cordella Jeter of Friona, received a $10,000 4-year scholarship from the Houston 4-H Livestock Show and Rodeo.

He received the scholarship at the Texas 4-H Roundup at College Station.

Susan and Rex McCloy, Stinnett, Texas, and children Mike, Craig, Jennifer, Laura, Jon visited the Gil Patschke family. They celebrated Susan's birthday.

The Hal Helton and Joe Helton families attended the New Mexico State Lions Convention in Deming, N.M., last weekend.

The Latest

Michelle Kirkland's mother came to visit last week, and to take care of Michelle after Michelle's surgery.

Gwen Warren will be working this summer to assist seniors of Parmer County's high schools with anything that is necessary for them to get into college, the military, vocational schools or job training positions.

She can be called through Lazbuddie schools at 965-2156 with any questions that you have about schooling beyond high school.

Carletta Fitz and Steve Renfro

Engagement told

Gladys Fitz of Texico announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Carletta, to Steve Renfro. They will marry July 3, at First Baptist Church in Tahoka, Texas.

The bride-elect received a bachelor's degree from Wayland Baptist University. She taught math six years in O'Donnell, Texas, and plans to teach in Tahoka this fall. The future bridegroom is a graduate of Tahoka High School and is employed with the Texas Highway Department.

They will make their home in Tahoka.

Marriage Licenses

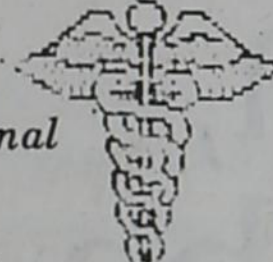

There were four marriage licenses issued in Parmer County last week:

project. Just cleaning up the dust in the buildings was a monumental task at times. All in all it was a lot of work, but the Texico School System is really to be commended for the job that they did on the addition.

Farwell will have a cleanup campaign June 18 and 19.

On both days, the usual fee charged for bring jump to the containers at the former landfill will be waived.

Also, on a one-time basis only, if residents put junk next to their dumpsters on June 18, city workers will pick it up Saturday.

Residents should first fill up the dumpsters before having to put items next to them.

A huge weather balloon was launched by the Air Force at Clovis Airport Wednesday morning. So if you saw something up in the sky, that's what it was.

It crashed later in the morning. There were no injuries.

The Bovina Blade reports that Bovina Mayor Keith Knight has resigned.

The Amarillo newspaper carried a full page feature on Farwell in its Monday edition. The emphasis was on the veterans' memorial with a nice picture of it with Hugh Moseley included.

Mini-interviews were carried with Teresa Ancira, Walter Hughes, Jeff Campbell and Roy McGaa.

I thought it was nicely done.

Okay, folks, it's time to start signing up for Border Town Days. It's especially time for the reunions, classes and families, to let us know if they are going to be in the parade.

So here are the key phone numbers (during day time):

To sign up for the parade, call Leigh Ann Woods at 481-3321.

To sign up for a concession stand, call Cynthia Thigpen at 481-3620.

To sign up for the arts and crafts fair, call Lynn Mahaney at 481-3601.

To sign up for the volleyball tournament, call Richard Carpenter at 825-2055.

Since LULAC has filed suits against the Bovina and Friona school systems over the lack of Hispanic representation on their boards, Farwell school officials have received informal word that they are next on the list to be sued.

There is one difference, though, that may prevent a suit against Farwell. While minorities constitute a majority among residents in the Bovina and Friona school systems, the total is about 37 percent in the Farwell school district.

Farwell School Supt. Richard Boothby was quoted in the Lubbock paper Tuesday to the effect that the new state school law means a loss of more than $100,000 to Farwell.

Boothby said in the Tribune two weeks ago that the new state school law would have a minimal effect on Farwell.

Why the discrepancy? The deficit would occur if the state pro rates the amount of funds already promised to Farwell. If the state provides the full funding it has promised, no loss.

The Texico Community Activities Organization had a successful fund-raiser last weekend (car wash - bake sale), earning about $700.

The funds are earmarked for the fireworks at the 4th of July celebration. About $600 more is needed.

The TCAO's next fund-raiser is Slave Day Saturday.

Holguin

As a boy he had always longed to drive one of those big rigs that he had seen rolling down the highway. He wanted to travel, and to see a little bit of the world. "Trucking gave me wings," says Holguin.

He visited just about every state west of the Mississippi through the work, and he also had the chance to see some places east of the Mississippi including Alabama, Ohio, and Michigan.

"I got to see the good and the bad," he says. "I learned a lot being on the road."

According to Holguin trucking fulfilled several of his yearnings. His pay was about double what he earned in law enforcement, and he could let his hair down a bit after work, too.

The change to truck driving gave Holguin the opportunity to look at the flip side of traffic control. "Some police react to truck drivers different than they do to ordinary civilians," he noted. Holguin saw police officers who reacted to truck drivers with sensitivity and courteous, and he also saw some who seemed to be "out to get the drivers." It was an eye opening experience.

After a couple years on the road, Holguin decided that the long hauls weren't all the glory that he had imagined. There many long, lonely hours in the job.

Now that he has returned to law enforcement, Holguin has decided that "being a cop is all my life." He hopes to bring new perspective and sensitivity to his job because of the experiences that he has gained.

Commissioners decline idea

The Parmer County Commissioners Monday heard a suggestion from Ralph Franse, president of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce, that the old boarded-up jail in back of the courthouse be used for a public restroom.

The commissioners declined, saying the transition wasn't feasible. For example, the old jail has a dirt floor.

In other business, the commissioners:

- Agreed to seek a grid roller for Pct. 4.

- Agreed to repair the Lazbuddie watershed structure over Running Water Draw. Minor repairs are needed. Commissioner Raymond McGehee will oversee it.

Wheat harvest under way

The wheat harvest is under way in Parmer County, and grain elevators are ready to store the crop.

Bob Dollar brought in the first load to the Sherley Anderson Pitman elevator in Farwell on June 3.

One employee there estimated that this will be about an average crop even though it has been a very dry spring.

When asked about the yields Rose Longley replied that, "It varies between dry land and irrigated wheat." She guessed that the harvest is now in full swing and most wheat is ready to be cut.

Yafonda McFarland estimated that the harvest was just getting started in Lariat Monday.

"We're getting mostly dry land corners; we're not into the good stuff yet," she noted.

The first load was brought into the Sherley Grain Elevator in Lariat on June 4.

"We're just beginning to get started," said Shirley Steinbock at the Sherley Grain Elevator in Lazbuddie. Elvis Powell brought in the first load there on June 3.

"So far what they've cut looked good," she said. "It surprised us, there weren't any of us expecting anything this year."

Marshal's Report

Texico Deputy Marshal Gil Holguin reports that he broke up a large party involving minors about 1 a.m. mdt on June 12.

A keg of beer was taken in evidence, and one misdemeanor arrest was made. If the deputy determines the identity of the person who purchased the keg of beer and supplied alcohol to minors, other charges will be filed.

Legal Notice

Public Notice

Southern Union Gas Company, a division of Southern Union Company, hereby gives notice of its intent to implement a new schedule of rates in its Farwell Service Area, in accordance with the Company's Statement of Intent filed with the City of Farwell, Texas, on May 27, 1993. This proposed rate change is effective for gas consumed on and after July 1, 1993.

The proposed increase does not constitute a "major change" as that term is defined in Section 5.08(b), Article 1446(e), Tex. Rev. Civ. Stat. Ann. (Supp. 1992). It is anticipated that the effect of the change in rates, when allowed, will be to increase the revenues of the Company within this service area by 2.9 percent. All customers will receive an increase in their commodity charge of $.0089 per hundred cubic feet (Ccf). A residential customer using 50 Ccf of gas per month would experience an increase of $.45 per month. A complete copy of the Company's Statement of Intent is available for inspection in its Farwell, Texas office located at 101 Avenue A, Farwell, TX 79325.

'Eye of the Storm'

"Eye of the Storm," a new dramatic movie from World Wide Pictures, will be shown June 20 at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church of Farwell.

Rev. Rick Sullivan and the members of First Baptist Church invite the community to attend this free performance. For more information, call 481-3202.

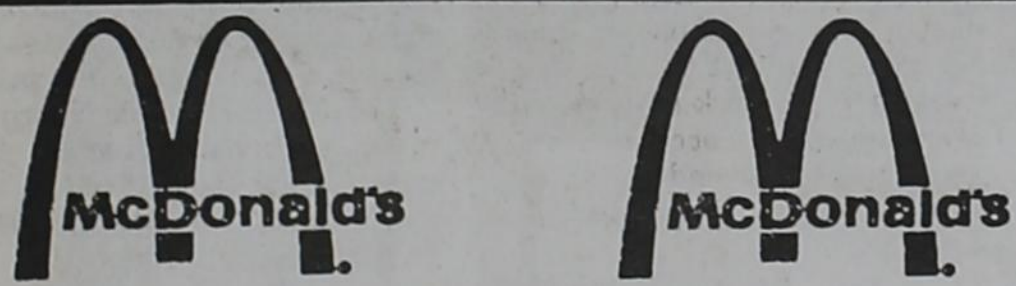

The movie stars Connie Sellacca, Jeff Conaway and Deborah Tucker, all well-known Hollywood celebrities.

The movie addresses vital, timely issues relevant in today's society. It's for folks of all ages.

Returning home from covering the Gulf War, award-winning TV journalist Tom Edwards and his producer are given the task of "keeping the ratings high."

It puts them at odds, since Tom feels the best "story" is one which would trash the faith of returning servicemen and women. "The war is over, what role does God play now? Is He out in the open or has He been put back in the closet?" asks Tom in his TV interviews.

Tom's real war is at home with his daughter and within his own heart. In the wake of his wife's death, he immerses himself in his work, leaving his daughter hurt and alone. Their struggling attempts to reach out to each other serve only to widen the gap between them.
