

County Voters Give Nod To Nixon

A total of 3,146 voters in Parmer County, including 588 from Farwell, went to the polls in the general election Tuesday and gave the nod to Republican Presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon had 1,539 votes in the county when final tabulations were made at 2:30 a.m. today (Wednesday). Democratic candidate Hubert H. Humphrey received 833, while American Party candidate George Wallace got 730.

In the only contested race in the county, Guy Cox, Commissioner incumbent in Precinct 3, Democratic candidate, defeated his opponent, R. L. (Bob) Jones who was running on the Republican ticket, 519 votes to 248 votes. This is the first time a person has run on the Republican ticket in the county and interested persons believe that Jones ran a fine race even though he was defeated.

Cox had 408 votes in the Farwell box and Jones had 174 while in the Oklahoma Lane box, Cox garnered 111 votes to his opponent's 74.

U. S. Congressman Bob Price (R) was given a margin of 1958 to 1011 over Democrat Dick Brown, with Farwell going along, 378-168.

In the presidential race Nixon received a margin over Humphrey 331 to 154, while Wallace got 101 votes in the Farwell box.

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake was sent back to Austin for another term with the help of Parmer County. He received 1598 votes to Republican Frank Ford's 1339. Farwell gave Clayton a 309-235 nod.

The remainder of the Democratic candidates for state offices led both Farwell and Parmer County. Preston Smith was given 1667 votes for governor of Texas, and Republican Paul Eggers received 1375.

Voting in the 1968 general election, by precincts, appear elsewhere in this issue of The Tribune.

Democrats approved for state offices were Ben Barnes for lieutenant governor; Crawford Martin for attorney-general;

Robert S. Calvert, comptroller; Jesse James, treasurer; Jerry Sadler, land commissioner; John C. White, commissioner of agriculture; and Jim C. Langdon, railroad commissioner.

County officials unopposed on the ballot and thus returned to office were Archie L. Tarter, County Judge and ex officio School Superintendent; Hurshel R. Harding, County Attorney; Chas. Lovelace, Sheriff; Hugh Moseley, County Tax Assessor-Collector; and Tom Lewellen, Friona County Commissioner. District Attorney Jack D. Young also had no opponent.

In Texas Constitution amendment voting Farwell disapproved No. 3 (University Fund Investment) 211-186, while the county was supporting it 1223 to 1164. This was the only amendment on which this precinct disagreed with the county.

Other amendments approved by Farwell and Parmer County were No. 5 (Legislators' Salary Increases), Farwell 235-189, county 1297-1120; No. 7

(Abolishing Ad Valorem Tax) Farwell 205-190, county 1302-1217; No. 9 (Teacher Retirement), Farwell 306-138, county 1770-662; No. 14 (Limiting Legislators' Extra Activities),

Roll Toward Showdown

by Steve Blair

The Farwell Steers continued to roll toward a November 15 showdown with Sudan by downing the Vega Longhorns 28-0. Though the usual offensive prowess was absent in part of the game, the stout Steer defense once again proved that they give up ground grudgingly, allowing the Longhorns only four first downs in the contest. The Steers gained a total of 358 yards with Craig Phillips powering for 176 yards, averaging nearly 5 yards per carry. Dean Stovall and Kyle Sheets led the Steers in pass receptions with totals of 67 and 60 yards, respectively.

The opening kickoff was taken by Dean Stovall for the Steers and after a 40-yard runback, the Steers unleashed their offensive attack from the mid-field stripe. Two incomplete passes forced a Steer punt to the Longhorns on their 16. An offside penalty and a good defensive effort by the Steers brought about a Vega punt.

On the second play from scrimmage, Harold Sides grabbed a Craig Phillips fumble on Farwell's 35. The Steers quickly regained possession as Dean Stovall intercepted a Jackie Richardson pass. Neither side could mount an attack and after an exchange of punts, Farwell took over on their 13. They moved for the initial first down of the evening on the strong running of Craig Phillips. Louis Schenk snagged a third down pass intended for Dennis Ensor to give the Longhorns excellent field position. They went into a shotgun formation with Schenk passing but the Steer defense would not allow a completion.

The offensive units of both teams were again stymied and were forced to exchange punts. The Steers again lost the ball on a fumble with James McKendree recovering, but the defense came through to give the ball back to the Steers. The Steers began to move and went from their own 26 to the Vega 10 in ten plays on the running of Craig Phillips and Kyle Sheets' pass receptions. Greg Hargrove went to Dean Stovall through the air for the Steers' first TD and Al Phillips' extra point gave Farwell a 7-0 margin with 6:40 remaining in the half.

Vega could not move after the kick and again punted to the Steers. Farwell moved deep into Vega territory before Preston snagged a Hargrove pass for the Longhorns. Danny Prince returned in kind by grabbing a Schenk pass on the Farwell 42. He then took a pass from Hargrove to the Vega 42. Hargrove hit Dean Stovall for 42 yards and a touchdown with 13 seconds left in the first half. Al added the PAT giving the Steers a 14-0 halftime edge.

The second half kickoff went to Schenk a yard deep in the end zone and after a 21-yard return, Vega opened the second half from their own 20. A stout Farwell defense once again forced a punt.

The Steers gave Vega the ball on a fumble with Harold Sides recovering. The Longhorns moved to the Farwell 33 before Jackie Richardson fumbled and then was smeared for a 15-yard loss by Mark Williams. The Longhorns could not regain the yardage and punted to the Steers on their own eight-yard line. The Steers could not move and the fourth down punt went off the side of Al Phillips' foot giving the Longhorns the ball on the Steer 20. Prince intercepted a Richardson pass on the Steers' four to end the scoring threat.

After an exchange of punts, the Steers mounted a drive that moved to the Vega 34. A field goal attempt by Al Phillips was partially blocked and went wide of the mark giving the Longhorns the ball on their 20.

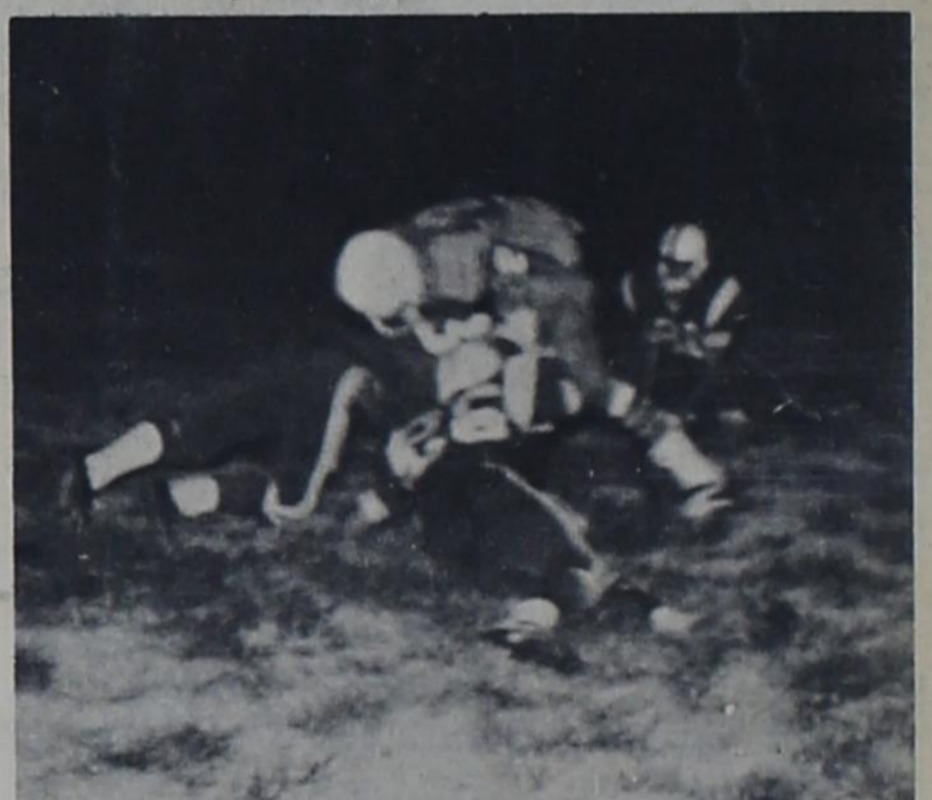

Dean Stovall snagged a third down pass to return the ball to the Steers on Vega's 33. Craig Phillips went 28 yards on two plays setting up a first and goal. Hargrove was dropped back on the 13 but then hit Kyle Sheets two plays later for the touchdown. The extra point gave the Steers a 21-0 lead with 7:30 remaining in the game.

The ball again changed hands on a Vega punt and a Farwell fumble, giving Vega possession on their own 46. A Louis Schenk pass was picked off by Dennis Ensor and returned 50 yards for a TD with 2:48 remaining to be played.

After the kickoff, Dean Stovall intercepted another pass on the Steer 25 and the Steers retained possession and ran out the clock. Farwell now stands 7-1 for the season with a 3-0 district mark. Vega is 3-4 for the season and winless in district play.

Coach Toby Booth stated that the Steers were not playing up to their maximum when they met Vega last Friday night. They will have to play much better ball then they exhibited against Vega "if they wish to stay in the winner's column when they meet Bovina this week," he concluded.

"They played fair ball but the penalties hampered them severely," stated Coach Booth, relating that a total of 185 yards of penalties were called against the Steers in the game.

STOUT DEFENSE -- This lonesome Longhorn runner was stopped short by Dennis Ensor, No. 36, and two other unidentified Steer tacklers as the Farwell defense again proved its ability to limit the opponent's running game.

O. C. McBride

Dear Turnrow Tunkel . . .

I READ that according to the Dept. of Labor, there is a shortage of experienced butlers in the U. S.

This is one problem I won't lose any sleep worrying about. Television repairmen and orthodontists, who as far as I know are the only people who can afford butlers, will just have to get by the best way they can.

DID YOU read that doctors have decided that overwork does not contribute to heart trouble, but too much sleep does?

That's terrible news. What is a fellow going to tell his wife when she wants him to work in the backyard on Sunday afternoon instead of taking a nap?

I UNDERSTAND that most television programs scheduled for the early part of the evening are designed for younger people. Maybe that's the reason I don't watch TV much. I get sleepy before they start the programs aimed at my age group.

DID YOU read that manufacturers are building larger and fancier lawn and garden tractors? Some cost more than $2,000, and many people buy them as "status symbols."

In my part of the country, I think boats are considered status symbols. There's no other way to explain people who live 300 miles from the nearest lake in a house worth $3,000, with a $5,000 boat parked outside.

I SEE where the Government has published a pamphlet telling people how to avoid being struck by lightning.

That figures, I've said all along that those Washington planners think the average citizen doesn't have enough sense to come in out of the rain.

DID YOU know there is a psychiatrist in Los Angeles who specializes in treating dogs? A session costs $50 an hour.

Of the three parties involved -- the dog, its owner and the doctor -- I'd say at least two were crazy. There's no way of being sure about the dog.

Steer Stadium --

Steers Charge Mustangs Tonight

The Farwell Steers face their fourth district contest tonight (Friday) when they collide with Bovina at Steer Stadium. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Both Bovina and Farwell have played Springlake and Kress to date, and both teams have defeated the common opponents. Bovina was defeated by Sudan earlier in the season; however, the Steers do not face Sudan until next week.

Coach Toby Booth states that all of the Steers should be ready for action on Friday night. Several have had colds in recent days; but none have suffered injuries in recent games.

Coach Booth also states that Bovina has a fine ball club, with one of the finest backs in the area in McMeans and a great guard in Redden. "It will be a hard game, but we hope to come out on the long end of the score," stated Coach Booth.

Season record for the Steers is one loss (to Friona) and seven wins, the last three of which are district wins.

Mrs. Anderson Services Held

Funeral services were held Oct. 30 in Anton for Mrs. Janie Anderson, 92, mother of Mrs. Robert Servatius of Texico. Mrs. Anderson had made her home with her daughter for the past two years, prior to which she had been a resident of Anton for 43 years.

Officiating at last rites was Rev. Darvey Lavender, and Rev. Everit Springfield, both of Lubbock, and Rev. J. J. Terry of Spade. Burial was in Anton Cemetery directed by Hammonds Funeral Home of Littlefield. Grandsons served as pallbearers.

Survivors include four sons, C. D., L. L., Lynn and J. G., all of Anton; four daughters, Mrs. Harry Williams, Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. L. D. Taylor, Muleshoe, Mrs. A. L. Hargrove, Anton, and Mrs. Robert Servatius, Texico; also two sisters, two brothers, 30 grandchildren, 57 great-grandchildren, and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

Janie Boyce Fincher was born March 9, 1876 in Wedowee, Ala. She was married to Thomas Marion Anderson, Feb. 9, 1895 at Wedowee, Ala. She was the mother of ten children, two of whom, Mrs. Amie Maude Minton and Mrs. Eula Whatley, preceded her in death, as did her husband.

Mrs. Anderson accepted Christ as her savior at an early age and was a member of the Baptist church. A daughter has said "Her prayers were offered daily for her children, and other loved ones and numerous friends." She moved to Anton from Paducah on Dec. 24, 1925 and had made her home in that city until two years ago when she came to Texico to live with a daughter, Mrs. Robert Servatius.

18 Pick Ten Games --

Contest Lead Changes

The past week was the week when everyone was picking winners as 18 persons called ten games right in the merchants' football contest. However, Pat Owen and Cotton Robertson (a new entry) were closer on the tie breaker game score (12 points off) than were the other contestants who called all the games correctly. First and second place prize money was divided between Mrs. Owen and Robertson with each receiving $400 on their prize winning entries.

Everette Christian and Carlton Newell were 14 points off on the game score to split third place prize money for the week. Fifty-eight persons called nine right.

Other persons calling all games correctly were Jerry Meeks, Randy Robertson, Paul Brigham, Billy Brigham, Dargin Kirk, Mrs. E. A. Key, E.

R. Coffman, Mrs. Roy Everett, Herman Gerles, Clarence Harriman, James Hobbs, Joe Hughes, Edward Meeks, John McFarland, Lonnie McFarland and Jack Wardlaw.

The week also saw Greg Meeks, who had been in first place in the overall contest since the first week, slip to third place. Leading the group of contestants in first place are Mrs. Roy Everett and Jim Wiman, with 55 games called correctly. In second place are T. J. Kirtrell and Earlene Porter with 54 games called right.

In third place with 53 games are John Adams, Linda Dannheim, Buck Gregory, Clarence Harriman, Greg Meeks, Carlton Newell, Champ Porter, Mae Porter, Mrs. W. M. Roberts, Vernon Scott and Gene Sheets.

Four weeks remain in the contest, so join in the fun and

Texico Seniors Present Class Play Tonight

"Rest Assured", the Texico senior class play, is scheduled to go on stage tonight (Friday) at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Price of admission is 75¢ for students and $1.00 for adults. Mrs. Mary Peyton is directing the three-act comedy.

The play centers around the antics of Mr. Morlock and Luigi who are determined that their children, Mary and Joe, "will" and "will not" marry. The former, portrayed by Rex Richardson, is determined that daughter, Mary will not marry Joe who is a "poor boy" and son of Luigi; however Luigi is just as determined that they will marry, or at least have their chance at happiness, or he will forever haunt Mr. Morlock. This is where the fun begins.

For an evening of laughter be sure to see "Rest Assured."

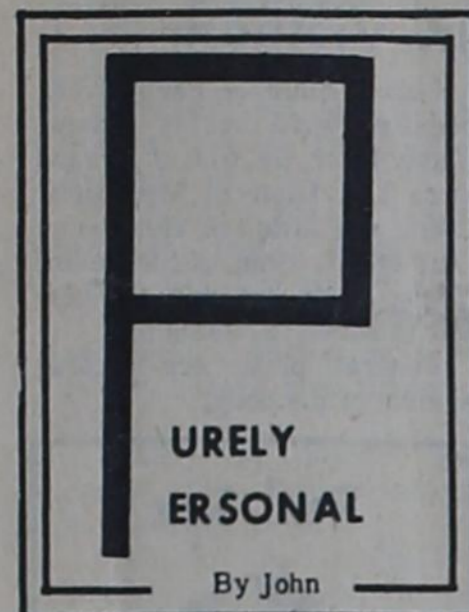

Cast of characters includes Mr. Morlock, Rex Richardson; Mrs. Morlock, Margaret Rojas; Jessica, a 13-year-old daughter, Hilda Rojas; Mildred, the maid, Vonnie Yell; Joe Lanconi, Charlie Tipton; Luigi Lanconi, Steve Chancy, Martha, a peasant girl around 20 years of age, Teresa Rojas; Lucifer, Johnny Gonzales; Miss Akers, Cynthia Armstrong; George Plew, Gregory Burns; Mrs. Schmaltz, Suzanne Gonzales; Dr. Brown, Doug Clark; Mr. Black, Bobby Peugh; Jake, Douge Niece; and Mrs. Frink, Nanette Bridgide.

"Quick mamma sit down," whispers Mr. Morlock (Rex Richardson) to his wife, portrayed by Margaret Rojas, as the ghost (Luigi) portrayed by Steve Chancy, makes yet another appearance in a scene from "Rest Assured," Texico senior class play scheduled to go on stage tonight (Friday) at 8 p.m.

SECRET BALLOT? -- This unidentified voter is casting her ballot at the polling place in Farwell. Residents of some Texas cities are using the voting machine this year for the first time. However, although local residents marked their ballots in a different way than in previous years, they were still casting ballots in the county courthouse.

With only two games left on the schedule, the Farwell Steers are on the verge of their most successful season in several years. These last two games will be very tough as the Blue and White face a highly regarded Bovina team tonight, Friday, and he fifth ranked team in the state, the Sudan Hornets, next week.

Farwell has always been a community that has backed strongly their athletic teams, but this year, enthusiasm appears to be lagging. Particularly, attendance and support of the Quarterback Club is lagging. The regular Monday night meetings of the Club have had poor attendance, and even the tradition of cheering the team on the field has suffered. Let us all turn out and give the Steers a big cheer as they come out against Bovina tonight. Let the boys know that we are solidly behind them in the stretch drive for the District 3A crown.

This week, we had an unprecedented 18 contest entries who called all 10 games correctly. Among those who put in a 100% guess was Jack Wardlaw; he practically doubled his score in one week.

Another "sharpie" lately has been E. R. Coffman. He has called 19 correct games in the past two weeks. And Truitt Hardage is not quite up with Yvonne but he is gaining. A change in the standings took place this week and with three more weeks to go, there are still many potential winners entering the big guessing game each week.

In the past, we have commented on the World Council of Churches and our comments have not been received with 100% enthusiasm. We are indebted to one of our concerned readers for the following information.

Recently the WCC held its 4th World Assembly in Sweden, a country incidentally being noted for its moral laxness. Among other things, appeared the following song in "New Hymns For a New Day," published by the Youth Departments of the WCC and the World Council of Christian Education.

We quote this "song" as follows:

"It was a Friday morn that they took me from the cell, and I saw they had a carpenter to crucify as well.

"You can blame it on to Pilate, you can blame it on the Jews.

"You can blame it on the devil.

"It's God I accuse.

"You can blame it on to Adam,

"You can blame it on to Eve,

"You can blame it on the apple, but that I can't believe.

"It was God that made the devil, and the woman and the man,

"And there wouldn't be an apple if it wasn't in the plan.

"Now Barrabas was a killer, and they let Barrabas go,

"But you are being crucified for nothing here below.

"But God is up in heaven and he doesn't do a thing, with a million angels watching, and they never move a wing.

"To hell with Jehovah, to the carpenter I said:

"I wish that a carpenter had made this world instead.

"Goodby and good luck to you our way will soon divide.

"Remember me in heaven, the man you hung beside.

CHORUS:

"It's God they ought to crucify instead of you and me,

"I said to the carpenter, a hanging on the tree."

Somehow, we just cannot bring ourselves to view this as anything but blasphemous and cannot reconcile this with any "good" act that might be attributed to this organization.

How to cook cleaner.

Some facts you know, and some you may doubt (till you try them), about keeping the kitchen cleaner.

The grease on the walls comes from food, not what you cook with.

1. Range top. Smoke, steam, and vapor rising from foods cooking on top of the range carry little particles of grease with them, and these get on the walls and everything else in the kitchen. The source of the heat doesn't matter: electricity doesn't dirty the walls and gas doesn't dirty the walls. It's the food that does it.

Hint. You can lessen the amount of grease on the walls by being careful to cook all foods at the proper cooking temperature. Overheating makes smoke and smoke makes dirt. Instantly controllable gas cooking makes it much easier to cook at the right temperature. Gas cooks cleaner.

2. Broiling. When hot, greasy smoke pours out of the oven, it's going to dirty the kitchen. But you've got to broil, so what can you do? Hint. Electric oven makers ask you to leave your oven door open when you broil; gas oven makers ask you to close it. Why? Because gas flame consumes smoke! Therefore, gas cooks cleaner.

3. Etc. Gas also cooks more economically, for about 1/2 the cost of electricity! And cool: you never waste heat when you cook with gas. Turn it off, it's off! Have a look at the magnificent new gas ranges now on display at the Southern Union Gas Company showroom. You can pay for them right on your gas bill! Southern Union Gas Company

Try this experiment. Light a cigarette. Set it in an ash tray where the smoke can rise in a steady stream. Now strike a match, and move the flame into the path of the smoke, an inch or two above the cigarette. Notice that all the smoke vanishes above the match! Why? Because flame consumes smoke! Therefore, gas cooks cleaner.

If you want the job done right do it with gas.

NURSERY NEWS
 By Alvin Woodburn Garden Center Nursery Clovis, N.M.
 With the political situation well in hand for another two or more years, we can now get back to the business of making next year's garden. The garden that has to catch up is the one that really runs into hard work. There are steps that can be taken now to help nature help us in our enjoyment of the garden.
 We touched lightly on this business of composts, but left out a lot of important steps. With the leaves that are blowing everywhere and all the other sources of humus that we have, the time to start a compost isn't as important as just to get started. The first thing to look for is a place where you can build a pit, or box above ground if you'd rather, in which to pile the raw materials of compost. It should be a size, suitable to the amount of materials you have and expect to use. Preferably, the compost should be divided into two sections so that you may use out of one while you are filling the other. Construction need not be elaborate, but should be sturdy and durable. Be sure to construct the pit or pile with easy filling and removing in mind.

 The sides should hold water; yet should be open enough to allow some drainage and ventilation. Bacteria seems to work better under moist but not soggy conditions. The bottom can be nearly any material that will not rot or otherwise hinder removal of the compost material.
 The contents of the compost is the primary thing to consider. It should be applied in layers from six to eight inches deep; adding more layers as the pile settles. The better the material you put in, the better material you will take out. A layer of barnyard manure every so often and a little well-balanced commercial fertilizer will furnish considerable food on which the bacteria can work. Do not hesitate to put in fer-

Put on the Full Armour

"Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God"...

In Paul's letter to the Ephesians, he makes a comparison of the children of God and warriors. He says that our loins should be girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness. He makes many more comparisons that exhort us to a proper life. Another thing that Paul urges is that we gather together and worship the Lord. No part of our armour is greater than regular church attendance. Much strength for the week is derived from worshipping with others.

Complete your suit of armour... attend church this week.

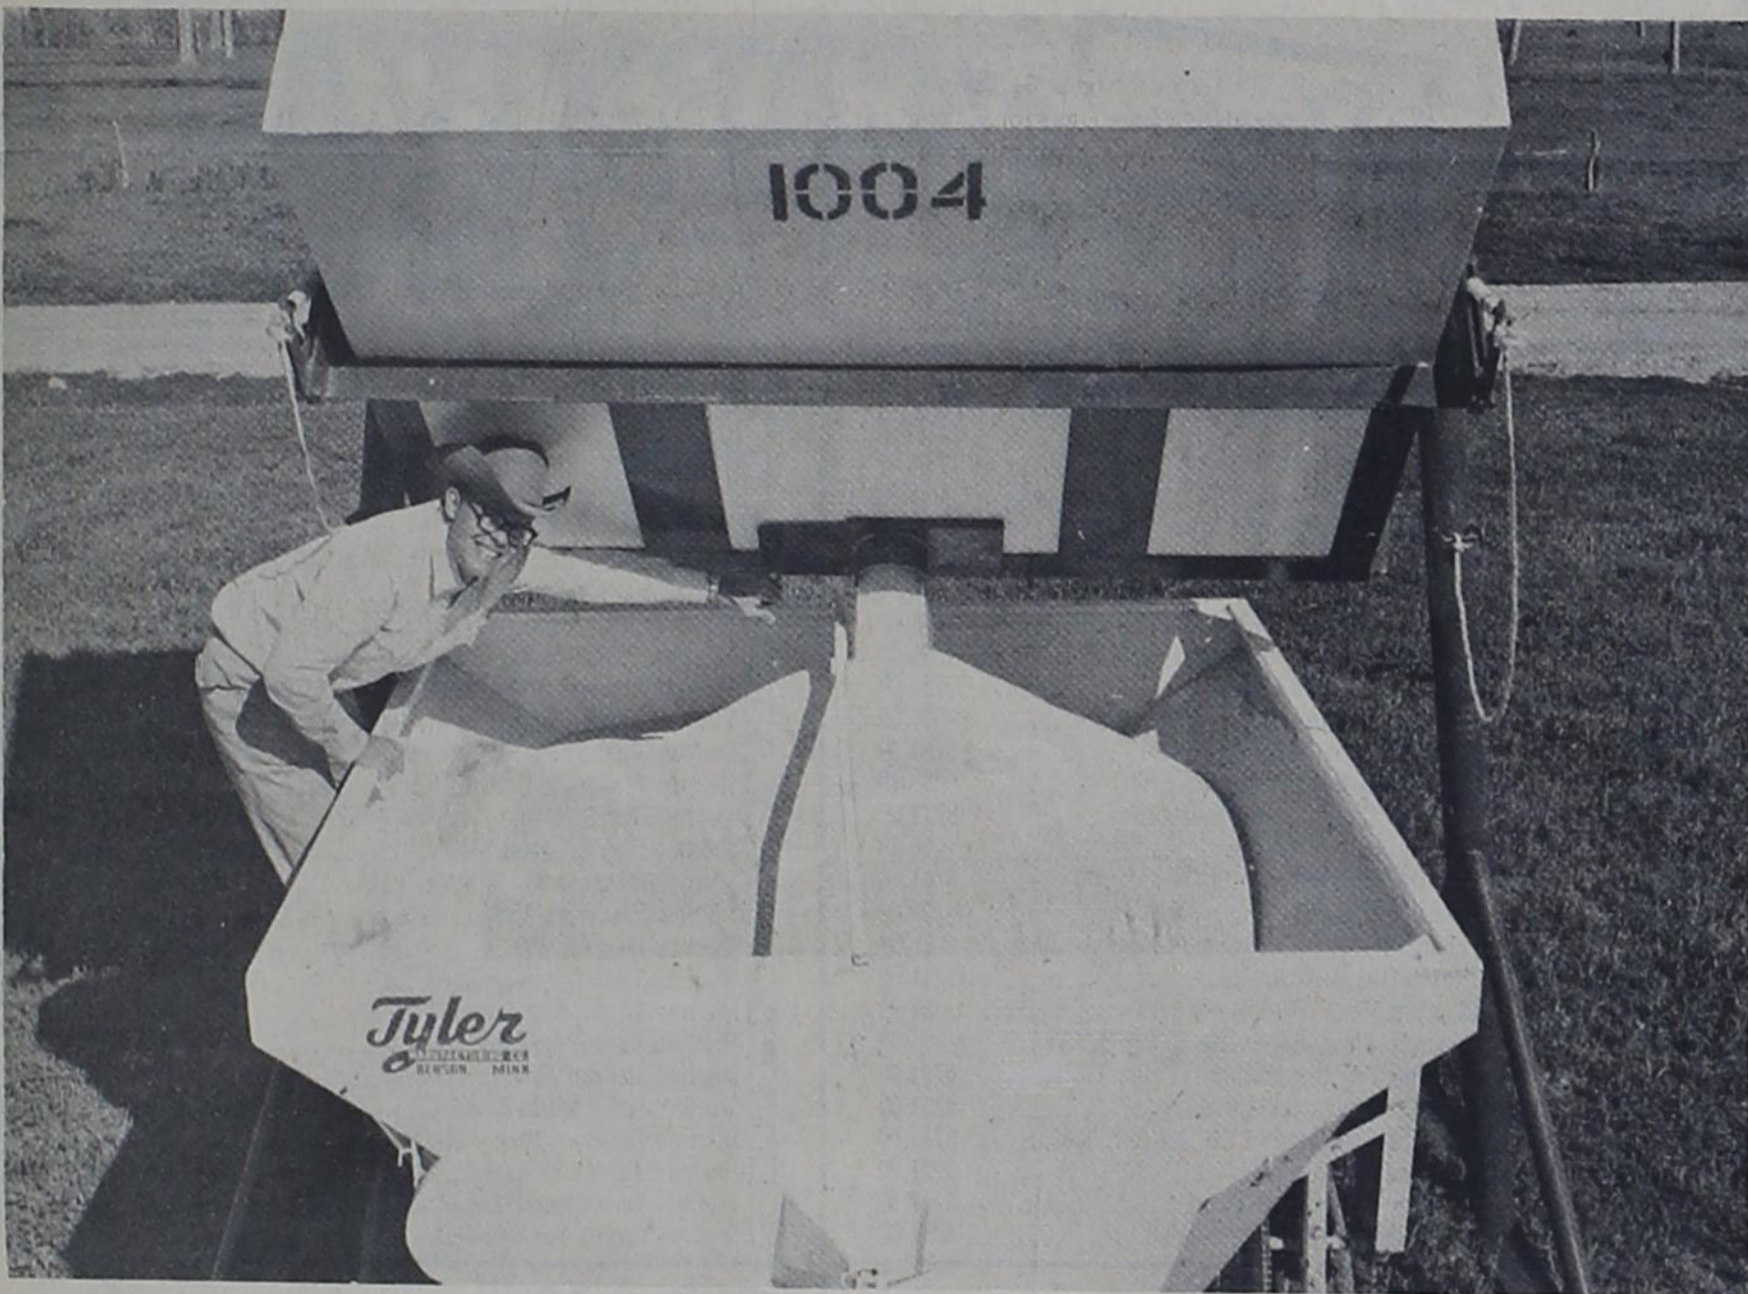

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

No Need To Change Spreaders When Fertilizing
TIDE Equipment And TIDE Service Make The Difference

Tide's Fall plow-down program is designed to make you money:

1. Fall plow-down spreads your work load... reduces time, labor and equipment requirements at planting time.
2. Fall plow-down insures against uncertain Spring weather... gives you two opportunities to apply a complete fertilizer program. (Fall and Spring)
3. Fall plow-down aids in decomposing stalks and builds up soil nutrients.

Basic Suppliers say demand for Spring fertilizer will exceed the supply of raw materials and hopper cars. As soon as possible after harvest, shred your stalks and apply Tide's Prescription-Blend fertilizer and start your Fall plow-down program.

PRESCRIPTION MIX FERTILIZER

Tide takes soil samples from your land, free of charge to determine exactly what your soil needs. Then your fertilizer is mixed from high analysis raw materials to fit your exact requirements. Because it is made "on order", your fertilizer is fresh, dry, and free-flowing.

ECONOMICAL

With "prescription-mix", you buy only the nitrogen, phosphate, and potash your soil tests show you need. Storage is no problem, as Tide's TiltBox, holding 14,000 pounds, provides air-tight delivery and storage at the end of the row.

TIDE SERVICES

Tide grower services and products are planted to save time and labor... help take the guess-work out of farming. Agricultural Consultants, free soil tests, and Tide's custom designed, weather proof, delivery and storage equipment, cut your production costs.

Phyllis Myers Bride Of Charles Morton

Phyllis Roberta Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hancock of Dublin, Tex., became the bride of David Charles Morton of Dublin, formerly of Farwell and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton of Dublin, on Oct. 12.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Eugene Robertson at First Methodist Church in Dublin, Altar setting featured arch candelabra holding white tapers, white gladioli and greenery and votive candles.

Diane Myers, sister of the bride, soloist, sang "Always," and the "Wedding Prayer," accompanied by the organ by Mrs. Doyle Chambers, who played appropriate nuptial selections preceding the entrance of the wedding party and also the traditional wedding marches.

Serving as best man was Jim Morton, Lubbock, brother of the groom, Groomsman was Spencer Smith of Ft. Worth, formerly of Farwell and a longtime friend of the groom. Ushers were Douglas Beauchamp, brother of the bride, from Burleson, and Jerry Lee Keith, Sam Morton and Bobby Hickey, all of Dublin, Sam Morton and Bobby Hickey also doubled as candlelighters.

Maid of honor was Margaret Humphries of Dublin, Bridesmaid was Mrs. Kay Jarnagin of Ft. Sill, Okla., Jeanette Morton, sister of the groom, was flowergirl.

Attendants were attired in identical floor length empire gowns of pink peau de soie and lace. They wore matching headpieces and carried nosegays of pink rosebuds and feathered carnations accented by white ribbon streamers.

The flowergirl wore a dress identical to that of the other attendants and carried a basket filled with rosebuds and carnation petals.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, W. C. Hancock, chose a formal wedding gown of white peau de soie and re-embroidered lace. The empire waist was overlaid with lace and featured a sweetheart neckline and long lace sleeves tapering to petal points at the hands. The chapel train fell from the empire waist at center back. Her veil of imported illusion was held by a minute crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a Bible arrangement of rosebuds surrounding a single white orchid with cascades of picot ribbon streamers and tulle.

Following tradition, something old was a sixpence from England; new was a necklace; borrowed was a handkerchief; and blue was the traditional garter.

As the bride approached the altar, she stopped to present her mother with a single pink rosebud. After the ceremony as the couple were leaving the church, Mrs. Morton stopped to present her new mother-in-law with a pink rosebud.

Mrs. Hancock wore a hot pink crepe dress with lizard accessories and a mink whimsey. Complementing her attire was a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Morton chose a light green wool crepe dress with beige accessories complemented by a white carnation corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the Methodist Church. Serving table was laid with white net over satin and centered by silver candelabrum holding white tapers and an arrangement of pink rosebuds.

The four-tiered wedding cake was served with mints, nuts and punch. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Don Herrod, Miss Sandy Hickey, Miss Tonya Brown, and Mrs. Gary Greenway. Guests were registered by Mrs. Herrod.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Dallas and Ft. Worth, the bride wore for trav-
