

Plenty Of Ships Are Available To Bring Boys Home.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Britain and the United States are in perfect accord as to reduction of use of British tonnage for bringing American troops home. There will be sufficient transport facilities to meet demobilization needs.

These assurances came from War Department officials following Secretary of War Baker's intimation that some of the British ships could soon be with drawn from the United States transport service. Baker himself said that our own vessels, plus probably some German ships and some French and Italian tonnage, would meet requirements. Other authorities declared that the cut in British aid has not come yet.

No Ceremony Allowed For Departing Yankees.

Southampton, Nov. 26. As the Southampton docks are still prescribed area, there were no public ceremonies in connection with the embarkation of the American troops for home, 1,500 of whom left today.

The local camps are being gradually evacuated. Winchester, however, is retained as a central base, and the big hospital at Harrisburg court will remain American for some time to come. The evacuation is being expedited in order to provide for returning American prisoners.

Secretary McAdoo Resigns.

Washington, Nov. 22.—William G. McAdoo has resigned as secretary of the treasury and director general of railroads, to leave the treasury on the appointment of a successor and the railroad administration on January 1 next. It was announced tonight that he had asked President Wilson to relieve him now that the war is over so that he might return to private business after six years in office.

President Wilson has acceded to Mr. McAdoo's request and accepted his resignation.

Retirement was made necessary, Mr. McAdoo said, because of "inadequate compensation," allowed cabinet officers.

The secretary also explained that he is seriously in need of rest, although there is no actual impairment of his health.

The secretary plans to take about three months rest and then may resume his practice of law in New York.

Mr. McAdoo announced his resignation at a conference with newspaper correspondents and made public correspondence between himself and President Wilson.

WHEN I COME HOME!

(By Leslie Coulson, Killed in Action, Oct. 7, 1916.)

When I come home and leave behind
Dark things I would not call to mind,
I'll taste good ale and home-made bread,
And see white sheets and pillows spread;
And there is one who'll softly creep
To kiss me, ere I fall asleep
And tuck me 'neath the counterpane,
And I shall be a boy again
When I come home!

When I come home, from dark to light
And tread the roadways long and white,
And tramp the lanes I tramped of yore,
And see the village greens once more,
The tranquil farms, the meadows free,
The friendly trees that nod to me,
And hear the lark beneath the sun,
'T will be good pay for what I've done
When I come home!

Predicts Great Welcome For President Wilson, U. S. To Have A Great War Fleet.

London, Sunday, Nov. 24.—President Wilson will receive the greatest reception we ever gave any guest. No progress any Emperor ever made will equal his," says the Observer in an article discussing the coming visit of the President to England. It adds:

"We rejoice that an event we have so urgently advocated is now assured."
The newspaper, discussing the question of the freedom of the seas, says:
"There is a profound contrast between America, which is a solid continental unit, and the British Empire, which is essentially a maritime system."

Shipping and the naval forces for guarding it correspond to transcontinental railways which link the United States from ocean to ocean and to the internal police required for guarding them. If this one fundamental diversity between the positions of the two countries and their sources of life is grasped, there can be no extreme difficulty in adjusting points of view on all matters."

Worth A Million.

The big snow which started Saturday and continued to fall Saturday night, Sunday and until Tuesday afternoon to the depth of nearly eight inches, according to the old timers, is one of the heaviest snows we have had in this section for five or six years and is worth a million dollars to the country. It is estimated now that this snow settled the question of whether we would have a big crop of wheat—we will have it. The freezes along with the snow will put the ground in fine shape for row crops next spring when it is expected that Curry county will raise the biggest crops ever harvested in this section.

As the United States will have to feed Europe until a crop is raised in those countries, good prices may be expected for everything raised on a farm. — Clovis Journal.

Want Pershing For President In 1920.

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 26.—A campaign for the election of General John J. Pershing, commander in chief of the American Expeditionary Forces in France, to the presidency in 1920, was launched in Ohio today by an application to the Secretary of State for the incorporation of "The Pershing Republican League."

Former United States Senator, Charles Dick, of Akron, and fourteen other prominent Republicans of Akron and Summit County are sponsors for the list of men who signed the articles of incorporation, which were presented to the Secretary of State today.

As set forth in the articles of incorporation, the purpose of the league is to "crystallize the already existing sentiment for General John J. Pershing as President of the United States in 1920 and to work for his nomination and election."

AMERICA'S ANSWER.

(By R. W. Lillard, in New York Evening Post.)

Rest ye in peace, ye Flanders dead,
The fight that ye so bravely led
We've taken up. And we will keep
True faith with you who lie asleep
With each a cross to mark his bed,
And poppies blowing overhead
Where once his own lifeblood ran red,
So let your rest be sweet and deep
In Flanders fields.

Fear not that ye have died for naught;
The torch ye threw to us we caught.
Ten million hands will hold it high
And freedom's light shall never die!
We've learned the lesson that ye taught
In Flanders fields.

President Wilson Will Sail For Europe Next Week

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Wilson will sail for Europe next week to attend the opening of the peace conference, and he expects to be back in Washington soon after the middle of January.

Plans for the President's trip are going steadily ahead, but beyond the original announcement that he would leave immediately after the convening of Congress on Dec. 2, no details have been made public. However, it was said today authoritatively that the President plans to be back on American soil within six weeks after his ship leaves this side.

There has been no indication when the peace conference will assemble, but the general belief here is that it will convene immediately after the Christmas holidays. The President goes in advance to confer with the entente statesmen and it is explained that the broad outline of the treaty will be framed beforehand with a view to its adoption soon after the conference meets.

The President was understood to have discussed his trip with members of his official family at the regular Tuesday Cabinet meeting today, but if his plans were revealed, they were not permitted to become public.

Reports of censorship of the news of the peace conference were met today with the statement that not only would there be no censorship, but that the American newspaper correspondents would be given all facilities possible for transmitting their dispatches.

Correspondents sent from this country will make the trip on a naval vessel, which will be placed at their disposal, they will leave next Monday ahead of the President because there is no ship available which can make as fast time as the steamer on which Mr. Wilson and his party will sail.

Allies May Demand Delivery Of Kaiser.

London, Nov. 26.—It is understood that the question of the extradition of the former German Emperor is being considered by British law officers of the Crown, who are working in close co-operation with the French authorities. Action in the premises was taken immediately after the flight of the former Emperor to Holland.

The Evening News says it understands the law officers have concluded that the allies are entitled to demand the extradition of the former Emperor and that this decision applies also to individuals who have committed or given instructions for the commission of extraditable crimes.

It is added that Holland takes the view that she has not the power to surrender such persons without the consent of Germany.
