All-Weather 78

Goodyear's new All-Weather 78 is built with polyester cord that's first tempered in an exclusive Goodyear process to set the cord at optimum strength and resilience. The wide 78-series tread is "reversmolded," a technique borrowed from race tire production. In reverse molding, the contour of the tread surface is slightly concave as it comes from the mold — so that when the tire is inflated, the tread makes full, flat contact with the road. And the rib-type tread design is well grooved, with plenty of traction edges to provide decisive grip. In every detail, this new All-Weather 78 gives you honest quality, at a price that's in step with the time.

EARLY MORNING FIRE at the home of Mrs. Viola Glover in Littlefield, resulted in more than $3,000 in damages Thursday. New carpet was being laid, and some was rolled over the furnace, which caught fire when the furnace came on. The floor burned out around the furnace and smoke and fire damages were extensive throughout the house. Volunteer firemen also answered a call on West First that afternoon where a garage storage area had caught fire. Damages there resulted in about $500 plus. (Staff Photo)

Cancer Society To Meet Monday

The Lamb County Chapter of the American Cancer Society will conduct a meeting Monday night, at 7 in the XIT room of Security State Bank. Representatives of the various communities in the county and of Pecos are scheduled to meet to plan for the coming fund raising crusade, which attempts to reach an over-all goal of $100,000 for the county.

Consideration

Asked On Petition

A petition bearing over 200 signatures was presented here Friday concerning recent abolishment of E. L. "Jack" Hinchley's justice of peace precinct 6. Two Amherst residents presented the petition and asked that the matter be put before the March 10 Commissioners Court when they will officially present the petition to the court.

community chairmen will receive instructions and materials to be used in the campaign.

Commissioners Meet

The court met in their regular end of the month session Friday with a short agenda.

Commissioners regretfully accepted the resignation of Gene Campbell of Amherst as the coordinator for the Lamb County civil defense unit.

The county depository pledge contract with Security State Bank was approved. Contracts on the building, electrical work and plumbing and heating were approved with King Builders of Lubbock, City Electric and Campbell's Plumbing.

A Bookmobile budget was passed for $7,514, with Lamb County to pay 42 percent of that figure. Bonds were approved for W. T. Vereen, justice of peace of precinct 4.

Schools Observing Public Schools Week

Parents and the general public are invited to visit area public schools during the annual observance of Texas Public Schools Week this week, March 3-7.

Classrooms at all levels, from elementary to high school, will be open for visitation.

To recognize the event, many schools in the area will offer student presentations and art displays, and others will offer special programs.

Parents are especially encouraged to visit the schools their children attend, and are invited to discuss areas of concern with teachers and have lunch with their children.

The Texas Public School System was founded 120 years ago on the premise that educated citizens are better citizens. Parents play an important role in any child's education, and education is more vital now than ever before in understanding and living in our complex society.

In the Littlefield schools, classrooms in the Primary building will place special emphasis for open house all day Tuesday, while Elementary I will be open Wednesday. Elementary II will open their doors for parental visitation Thursday, while Junior High and High School schedules have not been revealed.

"Parents are encouraged to attend any day of the week, if they can't make a specified day," stated Primary Principal Forrest Martin.

Ratliff, Hampton Announce For Re-Election To Board

Incumbent school board members Mickey Ratliff and David Hampton signed up for re-election to the Littlefield school board Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Earlier in the week Troy Gardner announced his candidacy. Rev. Cass Tisdale who had previously announced he was running withdrew from this race this week.

Thus far there are seven persons running for three positions expiring this term. The filing deadline ends at 5 p.m. this Wednesday, March 5.

Ratliff and Hampton have completed one full term each.

Ratliff is a Littlefield attorney. He and his wife Dwyce have two school-aged children, Derek, 11, and Laurie, 8.

Hampton is branch manager for Tide. He and his wife Peachy have three children, Kelli, 14 and an eighth grader, Rodney, 12, and in the seventh, and Steven, 10 and a fourth grader.

Ratliff, Hampton, and Gardner will be on the ballot with Carolyn Hodge, Jay Bridwell, James Bolen, and John Despre.

Any additional candidates are reminded that effective Friday, the school tax office and the office of the school superintendent are in their new location in the former Hill Rogers Furniture at the intersections of the old U. S. 84 at the Spade crossing Bula High or FR 54.

Spade Longhorns To Meet Bledsoe

Coach Jim Haynes' Spade Longhorns will take their sparkling 34-3 record to Levelland Tuesday night in a bi-district basketball tilt against Bledsoe.

The game is slated to get underway at 7:30 p.m. in the South Plains Dome and will be the first half of a basketball doubleheader. Klondike is scheduled to meet Sundown in the second game.

Admission is $1.75 for adults and 75 cents for students.

Regional action is slated for March 7 and 8 in the SPC Dome.

In "practice game" action Thursday night in Snyder, Spade met Hawley and handed Hawley its first defeat of the year by only one point, 57-56.

Marvin Matthews scored 21 points and Tommy Batson dropped in 20 more to help their team come up with the win.

The win gives Spade a 35-3 record, while Hawley slipped to 31-1.

SATURDAY, if this red-breasted robin was anywhere near Littlefield, he must have thought he had certainly made a mistake. But Sunday morning, as the snow was melting in spring-like weather, he probably figured he'd predicted spring after all. He was busy most of the day picking up little goodies in the grass, getting a refuel for the rest of his trip to wherever it is he's going. (Staff Photo)

'We, The Women' Plan Several Special Events

"We, The Women" met Wednesday, Feb. 26, at the Tasty Taco Restaurant with the president, Susan Head, presiding.

Mozelle Tapley, chairman of the style show, reported all merchants of Littlefield will participate in the dinner style show set for Tuesday night, Sept. 9.

The Lamb County Community Center will be the site for this fall event. Indirect lighting will be furnished by Southwestern Public Service Company, and the Red Coats will serve as ushers.

"We, The Women" are selling the Littlefield Commemorative Coins as a project. "Anyone who is interested in the heritage of Littlefield may hold it in their hands with these coins," says Mrs. Head.

Members voted to help urge the citizens of Littlefield to vote in the upcoming city election by phoning on March 31.

The "Babes in Toyland" little girl pageant was voted to be held again this year. President Susan Head will appoint a committee to handle the details.

A special program was presented by Jeni D. Brunson and Dorothy Powell, public education chairpersons for the American Heart Association. Jeni D. gave facts on the symptoms and warning signs of heart attacks and strokes. Dorothy talked on the importance of your diet and stressed that everyone read the labels of products you buy.

In closing, Susan asked that all members bring a guest to the next meeting, Wed., March 26.

Members present were: Ruth Trimmer, Louise Bennett, Nelda Blackwell, Beulah Dunlap, Elsie Garland, Carol Black, Pat Marcum, Ethel Maurer, Dee Dee Davis, Virgie Haile, Maurine Chisholm, Marge Anzeline, Dot Downs, Mozelle Tapley, Jeni D. Brunson and Brenda Denton and Sarah Tollett. Special guests present were Lora Fiach, Zan Stovall and Sharon Adams.

New members are Linda Jones and Dorothy Powell.

Alcoholism Meeting Slated Here

An alcoholism information meeting will be held in the Lamb County Community Center at 7:30 p.m. Monday, according to David Carey, alcoholism counselor for Lamb County.

At the meeting a film titled, "Your Health" will be shown, depicting the effects of alcohol abuse on the human body. After the film, Carey will be available for questions and answers concerning alcoholism.

"We hope to have a large crowd at our meeting Monday. It is our job at the South Plains Alcoholism Counseling Services Project to inform the public of the nation's fourth killer disease—alcoholism," Carey said.

The meeting is a part of a continuing program of the control of alcohol abuse in Lamb County. The counselor works in three counties, Hale, Bailey and Lamb.

Dr. Hinckley Fancies Feathered Friends

WILAH RODGERS
On a fair weather, everyone is for birds at Dr. Herbert M. Hinckley's.

There are plenty of birds for Dr. Hinckley, too, with partridges in the tree, peacocks and guineas on the ground, rare chickens down at the barn, and fanciful varieties of ducks, geese and swans swimming around the pond.

Dr. Hinckley has been interested in birds since he had a swan when he was a teenager.

His interest got pushed to the back of his mind while he worked for degrees at Texas State University, the University of Texas (Southwestern) Medical School, and built up his medical practice at Littlefield and DeSota.

When the Hinckleys moved to their 23-acre country home just outside the Littlefield city limits on the Bula Highway in 1962, Dr. Hinckley dusted off his breed fowl catalogue, started ordering and meeting plans to collect the exotic arrivals.

There are 35 to 40 unusual waterfowl on the pond east of the house. These include black swans that gleam with an iridescent sheen in bright sunlight and are almost black in the shade. There is an almost extinct black Australian swan, a blue summer and blue Swedish ducks and geese know the sound of Dr. Hinckley's car and meet him in the driveway when he comes home for lunch with a loud unison of honks, quacks and squawks announcing its dinner time, too.

Evening egg gathering time is a little like going on an Easter egg hunt. Regular looking eggs come from fancy breeds in Easter finery. Buff Cochins with their ruffled feather legs are known as birds with pants.

Polish chicks lay plain white eggs, but are striking in their feathered head dress plumes that look like a full head of hair and falls across their eyes leaving an image that leads to their name "hippy" chicks.

Dr. Hinckley's Yokohamas could be termed his proud birds with silver and black tails except for the fact that West Texas winds really move the tail feathers of these birds that are supposed to grow fantastic fancy feathers measuring 20 feet long. Result: pretty ordinary dimensions and nothing to show off at the barnyard parade.

Adding to the Easter any day atmosphere are the delicately colored eggs laid by the Easter egg chicken called the Araucanas. The magic Easter eggs range from pastel greens and blues to pinks.

"The colored eggs are more nutritious and 10 percent lower in cholesterol," Dr. Hinckley added in typical physician fashion.

A most unusual parade shapes up at the Hinckley home each evening about sunset when the peafowls, guinea hens and partridges assemble for their evening stroll. The peacocks are parade marshalls and strut past the patio door in a vain and important manner, looking at their reflections in the picture window. They are followed by guineas forming a band with their loud raucous racket. Stout-bodied little partridges bring up the rear, and a clown of a black crow puts on an act for fowls and folks alike.

Back at parade rest the peafowl fly to the roof of the Hinckley's two-story house and take their roosting place near the chimney, looking toward the sunset in the west and absorbing the last remnants of a glorious day that will reflect in their plumage tomorrow.

The Hinckley's 13-year-old son Daniel's pet black chicken Ralph, which turned out to be a hen but is called Ralph anyway, roosts in the kitchen window where she can gather gossip to maintain her pecking order.

One duck, the black crow and a white pigeon have turned the tables on bird watching, too. They like living on the Hinckley patio and looking through the sliding glass door to the dining room so they can see what people do.

From time to time there are pecking partridges and peacocks, too.

Like most of the doctor's fowl, there is a story on the white pigeon that makes its home in the Hinckley back yard. The pigeon was winged during one of Littlefield's pigeon shoots 1974 to reduce the city pigeon population.

A neighbor boy found the wounded bird, and knowing about the bird population at the Hinckley's, took the injured pigeon to Daniel. Daniel took his cues from Dr. Hinckley and mended the bird's broken wing and administered emergency first aid.

Since then the pigeon has never flown to town again, although it's less than a mile. He confines his flight excursions close to his refuge and always comes home to roost.

Love Puppy is an unfeathered pet at the Hinckleys. Her story is another chapter in animal love and caring.

On one of Dr. Hinckley's evening walks a hungry looking mother dog, with obvious dependents judging from appendages, covered up to the doctor as if saying help me, my babies are hungry. Patting her brown spotted head, Dr. Hinckley said, "Show me your babies and I'll take you all home with me."

With an understanding wag of her tail she bounded off to a barn. There in a corner were three undernourished puppies. Love Puppy, now grown and as healthy and sleek as a show animal, still rushes up to the doctor, moaning, howling and crying in her talking dog language as if she is thanking Dr.

Hinckley for giving her a good home. The fowl, too, seem to know Dr. Hinckley is for the birds. And they show their appreciation when they run to greet him with a ruffling of their feathers.

Kelley - Taylor Wedding Solemnized At Earth

Due to bad weather Saturday, double-ring wedding vows between Annita Carol Kelley of Earth and Douglas Boyd Taylor of Amarillo were postponed one day at the First Baptist Church of Earth.

Rev. David Burum, pastor of the church, officiated for the reading of the vows Sunday afternoon instead of Saturday night as originally planned.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Kelley of Rt.

2, Earth, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Taylor of Peoria, Ariz.

Donald Kelley escorted his daughter to the altar as she wore the traditional gown of white, featuring a dimensional effect of organza and satin, accented in Venice lace. A deep yoke of sheer was outlined in garlands of the Venice lace, with a high wedding band neckline of lace and pearls belonging to the bride, her mother, grandmother and two sisters, sewn in the bodice and long sleeves. The full circular skirt of sheer was encircled with satin and lace garlands, forming a train. Her matching veil fell in tiers from a Camelot headpiece.

She carried a bouquet formed of white roses with orchids and handkerchiefs from three great-grandmothers fashioned into roses, and two handkerchiefs and a blue pin belonging to the groom's mother and two grandmothers inside the Bible. Also entwined in the bouquet were pearls worn by the bride as a child. The Bible which she carried belonged to her mother and was carried by her two other sisters in their weddings.

The bride's twin sister, Mrs. Donita Clark of Lubbock, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. David Jaquess of Lubbock, another sister; Mrs. Allen Hatfield of Springlake, her cousin; and Miss Sharla Haberer of Lubbock.

The attendants wore long red and white polka dotted knit dresses with matching jackets, edged with small white lace around the bodice and long sleeves. Attendants wore red satin ribbons entwined in baby's breath and carried white Rainbow Bibles with red and gold streamers and small red roses.

Ron Taylor of Peoria, Ariz., twin brother of the groom, served as best man. Two other brothers of the groom were groomsmen, Larry Taylor and Paul Taylor, both of Peoria, Ariz., along with John Kelley of Earth, a cousin of the bride.

Vows were exchanged before the altar decorated with a large gold cross with gold wedding rings placed upon it. Behind the cross was an arrangement of flowers of red, gold and white. White garlands were placed on the rails in front of the organ, piano and choir loft. Flanking the cross were gold candelabras with white fern and red candles. The unity candle was placed on a table covered in red, which also bore her grandfather Clayton's Bible.

Candlelighters were David Jaquess and Roger Clark, both of Lubbock.

Sheryl Clayton, a cousin of the bride, distributed the rice bags to the guests.

Shelly Paige distributed the programs.

Musical selections were presented by Mrs. Jimmy Craft, who sang "The Wedding Song" and "Bless This Home". The bride and groom were presented on a tape as they sang "Someone, Somewhere" as they approached the altar; and "Whither Thou Goest" when they exchanged rings. Another recording done by the bride and her sisters, "Twelfth of Never" was presented during the ceremony.

Following the wedding, a reception was served in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Assisting with the serving duties were Susan Clayton, Faith Free and Kim Kelley. Assisting with hospitalities were Fonda Goodwin, Kareen Hulcy and Kieta Haberer.

Donna Green played the piano for the reception, while Mrs. Jenny Bonick registered the guests in the bride's book.

Serving as ushers were Roger Clark and David Jaquess.

For their wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride wore a red jersey knit dress with brown accessories.

They will live in Amarillo where the groom is employed with Southwestern Public Service Co.

The bride is a candidate for May graduation at Texas Tech University, where she has been majoring in home economics education and is a member of the American Home Economics Education Association.

The groom is a 1974 graduate of Arizona State University at Tempe, Ariz.

Public Schools Week

HOW MUCH DO YOU know about your local school district?

A surprisingly high number of citizens know very little, yet these same people would no doubt agree that a strong and vigorous public education system is absolutely essential for ensuring the continuing quality of life in Texas and the nation.

MARCH 3-7 has been designated "Texas Public Schools Week" across the state.

Schools in our community will be open for visitation and inspection.

Students' work will be on display, and teachers and faculty will be on hand to answer questions from the public.

WE, AS PARENTS and concerned citizens, have a duty to ask those questions. Unless we understand how the system works, we can't determine its effectiveness, and we can't be sure our children are getting the high quality of education they will certainly need to deal with the future.

It all starts with us. Observe "Texas Public Schools Week" this year, March 3-7.

County Spelling Bee Slated Here March 15

Students from across Lamb County are memorizing their spelling words in preparation for the county-wide spelling bee, slated for Saturday, March 15, at 1:30 p.m. in the District Courtroom of the Lamb County Courthouse in Littlefield.

C. Roy Stevens, county school superintendent, is serving as director again.

Mrs. Irene Lynn, English teacher at Littlefield High School, will pronounce the words for the spellers, and judges for the contest will be spelling bee instructors from each of the schools.

Two students from each of the schools in the county will be eligible to participate.

Winner of the county contest will enter the 23rd annual Regional Spelling Bee in Lubbock, sponsored by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, where winners from 23 counties will compete.

The regional event will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, April 5, in the Smylie Wilson Junior High School auditorium with Dr. Harvie Pruitt, assistant to the president at Lubbock Christian College, serving as director.

Winner of that contest will receive an individual plaque and an expense-paid trip to the National Spelling Bee in Washington, D. C., June 2-7. The regional winners compete for prizes worth more than $5,000 at the national bee.

Littlefield Bands To Present Concert

The Littlefield Band Department will present a concert Tuesday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m. in the Junior High School Auditorium.

Slated for performance will be the Junior High Stage Band, Beginner

Band, Intermediate Band, and Junior High School Concert Band.

Directors for the groups will be Tom SoRelle and Richard Hayden.

There will be no admission for the concert and the public is invited to attend.

Little Dribblers Register Monday

Girls wishing to play in this year's Little Dribblers Basketball program are asked to sign up at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Reddy Room of the Southwestern Public Service Co. building.

Fill out application forms that were distributed at Elementary I and II schools this past week, and bring them with you. Those who didn't get an application may pick them up at sign-up time.

To be eligible, girls should have been born on or after Sept. 1, 1962 and prior to Sept. 1, 1966.

A senior division is also being planned, and girls who plan to play in that category should have been born on or after Sept. 1, 1960 and prior to Sept. 1, 1962.

Application blanks for this group will be available Monday night during sign-up time.

All girls must bring their birth certificates to the sign-up.

Boy Scout Drive Starts Tuesday

Kickoff for the Boy Scout annual fund drive is set for 10 a.m. Tuesday, Mar. 4, in the XIT Room of Security State Bank.

At that time packets will be distributed and areas designated, according to Tom Tollett, drive chairman.

The district-wide goal is $25 per boy. This year's drive will be short, ending Friday noon.

VISIT A PUBLIC SCHOOL DURING TEXAS ANNUAL PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

MARCH 3-7, 1975

THE 121ST YEAR OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN TEXAS

A Woman's View

By PEARL BRANDON

LAST NIGHT I listened to a writer being interviewed on a talk show on KRLD in Dallas. He was Polish and had gone through World War II in Poland.

His father was killed in the war and he, as the oldest in the family, stole food and did everything he could to keep his mother and younger brothers and sisters alive until they were placed in concentration camps.

One of the things he said that impressed me was that a writer had to expose his innermost thoughts and feelings to the public. He had to dig deep into his most secret self to bring up ideas that might help others.

There was no use to write unless you could offer something to benefit someone else.

SOMETIMES I have a temptation to quit, instead of trying to come up with something new every week. When this happens, I go to the Lord in prayer and He tells me to get up off my lazy chair and get to work—that He isn't quite through with me yet.

I read a poem this week by an unknown author that fits me pretty well and think some of you will enjoy. I will give you some of it.

"When you get 'on' and you've lived a long time
And the walk up the stairs are hard to climb,

Though your eyes are dimmer than what they were

And the page of the book has a misty blur,

Strange as this may seem to be, then is the time you will really see."

ONE OF THE hardest things in life to accept is when you begin to lose your usefulness. It seems about the time you have learned enough by experience to really live, your old body begins to play out, and you have to slow down.

Maybe that is good. Then you will know it's not so important to live at such high speed that you have no time left for family and friends.

ANOTHER VERSE of the poem: "Often the blindest are youthful eyes, for age must come ere a man grows wise,

And youth makes much of the mountain peaks,
And the strife for fame and the goal it seeks,

But age sits down with the sitting sun
And smiles at the boastful deeds it's done."

THE POLISH writer I spoke of said he counted as the most wasted years of his life the 20 years he spent chasing the dollar. He made money but did nothing for his fellowman.

The last verse of this poem reads: "You'll see, as always an old man sees,

That the waves die down with the fading breeze,
That the pomp of life never lasts for long,

And the great sink back to the common throng,
And you'll understand when the struggle ends,

That the finest gifts of life are friends."

IN CASE some of you have been wondering what happened to this column the last couple of weeks, we made a quick trip to California.

As Cornball would say, our number one son took us to see our number two son.

We enjoyed the trip, but it is good to be back home again in Littlefield.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Shun Morbidity

By BOB WEHR

LIKE IT, OR NOT; we must learn how to live in our world, with some reasonable degree of joy and hope; if we wish to do any good, or live with any sense of meaning.

This is not easy to accomplish as we would like it to be, but it is not impossible. Regardless of the real situation, how good or evil; we will not help ourselves or make any of the indicated changes by permitting ourselves or make any of the indicated changes by permitting ourselves to be overcome with the spreading morbidity.

WE MUST NOT BE "abnormally susceptible to or characterized by gloomy or unwholesome feelings". This is a decision for each person to make. Although it is not an easy one, we can make it; if we will carefully consider all of the ramifications of the alternative. There is not even one good reason why we are justified in allowing "gloomy or unwholesome feelings" to pervade our lives. If we do let this happen, we will have, for all practical purposes, forfeited the best of life.

WE CAN CONDITION our minds so that we are able to resist the perverse influences of the morbidity so prevalent in much of the "music"; the religious prognostications; the daily news; and in the general conversation.

There is enough of such expressions as these to overwhelm us with melancholia and terror, but we must not let this happen. Indifference is not a practical mental posture, but it is better than being submerged in the mire of misery.

THE WORLD MAY BE collapsing; it has not collapsed; we may starve to death, but we are not starving; disaster may be near, but it has not arrived yet.

If we are going to let ourselves live in the sickening bog of morbidity, we are in a sense, causing what might otherwise be. Even if the very worst forebodings are inevitable, we should not think and act as if they were with us.

MORBIDITY MARS every facet of our living experience. It detracts from everything that is desirable and pleasant in the current reality; nullifies the joy and good cheer that could realize; it impairs the quality of good effect of everything that is worthwhile.

It spoils our life situation, and makes us useless; in trying to do anything solve problems face the challenges.

WE CANNOT AFFORD to permit ourselves to be susceptible to gloomy, unwholesome feelings. This is an area of our life over which we can exercise significant control.

We must build up our defense against all perverse and negative influences. This can be done successfully, when we work diligently to do so.

Filling our mind and life with positive and wholesome ideas, understanding intentions, and responses will give strength to "shun morbidity"

OUR EXPECTATIONS must be reasonable and sensible; and in complete accord with reality.

HONNY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

I DO, SOMETIMES, believe I could turn isolationist. Somehow the mention of just minding our own business sounds so enticing. Then I remember the great wall the Chinese spent so much time in building.

Get pretty disgusted with the plight of Cambodia, and as to how the Commies forgot to keep their word regarding the treaty we made with them—Peace and honor, they do not understand.

IT WOULD, HOWEVER, be a cold day in August, before I'd be anything like in favor of sending our troops back into that frustrating experience.

Sure, go ahead and send them help, as best a bankrupt neighbor can do, but leave our kids out of the direct action. (Let them worry about paying the bill, later on!)

THEN THERE'S THIS thing with the Arabs—Very provoking. Let's let Kissinger keep the trail hot, mediating between those jealous brats, but, whoever mentioned the threat of our sending troops over there to "Keep the Peace"? Let's make Kissinger leave his threats at home!

Sure, I'm aware that the good ol' U.S. dollars and know-how developed their oilfields, and put the machinery there handle it. I'm also aware that we had idea of draining their cheap resources while conserving our own.

SOMEWHERE, THO, the plan was awry, and as of now, it looks as if they on the verge of buying us out. (Maybe controlling interest) with the proceeds from our own investments!

However, any way you look at it, oil and machinery belongs to them have and to hold, and do with as will please. Surely we know that we would dare take it from them by force? Well, really hurts is that any road we take trying to solve these dilemmas has pass through our "Friendly" neighbor RUSSIA!

AS FOR A direct confrontation with these guys, there's always the threat of the bomb, AND, it could be delivered from the MOON, no less!

Just wonder how high that wall will have to be!!!

WOULDN'T BE NICE of me to remember Turn Row that I don't have much confidence in the U.S. News and World report, either. Would it?

IT MAY NOT BE necessary to write our local congressman to endorse the new target and support price for cotton, but maybe we should start writing other Congressmen for their help to pass the new proposed target and loan support price on cotton. In case you haven't heard, the new proposed target price for cotton is supposed to be 48 cents per pound and the loan support price if passed by Congress will be 40 cents per pound for strict middling-on inch cotton.

NOTICED THAT Texfi Knit, formerly a 100 percent synthetic fiber mill, has taken a step forward and is coming up with its first fabric containing a percentage of cotton.

The company is merchandising a double knit fabric containing 65 percent cotton and 35 percent polyester. The indications, show that other mills are following suit.

The new "Natural Blend Double Knit", as called by the company, appears in men's and boy's apparel made by manufacturers of better clothing to fall.

PUBLIC SCHOOL WEEK is being observed this week. This is always great time to get to know your child's instructor better and to see the work the class is doing. There's nothing more exciting for the student than to have mom or dad visit him or her at school. Schools in the area are planning number of activities for this special event.

REV. AND MRS. C. J. TISDALE

Pastor To Be Installed Here Today

Rev. C. J. Tisdale, of Irvin Street Baptist Church, will be installed as pastor of that church in a special ceremony this afternoon, beginning at 3. They came to Littlefield the last of October from Coffeyville, Kans. where he was pastor of the 150-member Twelfth Street Baptist Church.
Rev. A. L. Dunn of the New Hope Baptist Church in Lubbock will preach the installation sermon in the fellowship hall of the church. Other ministers participating in the service will be Rev. Cado Lang, pastor of St. James Baptist Church in Lubbock; and Superintendent Alexander of the Alexander Church of God in Christ in Lubbock.

Rev. Tisdale was born in Caldwell and his wife, Mercia D. was born in Longview. They only lived out-of-state 10 years, and are glad to return to Texas. About Littlefield, Rev. Tisdale stated, "This is a fine little town—particularly the people. We came here to settle down." Since they have been in Littlefield, he has been instrumental in organizing the Black Ministers' Alliance, of which he is president.

They have one son, in Wichita, Kans., daughters in Lamesa, Antonio and Wichita, Kan. grandchildren and five grandchildren.

Circle Meets For Study

AMHERST— The Annie Armstrong Circle of the Baptist WMU met with Mrs. Maurice Brantley, hostess Feb. 24 for Bible study.
Mrs. Bertha Black led in prayer to open the meeting.
Mrs. J. P. Brantley's program was on "The woman who could not forget." It was the story of Mary Magdalene from the book that made Bible history. She read Luke 8-13 and John 20, 1-18.
She concluded the study with a poem entitled "Letter to Mary Magdalene by Juanita White Caddell."
Mrs. Charles Mixon read the prayer calendar and John 18-37.
Mrs. Glenn Willson offered prayer for the missionaries having birthdays.

The circle chairman, Mrs. Don Carter, presided in business. The group was reminded of the youth revival to be held at the church Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week. The annual Easter meeting of the Circle has been changed from March 24 to the 17th. The time for the covered dish supper.
The meeting of the Circle for singing at the rest home will be the second Monday in March instead of the usual third Monday.
Mrs. A. O. Dickson closed with prayer.
Refreshments of Italian creme cake, tea and a frosted drink were served to Mmes. Bill Bradley, Glenn Willson, Don Carter, A. O. Dickson, Charles Mixon, Bertha Black, J. P. Brantley, and the hostess.

Motocyclists On Riding Trip

The South Plains Motorcycle Club met Thursday night at Grimes' Kawasaki. President Keith McGrew presided.

The main topic was the club's discussion of leasing acreage of ranch land to ride upon for their coming year.

Committees were appointed to start work on the plans for a Grand Prix—a motor cross race—to be held in the early spring.

Plans were also made for the club to go to the Canadian River Basin north of Amarillo for a family riding day today.

Square Dance Set Saturday

Littlefield's Circle Eight Square Dance Club is hosting a special square dance co-sponsored by the Littlefield Early Risers Lions Club on Saturday, March 8.

Cliff Smith will be calling.

Along with the dance there will be an auction of merchandise from local and area merchants.

Proceeds will be used to help provide food and clothing for residents of Great Plains Boys Ranch at Pettit.

All area square dancers are invited to attend.

LEON BURCH, past president of the Littlefield Classroom Teachers Association, was elected to a two-year term to the Texas State Board of Directors of District 17 of the TCTA at their annual convention in Ft. Worth last week. District 17 encompasses a 20-county area including Lamb, Lubbock, Bailey, Terry, Hockley and Hale.

Sgt. Pitman Now In Lubbock

Sgt. Donald R. Pitman, former Littlefield resident, has recently returned to Lubbock, where he is employed with the 829th Station Hospital at Texas Tech University. He is employed by the Department of the Army as a Technician.

Sgt. Pitman is a 1966 graduate of Littlefield High School and will reside at 3219B 33rd Street in Lubbock.

County HD Council Meets

The Lamb County Home Demonstration Council met Wednesday, Feb. 29, in the Lamb County Courtroom. Mrs. Ruth Miller, chairman, presided.

All Lamb County Home Demonstration Clubs were represented.

Mrs. Fern Bitner was elected council secretary-treasurer. She replaces Mrs. Inez Lichte, who resigned the office. The Extension Agent, Mrs. Dorothy Powell, announced that the program committee would meet Friday, Feb. 28, in Springlake, to plan the 1975-76 Home Demonstration Club program of work.

The group reviewed the qualifications for delegates to the District 2 T.H.D.A. meeting. A decision was made to continue Friendship Day during 1976. Clubs were reminded to pay their T.H.D.A. dues and 4-H Scholarship donation. The council voted to purchase the ribbons for the 1975 Lamb County 4-H Food Show which was held Saturday in the Lamb County Community Center in Littlefield.

New Stamps Being Issued

Beginning Saturday, March 1, food stamp recipients are receiving new coupons, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA).

The coupons will be of $1, $5 and $10 denominations. The 50-cent and $2 coupons are discontinued.

USDA's Food and Nutrition Service said the larger denominations were prompted by the volume of coupons needed to meet increased food stamp allotments, paper shortages and increased production and shipping costs.

The new food stamp—brown ($1), purple ($5), and blue-green ($10)—use a more sophisticated design to deter counterfeiting.

FNS said that food stamp users must spend their current food stamps by June 30 of this year since retailers will not accept any old coupons after that date.

Authorized food stamp stores will use the $1 coupon for making change instead of the current 50-cent coupon and credit slips of 99 cents or less for change under $1. Books will be signed by the food stamp customer on the inside front cover, instead of on the back of the book.

The ivory-colored coupon books are in amounts of $2, $7, $40, $50 and $65.

FNS advised retailers to redeem the current food coupons as soon as possible. Banks will continue to accept them for redemption until Aug. 1 of this year.

EARL MILLER, director of music at Wayland Baptist College in Plainview, will present his Belringers at First United Methodist Church in Olton Sunday night, March, 2 at 7 p.m. They will have complete charge of the evening worship service. The local church members plan to serve supper to the visiting group at 6 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of First United Methodist Church.

Check Policy Periodically For Pay-Off

It's a good idea to periodically check the type of pay-off plan for your beneficiary, the Veterans Administration has advised veterans holding government life insurance policies.

"All too often," Jack Coker, VA Regional Director, stressed, "widows of GI policyholders have been penalized following deaths of husbands who have selected small monthly payments."

In some cases, veterans chose smaller payments for life more than 25 years ago, and never updated their policies.

Veterans who now wish to switch to lump sum payments should request Form 29-336 from VA and select option No. 1. This would allow widows to select monthly payments should they deem it necessary.

Veterans should mail completed forms to the VA insurance center where they pay premiums.

BULA NEWS

RHEA LYN CASEY, Lisa Risinger and James Snitker entered lambs in the Bailey County lamb and swine show over the past weekend. Each animal placed in the show.

MR. AND MRS. Gene Pickard and boys, J. W., Chuck and Gary and her father, J. L. Jacobs, were in Sudan this Sunday to attend the all-day get-together for the Assembly of God Church. Dinner was spread at the noon hour following the morning worship. In the afternoon an old fashioned singing was enjoyed. Among the out-of-town guests were the Celestial Express, a choir of 11 voices from Lubbock. Rev. Jacobs, the pastor of the Sudan church is the son of J. L. Jacobs.

MR. AND MRS. John McCormack, and children Danny, Heather and Cornell, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo McCormack at Clovis Thursday afternoon until Sunday afternoon. All of the children from away got stranded in the snow and ice storm and had to remain over until Sunday-afternoon. Thursday night they enjoyed a family get-together. Other children also to be at the home of their parents were Mr. and Mrs. Gary McCormack and children from Sheridan, Wyo., Mr. and Mrs. Randy McCormack and children from Borger and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Pickle and small daughter of Clovis.

MRS. NETTIE (Grandma) Blackman, who has been a resident of the West Plains Nursing Home for several years, has not been doing too well the past few days.

BENNIE CLAUNCH is in Houston this week attending the stock show, as he took steers to be entered.

WMU MET Tuesday afternoon for their weekly study. Mrs. Williams had charge of the lesson. For the study they had the first two chapters of their new mission book, "Missions in Moasic". Mrs. Richardson, prayer chairman, read the call to prayer and Mrs. Pierce gave the opening prayer and prayer for the missionaries. Mrs. Battles gave the closing prayer. Attending were Mmes. E. O. Battles, P. R. Pierce, Rowena Richardson and Miss Vina Tugman.

MR. AND MRS. W. R. Adams drove to Lubbock Tuesday and spent the day and night with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Genita Harris.

LESTER BOUNDS, Bula school agriculture teacher, was awakened early Wednesday morning, being almost overcome with asphyxiation. Gas escaping from a faulty hot water heater was thought to be the cause. He was taken and hospitalized in the Littlefield Hospital.

MR. AND MRS. Marvin Skinner from Dodge City, Kans. were visiting with friends in the Bula community Tuesday afternoon. The Skinners, with their children, lived in the Bula community for several years, before moving to Kansas.

MR. AND MRS. Allan Jones and children Melissa and Gregg, from Hart, spent from Friday until Sunday with her parents the Ivan Clawsons.

MR. AND MRS. Ray Kennn son and girls Kim and Dusty of Olton, visited Sunday afternoon with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bogard.

Income Averaging, Important Tax Tool

With farm and ranch income fluctuating considerably from 1973 to 1974, producers may want to consider a technique called "income averaging."

"Income averaging" can reduce taxes in situations where taxable income changes measurably from year to year. For the technique to apply, taxable income for 1974 must be at least $3,000 more than 30 percent of the total taxable income for the four immediately preceding tax years.

In addition to ordinary income, capital gains on the sale of livestock and other assets may also be included in income averaging.

For income averaging, complete Schedule G and turn it in along with Form 1040. It is not necessary to file amended returns for the four preceding years, but information from the tax returns from these years must be available to compute the tax for the current year.

A simple check may be made to determine if income averaging will save tax dollars. First, total the "taxable income" for the prior four years and then multiply that figure by 30 percent. If the result is more than $3,000 below the current year's taxable income, averaging can be used.

With income averaging, the progressive rate schedule is eliminated on the top four-fifths of averageable income.

The deadline for filing farm and ranch income tax returns is March 3 unless an estimated return was filed. In that case the deadline for the final return is April 15.

Sorghum Comparison To Highlight Conference

The nutritional value of grain sorghum versus corn will be the topic of discussion during the March 6 session of the ninth biennial Grain Sorghum Research and Utilization Conference in Lubbock.

Participating in the panel discussion will be leading nutritionists from throughout the state including Dr. L. S. Pope, serving as moderator, Dr. T. D. Tanksley Jr., swine specialist, Dr. Lloyd Sherrod, cattle specialist and Dr. James Osborn, economist.

Sponsored by Grain Sorghum Producers Association and Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board, the two-day research conference opens at 4 p.m. March 4 and will conclude at noon March 6 with an awards luncheon. All activities will be conducted at South Park Inn on Loop 289. More than 300 plant scientists and animal nutritionists are expected to attend.

A. W. "Dub" Anthony, Jr. of Friona, president of Grain Sorghum Producers Association, will serve as general chairman of the March 6 activities. C. C. "Pap" Reed of Kress, chairman of the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board, will serve as chairman of the March 5 activities which include discussions on exports and the foreign livestock industry, as well as grain sorghum physiology.

The Plains Nutrition Council and the Sorghum Improvement Committee of North America will conduct their meetings in conjunction with the two-day conference.

GSPA will conduct its annual business meeting following adjournment of the conference March 6. Highlight of the GSPA meeting will be a talk by Glen Weir of Washington, D. C., associate administrator of the USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Father's Role Important In Infant's Early Years

"It's not always easy for a father to be content during the first year of a baby's life in a supporting role to his wife and child," says Dorothy Taylor, family life education specialist at Texas A&M.

"Although fathers are familiar figures to an infant, a real father-child relationship doesn't begin until the second year," the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, specialist said.

"Many fathers want to be actively involved in childrearing. They want to parent, rather than be a mother-substitute, nursemaid or provider of physical needs. They seek personal response from the child.

"Often it's frustrating to new fathers when the very young child looks to his mother for feeding, bedtime and emotional comfort and to the father for play and acrobatic sessions," the specialist noted.

The Consumer Alert

In past columns, we've talked about the problem of consumer debt. Today, let's discuss the means available to solve the problem.

As we pointed out previously, the first step in getting out of debt is for the consumer to face the fact that he or she is in it.

And the earlier that fact is acknowledged the better, say our Consumer Protection attorneys.

Some consumers refuse to realize that their monthly outgo consistently exceeds their income. It doesn't take many months of such imbalance for the problem to have reached such proportions that creditors may be insisting on payment in full.

Much publicity is currently being given to the use of bankruptcy by average consumers as a way to resolve debts. Is bankruptcy the solution? It can be, for some persons. But filing a bankruptcy petition in federal court is a serious step and one which should be taken only with full understanding of the consequences.

Much less drastic measures can often solve the problems consumers may have with debt. But, again, the effectiveness of such methods frequently depends on facing the problems before they get out of hand.

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division has published "A Practical Primer for the Texas Consumer." In it, our attorneys recommend that consumers who find that illness, job problems, or other reasons have made them unable to meet their bills notify their creditors and explain the situation.

Most creditors will try to help you through a difficult time by rearranging your payment schedule or amount. After all, for them it is better to receive payment late than not at all.

Some consumers find that they need financial counselling to help them get out of debt and avoid getting back into it. There are several places to turn for such assistance.

Banks— Many banks offer financial counselling to their customers.

Attorneys— Private attorneys may help with financial problems, especially when there is the possibility of legal action.

Child and family service agencies— These local affiliates of United Way provide help with family problems and those involving children. If money worries or credit difficulties are contributing to a family's problems, the family is usually referred to volunteer experts who can supply financial counselling.

Credit unions— Credit unions frequently provide financial counselling to members.

Legal aid societies— Local legal aid societies can assist low-income consumers with credit problems, although of necessity such assistance is usually aimed at helping consumers who are already involved in legal procedures resulting from their debt.

National Foundation for Consumer Credit— This is a non-profit organization with local affiliates which serve their community by providing consumer credit counselling at no cost to the debtor.

At present, only Dallas and Corpus Christi have such affiliated organizations. The Office of the Consumer Credit Commissioner of Texas is working with interested groups and individuals who hope to establish a state network of such non-profit agencies.

Operating funds for such organizations frequently come from contributions by individuals, businesses, and those creditors participating in a repayment program.

Spokesmen for one consumer credit counselling service say many people using the service need only to receive advice in setting up a family financial plan and budget.

Others need remedial help, which involves contacting creditors and working out a suitable payment schedule.

For assistance with consumer debt, try contacting one of the groups mentioned above. For assistance with consumer complaints, contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division, your county or district attorney, or your local Better Business Bureau.

Most businessmen have at one time or another been approached—and possibly even pressured—to buy goods or services they can't use or don't want.

The usual response to such sales tactics is a firm "no," or some variation thereof. certain firms or individuals have devised a method of that sometimes makes fulfillment or impossible to

They specialize in unsorted merchandise bill for payment, or in "promotional billings" latter are direct solicitations for goods or services that are designed like invoices.

In both cases, the businessmen have not assumed the order or invoice authorized and pay for it. It's especially easy for a person may be in charge purchasing and another charge of accounting.

The Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division lawyers report that instances of receipt of unsorted merchandise and such solicitations have occurred in Texas and that other states experiencing similar occurrences.

For example, some businessmen have notified Better Business Bureau salesmen for an out-of-state company have called distance to offer a prize on a radio to the employees of the firm a name and address which they later send unsorted light bulbs, along with a letter.

Our Consumer Protection attorneys remind businessmen that both state and federal laws now protect recipients of unsorted merchandise. If you receive unsorted goods by mail, you don't have to pay for or return them, unless they were delivered accidentally. In such case, the burden of proof is on the sender.

Many of the "promotional billings" are either for a copy of an "international business directory" or for a listing such a publication. The Postal Service is currently investigating a number of mailings that come from away as Hong Kong, Australia.

Another deceptive solicitation is the high-pressure "opportunity" or "ministry" appeal. Our Consumer Protection Division has had a number of complaints about such West Coast firms which special WATS telephone line calls all over the country urging placement of advertising in various "minority publications." Some businessmen contacted these firms have refused to place ads but have alleged they later were billed for the ad.

U.S. Postal authorities are investigating the possibility of mail fraud by such firms, but that persons making such appeals often are not members of the minority group and do not represent any minority organization. In addition, many of these cases, no information is available as to the publication or its circulation and the only known address is a post office box.

Even the Attorney General's office is not immune to "sympathy" appeals. Numerous requests for advertising in a publication supposedly directed toward minority religious denominations were received by our office during the recent holiday season.

Our office followed the advice we give to others:

1. If an appeal is received from an unfamiliar group, do not be sent more information. Get the name, address and telephone number of the individual or the group. Do not commit yourself until you have all information in writing.

2. If the appeal is for advertising in an unfamiliar publication, ask to be sent a recent copy of the publication along with an advertising schedule giving prices for various ad sizes and frequency of placement. You may want to ask for information about circulation. An advertising bureau circulation report, sworn circulation statement, or a sworn postal statement can give proof of circulation.

3. Check with the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division, your county or district attorney, or the Better Business Bureau to learn if any complaints have been received about the publication, group, individual making the appeal.

Tuberculosis Program Disease In Check

Tuberculosis is still an active problem in Texas, and it has even greater threat for the State Health Department's Child-Centered Tuberculosis Program.

More than a half-million children are examined annually by the Health Department's Tuberculosis Program, and schools keep records of examinations given to all children.

First and seventh graders were chosen by the Health Department for the child-centered approach for a reason. First graders have spent most of their lives at home, or in close proximity to their families, and therefore have limited contacts. These contacts can be easily traced, and the probability is good that an infection was obtained in the home.

Seventh graders, on the other hand, represent a higher risk age. And, it is at this point that they begin to move around more and begin their social activities.

By testing youngsters, discovering reactors, and tracing their contacts, it makes possible the earlier discovery of those with active TB. Early diagnosis of tuberculosis makes the disease that much easier to treat—and cure. In the past few years the severity of disease in those diagnosed for the first time has shown a percentage decline—demonstrating that the disease is being discovered earlier.

Another benefit of child testing is that it gives health authorities an index of the extent of the disease in each community. This is a meaningful indicator which will be used in follow-up activities. Time and money can be saved in tuberculosis epidemiology through this pinpointing of disease incidence.

Tuberculosis is an age-old disease, but it is responding to space-age treatment. People can be cured of TB, mostly without the long hospitalization of yesteryear. But, it is important to discover the disease early and begin treatment.

This Child-Centered Tuberculosis Program is giving the State Health Department a big lead on the disease in many cases. And, through testing of school personnel, the program helps assure that the school child is provided with an environment relatively free of the dangerous disease—tuberculosis.

Reactors is important to see if an active reactor is found in the family physician for or to attend a Health clinic. During the year the number of reactors—2160—was small, attesting to the decline in tuberculosis in the state.

Last year, for instance, 2,224 new active tuberculosis were found in groups. A reactor is found in the program, another phase

Retiring Tax Payers May Take Sick Pay

Taxpayers who retire on disability before reaching mandatory retirement age may now exclude up to $100 a week in disability payments from their income as tax-free sick pay, according to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

Walter Perry, administrative officer in charge of the Plainview office of the IRS, said that some retirees may also be able to obtain refunds on taxes paid in previous years when taxpayers included their disability payments as part of their taxable income.

He noted that retirees may claim the sick pay exclusion for their disability payments only until they reach the age at which retirement is required by their employer. For example, many employers set mandatory retirement at age 65.

Retirees who feel they are entitled to refunds would file amended returns (Form 1040X) or claims for refund (Form 843) to claim the sick pay exclusion. There are certain limitations, however, and Perry suggests that retirees with questions about the sick pay exclusion contact the IRS for details.

Taxpayers with questions on this or any other tax matter can get toll-free tax assistance from the IRS by dialing 800-492-4830.

Transportation Program Now In Operation Here

A new Senior Citizens Rural Transportation Program has been inaugurated by the Farmers Union Community Development Association. The program is designed to provide transportation on a regularly scheduled basis for older people who have limited access to transportation facilities.

The program is funded through the Governor's Committee on Aging and is administered through the Development Association in cooperation with the Governor's Committee on Aging and Texas Green Thumb.

"This is a major breakthrough for older people living in isolated locations," states Farmers Union Community Development Association President Jay Naman of Waco. "We are most pleased that the Governor's Committee on Aging has contracted the program to us. Transportation facilities are always high on the list of needs reported by older Americans, and this is even truer in rural areas. We hope that this service will alleviate many of the hardships endured by our older citizens in rural areas caused by their isolation," said Naman.

The pilot program, first of its size in Texas, is operating in eighteen rural counties: Lamb, Hale, Crosby, Falls, Terry, Leon, Bell, Williamson, Lee, Garza, Navarro, Milam, Dickens, Lampasas, Floyd, Hockley, Mills and Briscoe.

TFU Green Thumb State Director David Hartwig has assigned Green Thumb enrollees as drivers in the counties where there is also a Green Thumb project. Hartwig is also serving as coordinator for the transportation program.

Local sponsoring agencies such as cities, counties, neighborhood centers and community action councils provide a twenty-five percent matching fund for operation of the system in their respective areas. This matching consists of either cash donations or in-kind contributions—gas, maintenance, supervision, etc.

The Governor's Committee on Aging awarded a two-year contract to the Farmers Union Community Development Association for purchase, maintenance, insurance and administration of the program.

Farm Census Is Now Due

More than half of the 4 million 1974 Census of Agriculture report forms mailed to farms and ranches nationwide have already been completed and returned, the Bureau of the Census reports.

The Bureau, part of the Department of Commerce's Social and Economic Statistics Administration, mailed the forms right after Christmas and this rate of return is well ahead of the rate in 1969 when the farm census was first taken by mail.

Bureau officials say that the quality of the reporting is good. Farmers who have not mailed in their completed forms can save time if they will read the instructions carefully before filling out the form.

Particular attention is called to the "skip" questions at the beginning of the sections on crops and the sections on livestock, as well as for many of the individual sections. A check in the "No" box at the head of the crops section, if no crops were raised, or at the head of the livestock section, if there were no livestock or poultry operations, enables the farmer to skip individual questions in that section. Every farmer's report form is confidential by law. No other Government agency can ever obtain or use the report made by any farmer.

Only sworn Census Bureau employees who check and process the completed forms ever see them. And sworn census employees are subject to two years imprisonment or $1,000 fine, or both for disclosure of information furnished on individual report forms.

The U.S. House of Representatives Subcommittee on Census and Statistics had this to say about Census Bureau confidentiality: "There has never been a single claim substantiated that the Bureau of the Census has made individual information available outside the Bureau or that the Bureau has ever used any information received other than for authorized purposes."

The only authorized purposes are for statistical totals. Even here, the census law on confidentiality holds. Statistical tables must be published in such a way that no individual, no farm, no business can be identified.

For example, suppose one large ranch that over most of a county will be published for the that would make it possible for an informed reader to identify confidential information on the big ranch.

The same public law imposes confidentiality on Census Bureau tables made by farm operators. The completed forms are mailed back in the addressed return envelope with the forms enclosed with the forms.

The '74 Farm Census be closed out until every mailed out is accounted for, thus, the sooner the forms returned, the sooner they can be made available.

Census by mail operators to fill out their at their convenience and their farm business. Estimates are acceptable.

Tight Money When money is tight, it is wise to spend it to do the most to fight cancer. A contribution to the American Cancer Society is a way of doing this.

NEARLY 100 farmers attended the annual Farm Facts Day and Soil Fertility Program here Monday. The program was sponsored by the Lamb County Crops Committee of the County Extension Service and featured specialists on several phases of farming. Delta and Pine Land Company of Lubbock provided the noon barbecue. (Staff Photo)

Eastern Star Program Honors Dignitaries

Littlefield Chapter No. 742 Order of the Eastern Star met in regular session in the Littlefield Masonic Lodge Thursday night, Feb. 20.

Worthy Matron Mary Beth Willey opened the chapter in ritualistic form and Worthy Patron Oscar Tomlinson led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Sister Flora Best Boone, Past Grand Matron, Grand Chapter of Texas, Order of the Eastern Star was presented and escorted to the East.

Visiting Grand Officers introduced were Lois Howell of Lubbock, Bulletin Committee; Fae Holmes of Lubbock, Good Turns Committee; Patricia Oliver of Levelland, New Horizons Committee; Cynthia Hughes of Levelland, Good Turns Committee; Lloyd Wicks of Ralls, Masonic Brothers Committee. Janice Aaron of the Littlefield Chapter serving as a Grand Officer of the Brilliance Committee was also introduced. Other guests introduced were Mildred Wicks and Mary Helen Jamerson from Ralls.

The minutes, correspondence and bills were read. Janice Aaron, Mother Advisor of the Rainbow Girls, invited all members to attend the Rainbow initiation on March 13th. Reports were given concerning the bake sale and the OES school and fraternal visit in Lubbock on February 15th.

Those receiving "A" certificates at the school of instruction were Mary Beth Willey, Mary Jo Weige, Janice Aaron, Bill Weige, Weldon Findley, Grace Findley, Finus Branham and Joyce Branham. It was voted to honor the Masons and their families with dinner on the evening of April 12th and all members of the Eastern Star and Masonic Lodge are invited and urged to attend.

Refreshments were served in the dining hall by Mary Beth Willey and Sharon Collins. Also assisting with the refreshments but unable to attend were Dixie Hall and David Roden.

The charter was draped in memory of two deceased members Mrs. Anna Selsor and Allene Glazner. It was voted to send a contribution to the American Cancer Society in memory of Mrs. Glazner. Benny Hall was reported ill and hospitalized in Lubbock.

The chapter was closed in ritualistic form and after the retiring drill Mary Joe Weige presented the program in honor of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons. The 17 Past Matrons and three Past Patrons were presented a remembrance gift from the Worthy Matron, Mary Beth Willey.

Lois Howell, Cynthia Hughes and Lloyd Wicks presented the Worthy Grand Matron's projects for the year.

Teachers Facing Unification Issue

The proposed unification of the Texas State Teachers Association with the National Education Association is again expected to be the top item of business at TSTA's 96th annual convention March 20-22 at the Astrodome Convention Center in Houston.

Registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. March 20. The convention will be adjourned at the end of the final business session March 22.

Last year at the state convention in Fort Worth, the association's 1,500-member house of delegates (governing body) approved TSTA-NEA unification, but members rejected it in a mail referendum which followed.

The delegates, however, had kept the door open for another try at unification in case the referendum failed by passing a new business item calling for TSTA officers to continue working to keep TSTA as the Texas state affiliate of NEA.

The TSTA executive committee and staff are now engaged in an intensive campaign to inform the more than 159,000 TSTA members of the advantages of unification and the probable results if TSTA again rejects the proposal and loses affiliation with NEA next Sept. 1.

The 1975 house of delegates again will consider the issue when it meets March 21 in the first of four scheduled business sessions. If the delegates approve, another statewide referendum will be held.

Carl Rowan, syndicated newspaper columnist and author, will speak at the first general session Thursday night, March 20.
