THE FARMER'S WIFE

Priceless Hints

BY LIBBY MULGETT

THIS ADVICE is for Mayor of New York John Lindsay and any other big city mayor who is having his troubles with public servants refusing to serve the public.

Country people have a way of setting down any uppity-acting person who decides they are not getting all they deserve and you city slickers just might learn a trick or two.

SEE, I KEPT reading about this "New York Flu" that teachers, police, firemen, garbage collectors, custodians, teamsters, etc., kept coming down with. By getting this disease, it seemed that they could not only get better pay, but more prestige, fame, and all sorts of advantages.

I decided to catch this "New York Flu" myself and start demanding more in return for services I had been rendering here and there.

I STARTED by announcing to one and all that I would no longer be able to play the piano for any occasion with "to and from" travel expense pay, recompense for sheet music and fingernail polish.

Everyone agreed that I certainly had that right and immediately found other people to play in my place that could tinkle the ivories far better than I ever dream to.

LESSON ONE: Replace 'em immediately. I then informed the Community Choir Director that I was coming down with the "New York Flu" and would be unable to sing in the Community Thanksgiving Service unless some miracle happened.

He said he didn't believe in miracles, but if I didn't show up it would be a miracle if the harmony of the whole choir didn't improve.

LESSON TWO: Let 'em know how much better off everyone will be when they are no longer present.

Next, I went to the secretary of my church and told her about my impending case of "New York Flu" and regretted that I would be unable to fill out reports for Sunday School any longer.

She thanked me profusely and said that would lighten her load immensely, as she had to re-do every report I had filled out every Sunday, who in the world had been my math teacher.

LESSON THREE: Tell 'em how much they've been fouling up the works.

The next time I hauled a load of cotton to the gin I told them I was about to contact the "New York Flu" and would no longer tag my own cotton and unhook my own trailers.

They said that was okay by them, they couldn't care less if no one knew who owned a bale of cotton, they could always sell it to pay for the ginning, and if I wanted to sit out in the gin yard all day waiting for a trailer to unhook itself to be sure and not park in the traffic lanes.

LESSON FOUR: Inform 'em it's no skin off your back if they want to cut their noses off to spite their own face.

Then I looked up the lady in charge of the concessions stand for the ball games and told her I was afraid I couldn't donate any more sandwiches unless something was done about my "New York Flu".

She let out peals of laughter and said forget it, she'd never been able to get rid of all my sandwiches anyway, she was ashamed to ask the regular price for them and felt downright grateful if anyone ever paid a nickel for one.

LESSON FIVE: Make 'em realize that shoddy work they've been doing anyhow. When I told the Membership Chairman of the Woman's Service Club that I was resigning due to the "New York Flu", relief flooded her face.

She said I had certainly made things easier for the whole club, they had been wondering how to go about asking for my resignation, the only service I had really ever rendered was by getting the "New York Flu".

LESSON SIX: Be sure they understand how much relief their absence is going to bring to one and all.

Everytime I mentioned that the "New York Flu" might cause me to have to give up writing this column, everyone looked far too happy. In fact, they were so overjoyed that I dropped the subject immediately.

LESSON SEVEN: Look hilariously happy at their first murmuring threats.

Well, there you are, John. Seven priceless hints. HOPE THEY HELP.

Dear Turnrow

O. C. McBRIDE

DID YOU KNOW that the Labor Dept. is spending $50,000 to train 20 poor farmers in Arkansas to be goat-herders? I wish I hadn't quit farming. If being poor qualifies a farmer to be trained in a skilled profession, I would probably have been a licensed goat-herder by now.

WHAT DID YOU THINK of the distribution of votes in the Presidential election? It came out about the way I expected. Wallace won 5 Southern states, and Humphrey ran well in Eastern and Northern cities. However, Nixon carried Appalachia, and his landslide in Marlboro Country was too much to overcome.

I UNDERSTAND that authorities at a highly integrated high school in Oakland have problems concerning the school cafeteria. Colored students are demanding that "soul food" be served, while Mexican-Americans want Latin-style dishes.

The people running the cafeteria might take a tip from my teen-age daughter just learning to cook. The casseroles she whips up contain enough different ingredients to have something for everyone. The last one I tried tasted like a combination of enchiladas, turnip greens, pizza and chop suey--kosher style.

DID YOU KNOW that movies are now being classified according to their suitability for young people? The designations range from "G" (for general audiences), to "X" (absolutely no one under 18 allowed).

This system may protect young people from viewing undesirable movies, but I'm wondering what effect it will have on older folks. For instance, I haven't been to a movie in years, but if one of those "X" pictures ever comes to town, I may be tempted to sneak off and see it.

DO YOU APPROVE of so much money being spent on our space program? I'm sure it will have future benefits, but we shouldn't ignore some of the smaller problems here on Earth. For instance, I'd enjoy my favorite breakfast more if one of those smartaleck scientists would figure out a neat and painless way to remove the shells from a couple of hot soft-boiled eggs.

I READ THAT Dean Martin is organizing a $15 million golf club. Memberships will cost $25,000 and will be limited to young people.

If Dean is deliberately trying to keep me out of his club, he sure thought of two good ways of doing it.

DEAR EDITOR

Dear Sir:

This letter is in appreciation in making our homecoming activities a success. This kind of help and extra effort on your part is a major portion of the fine relations we enjoy.

Sincerely yours,
/s/Beryl D. Harris, Principal
Littlefield High School
Littlefield, Texas.

Gentlemen:

A friend recently showed me an article under the byline of Sue Cannon--or Cannon--clipped from a paper. I do not know the name of the publication and neither did she, my friend. It had been sent to her by her daughter.

Sue Cannon quoted an article "Meanest Mother" stating it was taken from the "Littlefield Leader News".

It occurs to me that this essay, "Meanest Mother" (shall I call it?) should be published in an attractive booklet form so that it might be purchased and used as gifts.

I believe it would sell readily and I believe its message would be beneficial to both children and adults.

Sincerely,
(Mrs. George F.) Kate Cochran

Dear Bill:

Our deep appreciation to you for the financial help on paying for the Christmas Decorations.

Your thoughtful donation comes at a time when all the community needs a greeting for visitors during December.

The decorations will help make your business and city a more cheerful place during the Christmas season.

Sincerely,

This Is Littlefield

A Boost For Cotton

The cotton program announced for Lamb County in 1969 by ASC Office Manager L. D. Aten Wednesday is certain to be greeted cordially by county and area farmers.

And it also should be welcomed by the business community, which depends on the farm economy to a great extent in this part of the country.

Growers next year won't be required to divert any of their acreage allotments from production in order to qualify for benefits of the federal program.

The base price support rate will remain at 20.25 cents per pound for middling one-inch and the direct price support payment will be 14.73 cents per pound, up from the 12.24 cents in 1968.

According to Aten's figures, cotton payments received by farmers in Lamb County will be almost as high in 1969 as they were in 1968. His figures estimate a decrease of only three per cent.

Aten took a short poll Wednesday morning of about a dozen farmers and found, to a man, they would plant all the acreage they're allotted in cotton for 1969.

The ASC manager thinks most farmers of this area will feel about the same way. What it means to Lamb County is that we may have 187,000 acres in production next year, rather than the 130,000 we have in 1968.

It could mean half again more cotton produced in 1969, along with government payments of almost equal proportions.

While all of this sounds good, it still must be remembered that farmer's margins are terrifically slim these days, what with ever rising costs.

Even so, it is only logical that farmers should be able to gain by more acreage, because they presumably can operate more efficiently with increased volume.

The return to full production should be a boon to seed men, farm suppliers and cotton ginners.

If the farmer and the agri-businessman are able to do better, as is hoped, everyone in this part of the country should benefit.

Because it's true now, as it has been for a long time:

As the farmer goes, so go the Littlefield area and Lamb County.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Cheerful Context

BY BOB WEAR

EACH PERSON establishes and maintains a life context. All available information points to the fact that this must be a cheerful context.

This is not a recommendation for a giddy, silly manner of behaving. It is not a make-believe or hypocritical view of life. It is not foolish idealism that ignores the realism of life.

It does, however, strongly suggest and recommend a cheerful spirit as the overriding influence for living.

THERE WILL BE DISAPPOINTMENTS; there may be some heartaches; discouragements may come to us now and then; there will be times of sadness; and there will be need for sober, serious reflection and introspection.

Nevertheless, we can and we must fashion a cheerful context for life in order to make the best of life.

NO EFFORT IS BEING MADE to minimize the difficulties of day to day experiences. A broad quality of character and personality is being considered. It is the quality of cheerfulness which we can acquire.

IT IS NOT the shallow, superficial and pretended cheerfulness of the sophisticated, but the deep and abiding cheerfulness of the sincere and intelligent person of faith and understanding.

IT IS NOT THE POLLYANNA type of cheerfulness, but the cheerfulness of honesty and reality. This is the cheerfulness that comes from within us, and is not controlled or suppressed by external circumstances. It is the cheerfulness of a meaningful Christian faith. It is the context of one's life.

TOO MANY PERSONS seem to feel that they are what they are because of some act of fate. Feeling this way, almost no effort is made to improve either outlook or disposition.

Thus many persons live far below their potential.

This is a mistake. THE CRANKY, HATEFUL, sullen or morose feeling only adds to difficulties and problems. Such faulty life context causes great loss, and nullifies what might otherwise be something worthwhile.

MANY ACTS OF SERVICE are dependent upon cheerfulness for their effectiveness. For instance--inspiration teaches that our Creator loves a "cheerful" giver.

To be most effective, our giving must be done cheerfully. Giving reluctantly or begrudgingly is not giving in the fullest sense of giving.

THE STRENGTH IN CHEERFULNESS is given prominence by the Divine injunction that our acts of mercy are to be performed with "cheerfulness".

An attitude of good cheer will actually improve our social environment, and make our living much more satisfactory.

When we are cheerful, we have more and better friends; more and better opportunities for pleasant and profitable service; and much greater strength for the burdens and problems of life.

A CHEERFUL ATTITUDE will enable us to create a pleasant climate, for ourselves and others, in which to live and work.

Carlyle said, "Wonderous is the strength of cheerfulness and its power of endurance. The cheerful man will do more in the same time, will do it better, will persevere in it longer, than the sad or sullen." From the wisdom of our Creator, we have the following: "A cheerful heart (mind) is a good medicine, but a downcast spirit dries up the bones."

CHRISTIAN CHEERFULNESS is to the world of human society what the sunshine is to the physical world. It is the very best life context.

PAUL HARVEY

Open Season

THE SKYJACKER must be intercepted. Before he can use his bomb, his gun or his knife to divert or destroy an airliner in flight, he must be detected and disarmed. The question is "How?"

There is no single motive, no standard MO for these incidents of piracy. The months of October and November, 1968, witnessed the following variety:

ROBBERS TRIED to rob 39 aboard a Philippine airliner. In the resultant shoot-out at 10,000 feet, one passenger was killed and another wounded. Had the plane been flying higher, a bullet hole might have exploded the pressurized cabin and all aboard would surely have died.

A Greek airliner out of Paris was turned back by armed propagandists who were interested only in distributing "Free Greece" leaflets to passengers.

ONE OF OUR AIRLINERS was diverted from Florida to Cuba by a black nationalist who threatened to seize "an American plane every day for 100 days." Passengers described him as a "Kook", "probably on narcotics."

About the same time, a chartered light plane was diverted to Cuba by Alben Barkley's grandson, William Barkley, leaving behind a shocked wife and three children, apparently fleeing overwhelming financial obligations.

SO THE MORE-THAN-A-DOZEN of our planes which "went thataway" during 1967 were commandeered by culprits for a variety of reasons and with a variety of weapons. It's this "variety" which complicates detection and interception.

With a fluoroscope, such as those which guard most prison gates against the admission of metallic objects, the airlines could silently frisk passengers for guns.

A FLUOROSCOPE might not detect a plastic bomb.

Further, regular passengers might be subjected to a cumulative dose of potentially harmful radiation.

The FBI released a booklet in 1968 outlining suggested emergency procedures for flight crews but offering no panacea for airborne piracy.

A 1961 FEDERAL LAW has helped little, it says, "Whoever commits or attempts to commit aircraft piracy as herein defined shall be punished by death."

Yet there have been more than a dozen attempts since that law was written. The problem will increase. Air traffic has doubled in the past 10 years. This year more than 50 million takeoffs and landings. Now we are entering upon an era when airlines will carry 365 passengers. Eventually C-5A may carry up to 600. The cost of each tragedy will surely soar.

SABOTAGE FOR INSURANCE is a separate problem. I am now talking about skyjacking and we must find some way to checkmate the skyjacker!

The FAA, the ATA, the Congress, the ALPA--all are burning late lights over this. Some classified military research is encouraging. Eventually fallout from that research might rescue us.

MEANWHILE, the need is specific: means of surveillance without passengers knowing about it--and without too many false alarms--which will differentiate between lethal weapons and nonweapons.

I am aware of the weakness of this essay; it suggests no solution. Perhaps you can.

BACK WHEN THEY PROVED THE EARTH WUZ ROUND IT WUZ IN LOTS BETTER SHAPE TO JUDGE!

SLEEPING LATE!

Kathy Turner

The other day Coach Trees was putting the basketball team through some toughening-up exercises. One fellow with more brains than brawn began to get tired. "Everybody on his back!" barked Coach Trees. "Legs up in the air. Now pretend that you're riding a bicycle. Faster, faster!" The tired one pedaled a few minutes, then stopped. "Hey, you," yelled Coach Trees, "what's the big idea?" "Who, me?" asked the bright one, "I'm coasting."

The band is improving in sound, as they have been working on Christmas and all-region music. The band will march in a parade Dec. 2. If you didn't get the chance to see them march at contest, you'd better not miss this.

An assembly will be held next Wednesday in the junior high auditorium. The high school stage band will perform. The public is invited to attend.

It's six weeks time again and we wish you the best of luck with your test grades. Surprise your parents with some good report cards this time and show them you can really do it if you try. So.....pass those tests and.....

GOOD LUCK WITH REPORT CARDS!!!

Thriess Bingham was given a beautiful charm bracelet for her birthday. She wore it for the first time to school, but nobody noticed it. Finally, she stood up and exclaimed, "My it's so hot in here I think I'll take my bracelet off."

MARSHA S.--When are you going to have another slumber party?!!

Did any of you figure out the six definitions of a bug? If not, here goes:
1. BUG--an insect of some kind.
2. BUG--a crazy person.
3. BUG--a small car.
4. BUG--to bother.
5. BUG--as a bugged room by microphone and tape recorders.
6. BUG--a disease.
Sure, you knew them all the time!

The freshman football team finished out their season with a loss to Slaton. After playing the last five minutes in a very cold, hard pouring rain, the freshmen were a bit tired and wet! L.J.H. is proud of our Wildkittens. We just want them to stay in there and win every one of their Junior Varsity games.

Now that the freshman team is through with football, they are working on basketball. We wish them the best of luck as they start the season. They will play their first game against Morton, Dec. 2.

Mr. Carter has returned to school after an illness. The choir is rolling on four wheels again as they have started rehearsing Christmas music once more.

Vicky Davis of the L.J.H. Student Council reported the council will meet today at 4 p.m. to plan the Thanksgiving and Christmas assemblies. The council also expressed its appreciation to the students for their help with devotions and the bulletin board.

Have a good week and.....don't forget to report your report cards in!

LHS Offers Outstanding Vocational Ag Program

Max Hutchins, Danny Short, Mr. Nelson, Agriculture teacher, and Steven Rountree are testing the hog scales which are an important part of the agriculture department.

Forty percent of the people of the United States have jobs connected with agriculture. Agriculture is the science and art of farming; work of cultivating the soil, producing crops and raising livestock. This is what some of the boys of LHS take as one of their high school courses -- agriculture. Taught and supervised by Mr. David Nelson, this department seeks to develop abilities in leadership, scholarship, citizenship, and cooperation.

There are three years of Ag offered by LHS. The boys start out their training by keeping records and books. Next, they advance to leadership training. This year the boys will have two parliamentary teams, an FFA quiz team, and a radio-broadcast team. These teams will go to Muleshoe Saturday to compete with other such teams.

The boys in the Ag department of LHS do a lot of work in the shop. They weld, do farm carpentry, and work with small gas engines, and they study all phases of animal science. They study their production, feeding, and management. Soil science, plant science, and farm management are studied in order for the boys to be managers. After the boys finish with the welding they then begin projects. Trailers, loading chutes, barbecue pits, hog feeders and hay racks are just a few of the many projects the boys have as their choice in building.

Beginning with the month of January the boys attend several stock shows. In January they have the county stock shows. Then in February some of the boys will travel to San Antonio. During the month of March the area show will be held here at Littlefield, and there will also be a show in Lubbock. Mr. Nelson requires the boys to have a project for six months. These projects range from pigs to calves and from sheep to different types of crops. Most of the boys raise pigs as their project. Mr. Nelson supervises the boys on keeping records on whether or not they are making money or losing it.

The FFA organization is an organization connected with agriculture. FFA, meaning Future Farmers of America, is not designed especially for those boys who plan to be farmers but also for those that plan to go into some type of agriculture field. The FFA chapter presents the boys with different types of awards. During their first year of FFA the boys are classified as greenhands. Then if the boys are able to make of profit of $50.00 on his project then they become a chapter farmer. Another award presented which is presented by the state is the title of Lone Star Farmer. The person who achieves this award must make at least $500.00 on his project. A very high award which is given by the nation is the honored title of American Farmer. To achieve this award they must make a profit of $1,000.00 on their projects. A boy becomes eligible for this award a year after he graduates.

There are all types of scholarships awarded to the boys of the Ag departments and FFA. There are several $1,000 scholarships offered, three or four $500.00 scholarships awarded and there are two or three $2,000 ones awarded. There is one $50,000 one offered. These scholarships are awarded by different companies and some colleges.

December 2, the district banquet will be held here in Littlefield. The district sweetheart will be elected and awards given. Gay Nicholas is Littlefield's FFA sweetheart, and she will be competing in the district contest.

In order to make money for the chapter the boys run the concession stand at the football games. They also run the concession stand at the area livestock show. The boys sell sausage and they also sponsor a turkey shoot.

Mr. Nelson, who is head of the Ag department not only works with the boys of LHS but also works with Young Farmers. This organization consists of men and boys who are out of school. Mr. Nelson supervises the adult farmers. The Young Farmers hold their meetings about once every month.

Men from Texas A&M teach short courses in welding, beef cattle production, electric motors, and swine production. Adult farmers and also the community come to participate in these courses.

The ag department of LHS is going to get a brand new blue 1969, six cylinder, Chevrolet pickup with standard transmission. Mr. Nelson will drive the pickup to stock shows, take judging teams to Lubbock during the spring. Mr. Nelson will take the pickup to gigsales in order to buy pigs for the boys.

When Mr. Nelson was asked his opinion of vocational agriculture he stated that "Vocational agriculture is a very important part of any high school. A boy learns to be a leader, manager, and a useful citizen. A boy has to learn to compete with other boys. He has to learn to win and to lose. Through the project program a boy learns the value of records and the value of good management. Vocational ag inspires many boys to enter college and the others have the training which will help them in starting a profession."

Kim Kloiber, Terry Ogerly, Jerrel Haberger and Stacy Carr, members of the Agriculture Department observe a gasoline engine. This is one of the many things the ag boys will study.

Speech Students Attend Drama Presentation

Monday night, several students from the speech and language departments went to the University Theater on the Tech campus. Mrs. Elizabeth Ayers took the students on a bus to see the great drama by Shakespeare, "The Taming of the Shrew."

A total of 25 students went to see the play and found it not only enjoyable but also helpful to the Senior students who are now studying the Shakespearean drama.

Pat Hinds Is Band Sweetheart

Pat Hinds is the 1968-69 Band Sweetheart. The sweetheart was disclosed during the halftime ceremonies Friday. Pat is a senior here at LHS. This is her third year in the band and she plays the drums. Pat has brown hair and hazel eyes. She stands at five feet, four inches. Pat says that her favorite color is pink and her pet peeve is people who cut themselves down. Her favorite food is fried chicken. Pat's favorite hobby is reading a good book and her favorite sport is football. She plans to go to the University of Texas at Arlington and major in secretarial work and later become a secretary or teach business in school. Pat is a member of the National Honor Society, FTA, Kat Klub, Spanish Club, and Band.

ATHLETICS IN ACTION

BY ROY BOLTON

Tomorrow night the Littlefield Wildcats journey to Colorado City to take on the Colorado City Wolves.

Colorado City is another team just coming into Class AAA. Among seven offensive and four defensive returnees, Colorado City has last year's Class AA all-state halfback Dan Steakley (170), who ran for 1420 yards on 238 carries and also played defensive safety. The Wolves are led by QB Keaton Grubbs, along with HB Randy Barker (6-4, 195).

The Wolves were rated fourth in this district by Texas Football magazine, and have been doing fairly well for themselves in Class AAA.

Colorado City was open last week and will be hard to beat. But the Wildcats would like a victory for this last game on the season, and for some, the last game of their high school career, so they will be in there fighting.

Last week the Wildcats were defeated in a hard fought game by the Slaton Tigers. The two teams went to the dressing rooms at halftime with a 6-6 tie, but in the second half, the Tigers outlasted the Cats as they scored late in the fourth quarter to win the game. The Wildcats score came on a one yard plunge by quarterback Charlie Holt.

New shower curtains were installed in the girls dressing room last week.

Mrs. Ayres, LHS language teacher, was hospitalized Wednesday with pneumonia.

Twelve Weeks End With Tests As Per Usual

Well, this is the second time around. Has everybody been studying? What are these six weeks test anyway? What are their purposes? Well, I'll tell you. Every six weeks all the students in LHS try to cram into their brains what they have done for the past six weeks. Then, they take the tests and wait for the results on their report cards.

During this week you see no one idle. Everyone is a very busy person, or at least they try to act industrious. Most of the students in LHS strive to do the best they can. They try to fulfill their obligations to the best of their capacities.

Webster's definition of test is "a series of questions, exercises, or other means of measuring the skill, knowledge, intelligence, capacities, or aptitudes of an individual or group". That is the exact definition of a test; and no one knows it better than LHS students.

FTA members presented LHS teachers with apples during Teacher Appreciation Week last week.

DE Members To Have Bake Sale

The Distributive Education Club held a meeting last week to discuss a project for raising money. The members of the club decided to have a bake sale on the 22nd of November.

The members of the D, E, Club will bake cakes, cookies, and brownies. The following D, E, members attended the meeting: Keith Overland, David Sevier, Steve Parker, Lynn Powell, Rende Mitchell, Kay Harp, Rene Kierce, Sherry Cook, James Ivey, Rodney Richardson and Bobby Wood. Mrs. Joycelyn Henry, sponsor of the D, E, Club, also attended the meeting.

Students Probe Into Leaf Study

Mrs. Reese, biology teacher, was all smiles last Friday when the leaf collections were turned in. The past six weeks the biology classes here at LHS have been gathering leaves of all types, shapes, sizes, and colors. Each year the biology department requires a leaf collection. Because of the variety of leaves in this area Mrs. Reese was not surprised at the quality of the collections turned in and the most interesting displays.

When you first walk into the biology class and see the collections displayed you become aware of a most colorful spectacle. The biology department doesn't just concern itself with leaves. Right now biology students are studying various types of microscopic plant and animal life. The department has a new piece of equipment called the bioscope which projects small microscopic specimens on to a screen. This is great help to the students, who are able not only to look at specimen but have each individual part explained.

LEAF COLLECTORS finally got their leaves together and turned in last Friday. Mrs. Charlene Reast observes the outstanding leaf collection which was handed in by Kelly Fain.

STUDENT VOICINGS

QUESTION: Do you believe there are superior forms of life in outer space? Why?

Martin Mangum (Soph)-- "No, I don't think there are superior forms of life in outer space because the incidents in which have been recorded about seeing flying saucers have been accounted for normally in some way or another."

Cyd McKinnon (Soph)-- "It is possible that superior forms of life exist in outer space. We have no definite proof, but the signals received by radar stations and many of the unidentified flying objects that have been reported have come from some place other than Earth."

Jane Nowlin (Jr)-- "I do believe that there are superior forms of life in outer space. I don't believe that Earth is the only planet that has life on it--even if God didn't tell us about it. The radio signals that we have been getting from outer space mystify the astrologers and scientists of all kinds. Even if you don't believe that there is life on other planets, it makes you stop and think--"Where do the radio signals come from?"

Pernecia Savage (Jr)-- "No. If they were superior to us, they could have already invaded the earth. We are further ahead in our space program than I ever expected to be. That's why I figure if they were superior they could have invaded us."

Allen Hobratschik (Soph)-- "Yes, I believe there is life somewhere. This place is too big for only one planet to sustain life. There have been too many people that have seen those UFO's flying around. It might be the Russians flying around but it sure looks suspicious."

Rene Kierce (Jr)-- "No, I don't believe in superior forms of life in outer space. They've said little green people and "flying saucers" have visited our earth. If there is such a thing, why don't they make themselves known and then we could believe in them."

Rodney Phillips (Jr)-- "I think there are superior forms of life in outer space because of all the reports and pictures of flying saucers. The forms of life that create these aircraft must be more advanced than we are in aeronautics. They probably wouldn't look like us because they have to adapt to different environmental conditions."

Joanna Rogers (Soph)-- "I believe there are superior forms of life in outer space. I don't think God just made one full planet full of people. When the right time comes, God will arrange for us to meet other people. The people on other planets may not breathe oxygen, but may breathe carbon dioxide. They may not need water or our kind of food, but have a certain kind of their own. The superior forms are probably wondering the same thing, 'Is there life on other planets?'"

Carla Grimes (Jr)-- "I do not know if there are superior life forms in outer space but I do believe there must be some forms of life. It has been reported that scientists have received signals that they could not explain. Also there have been many UFO's reported by dependable sources, and it seems like there have been too many reported for them to be just figments of the imagination. The life forms may not be superior, but they must be relatively intelligent."

Ken Richardson (Soph)-- "Definitely, with billions upon billions of stars in our galaxy and billions upon billions of galaxies in the universe, the odds of planets supporting life are overwhelming. To think we are the most advanced form of life is no more justified than to think the earth is flat. However, I believe that the meeting of these other forms will not be for centuries, if ever."

Nina Manley (Soph)-- "I think it is possible that there are superior forms of life existing in outer space even if there is no air. I believe there could be some form of life adapted to its own surroundings that doesn't need oxygen like we do."

Glenn Timmons (Soph)-- "Yes, I think there are superior forms of life in space. Somewhere in space, I feel, there is a planet of another solar system with as good an environment as ours. Therefore, life could have evolved there as it has on our own planet."

Sally Davidson (Jr)-- "I do not believe there are any superior forms of life in outer space. There are so many fictional stories, that believing in them could result in constant terror. Science has not proved other forms of life, and until they do, there might as well not be any."

Junior Students Take Preliminary Aptitude Test

The PSAT test is offered to LHS Juniors every year. The purpose of the test which is similar to a college entrance examination, is to measure a student's scholastic verbal and mathematical ability. The PSAT test is also important in predicting a student's performance in college because the fields on which the students are tested are the foundation to an academic success in college.

The scores a student makes on the PSAT test are usually mailed sometime in December. Upon receiving these scores the student and his parents can make a more realistic estimate about his admission to and probable success in the college of his choice.

Dear L & M

Dear L&M, We of the regular attendees of the lunchroom sincerely hope to have a small addition to our attention that the school has arisen for TOOTHPICKERS. Yes, we really did say pickers, it is embarrassing walking down the hall trying to pick something from between your teeth. And we are not allowed to pick gum, it is even worse. A gum would get some of it. We hope that you will get pickers put there immediately. Sincerely Toothpick Lover

Dear Toothpick lovers, Thank you for bringing a problem to our attention. We are sure that many LHS students would be grateful if you check into this matter and about securing toothpickers in the lunchroom.

Dear L&M, I had a date for the homecoming game. I bought a $5.00 mummy for this girl. We were going to meet at the game. She didn't show up. I didn't know what was the matter until after the game. She said that her parents said that it was too good. Should I believe her? Confused

Dear Confused, Believe her until you have reason to believe otherwise. Has she given you reason to believe her? It was rude of the girl not to give you earlier notice, but you must realize that there might have been circumstances which she could not avoid--like parents.

Olton, Denver City Clash Friday Night

The saying may be as old as the hills, but Olton Coach Don Beck feels "it's now or never" for his Mustangs as they face Denver City at Olton Friday night at 7:30 for the South Plains AA bi-district championship.

Coach Beck has a senior ball club—20 of his 30 varsity men are in their final year—and he has been building to this point the past three years.

"The boys came along fine last year and real well this fall," says Beck, who has put together two straightundefeated regular seasons.

The only game that mars the last 21 for Olton is the 26-0 loss to Denver City in bi-district last year.

"Last year, we went down to Denver City just plain scared, and they were confident," says Beck. "The shoe may be on the other foot this year—at least I think our boys are confident that if they play well, they can win."

Beck said he considers the game a toss-up, with both teams about even in weight and speed.

Olton is 9-0 for the year and Denver City is 7-3, its three losses at the hands of Class AAA clubs.

Beck will be starting 11 seniors on offense and nine on defense. Nine of the 11 Denver City starters are seniors.

Offensive leaders for the Olton team have been Charles A. McClain, Benny Akin, Kenneth Johnson and Johnny Lewis in the backfield, and Eddie Hooper, Joe Luera and Tony George in the line.

McClain, the Ponies leading scorer, raced for 831 yards in the nine games, carrying the ball 122 times for an average near seven yards per try. He tallied 94 points on 15 touchdowns.

Akin ran for 655 yards in 85 tries, although he missed on complete game and most of two others.

Johnson carried 115 times for 613 yards and QB Lewis hit 48 of 105 passes for eight touchdowns. He was intercepted eight times. End R.L. Copeland has been the top pass receiver for the Ponies.

Offensively Guards Hooper and George and End Luera have graded high all year. "Tony George who weighs 165, probably is the most improved boy on the squad this year," says Beck. "He has been outstanding both ways."

Hooper, one of four captains for the Mustangs, is another "both ways" star, as are Johnson and McClain.

The big holes opened up in the Mustang line for the yardage amassed by all the backs have been due largely to crisp blocking by Hooper, George and Tackle Steve Burleson.

Hooper and Burleson both go at better than 200 pounds to anchor the Olton line. Defensively Olton has been led by Sel Sanchez, Barry Cowart, Hooper, Johnson and McClain.

Cowart a linebacker is one of two younger boys on the team "who really came through for us this year," Beck says. Barry is a junior and the other youngster who has had a good year is Gary "Bull" Durham, a soph who has been a defensive stalwart.

Denver City is "definitely the best team we will have faced this year," says Beck.

The DC line is led by Jimmy McKee, a 191 pound tackle; Dave Emiler, 171 pound guard; and Duane Taylor, 165 pound guard. Gene Richardson, the quarterback is a fine breakaway runner, as is Halfback Robert Hernandez, who scored four times in DC's final regular game, a 59-8 win over Tahoka. John Powell, 190 pound fullback for Denver City, was the South Plains' leading AA scorer with 120 points.

Over the season, DC rang up 318 points and allowed the opposition 108 in 10 games. Olton scored 308 and allowed 34 in nine battles.

But after Denver City got past a tough non-district schedule which included losses to Lovington, Andrews and Kermit, Coach Don Orr's boys allowed only eight points against them in District 4-AA play. Olton expects to go into the

SPORTS

FRIDAY AGAINST RALLS

Hornets Shoot For Bi-District

Sudan Hornet Coach Jim Cain will be counting on the experience of his ball club tomorrow night when they clash in Lubbock's Lowery Stadium with the District 4-AA champion Ralls Jackrabbits for the Bi-District title and the right to continue further in the state Class A playoffs.

All but three of this year's edition of the District 3-A repeating champions were starters in last year's Bi-District tilt against Crosbyton. And they won that one, 21-6.

On paper, both teams appear equal, with Ralls holding the edge in size.

Both have identical season records, 9-1, and were undefeated in their respective district campaigns.

Both have speed to burn, and could field 440-yard relay teams that very possibly could make the state track meet this spring.

But the jackrabbits are larger, especially in the backfield. Ralls' four starting backs outweigh the Hornet carriers an average of 14 pounds per man. Matt Starch, fullback, is 185; quarterback Mark Wideman is 195 and halfbacks Bruce Johnson and Houston McLaughlin weigh 185 and 160, respectively.

That's an average of 181 pounds per player. Sudan's backfield averages 157, with Senior Steve Martin at 153, Junior Jerry Bellar 152, Junior Larry Hanna 162 and Junior Billy Gore, 161.

Bellar and Gore are the principal speed in the Sudan carrying corps. Bellar has turned the 100 in less than 10 seconds, and Gore can come close to matching him.

But quarterback Wideman, at 195, has done the distance in 10.3, Starch in 10.8, Johnson in 10.5, and Jackrabbit end Pat Shelby, 6-4 and 185, reportedly ran the distance of the football field in 10.2 last summer.

Sudan's playoff experience is limited only to last year's team. That was the first time in the school's history a Hornet Club ever got into the state playoffs.

And they went all the way to the quarter finals, losing finally to Seagraves.

Cain told the Leader-News yesterday his players were expected to be in good physical condition.

Hanna has not been at full strength and junior end Joe Hines, likewise, but Cain felt both would be ready for the 7:30 kickoff tomorrow evening.

Sudan won the toss and the right to be the home team. Hornet fans will sit on the west side of the stands, under the press box.

There are no advance tickets on sale. All will be sold at the gate.

Cain, when asked about his game plan, said the Hornets would have to move the ball on the ground. That's what the Hornet offense is built around.

However, "We must make them respect our passing to keep them from stacking the line," he tagged.

And pass and run, the Hornets can do.

Martin has completed 22 of 51 attempts for 608 yards in the 10 games of the regular season. His primary target has been Senior end Bobby Brown, who has latched onto nine for 264 yards. Bellar has caught five for 146.

But it's the ground game that makes the proud Hornets tick. Led by Bellar, who has averaged 8.7 yards on his 135 carries in gaining 1178 yards, the Hornets dig a lot of cleat holes. Hanna is next in the rushing department with 782 yards on 152 carries for a 5.2 average.

Rounding out the leading Hornet carriers are Martin, 499 yards on 91 carries for 5.5, Gore, 238 on 41 for 5.7, and sophomore David Weaver, 264 yards on 37 carries, averaging 7.1 yards.

The Hornets have scored 339 points, with Bellar contributing 148, Hanna 86 and Martin 50.

Ralls has scored 322 points in 10 games, and allowed only 40 by the opposition.

Sudan is a sound club defensively, as well.

The Hornets have allowed only 94 points in 10 games. Nose guard Monte Roberts, Senior, converted fullback and linebacker, has averaged seven unassisted tackles and 15 as-

DOWN HE GOES—Sudan's Larry Hanna has his feet knocked out from under him by Farwell's Al Phillips during the hard-hitting District 3-A championship tilt at Sudan Friday. The Hornets won the game 24-18. It was their second consecutive conference title.

TWO FARWELL DEFENDERS are a picture of frustration as Sudan QB Steve Martin wins a race to the flag for the Hornets' second touchdown in their 24-18 win over the Steers. The score came just two seconds before the half and gave Sudan an 18-3 lead at intermission.

Maylon Smith Wins First In Weekly Football Event

Smith missed only two game guesses in a rather tough week of predicting. There were some close ones.

But in the fight among six for second and third, it was considerably different. The tie breakers had to be used, and it was close, even then.

Maylon Smith didn't have any competition in winning last week's Leader-News Football contest. It was all in the fight for second and third place.

But emerging in second place for the weekly cash prize was Weldon Gage, who, like Smith, is from Littlefield. Third place went to Lloyd Pollard, the contestant who is currently leading everyone else for the contest's grand prize of two tickets to the Cotton Bowl.

Gage and Pollard narrowly nosed out James Walker, Miles Stephens and Arnon Perrin, all of Littlefield, and Kent Phillips of Brownfield.

Pollard leads the others for the Cotton Bowl Tickets with two more weeks of judging yet to come. Walker is his closest opponent, five games back, 131-126. Both had three misses last week, so Walker didn't gain on the leader.

Smith is gaining rapidly on Pollard. He has picked up a game in each of the last three weeks. But he is trailing now by seven games, and needs to pick up more than that these next two weeks.

There can be several changes in the standings these two weeks, however, as the playoff games are scheduled and anyone can miss several with a few marks in the wrong places.

Rounding out the top 15 in the season's standings behind Pollard, Walker and Smith are Max McLelland, 122; Charles Didway and Floyce Pierce, 121; Perrin, 120; Raymond Duvall, Don Hevern and Maurice Sexton, 117; John Waters, 116; Mozelle Hutson, 114; Mrs. Clifford McDonough, 112; and C. D. Moates and Ed McCantles, 110.

Littlefield will field another independent men's basketball team again this year, according to Jerry Williams, who will be the coach.

The team is now working out at the junior high gymnasium at 7:30 p.m. Monday and Thursday in preparation for league play, which will start Dec. 3.

Williams said the team will play this year in a Lubbock men's league, and will have a 16-game schedule. All games will be in the Hub city. No games will be played during the Christmas holidays.

Back from last year's team will be Williams, David Goen, who will also be business manager, Jim Upton and Gary Fitzgerald.

Candidates for the team are urged to try out on practice nights, Williams said. The club will carry a roster of 12 players.

GREYHOUND WINGBACK—In his second year as an Eastern New Mexico University Greyhound and his first year as an offensive running back, Leon Hardwick of Amherst ranks fourth in the rushing department with an accumulation of 231 net yards gained. He is also second among the Greyhounds as a pass receiver with 267 yards.

Amherst Shoots For Title

A victory tomorrow night for the Amherst Bulldogs, and Coach Bert Grimes will have his first championship team since his initial year at the school, 1963.

The "Dogs hit the road to clash with the Whiteface Antelopes in a down-to-the-wire title race between Amherst and Sundown.

Should both win, and the title is shared, Amherst will represent District 5-B by virtue of the victory of the team over the Roughnecks.

An Amherst loss and Sundown win, however, would put the Roughnecks in the playoff.

Ropesville and Meadow were also in the title picture, until last week. But they tied each other 12-12, and were dropped from the picture.

Though the Antelopes carry into the game only a 4-5 season record and 1-3 card in conference play, they are not that bad a ball club. They lost to Sundown last week by a narrow 20-18 margin, and to Ropesville 28-22 the previous week.

Whiteface has scored more points in nine games, 238, than its opposition, 209. And in district play, they've only been outscored four points, 72-68, though losing three of the four contests.

The Bulldogs, led by quarterback Royce McAdams, are laden with talent and dedication. They entered the conference schedule with only a 2-3 record, and have built it to 5-4 now, and stand 3-1 in the district.

For the season, the Bulldogs have scored 215 points and have given up 193. None of their conference games have been close against conference opposition. They were 81-68 before last Friday's 31-0 shut-out of Anton.

But season records don't always indicate championship teams. That 1963 regional championship team of Amherst had a season record of only 7-2-3.

The Amherst Bulldogs will host Meadow in their final game of the season.

They are still looking for their first victory of the 1968 season. Anton has one of the toughest opponents in District 5-B to close out the schedule with, too. Meadow is now 7-1-1 for the year and 2-1-1 in loop play, losing out on title hopes after being tied 12-12 by Ropesville last week.

For the year, the Bulldogs have been able to score only 46 points, while allowing 177 by their opposition. In 5-B play, they've scored 24 against 143.

Meadow, on the other hand, has scored 308 in nine games and allowed 98, and is 96-84 in conference play.

Kickoff for the game will be at 7:30 p.m.

Pep and Spade junior high basketball teams split victories Monday.

The Pep girls defeated Spade 20-12 behind the shooting of Kay Daniel, who scored 11 points. Cindy Thompson and Karyn Vrubyl had four each for Spade. Pep's boys lost to Spade, however, 33-18. High point for Spade was Richard Garza, 13 points, and David Gray, 8. Gary Daniel had seven for Pep.

Wolverettes Top Friona

They're off and running again! The Darlings of Lamb County, Springlake-Earth's Wolverettes, are winning basketball games at the same regularity as they did last season when captured the State Championship.

Led by Vicky Gregory's 33 points, the Wolverettes Tuesday night put down the Friona Squaws 65-55, making their record a perfect 2-0 for the season.

Hazel Fallwell sank 29 points for the Class AA Squaws, who are always ranked high in their conference circles.

And the Wolverette junior varsity made it a clean sweep for the evening, thumping Friona in a thrilling 33-31 contest.

The Wolverettes will open their season this evening, facing Dimmitt, in a doubleheader which includes their girls' game.

Anton Host To Meadow

Anton Bulldogs will host Meadow in their final game of the season.

They are still looking for their first victory of the 1968 season.

Anton has one of the toughest opponents in District 5-B to close out the schedule with, too. Meadow is now 7-1-1 for the year and 2-1-1 in loop play, losing out on title hopes after being tied 12-12 by Ropesville last week.

For the year, the Bulldogs have been able to score only 46 points, while allowing 177 by their opposition. In 5-B play, they've scored 24 against 143.

Meadow, on the other hand, has scored 308 in nine games and allowed 98, and is 96-84 in conference play.

Kickoff for the game will be at 7:30 p.m.

Why do stores Start Christmas Before Thanksgiving?

That's a question often asked and it deserves a sincere answer!

We appreciate the spirit that prompts many of the objections to early Christmas shopping promotions.

However, when the reasons for the urge to "Shop Early" are examined, the most critical agree it's MORE than a problem for stores alone.

So we're happy to take this opportunity of presenting some of the problems that confront all stores at holiday time.

Every successful store directs its best effort toward perfecting a helpful service to ALL its customers. And since many customers ask stores to make it easier for them to complete their gift shopping before the crowded post-Thanksgiving period, Christmas merchandise and displays are brought forward early to accommodate them.

And scarcely a major store in the nation could cope with the store traffic that would be generated if any part of early Christmas shopping was postponed until after Thanksgiving. Even under present circumstances most stores are strained to capacity during the peak of the season, to maintain the kind of store service all shoppers have learned to expect.

When you recall the extremely crowded conditions of stores the final two or three weeks before Christmas the problem becomes evident.

If no early Christmas shopping were done, this condition would be multiplied many fold. (Actually there would not be enough room behind store counters for enough sales people to serve shoppers during this period between Thanksgiving and Christmas.)

The same condition exists in regard to the children's visits to Santa Claus. Thousands of children and their parents look forward to their annual visit with him, and unless he makes an early appearance, many hundreds would be doomed to disappointment, simply because it's physically impossible to reach him in a shorter time.

Those in the store business know that an extremely large percentage of the Christmas gifts that are selected are items that are in plentiful supply the entire year.

If you were to ask the thousands of retail employees—(and as a group they represent one of the largest employee groups in the nation) they would tell you that much of the stress and strain of their Christmas would be relieved if the shopping public would anticipate Christmas shopping throughout the year. (Then you'd seldom hear your friends in retailing remark, "I'm simply down to my knees by Christmas Eve.")

Granted that the problem is not a one-sided one it should be recognized that stores are faced with the problems of convenient service to customers, of maintaining helpful employee relations, of providing a place where those of the public who can not, or do not, plan ahead may select the traditional gifts for their loved ones and friends.

We are sure that if storekeepers everywhere could chat with you, personally and informally, that you would be convinced of their sincerity, and that in the true spirit of Christmas they would not be criticized for their efforts to perform a helpful service to their shopping public.

Forum Members Meet, Hear Mrs. H. Henry

Twelve members of the Forum met Thursday, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Lenton Smith.

After a business meeting, Mrs. Hubert Henry gave a talk on "Our Patriotic Heritage," Mrs. Henry defined patriotism as "love of country", but continued with saying that "love of country must be accompanied by willingness to serve one's country. Such service includes obedience to law.

"Americans have always held strong religious and spiritual beliefs. The very fiber of our nation's growth is belief—belief in God, in the individual, in liberty, and in the great documents which our forefathers created, namely our U.S. Constitution and The Bill of Rights.

"Symbolism has proved to be a most effective way to perpetuate an appreciation of our nation's greatness. Each of our patriotic holidays may be listed among such symbols."

Among the holidays named were July 4, Veteran's Day and Memorial Day have been changed by law. Beginning in 1971, Veteran's Day will be the fourth Monday in October, while Memorial Day will be observed on the last Monday in May.

A short history of the origin of our present flag was given. Examples of recent desecrations of the flag, through intent, through ignorance or indifference, were told.

The program was concluded with a quote from Thomas Jefferson, who said, "The earth belongs, always, to the living generation. It is in their hearts and minds that the past can be applied to the making of a better future."

The next meeting of the Forum will be a Christmas dinner, Dec. 13, at the home of Mrs. Charles Russell. Members will exchange gifts and bring gifts for the State Hospital at Wichita Falls.

Christmas Seal Campaign Underway

"Money contributed to the Christmas Seal Campaign, now underway in Lamb County will provide tuberculosis testing in the public schools, chest X-rays for any citizen wishing it, and a wide variety of other services," according to Mrs. Frank Anzeline, Christmas Seal Chairman for Lamb County.

Supporting Mrs. Anzeline are West Texas TB and Respiratory Disease Association board members for Lamb County; Dr. J. R. Fain, E. J. Wicker, both of Littlefield, and Ray Schultz of Olton.

Letters containing the attractive seals are now being mailed to some 80,000 residents of the 23-county area. The drive will continue through December.

The Christmas Seal Mobile Detection Unit goes to any county requesting it to take chest X-rays. During the past seven months, the unit made more than 19,000 X-rays, disclosing abnormalities in about one out of every 40 films.

In addition to tuberculosis, these X-rays alert people to the presence of emphysema, heart disease, and cancer. Over 30,000 school children are being tested for tuberculosis this fall. In many instances, a positive tuberculin reaction in a child, leads to the discovery of an active case in his immediate family. This testing service is available to any school upon request from the superintendent or principal.

The association cooperates in offering the services of an outpatient clinic in Lubbock, where doctors from the association see patients from throughout the area who are unable to return to the state hospital for check-ups.

A continuing education campaign makes available speakers and the latest films for bookings before schools, service clubs, church and civic organizations, presenting information about the prevention and treatment of lung disorders. Seventy-five cents out of every dollar raised in the 1968 Christmas Seal Campaign will remain for services in this 23-county West Texas area.

Another 18 cents will go to the Texas TB and RD Association for work best carried out on a statewide basis. Seven cents will go to the national office for its expenses and its educational research programs.

"A community is safe from the contagion of tuberculosis only when all cases are found and treated. Early detection of other chest disorders can prevent much suffering and save much money. We feel confident that everyone who can contribute to this worthy cause, will benefit," she concluded.

Preview Day Slated Saturday

Lamb County high school juniors and seniors will be among more than 300 high school juniors and seniors from Texas, Colorado, New Mexico and Oklahoma, who are invited and expected to attend the annual Wayland College Preview Day on the Wayland College campus in Plainview Saturday, Nov. 23.

The program is designed to interest high school students in enrolling at Wayland. The students will be introduced to faculty members, administrators and other personnel of the college, and will be shown the college facilities and general outlines of courses of study at the college.

Tours of the campus, to begin at 8:30 a.m., will be led by Wayland students, and will continue until 10:30 when the general session will begin in Harral Memorial Auditorium.

(3) all tickets used on the purchase of a Christmas tree from the Optimist-Band Boosters lot will qualify for the free prize drawing for prizes to be given away Dec. 21.

Prizes to be given away, are a transistor radio, two season tickets for next year's Wildcat football games, and a turkey or ham.

The Christmas tree lot will open Dec. 2, the day after the ticket sales have ended, at 1009 Hall Avenue (Highway 385)," said Charlie Richardson, publicity chairman.

Putting you first vaaaarrrroooooomm keeps us first.

Chevrolet's got a big surprise for the guy who'd buy a sports car if only it had more room. It's the Impala SS 427.

Like all Impalas, it comes with a 119-inch wheelbase, Astro Ventilation and full door-glass styling. Like all Chevy Sportsters, it comes with a beefed-up suspension and grabby red-stripe wide oval tires.

Under the hood, it's more of the same. We tucked in a 427-cubic-inch 390-horsepower Turbo-Jet V8.

That means it's the kind of car you can take for a workout even if you're just going to work.

There's driving excitement in these other packages too: Corvette Stingray, Chevelle SS 396, Camaro SS, Camaro Z 28 and Nova SS. Vaaaarrrroooooomm!

Listen for it at your Chevrolet dealer's Sports Shop.

Putting you first, keeps us first.
