Back Craig Phillips (No. 42) blocks for Bobby Chadwick (No. 22) as he carried the ball for a 19-yard gain before being removed from the game due to a broken arm. Quarterback Greg Hargrove (on the ground) seems in danger of getting the heel from an unidentified Wolverine player.

Farwell Steers Springlake, 20-0

A charged up herd of Farwell Steers won their first conference game of the season by drubbing the Springlake-Earth Wolverines to the tune of 20-0 at Steer stadium last Friday night. Displaying a hard running game coupled with a stiff defense, the Steers dominated the game almost from the opening kickoff.

The Wolverines opened the game with a surprise onside kick that was recovered by the Green and Gold on the Farwell 45-yard stripe. In five plays, the boys from Springlake could go no further than the Steer 31 when a pass interception by Dean Stovall gave the Blue and White their first possession of the ball.

Powered by the running of Lewey Bradshaw and the fine path clearing blocking of Al Phillips, the Steers took 12 plays to notch their first touchdown of the evening. Al Phillips kicked his PAT and with 5:56 left in the first quarter, Farwell owned a 7-0 lead. Farwell's kickoff was returned to the Springlake 29 where the Wolverines set up shop with a first and ten. The three plays they were back to their 16-yard line.

The fourth down punt was returned by Bradshaw off a 19-yard run giving the Blue and White a first down on the Wolverine 34. On a fourth down play alternating quarterback, Greg Hargrove lobbed a screen pass to Al Phillips who lugged the ball to the 17-yard line. Three plays later, Quarterback Bradshaw reached pay dirt for another TD. Al Phillips did a repeat of the PAT performance and the score was 14-0 in favor of Farwell with 1:38 left in the first quarter.

The second and third quarters featured both teams gaining yardage up and down the field but never reaching good scoring position. With 6:47 left in the ball game, the Steers took possession of the ball on their 18-yard stripe. This time, Mike Doshier carried the ball nine of the 14 plays required for the Steers to tally their final touchdown of the evening, with Bradshaw crossing the goal for the third time. The Steer PAT kick was blocked and the final score of 20-0 was reached with only six seconds left in the game.

In the remaining seconds, the Wolverines were unable to move the ball and the fighting Farwell Steers had won their first district game of the 1967 conference season.

Coach Toby Booth commented that the entire Steer squad should be commended for their outstanding effort. "The defense looked exceptionally good against the single wing play which we felt would be difficult to stop," he said.

"Warlick Dollar, lineman, did an exceptional job, as did the entire line," added the coach "however, they (Springlake) seemed to go that way more often."

The coach also commented that all of the backfield were outstanding and that Craig Phillips did the best job blocking that he had done this season. Backs commended by the coach were Al Phillips, Mike Doshier, Lewey Bradshaw, Bobby Chadwick (until he was injured) and Greg Hargrove.

PURELY PERSONAL
By John

From time to time, we have occasion to go back through old copies of The Tribune to check on past events. This is always a time consuming job, as we spend more time reading of the past events than searching for our original article. One thing that struck us as an indicator of the changing times is the complete absence of people bringing the editor a sample of their gardening abilities. It was quite frequent for Hop Graham to have a picture of a local citizen standing proudly with a large tomato or big juicy peach. In fact, the old country editor apparently was able to get a goodly portion of his summer bill of fare in this manner.

Within recent memory, our palates have been only tickled by a bag of turnips brought in by A. L. Tandy and a nice sack of locally produced spuds by Buck Gregory. This leads to only two conclusions. Either the folks nowadays do not garden, or they don't like the editor. I hesitate to offer a firm opinion on either of these alternatives. But, if times are changing, it is not all bad. This editor may not have received many garden goodies, but neither has he been horsewhipped either. Maybe we had better let well enough alone.

As readers of this column know, we have been a critic of the Administration's plan to add a surtax to our present income tax level. Last week, Chairman Mills of the House of Representatives announced that the surtax appeared dead; that Congress was going to cut spending before considering a tax increase. This also is so much political hokum.

Recently, the U. S. Senate passed its annual "pork barrel" public works and harbors bill. Only three of our 100 senators voted against this political grab. Not one of the three were from Texas or New Mexico. This runaway inflation is as much the product of Congressional log rolling and political fence mending as the Administration's desire to provide something for everybody. In many instances, the Congress has added to spending appropriations desired by the Administration. Until we elect representatives who think and act like statesmen and are willing to put good of country ahead of personal aggrandizement, this sorry spectacle of federal fiscal irresponsibility will continue.

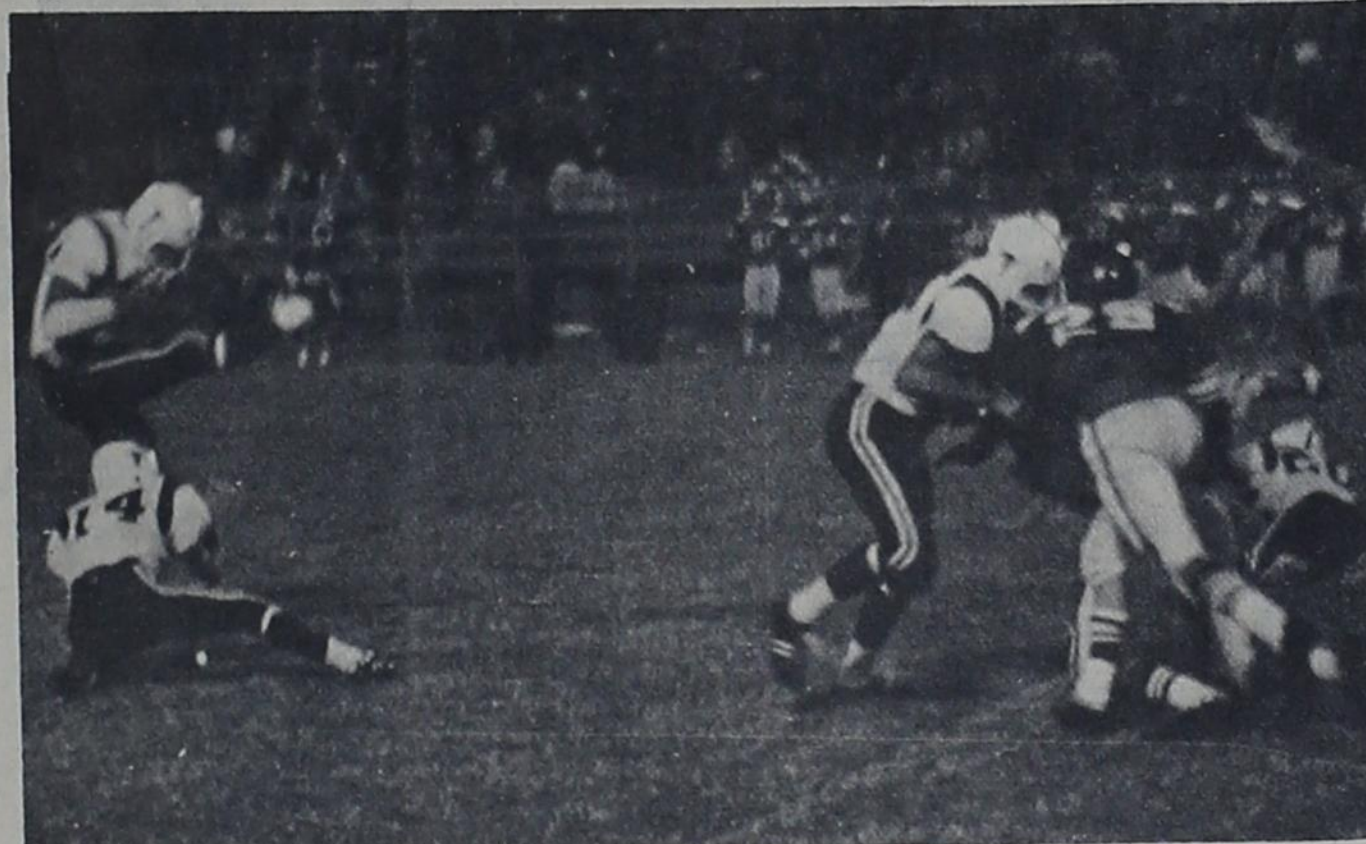

The Post Office Department has been under attack for its large annual deficits and to bail it out, Congress is near to passing a substantial raise in postal rates. Our second class rates will go up drastically, first class will go up significantly, and bulk third class will go up approximately a cent a piece. This will be a substantial raise in the cost of living for all the citizens and it looks good to put the POD on a paying basis.

However, to offset this added revenue, the government will give the POD employees a wage increase, so the department will be substantial back where it was, money-wise, before the rate increases. Economy in government is indeed an elusive bird. We doubt that this Congress has a steady enough eye and the intestinal fortitude to be much of a hunter in this wilderness.

Tonight, Friday, the Farwell Steers journey to Kress to take on the potent Kangaroos. In pre-season predictions, this team was picked to take the district toga. Their record so far belies this prediction. However, the fact remains, this team has the potential and could deal the Steers' hopes a hard blow. The Blue and White will need all the moral support we can give them. Let's all go to Kress and support our team.

NOTICE

All members of the Farwell Country Club Ladies Association are reminded of the meeting set for today (Friday) 9:30 a.m. at Clara's Cafe. Reports of various committees will be given and plans made for future meetings.

EXTRA POINT -- Quarterback Greg Hargrove (No. 14) holds the ball for Big Al Phillips as he squares away to kick one of the extra points in the Steer-Wolverine district game on Friday.

Steers Seek Second District Win Tonight

Second test for the Steers in district play is set for tonight (Friday) when they meet the Kress Kangaroos at "Roo" Stadium. Game time is 8 p.m. In the first contest, the Steers trounced the Springlake-Earth Wolverines 20-0 and they will be seeking their second district victory tonight.

Coach Toby Booth stated that the Kangaroos are a big (outweighing the Steers an average of 20 lbs.), agile team who play a strong running and passing game.

The Steers will be in fine condition for the game with all of the squad ready. Coach Booth stated, with the exception of Bobby Chadwick, who suffered a broken elbow in last week's game and will be lost to the Steers for the rest of the season.

Remember, game time is 8 p.m. at Kress. Go to Kress and back the Steers!

ESA Sets 10¢ Sale

ESA will be holding the second of its 10¢ rummage sales Saturday from 3-5 p.m. in the old ASCS office building in downtown Farwell. All items on hand will go for only 10¢.

Congressman Price To Speak In Friona, Muleshoe

Congressman Bob Price will make two appearances in this area this week to report to the people as to what has been going on. Following his talks, a question and answer session will be held with the Congressman answering questions on current issues facing Congress.

First of the appearances will be in Muleshoe, Friday night, 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

On Saturday morning at 9 a.m. the Congressman will be in Friona at the high school cafeteria. He will be introduced by W.L. "Preach" Edelman, at the Friona meeting. The public is invited to both of the meetings.

Students To Have Holiday Deposits Reach All Time High

Students in the Texico school will have a two and one-half day holiday next week, while teachers in the school are attending the meeting of the New Mexico Education Association in Albuquerque.

According to James Pierce, high school principal, school will dismiss at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday and re-convene on Monday, Oct. 30, at the regular time.

Deposits at the Security State Bank reached an all-time high last week, according to figures released by Vice-President R. W. Anderson.

On Oct. 4, 1967, deposits in the bank reached a total of $7,595,687.35 or $2 million above the June 1967 deposit.

Total assets at the bank also showed a sizable increase in this same period rising from $6,527,555.45 in June to $8,420,345.80 at the present time.

R. W. Anderson stated that in his opinion the high deposits were due in part to the fact that some of the government payments had been made to farmers in recent weeks and also the harvest of the row crops has just begun.

At the same period last year (Oct. 13) deposits at the bank were also some $2 million less than this year on Oct. 4.

Wolves Cop Second Place Trophy

Although the Texico Wolverines' softball team got off to a slow start this season, they ended the season by copping the second place trophy in the tournament on Saturday at San Jon. They were defeated by San Jon in the finals 13-5.

In the first game of the tournament, the Wolves were victorious over Casey, 2-0. On Saturday they met House Cowboys in a semi-final game and came away victorious by a 14-12 score.

In the House game, Charlie Tipton, Texico pitcher, gave up a great number of runs, with 10 runs crossing home plate before he was relieved by Manuel Martinez. After taking over the pitching chore, Martinez only allowed two runs to cross the plate and gave up a minimum of hits.

In the final game with San Jon, Tipton again gave up a large number of hits before being replaced by Martinez on the pitcher's mound. Score at the end of the first inning was 11-3. Martinez gave up only two hits during the remainder of the game.

Roddy Pearce was catcher in all of the games.

Coach Charles Coburn stated that the softball season has been a time of getting acquainted with the boys and their ability on his part. "We certainly did not graduate the best boys last year," he stated, "and now that I have learned something about the boys abilities I expect them to improve with each performance."

Coach Coburn said, "Although we started in the hole, it was through team effort that we were able to win; only a minimum number of errors occurred in each of the games and the players in the field were backing the pitcher all the way."

Junior Varsity Stomps S'Lake 30-6

Farwell Junior Varsity football squad came home from Springlake on Thursday with a 30-6 victory while the Yearling squads (7th and 8th grades) lost fine games to their opponents. All of the teams will play Kress teams tonight (Thursday) at Steer stadium beginning at 4:30 p.m.

In the Junior Varsity game, first of the TD's was scored early in the first quarter when Gene Sheets rolled out around right end and passed the ball to Mark Williams for 25 yards and a TD. Try for the extra point failed.

Springlake retaliated by taking the ball on the next play and passing for 30 yards and a TD to tie the game at 6-6.

Early in the second quarter, the entire defensive line blocked a Springlake punt. Greg Meeks ran 30 yards for a TD before the half ended, leaving the score 12-6.

Early in the third quarter, Milton Lee Walling threw a key block to open the way for Danny Prince who ran the ball 95 yards for a TD. Try for extra point again failed making the score 18-6. The next tally for Farwell came when Gene Sheets scored on a quarterback sneak.

The final touchdown came late in the fourth quarter when Gene Sheets ran a keeper play around left end for 40 yards.

Coach Kenneth Good praised the entire defensive unit saying they accounted for three TD's. He also was high in praise of Danny Prince and Milton Lee Walling, linebackers.

The Growing Debt

When visionaries insist upon federal spending beyond our tax productive capacity to pay -- at some point Mr. and Mrs. America will be pressed to call a halt to the accelerated federal spending...

Rep. H.R. Gross (R-Iowa), in commenting on the annual Economic Report to the Nation, said that the net public and private debt of this country as of January 1, 1967, was one trillion, 368 billion, 300 million dollars.

Isn't it about time our legislators, federal, state, county and local, started to flyspeck -- and to make sure that for every dollar spent we can be assured of value received?

AWARD WINNING POSTER -- This poster, made by freshmen Lorene Eycico and Dorothy Edge (FFA members), received an award of $35 for that organization in the recent "fire prevention poster" contest at Texico school.

Main Street Lazbuddie

By Jill Mimms

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnson, Roswell, N.M., were weekend visitors in the home of the Everett Maxwells.

HD DISCUSS NUTRITION

Lazbuddie Home Demonstration Club met October 10 in the home of Mrs. Roy Miller for a program entitled "Foods, Fads, and Fallacies" presented by Mrs. Cricket Taylor. Refreshments of German chocolate cake, spice tea, and coffee were served to Mrs. Annie Cargile, Linda Jones, Beulah Mimms, Dorothy Weir, and Ruth Miller.

Salad Supper Held; Morals Discussed

Lazbuddie Future Homemakers met in the school cafeteria Monday night for a salad supper with sister chapter, Friona. Different varieties of salad comprised the meal, which was followed by a welcome from Jackie Seaton, chapter president, and entertainment by We Four and Miss Lee Ann Harlan, folk singers. Speaker for the occasion was Mrs. E.R. Higgins, Assistant Dean of Women at Texas Tech. Mrs. Higgins' subject was "Morals of Today" to fit in with the chapter objective for the month. She handled it extremely well, citing examples gained from her experience as a volunteer worker at the Smith-lawn Maternity Home in Lubbock. She was presented with a book of poems and sayings by the chapter.

Mrs. Higgins announced that those wishing to obtain a taped recording of the debate between Anson Mout, religious editor of Playboy Magazine, and Dr. William S. Banowsky, minister in Lubbock, may write her at 5510 West 22nd Street, Lubbock, 79407. These tapes are sold for $3.95.

Horns Now

4-1 For Season

A 26-0 victory over Tatum, N.M., last weekend gave the Lazbuddie Longhorns a 4-1 record for the season. The 'Horns are working hard for a really great season this year, and they need your support. Come support them at Nazareth Friday night. Hook 'em, HORNS!

Belly Buttons

Victorious

The Sophomore-Junior team of football players came through last week for a 26-20 victory over the Freshmen-Senior Naval Destroyers.

The girls played very good ball taking into consideration their handicaps, such as weights of about 700 pounds each. Coaches for the Belly Buttons were Troy Steinbock and Monte Barnes; Naval Destroyers, Mike Casey and Bobby Redwine. Cheerleaders for the occasion for the Belly Buttons were Steve Foster, Gail Morris, Frank Hinkson, and Terry Scott. Cherring for the Naval Destroyers were Bobby Gleason, Ronald Mayfield, George Wilson and Derrell Elliott.

Referees for this unusual game were Leslie Lee and Ted Treider.

The game was most enjoyable especially from the sidelines. From the sound effects of the girls as they moved about the school for the next few days, one would suppose that they are glad to return to their normal activities -- till next year!

Homecoming

Date Revealed

October 27 has been set as the date for Lazbuddie exes to make a special point of returning to their school. Big plans are in progress for a great week at LHS; and for the exes and others in the community, a barbecue has been planned for the 27th. Tickets are now being sold at $1.50 for adults and $.50 for children. These are available from members of the Senior Class.

We need your support to make this the greatest homecoming ever. Come out and cheer the 'Horns to victory over Vega.

Got something you want everyone to know? Put it in the paper. Call Jill Mimms before 7:00 o'clock on Monday nights -- 965-2135.

GOOD CITIZEN -- Beverly Roberts, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Roberts, has been named Good Citizen at the Farwell Junior High School for the week Oct. 9-13. The "Good Citizen" is always busy doing something nice for someone and here she is caught in the act of serving Mrs. Evelyn Curtis, teacher aide, a cup of coffee.

Kerr Attends State-Wide Meeting

Ernest Kerr, manager of Federal Land Bank Assn., of Muleshoe, has just returned from a state-wide meeting of Texas Federal Land Bank Managers Association. The meeting was held in the Green Oaks Inn in Fort Worth and was attended by approximately 100 managers and assistant managers from throughout Texas.

One of the high points of the meeting was the awarding of 50th anniversary Land Bank medals to three leading agriculture journalists from the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Receiving the awards were C.G. Scruggs, editor and vice-president of Progressive Farmer, James E. "Monk" Vance, agricultural writer for the Fort Worth Star

Chamber Hears Various Reports

Texico Chamber of Commerce met on Tuesday night with a large group in attendance. Also meeting with the Chamber were Mrs. Charlotte Pierce and Mrs. Louise Engram, representing the Woman's Club, and Joe Mote, Mr. Downey and Mr. Edmunson from the Highway Department.

The group discussed picnic tables for the town park and plans were made for some. The three men from the highway department gave advice on cost of construction of tables planned along the lines of those used in roadside parks.

A report was heard that several street signs have been ordered and plans were made to contact people who have not yet been contacted in regard to purchase of other street signs. A report was also heard on election of officers and plans were made to elect directors at a director's meeting set for today. Names of officers and directors will be released at a later date.

Gilbert Dale, a sophomore at South College was home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Dale, over the weekend.

Rick Cooper from South Plains College visited his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Cooper and Leslie over the weekend.

Carley is majoring in biology.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Langford returned Thursday from Central Texas where he had attended a workshop and she had visited with relatives in the Fort Worth-Dallas area.

ANOTHER GOOD CITIZEN -- Rudy Gurrero, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gurrero and an eighth grade student, who was selected as Good Citizen by the faculty of Farwell Junior High School for the week Oct. 16-20, reminds all students that a cardinal rule is to have all books covered.

Instruction Free At Shooting Range

James Craig, local Lion, invites all persons wishing to learn how to handle a shotgun and shoot clay pigeons to be on hand this Sunday afternoon at the Lions Club shooting range, north of Texico on the State Line Road.

Cost of pigeons for the practice sessions is 25 for $1.00. Instruction is free. Boys and girls of the Texico-Farwell area have been taking advantage of this instruction to learn the proper use and handling of firearms.

Due to the bad weather of last Sunday, only a small group attended the Lions Club merchandise shoot; however, a similar shoot is planned for some time in November, according to Craig.

Mrs. Key Weekly Winner --

Mahaney, Dannheim Tied For Contest Lead

C.L. Mahaney and William Dannheim, Sr., still cling to their lead in the football contest by a one point margin at the end of six weeks with 42 games called right. Billie Phillips and Lonnie McFarland, with 41 games called correctly, are in second place and three persons, Gloria Mahaney, Mrs. E.A. Key and Glen Phillips, have called 40 games correctly. Beulah Williams and E.A. Key are in fourth place with 39 correct games. In the weekly contest, last week, Mrs. E.A. Key called all of the games correctly except for the two professional games (which ended in ties) to win the contest. She missed the tiebreaker score by seven points. J.W. Herington and Jim Morton also called eight games right but missed the tiebreaker score by 12 and 20 points to come in for second and third place weekly awards, respectively. This marks the second time Herington has won the second place award in as many weeks. With six weeks left in the contest, it is still anybody's game since one week can make a difference in the entire setup with winners dropping down and persons who have been lagging behind coming into the top slots. Don't fail to get in your entries this week and join in the fun! To date a total of 287 persons have entered the contest this year.

Bill Dollar, State Line Grain Co. presents J. W. Herington, second place weekly award winner in the Merchants Football Contest, with a check for $3,000 and offers congratulations. Dollar says "State Line Grain is a good place to bring your grain sorghum for the highest prices." Mrs. E. A. Key of Clovis, first place weekly winner, was unavailable for a picture.

Church Aids Hurricane Victims

The Farwell Church of Christ has been sponsoring a drive to raise relief materials for persons in the hurricane area of Texas for the past two weeks. Last Wednesday night, a large truck and trailer was loaded with items which have been accumulated and on Thursday morning Bill Bourlon and Preston Martin left for Pharr, Tex., to take the supplies to the disaster victims. During the two weeks, emphasis was put on raising clothing and bedding for the victims; however, in addition to those two items, a large quantity of food stuffs and other household articles were accumulated. Not only were members of the local church instrumental in assisting with the donations, but many townspeople also made donations as did the congregations of the Portales - Fourth Street, Muleshoe, Friona, Bovina, Lariat and Lazbuddie Churches of Christ. Minister Pat Burk of the Farwell church extends his thanks to all who assisted in any way by contributing to the disaster victims.

EVERY LITTLE BIT HELPS --- This is only a part of the large accumulation of relief supplies sent to the hurricane victims at Pharr by the local Church of Christ. Many townspeople also made donations toward relief of the victims of the disaster.

Sheri Roberts Enrolls At LCC

Sheri Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Roberts, has enrolled for the fall semester at Lubbock Christian College. A 1967 graduate of Farwell High School, Miss Roberts is undecided about her major. In high school she was a member of FHA, Student Council, Annual Staff, and the Citizenship Seminar. LCC is a private liberal arts junior college, founded in 1957. It offers associate degrees in 12 different fields and also offers technical vocational training in welding, machine shop and electricity.

These are only a few of the superstitions you will want to know about. CLOTHES -- You'll receive a gift if you put them on inside out. FOOT -- Be prepared to visit strange lands if yours itches. INITIALS -- You'll be rich if they spell a word. KNEES -- Jealous, itchy knees are a dead give-away. KNIFE -- Stomach ache ahead if you stir your drink with one. Irrigation --

Wheat Tests Results Told

Efficient irrigation, or practical utilization of irrigation water, should be a major concern of all High Plains farmers. For this reason, an irrigation-fertilizer test on winter wheat has been conducted at the High Plains Research Foundation for the past three years, under the direction of James Valliant, Soil Scientist, and Loyd Langford, Associate Agronomist. Research has shown that a winter irrigation on non-grazed wheat is neither practical nor profitable. If the winter wheat is to be grazed, an irrigation in January is probably necessary. The Tascosa variety of wheat was used in the study, and two irrigation methods were utilized, with twelve different fertilizer levels. The irrigation method which proved most economical on non-grazed wheat included an application at germination, jointing, early boot, and head. It was interesting to note in the same test that the fertilizer levels of 120-60-0, 120-90-0, and 120-0-0 plus 30 pounds of sulfur produced yields with no significant differences. (Figures refer to pounds of Nitrogen, Phosphate, and Potash per acre). However, the level of 120-0-0 plus 30 pounds of sulfur produced the greatest return because of the lower cost of fertilizer. It is believed that the sulfur increased the yield by making soil phosphate more available to the plant, rather than as a plant nutrient for the wheat. On non-grazed wheat, the combination of eliminating a winter irrigation, plus the decreased fertilizer costs, should result in more net profit for the wheat farmer.

Margo Cox, instructor, assists Irene Henson in blending paint for her art work while Ann Lovelace works diligently on her first artistic endeavor.

Art Classes Begin

The first in a series of art classes for beginners was begun last week when Margo Cox of Amarillo met with a group of 13 ladies of the Texico-Farwell area in the apartment above Sherley-Anderson-Pitman elevator. Work was begun on decorative painting of various items including jugs, bottles, wall plaques, hot pot mats and various other items.

The classes are meeting each Thursday for the next several weeks. The advanced art classes, also instructed by Mrs. Cox, meets each Wednesday in the same location. Nine local artists are taking instruction in this class.

SUCH FUN -- Sharron Norton and Beverly Christian never knew art could be such fun and so relaxing until they began taking the beginner instruction in decorative painting. They were so hard at work that they were unaware that their picture had been taken.

FERTILIZER USE, MANAGEMENT TO BE HIGHLIGHTED AT SYMPOSIUM

The latest information on fertilizer use and management will be presented at the Southern Great Plains Agronomy Symposium to be held at West Texas State University, Canyon, on Thursday, October 26.

Discussions will be featured on the characteristics, handling and application of ammonia; nitrogen transformations in the soil; fertilization of wheat, grain sorghum, cotton, sugar beets and vegetables; and inter-relationships of fertilizer use with production practices.

An outstanding slate of leading agronomic authorities will be on hand to present the program.

These include Leroy Donald and Ben Day, both with the Agricultural Nitrogen Institute, Memphis, Tenn.; Dr. James Parr, soil microbiologist, USDA Agricultural Reserve Service; Dr. Eugene Coleman and Dr. Kenneth Kilian, associate professor and assistant professor of agronomy, respectively, at Texas Tech; Dr. Charles Welch, soil chemist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service; Dr. Norman Nosaman, chief agronomist, Western Ammonia Corp., Dimmitt.

Also, Dr. Ivan Miles, chief agronomist, Olin Chemical Co., Little Rock, Ark.; Dr. Arthur Onken, assistant professor of soil and fertilizer, South Plains Research and Extension Center; Dr. Alex Pope, chief agronomist, Occidental Chemical Co., Houston; Paul Scott, agronomist, Holly Sugar Co., Hereford; Wes Fisher, Jofe Potato Co., Hereford; Dr. Robert Reed, professor of horticulture, Texas Tech; Dr. John Strauss, chief agronomist, Tuloma, Tulsa, Okla.; and Dr. R. L. Balsler, Gulf Oil Corp., Kansas City, Mo.

Presiding at the various sessions of the symposium will be Don Margo, president, Texas Fertilizer Association; Dr. Tom Longnecker, director, High Plains Research Foundation; Dr. Bill Longstaff, president, Texas Plant Food Educational Society; Dr. A. W. Young, head, Department of Agronomy and Range Management, Texas Tech; and Billy C. Gunter, Extension District II agricultural agent.

Registration for the day-long conference will begin at 8 a.m. Advance registrations at $5 each may be sent to the Agriculture Department, West Texas State University, Canyon.

All fertilizer dealers and interested agricultural producers in the county are encouraged to attend the symposium.

Proper Harvest Vital To Soybean Quality

Soybeans in Parmer County are fast approaching maturity and will soon be ready for harvest. However, says County Agricultural Agent Ronny McNutt, the moisture content of the beans should be checked closely before taking the combine into the field.

Ideally, this moisture should be below 12 per cent. At that time the beans are fully mature and the pods have not yet begun to shatter.

If the beans are harvested at a higher moisture content, they will likely wrinkle on drying and will deteriorate rapidly in storage, explains the agent. In turn, if they are harvested after becoming too dry or harvest is delayed, serious losses will result from shattering.

When the moisture content of the beans is less than 10 per cent at harvest time, they will be more susceptible to mechanical damage.

The county agent further advises producers to follow the manufacturer's recommendations closely to insure proper operation of the combine. Noteworthy items to check for adjustment are the cylinder speed, cutter bar and concaves. Careful attention to ground and cylinder speed and cutter bar height is important in harvesting high quality soybeans.

Proper Thawing Of Turkey

Thawing frozen turkeys at room temperature is now safe and practical, says Cricket B. Taylor, county home demonstration agent.

Refrigerator thawing avoids this danger. But, research has shown that if the bird is kept in its plastic wrap and placed in a paper bag at room temperature, the atmosphere inside the bag is only slightly warmer than the atmosphere of the refrigerator. Thus, the bird can be thawed completely without exposing the surface to temperature higher than 55 degrees F., the agent points out.

Large birds, 20 to 25 pounds, should thaw for 16 hours; smaller birds, 8 to 12 pounds, should thaw for 12 hours.

Cook the turkey within one to three hours after thawing, Mrs. Taylor recommends.

Many processors hesitate to recommend room-temperature thawing, Mrs. Taylor points out. Although this has been a common practice, the outside surface of the bird can be exposed long enough and at temperatures high enough for bacteria to multiply.

The secret is to thaw the turkey in a closed paper bag. The bag keeps the temperature low enough to protect quality, the agent says, and this method is more convenient than thawing in a refrigerator or under tap water.

Food Fads And Fallacies

Food fads and fallacies is the subject for discussion in County Extension Clubs this month and a very timely one for just about any group, according to HD Agent Cricket Taylor.

Food quackery and diet fads are rampant! Faddism and nutritional nonsense have created a major health problem. More than $500 million dollars is squandered each year by Americans on food fads. These people are fooled with "health foods," "wonder diets," or "super pills" thinking they will produce magical results. They don't want to accept basic scientific facts about food and nutrition.

Why, we may ask, are intelligent people taken in by this modern version of the "medicine man?"

Many persons have heard a little about vitamins, minerals, protein and calcium as well as calories, but have not had the opportunity or taken the trouble to learn enough to understand what is fact and what is fiction. A little knowledge can be dangerous. Fortunately for many people in good health, most of these "fad" products are harmless because U. S. Food and Drug Administration inspects and assures the purity and safety of food and drugs being sold.

A popular product, for example, is a so-called "iodine ration." For this, the customer pays $1.00 a bottle when he can get the necessary amount of iodine in his diet from common iodized table salt for a couple pennies a week for a family of four.

The fact is that the American food supply is unsurpassed in nutritional value, volume and variety yet food faddists and some food promoters circulate false ideas about nutrition that Extreme care should be exercised during the actual harvest. Mechanical damage which occurs during harvesting or later handling is the chief cause of low germinating soybean seed.

Also contributing to this low germination is improper storage of soybean seed, says the agent. Soybeans should be stored only if they are thoroughly clean if their moisture content is below 12 per cent. If stored at a higher moisture level, seed germination and quality will be reduced rapidly, especially if temperatures are above normal.

Fire Prevention Is Everyone's Job

What would you do if fire struck your home tonight? If you haven't prepared a careful answer to the question, you are gambling with the safety of your family, advises W.S. Allen, Extension agricultural engineer at Texas A&M University.

Fire, he adds, can bring tragedy to any home. Planning ahead for home fire emergencies, he believes, could prevent many of the 6,000 deaths in the nation each year from home fires.

Nation Fire Prevention Week, October 8-14, is a might good time, says the engineer, to do something about fire protection plans. He adds that any plan, regardless of how thoroughly it is planned is of little value unless it is rehearsed so each family member is familiar with assigned responsibilities.

Allen suggests these pointers for inclusion in the family plan. Figure out at least two routes to the outside from every room in the house, especially bedrooms. Allow for the blocking of stairways or halls by fire. Particularly for nighttime fires, remember that closed bedroom doors will hold back smoke and flame, allowing extra time for escape.

For upper floor escape, use any available porch and garage roofs, ladders or trees as ways down to safety. Be sure exit windows work easily, and be especially sure they are low and large enough to get through.

Pick an outside assembly point where the family will meet and be sure everyone understands the rule -- once out, stay out.

Know how to call the local fire department, and do this as quickly as possible after the house is clear of people.

And always remember it's people and not possessions which are of prime concern. Concentrate on getting everyone out of the house and don't waste precious time trying to save valuables.

Steers Beat The 'Roos

from the traphouse.

When any shooter wants a target released, he hollers "pull."

This term came from the early beginnings of the sport, when a bird was placed under a hat with a string attached. At the shooter's command, a puller yanked the string to release the bird.

Today's shooter still yells "PULL," even though the target is a clay bird released by mechanism inside the traphouse. Someone still has to trip the mechanism.

Records indicate that trapshooting first came to America in 1931, when it was introduced by the Sportsman Club of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Various birds like English sparrows, pigeons and even quail were used for targets until about 1880, when glass balls 2½ inches in diameter started to replace the live targets.

In 1880, George Ligowsky of Cincinnati came up with the idea of the "clay pigeon," an idea conceived by watching boys sail seashells over the water. Eventually, the clay target took the place of all other types of targets.

Today's clay bird is a concave disc slightly more than four inches across, 1½ inches thick, and weighing roughly 3½ ounces. Normally it is black with a circular area of white or yellow in the center. It is designed to shatter readily when hit by shotgun pellets.

The Interstate Trapshooting Association was begun in 1890. From it, in 1923, came the Amateur Trapshooting Association, which stages the annual national championships.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

If you are an outdoors-column reader, you've undoubtedly, from time to time, heard the term "trapshooting" mentioned.

But, surprisingly, many people don't know a great deal about trapshooting. And many of those who actually have shot trap, or fired in competitive events, know little about the background of the sport. Being one of the uninformed, we decided to look into the subject.

It isn't a come-lately thing. In fact, the first mention of trapshooting as a sport was in 1793 in the English publication "Sporting Magazine." In an article the magazine referred to trap as a "well-established recreation" of the generation.

Today trap is shot throughout Texas and the United States, as well as other countries. It is even an Olympic event.

Most large Texas cities have shooting ranges with trap facilities, and even a few small communities have their own trap ranges.

The world series of trapshooting is the annual national championships held at Vandalia, Ohio. Its official name is The Grand American Trapshooting Championships.

Basically, there are three different kinds of trapshooting events. Most popular and most widespread is the standard 16-yard singles competition.

In this each competitor fires at five targets from each of five positions, all of which are 16 yards from the traphouse from which the clay bird is thrown. Each "bird" emerges from the house at a different angle and the shooter gets only one shot at each of the 25 targets. Idea of course is to break all 25.

When there is a tie, the champion is determined by a shoot-off of 25 more targets. Most single matches include four rounds, or 100 birds, but some championship shoots involve 200 targets.

Another type is handicap shooting. This event is different from 16-yard singles only in the distance the shooter stands from the trap. Minimum is 18 yards, maximum 27.

Annually each competitor is assigned a yardage handicap based on past performance. More proficient the shooter, the farther he will be stationed from the trap. Naturally, the 27-yard shooter is rated the very best.

Doubles is one of the most challenging events, but not nearly as popular as the other two. All shooting is done from the 16-yard line, but a competitor must fire twice in succession at two targets thrown
