Lower Telephone Rates Into Effect Soon

Since telephone rate changes are being implemented, customers who dial their own numbers within Texas and take special calling periods have been advised by General Telephone of the Southwest.

Operator assisted calls will cost more in the area that go into effect Sept. 1. Telephone President L. Gray says new lower direct distance rates will also benefit customers who do not yet have.

These customers cannot dial direct, they will be charged the rate on station-to-station calls placed by the operator and the complete seven digit number. Of course no operator assistance can be used on the call without other charges.

The lower rates for direct station-to-station calls parallel the increase in the cost of calls for operator assistance while incentive to customers who dial themselves.

Change in the calling structure for rate periods for day and weekend calls within the area are the same as those now in effect for calls going outside Texas.

Days, Labor Day and July 4, to New Year's Day, and Christmas Day.

When reduced rates apply all day for direct dialed calls.

Another change will establish a one-minute initial rate period between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. rather than the usual three-minute initial rate period. Additional charges are made for each minute following the initial rate period.

"In other words," Beck said, "if you call any time other than between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m., you will be charged for three minutes regardless of whether you talk one, two or three minutes. You are also charged for each additional minute after the first three."

"Under the new schedule, after 11 p.m. you will be charged only for each minute you talk, with a few exceptions."

He explained that under present rates, an evening rate call for a distance of 300 miles costs 85 cents. The same call under the new customer dialed-rate for those with DDD who provide the Area Code and complete number for the operator will be 66 cents. The same call placed by a customer who can dial the number himself but prefers to place his call with the operator will cost $1.25, regardless of time of day.

Beck further explained that this same 300-mile station-to-station call dialed by the customer after 11 p.m. will cost only 20 cents for one minute, a much lower rate. In contrast, he said the same call made person-to-person after September 1 will cost $2.30, regardless of the time of day. The present rate is $1.70.

"Providing the equipment to make DDD available to customers is expensive. If this equipment is idle while someone is placing a call with the operator that could be dialed direct, the expense is even higher since providing operator assistance also is expensive."

"So we are placing the increase where it belongs, and giving a savings to the customer who dials the call himself," Beck stated.

Man Seriously Injured

A Sudan man, Herb Potter, was seriously injured in an accident in Sudan about 3 p.m. Thursday when he fell off the service bed of a Southwestern Public Service pickup truck. Potter, 61, is SWPS manager at Sudan.

Potter was replacing a light when he fell and landed on his back. He sustained four broken ribs, a broken collar bone and a punctured lung.

He was taken to South Plains Hospital in Amherst, then transferred to the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Officers Arrest 6, Check Three Thefts

Six persons were jailed and three thefts were investigated by Lamb County sheriff's deputies this week.

Arrests included Placido Cano, 30, of Littlefield, who was jailed Wednesday night and charged with violation of probation.

Matilde Rangel, 35, was arrested Thursday afternoon and charged with violation of parole.

Friday the 13th proved to be an unlucky day for four persons. Friday three were arrested on vagrancy charges and one for attempted forgery.

Clay Lee Cooper, 20, of 1307 W. 2nd, Littlefield; Clint K. Williams, 20, of Plymouth, Mich.; and Michael Dennis Niznik, 18, of Overland, Mo. were all arrested at 2:30 a.m. Friday and charged with vagrancy.

Mary Lopez, 24, was arrested Friday afternoon on a charge of attempted forgery.

Leonard Steuart reported the theft of a meat block valued at $46 taken from in front of the old Serape Cafe Tuesday night.

Kenneth Haire of Bainer Switch reported the theft of a National cutting torch with a 25' hose valued at $135, several regulators, a Pronto 8" gear puller valued at $35, a ridged pipe threader valued at $35, and ridged pipe wrenches valued at $18.

Dale Weaver reported the theft of a green tool box with a number of assorted tools valued at $150 that was taken from the back of his pickup last Friday night.

DEBBIE HAFLEY, loaded down with back-to-school trappings, and Dianne Milligan, holding her black cat, Elmer, argue over which date on the calendar is the unluckiest, Friday the 13th or August 25th. Friday was the first and only Friday the 13th in 1971, and August 25th is the first day of school for the 1971 fall term. The two Littlefield High School students wound up agreeing that August 25th is the unluckiest of the two days since school lasts nine months compared to just one day with the hex put on it. Debbie is a 17-year-old senior student at LHS and the daughter of Mrs. Georgia Hafley. Dianne is 15, an LHS sophomore and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Milligan.

SWPS Observes 50th Anniversary

How does a company decide when it is going to celebrate its 50th anniversary year?

In the case of Southwestern Public Service Company, the decision was made late last year by the simple expedient of impressing the corporate seal on a piece of plain white paper.

When the resulting impression read, "Incorporated, 1921", 1971 became the electric company's golden anniversary year.

Up until that decision making moment, five different years could make some kind of a case for being the birth year, with one of them going all the way back to 1894. The others were 1904, 1925, and 1942, and the winner, 1921.

1921 won the battle because, in addition to being the year that came up on the seal, it was also the year of organization of the company, which, 4 years later, took on the name of Southwestern Public Service Company.

The 1921 company which became today's Southwestern, was the Roswell Public Service Company. Among its incorporators was Hi Dow, well-known New Mexico pioneer and a director and general counsel for Southwestern Public Service Company until his death in 1969.

The name change to Southwestern Public Service Company came in 1925 which was also the year that expansion began with the purchase of electric systems in Artesia and Carlsbad.

This was also the year the company first began operations in Texas, with the purchase of the electric systems in Amarillo, Pampa and Panhandle.

The 1920's are the most interesting years in the electrical development of this region.

The region was then, basically, a cluster of small towns, each of which had its own inadequate, and usually antiquated, electric supplier. There were few, if any interconnections, with other communities or electric systems. Most of the towns were only large enough to be served by a

MARK YOUR POOLS
 Large backyard swimming pools should be divided by depth lines, just the same way that municipal pools are. Depth lines tend to keep swimmers where they belong, according to their experience, instead of letting people swim out "over their heads."

Woman Falls Out Of Car Window

A 20-year-old woman fell out of the window of a car driven by a 12-year-old boy Thursday afternoon, then the 12-year-old ran the '63 Ford off the roadway into a ditch.

The incident occurred a half-mile north of the radio station about 6:45 p.m.

Rosa Alvarez fell out the right side window, and the driver ran off the road and down the embankment. A highway patrolman was called to make an accident report.

CHECK CONDITIONS

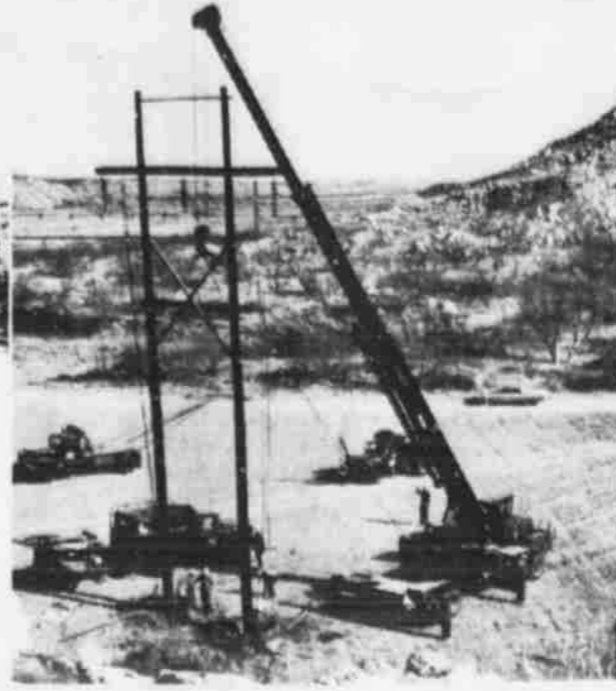

Always check weather conditions before setting off on a boat trip. Mother Nature doesn't always cooperate but she does always get her way. She can turn a long, happy trip into a short tragic one.

FUN IN SUN

Summertime fun in the sun should be tempered by thoughts of safety. Drowning is the fourth leading cause of accidental death. Do be careful. Don't be a statistic.

30 years ago the year Southern Public Service Company was born, raising transmission poles was literally a matter of horse and man power as pictured above. In the company's golden anniversary year, it's not a question of lift, set and tamp, as seen at right, nearly all of it done mechanically.

BULA

MRS. JOHN BLACKMAN 933-2328

THE BULA Community received some good moisture early Sunday morning with precipitation varying from two inches to three and half inches. Late Tuesday evening a pop-up cloud gave farmers north and northwest of Bula a hard blowing rain with some damaging hail. The Nolan Harlans reported 1.7 inches of rain and some hail in fifteen minutes. Several farms over in that area received damaging hail. Wednesday afternoon more showers were received with tornados reported in the area.

MR. AND MRS. V. C. Weaver were in Kansas last week to visit relatives and attend funeral for his uncle, Von Waltke.

Regular meeting date will be each Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the church.

JUANA YOUNG returned home Monday after spending the summer doing work at Polly Tech in Russellville, Ark.

Dennis and Keith Sponsors are Ben Green, Mrs. John Green, Mrs. Larry McCarty.

MR. AND MRS. Black and children Sherry and Susan are resting in the Mountains this week.

What Is A Hippie?

Dear Editor:
I am writing this letter so it might help me find out what hippie really means. I've got two teenage boys, one 19 years old in the Army, another 17 years old in high school. They both wear long hair and for a fact I know they have been hippies and so on, and since I don't know what hippie means, I might be letting people get away with calling my boys names I don't approve of. I've known some boys who have been wearing long hair and beards since they were in diapers. They all come from good families and are good-hearted boys. They will break their necks to give anybody in need a helping hand and still are called hippies because of how they dress and wear their hair. I asked a person once, "What is a hippie?" and that person said it was either slang or short for hypocrites. If that's what it means, now then we should all be called hippies, even the bald-headed ones because in one way or another, we all are hypocrites at one time or another. Come on people, let's give all these boys a chance, remember they are our leaders of tomorrow.

HOMINY GRITS

By CORNBALL BLEVINS

YEP, THE SMALL TOWN seems to be having it's problems. A lot of rural America lives in and about small towns.

The most miserable of small towns are the ones that have the largest growing pains. You know, like the little guy that always insists on buying the highest heeled boots.

WHEN WE CAN ACCEPT ourselves for what we are, we'll be a lot happier. Whether it's the size of our bodies, or, the size of our town.

The hustle and bustle of the large cities are for those that like it. Me—I can be satisfied with the leisurely pace of the small town.

OH, NO, I DON'T like to see our town shrink and grow smaller all the time, but neither would I want to see us promote growth by catering to the greedy and the promoters—if you know what I mean.

But, when you are small enough that each merchant and/or customer is a personal acquaintance and, perhaps, friend, it do make a difference.

IT WOULD BE HARD for me to sell such a person a "Bill-of-Goods", even if I wanted to. Even if you're a good liar it would be hard for you to lie to these people, whom you know you'll be seeing tomorrow and the next day and so on.

Maybe that's the reason we're small town. We just aren't greedy enough. Oh, sure, we have a few people here that want to own all the land adjoining theirs, but they're few in number. AND, (another small town advantage) most of us know who they are, so we can keep an eye on them.

YEAH, I KNOW, I was raised up around this country. I really don't know much about any place else. However, I've never had much desire to leave. I can't cotton to the idea of being a "stranger" in some great metropolis. Perhaps I'm a coward. I suspect.

So, I regard our town with an air of possessiveness. It's "MY" town, the what I actually own amounts to nothing. The people are my kind of people. We understand each other.

WHEN WE MEET on the street, we can speak to each other and pass the time of day. Sure, there's a FEW high-hats having social ambitions, but, for the most part, we're just commoners. Is that bad?

Perhaps I don't have much ambition for our little city? Well, I guess I have as much ambition for the town as I have for myself.

I'VE LONG SINCE given up the idea of becoming "filthy-rich" and have resolved myself to be happy on the little I have. I've found that I can save myself a lot of pain that way.

Given the choice between "being happy or rich", I'll choose happy any time. Let the young and ambitious, the daring and adventurous build the great cities. Believe I'll just relax and enjoy watchin' them work!

THE PHILOSOPHER

High Costs

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has some trouble with the high cost of space science this week, his letter indicates.)

Dear editor:
I've tried everything from reading month-old newspapers to watching re-runs on television to figuring out how we can have two Chinas in the United Nations, which shouldn't be too hard in view of the fact we've got two Dakotas and two Virginias in the United States, not to mention one Texas, but still I can't get my mind off that moon buggy. I mean, its price: Eight million dollars.

As I understand it, the buggy was powered by four quarter-horse electric motors about the size of the one in your washing machine, one on each wheel, had special wire tires, seat belts, a bunch of batteries, no top, and a high-powered television camera. It didn't have a steering wheel, just a stick that controlled the four quarter-horse motors.

While my knowledge of auto manufacturing is about as close to zero as you can get, although I know the companies do have an engineer whose main job is to design a hood release latch so it'll never be in the same place one model to the next, I have decided that the hardest thing about building an 8-million-dollar moon car is making it cost 8 million dollars.

Fifty thousand dollars....Maybe, considering inflation and all, a hundred thousand dollars, but 8 million dollars? For four electric motors, wire wheels, no top and a television camera?

How many sleepless nights did the designers and engineers have to spend to get that much money into one small car? They're bound to have had the help of four Congressional Committees and eighteen State Legislatures, with possibly a dozen or so big city mayors thrown in and no doubt a few of the engineers who design highway cloverleaf interchanges, working I guess on double-time, triple-time, quadruple-time....I could go on but I don't know what the word for the next multiple is.

Anyway, making the car cost 8 million dollars is nearabout as great a scientific feat as hauling it to the moon. That price of course was F.O.B. the launch pad. When you figure in the transportation charges thereafter...hold on to your hat and hang on.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

"Come in, gentlemen. You're just in time for cocktails!"

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Well-Doing

By BOB WEAR

WELL-DOING IS the way to well-being and to becoming well-loved. None of us are naive enough to think that everybody is consciously engaged in well-doing.

We must not, however, overlook the fact that many people do devote themselves and what they have to well-doing. We are thankful for these people, and for what they do.

Their lives shed forth the light that shines in the darkness, and their behavior is a source of encouragement and produces the power for human upbuilding.

THE BENEFITS derived from well-doing are many, and touch the lives of many people.

This is, and has always been, one of the hopeful and helpful parts of the total human experience.

This life pattern becomes more noteworthy when we realize that the best rewards go to the persons who perform good work.

THERE IS NOTHING better than doing the best we can with what we have, and doing all of the good we can to all of the people we can.

Our capacity for well-doing increases through usage. We can see more to do that is helpful and constructive; we grow stronger by exercise; and we develop a type of skill that we never expected to have.

We become wise in what we do, so that our well-doing is "well done". This includes both our personal behavior, and the good we do for others.

THIS WELL-DOING has none of the elements of being a busybody, or the undesirable and harmful spirit of the "do-gooders".

It includes the understanding and interest which enable us to perform with the good taste necessary to make "what we do" most acceptable, because of "the way we do it".

MOST OF US, perhaps all of us, can learn to use ourselves and what we have in the kind of well-doing that will be a blessing to us, and to many, many other people.

LACK OF APPRECIATION is probably the most common cause of discouragement to the people who are interested in well-doing.

Many persons who make a good beginning, and continue, with enthusiasm for a while, grow weary. Of course, there are many different causes; but the lack of appreciation is probably the greatest deterrent.

WHAT IS THE SOLUTION? It is obvious. We must continue in well-doing as a preferred way of life; and not because others appreciate it. There will be some appreciation.

"Let no man be sorry he has done good, because others have done evil! If a man has acted right, he has done well, though alone; if wrong, the sanction of all mankind will not justify him."—Fielding.

WELL-DOING WILL meet most of our personal needs, and most of the needs of human society.

PAUL HARVEY

Rob A Bank?

BUFFALO, N.Y., what do you know! Police tracked the armed robber of this suburban savings and loan association. And when they caught him and recovered the money and pulled the stocking off his head it turned out to be Frank Beniak. Known as Frank Benny, a popular performer on local radio and TV.

DO YOU KNOW that banks are being robbed six or seven a day? FBI call it an "epidemic."

Let's explore the ins and outs of this booming business.

Ten years ago we thought there was a terrible rash of bank robberies—more than one a day.

SO BANKS BEGAN hiring additional armed guards. Elaborate camera surveillance and other electronic protection devices were installed.

Today there are four times more bank robberies than ten!

The most obvious causative factor is narcotics.

DRUG ADDICTS, desperate for big money to support an expensive habit, are willing to take the big risk.

In Washington, Atlanta, New York and Detroit, police report that most bank robbers of 10 years ago were pros; today's are amateurs; many are drug-addicted teen-agers.

THE OLD PROS were sophisticated, cool. Today's young hotheads have nervous trigger fingers.

Yet, though many lawmen risk their lives to keep the arrest rate for bank robbers as high as 75 percent most of the robbers have difficulty negotiating bail and parole.

LAST MARCH, FBI Director Hoover complained to Congress about unrealistic and unworkable parole and probation procedures—so frequently resulting in more crime, more loss, more tragedy.

He told about two men charged with a gunpoint robbery in a Washington, D.C., bank last year. Arrested within hours, they had the money on them and a quantity of narcotics. Both were promptly identified by witnesses and investigation revealed one had a previous conviction for bank robbery. He pleaded guilty, was sentenced to 10 years. But he was out and at it again within less than one year.

THE HIGH COS the cost of crime is paid by you. Every bank robbery costs you increased interest rates on loans, decreased interest on savings, decreased dividends.

The First National Bank of Chicago maintains a special 125-man police force and has spent $1.5 million installing an elaborate electronic protection system.

THE BANK'S stockholders and customers must pay that increased overhead.

U.S. News and World Report surveyed banks nationwide and discovered Washington, D.C., is the "bank robbery capital of the world." The first half of this year 58 financial offices were robbed.

Two district banks were robbed six times in 8 days! The main office of one of those banks, across the street from the Treasury Department, one block from the White House, has been robbed twice in five months.

MOST, APPREHENDED, are users or addicts.

It is this and other manifestations of dope traffic that have caused President Nixon to "threaten" the narcotic-producing countries, Turkey, Laos, Thailand, in perhaps the least diplomatic language he has ever used.

As Southwestern celebrates its 50th Anniversary this year, it has 2,000,000 kilowatts of generating capability and the turbine floor at Plant X, near Earth, is nearly as long as two football fields. Houses four turbine-generators with a combined capability of 18 kilowatts.

ANNIVERSARY

single circuit, and if something happened the whole town was out of power until it was repaired.

This was an era which also brought some communities electric service for the first time. In late 1926, for example, Southwestern built a transmission line from Amarillo to Pampa and brought electric service to White Deer, for the first time—on Christmas Eve.

There was still considerable fragmentation insofar as electric service was concerned and parts of seven companies, each of them a subsidiary of at least one holding company—were serving throughout the area.

It was apparent that the electric service needs of the area could be met even more efficiently and economically if it were served by a single, independent, operating company, devoid of holding company ties, locally managed and immediately responsive to area needs.

The Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and cooperation between government and business made this integration possible.

The holding company subsidiaries which had been serving the region were merged into a single entity, Southwestern Public Service Company, an independent, integrated operating company. It was the first such company, incidentally, to result from the application of the Holding Company Act.

Thus it was, as the area embarked on the most rapid period of its growth—immediately following World War II, it was served by a single electric supplier prepared to meet the electric service needs that growth brought on.

Southwestern serves a 45,000 square mile area which starts in the southwest corner of Kansas, crosses the Oklahoma and Texas Panhandles, moves down onto the South Plains of the Lone Star State and then moves westward to include the Pecos Valley and Clovis-Portales regions of New Mexico.

There haven't been any power shortages in this area in the past and Southwestern doesn't envision any in the future. To make their visions become reality, the company is adding to its investment at an average annual rate of $20-million. The total investment will pass the 500-million dollar mark in the early 70's. Incidentally, it was 39-million dollars, the total investment, that is, when the company took its present form in 1942.

The ecological and environmental problems that have haunted some utilities have not yet interfered with Southwestern's progress, and, assuming a reasonable approach to the environment and ecology, they shouldn't in the future, either.

Insofar as air pollution is concerned, sulfur dioxide, in particular, the least efficient plant on Southwestern's system is discharging into the atmosphere only one-tenth of the sulfur dioxide that is accepted as a k.

Southwestern doesn't make much of a contribution to thermal pollution either, inasmuch as it uses cooling towers rather than discharging hot water into rivers or streams. There's one more that broad statement at the U.S. N.M. power plant were the cooling water is discharged into the Pecos but the temperature increase is within limits of the state law. The residents who use the beach of the plant location seem to find warmer water improves rather than hinders their recreational activities.

At the other plants, with the towers, the discharge that you see in air on a cold day is nothing but water vapor, and isn't polluting.

Southwestern is working to refresh water resources of the region. Two of its power plants, Nichols near Amarillo, and Jones Southeast of Lubbock, use the sewage effluent as cooling water. The conservation practice saves 300 gallons of fresh water a day and enough to meet the needs of a city of 20,000 range population bracket.

The oceans of the world will provide fuel source for electric generation in the future, if research in which Southwestern is participating comes to fruition.

This would be thermonuclear fusion of light atoms into heavier elements, and a child's play of the world would provide enough fuel to generate electricity for the average home year.

There is, incidentally, more available from the hydrogen atom than square miles of seawater than the fossil fuel reserves in the world, and in itself, makes the research worthwhile.

But the excitement of the research goes far beyond its potential source of electric power.

The fusion process for making electricity will require ionized gases at temperatures of millions of degrees. Ionized gases—they're known as plasmas—may be used as a fusion torch to waste materials of all kinds, turning them into electrified particles of constituent elements, and making recovery of basic raw materials and recycle into new products.

In other words, instead of waste materials rust or rot away, all the iron in one little neat piece of aluminum in another—and so on. We may even be able to make combinations with the protons and neutrons and electrons and make the alchemist's dream come true and base metal into gold.

Meanwhile, getting back down to earth and the electric power business, the crystal ball says that the American people will demand as much electric energy next ten years as they have used in 90.

That would be 18-trillion kilowatt-hours and it looks like this when you add zeros on it—18,000,000,000,000.

Southwestern's share of that is an unknown quality but on the other hand, the past, we can be confident that it—with power in reserve.

CHEVROLETS were involved in an accident Saturday afternoon at the intersection of Business 84 and 84 Bypass northwest of Littlefield. A 1965 pickup, driven by Dewey Edward Moore of Littlefield, had turned eastward on Business Route 84 to the southbound lane of traffic on the bypass, and struck the left rear panel of a 1966 Chevrolet, being driven northward on the bypass by Charles H. Edmonds of Alamos, N. M. The Edmonds Chevrolet was struck into a 1965 Chevrolet station wagon, which was being driven northward on the bypass from Littlefield. The station wagon, driven by Lloyd Glyn of Littlefield, was damaged on the left rear and right side, where it struck a sign.

LITTLE THINGS
Little things can mean a lot to modern sorghum growers, and many add small amounts of a minor element like Sequestrene zinc chelate to their soil — to break through "yield barriers" caused by micronutrient deficiencies.

STORING VEGETABLES
Before storing vegetables, extension foods and nutrition specialists say to check for bruises and for soft or decayed vegetables. Only store vegetables in good condition; partially decayed ones can ruin several if stored together.

Notice

AN ACT BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: SENATE BILL 249, Section 1. (a) This Act shall apply to every county in this State. In all the counties, each owner of any livestock shall within six months after this Act takes effect, have his mark and brand for such stock recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county. These owners shall record the marks and brands whether the brands and marks have been previously recorded or not.

FACTS CONCERNING RERECORDING OF BRANDS IN TEXAS

All brands and marks on Texas livestock must be rerecorded with County Clerks after August 30, 1971, according to a new law passed during the last session of the Texas Legislature. Producers will be given a six-month period (August 30, 1971 through February 29, 1972) in which to register these brands and marks and the location on the animal which they are currently using, after which time any unrecorded brand will be available for use on a "first-come" basis. Producers shall record the marks and brands whether the brands and marks have been previously recorded or not.

All brands and marks must be rerecorded every 10 years. Each County Clerk records for his or her given county only, so many producers may need to record their brands in additional counties if their operations are extensive.

The owner shall have the right during this six-month period to file the mark and brand now recorded in his name. In the event it cannot be determined from the records who first recorded the brand and mark in the county, then the person who has been using such mark and brand the longest shall have the right to have the brand and mark recorded in his name.

The Lamb County Clerk's Office will begin accepting Applications to record or rerecord marks and brands on Monday, August 16, 1971; thereby, giving the Clerk's Office more time to check the previous marks and brands and determine that there shall be no duplications. In the event a Producer files his Application and upon the Clerk checking the records and it is determined that said brand has been recorded by another Producer, the County Clerk shall notify said Applicant that the requested brand is not available.

The applications will be held in the Clerk's Office and will be recorded in the bound book on August 30, 1971, or as soon thereafter as possible. The date of the application shall be the date considered for the "first-come" basis.

The Applications To Registrar Marks and Brands may be obtained at the Lamb County Clerk's Office and the staff will be happy to assist in completing and filing the Applications.

WORSHIP IN CHURCH

and get a spiritual lift ✠ for the whole week

HOLD ON

How we love to watch these trapeze artists perform! We watch them in amazement, though feeling some peril in their doings. We can almost hear the crowd say "Hold On!" It is a parable of you and me. God is the strong member of the team. We live every day in peril and difficulty... we hang from His hand.

We must hold to the hand of God if we win. Prayer is our aid to keep His hand in ours. We read The Book and attend His church for courage and strength. But a closer look will give us hope. We are "holding on" to God but better still God is "holding on" to us.

God does not faint or grow weary. Then "hold on" to Him, for "He shall renew thy strength."

You In The Church
The Church In You

The church is a body of people who are united together by the Holy Spirit. It is the body of Christ on earth. Each member of the church is a part of the whole. We are all members of one another. We are all members of the church. We are all members of the body of Christ. We are all members of the church. We are all members of the body of Christ.

Voter Registration Open For 18-20 Year Olds

Herbert Dunn, Lamb County tax assessor-collector, is registering young persons 18, 19 and 20 years of age who failed to register during the regular registration period.

The late registration is the result of a decree from the secretary of state Martin Dies Jr. said earlier that 18-year-olds whose birthdays came after the close of 1971 voter registration, Feb. 28, could register but 19 and 20-year-olds could not.

Herbert Dunn, Lamb County tax assessor-collector, is registering young persons 18, 19 and 20 years of age who failed to register during the regular registration period.

This late registration enables the newly enfranchised young people to vote in any elections, nearly all local, up to March 1, 1972.

Dunn said several 19 and 20-year-olds had come in wanting to register since the 26th Amendment became effective July 1 and gave 18-year-olds the right to vote.

These were turned down. "If they will come back in, we'll register them now," he added.

These registrations will be effective 30 days after the application is filed with the registrar. Therefore, Dunn will accept late applications for any 17-year-old who will be 18 years of age prior to March 1, 1972, as well as those now 18, 19 and 20.

Dies stressed that these 1971 certificates will expire March 1, 1972, and that all voters must register starting Oct. 1 to vote in the 1972 elections.

Wildcats Pin Hopes On Depth, Defense

Twelve starters, another eight returners and a new coach are the ingredients the Wildcats are banking on this year to make a comeback.

Head Coach Jerry Blakely comes to Littlefield from district rival Olton after a highly successful 8-2 season, and he plans to shuffle the Cats around until he comes up with a combination that will re-establish Littlefield into winning ways.

The Cats had a poor season last year, but 1971 is a new dish and the cats are hungry.

A major strength of the Wildcats may be depth, and they are expected to be stronger on defense. A weakness is lack of speed and the absence of a proven passer, but with 9 offensive veterans and some re-alignment this can be improved.

"With a new group of coaches installing new alignments both ways, we aren't going to assume anything, yet," Blakely said. He expects to start with basics. But some things he already knows, like the all-star abilities of Ralph Funk and Danny Estrada, 6-0, 190 senior, and Estrada, 5-10, 210 senior, accounted for a good share of Littlefield's rushing offense last season.

Offensive star Dennis Hartley will be one of the Cats to watch, and line plums will include tackles Kenny Pratt and Scott McNeese and guard Allen Grisham. End Larry Birkelbach, LB Chuck Blevins, QB's Jay Trammell and Alan Mackey and center Brad Nace, HB Matt Giles, and end J. E. Johnson are other talent nuggets.

Promising newcomers are Bill Hamblin, Jerry Cox, Weldon Culp, Don Britt and Larry Hobratchek.

Coach Blakely is assisted by Jim Weaver, Rod Hinch, Lewis Boomer, Dee Blevins, Robert Bolton and Kenny Carter.

All of the coaches are in their first year at Littlefield. The staff likes the "I" formation, and their basic defensive formation is the 6-2. They hope to put Littlefield on the football high road with these combinations.

SLINGIN' STEVE Stockdale has been cited All-State potential following two years as the number one quarterback of District 3-AA. Stockdale and tailback Keith Workman will be a double team for the Olton Mustangs and are considered an awesome threat by their 3-AA opponents.

Barring Injuries, Ponies Possible 3-AA Darkhorse

All-State potential Steve Stockdale and tailback Keith Workman head up a gaudy backfield which can make Olton the premier sleeper in District 3-AA this year.

Stockdale, a 6-2, 175-pound aerial wizard, has been the quarterback in this district the past two years. Outstanding boys to watch include veterans Luis Jimenez and Marlos May, and newcomers Steve Lewis, Jim McCurry, and Kurt Gregory.

Coach Ray Kinnison is entering his first season as head coach at Olton. He faces the loss of six offensive regulars and seven defensive starters from a club which finished 7-3 in 1970 combat.

The Mustangs will have three-fourths of its backfield returning, but their depth was cut with the graduating class. Olton will be looking for adequate line support to match their backfield strength.

Workman, 6-1, 195, FB Marlos May, tight end Randy McCoy and flanker Tim Givens form an offensive parlay which could be deadly.

Jimenez, Lewis, McCurry and Gregory boost the potential.

May, 6-0, 185, tallied five TDs last year and is one of Stockdale's favorite targets. Stockdale gives the Mustangs the South Plains' most consistent "toe" with 33 PATs in 1970.

Stockdale will have to adjust to a pair of new ends, Randy McCoy and Tim Givens. McCoy is switching from fullback to tight end while Givens, playing second fiddle to Stockdale at quarterback in the past, is making the transition to the wide receiver position. Givens, 6-0, 165, will start in the defensive secondary.

Don Deberry and Max Moss will duel it out for the starting center spot.

Kinnison figures Olton as the district darkhorse "if we can stay away from injuries."

Olton hasn't won the loop crown since the 9-1 champions of 1968, but that team didn't have the Stockdale-Workman threat.

Hornets Bare Stingers For '71 Grid Season

Coach Bill Adams inherited a winning tradition last fall at Sudan and kept it alive. The Hornets had a very good season with a 7-3 record.

If Adams can mold a youthful, inexperienced line into something anywhere near what his backfield promises to be the Hornets could well prove to be the District 3-A dark horse.

A number of youngsters will have to mature at near miracle speed for that to happen, however. The Hornets will have only four offensive and defensive backs returning. Losses in critical areas leave the Hornets lacking depth.

In addition, the line will be somewhat smaller and less experienced than last fall's front seven.

To counter all this, Coach Adams sees good backfield depth and quickness, plus the winning tradition.

The gritty Hornet backfield will be led by Bo Lance, 6-2, 170 pound senior, who is an outstanding runner, as well as a very accurate passer. Lance will operate among a set of runners headed by Roger Bellar, 5-10, 165-pound senior, who started in the same backfield with Lance last fall. Other top backfield candidates are Kevin May, 5-10, 155-pound junior; Roger Boyles, 5-10, 165-pound senior; and Kim Englam, 6-0, 170-pound junior. Roger and Kim both started for the Hornets on defense last fall. Sudan should have one of the best all-around backfields in District 3-A this season.

Gilbert, 5-11, 155-pound senior letterman.

An excellent blocker from his guard slot is Gary Edwards, 6-0, 170-pound junior who sees action on defense as well. Edwards thrives on contact. Two 5-10, 160-pound juniors should battle it out for the other guard position. They are David Heard and Kevin Humphries. At center Terry Graves, 5-10, 150-pound sophomore reigns supreme.

Fireworks for the offensive show will come from ends Roger Swarts, 5-10, 155-pound junior; Brad West, 5-11, 155-pound junior, and Mark Hanna, 5-9, 140-pound sophomore. All three lack experience, but are surehanded receivers who can catch in a crowd.

Swarts, Downs, West and

May are all promising newcomers. Adams thinks Lopez is all-state potential, and lists Lopez, Boyles and Englam as outstanding boys to watch.

The Sudan Hornets enter the 1971 campaign slightly weaker than before, but with sufficient ability to make a real run for the District 3-A crown. With Lopez, Edwards, Bellar and Lance returning, the Hornets will definitely be a factor to contend with for all foes.

Whitharral Starts 8 Grid Veterans

Whitharral has eight returning lettermen and a new coach to open the 1971 Panther season.

Seniors Carl Hoelscher and Randy Wade head up the backfield. Senior James Hayes lends experience at end and a junior, Freddy Forbus, will hold down the other end spot. Another senior, Ronald Pence, is nifty in both offensive and defensive positions and is expected to make quite a showing.

Sophomores Bud Reding, Ricky Doshier and Benito Lopez comprise the rest of the starters.

Panther workouts begin Monday, Aug. 16th, with sessions from 8-10 each morning and from 4-6 each evening.

Ralph Allair is head football and basketball mentor. He comes from Spearman where he had a 15-9 season last fall.

Wolverines Optimistic With 2 Power Runners

The Springlake-Earth Wolverines will be hard to handle with Hoyt Glasscock back in 3-A, and the Wolverines have been picked in Texas' top 10 Class A schools and are rated number two in Class 3-A, topped only by Kress.

The Wolverines will be an improved team over their 1970 counterpart. Coach Duane Locke heads into his second year as head man. Locke and the Wolverines were hurt by injuries to key people during last year's campaign.

Eight starters return for Springlake-Earth. Five, including Glasscock, Mike Cleavinger, Eddie Adair, Carl Sulser and Chris Brock are posting their senior and final season for the Wolverines.

Hoyt Glasscock, 5-11, 195-pound running back is the big story for 1971. Glasscock produces the type of running that coaches love to see. The Wolverines major strength lies in their power running game.

Glasscock, with a good year, could be tabbed as an all-state running back. Six foot one inch Mike Cleavinger joins Glasscock in the power running department.

Although noted for their tough offensive and defensive play, S-E has an absence of speed.

Returning lettermen who earned their monogram as sophomores are Bryan Henderson, Guy Davis and Nicho Trianax. With a year under their belt, these fellows should be a real asset to returning lettermen.

Cured of their injuries, the Wolverines should crank up the old veer T in high style for 1971. With the power running of Glasscock and Cleavinger, the Wolverines will be on a par with any team they face. The big test will come when they meet Kress, tabbed as the 3-A power.

The entire conference will be better balanced than last year. The Wolverines fell to 5-5 in 1970 after a nifty 7-3 mark in

Eight Lettermen Head Improved Amherst Do

The Amherst Bulldogs face the 1971 season with only three seniors on their squad. But don't count the Bulldogs out because they have five more starters to go with the seniors, and they could take it all this time.

Doug Cummings, 5-9, 160-pound quarterback; Kim Harmon, 5-11, 170-pound guard and Lonnie Burton, 6-2, 240 pound tackle are outstanding boys to watch. Butch Sutton, 5-11, 160 FB sophomore will bear some study, too, and Hubert Wilson and Stanley Miller are promising newcomers.

Amherst was defeated only 14-7 by last year's district champs. Look for a big improvement over last season's 3-6-1 record.

Joining Cummings in the backfield will be starters Sutton, fullback and Sandy Moore, 5-10, 160-pound sophomore halfback, Luis Jimenez, 5-6, 120-pound junior, Hubert Wilson, 5-7, 155 freshman; and Stanley Miller, 5-7, 140-pound freshman are boys that should see a lot of action this season.

Randy Fulewider, 5-8, 155-pound junior will join Harmon at the other guard spot. David Rangel, 5-11, 175-pound sophomore will return to his tackle position.

The end positions are up for grabs because no starters return to this position. The two boys that have the inside track for starting positions are Terry Lemer, 5-9, 125-pound junior and Wes Gage, 6-0, 150-pound sophomore.

Anton District Choice In 3-B

Anton has five seniors to provide Bulldog leadership, and one of them is a true blue chip ball player Quannon Williams who has been named "All-State potential" for the number 2 rated class B team in Texas and picked to win their district.

Williams, a 190-pound tailback, will provide the running game for Anton's Pro I offense. Bill and Mark Wathall tie down tight end and tackle respectively. Bill weighs 165 pounds and Mark, the younger of the two, weighs 196.

Both Williams and Bill have been selected in the Class B "Top 22."

Football prognosticators place Anton at the top of Class 3-B, followed by Matador, Lubbudie, Amherst, Turkey and Nazareth.

Anton had a 3-6-1 season a year ago, but the Dogs won two and tied one of their last three games. The team is young with 13 starters and a number of squadmen returning. If the last three games are any indication

Back-To-School Tips To Help the Child...And Parents, Too!

Beginning of school is just around the corner, and thousands of Texas parents suddenly realize that only a few days remain until school bells ring.

Going back to school is a surprise for those families with children.

Over 2.7 million Texas students will be through school halls and it will be "first time to school" for about 10 million. Most of that number will be first-graders, but approximately 30,000 are 5-year-olds in the new state-kindergarten program.

For the second year, Texas teachers will start a bit earlier, and most students will start classes earlier.

The school year for 1971-72 will have 190 classroom days, and teachers will have 190 days. They will have 10 days of non-teaching work during the school year with school opening and to receive in-service instruction that will help them to teach.

These changes, the experience of going to school for the first time, and the fact that this year's 6-year-olds than it was for their parents is a giant step for little people. Parents make it easier on their children, the Texas State Teachers Association offers some basic tips in a booklet "To Help the Child, and the Parent." Here are some of the

- and see that he performs them.
- *Help him to establish good listening habits.
- *See that your child gets enough sleep.
- *Provide your child with a good breakfast each morning.
- *See that he is happy before he leaves for school.
- *Teach your child that policemen are his friends and that he should go to them when he needs help.
- *Teach him to dress himself properly.
- *Teach him to have confidence in his teacher.
- *Provide opportunities for your child to be away from his mother for short periods of time before he starts to school.
- *Teach your child to respect the property rights of others.
- *Allow your child to do as much for himself as he is able to do.
- *Show an interest in what he has to tell you about his work and play at school.
- *Help him see likeness and differences in objects and forms.
- *Encourage him to have playmates.
- *Help him learn habits of promptness, obedience, and respect for authority.
- *Read to your child.
- *Take him to places of interest such as the zoo, park, and library.
- *Label his personal belongings with his name and address.
- *Praise your child frequently; help him to feel successful.

- *Feel at ease with others.
- *Build a good foundation for future learning.
- Parents are always welcome to visit their child's school. When visiting, they should stop first at the administrative office and meet the principal.
- When it is necessary to bring a child's lunch or other supplies to school, they should be left with instructions at the school office.
- Classes should not be interrupted while in session.
- Arrangements should be made in advance for conferences with the child's teacher.
- Parents are invited and urged to join the PTA, attend its meetings and take an active part in the work it does to support the school.
- The TSTA leaflet points out that the parents' attitude toward the school and the teacher will be observed—and often copied—by the child.
- Parents therefore should avoid criticizing school or teacher in the child's presence.
- Instead, they should do what they can to solve such school-related problems as conflict with another child, a difficult activity, or a school rule that the child does not understand.

SCHOOL WANTS TO KNOW

The school principal will want to know in advance if possible—when a family moves to a new address.

A child with a cold, fever, sick stomach or other severe ailment is better off at home than at school; however, parents should encourage and require good school attendance by their children.

A written excuse from the parents may be needed when the child returns from an absence.

When child-school problems of any kind arise, the parent should feel free to discuss them with the child's teacher.

THE FIRST TEACHER

The child's first teacher has an enormous responsibility and opportunity to help shape his or her future life. The teacher will help the child to:

- *Have opportunities in group learning, work, and play.
- *Think for himself.
- *Become interested in the world about him.
- *Treat others with consideration and fairness.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURE

Child who is 6 years old on or before the first day of school may be admitted for the 1971-72 school year.

Child's birth certificate must be presented at time of enrollment.

Schools, in the interest of good health, require that the child be vaccinated against smallpox and immunized against diphtheria, whooping cough, and tetanus.

Information which the school will require includes name, occupation, place of birth, and phone number of the father, mother, and the family's home address and phone number.

HOW PARENTS CAN HELP

Parents meet their child's principal teacher for the first time, they should discuss these suggestions:

- Send your child the safest way home.
- Send him (or her) to go directly home without loitering on the way.
- Send him not to go with strangers.
- Send your child definite duties at home.

IT'S YOUR MONEY

Less than 60 days after Congress convened this year, bills which would cost taxpayers more than $130 billion were introduced, Sen. Carl T. Curtis, (R-Neb.) noted in a Senate speech. If the costs were added to the present budget, it would mean additional spending of nearly 60 percent.

Special Courses Being Offered At Texas Tech

Education is for everybody, and special coursework is being offered this fall by Texas Tech University for Lubbock area business men and women and other interested persons who want to catch up with new developments or add to their skills.

Twenty night courses are being offered by the College of Business Administration in a new Center for Applied Studies (CABS).

Registration will be from 6 to 10 p.m. Aug. 25 and 26 at the Southwestern Public Service Company location in Monterey Center.

Courses are being offered in the broad fields of accounting, business law, management, finance, marketing and secretarial administration, and data processing.

Specific courses are: electronic data processing I and II, elementary accounting I and II, business law I and II, personal finance, general insurance, real estate, industrial management, personnel environment, principals of marketing, business cycles and forecasts, introduction to business statistics, shorthand theory and beginning typewriting.

Courses may be taken for grade or pass-fail credit. Each is a three-hour course.

The cost for the first three hours is $99, including tuition and all fees. Two courses, with three hours credit apiece, would cost the student $107.

Medical School Will Reduce Tuition Charges

Baylor College of Medicine, the state's only private medical school, will reduce tuition charged medical students who are Texas residents from $700 to $100 per quarter, according to L. F. McCollum, board chairman.

The rate reduction will become effective upon execution of a contract between the college and The Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, after the beginning of the state's fiscal year this September, probably in the second quarter of Baylor's 1971-72 academic year. It will not be retroactive.

The new tuition charge, approved at the board's annual meeting, is the same amount currently charged Texas residents by the state medical schools.

The tuition reduction for the 1971-72 academic year is made possible by a $2.5 million appropriation from the 62nd session of the Texas Legislature.

Baylor is also expanding its student body and will increase the number of Texas residents attending the college. Of 144 freshmen admitted in July 67 are Texans.

DIFFERENCES

"Socialism will work only in two places: In heaven, where it is not needed, and in hell, where they already have it. Capitalism is the unequal distribution of wealth. Socialism is the equal distribution of poverty. Communism is nothing but socialism with a gun at your back." - Sir Winston Churchill.

Communications Workers Come To Agreement

General Telephone Company of the Southwest and Communications Workers of America announced Friday, Aug. 6, they had reached agreement on a three-year contract that will increase wages and benefits approximately 16 per cent the first year.

Company officials said the contract will cost $7.5 million over the three-year period, not including a wage reopener in the third year.

The contract is now subject to ratification by the union membership in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana and Arkansas.

T. O. Moses of Lubbock, international representative of CWA, said, "We are pleased with the contract and feel we have obtained some major and much sought after improvements which the membership had hoped for."

Wage increases are retroactive to June 20 and will range from 41 to 60 cents an hour in the top wage levels. Additional wages also will be added for a large number of employees in many locations, including high living cost metropolitan areas.

Also included are shorter wage progressions which permit employees to reach the wage bracket 12-18 months faster than the present contract.

Several improvements were made in the hospital insurance benefits including company payment of a recent 40 per cent hike in insurance premiums. The company will pay the increase for both employee and dependents under the new contract.

The company will also assume the cost of dependent hospital coverage which is presently paid by the employee.

Other benefits include three weeks' vacation after eight years, addition of Veterans Day (Fourth Monday in October) as the eighth holiday, increases in board and lodging allowances and pension improvements.

Beck said the contract included the wage reopener in the third year to take another look at the wage schedule in relation to the economic situation at that time.

PREVENT TRAGEDY

Life preservers and other safety equipment could be the most important investments for the home pool owner. Tragedy always strikes when least expected, but the prepared pool owner can prevent it.

Electronics Program Expanded At College

The fall semester at Amarillo College will be marked by the expansion of the electronics department.

Four degree programs—biomedical electronics technology, electronics technology, electronics engineering technology and electronics computer technology—will be offered.

The Associate in Applied Science Degree will be awarded for the successful completion of any of these four electronics programs.

While the primary objective of each program is to prepare the student for immediate employment in the electronics industry, these programs may be transferred into a bachelor's degree curriculum at a number of colleges and universities.

These electronics programs at Amarillo College allow a student with no previous training or experience in electronics to complete the first semester of his training before deciding upon the degree program he wishes to continue.

The core subjects taught during the first semester apply toward the completion requirements of all four programs.

For those interested in obtaining an FCC commercial radiotelephone license, a special sequence of electronic communications courses will be offered for preparation for the FCC examination.

Both day and evening classes will be offered and all programs are approved by the Veterans Administration for GI training. Job placement service is provided for the student for both parttime work during training and for fulltime employment in the electronics industry upon graduation.

Registration for the fall semester begins Aug. 25.

Further information about the electronics programs may be obtained by calling or writing Dr. A. F. Adkins, Department of Electronics, P. O. Box 447, Amarillo College, Amarillo, TX 79105.

CAN'T FIND ONE

Modern technology in haymaking has passed by pitchforks and haystacks. In fact, today it might be easier to find a needle in a haystack than finding a haystack itself.

Mrs. Jennifer Birdwell has been hired as school secretary. Mrs. Olive Angel and Mrs. Eula Mae Archer will continue to be lunch room cooks and Leon Sprales is custodian.

Larry Sharp Earns Degree

Larry Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Sharp of Littlefield, was among 163 students who completed degree requirements during the first summer session at New Mexico State University.

He earned his master of business administration degree. The first summer session graduates, members of the 1972 class, will be recognized during the commencement exercises at NMSU May 13.

Sixteen of the first summer session graduates earned their degrees with honors by maintaining a 3.2 out of a possible 4.0 overall grade point average. One graduate earned his degree with high honors which requires a 3.75 to 3.9 overall grade point average. The designation of meritorious graduate was given for a two year degree to one student who maintained a 3.2 in the last 45 credit hours at NMSU.

Five doctorate degrees were awarded for the session.

New Mexico State University is a land grant college founded in 1888 and with a present enrollment of more than 8,000 students on its main campus in Las Cruces. An additional 2,000 students are enrolled in the university's four branches in the state. In addition to the Graduate School, NMSU has Colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics, Arts and Sciences, Business Administration and Economics, Education and Engineering.
