

Twin Cities Rejoice In Hostage Release

Down It Comes

When the hostages in Iran were released and flown from Iranian air space Tuesday, Nell Walling of Farwell took down the flag she has flown for almost 400 days in remembrance of their captivity. "I'm going to buy a brand new flag for their homecoming!" she said triumphantly. "I'm just so happy today!" In the meantime, the Wallings' flag pole and front yard evergreen tree have been decorated with yellow ribbons in honor of the hostages' release. Mrs. Walling says she plans on saving the "hostage" flag with news clippings about their captivity and release for her grandchildren.

Smiles For The Hostages

Students in Dale Schwartz' Texico third grade class celebrated the hostage homecoming by passing out smiling face stickers, and also stickers that read "Fan-Tastic!" The joyful symbols were given to members of the Texico elementary student body and faculty members Tuesday after the announcement was made that all 52 hostages had been freed from Iran. Schwartz is shown putting a smiling face sticker on student Esperanza Estrada while her classmates look on. The entire student body at Texico watched the Presidential inaugural on television and listened to hostage news reports Tuesday morning.

Shreds Proclamation

In December 1979, 43 days after the Americans had been taken hostage in Iran, Farwell's Mayor Walter Kaltwasser signed a proclamation requesting all Farwell citizens to fly their American flags until the situation in Iran had been resolved. On Tuesday, Jan. 20, all 52 of the American hostages were released from captivity in Iran, and to celebrate Mayor Kaltwasser tore into shreds his previously signed proclamation. "It's great news isn't it?" he remarked. "I'm so glad they are all OK." The American hostages were freed from Iran a few minutes after Ronald Reagan was sworn in as our nation's 40th president.

Reception To Honor Retired Sheriff Lovelace

A reception to honor former Parmer County sheriff, Charles Lovelace, has been scheduled for February 1, from 2-5 p.m. CST, with the entire population of Parmer County invited to attend.

Set to take place at the Hamlin Memorial United Methodist Church in Farwell, the reception "is for Parmer County citizens to come and show their appreciation to Sheriff Lovelace," said Irene Woods, one of the reception organizers.

The reception is being organized by the Parmer County Sheriff's Department in recognition of their former boss, who stepped down from his office January 2 after 32 years as Parmer's top law official.

The organizing committee has invited area law enforcement officials, in addition to elected officials and employees of Parmer County, to attend the appreciation reception for Lovelace.

"But this is not reserved for law enforcement personnel alone. We want the entire Parmer population to attend and pay tribute to the former sheriff," said Mrs. Woods.

The committee will serve refreshments, and a money tree will be provided for the former sheriff.

Lovelace chose not to run for re-election last year. He first took the sheriff's oath of office in January of 1948, and for the next 28 years he had no further opposition in his quest to retain the sheriff's badge.

Over his 32-year reign as Parmer's chief lawman, Lovelace watched crime prevention methods change drastically

"from night to day" but said that crimes themselves have not changed at all, "there's just a big increase."

During a recent interview with the Tribune, published in the December 26, 1980 issue, Lovelace expressed his feelings about his lawman role and Parmer's citizens by saying, "I have enjoyed this job very much, and appreciate the people of Parmer County who made it all possible.

The legendary law officer added, "I enjoy being a public servant. I enjoy doing something for somebody and helping them. There's a real feeling of accomplishment."

Parmer's citizens will have their chance to show their feelings of appreciation to Lovelace at the upcoming reception.

Okla. Lane 4-H Club Sets Stock-Showing Clinic

The recently reorganized Oklahoma Lane 4-H Club is planning its first big project, a stock show and showing clinic set for Saturday, Jan. 24, at 3 p.m. in the Oklahoma Lane Community Center.

The clinic and stock show will also serve as the club's regular monthly meeting and will be followed by a chili supper from 4 to 7 p.m.

Se'n Ralston, Parmer County agent, will be on hand to instruct club members in how to show their animals, and former county agent Mack Heald will judge the animals. Ribbons will be awarded and a grand and reserve champion animal will be named. Extension agent Laura Jacobs will also be present to assist in the day's project.

There will also be a Pee Wee division in the event. This division is for youngsters who are too young to be members of 4-H. They may borrow an animal already at the show for the purpose of exhibiting an animal for judging.

R.C. Davis is project chairman, and Mr. and Mrs. Davis are in charge of the supper which will follow the stock show and clinic. The supper, to feature chili, crackers, beans, cake, or brownies, and drinks, is to be the club's first money-raising project.

Prices will be 75 cents for a bowl of chili; $1 for chili and beans; and 25 cents for cake, and 25 cents for drinks. Money earned from this project will help pay for the club's activities through the year.

In charge of setting up pens for the animals are Mr. and Mrs. Steve Pierson. Other adult leaders, Rev. and Mrs. Howard Rhodes, are assisting in all phases of the day's event. They invite everyone to come and see what the youth are doing in their 4-H projects and enjoy the afternoon and evening with these youngsters in their first big project.

Leaders of the club expressed appreciation to Oklahoma Lane Farm Supply, Oklahoma Lane Gin, Capitol Foods, Farwell Dairy Queen and Sherley-Anderson Grain of Lariat for their assistance in the day's event.

Looking It Over

One of the new features in Texico's new fire station is a combination kitchen-meeting area. Volunteer fireman Brian Kube takes a look at the brand new facility and gives it his seal of approval. The station is now awaiting final inspection from the building's architect and an inspector from FHA.

Once that has been done, members of the Texico Volunteer Department will move into their "new home" located on the corner of Hereford and Turner in Texico. Construction on the building was begun in September of 1980 and was built at a cost of almost $76,000.

New Texico Fire Station Awaits Final Inspection

There is only one thing stopping the Texico Volunteer Fire Department from moving into its new facility, that is a final inspection to be done by the building's architect and an inspector from the Farmers' Home Administration (FHA).

The inspection, which was scheduled for this week, had not taken place at press time.

The structure is located at the corner of Hereford and Turner in Texico, and is 98 percent complete. The new building was constructed at a cost of about $76,000, according to Texico City Clerk Marie Christian.

The fire house facility has several new features not found in the old building which adjoins the Texico City Hall. This new building, constructed by A&M Building Systems of Clovis, has a combined kitchen-meeting room, fluorescent lighting, floor drains and chain operated doors, said volunteer fireman Brian Kube.

Also, there are three and one-half bays in the facility to house the city's two fire trucks, one tanker, one equipment van and one rescue van.

Construction began in early September of 1980 and once final inspection has been made, the volunteer fireman plan to conduct an open house for the community.

Texico's new fire house is the first fire station in the state of New Mexico to be paid for with State allotment funds. "All fire departments are allocated funds from the State for operational costs," Mrs. Christian explained. "Our loan with FHA is to be repaid from these funds."

She commented further that New Mexico is unique in that it allots these funds to the State's fire departments on an annual basis.

In December of 1979 the Texico City Commission voted to issue a gross receipts tax revenue bond to FHA to serve as surety for an $80,000 loan. The reserve bond guarantees repayment of the $80,000 to FHA should Texico fail for any reason to repay the loan.

Their initial loan with FHA was for the $80,000 amount. However, the actual amount bid by A&M Building Systems was for $76,449.15, which has since been lessened by $360 due to a change in color and gauge of metal used for the structure.

The Senior Citizens of Texico are to move into the old space soon to be vacated by the volunteer fire department. The Senior Citizens plan to do their own remodeling before moving in. The group is to take over the area, including the dispatcher's former residence, with the exception of the meeting room and the ambulance bay, which is to be retained by the city, Mrs. Christian said.

Currently, the fire department's dispatcher, Mrs. Nadine Edge, is now housed in a new mobile home, purchased by the city. The home is located on the same property as the new fire station and is complete with electronic dispatch equipment, including radio pager, CB and recorder.

The mobile home was a separate purchase from the original loan amount of $80,000.

Texico made its first loan payment to FHA on January 1, and the City is currently awaiting the final bill from A&M Building Systems.

Once the inspection has been made, and everything is certified "A-OK", Texico's Volunteer Fire Fighters will have a new home.

Texico Dispatcher

Texico Fire Department dispatcher Nadine Edge and her husband, Garland, also a city employee, are now living in a new mobile home furnished to them by the city. The home is complete with electronic dispatch equipment including telephones, radio receiver-transmitter, CB and recorder. As Texico's dispatcher, Mrs. Edge is on duty 24 hours a day, and that is why the city provides her with a residence, which is located next to the new fire station. Edge is with the city's sanitation department.

PURELY PERSONAL

by John

At this writing the hostages are not actually out of Iran, but it looks safe to assume that they will momentarily be released. When this moment actually arrives the great American tragedy will end as it began. Nothing in it will reflect any honor or dignity to the government of the United States.

Alas, poor Carter, to the very end the mad mullahs ground him in the mire of contempt. How sad for him, how sad for the United States of America.

As we have said at least twice in the past 14 months, now comes the hard time of decision for our government. Will we now proceed to blandly ignore our past 14 months of national ignominy or will we exact some measure of retribution??

Before the election of Ronald Reagan our guess would have been for our wanly smiling to an outraged world and to continue to be the butt of foreign contempt. We think under the new administration there is at least the outside chance that this country will in some public manner chastize the government of Iran.

As distasteful as this is we feel that it is necessary to protect our embassies throughout the world. International law must be upheld. Communications between nations must continue in a safe and civilized manner. Transgressors must be punished, not rewarded.

We feel that if the nations of the world do not stand by us in this undertaking then we should end the charade of the United Nations. Who needs a body dedicated to peace and international law if it is totally ignored??

Our suggestion is either blast Iran or the UN—or both.

Another Federal Judge has entered the fur-lined thunder-mug annual sweepstakes for judicial social extravagance. We will not comment on the judge's premise of past wrongs in the State of Texas education of its Spanish citizens. This is another argument entirely.

What gets our attention in this case is His Honor's assertion that the expense of implementing his judicial ukase is of no matter, and the taxpayers must pony up the necessary money to carry out his interpretation of social justice.

Shades of George III, hasn't this fellow heard about the battle cry of the early American colonist about no taxation without representation? It certainly raises the question of who has the power to levy taxes. We cannot find it within our purview of the political climate surrounding the adoption of the Constitution that the founding fathers meant for the judiciary to have taxing powers.

We have always been under the impression that our government was founded upon the idea of three separate and distinct branches. Judicial decisions deeming taxes to be of no consequence certainly blur these distinctions. However, this is nothing new in the judicial field. For the past 20 to 30 years, the federal judiciary has not only been interpreting law but for all practical purposes they have been writing it and executing it. Thereby rolling our three branches up in one ball of judicial wax.

TV will never replace the newspaper because you can't use it to swat flies, wrap fish or garbage, spread it on the floor after washing or waxing, to housebreak puppies, baby crocodiles, gnus, llamas, or kangaroos, or to line bird cages. Considering all these uses for the newspaper and more, it's reasonable to assume that it's here to stay.

Jr. Livestock Show Slated February 5

Farwell's Annual Junior Livestock Show has been set for Thursday, Feb. 5, according to Seth Ralston, Parmer County Extension Agent.

The annual event is slated to begin at 7 p.m. CST and is to be held at the Preston Martin fertilizer barn located north of Frane Irrigation on North Ninth Street.

Sponsored by the Farwell Jaycees, Sherley-Anderson-Pitman and Worley Grain, the junior livestock show is open to all FFA and 4-H Club members in Farwell schools, and is to feature steers, show lambs, gilts and barrows.

Trophies and ribbons will be awarded to all winning entries, Ralston said.

Judging this year's event will be Alvin Gladden of Morton, Tex., a farmer and purebred swine breeder.

"We feel this sort of event is a real education for the kids and gives them experience in showing their animals before going to county level," Ralston said. "This gives them a chance to compete at a local level with each other and it gives adults a chance to see how the local kids have done with their animals," he added.

Ralston estimates that the show will have five Steers, 10 lambs and 90 hogs. The Farwell 4-H Club will have a concession stand at the site.

Ralston is in charge of all 4-H entries and Richard Montgomery will handle all FFA entries.

For further information on the event, call Ralston at 481-3619.

Business Histories Are Needed For County Book

The Parmer County Historical Commission is asking local county businesses and county artists to contribute their works to the upcoming Parmer County History Book, Volume II.

"At present we are stressing the Business History Section of the book," said Mrs. Otho Whitefield, commission co-chairman. "We plan to give each business establishment in the county the opportunity to enter its own history," she stated.

Mrs. Whitefield explained that the business histories are to be written by the business owner or by someone designed to do so. "The book, our county development and growth depends upon and reflects the business of our county," she said.

The commission co-chairman advised that a volunteer will begin calling on each establishment soon. "Business History is purchased space in the book. This is to help pay for our free sections of the book," said Mrs. Whitefield.

The request for local artists to volunteer their talents to the book project was also put out by Mrs. Whitefield. "Pen and ink drawings are used to illustrate, to divide departments and to emphasize events," explained the co-chairman. "We hope our local artists will come up with some unique, different and interesting ideas that will make our book outstanding," she said.

Mrs. Whitefield stated that the commission cannot guarantee that all entries will be used but she urged all artists to assist in this aspect of the book.

She said there is still time to submit Memorials and Tributes to the publication, and advises that by sending book orders, pictures and payment in with the stories submitted that their ledger work will be cut in half. "It will save lots of time," she added.

The commission met January 8 for their regular monthly meeting with guest speaker Judy Cotton holding a seminar on the departments for the upcoming history book.

Mrs. Cotton is the sales representative of the Craftsman Printing Company of Lubbock, and she also represents the Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas.

New members were welcomed to the group, including Paul Fortenberry, Lloyd and Betty Louise Rector, Jinx Sneed, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Floyd, Linda Black and Nora O'Brian.

Sheriff's Report

Parmer County sheriff's officials arrested a Clovis man in Bovina Tuesday morning in connection with a burglary charge and following a signed waiver of extradition, the man was released to Curry County sheriff's deputies.

Edward L. White was arrested Tuesday morning by Parmer County law enforcement officials and was returned to Clovis by mid-afternoon, according to Sheriff Bill Morgan.

In other action this week, Morgan stated that his department is investigating the theft of a tool box belonging to Lawrence Widner of Bovina. Widner, the school Vo-Ag teacher in Bovina, reported the box missing, stating that it was full of shearing tools. Value has been placed on the missing tool box at $750.

Fire Calls

Both the Farwell and Texico ambulances were kept busy this past week, but no fire calls were reported.

In Farwell, the ambulance made two trips on January 16. The first one was five miles south on State Line Road to a construction site where a worker had fallen. The patient was transferred to Clovis High Plains Hospital at 2:16 p.m.

At 11:57 p.m. the Farwell ambulance was called to a residence at 18 Avenue D in Farwell. It is believed the patient had a heart attack and was transferred to an area hospital.

ities. They will join Floyd Reeve of Friona and Ralph Roming of Bovina on the five-member committee which handles approval of water well drilling permits and other related activities in Parmer County.

Lubbock Man Winner Of County Feather Contest

Winner of the 1980 Parmer County pheasant tail feather contest is Davis Bennett of Lubbock, who took the prize with a tail feather measuring 26 and 1/8 inches long, according to Parmer County extension agent Seth Ralston.

Bennett, who won an engraved belt buckle in the county-wide event, took first place honors in the Friona-sponsored contest before entering the county competition. In second place with a feather measuring 25 and 3/4 inches long was Dennis Willard of Bovina, and in third place was Donald Lovelady of Farwell, with a feather measuring 25 and 3/8 inches long.

Willard had been first place winner in the Bovina local contest, and Lovelady took first place honors in Farwell.

Placing second in the Farwell contest was Hugh Edwards with a tail feather measuring 24 and 13/16 long. Edwards won $10 from Sherley-Anderson-Pitman, a contest sponsor.

Lynny Beal of Farwell placed third in the locally sponsored contest, with a feather measuring 24 and 3/4 inches. Beal won $5 from Farwell Hardware, another contest sponsor.

Last year's top county honor went to Dee Willard of Friona with a feather measuring 26 1/4 inches in length.

The tail feather contest is held annually in conjunction with the pheasant hunting season. Farwell sponsors were Security State Bank, Sherley-Anderson-Pitman and Farwell Hardware.

Loses faith in blondes

Item No. 464A in our Love and War man's file of famous late words was the sad and solemn observation of that eminent lawyer Clarence Darrow who at the age of 80 said, "I don't even believe in blondes anymore."

Courts in Afghanistan have never used juries.

No U. S. President before or since has worn a bigger hat-band than did James Garfield—tell it all, brother—at 7 1/4ths.

Understand there's a new documentary film out now that sounds noteworthy. It's called "Hush, Hoggies, Hush!" Only lasts four minutes, but it shows about 40 years of patient effort by one Tom Johnson of Benton, Miss., who steadfastly during those two-score years tried to teach his pigs to pray before they ate.

TO HAVE A BABY

Q. After trying to have a baby for three years, my husband and I are wondering how long most couples who try have to wait?

A. About 25 percent of the wives conceive during the first month. Then 50 percent within six months. Figure 80 percent within 12 months. And 90 percent within 18 months.

Q. Don't all the western European nations draft their soldiers?

A. All but Great Britain and Ireland. Compulsory service runs from nine months in Denmark to two years in Greece.

Q. What's meant in a London pub by a "shout"?

A. A round of drinks.

INDEPENDENCE

More than one nation formulated its Declaration of Independence at Philadelphia's Independence Hall, bear in mind. Czechoslovakia did so, too. In October of 1918, I'd guess a few elderly Czechs now think of that time a little wistfully.

More than 43 days and nights—1,035 hours—of major network television time are being devoted this season to football. Clearly, it's not just a glandular fact that women cry more than men.

Briefest bit of holiday party dialogue overheard this season: He, pouring a drink: "Say when." She: "After this drink."

Something else that goes unnoticed is the fact that hardly anybody's ears match.

Texico Physical Power Increased With Weights

"I really believe in this," said Wolverine head coach David Lynn referring to Texico football team's off-season weight program. "Not only does the weight program help to develop a player physically, it makes them mentally tougher too," Lynn stated.

Texico's program began November 17, with stress placed on muscle tone, agility and quickness for the 11 players now participating. Lynn expects to have a total of 30-35 participants in his program after basketball season has ended.

The Wolverines work in a vigorous weight program Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays the gridiron hopefuls place their emphasis on flexibility, agility and quickness while in Aerobic training. Lynn places great importance on the cardiovascular training provided with his entire program. "It can't help but improve an athlete," he says.

On their weightlifting days the players devote their entire hour to lifting weights, concentrating on the main muscle groups of the body with bench press, squats, power cleans and neck machines. They also work at lengthening their muscles. "The longer a muscle is the stronger it is and the faster you can react," stated the coach with conviction. "That's a proven fact."

The boys' mentor also feels that muscle flexibility increases range of motion, and according to Lynn, works to eliminate team injuries.

Their weight routine includes five sets of five with a percentage workout. On every fourth workout, "we max out, trying to gain five pounds over maximum," said the coach.

The team is working on a stair step procedure and Lynn says as a general rule they are each averaging about a five-pound weightlifting increase per week.

Each program participant was given a goal sheet at the onset whereby he listed his weightlifting goals for now through August. "Some have already passed their goals for the coming month," said Lynn. "And when they haven't, we go back and reassess their goals."

Texico's athletic director feels that the weight program helps in keeping team morale high, "especially when they see how well they can do." He says that he would like to continue the program through football season.

The Wolverines have always had some sort of a weight program off season, but this is Lynn's first time at it with the Texico gridiron team. He says his program is a bit different than what the players had in previous off seasons. The one thing he has added is mat drills, "for agility and quickness."

The coach says his players take part in "combatings" on the mat and "wrestle a bit."

According to coach Lynn his participants are "working hard and showing a lot of dedication." The coach feels so strongly about this program that he would like to get the female athletes also involved. "I feel this program can help in all areas of sports at Texico High. I know it will make us a better football team, and it can't help but improve all our athletes as well," he said.

Farwell Jr. Varsity Basketball Results

Farwell's JV boys played in the Springlake-Earth Tournament last week but were defeated both times they hit the courts.

In their first clash with Littlefield, the boys fell to a score of 83-27. "Littlefield had an excellent ball club," commented coach Ted Phillips following his team's loss.

Farwell trailed at the end of the first period 18-6 and again at the half 31-14.

While Littlefield managed to bucket a hefty 26 points in the third quarter, Farwell was held to a mere 8. Another 26 points netted by Littlefield in the final quarter ended the game with Farwell on the tail end of a 56 point spread.

For Farwell Dale Sikes hooped for 11 points; Claud Gobble had 7; Johnny Daniel, 3; and Raymond Sierra, Paul Fuleher and Frank Cantu, 2 each. In their second tourney competition Farwell tackled Kress and was defeated 66-44. "We got off to a slow start and could never come back," remarked coach Phillips. "I think we will play Kress a better game when we play them for district."

Because of their slow start, Farwell trailed at the end of the first quarter 19-9 and again at the half 38-23.

They netted 10 points during the third period and added another 11 points in the fourth period, but Kress boosted theirs by 12 to take the win.

Gobble took high scoring honors with 17 points for Farwell; Daniel and Sikes had 8 each; Sierra had 7; Jimmy Bernal, 2; and Nicky Liethen and Steve Smith, 1 each.

Vega handed Farwell's JV boys a 52-35 defeat Tuesday night on the Vega courts.

It was a game where Farwell remained close to Vega until the last quarter. "We played real well for three quarters," said coach Ted Phillips after the game. "We controlled the tempo of the game the first half. They got the tempo rolling the last quarter and that was the difference in the game," the coach added.

Farwell trailed by only 1 point at the end of the first quarter 7-6; Vega took a bigger lead at the half 27-18. In the third quarter the teams were 36-27 but by the end of the final period Vega took a 17 point lead to win the game.

Raymond Sierra and Claud Gobble were high scorers for Farwell with 11 points each; Jimmy Bernal and Dale Sikes had 4 each; Johnny Daniel had 3; and Brent Green, 2.

40-21, this team's first win ever over Kress.

"This was one of our better shooting games," remarked coach Bill Phillips following the game. "The kids played super defense. This game was the first time our freshmen and sophomores have ever beaten Kress," he noted.

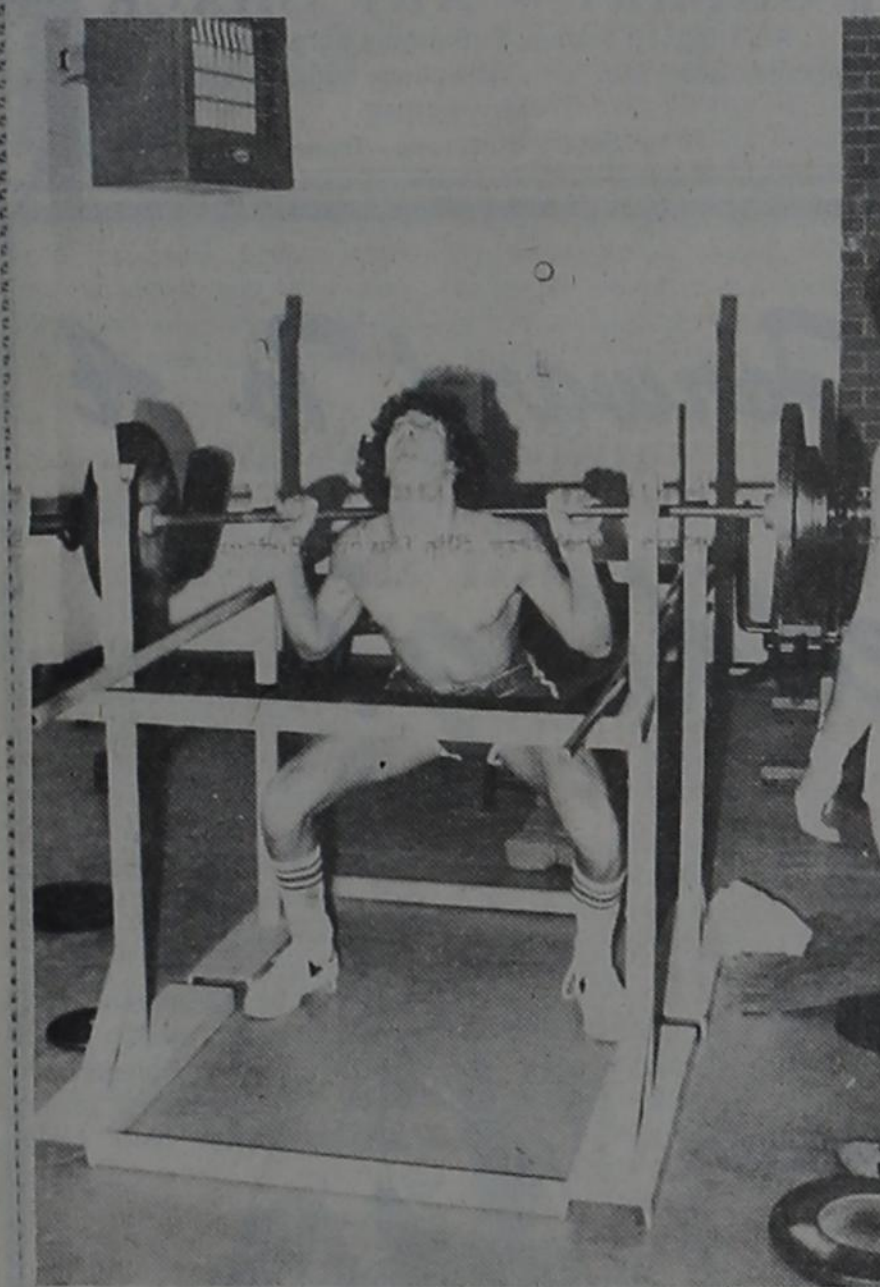

Farwell shot 11 points during the first period while holding Kress to 6. Another 9 points for the Blue and White, and only 2 for Kress put Farwell in the lead at halftime 20-8.

Each team scored 6 points in the third period but Farwell netted 14 points in the final quarter, compared to 7 for Kress, taking the game 40-21.

"Sharon Kalbas probably had her best game all year," said Phillips. "Her leadership on the floor really keeps the girls together."

Lezlie Castleberry was high scorer for the team with 15 points; Suzahn Inman had 9; Elaine Vaughan, 6; Sharon Kalbas and Tammy Ober-shain, 4 each; and Kelly Davis, 2.

Kalbas took in 9 rebounds; Vaughan, 8; Inman, 6; and Castleberry and Davis, 1 each.

Heavy Pushing

Texico's James Kelley works at the bench press supervised by football teammate Neal Snipes. The bench press is one of four areas in which the boys participate to increase muscle flexibility and agility. The others include squats, power cleans and neck machines.

Jimmy Love pushes up with his legs in an attempt to lift a heavy load during the Texico off-season weight program. Texico's program concentrates on the main muscle groups of the body working on flexibility and muscle lengthening. Coach Dave Lynn says that "the longer a muscle is, the stronger it is," and that is one thing he has his gridiron members working on.

INTRODUCING ROCK-A-BYE BEAR

A doctor's discovery helps calm and quiet newborns with the actual prenatal sounds* heard by babies inside the womb.

If you're a new or expectant mother or know someone who is, we'd like to introduce you to a remarkable new product that can help make infant care the joyful experience it is meant to be. Rock-A-Bye Bear™ is a soft and cuddly "home" for an actual intrauterine recording of a mother's pulse sound and fluid motion — the sounds heard by an infant before birth.

Developed by Dr. William C. Eller, Chief (Emeritus) of Gynecology and Obstetrics at Holy Cross Hospital, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. and proven effective in hospital nurseries around the country, Rock-A-Bye Bear™ calms and quiets newborns and, in most cases, lulls them to sleep within minutes.

Rock-A-Bye Bear™ is made from top-quality, non-allergenic plush with baby-safe safety-lock eyes, nose and orifices. The continuous play, microelectronic circuit, manufactured exclusively for Rock-A-Bye Bear™ operates on a single 9-volt alkaline battery (not included) accessible through a pocket in the base of the bear.

As the baby grows, the circuit and battery housing can be removed, and Rock-A-Bye Bear™ becomes a delightful companion to be cherished throughout childhood.

Rock-A-Bye Bear™ is a thoughtful shower or baby gift. Available in children's and infant's departments of fine stores.

ACP Assists Farmers In Resource Protection

"The Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) does more per federal dollar expended than any other program designed for conservation," says Prentice Mills, County Executive Director of Parmer County ASCS Office. "And farmers were conservationists long before the 'environmentalists' came about," Mills added.

During the year 1980, 69 Parmer County farmers participated in the ACP program, with 6114 Parmer County acres of cropland treated and served by one or more of the conservation practices available under that program.

Of the $311,435 spent on conservation work in the county last year, ACP contributed $62,287 in cost share funds. The rest was paid by the farmers participating. ACP provides their cost share funds in order to help farmers and ranchers solve water and soil conservation problems.

Producers using the ACP program last year installed irrigation systems, water impoundment reservoirs, diversion terraces, vegetative covers and sod waterways to their crop lands.

Mills estimates that about 75 percent of all Parmer County farms have some sort of a conservation plan and that some 140 carry out a conservation practice without ACP participating at all. "This would have been down the drain long ago if it weren't for the farmer," he says. "The farmer is the number one conservationist of all people," he said.

The ASCS director feels that soil erosion and water conservation is a number one problem facing today's crop producers and says that protection of those resources is the prime objective of the ACP program. "We also want to enhance the quality of our environment," he emphasized.

Practicing conservation benefits everybody, Mills believes, "Not just the farmer doing it, but all of us."

A breakdown of the 69 farms participating last year in the ACP program and what acres were served is as follows:

Reorganizing irrigation systems, including tail water return systems, 5,361.62 acres.

Water impoundment reservoirs, 309 acres served.

Establishing permanent vegetative cover, 193 acres served.

Constructing diversion terraces, 155 acres served.

Establishing sod waterways, 96 acres served.

The ACP program is the oldest and most widely used of all the programs administered by the ASCS Committee, says Mills.

It was first established during the 1930's Dust Bowl Era and according to Mills, 500 million dollars was budgeted by the government for the program at that time. "Of course, if you put that in today's modern day dollars it would exceed two billion dollars," he says.

Mills explained that federal funding for the ACP program has decreased over the years, mainly because for many years there was no emphasis on conservation. "And the farmer very seldom has a vote in those matters."

Decreased funding combined with inflation has raised the amount spent by the crop producer from the 1979 figure of $2.50 for every government dollar expended to last year's $4 paid by the farmer for every government dollar spent.

Information on the conservation program is available at the ASCS office in Farwell.

Haiti; San Juan, Puerto Rico; St. Thomas in the US Virgin Islands; Puerto Plata in the Dominican Republic and then returned to Miami.

She reports that the food was delicious and entertainment was abundant.

While in Haiti she and her mother toured the San Souci Palace then took a Flamingo Night Club Tour. In St. Thomas they were given a tour of the island, but Laura reports that "we mostly shopped there."

In Puerto Plata Laura and her mother took part in a city beach party, and swam in the Atlantic ocean.

Among the nightly entertainment they enjoyed on the ship was masquerade party, several floor shows and a midnight buffet.

Saucy Salads

BY ANN D. ALLEN

Even though cooler weather may dent the supplies of reasonably priced produce, it's no reason to give up on salads. There's a lot you can do to make them sparkling or zesty.

Yogurt adds a tangy note for dressing salads. If you feel it's too thin, add one-third to one-half cup of well-beaten cottage cheese to each cup of plain yogurt with whatever herb seasonings you wish. A blender makes quick work of beating the mixture.

Try a combination of greens for simple salads: two kinds of lettuce with fresh spinach leaves, for example. These could be sprinkled with grated Parmesan cheese before serving with a dairy sour cream-herb dressing.

Even winter fruit salads will take on sparkle if you cap them with a scoop of fruit or berry sherbet. Try citrus fruits with lemon sherbet, for example, or pineapple-grape salad with lime or raspberry sherbet.

Save calories by using dairy sour cream to hold salad mixtures together. It has 26 calories per tablespoon as compared with mayonnaise with its 101 calories for the same amount.

Fruit-flavored yogurts make a delightful dressing for fruit salads. For instance, try strawberry yogurt with grapefruit sections or apple yogurt for Waldorf salad.

Steerettes Still Winning; Now 3-0 In District Play

Farwell's varsity Steerettes continue their winning season play after victories against Kress and Vega. The Steerettes now hold a season record of 12-5 and are undefeated in district competition with a tally of 3-0.

Tonight (Friday) the girls are to play host to county rival Bovina and coach Vester Joiner has issued an all out invitation to the entire community to attend what should be a highly competitive district game. "If we play to our potential we'll beat Bovina," he said confidently. "But we will have to play well. We need a lot of support from our fans. It really makes a difference when the stands are full," he added.

The Steerettes travelled to Vega Tuesday night and handed the Longhorn girls a 43-37 defeat. "We played well for being on the road," coach Joiner stated. "However our first quarter shooting from the floor was way down, we only shot 19 percent. That really hurt us."

The coach remarked that the team improved their shooting from the floor throughout the game and in the final period were shooting 56 percent. The girls averaged 33 percent for the entire game.

Farwell's girls never got into foul trouble, making five the entire game, and never allowed Vega to get into a one and one situation. "That is what took us to the home stretch, it really helped a lot," said Joiner.

Vega and Farwell were tied at the end of the first quarter 10 each, then the Steerettes added 10 more points to their score, and took the half time lead of 20-17. Their shooting percentage improved in the third and fourth quarters, but the scoring was tight and Vega remained competitive the entire game.

"We were down by three points in the fourth quarter and finally scored. We then put on a strong press and forced them to turn the ball over and we scored again to take the lead by one," the coach recalls.

More buckets netted 15 points for the Steerettes giving them the game with a 6 point spread. This is the first time the Steerettes have defeated Vega on the Vega courts in many years.

Taking high scoring honors for the Blue and White was Janene Berry with 18 points; Ginger Ellison had 11; Sharmy Christian, 8; Karen Magness, 4; and Robin Vinton, 2.

"This was probably the best game we played all year," said Steerette varsity coach Vester Joiner following his girls' 69-52 victory over Kress January 16. "We really hustled well, and that was our goal, to out-hustle Kress," Joiner stated.

Played on the Steerettes court, the game was close throughout the entire first half, but strong scoring production in the third quarter pushed Farwell ahead by 15 points, and another 18 points in the final period won the game for the varsity girls by 17 points.

"We shot better than we have in a long time. We shot very well from the floor," said the coach.

High scoring honors went to Janene Berry with 29 points, the most she has scored this season. Also scoring in the two digit range was Robin Vinton with 13. Other Steerettes adding points to the board were Sharmy Christian and Karen Magness, 9 each; Jennifer Williams, who came off the bench to play, 8 points; and Judith Schilling, 1.

The girls attempted 56 shots at the field goal bucket making 25 of them for a 45 percent average. At the free throw line the Blue and White scored 19 of their 32 tries, for a 59 percent average.

Farwell Jr. High Basketball Results

Farwell's 8th grade girls defeated Hart Monday night 26-20.

"The girls played a very good game all the way through," said coach Bill Phillips after the game. "We cut out a lot of the silly turnovers against the press and that helped our momentum," he said.

Farwell had 4 points in the first quarter while Hart had 2. Nine more Farwell points in the second period put the Blue and White in the lead at the half 13-8. The local girls gained a 6 point lead in the third period and held on to that same 6 points in the final quarter to take the game.

"They hit some really big free throws in the fourth quarter to ice the game," recalls coach Phillips.

Cynthia Ancira took high scoring honors for Farwell with 13 points; Sheila Smith had 7; Shayline Jones, 3; and Cathy Gobble, 2.

The 7th grade girls were unable to score for almost the entire game against Hart Monday night, their only bucket coming from Twila Donaldson at the very end of the game which Farwell lost 12-2.

"The girls shot the ball very poorly and did not do a good job on the transition from offense to defense," said coach Bill Phillips. "One bright spot was the fact that the girls gave 100 percent throughout the game," he added.

Farwell's 8th grade boys were defeated by Hart Monday night 37-27, with 24 of their points coming from high scorer Roger Robertson.

Farwell trailed 8-2 in the first quarter and 16-8 at the half. Hart boosted its tally by 16 points in the third quarter and went for another 5 in the final period to take the game by 10 points.

In addition to Robertson's 24 points, Steven Stancell had 2 points and Sergio had 1.

"They played well even though they lost," said coach Royce Baker. "It was their best game for the lowest amount of turnovers."

The 7th grade boys boosted their season record to 4-2 after defeating Hart Monday night in the Steer gymnasium. "The boys played really well as a team," remarked coach Royce Baker following his team's 35-11 win over Hart. "The team has improved greatly since the first game," Baker said.

Farwell took an early lead in the first quarter and burned the nets in the second quarter to take the lead at halftime 17-3.

The Blue and White netted 12 points in the third period while holding Hart to only 5. Another 6 points in the final quarter took the game for Farwell with a 24 point spread.

Kevin Owen was top scorer for Farwell with 12 points; Steven Jaime had 7; Sean Knowlton, 5; Carlos Nicolas, 4; Eric Williams, Jesse Anzuldua and Bobby Ford, 2 each; and Allen Spence, 1.

Farwell's 8th grade boys beat Bovina's 7th grade boys in the Bovina-hosted tournament last week, but Farwell then lost their next two games to Friona and Muleshoe.

The 8th grade dominated their clash with Bovina's 7th grade players, winning the game 28-8.

Farwell took a first quarter lead of 14-3 and led at the half, 20-7. They were only able to net in another 4 points in the third and fourth periods, but managed to hold Bovina scoreless in the fourth period.

Scoring for Farwell were Roger Robertson, 22; Brian White, 4; and Sammy Sanchez, 2.

The boys next had a close and competitive game with Friona, but were defeated 28-21.

The teams, tied at the end of the first quarter, but Friona forged ahead to take the halftime lead 16-9. Farwell trailed for the remainder of the game.

Robertson took high scoring honors with 13 points, Todd Davis had 4; Michael Sanchez 2; and Steven Stancell and Brian White, 1 each.

When Muleshoe took to the courts against Farwell's 8th grade boys, the Blue and White barely knew what hit them. Muleshoe took an early first quarter lead, allowed only one Farwell point in the second period and held the Blue and White scoreless in the third period while they racked up 14 points of their own.

Farwell did manage to add 8 points during the fourth quarter, but could not overcome the Muleshoe powers and fell 33-11 during the final game of the Bovina tournament.

Robertson was able to net 9 points for Farwell and Stancell had 2.

Farwell's 8th grade girls travelled to Bovina last week and won one out of three games played in the tournament.

Their first game was against Bovina's 7th grade girls, and Farwell was defeated 21-16. "We didn't play well late in the game," said coach Bill Phillips. "There were too many turnovers caused by not looking for the open girl," he said.

Farwell trailed at the end of the first quarter 8-4 and again at the half 13-10.

A strong push in the third period put the Blue and White in the lead by one point 14-13, but they couldn't hold onto it. Bovina scored 8 points in the final period, compared to Farwell's 2, and took the game with a 5 point spread.

Cynthia Ancira was high scorer with 10 points; Cathy Gobble had 4; and Sheila Smith had 2.

In their clash with Muleshoe, the 8th grade girls had control of the entire game, winning 20-11.

Farwell took an early lead and retained it, even at the half 12-8. The girls were able to net points while holding back Muleshoe to only 1 point in the third period and 2 in the final quarter.

Smith was high scorer during the Muleshoe game with 10 points; Shayline Jones had 4; and Gobble, Ancira and Sandy Coleman had 2 each.

"The girls played very well. Sheila Smith shot the ball very well," commented the coach after the game.

Their loss to Bovina's 8th grade put the girls out of tournament competition.

"They did a poor job against the press," said Phillips. "We need to cut out the turnovers to be able to win consistently," he added.

JV Steerettes Win 3rd Place Trophy

Farwell's JV Steerettes returned from the Springlake-Earth tournament with a third place trophy last week. "We played well against Littlefield and Bovina in the tournament," said coach Bill Phillips following the contest, "but the girls got frustrated in the second half with Sudan and played poorly against Sudan's good team," he added.

In their competition with Littlefield that went into overtime, Farwell took an early first quarter lead and left Littlefield behind at the half 16-14. Although the girls managed to maintain their lead at the end of the third quarter, competition was tough. Littlefield came from behind in the fourth period and when the final buzzer sounded the teams were tied, forcing overtime play.

Farwell kept Littlefield scoreless in the overtime action, adding 5 points to take the first tournament game 37-32.

High scorer was Lezie Castleberry with 19. Elaine Vaughan had 8; Suzahn Inman, 5; Kelly Davis, 3; and Tammy Obenshain, 2.

Vaughan led her team in rebounds with 11. Inman had 8; Norine Jones had 4; Castleberry, Sharon Kalbas and Obenshain, 3 each; Davis, 2; and Shana Blain, 1.

In their second tournament game, Farwell fell to Sudan 43-26. Farwell led in the beginning and even had the lead at half time 18-16. But frustration overtook the Steerettes in the second half and Sudan forged ahead taking the game with a 17-point spread.

Castleberry took high scoring honors with 11; Inman had 6; Jane Ward, 4; Vaughan and Sharon Kalbas, 2 each; and Davis, 1.

Inman led in rebounds with 9; Vaughan had 5; Castleberry had 4; Obenshain, 3; Davis, 2 each; and Kalbas, 1.

Chili Supper Set

berry, 4; Obenshain, 3; Davis, Ward, and Darrisa Ford, 2 each; and Kalbas, 1.

To capture their third place trophy, Farwell defeated Bovina 41-28 in a game that belonged entirely to the Blue and White.

The girls led in the first quarter 8-6 and then a strong scoring surge in the second period put them ahead at the half 23-7.

Another 18 points in the third quarter, while allowing only 6 Bovina points, put Farwell in the lead 31-13. Farwell pushed in for another 10 points in the final period and took the game 41-28.

Inman took high scoring honors with 17; Castleberry had 8; Vaughan, Kalbas, and Jones had 4 each; and Obenshain and Ward had 2 each.

In rebounds, Vaughan had 14; Inman had 11; Kalbas took 7; Davis, 3; Castleberry, Blain and Ford, 2 each; and Sandy Coates, Ward, and Sandra White, 1 each.

The coach was pleased with his team's third place win but stated, "We need to shoot the ball better. However, the hustle and determination of the girls help make up for their poor shooting."

Coach Phillips also expressed appreciation for the support shown by parents and friends of the girls at all Steerette games.

For the past eleven years I have worked for what I think is the Number One Car Dealership in this area: Doc Stewart Chevrolet & Buick.

Due to health reasons I am leaving this position. I want to thank each and every one of my customers for your patronage for these past eleven years.

Steers In Playing Slump, Lose To Kress And Vega

Farwell Steers lost two district games against Kress and Vega, placing their season record at 7-9 overall, and 1-2 in district.

"We played our worst game of the year against the best team we've ever played," remarked coach Mike Martin following his team's loss to number four rated Vega Tuesday night. "We just weren't in the ball game from the very start," Martin continued.

The 69-28 loss had the coach in a somber mood following the game. "They put a lot of pressure on our ball handlers and our ball handlers didn't respond," he said. "We just played awful. We didn't shoot well and we didn't hustle on defense."

Martin says the loss could have been attributed to the fact that his team may have been "psyched out" due to the fact that Vega is ranked number four in the state.

The varsity boys are to host Bovina tonight (Friday) and the coach is optimistic about this county rival clash. "I think the kids will bounce back for this game," he said. "We will all have to pull together."

In a game where Kress was a step ahead of the Steers the entire first half, the Farwell boys lost the district encounter 72-56. "We played very poorly the first half," said coach Martin following the game.

Kress led the Steers 20-10 after the first quarter and left Farwell behind 40-22 at the half. "We hustled much better the second half but we never could make up the first half deficit," remarked Martin. "Kress made half of their second half points from the free throw line."

Out of 72 Kress points, 26 were scored from the free throw line.

Farwell never could come from behind the Kress lead and trailed 52-38 in the third quarter. Scoring was almost even in the final period with Farwell adding 18 points and Kress 20; however, the Kangaroos took the game with a 16 point spread.

High scorers for Farwell were Dwayne Winter, 15; and David Daniel, 14. Also scoring were Waverly Coates, 11; Roger Costello, 8; Gary White, 4; and Alan Eubank and Boyd White, 2 each.

N-SERVE

HOW IT WORKS

N-SERVE blocks bacterial action that would quickly convert ammonium fertilizer to nitrates. Nitrates are subject to rapid loss through leaching and denitrification. This blocking action keeps nitrogen in the soil longer so that it becomes available slowly as it's needed. This reduces the crop stress that would occur from temporary nutrient shortages if you had to rely on side-dressings to maintain a steady nitrogen supply.

Lady Wolverines Win 12th; 4-0 In District

Texico's Lady Wolverines played two important district games last weekend, winning both and setting their season record at 12-1, with an undefeated district tally of 4-0.

In their January 16 competition with Tatum Texico trampled the visitors 81-29. "This was by far the best game we have shot this season," said coach Roy King. "Every one of the girls played up to their potential for the entire game," he added.

Texico lashed out in the first quarter and took the lead 16-6. Another boost in the second period sent the team ahead at the half 38-12.

The Green and White shot 23 points during the third quarter and held Tatum to a mere 6. While Tatum managed to hoop 11 during the final period, Texico pushed in for 20, and the game belonged to Texico by a 52-point spread.

"Tracy Dobbs and Schree Rucker played outstanding games," said King, adding "Dobbs came out of her shooting slump and helped our efforts tremendously."

Taking high scoring honors were Lisa Coffey with 17; Tracy Dobbs, 15; and Schree Rucker, 13.

Also scoring for Texico were Ruth Scott, 11; Tammy Landis, 8; Becky McDonald, 7; Carletta Fitz, 4; and Lisa Crooks, Jill Jesko and Sharlet Taylor, 2 each.

Scott and Coffey grabbed 12 rebounds each; McDonald had 9; Dobbs, Fitz, and Crooks had 3 each; Landis, Rucker and Taylor, 2 each; and Jesko and Pam Hoyl, 1 each.

The girls shot an impressive 50 percent field goal average with 33 shots out of 65 attempts made.

In free throws the team shot 57 percent.

To take their fourth consecutive district win, the Lady Wolverines defeated Dora 51-47 after three overtime sessions. "This had to be our most thrilling game of the year with the three overtimes," said coach King. "I thought the whole team played well and Tracy Dobbs led with 12 assists, and that's a lot!" he added.

After a slow first quarter for both teams, Texico fell behind Dora to trail at the half 19-14. The girls were still behind in the third quarter 27-25 but managed to tie the score in the final period 37-37, forcing the teams into their first set of overtime play.

The teams were tied at 41 after the first overtime period; tied at 45-45 in the second, but a scoring surge by Texico in the third overtime put the Lady Wolverines on top of the 51-47 score.

"In the first half we didn't get inside very much and our outside shooting was way off," said the girls' coach. "Our outside shooting improved in the second half, especially for Schree Rucker."

King said Rucker is "playing better than she ever has."

The coach cited Ruth Scott for her tremendous playing powers in the last half and three overtime periods. "She played with four fouls, and really led us through. Credit also goes to Tracy Dobbs, Becky McDonald and Carletta Fitz for a good job of getting the ball in to her."

Scott totaled 25 points for Texico and was followed by Rucker with 12; Dobbs with 8; and McDonald, Landis and Fitz, 2 each.

Scott was also high rebounder with 12; McDonald and Fitz had 5 each; Rucker and Landis, 3 each; and Dobbs had 2.

The girls were to play Grady in the annual EPAC tournament Thursday at Dora. Texico is seeded number one for the tournament, and Grady, their first opponent, is seeded number eight.

Texico Jr. Varsity Basketball Results

Texico's junior varsity girls split their weekend games with Tatum and Dora, losing their first game of the season to Dora and setting their season record at 6-1.

In their clash with Tatum on the Texico courts, the Wolverines jumped ahead in the first quarter 11-7 and remained in the lead for the entire game.

The girls led at halftime 24-17 and scored 13 points during the third quarter while holding Tatum to only 2. Texico burned the nets for 14 points in the final period while Tatum lagged behind with only 5, giving the Green and White the 51-26 win.

Pam Hoyl led Texico in scoring with 16 points; Tammy Landis pumped in 12 and Jill Jesko had 6.

"Pam Hoyl played her best game of the year against Tatum," remarked coach Roy King. "She and Tammy Landis will probably play more varsity competition in the future," he said.

Also scoring for the Green and White were Sharlet Taylor with 6; Valda Cavallero with 4; and Lisa Crooks, Dana Morris and Karen Snodgrass, 2 each.

Hoyl led the girls in rebound action with 11; Landis had 8 and Jesko went in for 7. Also rebounding for Texico were Taylor with 4; Cavallero and Snodgrass 3 each; and Crooks, Cheryl Scott, Morris and Fitz, 1 each.

with 7 points; Landis had 6; and Taylor had 5. Also scoring were C. Jesko and Snodgrass, 4 each, and Hoyl with 3.

Hoyl led in rebound action with 9; Taylor, 6; Cavallero, 4; Landis, 3 and Scott, 1.

Texico's JV boys edged by another opponent to stretch their season record to 6-1 after beating San Jon 45-44 on January 13.

"San Jon was an excellent team for us to play competition wise," remarked coach Scott Parker. "They were playing all their juniors against our freshmen. I wish we could play more teams like that. It gives the team great experience," Shaw said.

The game saw the scoreboard change from Texico's favor to San Jon's favor throughout the first two periods. The teams were tied 12 each at the end of the first quarter and San Jon departed the courts in the lead 26-13 at the half. Texico came from behind 33-29 in the third period and retained that lead to take the game by 1 point.

Taking high scoring honors for Texico was Earl Bibbs with 16 points. Also scoring were Lynn Tubbs, 8; Lloyd Williams, 7; Dennis Chavez, 6; Brad Steward, 4; and Doyle Duncan and Jeff Dunsworth, 2 each.

Bibbs ranked highest in rebounds, grabbing an impressive 19; Steward had 11; Dunsworth, 6; L. Tubbs, 5; Tony Tubbs, 4; Opie Kelley and Williams, 3 each; and Scott Elliott and Duncan, 1 each.

In their first loss of the season, the Wolverine JV girls fell to Dora January 17 at Dora. "We played well considering that we had lost two of our starters to the Washington, D.C. trip, and we could only play two other starters for half the game," remarked coach King about his team's 31-27 loss.

Texico was ahead in the first half of the game, leading in the first quarter by 4 points and at the half by 2. But Dora came from behind in the third period to lead 23-21. Dora scored 7 points in the final quarter, and while Texico scored 6, it wasn't enough to take the game.

Wolverines Split Games With Tatum, Dora Teams

Texico's varsity Wolverines hosted Tatum January 16, defeating them 61-56 in an important district win.

Texico led by 3 points in the first quarter 15-12, and then scored 24 points in the second period to take the halftime lead 39-27.

In the third quarter the Wolverines added only 11 points, compared to Tatum's 14, but they still managed to hang onto their lead by 9 points. The final period again found Tatum pumping in more points than Texico, but not enough to overcome Texico's lead.

Texico was led in scoring by Tony Tubbs with 22 points. Also high scoring was Gary Mitchell with 14 and Jeff Day with 13; Kent Harding had 6; Todd Gerles, 4 and Jeff Dunsworth, 2.

Tubbs led his team in rebounds with 16. Harding had 13; Dunsworth, 11; Mitchell, 10; Day, 7; Ty Rains, 2; and Herbert Bibbs, 1.

Todd Gerles led the team in assists with 6; Day had 3; Harding, 2; and Mitchell, 1.

Texico's game with Dora was one where the host team simply edged their way up to take the lead from Texico and the game, 68-53.

Coach Ken Shaw says the loss of Tony Tubbs for three quarters of the game due to a sprained ankle, and the loss of Kent Harding, team center, who was on a trip to Washington, D.C., contributed to the team's district loss.

The Wolverines led in the first quarter 17-9 and again at the half, 23-20. But Dora took a slim 43-39 lead in the third period and then burned the nets with 25 points in the final quarter to take the game.

Day led the team in rebounds with 8; Mike Arnold had 7; Tubbs and Earl Bibbs had 6; H. Bibbs and Dunsworth, 4 each; Mitchell, 3; and Gerles and Rains, 1 each.

Texico is to play Wednesday, Jan. 28, against Melrose in the annual EPAC tournament at Dora. Game time is 8 p.m.

THEN and NOW

A lot more progress than many people realize has been made in energy conservation in the last few years.

THEN: Back in 1973, truck and bus manufacturers and users were interested in saving energy. By having fuel conserving devices installed on new large trucks and buses, they saved 39 million gallons.

NOW: Over the past five years, the trucking industry's voluntary efforts have managed to save over 1.7 billion gallons of fuel, thanks to a variety of new conservation devices and methods. This, the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association points out, also saves money and so helps fight inflation.

DEMON POSSESSION

The modern revival of E.S.P., fortune telling, astrology, magic, the Ouija board, the spirit seance and a score of other occult practices have caused many to wonder whether human beings may be possessed or controlled by evil spirits.

Many Christian people recall the cases of demon possession recorded in the Bible in connection with our Lord's earthly ministry.

There is indeed much evidence that there was a great epidemic of demon activity when Christ was on earth. This epidemic seems to have abated immediately after the Lord's ascension to heaven, but many are asking: Is another such epidemic imminent?

Whatever the answer to this question, the Scriptures clearly indicate that the best defense against the activity of Satan and his hosts is sincere faith in Christ, of whom we read that "having vanquished" the powers of evil at Calvary, "He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it" (Col. 2:15). It is on the basis of Christ's finished work of redemption that St. Paul joins believers in...

"Giving thanks unto the Father, who hath made us meet (fit) to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of His dear Son" (Col. 1:12,13).

Not only is the true believer in Christ "delivered from the power of darkness," but upon believing, becomes "the temple of the Holy Spirit," a living shrine where Christ is worshipped. Thus, St. Paul says again:

"What! Know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit" (1 Cor. 6:19). How then could the Christian's body also be the dwelling place of an evil spirit?

Off Season Practice Keeps Farwell Steers Working

"The off-season football program is what makes or breaks your football team," says Steer head coach and Farwell athletic director Randy Adrian. "This is when we develop our football team for next year."

The off-season program began for the Farwell Steers, those not playing basketball, two weeks after the close of the 1980 football season. "We have 12 in the program now and will have about 30 after basketball concludes," said Adrian.

Adrian remarked that he has already seen an improvement from the boys taking part in the intense weightlifting and running program, a program that continues throughout the school week, from 9-10 a.m. each day.

The Steers participate in their weightlifting program Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings; and on Tuesday and Thursday mornings take part in a running agenda, a program that has been developed further since last year.

Adrian expanded the off-season running program because, "We're trying to improve our speed," he said, "and anything you want to improve in, you do a lot more of."

The Steers' running program includes form running, the goose step, running backwards, running backwards and forwards while passing the ball, "carioca", (side step run with foot crossovers), high knee running, sprint-glide-spring running, and over-stride running.

"We're stressing form running," the coach remarked, "making sure they keep their heads still, elbows in, reach with their toes and reach with their arms."

It is with the running program that Adrian hopes his team will develop "good agility."

The combination of the two programs, weights and running, is where the Steers obtain their conditioning and strength for the upcoming season. "Then once we begin our practice in August we can concentrate on skill," the coach said.

For the weight program the players partake in well-rounded activity totally supervised by the Farwell coaching staff. "Last year we averaged a 50-pound weightlifting increase per player, and that is an excellent average," said Adrian.

The Steers' weight program concentrates on "bulk" according to the coach. "We work at expanding the neck, chest, arms and calves," he said.

Another aspect of the preparation program is competition drills. The players take part in a variety of drills, including take downs, which involve a player kneeling while trying to take the opponent to the mat.

The bull neck competition is when two players are on all fours, lock necks and then try to take the other off the mat in 20 seconds.

The cat and mouse includes three people on all fours on the mat with two other people chasing the other around the first three players until a tag is made.

Also included in the competition drills is the shuttle run, which is a race while on all fours where the objective is to run to a spot, pick up an object and run back, (while still on all fours) put the object down and so on until the three objects have been transferred to the other spot.

As incentive, three clubs were formed by Coach Adrian last year during off-season workouts to entice his players to try harder. These clubs are offered again this year.

The players try for membership in the "bench press club," "the military club," and the "4.9-4.8 club."

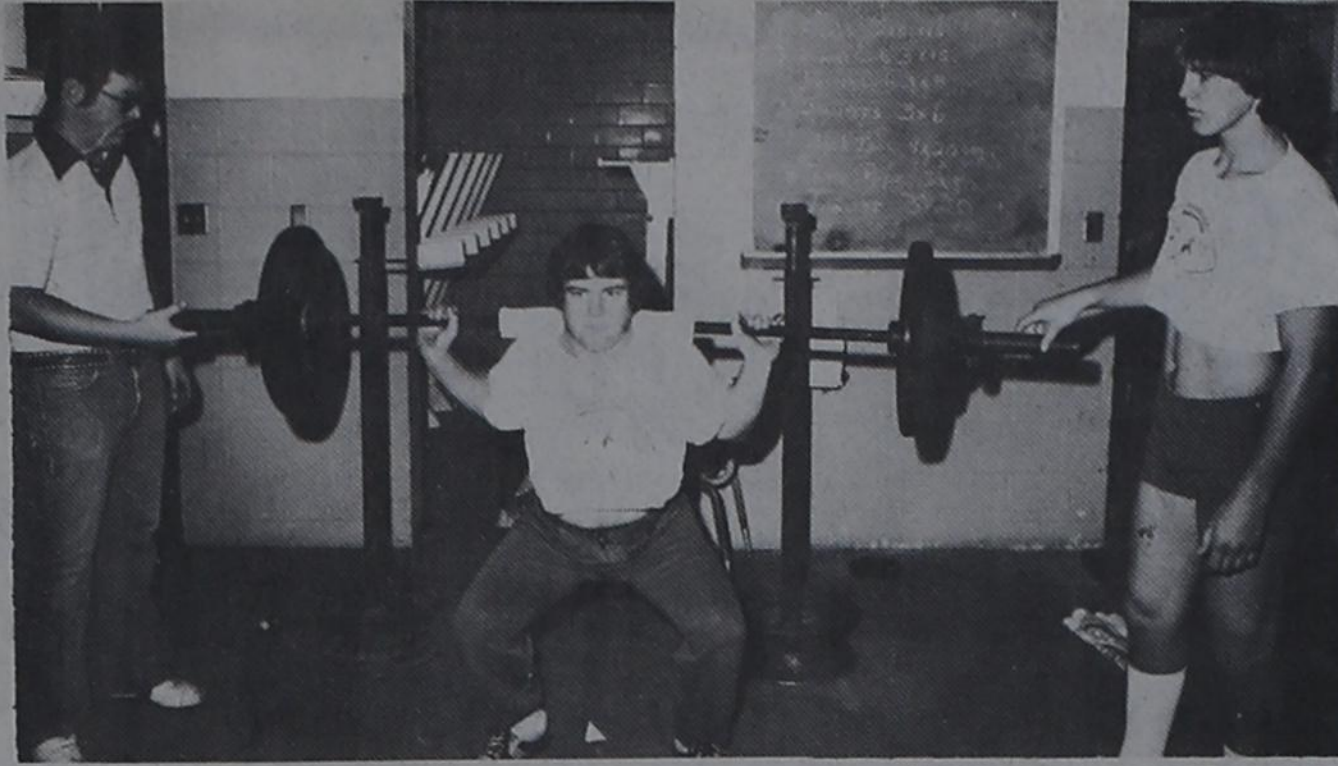

After benching 200 pounds the player has the privilege of joining the bench press club and purchasing a T-shirt designating him a member. For each 25 additional pounds pressed after his 200, new T-shirts can be purchased with the pounds lifted stenciled on it.

It is the same with the military club except that it increases with increments of 20 pounds, beginning at a military press of 160 pounds. Adrian also has T-shirts for this club.

Those who excel in their running skills can join the 4.9-4.8 club. The club is for those players who run the 40-yard-dash in a time of 4.9-4.8 seconds or less. A T-shirt for each tenth of a second the running time is lowered is offered.

Farwell's athletic director says that his off-season football program determines whether a player will be a member of the varsity or the junior varsity Steer gridiron team.

"The boys are extremely dedicated. They don't loaf around," he said, "they get after it."

Ready, Push

Brian Langdon, [center] with supervision by coach Bill Phillips [left] and gridiron partner Ricky Armstrong, attempts to lift a hefty load during a session of the Farwell Steers' off-season weight program. Currently there are 12

Steers taking part in the program, which is totally supervised by the Farwell coaching staff. Coach Randy Adrian predicts a total of 30 participants will be in the program when basketball season is over.

Sports

By Mary Sobin

Jumping Fast

Part of the Farwell Steers' off-season weight program is jumping rope to a fast and steady pace. Wade Kent jumped to a steady whirl of the rope before taking on the weightlifting activities. The Steer gridiron hopefuls practice one hour each day during the entire school week. Coach Randy Adrian says the weight room will also be open during the summer for those wishing to keep up with the vigorous program established by him.

Math Wizards

grade daughter of Mike and Patsy Camp; Chad Byrd, first grade son of Ronald and Leandra Byrd; Sherilyn Thigpen, eighth grade daughter of Vernon and Cynthia Thigpen; and Daniel Hutchins, sixth grade son of Lee and Gloria Hutchins. The students are to work the math problems in a "Funbook" and ask sponsors to donate money for every math problem they do correctly. Sponsoring the event is Farwell teacher Karolene Inman.

Math-A-Thon To Raise Money For St. Jude's Children's Hospital

Approximately 140 Farwell students in grades 1-8 are participating in the St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital sponsored Math-A-Thon, under the direction of Farwell teacher Karolene Inman.

diseases that destroy the lives of our children."

Mrs. Inman explained that the participating students will work a "Funbook," which has been specially designed for their grade level, containing 200 math problems.

"Each participant will ask sponsors to pledge one cent, two cents, et cetera, per problem that he has worked correctly," Mrs. Inman said. "Sponsors will give money to students when they have finished the booklet which has been provided by the Research Center," she added.

Once all the math monies have been collected, the participating students will send the donations to St. Jude. "I'm very happy for students to have an opportunity to have a fun experience with math and at the same time help less fortunate children," the local Math-A-Thon coordinator said. She explained further that prizes will be awarded by St. Jude and that every student sending in pledge money will receive a Math Magician Honor award. Those sending in at least $25 will receive a Math Magician T-Shirt.

Deadline for pledge money and for completed Funbooks is February 10.

Personnel at St. Jude's Hospital have stated that "a loving promise for a brighter tomorrow can soothe a child at bedtime. For millions of children afflicted with catastrophic diseases, this promise is made possible because of elementary and junior high school students participating in the Math-A-Thon money raiser."

Mrs. Inman advised that the students will be out gathering pledges for their Funbook math problems soon. "Please help our children raise as much money for this project as possible," she stressed.

Judge Roberts Hears Cases

Parmer County Judge Porter Roberts heard two cases this week.

Charles Glenn McIntyre, 30, of Earth was released on bond following his arrest for DWI.

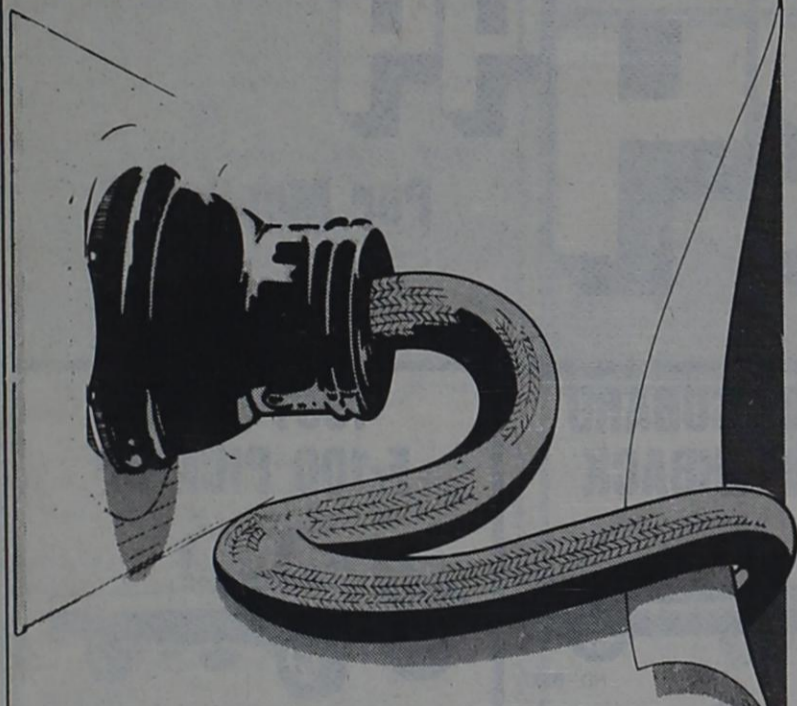

Adam Lumbara, 18, of Bovina was charged with criminal mischief and fined $50 plus court costs and ordered to make restitution.
