SUMMERTIME IS a little boy up to his ears in watermelon. It takes Scott McAnally a little while to get there, but he has fun right up to the last bite, even with watermelon juice dripping off his elbows. A crisp, splitting sound spells good and ripe. One good bite deserves another, then it's what to do about the seeds. Be polite, or pucker up? A good Dutchman swipe to catch juice dripping off the chin, then stay in there until nothing's left but the rind. Scott is the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John McAnally, 111 E. 20th.

Premium Increase On SS Insurance

Monthly social security checks for Lamb County beneficiaries 65 and over who have signed up for Medicare's doctor bill insurance will be increased by 30 cents in July, according to John G. Hutton, area social security manager in Lubbock.

The checks scheduled for delivery on July 3 will have $5.60 deducted for each beneficiary to pay the increased monthly voluntary medical insurance premium. The rate for the past year was $5.30 for each beneficiary, Hutton said.

The increase was announced by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare in December in accordance with a requirement in the Medicare law that makes an annual review of the costs of the medical insurance program mandatory. The law requires that the monthly premium rate be set at a point estimated to be sufficient to cover all expenses incurred during each premium period, with an allowance for contingencies.

Hutton said that the medical insurance program supplements the basic hospital insurance part of Medicare by helping to pay doctor bills and a wide variety of other medical expenses in and out of the hospital.

The 30 cent premium increase for each beneficiary is the net result of three items that are estimated to increase costs by 50 cents in the fiscal year beginning July 1, and then a decrease of 20 cents arising primarily because of a reduced margin for contingencies, Hutton continued.

The reduced margin for contingencies is possible, Hutton pointed out, because last year, program costs for the medical insurance program were below estimates for the first time since the Medicare program started.

The items that make up the overall 50 cent increase include:

*31 cents to cover an estimated increase of 6.7 percent in the level of physicians' fees recognized by the program in the fiscal year beginning in July;

*10 cents to cover an estimated increase of 2 percent in the use of physicians' services;

*9 cents to cover the estimated increase of 15 percent in cost and utilization of institutional services covered by the program (for example, for hospital out-patient and independent clinic services).

Milo Planting Continues, Raindrops Keep Falling

Farming operations in and around Lamb County this week include everything from planting new crops to irrigating older crops.

Although most of the county's cotton allotment is planted and up, hundreds of acres of grain sorghum were planted this week, especially in the southwestern part of the county and dryland areas that received good rains the past two weeks.

Rain measurements from precipitation in Littlefield Saturday night were from one-half inch to .70.

Residents around Whitharral reported rains of 1. and more Saturday night. Several Sudan residents reported good rains, but over other parts of the county moisture measured from .10 to just traces and showers.

Crops north of the sandhills in the Earth, Springlake and Olton areas are more mature than anywhere else in the county.

Olton farmers with early corn are irrigating this week. Several acres in this area are planted to cucumbers, and these are putting on runners.

South of Earth there is some corn that is four feet tall, and grain sorghum, both single and double-rowed, is growing off fast and some producers are getting ready or are irrigating for the first time.

Most cotton crops are off to good starts, even in dryland areas where the planting was late. Numerous growers are going to double row cotton crops this year. G. C. Bearden who farms north of Amherst is trying some triple row cotton, and Randy Johnson of Pleasant Valley is one who has drilled some cotton.

Band Camp In Full Swing

The seventh and eighth grade band camp is being held this week through next Thursday, July 1. This is the first year since 1967 that a band camp has been held in Littlefield.

Rehearsals are held Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 12 noon. The camp includes section rehearsals, marching, full band rehearsals, theory classes, rhythm studies, drum majoring and twirling.

Band directors in charge of the camp are John McGee and Tom SoRelle of Littlefield and Jerry Starks of Springlake-Earth. Students helping with the camp are Lisa Garland and Richard Barton, drum major instructors; Thriess Bingham, office help; Bob Grissom, percussion instructor; and Amy Owens and Carla Owens, twirling instructors.

There are approximately 100 seventh and eighth graders from Littlefield and 35 students from Springlake-Earth attending the camp.

A concert will be held Thursday night, July 1 at 6:00 p.m. in the high school auditorium to conclude the band camp activities.

Confidence Artists Working In Area

County Attorney Curtis Wilkerson filed charges against two suspects who are charged with overcharging elderly persons for home repairs.

The attorney filed the charges after a Springlake man in his 80's paid a pair $2,550 to repair the flat-topped roof of his residence. The elderly man's daughter became suspicious of the pair and had someone check on the work they had allegedly done. Charges were filed after it was determined the repair work shouldn't have cost more than $50.

The county attorney said the biggest confidence game to fleece older persons is hospitalization. He warns that other services to watch for are firms, especially from another area or out of state, that want to check and spray for termites (which are often non-existent), painters (who paint and after the first rain there is no paint left), and cess pool cleaning operations in the country (misrepresenting fees).

ACCIDENT NEAR OLTON

There were no personal injuries in a two-car accident two miles west of Olton Sunday morning.

Reynaldo Garza of Route 2, Springlake and Barbara Clement of Santa Fe, N. M., were both traveling west on U. S. 70 when Garza attempted to make a right turn with his pickup onto a county road. Miss Clement saw Garza slowing and pulled her 1970 Pontiac to the right instead of the left, according to Weldon Parson, Texas Highway Patrolman, who estimated property damages of $100 to each of the vehicles.

CAN'T GRIT TEETH

Ralph Wade of Whitharral will be glad when sand fighting crops is over this year.

Not only does he appear to be trying to make a crop with a sand fighter, but by all indications he must be trying to grow a crop of false teeth.

Last week Ralph had to run over his cotton land following the weekend rains.

Going across beds is a teeth jarring experience, especially if the teeth are the type that come out at night.

Not waiting until night to take them out is where Ralph made his mistake. He got tired of the choppers clacking together, so he took them out and put them in his shirt pocket.

When he got home he had an empty pocket and a smooth mouth.

WITH CABLE

Contractor's Fencing 'Em

Toby Smith said he threw away enough cable to fence Texas before he learned there was a machine that makes chain link fences from salvage wire such as he uses in his construction work.

Smith, who has been working for the telephone company and has been in the cable and phone line contracting business for 21 years, said he saw his first chain link fence making machine last year at Claude.

He installed a similar process in March at his place of business on east Marshall Howard Boulevard. Now all the wire he formerly hauled to the dump ground is being woven into three, four, five and six-foot rolls of heavy gauge fencing.

Since school was out, a Littlefield High School student, Kenan Lichte, turns out the rolls of fencing woven by the machine.

Smith said Lichte is just learning the fence manufacturing process and usually puts together about 250 feet per day, but the machine will make 500 feet of the four-foot high-strength fencing daily.

Now Smith and his crew salvage all the cable and heavy wire they can from installing phone lines, and only the soft wire is thrown away now.

Any length can be used in the fencing, and after the leftovers are spliced together, the wire is rolled into 50-foot rolls before it is put through the machine.

So far most of the fencing has sold to local businesses or to individuals in and around Littlefield who have put the fencing up themselves.

Not having someone to install the fencing is a drawback, Smith said. Ideally, he'd like to find a partner who'd like to handle the selling and installing end of the fence making project.

Smith has been in construction business for himself for six years. In addition to the construction plant in Littlefield, he is in partnership with W. D. Penny in a construction outfit in Memphis. Penny is a former Littlefield resident, and he is saving wire for Smith's fence making, too.

Smith sells the fencing for 23, 29, 36, and 43 cents per foot, or about 40 per cent less than comparable commercial chain link fencing, he said.

"It may lead to something big," Smith concluded. "It could. But for now, my main line of work is installing cable."

Library Sets Review, Story Hour

Readers will review "The Power of..." by Louis Binstock at the book review in the Lamb County library tomorrow morning, Friday, June 25 at 10 o'clock.

The author is a noted counselor in Littlefield and his book deals with how parents can help develop human potentials to the fullest in love, marriage, business and other aspects of life.

The monthly book reviews are sponsored by the library board. Refreshments will be served.

This morning at 10:15, Mrs. Doris Williams will give the story hour for children four years through school age.

OF THE MONTH honors went to Dr. and Mrs. O. W. Still, 601 E. 12th, Littlefield. Mrs. Marvin Dane, a member of "We, The Women", the Chamber of Commerce affiliated group that makes the selection, presents the award with a potted plant from Chisholm's Floral.

TOBY SMITH, left, looks over the chain link fence weaving process that makes fencing out of left-over cable from Smith's telephone cable construction work. Kenan Lichte, a Littlefield High School student, runs the machine that produces fencing in three, four, five and six foot heights.

'If You Arrest My Son Please Be Brutal'

(Editor's Note: The following is reprinted from the Topeka "Bench Warrant.")

One of the most common phrases heard in our society and our city today is "police brutality." Perhaps I don't understand the meaning, but I would like to give you one mother's viewpoint on this subject.

To begin, I should first tell you that I have two teen-age sons, and being a mother, I cannot help but want the very best of everything for them. I am a "typical mother" in that I do not want to see them hurt by anyone. I am not a typical mother, for I see things many mothers never hear of, much less become involved in, because my husband is a minister and we see the very best and the sordid worst.

I would like for you to be brutal with my sons. Is this a surprise?

If you find them speeding in a car, please be brutal. I have sat at a hospital holding a grieving mother's hand because of someone's mistake. That was brutal. I have gone with my husband to tell a wife her husband was killed. That was brutal. I have helped nurse a beautiful teen-age girl crippled in a wreck. That was brutal. I have played organ music at funeral services for babies, teenagers, and adults because someone drove too fast. That was brutal.

If you should catch my underage sons with liquor in their possession, please be brutal.

I have sat all night by my husband's side trying to piece together two underage young men's lives, both broken by drinking. That was brutal. I have listened to the horrors experienced by another man while he was drunk and heard him recall the many jails he had served time in for this. That was brutal. I have helped feed hungry children because a drunken father didn't come home. That was brutal. I have tried to console a mother whose daughter was killed after being struck by a drunken driver. That was brutal.

If you should find my sons with drugs in their possession, please be brutal.

I have tried to rehabilitate a woman just out of prison for shooting her husband while she was drugged. That was brutal. I have seen a handsome young man turn into an old ugly one because of drugs. That was brutal. I have seen a young mother who was addicted to a drug scream and rave for lack of a "fix." That was brutal.

If you find my sons committing any kind of immoral act or carrying any pornographic materials, please be brutal! I have walked into a hushed, sacred church that was stripped of everything that could be sold. That was brutal. I have seen a lovely, expensive home and yard completely torn up by vandals. That was brutal. I have seen a school and its marvelous equipment torn apart by young vandals. That was brutal. I have wiped a little boy's tears and helped him hunt for his stolen bicycle. That was brutal.

If you should ever catch my sons doing anything illegal, please be brutal. I have come to realize that your kind of "brutality" cannot in any way compare with the brutality that comes from breaking our laws.

My husband and I have tried to teach our sons that their rights end where someone else's begin. We believe they have learned this lesson, but in case they forget, we look to you and others who influence their lives—teachers, coaches, etc.—to see that they remember.

I do not want my two sons to grow into two grown-up boys. I want them to become men, able to assume their places in this world and make good contributions to it. I sincerely hope they won't need your help; but if they do, and if you must, then be brutal...

A Concerned Mother.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Envy Erodes

By BOB WEAR

ENVY IS PROMINENT in the distressful and destructive happenings of our times. It is not the only motivation; but it is, obviously, one of the most erosive. This painful and resentful awareness of an advantage enjoyed by another is most often expressed under the guise of some pretended justification.

DESIRE FOR THE same advantage others may have very easily becomes an obsession. As a result, personal happiness and well-being are lost through a process of slow deterioration. Some persons just live (exist) with this self-made misery; but many are being alarmingly aggressive in striking out against the object of their envy.

UNTIL RECENTLY, envy was a personal matter, usually; and most people either continued in their miserable state of mind, or they learned how to rid themselves of the pain and resentment. There were not many who would destroy what belonged to other people. Yes, there have always been some manifestations of envious feelings, but such violent actions as looting, burning and killing have increased.

THE PERMISSIVE CLIMATE which has become so widespread is an open door for unrestrained human behavior. Envy, one of the most cruel of all the undesirable human passions, is finding it easier to reduce everything and everybody to the lowest common denominator.

"ENVY IS BUT the smoke of low estate, ascending still against the fortunate."

Brooke. The physical representations of learning are being burned; the visible signs and machinery of business success are being bombed; the persons who, by industry and good management, have made themselves useful and successful are being vilified and generally downgraded.

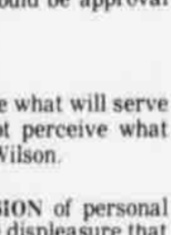

ENVY DISTORTS ONE'S outlook. This is one of the features about it that makes it have such a tragically erosive effect upon all who may be touched by it. It, more than other evil attitudes, makes good appear evil, and evil good; it sees right as wrong, and wrong as right; it finds fault and condemns when there should be approval and praise.

"ENVY MAKES US see what will serve to accuse others, and not perceive what may justify them."—D. Wilson.

MUCH OF THE EROSION of personal joy is caused by envy. The displeasure that people feel because of some element of excellence in others is the most unnecessary and unjustified displeasure known to mankind.

THIS EROSIIVE FORCE is one of the principal causes of the present-day social disorder and confusion. We must wake up to the fact that it is impossible for all of us to be the same; look the same; do the same things; or have the same things.

ENVY IS DIVISIVE, destructive, distressful, discouraging; and a cruel and merciless enemy of all human good.

THE PHILOSOPHER

Big Cities

(Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm reflects some more on the plight of the cities this week and seems to regret it.)

Dear editor:

On the well-established principle I guess that Washington should leave you alone when you're doing well and bail you out when you're doing bad, the country's biggest railroad, biggest plane manufacturer, and biggest cities have been hollering for financial help from Congress running well up into the billions of dollars.

But it's the situation with the cities that interests me this week. One problem at a time.

According to a newspaper article I read last night, the mayors of some of the nation's biggest metropolises are frankly saying their cities face bankruptcy if Washington doesn't furnish them billions of dollars before the summer's over.

I don't know anything about such high finance, although I suspect that when a city needs that kind of money to keep from going busted, it's already busted, but the question I'm working on is, what happens when a city does go bankrupt?

Who takes it over? What does he do with it when he does? Hold a garage sale and hope some other cities come over and buy whatever parts they need?

This is a problem not enough thought is being given to. Doesn't the Pentagon have contingency plans for such an eventuality? Doesn't the New York Times have a copy?

Now I know that when farmers, who used to make up over 50 per cent of the population, started going broke, the experts said oh, they're just marginal farmers, let them go under and get a job somewhere else, and today only 8 per cent of the population are farmers.

You suppose they'll now say oh, these busted cities are just marginal cities, inefficiently operated, let them go under and do something else?

All right, suppose that happens, and cities start dwindling to where only 8 per cent of the population lives there.

That's 8 per cent in the country, 8 per cent in the city. Where in the world are the other 84 per cent?

I'm sorry I brought the matter up.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

HONNY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

FELLOW WEST OF town says his cotton is of such poor stand, he's named each individual stalk.

I USED TO SAY, the reason I know I'm in my second childhood is because my breath comes in SHORT PANTS. However, I've had to discard that old gag. So many things in short pants, these days, don't look so childish.

LOOKS LIKE we'll have a choice between Smith and Barnes in the governors race.—SO ?-?-?

NOTICE THAT PAUL HARVEY is a little upset because the good 'ol USA is in danger of losing its no. 1 rating among the world powers. I'm inclined to disagree with him. I betcha we're number one in a lotta 'things, and will be for a long time to come.

Take, for instance, the national debt. Who can top that? How about rioting? Know of any nation that's havin' more fun, with this, than we are?

The tax rate might run a close race in most countries.—And, how about the cost of living?

Do you know of any country with more indecision among its lawmakers? And what about the crime rate?

I betcha you can't name a country can spend more money and time victing a known killer than we can get the trial sent through as many

YEAH, OF COURSE I'm kidding popular pastime of too many of us practice of harping on the things the WRONG with our country.

We could as easily point out that we're the highest standard of living of any country in the world. Though we live our freedoms are being kicked around still enjoy more than most peoples.

More automobiles, more roads, homeowners, and more of the veniences than any. Yet, we gripe!

Yes, we even have the freedom to take our blessings for granted, begun to bite and devour one another may have forgotten just how we come the great country that we are.

BUT, GIVEN the proper incentive purpose, I'm confident that we could just as firmly together, and accomplish great things (and greater) than we have!

So don't give up, Mr. Harvey,—that, while we're resting, we're scratching the places that itch!

PAUL HARVEY Righteousness

AFTER BILLY GRAHAM had preached to 326,300 Chicagoans in 11 days and 12,800 of them had about-faced to follow Christ, a Chicago newspaper referred to the evangelist as "an over-30 who raps with young people, a 20th-century phenomenon." He is that.

Maybe the news media have been overly zealous in limelighting troublemakers, exposing wrong-doing—to the exclusion of right-doing.

COMPETING MEDIA may be unduly preoccupied with exposing scandal, malfeasance and mischief, especially where persons of prominence are involved.

Many idealistic youth have reacted violently to the thus-discredited Establishment. Many more have reacted with sullen cynicism:

AS EX-PRESIDENTS are exposed, promising one course of action while planning another.

As governors are revealed preaching "taxes should hurt," practicing tax avoidance.

AS MAYORS pocket payola and priests marry and cops turn robbers.

Even relatively minor inconsistencies are repugnant when they can be translated as hypocrisy.

I heard a college-ager say "A President professing to be a Quaker should not dance; not even at his daughter's wedding."

Woman Jailed On Check Law

Mrs. J. W. Hamilton, 38, of Springlake, was charged with check law violation Tuesday and remained in the Lamb County jail Wednesday morning with her bond set at $500.

Littlefield city police arrested five persons Saturday through Tuesday. A middle-aged man was charged with disturbance and threatening a peace officer, and four adult males, aged 33, 60, 55, and 69 were jailed for being drunk in public and all were fined $30.

Mitchell Ford, Inc. reported the theft of a new battery taken from a parked car on their car lot at Delano and Hall. The battery valued at $39 was taken between closing time Saturday and opening of business Monday morning.

disillusion has emerged the except Billy Graham.

On the windy, spotlighted international prominence, this public figure stands untarnished and uncompromised.

BILLY HAS SO ordered his private that here and hereafter there may shadow over his name.

Freely confessing to "human frailties," "mortal weaknesses," Billy—of all people will insist that he must constantly fight "temptation of laziness."

"When the devil tells me I need conduct another strenuous crusade in uncomfortable part of Africa, then that I must go."

FROM HIS DAIRYMAN daddy, inherited farmland which had appreciated to considerable value. The entire was divided between his evangelist association and trusts for his children.

He lives modestly, and when his time is over he will leave no wealth to disparage his mission.

THE LATE William Randolph was first to endorse the integrity of Graham: "No Elmer Gantry he." But it took a subsequent general demonstration to convince the skeptical scribes.

RUTH AND BILLY Graham have of immense significance in the personal and professional lives of the Harvey.

For a golfing companion with whom have enjoyed so many run-times to the way—not "point" the way but "the way to total commitment to God—he has to practice what he preaches does.

Basketball Camp Open

Applications are still available for the Gerald Myers Basketball Camp, the first of its kind in the Lubbock and South Plains area.

Myers, head coach at Texas Tech, has scheduled a day camp to run July 5th-9th and July 19-23rd. The camp is for elementary and junior high school boys who have not graduated from the ninth grade.

The camp is structured to help the advanced player as well as the beginner. Myers will give individual attention to each boy to insure understanding and development of basketball skills.

"No one will be lost in the crowd," Myers said. "I think it is important that boys interested in basketball get a chance to learn the fundamentals of the game at an early age."

Location of the camp will be the gymnasium at the Texas National Guard Armory. The cost of the camp is $50 per camper and each boy must have a statement signed by a doctor stating he is in good physical condition.

Applications for the camp may be obtained by writing Gerald Myers, Box 4199, Texas Tech, Lubbock 79409.

West Texas Tuition Boosted

The recent Texas Legislature boosted the tuition for higher education at all state-supported institutions but it will be the only increase facing students going to West Texas State University at Canyon this fall.

"We feel it is important to hold the line on other student fees at this time because of the tuition increase," said Virgil Henson, financial vice president.

"We are not doing so because additional money is not needed to operate the university," he said. "But we feel a deep obligation to parents and students to hold down costs as long as possible without affecting the quality of education to which they are entitled."

The new tuition bill sets out these rates:

Resident (Texas) students—$4 per semester credit hour but the total of such charge shall not be less than $50 per semester. A student registered for from one through 12 hours would pay the $50 minimum.

Students registered for 13 or more hours would pay $4 per hour a semester (i.e., 13 hours, $52; 14 hours, $56; 15 hours, $60).

Non-resident (out of state) students—$40 per semester credit hour. The legislation provides that students who were non-residents at West Texas

State in the spring semester of 1971 will be permitted to pay the old $200 per semester non-resident tuition as long as they continue their education uninterrupted until they obtain the degree for which they are presently working.

Foreign students—$14 per credit hour with a minimum tuition of $200 a semester. This applies to students who are not citizens of the United States but are in this country for educational purposes.

"In effect, a resident student at West Texas State carrying a regular 15-hour course load would pay only $10 a semester more than he has been paying in the past at the university," Henson said.

Registration for the fall semester will be Aug. 26-28, with late registration continuing through Sept. 4. Application from students new to West Texas State must reach the dean of admissions by Aug. 1.

C & S Cleaning Provides 'Cleanest Floors In Town'

If you want the "cleanest floors in town" call C & S Cleaning Service and that's just what you'll get.

A new business in Olton, C & S Cleaning is owned by Ben Cates and Andy Stroebel. They clean all types of hard-surfaced floors and wax them to a beautiful shine.

Carpets are also cleaned and look like new when they finish their last step of cleaning on them.

First step of really clean floors is removing all old wax. This is done with a heavy duty machine that dispenses cleaner and water mixture and brushes that rotate to lift the old wax and dirt from the surface of the floor. Coming behind the scrubbing machine is a vacuum cleaner which "sucks up" all the dirty water leaving the floor almost completely dry.

Then the old cotton mop is next on the scene. Clear water rinse with the mop is the last step before the wax goes on. Cates and Stroebel use a non-suff self-polishing wax that shines like a "new dollar."

In cleaning, there is not a piece of furniture that moved from its original and the floors are cleaned EVERYWHERE. Furniture is restored to its natural position.

Carpet cleaning is thorough, with all fibers being moved; then the carpet is vacuumed. A machine of different type brush is used on the carpet, rather than the ordinary type. The carpet brushes roll forward up the pile and at the same time a vacuum is sucking up the dirt from the carpet.

Then the vacuum is run in for the final touch, lifting the dirty foam from the carpet and leaving it almost completely dry. After a few hours, regular vacuum is run over carpets and the furniture is placed.

And you truly have "Cleanest Floors In Town."

For your appointment have your floors cleaned, get an estimate on the cleaning, just call 285-3302, they will call on you. Phone 285-3302.

Farmers Union Opposes Proposed Postal Rates

The Farmers Union has urged the Postal Rate Commission to reduce a proposed increase in second class postal rates.

Weldon V. Barton, national legislative director of the Farmers Union, testified before the commission that increasing second class postal rates would threaten the existence of small newspapers.

Furthermore, he urged that rates on other classes of mail not be increased in order to absorb the deficit that will result from maintenance of current second class rates.

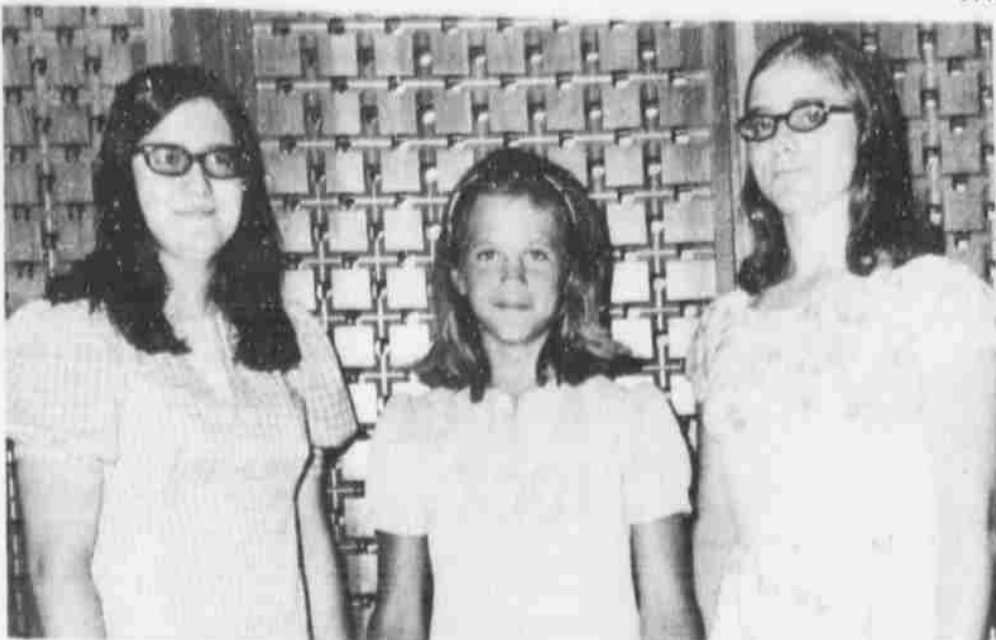

"Instead," he said, "Farmers Union urges that—after the Postal Service makes every effort to secure financial savings by squeezing out operating inefficiencies—the deficits be allowed to accumulate so as to encourage remedial amendment of the 1970 Postal Reorganization Act."

"Over the long run—as deficits accumulate—Farmers Union recommends amendment of the 1970 Act to authorize continued subsidization out of general revenues of the federal government for essential mail and other information-communication services.

"We are convinced that efficient and inexpensive mail service to all areas of the nation is related to the public interest in a way that fully justifies the subsidization out of general tax revenue that is required to secure this objective."

Jay Naman, president of the Texas Farmers Union, said in Waco that the rural people of Texas have an important stake in maintaining a strong rural press.

He said, "We see blocking this effort to increase second class postal rates as an essential aspect of our effort in behalf of rural development. There is a growing commitment of the nation that we must stop the senseless migration out of our small communities and rural areas, and into the nation's overcrowded and congested cities. The loss of smalltown newspapers would be only one more factor that would hinder efforts in this direction."

THESE THREE GIRLS were the speakers for the Sunnydale Home Demonstration Club meeting Thursday. Barbara Black of Sudan, left, spoke on "Buying a Wardrobe on a Limited Budget"; Dawn Branscum of Earth, middle, discussed the history of 4-H clubs; and Helen Black of Sudan, right, spoke on "The Food Label."

The Chamber said there will be many collectors items, antiques and treasures for the collector.

Merchants plan to continue the flea market each fourth Saturday of each month, in connection with Morton's Jamboree Trades Day, with merchants putting on specials and holding cash drawings at 2, 3 and 4 p.m. at participating stores.

The day will be climaxed with a big country and western music jamboree in the county activity building from 8 p.m. until 11.

New Tax Law Allows More Take Home Pay

If you are a student who is working during the summer and you will not earn enough to owe any income tax ($1700 -), it's not too late to go back and talk to your payroll office about completing a Form W-4E. The "E" stands for exemption. A recent change in the tax law allows your employer to let you take home all your pay under these circumstances.

The new law allows your employer to stop withholding on students who will not earn enough to owe any income tax. It also saves the government the trouble of sending you an income tax refund next January or February.
