City Officials Hear Cemetery Problems

Meeting two hours ahead of time, at 4:30 p.m. instead of their normal 6:30 p.m. regularly scheduled meeting time, problems at the Texico Cemetery prompted Texico City Trustees to call Judge Stone and Jim Bob Smart to the meeting to discuss possible solutions.

In other action, trustees discussed at length the possibility of purchasing a new city police car for Texico. Bids and specifications were presented by the city marshal and city attorney Dan Buzzard was asked to check the legality of the lease-purchase plan for purchasing a new car.

Farwell Commissioners Hear Recreation Report

In regular session Monday, the members of the Farwell City Commission heard the three-member Farwell Recreation Committee as they presented recommendations for recreational facilities for the city of Farwell. Reporting were Vernon Scott, Mrs. Bob Anderson and Mrs. Dean Avara, members.

Members of the Farwell Recreation Committee will meet in the near future with the Panhandle Regional Planning Council for plans for recreational facilities to be finalized.

City Marshal B. F. Foster also asked to attend a State Police School in Roswell late in April to study new forms of crime reporting. After Trustee Ruby Goforth questioned who would be patrolling the streets in Texico while he was gone, although Council member Bill Thigpen said the state police would take over, Mayor M. E. Turnbough said Deputy Marshal Erasmo Rodriguez would take the patrol duties while Foster was gone.

Recommended for the community building was a structure approximately 7,500 square feet, with a banquet room having a seating capacity of 200-225 persons, full kitchen facilities and other rooms, including smaller meeting rooms. "We include everything you would want to include," they said and the total cost was estimated to be around $100,000.

Meeting with the city commission were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Warren, who objected to a portion of curb placed around a location where they plan to build a home. Warren told the commissioners he had met with the engineer and paving firm representative prior to the start of the project and showed them where he wanted "lay-down" curb for a future driveway, and the "stand-up" type curb had been installed. They were told by the commission that a corrective curb would be installed on their property. Another objection to a portion of the paving project was presented by J. C. Robertson Jr., who told commissioners his son had "run off into a hole" and had done some $500-700 damage to the family car. The location, according to Robertson, was at the street

The city marshal also asked the city policy on chickens in the city limits and was informed that it was legal to have 25 chickens as long as pens were kept clean. He told trustees of several dog problems in Texico and discussed the future plan to remove junk cars and abandoned vehicles from the streets and city property.

Also presented were tentative plans for tennis courts for Farwell, and discussed was a potential material, with several tennis courts in area cities to be checked before a final decision is reached.

Approved was the purchase of a street sweeper for the city and the used sweeper will cost $1050 from Jake Diel Dirt Movers at Muleshoe. And turned down was a proposal to purchase a 1967 model ambulance for the Texico Fire Department after it was explained that the fire department would rather put the money into a new ambulance.

FAREWELL AND CONGRATULATIONS - Retiring Parmer County Deputy Sheriff Garland Freeman, left, offers congratulations to his replacement for the Friona post, Bill Morgan. Freeman is bid farewell by his fellow officers as his retirement is effective on April 1. He served as a Parmer County deputy for the past 10 years.

Freeman, who has served as deputy sheriff in Parmer County for the past 10 years, said he plans to "fish" when he retires. His wife, Ima, is church secretary for the United Methodist Church at Friona. They are the parents of one daughter, Mammie Bussey, who lives in Amarillo.

With a total of 25 years in law enforcement, Freeman was a deputy sheriff in Bailey County for Sheriff Dee Clements before taking the Friona post.

FIRE LEVELS ENSOR HOME - Early Friday night, fire broke out following an apparent explosion at the James Ensor home in the Oklahoma Lane community and by morning, the large brick home was reduced to a pile of smoldering rubble. The Ensors were in Hereford at the time of the fire, and fire departments from both Farwell and Bovina answered the call to the fire, and were initially at the location for some three and a half hours. They were later called back to the fire at 3:30 a.m. when it broke out again, leveling the home.

Heavy Loss - -

Friday Fire Destroys James Ensor Home

A devastating fire, which broke out in the garage area of the James Ensor home in the Oklahoma Lane community Friday night, completely destroyed the brick home within a few hours.

Firemen report the fire apparently started in the garage of the home and was reported to have started from a butane tank recently installed on the pickup which was consumed in the blaze. According to fire reports, the pickup had been very recently converted from gasoline to butane, and a reported malfunction in the system caused a possible explosion and the ensuing fire. This was the second time for the Ensor home to burn. Approximately two years ago, burning trash scattered onto grass in the backyard of the home and melted a plastic pipe carrying natural gas into the house. When the pipe melted, burning gas shot onto the roof of the home and the garage, office, dining room, den and kitchen of the home burned.

First report of the fire was received by the Farwell Volunteer Fire Department shortly after 9 p.m. Friday, but the fire had already broken through the garage and lit up the sky for miles around as people flocked to the blaze. When firemen arrived, they found the garage destroyed, along with the south rooms of the large brick home. Firemen fought back the blaze, and shortly after 11 p.m. had eliminated all sparks in the house, although the Farwell Volunteer Fire Department and the Bovina Volunteer Fire Department stayed at the home until 12:30 a.m.

Farmers, Get Your Wells Ready To Run

Around 3:30 a.m. Saturday, firemen received a second call to the Ensor home and found the fire had broken out again. The second fire completely leveled the home, this time burning all the bedrooms, and all that was left in the smoldering rubble Saturday afternoon was the fireplace. No furniture and personal items were recovered from the home before it was destroyed as the Ensors were in Hereford at the time the fire was first reported.

Farwell Fire Chief Lee Hutchins said the fire loss would amount to between $50,000-$60,000, with the loss of the house, furnishings and a pickup in the Ensor garage.

Firemen were hampered in their efforts by well-meaning citizens and curiosity seekers who flocked to the fire, drawn by the sirens, flashing red lights and brightly lighted sky from the blaze. PURELY PERSONAL by John

This week, it finally started - the curbing and guttering of the first block of Fourth Street. Fourth Street, to us, has long been an eyesore and pain-in-the-neck. We have, on several occasions in the past, commented upon this civic catastrophe and had almost given up seeing any improvement within our lifespan. Truly, our cup runneth over.

For anyone who just possibly does not know to what we are referring - IT IS THE POST-OFFICE BLOCK. Imagine the joy that will reign unrestrained as the local citizenry can go get their daily mail and not have to risk life, limb and automobile in the process. We are forthwith cancelling our lease on our Dallas penthouse and have vowed to remain in Farwell until death do us part.

ONCE UPON A TIME there was a man named Snadley Clabberhorn, who was the healthiest man in the whole wide world. Snadley wasn't always the healthiest man in the whole wide world. When he was young, Snadley drank what he wanted, ate what he wanted and exercised only as a young Lothario. He thought he was happy. "Life is absolutely peachy," he was fond of saying. "Nothing beats being alive."

Then, along came the Surgeon General's report linking smoking to lung cancer and heart disease and emphysema. Snadley read about the great tobacco scare with a frown. "Life is so peachy," he said, "there's no sense taking any risk." So, he gave up smoking. Like most people who went through the hell of giving up smoking, Snadley became more interested in his own health; in fact, he became fascinated. When he read a WTCU tract that pointed out that alcohol caused liver damage and brain damage, he gave up alcohol and drank dietary colas instead. At least, he did until the great cyclematic scare. "There's no sense taking any risks," he said; and he switched to sugar-sweetened colas, which made him fat and caused dental cavities.

On realizing this, he renounced colas in favor of milk. That was about the time of the great cholesterol scare. Snadley gave up milk to avoid cholesterol, which caused arteriosclerosis. He also gave up meats, fat and jelly products, subsisting on a diet of raw fish. Then came the great DDT scare. There was reported large amounts of DDT in fish, Snadley read with anguish; but, fortunately, that was when he met Ernestine. They were made for each other. Ernestine introduced him to home-ground wheat germ and microbiotic and organic succotash. They were very happy three times a day. They were, that is, until the great color television scare.

"If color TV does give off radiation," said Snadley, "there's no sense taking any risk. After all, we still have each other." That's about all they had until the great Pill scare. On hearing that the Pill might cause carcinoma and thrombosis, Ernestine promptly gave up the Pill - and Snadley. "There's no sense taking any risk," she said.

Snadley was left with his jogging. He was, that is, until he read that 1.3 percent of all joggers are eventually run over by a truck or bitten by a rabid dog. He then retired to a bomb shelter in his back yard, to avoid being hit by a meteorite; installed an air conditioner after the great smog scare; and spent the next 64 years doing Royal Air Force exercises. "Nothing's more important than being alive," he said proudly on reaching age 102. But never again did he say that life is absolutely peachy. Caution? Being alive can be hazardous to your health.

Band Boosters Slate Meeting

According to Mrs. R. E. Blankenship, the Farwell band boosters will host a very important band meeting on Wednesday, April 3, at 3:30 p.m. in the band hall. Election of officers is scheduled and the boosters urge all interested persons to attend the meeting.

A DRY YEAR PREDICTED - As the sun peeps over the horizon, "Indian" John Crim watches the drift of smoke and predicts a "very dry" year ahead for this area. Making his annual weathercast on Friday, March 22, Crim advised farmers to get their irrigation equipment ready to go. He did not, however, predict any large hail or damaging winds, although he did say there would be a lot of straight winds.

Lions Sponsoring Five-Mile Walker

During the regular meeting Monday night of the Texico-Farwell Lions Club, it was voted to sponsor a Farwell FHA girl on a five mile walk for the mentally retarded.

Time and place for the walk will be announced at a later date. The walk will take place to accumulate funds for the mentally retarded, and additional sponsors are asked to sign up, according to Richard Deel and Jim Walker. Sponsor fees can vary, and anyone interested in sponsoring a walker is asked to contact Mrs. Glenn Fant at the Home Economics Department at Farwell High School.

Walker and Deel said that all the youths who will be walking his unexpired commission card and no new card was issued after City Marshal Foster said that in order for a card to be valid "the way this card is worded" the deputy marshal would be required to be paid a salary by the city. City Attorney Buzzard was to check into wording for "special" cards before new cards could be issued.

Also approved during the meeting was the purchase of an electronic calculator for the city hall and a mobile home permit was approved. It was reported that the pending zoning ordinance was still not finalized as the zoning map needed to be worked out.

Drainage was discussed, as well as culvert problems and repair work to culverts. A decision was made to nominate Marcia Leavell, president of the Texico Woman's Club to receive the Distinguished Public Service award and increase in water deposits were approved for new businesses moving into the city.

Two new fire extinguishers were approved for the Texico Community Building and a group was scheduled to meet to formulate by-laws for use of the building. The city was asked to take over janitorial duties at the building, and see that the building was kept in good repair.

Also during the meeting, City Attorney Buzzard, who had read a new state law governing open meetings and regulations requiring posting of meeting notices, again reminded the group of the penalties involved for not conforming to law, and told trustees that technically, they were in violation for having a meeting two hours earlier than they normally meet. Trustee Ruby Goforth and City Clerk Clara Wiehl also reported on a municipal meeting they attended in Tucumcari last Friday night.

which crosses the "lake" area on E street, just east and south of the First Baptist Church. Robertson was told to check with the contractors as they have liability for such accidents, although Robertson told city officials no officer had checked the accident.

Other paving problems were briefly discussed during the afternoon and evening meeting.

With an upcoming tax sale for several pieces of local property scheduled, the city was cautioned by City Attorney Charles Aycock to encourage the sale of the property for enough money to satisfy outstanding city, county and school tax liens against the property being sold at public auction on April 2.

Turned down was a proposition by an out of town property owner who wanted to deed two Farwell lots to the City of Farwell with the city assuming paving liens on the property. They are suggesting the property owner contact adjacent owners of the lots to see if they are interested in acquiring the property.

Future sewer line projects were discussed, as well as water lines for use in the nursing home when it is constructed; also discussed and vetoed was the potential purchase of a checkwriter for the city and pipe for installing the new street signs in the city were also under discussion during the meeting.

Meeting with commissioners was Farwell Fire Chief Lee Hutchins, who presented a request for an equipment van, to carry rescue equipment, coats, boots and other necessary equipment to fires and on rescue missions. "We need an equipment vehicle real bad, and through civil defense, we can get a bread truck type van that will carry our equipment, plus a generator for lights," said the fire chief. He said such a vehicle purchased through civil defense would cost between $125-$350. He was instructed to check into the purchase of a vehicle to be utilized by the fire department.

BIKE SAFETY REFLECTORS -- Bill Christian of the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club, shows one set of the approved bicycle reflectors to be installed on bicycles in the Twin Cities by members of the Rotary Club this Saturday. There will be no charge for installation on all bicycles in the Twin Cities from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. CDT.

Farwell C of C Hears Committee Reports

With 15 members present, reports were heard from various committees during the regular monthly meeting of the Farwell Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture last Tuesday afternoon.

Reporting for the Border Town Days Committee, in the absence of representative Richard Deel for the C of C, were BT secretary Cleta Williams and I. W. Quickel, C of C secretary. They told the group of plans for Border Town Days and obligations of the various groups represented in the celebration which is scheduled for the last weekend in July.

Quickel told the C of C members that the Farwell Chamber of Commerce is responsible for the barbecue, judges, the parade and acquiring trophies except for the rodeo, which will be taken care of by the Arena Association. Mrs. Williams reported on planned events and explained how the financing of the celebration will be handled.

Also reported was a new industry for Farwell, which will apparently be a processing plant at the old Curtis-Mathis property. Reconstruction is expected to start in the near future.

Charles Aycock talked about the C of C banquet on the 8th of the month and was highly complimentary of Fred Chandler and his assistants who prepared the steaks that were served. "It is one of the best banquets we have ever had," he commented.

Reports in city activities were given by Mayor Gil Patschke. He added, "Most of what is going on as far as the city is concerned is obvious as you drive around Farwell. We expect the completion of the paving project sometime after the first of May." He also told the group of the new street signs which are being prepared to install.

He confined many of his remarks to the activities of the Farwell Recreation Committee and plans and recommendations that were made by the three member board during the Monday night meeting of the city council, including a community building and tennis courts.

Don Williams and Bob Anderson, board members of the Farwell Development Company, said Minott and Associates of Oklahoma City had been contracted to draw up plans for a nursing home for Farwell. The plans will be presented in the near future.

Golf-Bridge Group Will Organize

All area women interested in golf and/or bridge are invited to a morning coffee on Tuesday, April 2 at 10 a.m. at the Farwell Country Club, according to Carrie Anderson.

"At that time, the former Ladies' Golf Association will meet and host the organizational meeting of the new group.

Mrs. Anderson said there will be no charge or fee and said all area women are "cordially invited to attend."

Rotary Club Slates Bike Safety Drive

On Saturday, March 30, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., persons, especially youngsters, in the Texico-Farwell area can have installed on their bicycle or bicycles, safety reflectors.

The approved reflectors are designed to be installed on the wheel spokes and at the front of the bicycle, according to Rotarian Bill Christian. The reflectors will be visible from the side and front of the bicycle, he added.

He said there will be no charge for the reflectors or the installation which will be done by crews from the Texico-Farwell Rotary Club.

Locations are the bank parking lot at the Citizens Bank of Clovis, Texico branch, and at Hamlin United Methodist Church in Farwell.

Parents have been urged to see that their youngster has the reflectors installed, as they are approved by the National Safety Council and will reduce danger to young bicycle riders.

Commission In Routine Meet

In a very short meeting Monday morning, all members of the Parmer County Commissioners Court were present for the less than an hour meeting to dispense with all business.

After Parmer County Clerk Bonnie Warren read the bills and minutes of the previous meeting, commissioners signed a contract agreement with the State of Texas for highway improvements to State Highway 214 and approved the new fee of $15 per hour for use of the county maintainers. The fee went into effect on Feb. 1, 1974, however, had not been made a part of the minutes until Monday.

Ken Luman. Jim Rodriguez, Jr. of Shandon, Calif., has been the team roping champion of the world four times, winning his first title in 1959 at the age of 18, the youngest man ever to win a global crown. Jim won the world title also in 1960, 1962, and 1965, reportedly the most any team roper has ever claimed. He started roping from horseback at the age of seven guided by his father and Gene Rambo who later became his father-in-law. He was an all-around high school athlete and turned down baseball contract offers from the New York Yankees and Washington Senators to continue in rodeo.

Ken Luman, age 30, was born in Roswell but moved to Merced, Calif., at the age of five, when his father broke horses at what is now the Los Alamitos race track. Ken's father started him roping at a tender age and he entered junior and amateur rodeos before turning professional in 1964. He finished second in the world standings his second year as a pro and won the title in 1966. A consistent winner he has placed in the upper half of the team roping standings every year since then.

Jim and Ken teamed up in 1960 and they are the duo to beat at any competition with Jim doing the heading and Ken the heeling, say sponsors of the school. They clinched the 1973 National Finals Rodeo team roping average this past December in Oklahoma City and set a Finals record with an incredible run of 5.8 seconds.

The school is sponsored by the Hat Roping Club of Clovis and has already registered 48 entries with a limit of only 12 more to be accepted before Monday, April 1. A $50 deposit is required with a total fee of $125 per student.

Anyone wishing further information may call Benny Fulgham at 763-6231.

Haseloff Shows Champion

Several 4-H members competed in the Southwest Junior Livestock Show in Lubbock, March 11-13. This regional show was the last one on the Spring show circuit. Exhibiting their animals were David Deel, Mark Owen, Sherrie Seaton, Mike Windham, Russell Windham and Mark Haseloff.

In the steer show, Mark Haseloff showed his lightweight Hereford to first place in class and 'Champion Hereford'. The steer weighed 984 lbs. and was the first lightweight in the County show in February. In the premium sale the steer brought $683.00.

The barrow show ended the judging activities on March 12th. Mike Windham's Chester barrow was named the Reserve Champion Chester. Mark Owen showed his lightweight Cross to fifth place. This show is billed as the largest Junior regional livestock show in the nation. For the youngsters in Parmer County it was the last of eight shows they participated in this Spring.

Tips On Economics

Clean rugs and carpets with a vacuum cleaner. Shaking or beating them breaks threads, damages the backing and tears the binding. TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE
BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

LIGHT FOR THE SOUL

A Christian believer, talking to an atheistic evolutionist one time, took his watch out of his pocket, noted the time and put it back in again, saying to his friend: "This is a wonderful watch; never misses a second. I never have to do anything to it, yet it keeps perfect time."
"What make is it?" asked the evolutionist. "Oh, no make," was the reply. "Well who manufactured it?"
"Oh, no one. It just put itself together somehow."
"Nonsense!" said the atheist. "A watch can't just come into existence. Somebody had to manufacture it."
"That's true," replied the Christian, "yet you expect me to believe that this vast universe with its billions of planets and stars, all revolving in perfect order, just came about by itself, that it has no Designer, no Creator, and no one to keep it running. Isn't that nonsense!"
According to the Bible, God holds the pagan world responsible for its idolatry and declares: "They are without excuse" (Rom. 1:20) because all that the heathen witness about God every day calls for their worship and praise and thanksgiving (Rom. 1:20:21). But they have not had this attitude. They have denied and rejected God and, as St. Paul says, they "became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened" (Ver. 21). It was thus that pagan idolatry, the worship of the creation, rather than the Creator (Ver. 25) had its beginning.
All this is very much like what we read in Eph. 4:17,18 where God exhorts His people not to live like "the Gentiles," in "the vanity (shallowness) of their mind, having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart."
Not very complimentary, is it? But it does reflect the condition of the human heart without God and apart from faith in Christ our Savior. It explains why the world, with all its increased technical knowledge is worse off than ever.
How wonderful to know that "God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness," can give light and joy and blessing to the simplest soul who places his faith in Christ, who died for our sins! (See II Cor. 4:3-6; Acts 16:31).

Trimming Off Excess Pounds

Many people find those tasty holiday delights still with them - in the form of extra pounds. Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System, offered some "do's and don'ts" for solving this problem.

"It's best to take off extra pounds as soon as possible. Otherwise, it may get put off and never be done.

"You should lose those extra five pounds in two to three weeks by cutting down 1,000 calories daily - or in about five weeks by cutting down 500 calories daily," she said.

When reducing, the specialist advised being sensible.

"Reduce size of servings but eat a wide variety of foods. Cut down on calories - not nutrients.

"To do this, choose foods wisely - avoid 'empty-calorie' foods with lots of calories but few vitamins and minerals."

Using fortified skim milk helps cut down on calories, Miss Springer noted. "It contains half the calories of whole milk - but the same valuable calcium, riboflavin and protein without extra fat.

"Citrus fruits, on the other hand, are low in calories and rich in vitamin C, another important nutrient."

The specialist offered some suggestions in meal preparation to help reduce calorie intake.

"For one, serve steamed or pan-fried vegetables such as broccoli or carrots. They furnish lots of vitamin A but few calories.

"Also, avoid adding extra fat, cream or cheese sauces to vegetables. Instead, experiment with different herbs and spices to please family tastes."

"In addition, trim excess fat from meat before cooking it," the specialist continued.

"Dieting doesn't mean avoiding enriched breads and cereals - they supply essential B-vitamins and iron.

"When eating bread or cereal, don't add calorie-rich toppings like butter, jam, jelly or frosting."

Miss Springer warned against expecting overnight results.

"Although those extra pounds seemed to go on almost that fast, it's best to take them off slowly."

Almost everywhere you look, homeowners are tilling in their back yards or wherever they can find space to put in a spring garden.

Home gardening is definitely booming, and in Texas gardeners can produce tasty, nutritious vegetables the year round.

To have a successful home garden, a number of important factors enter into the picture. First of all, a site that has well-drained, fertile soil is best. However, homeowners often have little choice on the garden location. The location should also receive plenty of sunlight, but certain crops can be grown in partially shaded areas.

Proper seedbed preparation is another important element for a good garden. If the garden site has heavy, tight clay soil, add one to two inches of sand and two to three inches of organic matter and then work these materials into the soil. Gypsum at the rate of six to eight pounds per 100 square feet also helps improve tight clay soils.

Before planting, apply a complete fertilizer such as 12-12-12 at the rate of two to three pounds per 100 square feet. Work the fertilizer into the soil and then form the beds for planting.

Use transplants whenever possible to get a crop off to a head start.

Once crops are up, water them sufficiently and regularly so that the water penetrates the soil to a depth of at least six inches. Light sandy soils may require more frequent watering. Plants should be watered in the morning or at least not later than mid-afternoon so that plants will dry before night. This helps prevent foliage diseases.

Use of a long-handled hoe is still the best means for controlling weeds. However, adding a mulch of straw, leaves, grass, bark, gin trash, sawdust, peat moss or other organic material around plants helps control weeds and also reduces soil temperatures and moisture losses.

Up-to-date home interiors accent with wallpaper. Dating back to ancient times, wallpaper popularity has fluctuated in recent years.

Today's wallpaper, however, offers great diversity and challenges for creative imaginations with its broad range of color, pattern and texture. Wallpaper isn't limited to walls. Innovative homemakers use it on screens, furnishings and other decorative accessories.

Also, with proper use, wallpaper improves problem areas. For example, it can "clear" a spacious-looking room, or make a large, empty space seem more cozy.

Wallpaper also can separate or coordinate areas where other means prove impractical. In addition, it easily covers or camouflages wall surface defects and blemishes.

On the "minus side," after two or three layers of wallpaper are applied to a surface, they must be removed before applying a new finish. Although time-consuming for an amateur, this process is relatively simple for persons using professional equipment.

When decorating with wallpaper, consumers should understand several terms involving maintenance methods.

"Non-washable" coverings may be printed with water-soluble dyes. As a result, water may damage their designs. Washable coverings, on the other hand, can withstand gentle blotting with a damp cloth to remove surface dust. Scuffable finishes resist spots and stains - and can be washed with soap and water.

A Message to the High School and College Age Students of Farwell . . . (and those who love them)
From the President of West Texas State University

You are standing on the threshold . . . perhaps the threshold of greatness, but at least on the threshold of what can be a rewarding career. West Texas State University is also on the threshold . . . we think it is the threshold of greatness.

There is a new excitement on our campus. Everyone associated with the University tells me they feel it, students, faculty, alumni and our many boosters throughout the Panhandle.

The excitement started ten years ago when we achieved University status. We began getting many new facilities including a new library, science building, research center, classroom and administration buildings and a new Student Activities Center which is second to none in the United States. We have new programs of a dozen different kinds . . . even one for horsemanship.

Much of the money for these programs and facilities has come from individual citizens, companies and foundations. These benefactors say, in effect, that our area should be the site of a significant university . . . a university with facilities and programs which attract outstanding faculty and students from all over the nation, even the world.

WTSU is growing but it is not so big but that our teachers can take a personal interest in each student and relate to him as the individual he is. Though we have a higher percentage of Ph.D.'s on our faculty than most universities, (over 50% . . .) our classes average fewer students than most, (under 20).

Our students are very much a part of making things happen at WTSU. They are interested, involved and excited. Their learning experience is bigger than the classroom . . . it is as big as life itself.

Tell us which of these areas of study interests you and we will tell you more about that program at WTSU. Clip this coupon and mail it to me personally. I'll see that you get the whole exciting story without obligating you in any way.

Lloyd D. Watkins

P. S. Don't let financial considerations keep you from exploring the idea of coming to WTSU this summer or fall. Scholarships and other financial assistance are readily available.

WE ALL HAVE OUR TROUBLES - Last week, a large truck parked across the street from the Tribune office. The rig was new and on one corner of the trailer was noted the sign you can see "WASH ME." Less noticeable, was a similar sign on the tractor. We did promise we wouldn't tell whose truck was begging to be washed.

Community Dinner Draws 76 Persons

"We all were just astounded, and didn't think of everything we needed to do and say," commented one of the members of the Texico Community Planning Council as he recalled the astonishment of the group who planned a community dinner for last Thursday night.

"When we saw people coming in, and keep coming in, and I personally counted 76 people at the dinner, I just couldn't think of what to say," he added. "I am very much afraid they slighted some people and didn't recognize many persons who really needed to be welcomed to Texico. But, I would like to assure everyone they were welcome, and since we plan to have future community dinners, I hope everyone will return, and we will see even larger crowds."

The potluck dinner at the Texico Community building was the first major function since the structure was completely remodeled, and the planning council group had invited the Clovis Kitchen Band to perform. The lively group of women played various types of kitchen utensils, utilized as musical instruments and were backed up by a piano and an accordion. Members of the Clovis Senior Citizens organization, the nine band members livened up the gathering crowd as they presented several numbers preceding the dinner. As the families arrived, they added their covered dishes to the evergrowing long lines of food displayed on tables along the walls, and listened to the fast-paced music.

With Texico Community Planning Council President A.D. McDonald arriving late due to illness of his wife, he said he was so surprised at the large crowd, he made his "welcome" short as he surveyed the full room of people.

Immediately following the dinner, a Senior Citizens Group for the Texico area was formed with Joe Caywood being named president; Alma Hendrix, vice-president; and Aileen Teel, secretary-treasurer.

On hand to help organize the group was W. E. "Bill" Taylor, director of the Council on Aging from the Eastern New Mexico Planning Council office at Clovis. Others were Rachel Jones and her husband, Carl, also of Clovis. Mrs. Jones is director of the Senior Citizen's Center at Clovis, and Alice Converse, state director on the Council of Aging.
