Area Gets Two Inches Rain; Much Cotton To Be Replanted

Moisture Received Since January 1 Totals 7.94 Inches

Lamb Farmers Are Jubilant Over The Good Prospects

Practically every acre of Lamb county land that had been planted to cotton prior to last Saturday night's torrential rain storm, will have to be replanted, according to David Eaton Lamb County Agent. He was unable to estimate the number of acres involved, but others have estimated more than 50,000 acres.

Planting had just gotten into high gear last week, but hundreds of acres had been planted even earlier, and a considerable amount was above ground.

Moisture received here since May 1, has been measured at the Oil Mill at 1.71 inches. Total moisture since Jan. 1 is 7.94, which compares with 1.96 inches for the same four months period in 1948.

Despite the setback of replanting, Lamb county farmers generally are jubilant at the amount of moisture and prospects were never better for cotton, and row crops. Thousands more acres of Lamb county land have been readied for cotton seeding this year than ever before in the farming history of the county.

Plans Outlined For 1950 FFA-4H Fat Stock Show

Last Rites Held For Wm. H. Walker

Littlefield High School's Boys Debating team, composed of Gene Blackwell and Bill Gray, covered themselves with glory, and brought great credit and acclaim to their school and to their sponsor, Mrs. David Keithley, by being awarded 2nd place in the State Finals held at Austin last Friday and Saturday, as part of the State Interscholastic League meeting, and only by a very close margin were they deprived of first place by a team from Hillcrest High of Dallas.

Billie June Chesher, who was winner in Extemporaneous speech at the District Meeting in Lubbock, placed third, and was awarded a medal, and shared the honor brought to the school by the two young men named in the preceding paragraph.

The girls debating team composed of Joyce Carraway and Donna Richardson was eliminated in the semifinals, by Marble Falls High.

The debating team were assigned the negative side of the debate, "Resolved that Severance Tax should be increased on Natural Resources."

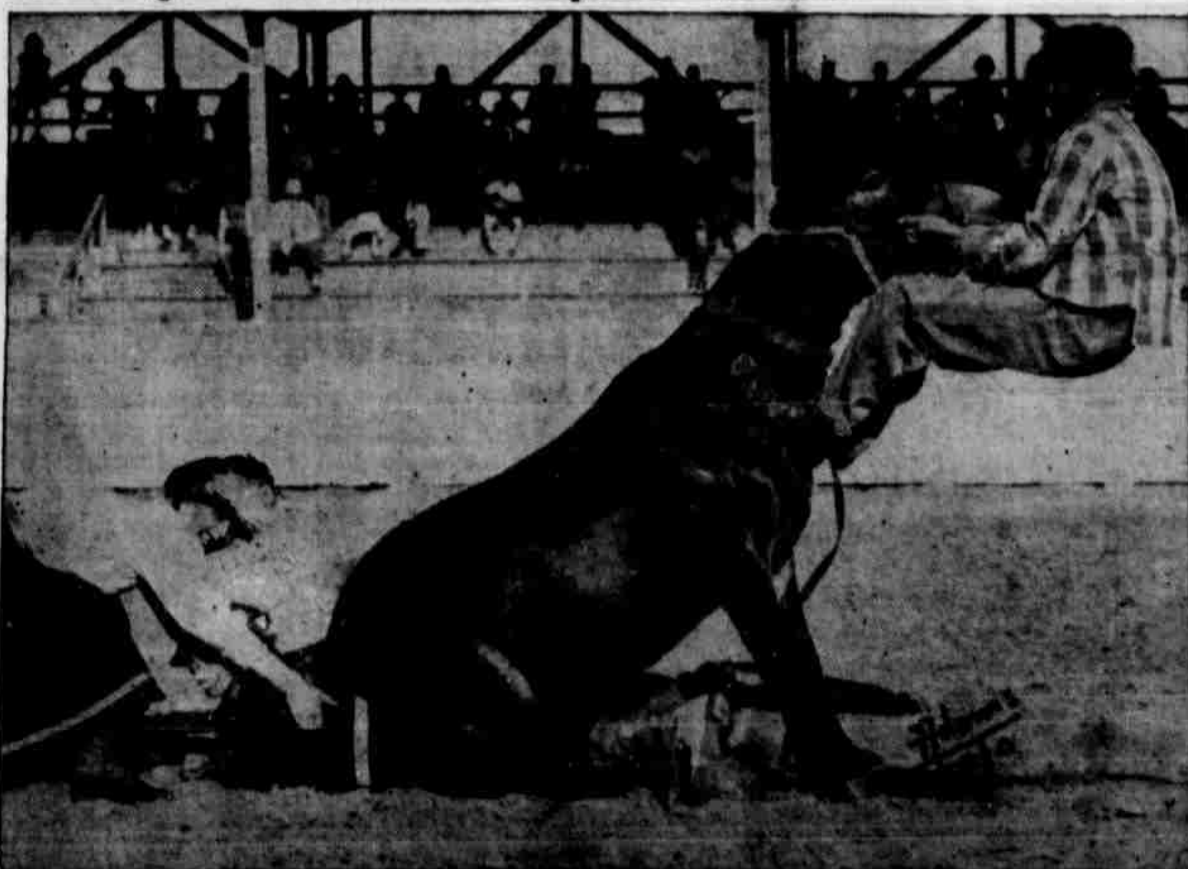

They largely attribute their defeat as being due to the fact that in the past they have debated practically exclusively on the affirmative side.

Littlefield High in the past has sent two other to state finals in Extemporaneous Speech competition.

REDUCES HAND HOEING
 Quoting Mr. D. L. Jones, superintendent, Texas A & M Experiment Station, Lubbock: "At present, this is practically the only tool that will control weeds in the drill row before close sweep cultivation is possible."
 Here are some advantages of the rotary hoe:
 1. Uproots weed seedlings in the row; allows topsoil to dry, preventing further weed growth.
 2. Works best at high tractor speeds, without damage to cotton or corn plants—up to 60 acres per day.
 3. Definitely stimulates young crops.
 4. Breaks soil crust, helping crops to come up.
 Allis-Chalmers rotary hoes are front-mounted, where you can watch them easily without turning your head. You can keep the teeth exactly on the row, getting rid of the weeds that cause the most trouble.

Tornado, Rains Do Heavy Damage Sundown Cyclone Loss Is Estimated More Than $100,000

A two-pronged tornado that caused more than $100,000 damage in and near Sundown, torrential rain in and near Lubbock, damage over the area caused by high wind, and rain of near cloudburst proportions, two lives taken in the Sundown tornado, a woman electrocuted in Lubbock, and thousands upon thousands of acres of planted cotton that will have to be re-seeded, is a costly and colorful picture of the storm which swept the South Plains, with the center of the Storm some thirty miles to the south of Littlefield, and spreading eastward, last Friday evening, about 6:45.

Bill M. Scott and his infant daughter, Pamela, 4, were instantly killed, when the vicious two-pointed tornado that struck in the north part of Sundown leveled their home. His wife, and 7-month old baby son, were seriously injured and were immediately taken to a Levelland hospital. Perhaps fifty other Sundown residents were injured in varying degree, and many of them were hospitalized.

One Victim's Loss $50,000
 result of the tornado was Bruce Burney, an oil truck operator, whose home property seemed almost to be the focal point of the twister. He estimated his loss at $50,000, including three pick-ups, three heavy tank trucks, two automobiles, his home, shop and office.

Littlefield folks who drove over to see the tornado swept town Saturday and Sunday, saw the mass of twisted motor trucks and cars, blown hundreds of feet away and piled grotesquely. Forty-eight hours after the storm, electric service still had not been restored to Sundown, as dozens of Southwestern Public Service linemen, worked around the clock to unravel, or cut away, the mass of twisted wires and broken posts which had supported them.

Another tornado, or possibly the same one, which did considerably less damage, but did destroy two homes, and caused other damage, at about the same hour as the sundown twister, hit near Morton. No one was killed, and no serious injuries reported. Immediately after news of the tornado reached Littlefield, Friday evening several Littlefield families with relatives and friends in and near Sundown, frantically tried to get news of them by telephone, and when informed that phone lines were out of commission, hurried to the scene of the tornado.

Mrs. Wanda Honea, who formerly lived here, and who now operates a beauty shop in Sundown, was injured and five stitches were taken in one of her legs. She was not hospitalized however. She is a sister-in-law to VanClark of Littlefield, and they visited her the following day.

A sister to Jimmie Mason, owner of "It" Cafe in Littlefield, operates the Tip Top Cafe in Sundown, and he hurried there, to confirm that she was unharmed.

The buildings however was greatly damaged as were also the fixtures, dishes and supplies.

In Lubbock, water stood two feet deep in the Court House square, and hundreds of houses were flooded, rising as much as three to four feet deep in some yards and homes.

One former Littlefield resident, Elmer Lewis, who now lives in Lubbock stated that damage to his home, furniture and two cars from water would be $5,000 or more. It was by far the worst flood damage ever experienced in Lubbock.

Numerous Littlefield folks have property interests in Lubbock, and dozens who formerly lived here, and have moved to Lubbock, have undoubtedly been damaged in varying amounts.

Every highway out of Lubbock was blocked for hours after the storm and hundreds of automobiles were damaged. All Lubbock garages were swamped with work this week, and many Lubbock cars are being repaired at garages in nearby towns.

Awarded First Place On Cardiac Zoetrope

Dr. Frederick B. Faust, heart specialist connected with the Payne-Shotwell Hospital, was given the award of honor for his achievement in creating the Cardiac Zoetrope, which was one of 18 special exhibits on display at the meeting of the Texas Medical association in San Antonio which convened Monday, May 2. This honor was extended Dr. Faust Wednesday afternoon of last week. After attending the meeting Dr. Faust, accompanied by Mrs. Faust and children, Faith Helen and Bruce, returned to Littlefield Saturday.

The Cardiac Zoetrope shows the action of the heart and the electrocardiogram. It took 18 months for Dr. Faust to complete this scientific invention.

This scientific invention, which is in a measure, related to or co-operating some of the theories of X-ray, gets its name "Cardiac Zoetrope" from the Greek interpretation of the English words "Circle of Life". Only once before has it been publicly displayed to the profession, at the Centennial celebration of the State of Pennsylvania Medical Society in Philadelphia last year.

The Zoetrope presents the application of a child's toy to the visualization of scientific physiologic processes. The Zoetrope is a circular cylinder about 18 inches tall and about 28 inches in diameter, having 41 slots in the upper two-thirds portion through which are viewed animated pictures of the electric currents developed by the heart with each beat to show the time relationship of this electric force, and the mechanical events with each heart beat as demonstrated in the electrocardiogram.

Miss Helen McDermett and Henry C. Cole Married Friday Night

MRS. HENRY CLAY COLE (Picture Courtesy Avalanche-Journal)

Miss Helen McDermett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McDermett of Ralls, became the bride of Henry Clay Cole, son of Mrs. H. F. Cole of Sudan and the late Rev. Cole, in a candle-light ceremony Friday night in the First Christian Church, Lubbock.

Rev. J. W. Watson, pastor of Happy Methodist Church, officiated.

Vows were exchanged before a background of fern and candelabra in cathedral points, centered with a large fan-shaped embankment of gladioli. The bridal aisle was marked with lighted candles and white satin ribbon. Gene Horton, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Norma White as she sang "Forever and Ever", and Bob Nash, who gave an interpretative reading of "Melody of Love," preceding the ceremony. Mr. Horton played "Beautiful Dreamer", softly as vows were exchanged.

Has Veil of Illusion

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a low scalloped neckline, cap sleeves with scalloped edges, and long mitts with scalloped tops. Her full gathered skirt ended in a short scalloped train. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was attached to a garland of white daisies. She carried an arm bouquet of white daisies, split carnations and star of Bethlehem.

For something old she wore a topaz ring which has been handed down in her maternal family for 200 years, coming originally from Scotland. She carried a handkerchief borrowed from a friend of the bridegroom, who had carried it in her own wedding 45 years ago. She wore a blue garter, and for luck, a penny in her left shoe.

Miss Joyce McDermett of Ralls attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a floor-length light blue taffeta dress fashioned after the bride's and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies. She wore yellow daisies in her hair.

Edgar Cotton served as best man. Ushers were Chester Harvey of Sudan; Raymond Dipple, Frank Landhold and Dale Brandon, all of Lubbock, and J. L. Colville of Floydada.

Light Candles

Candles were lighted by Mrs. Neal Hefner of Crosbyton and Miss Betty Stringer of Lubbock. They wore orchid chambray ballet length dresses, fashioned after the bride's, with yellow daisies wristlets and yellow daisies in their hair.

At a reception following the ceremony in Fellowship hall of the church, the couple were assisted in receiving by their mothers, Miss Audrey Decker and Miss Velma Heard served the double ring wedding cake, and Mrs. Louie Daniels served punch. Mrs. Alice Lindley of Ralls, cousin of the bride, regis-

Wedding Vows Exchanged by Miss Juanita Moses and Arnold Parrish

In a double ring ceremony read at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in St. John's Methodist church in Lubbock, Miss Juanita Moses became the bride of Arnold Parrish. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Moses of Sudan, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Parrish of Sudan.

Rev. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of First Baptist church, officiated. The altar was banked with baskets of picardy gladioli. Graduated arrangements of fern and candelabra on either side formed a pyramid effect.

Gerre Hancock, organist, offered traditional wedding marches from "Lohengrin", and a medley of wedding music. She played "Clair de Lune" and "Indian Love Call" as vows were exchanged, and accompanied Miss Hazel True, who sang "Because", "I Love Thee", and, as a benediction "The Lord's Prayer."

Gown of Marquisette

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white marquisette gown, fashioned with an off-the-shoulder colonial neckline, fitted bodice and long fitted sleeves, tapering into points over the hands. A design of marquisette ruffles decorated the skirt, which extended into a cathedral length train.

Her finger tip veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls, caught on each side with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of orchids and white roses showered with white satin ribbons.

Miss Elnora Boyles, maid of honor, wore a gown of sea foam green organdy styled with a ruffled V-neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. She wore a halo of talisman roses and elbow length mitts. She carried a modern colonial bouquet of talisman roses and ivy.

Mrs. Gerry McCathern and Mrs. Charles Lawrence, bridesmaids, wore peach organdy gowns, fashioned with lace yokes, fitted bodices and skirts dropped from inset lace yokes. They wore matching ruffled halo hats and lace mitts. Their bouquets were of English ivy, centered with Picardy gladioli.

Miss Sandra Powell of Sudan, flower girl, wore a white ruffled organdy dress.

Loye Dale Parrish of Muleshoe served his brother as best man. Ushers were Charles Lawrence and L. A. Duff. Dwayne Moses, brother of the bridegroom, of Sudan, and Marion Young lighted the candles.

Out-of-Town Guests

A reception in the home of Mrs. M. S. Lane, Lubbock, followed the cere-monied guests.

The bride is a graduate of Crosbyton High School and Lubbock Memorial Hospital School of Nursing. She is now on the staff of Lubbock Memorial hospital. knows Funeral Home would be notified three days in advance of the arrival of the remains.

19 Years of Age

Sgt. Porcher, 19 years of age, was killed in action on January 14, 1945. He had been in the service a year and a half, and overseas since the previous September.

Was Aerial Gunner

He was an aerial gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress, with the Eighth Air Force Stationed in England, and was serving with the veteran and colorful 390th Bomb Group, and had seen action with the Eighth Air Force in bombing attacks against vital Nazi targets in support of growing allied ground operations.

Plane Shot Down

At the time his plane was shot down he was on a mission to destroy underground oil storage facilities over Derben in the Berlin area. One Hundred single engine fighter planes were said to have taken part in the Derben attack, which cost the group 25 planes.

It was reported that he took part in bombing underground fuel reservoirs near Bingen, also over Frankfurt, and road and rail junctions near Marshal Karl Von Rundstedt's breakthrough.

Sgt. Porcher had been awarded the Purple Heart, Air Medal and two Oak Leaf Clusters.

His Bombing Group received the Presidential Citation for its highly successful attack on ball-bearing factories at Schweinfurt, Germany, during 1944, and was a unit of the Third Bombardment Division, cited by the President for its historic England to Africa shuttle bombing of Messerschmitt Plants at Regensburg, Germany, in August of 1943.

Sgt. Porcher was a graduate of Littlefield High School and attended Tech College, Lubbock.

a few flower beds, and generally got himself in dutch with the women. Wesley didn't take any chances on that donkey getting him in the dog house at home or abroad; he secured him with a tow chain. And Mr. Donkey went into "solitary", no longer to roam.

Traffic Violator

Earl Rodgers and Skipper Smith led the donkey Thursday night through downtown Littlefield to the Jaycee meeting, and anchored him without the banquet hall.

Earl and Skipper learned something about the donkey that they didn't know before; he's a traffic violator; he stiff-footedly refused to stop for a red light.

Following Thursday night's meeting, Jaycee Terrell Pettet, local tonorial artist, led the donkey to the Wesley home. Countless numbers of Jaycees acted as escorts.

Wesley wasn't at home. Mrs. Wesley answered the door and was informed of the difficulty into which her husband had fallen.

"I'll see that Wesley goes to Jaycee meetings after this," his companion in life commented.

And Wesley is very likely to be on hand regularly and promptly. He might even wear a necktie and look real pretty and dignified.

livestock for the market. The animals will be judge with this fact in mind.

Animals To Fort Worth

The animals will then be shipped to Ft. Worth, where they will be placed on the market, and sold in open market through regular channels. Boy exhibitors of livestock, will get an expense paid trip to Ft. Worth where they will be able to see their fed stock go through the sales ring, and be able to learn at first hand, the real value of raising and feeding his stock, on a strictly Commercial basis, and with the Commercial market his goal, instead of a prize, possibly "milk fed" animal.

Ribbons For The Winners

Of course there will be ribbons for the winners, as well as valuable merchandise prizes donated by local business houses.

Prospective exhibitors will keep records all through this year. These records will include expense of purchase price of animals, feed cost, pen rental cost, interest on investments, cost per pound of grain in weight, weight gain per day, amount home grown and purchased feed, and finally will show the cost of dressing the animal at Ft. Worth after the show, as well as shrinkage or loss in dressing.

8 Classifications

Ribbons and prizes will be awarded in eight different classifications, as follows:

1. Highest average gain per day, steers.
2. Highest gain per day, barrows.
3. Most efficient use of Home Grown Feeds.
4. Highest dressing per cent on steers.
5. Highest dressing per cent, barrows.
6. Cost per pound gain weight, steers.
7. Cost per pound gain in weight, barrows.
8. Per cent of net profit, based on whole project.

Six different points are stressed as the reasons for changing the show plans from the manner in which they have operated in the past. They are:

1. The present practice of milk feeding show calves is not practical; it gives the boy a distorted idea of the value of finished beef and places an undue burden on the buyers in the county sale. Therefore, the feeding of show calves on nurse cows should be encouraged.
2. The best calves for show competition are not necessarily the best calves for commercial feed lot operations. Therefore the boy who learns to select show calves is not receiving good training for selecting commercial feeding cattle.
3. Lamb County produces good cattle for commercial feeding, most of which are fed outside of the county.
4. Lamb County produces a large amount of grain principally grain sorghums, much of which is shipped out of the county.
5. In average years and under good management, our grains and roughages could be fed to our feeder cattle at a profit, thereby increasing the county income.
6. It would be a good practice for Future Farmers and 4-H Club boys to gain some experience in commercial feeding operations.

The boys will secure steers and barrows for commercial feeding not later than November 15th. The steers will be bought by the boys at prevailing market prices. (By the Lb.) To be eligible to participate, the steers must be weighed when bought on bonded scales and weight slips sent to the Chamber of Commerce office not later than 15 days after date of purchase or beginning of project. The boy will not be allowed to use a nurse cow for his steers. Pigs will be weighed by County Agent, Agriculture Teacher, or disinterested person.

A 4-H or FFA boy in Lamb County or its school district shall be allowed to participate if he complies with the rules.

"TAKE ME OUT . . ."

"Take me out to the ball game, da-dah-de-dah, dah-dah" . . . do you know the story behind baseball's greatest and most popular song?

The song that has all the color, and swing, and feeling of the grand old game? Well, there was a famous song writer and vaudeville star whose specialty was composing love songs, and singing them to enthusiastic audiences. This fellow needed a song about baseball, but couldn't find one that would fit. So, you guessed it, he sat down and wrote "Take Me Out to the Ball Game".

He was a little nervous, and somewhat dubious, when he tried it out the first time. All his love songs had gone over big. But, he didn't know how the audience would take to this baseball thing. When he finished his first rendition, he knew he had something. The crowd in the theater literally went wild. They cheered and cheered, and made him repeat it over and over again. It became a sensation . . . and baseball adopted it as its own. This writer and singer was Jack Norworth, and he had never seen a baseball game in his life!

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER CLAIMS INDEBTEDNESS LIKE JOHNSON GRASS, NOTHING MUCH CAN BE DONE ABOUT IT

Editor's note: The Bull Lake Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm, probably is an authority on what he's talking about this week—debts.

Dear editor:

I never did like to be considered narrow-minded, I take the larger view, I ain't got no objection to everybody else gettin a pension just so long as I get mine too, but is it possible to get too liberal.

I was out here Monday afternoon restin from a full mornin's hard thakin when I picked up a copy of Amarillo News which some hunter had wrapped his lunch in because it's more ant-proof than our paper, although personally I think yours is better for lining the pantry shelf with or usin to sit on when the ground is wet, seems like it's thicker, don't soak through so fast, and I noticed a article from Paris which said a "powerful American figure in the European Recovery Program is worried over whether Europe will be out of the red in 1952."

If I understand this right, this powerful American figure over there is losing sleep worryin over whether Europe will be out of the red in 1952 I don't mind sayin it seems to me that's goin a long ways and strainin at a mighty small point to lose sleep over.

That is, if he wants to worry over somebody not gettin out of the red by 1952, I can give him a full-time job, and he can do it at home at half the cost.

Not only will I not get out of the red by 1952, I won't get out by 1962, and furthermore haven't been out since I can remember. He can worry forwards and backwards at the same time for me.

I'm in favor of helpin anybody who needs help, don't make no difference where he lives or what country, but I ain't never supposed anybody was aimin at gettin any nation out of debt by 1952.

In, fact if this bird starts worryin when he sees a country which ain't likely to get out of debt by then, they're gonno have to blindfold him if he ever gets any peace of mind. I ain't no economist, but I got a good idea that:

Littlefield ain't gonna get out of debt by 1952.

Lamb County ain't gonna get out of debt by 1952.

Texas ain't gonna get out of debt by 1952.

The United States ain't gonna get out of debt by 1952.

In fact, I just ain't acquainted with no countries and very few individuals who'll get out of debt by 1952 or any other time. It ain't even a topic to worry about anymore. It's a permanent condition like Johnson grass in my crops. Ain't nothing can be done about it, at least not by me, and very few governors or presidents I've heard of.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Plans Progress For New Church Structure

The Building Committee of St. Martin Lutheran Church met with Architects Atcheson and Atkinson at the church on May 2 to discuss building plans.

Building plans include a new church edifice to seat 200 and an overflow annex with Sunday School rooms and Parish House facilities. The present building is to be integrated into the overall plan. The cost of the total building project has not been announced.

St. Martin dedicated a new modern Parsonage on the Sunday of April 24th.

Members of the Building Committee are: Messrs. Ben H. Brandt, Bruno H. Birkelback, Walter Hill, Oscar Weize, and Richard Wolf. All but the latter were present at the meeting. Pastor C. Schulte is chairman of the Committee.

CLOTHING SHIPPED

Five Boxes of clothing were shipped last week by the ladies of the W.M.U. of the First Baptist Church to the Foreign Relief Center in New Orleans, which will be shipped to Europe where needed.

ADDRESSES GROUP OF STUDENTS

Sunday night May 1, the Rev. H. A. Heckman, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church addressed a group of Texas Tech students, the Gamma Deltans, and their friends at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Lubbock on the very timely and important subject of divorce. The speaker noted that Scripture allows but two grounds for divorce, adultery and malicious desertion. Simple faith in God and Jesus Christ, in His Church and in the two spouses were decided upon as the best way to prevent the evil of divorce. On the previous Friday night, Judge Pardew of the District Court, addressed this same group on the legal aspects of divorce.

Church Represented At State Meeting

Rev. C. Schulte and Mr. W. P. Neinaast represented St. Martin Lutheran Church at the Convention of the American Lutheran Church, Texas District, which convened at Mason, Texas from April 25 to April 28th. About 136 pastors and 105 laymen attended the convention.

The general theme of the Convention was "Parish Education", which will be emphasized thruout the whole American Lutheran Church this year.

Other topics discussed were Lutheran Unity—the possibility of uniting with other Lutheran Church bodies of USA. The American Lutheran Church is the third largest Lutheran body in the USA.

Christian Stewardship. The Separated Portion Plan of giving was discussed by L. G. Krebs, Assistant Stewardship Secretary of the American Lutheran Church.

The District voted to purchase a Bible Camp to be used in connection with their Youth Program.

The Christian Rural Overseas Program (CROP) was explained and adopted. Key men were appointed in each county in which there is an American Lutheran Church.

The next Convention will be held at Galveston, in connection with the Centennial Celebration of St. John Lutheran Church of that city.

Work Progressing On Lutheran Parsonage

Work is progressing nicely on the eight room, brick veneer Lutheran Church parsonage, and it is expected that the structure will be completed by July 1st. Albert Neunschwander is in charge of the building.

The home is located on the property adjoining the Lutheran church on the east.

Hart Camp News

By Carl Timmins

(Too Late For Last Week)

Attendance Good
Attendance for Sunday School and B. T. U. services are running neck and neck at the Baptist Church during the past few weeks. Attendance for Sunday School was 42, while the Training Union attendance was 41.

Attend Junior-Senior Banquet
Members of Spade High School who live in the Hart Camp community, attended the big Junior-Senior Banquet given at the school cafeteria in Spade. Junior Nicholas, Bobby Sewell, Billy Frank Johnson, Ruth Kelsey and Carl Timmins attended the gala annual event. The program was conducted in a most interesting manner, the food was delicious, and the decorations brightened up the whole event.

On the program the welcome address was given by Verlie Jo Gregson, and the response by Ava Nell Greenwood. After this, the toastmaster, Ensie Mouser, took over. A few enlightening facts about our teachers were given to us by Tonie Sullivan. Some special steel guitar music was played by Bob Westbrook, a sophomore. Fred Swanson gave his ideas on the Seniors future about ten years from now, I read the Senior class history, and to wind up the program the class will be read and observed by solemn and due process of law.

Weiner Roast Rained Out
The Young People's group of the Baptist Church had a streak of bad luck when their weiner roast was rained out, last Wednesday night. They met at Johnson's Lake but because of the rain had to adjourn to Monroe's place to eat the weiners. They were good, along with the cookies and cokes, in spite of the fact that they were not cooked. Present, were: Lila Monroe, Ivy Thompson, Della Rosson of Spade, Wanda Lou Presley, Billy Pat Robison and Linda Cain, both of Littlefield; Billy Frank Johnson, Carl Timmins, Charles Timmins, Roy Hendricks, Toni Sullivan, Clarence Monroe, James Ball, Dennis Mahaffy, Mike Stevens, Betty Wheeler, Mack Wheeler, Carol May and maybe a few others that I don't remember.

Attend Gin Meeting
Several from Hart Camp attended the annual Gin Meeting at Fieldton, held at the Boy Scout building. Short talks, good music, and especially good eats marked the occasion. The Audit report for the Fieldton Co-op Gin was given, and checks for some of the stockholders were presented.

Odds N' Ends
The farmers out in this part of the country all have a good word for the road commissioner, for the way he keeps the roads graded. Almost before they are dry after a rain you will find the road boys out making them ready for travel. So three cheers for the boss and his boys.

Millions upon millions, (of course I didn't count them) of weeds were killed last week by the farmers. Knifing, harrowing and running a stalk cutter over the beds was just part of the work farmers were doing last week. Bushels of cottonseed will go into the ground this week, then in about two weeks the long shining rows of cotton plants about two inches high will be visible, which means the real work of a farmer starts.

Home Again
Mr. Martin Wheeler and his wife returned from Del Rio, last Thursday, where as I told you last week, he was in the hospital for appendicitis. He seems to be pretty lively, although he will tell you that he is not quite up to par yet.

From where I sit... by Joe Marshall

How Would You Say It?

Curley Lawson's cousin from back East and a few of us got talking when he was here visiting, and I couldn't help noticing how different he said things.

For instance, he said, "Lifting that 200-pound bag of cement almost killed me." "You mean sack of cement?" asks Curley. (That's the way we'd say it.) "No," interrupts young Elliott who'd spent a lot of time down South, "He means a 'poke of see-ment.'"

It was good for a chuckle, anyway. Bag, sack or poke—we knew what he was trying to say. It just depends on where you are in the U. S., which way sounds right.

From where I sit, whenever I criticize someone for sounding any to us, we ought to think hard about it. It's the same choosing your liquid refreshment of beer—you may like ginger ale but who's to say the other's wrong? I'd say we're both right!

Many Littlefield Residents Attend Symphony Concert At Lubbock

Attending the Lubbock Symphony orchestra musical program Friday night at Lubbock, at which Mrs. Amparo Iturbi was guest artist, were: Mesdames Anne Louise Wiseman, Marye Sales, Miss Catherine Apperson and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Shaw.

Due to the heavy rainfall in Lubbock and over the area Friday evening the group were marooned in Lubbock over night, and returned to Littlefield Saturday morning.

Five and one-half inches of rain were reported to have fallen in Lubbock in a very short time.

Local school students who attended the concert at Lubbock Saturday night were; Arlene Packwood, Ellen Webb Massengill, Johnny Merle Evans, Charlotte Doss, Kay Hendricks Diane Hall, Claudia and Katherine Keithley, Cynthia Keithley, Esta Mae Bitner, Teddy Jo Bitner, and Anne Bellomy.

Taking their automobiles and accompanying the students were; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Keithley, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bitner and Mr and Mrs. Quinton Bellomy. The group ate supper at the Mexican Inn, following which they attended the concert.

Those who are fortunate in seeing her at home find Amparo Iturbi a lovely and gracious lady, simply dressed in Southern California style. The distinguished pianist, who appeared as guest artist with the Lubbock Symphony on May 6 and 7, can cook the Spanish dishes her famous brother, Jose, enjoys; she teaches several pupils each day as well as supervises her charming home and garden.

Flowers, particularly roses, are one of her hobbies; perfumes, another, and she treasures handsome "bindings," owning a priceless edition of "Don Quixote," given her by her father.

However, Madame Iturbi's greatest interest is her young daughter. A very attractive girl, with her mother's dark eyes and exotic coloring, Amparo Ballester is unusually independent. She attends school at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios where she also receives dramatic coaching from Lillian Burns. She has already appeared on the Lux Radio Show and had a "sit" in "Three Daring Daughters" with her mother, Jose Iturbi and Jeanette McDonald. "Amparin", as her friends call her, brings boundless enthusiasm to everything she does. She dances, swims, sings and studies, always accompanied by her coal black cocker spaniel, 'Noche' While undoubtedly possessing musical talent, Amparo Iturbi's daughter chooses to seek a dramatic career.

Witness Soudoun Damage

Mr. and Mrs. R L Murdock and son, Bobby and David North were in Sundown Sunday morning, and saw the tornado stricken area, also saw the Army plane at Brownfield that was struck by the same tornado. The pilot saw it in time to bail out and land safely.

They also attended the Brownfield and Seagraves base ball game. Scores being 5-0 in favor of Seagraves.

IS THE CHOICE OF FAMILIES WITH EXPERIENCE

IF YOU'VE EVER HAD EXPERIENCE WITH ANOTHER KIND OF REFRIGERATOR, YOU KNOW WHAT A NUISANCE NOISE AND WEAR ARE. EXPENSIVE, TOO. THAT'S WHY SO MANY FAMILIES TODAY ARE CHOOSING THE SERVEL GAS REFRIGERATOR.

Servel is the one refrigerator that stays silent, lasts longer—because it has no moving parts in its freezing system. No machinery, no motor—just a tiny gas flame doing all the work. So owners find it gives more years of noise-free, worry-free performance.

What's more, the new Servels have every convenience a woman could want! Come in today and see the beautiful new models. You'll decide it's a Servel Gas Refrigerator for you, too—this time!

—SOIL—CONSERVATION
—NEWS—

By C. H. Messer, Chairman

154 acres of land have been bench leveled by Lamb County Soil Conservation District Cooperators. Others planning to do some bench leveling include: Lee Marshall, Lloyd Rogers, R. L. Sanderson, Charey Calvert, Wayne Carlisle and C. E. Jones. The benching is being planned and layed out with the help of the soil conservation service technicians located at Littlefield. Among District cooperators planning fall seeding of improved pasture grasses are: Albert Nuenschwander, Cecil Johnson, Arthur Duggan and L. B. Montgomery, Leonard Green, C. B. Hill and Cecil Martin. Some of the farmers are going to plant a few acres of okra on a trail basis. Allison Bros. seeded 160 acres of wheat last fall by airplane in their cotton for a cover crop. A good stand was obtained. It has been irrigated and is looking good. The wheat is 10 miles west of Earth on the Muleshoe highway. Huam clover has been over seeded in the wheat. They plan to turn the clover crop under for soil improvement. Lee Marshall plans to plant sudan for a cover crop on his deep sand with the idea of planting native grass next spring. Wayne Carlisle recently constructed four miles of terraces on his farm west of Littlefield.
