From nothing has come something

It's always nice to give an update on a nifty situation that has developed over a lengthy period of time.

Such is the case with Lions Park in Texico. First some background:

Four years ago, the Texico-Farwell Lions Club approached the Texico City Council with a proposition.

At that time, the area known as the Water Tower Park (behind the First Baptist Church and a block north of Rip's Western Wear) was, to be blunt, a complete mess.

It was full of small chunks of concrete and broken bottles. The old tennis court had broken apart. There was little grass, just sand. Calling the area "a park" was really a misnomer.

What the Lions Club suggested was having the City Council allow them to renovate the area, and rename it "Lions Park." The city council agreed.

First, club members and city officials and employees and kids cleaned up the area - no small undertaking. The old tennis court was removed. Old concrete and broken glass were picked up piece by piece and carted away.

Then club members and city officials installed a sprinkler, vital to having the area really be "a park." That installation went well.

Then the club bought seed from Kelly Green Seeds to get the grass going. And that went well. The grass came up beautifully.

Last summer, thanks to a state grant, some small bushes and trees were planted. A large tree also was donated and planted, but it didn't take and had to be cut up.

The final stage occurred this month -- adding several pieces of playground equipment.

The concrete footings were laid last Saturday, with some painting to be done in June. That will mark the end of the project.

I think it very important that folks know who the men were who donated their time, expertise and equipment to literally make something beautiful out of nothing. That is no small achievement.

At the top of the list of these community-minded folks should go Oran Jay Autrey, Matt Meeks and Hal Helton. Without their work, little would have been achieved.

Oran Jay, a city councilman who runs Stephens Construction in Clovis, is one of the most public spirited individuals the Twin Cities has. Texico-Farwell should be proud to have him as a member of our community.

Matt is Texico's water/street superintendent. Getting the sprinkler installed and the grass growing is owed to his expertise.

Hal, who runs Helton Oil, has been Lions Club president for the past several years. He spearheaded the whole project and has been at every work day to ensure its success. Nothing would have

Parmer commissioners vote against restricting fireworks in rural areas

The Parmer County Commissioners voted 3-1 Tuesday not to restrict fireworks in unincorporated areas of the county.

In favor of a restriction was Johnny Mars, who had brought up the topic after being contacted by Friona area farmers.

It appears the commissioners didn't want to add more restrictions in general, and were concerned about legalities. But they urge all persons using fireworks to be careful and use common sense.

New Mexico has put in a general ban on fireworks (see story elsewhere in today's Tribune).

In other business, the commissioners:

-- Discussed having in place a tax abatement plan to offer certain new businesses interested in coming to Parmer County.

Discussing this were Friona Chamber of Commerce executive director Teresa Buske, Friona Chamber member Bill McCoy and Parmer County Appraisal District officials Ron Proctor and Curby Burch.

The commissioners will look into the possibility and legalities to offer incentives to businesses that meet certain requirements. Mrs. Buske will research this with other cities and counties that currently offer such programs and report back.

-- Received the resignation of Christine Cupit, Bovina, who was the county's representative to the area Mental Health Mental Retardation Board. County Commissioner Robert White was appointed.

-- Approved the annual taxation on vehicles.

-- Heard that jurors now have an option when they are paid for jury duty -- they can donate the money to the victims of crimes.

-- Renewed the public officials' liability insurance with Texas Association of Counties.

-- Will advertise for health insurance.

-- Agreed to participate in the federal summer youth program. Texas Employment Commission will do the hiring of youths.

Franse establishes goal for Chamber membership

President Ralph Franse set a goal of having 70 paid members at the Tuesday meeting of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber membership has grown rapidly the past year.

In other business, the Chamber:

-- Approved the annual request by the Border Town Days Committee for $185 to pay for parade prizes.

-- Selected Quickel Insurance as the Business of the Month to be highlighted in the State Line Tribune.

Some rain finally falls, but brings along some hail

Some rain finally fell in Parmer County Saturday -- but some of it was accompanied by damaging hail.

Thunderstorms shot south and north of Farwell. Some counties in the Texas Panhandle got several inches of rain; others got little to nothing.

Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams said a tornado was spotted two miles west of Friona Saturday afternoon. It may have touched down but

A man suspected of having been involved in as many as 50 area burglaries was arrested in Bailey County Sunday morning, reports Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams.

Ray Chavez, 35, Clovis, was arraigned twice in Muleshoe this week.

On Sunday, Pct. 4 Justice of the Peace Todd Ellis set bail at $250,000 for Chavez after he was charged with burglary of a habitation.

On Tuesday, Pct. 1 Justice of the Peace Jack Bates set bail at $50,000 for Chavez after he was charged with a second count of burglary of a habitation.

Also involved was a juvenile boy from Clovis.

For the past several weeks, sheriff's departments in Parmer, Bailey, Curry and Roosevelt counties have been trying to find the persons responsible for daytime break-ins at rural homes. Also helping were the Texas Rangers and Texas Department of Public Safety.

Williams said Chavez became a suspect in the burglaries due to a prior record and also information from informants.

He was put under surveillance. An airplane from the Department of Public Safety aided in this effort.

Williams said he was observed breaking into a home Sunday and police made the arrest.

Speaker of the House Pete Laney, right, presents the Innovative Public School Award to Gail Morris, president of the Lazbuddie School Board.

Laney presents Lazbuddie award

State Rep. Pete Laney, who represents eight counties including Parmer, presented an Innovative Public School Award to the Lazbuddie High School CLASS program on behalf of the Today Foundation during the school's graduation exercises last Friday.

A check for $1,000 accompanied the award.

CLASS (character, leader, attitude, sportsmanship and scholarship) recognizes high achieving students.

Complete background on CLASS was published in last week's Tribune.

Texico council appoints 5-member zoning committee

The Texico City Council on Tuesday appointed a zoning committee: Sharon Askew, Ray Autrey, Dean Heninger, Oran Jay Autrey and Rick Queener.

In other business, the council:

-- Held an executive session to discuss pending litigation and land acquisition.

-- Named Art Salguero as the council's representative on the Eastern Plains Council of Governments board. Queener is the alternate.

-- Received proposals for the annual city audit from four CPA firms: De'Aun Willoughby, Sandra Rush, Hoffman & Assoc., and John Schonberger. The state will be asked to pick one.

-- Heard that concrete is being poured for the new community center.

-- Approved an aesthetic review permit for Ralph Autrey.

-- Discussed a problem with a house moved into town by Cynthia Martinez. It's too small to meet city codes. She has applied for a variance. If that isn't approved, she may put an addition to the structure to bring it up to code.

-- Again didn't pay a bill to city engineer Bob Lydick because of a disagreement.

-- Heard Salguero say he couldn't head up the annual city cleanup as he had planned because of reserve duty. The cleanup was postponed until next year.

-- Heard city marshal Gil Holguin report that citations have been given to folks storing commercial equipment in residential areas.

-- Over 15 persons have applied for the third police officer's position.

Yes, there have been a whole lot of other folks who have been instrumental, too. I probably don't remember them all, but John McGimpsey, Ed Luebken, Butch Sharp, Joe Helton and Bobby Chadwick provided important assistance.

To create something special out of nothing takes vision. And that is what has happened in this case. My hat is off to those folks who had a vision and saw it through.

-- Heard Franse report on the meeting with the Farwell city council and state officials about the proposed overpass over the railroad tracks between Texico and Farwell.

He said Texico Mayor Butch Sharp plans to have a town meeting in his community to discuss it.

Marshal's Report

Here is the weekly report from Texico Marshal Gil Holguin:

Police were called to a domestic disturbance at 720 N. Turner St. Robert Duran, 38, was charged with domestic violence battery. Holguin said liquor was involved in the situation.

On May 18, a Texico girl sought on a probation violation was also cited for no insurance and no driver's license. The probation office was contacted.

The DWI roadblock was in force on May 18. Two Farwell juveniles, a boy and a girl, were cited for "minors in possession by consumption," a misdemeanor. They were released to their parents.

Holguin once again advised all Texico residents that the community's zoning, debris, trash and abandoned vehicle ordinance will continue to be enforced.

Two criminal complaints have been filed recently in municipal court dealing with trash and debris and zoning.

On May 24, a motorist complained that his tire was damaged crossing the railroad tracks. This is the third such report made recently. Railroad supervisors checked the crossing but couldn't find anything that might be causing the blowouts.

Recipe of Week

CHERRY COBBLER

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| 1/2 cup all-purpose flour | 4 cups fresh or frozen unsweetened, pitted, tart red cherries |
| 2 tablespoons granulated sugar | 1/3 cup water |
| 3/4 teaspoon baking powder | 3 tablespoons milk |
| 1/8 teaspoon salt | 1 tablespoon coarse sugar (optional) |
| 3 tablespoons butter or margarine | |
| 3/4 cup granulated sugar | |
| 2 tablespoons cornstarch | |

For biscuit topping, in a medium bowl stir together flour, the 2 tablespoons granulated sugar, baking powder, and salt. Using a pastry blender, cut in butter until the mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Make a well in the center; set aside.

For filling, in a medium saucepan combine the 3/4 cup granulated sugar and cornstarch. Add cherries and water. Cook and stir over medium heat until slightly thickened and bubbly. Reduce heat and keep hot.

Add milk all at once to dry ingredients. Stir just until moistened. Transfer hot filling to a 1 1/2-quart round casserole. Immediately spoon biscuit topping into 4 mounds on top of filling. If desired, sprinkle biscuit topping with coarse sugar.

Convection Bake in a preheated 375°F oven for 18 to 20 minutes or until a toothpick inserted into biscuit topping comes out clean. (Or, standard bake in a preheated 400°F oven about 20 minutes.) Serve warm. Makes 4 servings.

Farwell Convalescent Center Chit Chat

by Debbie Parmer

We had so much fun at the Senior Olympics, the 16th in Clovis. We took 8 residents, there were a total of 134 residents from the surrounding areas. We took sack lunches, and as one of the residents put it when we got ready to eat we just "rolled out our tables."

Our residents really enjoyed the Olympics. We had 2 in particular that entered every event they had. It was quite an event to be a part of. Everyone received a ribbon. I do have to admit it was a very tiring day. I think as soon as the evening meal was over everyone hit the sack!

On Friday the 17th, we enjoyed our annual employee get together with races followed by ice cream. There was a lot of excitement in the air! Everyone looked great in their FCC T-shirts. Congratulations to the winning team!

We want to thank Ron, our administrator for making it possible for all of us to have T-shirts alike. We also want to thank Sierra Screen printing of Texico for printing our shirts, and for working with us on this project. They made several trips to FCC, and did a great job!

Tuesday evening residents enjoyed listening to a Mennonite group sing. We really enjoyed having them. They harmonized beautifully together. We look forward to having them monthly.

Thursday the 30th, we look forward to having the Bill Case band from Clovis. This is the 1st time we have had them over. I have heard them before and can tell you they are a great band. The residents will love them.

Friday, the 31st we will celebrate our May birthdays. The party begins at 3:00. Our entertainment will be by the Border Town Four. They always do a great job and we are looking forward to it.

Happy Birthday to: Emma Parmer, Orville Locke, Eunita Morgan, Edna Smith, Blanche Hudson and Ester Hill.

Until next time.

Theta Rho chapter of ESA held their end of the year dinner, officer installation and awards presentation April 29.

After the dinner, all enjoyed a sheet cake baked and decorated by Pam Carpenter. Each ESA member was presented with a dried apple wreath accented with a raffia bow that president Robin Howard had made. Margaret Aycock gave an ESA "exam." Awards presented were:

Perfect attendance -- Jana Barrett, Pam Carpenter, Lillie Christian, Tracy Devault, Robin Howard, Sabina Schilling and Susan Williams.

Pallas Athene -- 1st degree, Pam Carpenter, Sherry Christian and Twyla Lusk; 2nd degree, Hayley Christian and Susan Williams; 3rd degree, Sheryl Christian and Angelia Mace; 4th degree, Pam Monk.

Years of service -- Terri Nichols, 15 years; Rosa Roberts, 45 years; Nell Walling, 45 years.

Jo Ann Liethen Philanthropic Award -- Susan Williams.

Girl of the Year Award -- Susan Williams, who received a silver jewelry box in addition to the plaque.

Judy Jones President's Award -- Tracy Devault.

Other awards presented were from the state level. Robin showed members the "Atta Girl" award she accepted on behalf of Theta Rho. Pam Monk was recognized for her state office of recording secretary and as recipient of the "Miss Congeniality" trophy. Sherry Christian received a publicity award.

After the awards presentation, new officers were formerly installed in a candle light ceremony conducted by Robin. New officers carried a candle in the color that represented her place in the ESA rainbow. After being installed as chapter president, Sheryl Christian distributed committee rosters for the 1996-97 year.

Members attending the dinner were Robin Howard, Sheryl Christian, Jana Barrett, Twyla Lusk, Hayley Christian, Rosa Roberts, Nell Walling, Pam Carpenter, Karen Stevenson, Susan Williams with Bailey, Tracy Devault, Pam Monk, LaMoin Williams, Dot Christian, Denise Christian, Joyce Williams, Margaret Aycock, Lillie Christian and Sherry Christian.

Nell Walling, left, and Rosa Roberts were honored for 45 years of service to ESA. Nell is one of the original 8 ladies who began Theta Rho and Rosa has served Theta Rho as sponsor and educational director.

ESA officers for 1996-97 are, from left, Karen Stevenson, education directors assistant; Jana Barrett, recording secretary; Hayley Christian, awards chairman; Robin Howard, parliamentarian/Jonquill girl; Sheryl Christian, president; Susan Williams, vice president; Twyla Lusk, corresponding secretary; and Sherry Christian, treasurer. Not pictured are Rosa Roberts, educational director, and Pam Carpenter, chapter chaplain.

New Mexico bans most fireworks

The New Mexico Fire Board last week banned most fireworks sales and use until at least June 18 because of the drought problem and fire dangers.

State officials said the only exceptions are organized public events, such as the annual Texico 4th of July celebration.

The fire danger will be reviewed June 18 and the ban may be extended at that time.

Complete information on which fireworks have been banned is available at Texico City Hall.

Marriage Licenses

The following marriage licenses were recorded in the Parmer County clerk's office:

Aaron Ketterling and Rachel Noblett, Marc Johnson and Denise Suzanne, Jose Robles and Yolanda Vidana, Donald Young and Janet Ishii, and Donald Shawver and Heather Pilgrim.
