Sudan Girl First Winner in Newspaper Bike Event

Our neighbors already had the prize, so I had to find others," Gaylene Rogers, winner in the Leader-News "Earn A Bike" subscription drive, said. "It was easy—I just told them I was selling subscriptions. You know, I sold mine first day." It was revealed when she, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rogers, was dropped by the newspaper office Tuesday to pick up prize, a Schwinn "Slik Chik" from Hart Thaxton Hardware was

Texas' Charter Trip Weeks 33 Customers

Littlefield Chamber of Commerce is seeking 33 persons or more to charter a bus for a trip to Palo Duro Canyon for the presentation of "Texas' Charter Trip" on Friday, Aug. 16, has been set and reservations must be in by Aug. 9. Interested persons are invited to contact the Chamber of Commerce at 335-4451. The round-trip bus will include a barbecue and reserved seats in the musical drama, will cost $45 for adults, and $7.70 for children under 12. If general admission is desired, cost will be $8.45 for adults and $7.20 for children under 12.

Police Solve Local Thefts, Stolen Property Recovered

A series of eight separate burglaries over the past several weeks have been solved by Littlefield police. The stolen property involved in the burglaries has been recovered, police chief J. Fitzgerald announced today. A comprehensive police investigation, led by chief Fitzgerald, resulted in the apprehension of five Littlefield youths, all juveniles, who have admitted responsibility for all eight incidents. The property with a total estimated value of between $700 and $1,000 has been recovered.

Buying Power Shows Gain In Past Year

A national study of business activity, just released, shows that Lamb County stands out as a solid, vigorous market, with a level of income and spending above that found in most communities.

Significant gains were made in its trading area in the past year as local families, with more money at their command, indulged in large-scale buying. The facts and figures are contained in Sales Management's new "Survey of Buying Power." The copyrighted study gives comparable income and sales data for every section of the country.

Because consumer buying was at so high a rate, most retail stores in Lamb County topped their records of the previous year. The sales total for the year amounted to more than $40,342,000.

Public Urged To Use X-Ray

Littlefield Rotary Club will sponsor the Christmas Seal X-ray Unit of West Texas Tuberculosis Association in Littlefield, Monday, Aug. 5—Dollar Day. Persons 12 years old and older are urged by Rotary members to "take advantage of this facility." A token payment of $1 is asked to pay for the cost of film and development, and WTTA will bear expense of reading and reporting results to all individuals. Members of "We, The Women" will provide volunteer help throughout the day.

Solely from the standpoint of population, this was more than should have been expected. reckoned on that basis, local retail business should have amounted to only .0121 percent of the national, since that is the proportion of the country's population in the local area.

Actually, however, it went beyond that, accounting for .0129 percent of the national total. Although consumer spending was high, it was more selective than usual. There was greater emphasis on soft goods and services and less on hard goods.

The lack of a solution in Vietnam, the inflationary trends at home and the prospect of higher taxes all had an influence on how much people spent and what they spent it for.

From the standpoint of income, 1967 was a good year for most families.

Lamb County residents had net earnings, after payment of taxes, of $60,920,000.

It amounted to $8,461 per household, an arithmetical average obtained by dividing the overall income by the number of households.

Just how one community compares with another with respect to purchasing power and business vitality is revealed in the survey through an "index of sales activity."

Lamb County's index is given as 107, placing it 7 percent above the national average.

What's Making All That Racket?

It's The Cicada, Says Connie Smith

BY JOELLA LOVVORN

The cicada is making itself "popularly known" in Littlefield and the High Plains area—mainly because of the loud, shrill song of the male which is "wooing" the female.

The periodical cicada, (pronounced see-kay duh), classified "Tibicana septendecim", is commonly known as the "17-year locust", but scientists say this is a misnomer, as locusts are properly migratory grasshoppers.

An adult female cicada lays her eggs in slits she makes with her mouth in tree twigs. They hatch into nymphs within a period of six weeks, fall to the ground and bury themselves, where they suck juices of roots of trees for 17 years.

Nymphs emerge from the ground after 17 years of "feasting" and crawl up tree trunks. Since a whole brood emerges at one time, the empty nymphal coverings may later be seen by the thousands, clinging to bark.

The adult cicada emerges through a slit down the back of the nymphal covering, as shown in the photo to the left. Adults mate, females lay their eggs and both soon die.

Shown in the insert is an adult, brought to us by Randy Lucas, and photographed with close-up attachment, by Bob Hamilton. Connie and the nymph covering were photographed near my house Sunday evening.

Presently, cicadas are sounding off loud and clear throughout the area. They are particularly fond of weeping willows as a home.

If you can stand the racket, there's not too much else to worry about. The encyclopedia says the cicada doesn't do a lot of damage, and will die off in the fall.

Connie Smith is the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Smith of Temple. She is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith Jr. of 1031 W. 9th.

BURLEY ROBERTS FAMILY

Fire Destroys Enochs Home

The Burley Roberts farm home near Enochs was totally destroyed by fire while the family was away at Clovis New Mexico Sunday morning.

"All the family has left are the few things that were in the family car with them and the clothes on their backs", friends and neighbors told the Leader-News.

The frame and stucco house, located half a mile south of Enochs on Highway 214, was all but completely destroyed before it was discovered by two-teenaged boys at approximately 2 a.m.

The two boys, David Woods and Bester Gilliam, were returning from Morton by automobile. They drove quickly to the home of Mrs. Robert's father, R. P. McCall, who notified the Morton fire department.

"By the time the firemen arrived on the scene it was too late to do anything but watch", a local observer stated.

"The irony of the whole thing," a neighbor explained,

"was that they had just started to remodel the whole house. They had just recently purchased a new living room suite and a washer and dryer, and were starting on a patio and other improvements."

Indication where the fire might have started. The house was burned to the ground level, with only the appliances—washer, dryer, refrigerator, stove, etc.,—still recognizable.

The Roberts family, consisting of father, mother and three children are presently staying with the McCalls until they can find a place to relocate.

There has been some donation of clothing to the Roberts children, but by Wednesday morning there had been no concerted community action to aid the family, an informed source has advised this newspaper.

ASHES AND BURNED HULLS of household appliances and furniture were all that remained of the Burley Roberts' farm home near Enochs Sunday, following a fire early that morning. The frame and stucco house was a total loss to the family who were away at the time.

First pastor of the church, Rev. C. T. Jordan, spoke at the morning service. His theme was a call to remembrance and commitment for the future.

Four speakers were a part of the afternoon service when Ernest Baker, a deacon of the church recalled the organization of the church; Rev. A. R. I Am Sick Of...

The following address was delivered at the Oak Cliff Lions Club at a regular noon meeting on Wednesday, June 12, 1968 by the outgoing President, David R. Braden, seven days after the assassination of RFK. The Oak Cliff Lions Club, with its 435 members, is the second largest Lions Club in the United States.

In light of recent developments, unrest, rioting all over the nation, we believe this address should be brought to the attention of as many people as possible, all over the nation. The text of the address follows:

I WOULD LIKE to remind you today of the motto of Lions International: "Liberty -- Intelligence -- Our Nation's Safety." It is in that regard that I make this statement. I make it that someone might speak for the COMMON MAN of this nation--

Who leads a common life,
Earns a common salary,
Has a common ambition,
A common dream,
... And pays common taxes.

I speak to you as the forum of common men everywhere -- and as a representative. All America has been told this past week -- over and over -- that we are a sick society. Gentlemen, I propose to you that I AM sick -- maybe you are sick too.

I AM SICK TO DEATH OF BEING TOLD I AM SICK: by government officials who will not enforce the law.

By politicians who dance to the tune of minority groups....

By those in the pulpit and on the college lecture platform who use their office to project the socialistic creed of radicals....

I AM SICK TO DEATH OF BEING TOLD I AM SICK: ... by idealistic aggressive news reporters and evaluators (of whatever media), who have the audacity to tell me I should believe whatever they believe -- knowing I have no vehicle to publicly voice my disagreement.

I AM SICK OF BEING TOLD I AM SICK: ... by foppish entertainers draped in Nehru jackets, feminine necklaces, and a cloak of pseudo intellectualism.

I am sick of cynical attitudes toward patriotism and our American institutions....

I am sick of sacrificing the cream of American manhood in political wars we are not fighting to win....

I am sick of the decline in integrity and personal honor in this nation....

I am sick of the permissive attitude, laxity, and tolerance to pressure groups and the criminal element that is bringing this nation to its knees in lawlessness....

I AM SICK OF SEEING law enforcement agencies and the laws of this nation emasculated by a supreme court and administrators who make their personal creeds the law of the land....

I am sick of dirty, unwashed, foul mouthed people -- whether you call them hippies, beatniks, or pseudo poor people....

I am sick of not being able to take my family to a movie because it is loaded with extraneous offensive matter whose only purpose is to shock....

I am sick of seeing the same phrases in the popular literature of the day that I see scrawled on the walls of public toilets....

I AM SICK OF A CONGRESS which legislates out of emotionalism rather than reason, thereby taking away the rights of all....

I am sick of being told I am sick with violence because of assassinations by mentally deranged men, fed on a steady diet of violence and perversion by the nation's periodicals, press, television and movies -- all condoned -- even aided -- by courts which permit license in the name of freedom....

I am sick of riots, marches, and those who force themselves and their ideologies down my throat without qualifications....

I am sick of those who say I owe them everything, because of the sins of my forefathers, when I have looked down both ends of a machine gun barrel to defend them and their right to be here....

Take note gentlemen in high places -- you will not see me in the streets with a placard or a gun -- you will hear the thunder of the common man at the polling place -- casting a vote for....

LIBERTY -- INTELLIGENCE -- OUR NATION'S SAFETY.

PAUL HARVEY

Wrong Hands

I AM YOUR POLICEMAN. I feel compelled to warn you that there is a man lurking across the street from your home. Part the curtains, look. Over there by the curbside tree. In a car or foot he has been passing your house at least twice a day recently.

I know who he is; I do not know what he's up to. Perhaps he is determining what hours the house is empty or what time your daughter is there alone.

THE MAN OBSERVING you from the shadows is well known to us policemen. His name is Sam. Let me tell you about Sam. He did time in Angola for rape, in Joliet for armed robbery. He's been arrested for breaking-and-entering, mugging, pandering--24 times in 13 years--convicted six times. The one time he went up for 10 we was back in two.

Judging from his MO, Sam is casing your place for burglary. Or, as I say, he could be more interested in your daughter. Crimes of passion are more prevalent in summer-time.

YOU CAN GO to the telephone and call us--the police--if you like--but there is nothing we can do.

We had Sam in last week when the Williams' house was burglarized and the week before when the schoolgirl was waylaid under the viaduct; he laughed at us.

Years ago we'd have taken Sam to the police station, told him we had evidence, demanded an alibi for the time of the crime and booked him. Not any more.

NOW THE SUPREME COURT says if we arrest Sam on "suspicion," we must immediately and in front of witnesses advise him:

- 1--You don't have to say anything.
- 2--If you do say anything, it can and will be used as evidence against you in a court of law.
- 3--If you do not have a lawyer, the state will provide one.
- 4--You do not have to talk until your lawyer gets here.

WE POLICEMEN carry a little card with all the regamrole written out to be sure we say it right. Sam has it memorized. So he sits there and smirks until we let him go.

Or, if we do call a lawyer for him, the lawyer smirks: "You mean no witnesses?" So we have to let him go anyway.

THAT, DEAR CITIZEN, is why there is a dangerous man watching your house from across the street.

If it is any comfort to you, Sam has not murdered anybody--yet.

But other recent Supreme Court rulings on the selection of juries have all but abolished the death sentence, so he might.

Chief Justice John C. Bell Jr. of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court says, "Recent Supreme Court decisions which shackle police and lower courts have jeopardized the future welfare of the United States."

Respect for law and lawmen is vanishing. It is now almost impossible for the policeman to protect you from crime and criminals."

THE FRATERNAL ORDER of Police is trying to counterattack, is seeking 50 million signatures on a petition to force nullification of recent Supreme Court rulings.

Until some such effort is successful, there is nothing we can do about Sam. The High Court has handcuffed the wrong hands.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE

Fatal Fears

BY BOB WEAR

THE EXISTENCE of duty is one of our greatest blessings. The recognition of duty is the highest degree of honesty and alertness. The performance of duty is the zenith of human action, and the most dignified of human accomplishment.

All proper duty is dignified, and its performance is our only sure way to an approved level of personal dignity.

The duty may be the conduct due to parents, or superiors. The proper respect supported by approved actions will bring dignity to all concerned.

ACTING in accord with our station or occupation, and acting with good cheer, always brings rich rewards, especially to the one performing the duty.

Moral obligations also bind duties upon us. There are some things to be done, and some that must not be done. All moral obligation is in the realm of dignified duty. Faithful performance of such duty is the most dignified manner of life; a life of excellence, worth, high esteem and nobility.

CITIZENSHIP DUTIES also belong in this context. There are duties or responsibilities attending all of the privileges of citizenship. It is imperative that we be diligent to identify and perform these duties.

J. W. Dulles said, "The truth is, one's vocation is never some far-off possibility. It is always the simple round of duties which the passing hour brings."

THE LEGITIMATE DUTIES are not only dignified, they are dignifying and uplifting to those who cheerfully perform them.

These are days of tragic irresponsibility, and many people make fun of the whole concept of duty and its performance. We must not, however, be discouraged by this foolishness. The loss will all be their loss.

Theodore Parker expresses a salient fact when he says, "Let men laugh, if they will, when you sacrifice desire to duty. You have time and eternity in which to rejoice."

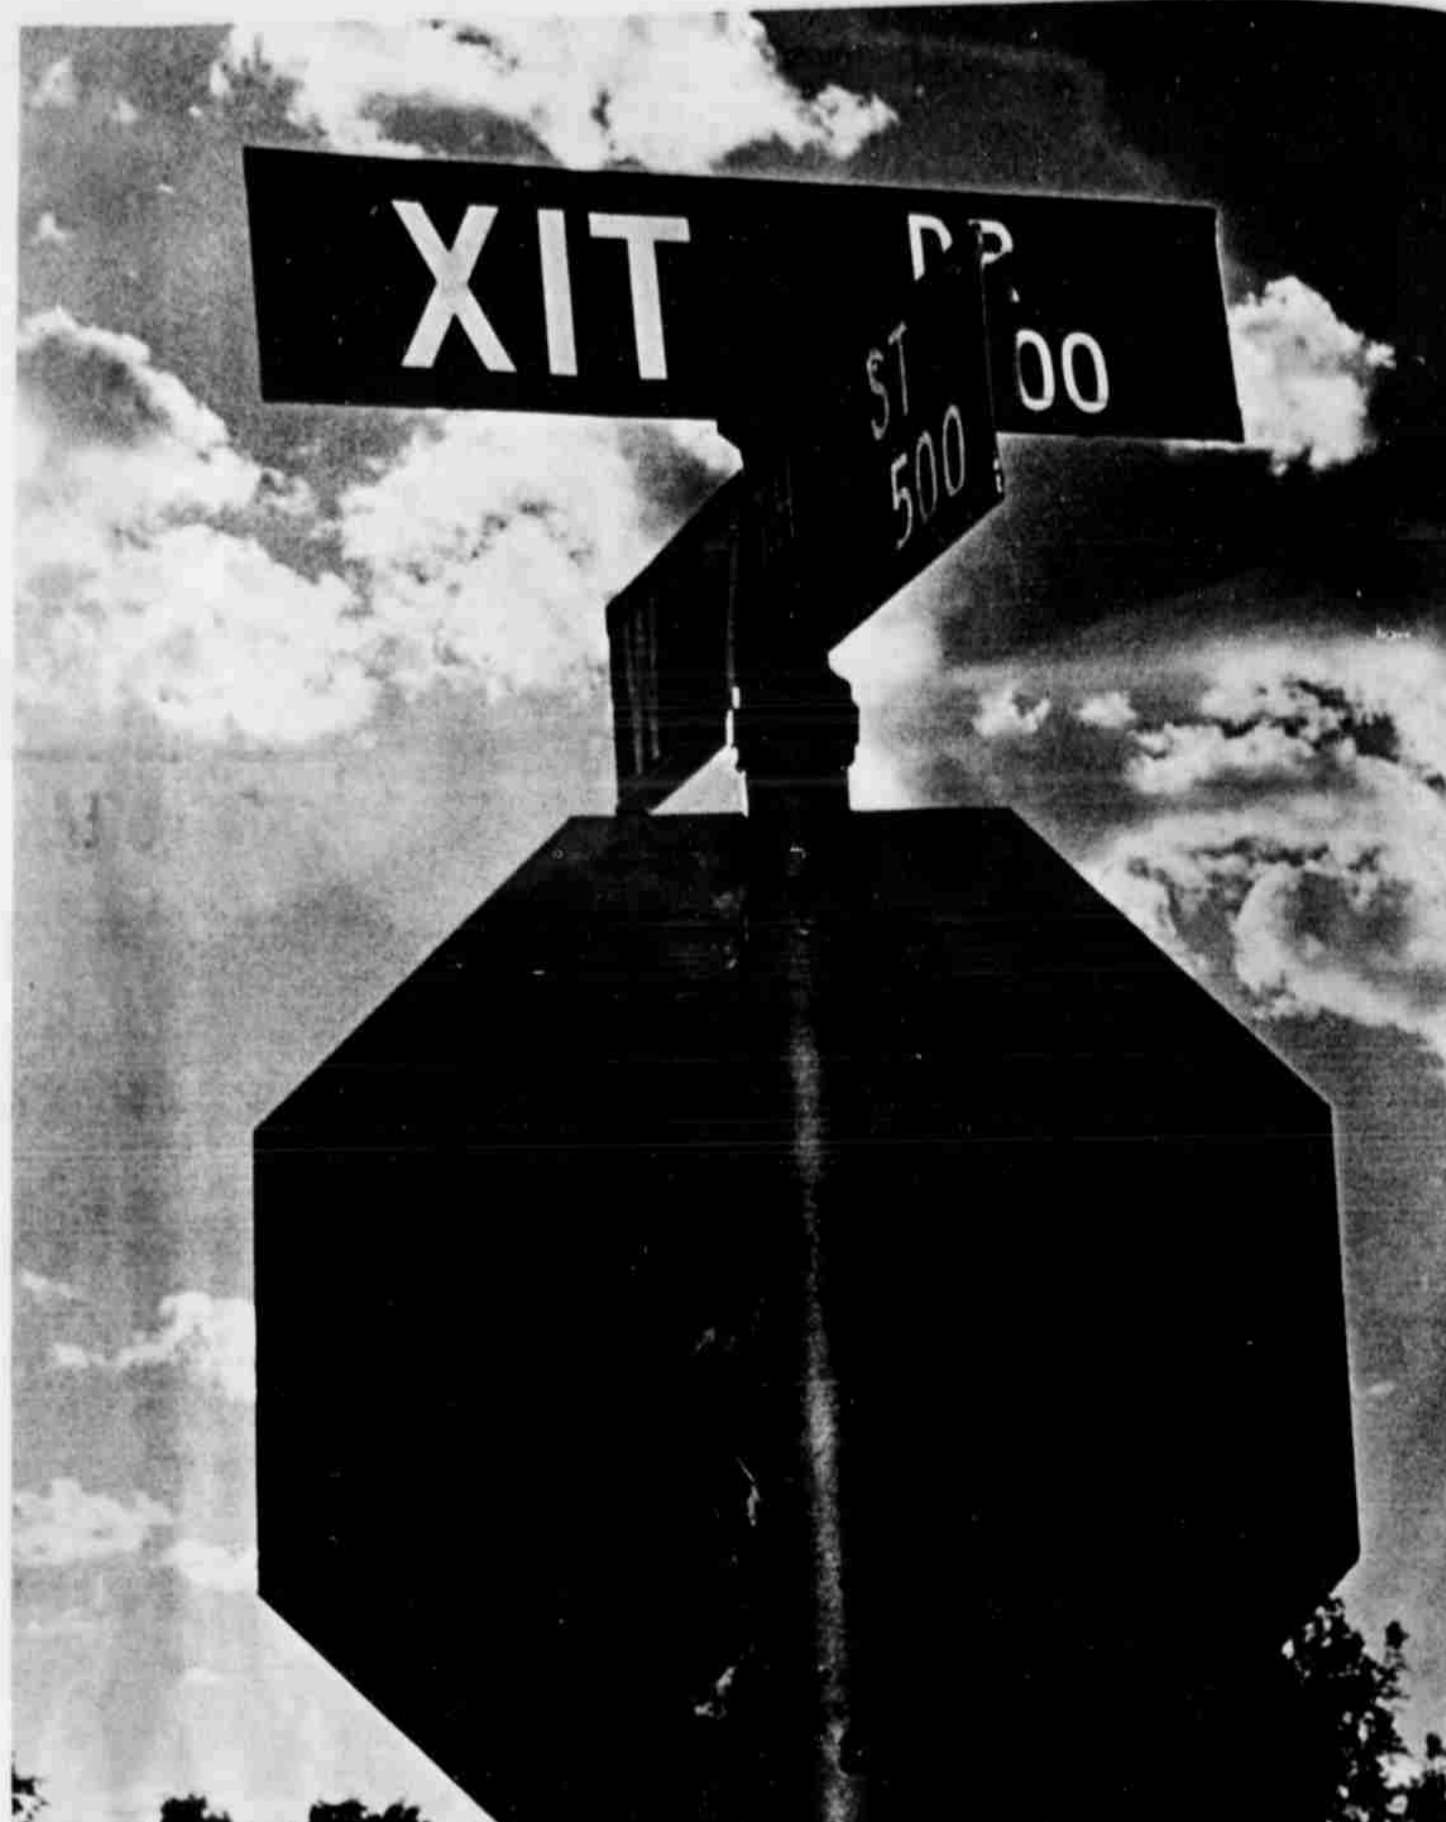

WHEN WE MEET the demands of duty, with a wholesome and cheerful spirit of purpose and determination, we are helping to maintain the best that life has to offer us. We are also giving our best to life. Occasionally, the performance of duty may be very unpleasant. Its performance, however, will help us in numerous ways if we accept the action in the most wholesome manner.

USUALLY DUTIES soon turn to privileges. It is a man's duty to support his family, but if he is the kind of man he should be; he thinks of the duty as a great privilege.

Lincoln said, "Let us have faith that right makes might; and, in that faith, let us, to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it." He was speaking of the whole nation, but this principle will also work in the life of the individual.

WHEN WE DO our duty just because it is our duty, we manifest a high degree of self discipline. The real joy, however, in meeting obligations, is reserved for those who see them as privileges and opportunities; and meet their demands with gladness of heart.

The strength, the dignity, the courage and the hope needed for success in the human experience come from duty recognized and performed; with skill and good cheer.

This Is Littlefield

One-way, South-bound X, I, T, Drive which parallels Phelps Avenue is named in commemoration of Littlefield's origin, the famed X, I, T, Ranch.

The city, and Lamb County, is part of the southernmost ranges of what was once the largest cattle ranch in the world.

Major George Littlefield bought 300,000 acres from the X, I, T, of what was known then as the Yellowhouse Ranch. He paid $2 an acre in 1901.

Then in 1911 he began opening it for farmland, at $11 an acre. The project was carried out by Arthur P. Duggan, husband to a niece of Littlefield.

Duggan, father of Arthur P. Duggan Jr., 520 East 9th, devoted his life to development of the fertile plains section.

A community whose heritage will always be connected with history's largest and best known cattle empires, the X, I, T, Ranch. This is Littlefield.

BY LIBBY MUDGE

IT NOW LOOKS like the Democrats are going to hold their convention in Chicago after all. The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers has agreed to let 300 volunteers install the elaborate communications systems required for the big hoopla.

There's a hitch, though. They have made it clear they are breaking their strike for only the International Amphitheatre and will wire none of the hotels where various delegates and candidates have their headquarters.

IN THIS TOUCHING vignette, we see Mayor Daley at his desk talking on his many telephones.

"Hubert, I'm sorry.... Yes, I realize that you're at your best speaking off the cuff, but you'll just have to arrange to speak off the cuff at the Amphitheatre.... Well, since we can't get television at your headquarters, you'll just have to break tradition and show up at the convention before you're nominated.... I know it's just not done, but why don't you start doing it anyway?.... Well, Lincoln didn't have a television problem."

"Look, Chief, I know you promised all your police television exposure if they'd just work extra hours preserving the safety of the convention.... There's nothing I can do about it.... You mean you can't get any of them to accept any beat except the Amphitheatre?.... No! You can't fire 'em!"

"Gov. Kirk, I realize Miami thought that they could lure the Democrats there.... I can't help what you promised.... Yes, everything is settled and I can safely say that the whole convention will be covered better than the Republican.... I am NOT lying.... Yes, complete coverage including hotels."

"Sorry to disappoint your viewers, ABC.... We'll make up for no hotel coverage. There'll be plenty of action on the convention floor.... No, NBC is not pulling out. That's just a rumor.... Neither is CBS. Can't imagine where you heard that.... There'll be news galore. Quit listening to old ladies.... Aw, who cares what happens at the hotels? The public doesn't give a hang.... I said so, that's who said so."

"Dick who?.... Oh, Gregory.... Yeah, well Dick, it's like this.... Yes, I know what you promised your people.... You can still turn the place upside down.... Why do you have to be on television to carry out your promise?.... Oh, that was part of the promise.... What do you mean they won't cooperate unless the TV cameras are there?.... I'll do what I can, but I can't promise a thing.... I know everyone is expecting it."

"Listen, when I ordered extra National Guards, I got your solemn promise I could have all I needed.... I can't help it if their wives and kiddies will be looking for them. I can't wire the whole blasted city myself.... Do you have to tell them they won't be on camera?.... What makes you think Gregory won't follow through?.... He's got too big a mouth. Besides, he's not the only actor in the country.... Tell your guardsmen I'll take movies of 'em with my home movie camera. Tell 'em anything, but have 'em here!"

"Sure Eugene.... You can come to the Amphitheatre anytime you want to.... I know you don't like crowds for your intellectual chats.... How about if we set aside a room just for you in the Amphitheatre?.... Be as intellectual as you like.... Yeah, just you and the cameramen."

"Lyndon, you'll never know how lucky I was just to get that union to agree to wire the Amphitheatre.... Yeah, I know you're gonna surprise us all.... Look, if they work night and day, they may be able to install enough equipment to cover your entourage if you won't show up too soon.... No, I'm not trying to tell you when to come to the convention. I just said if you want complete coverage, don't come too soon.... Yes, I realize you're still President, but the Brotherhood can't be rushed."

"Yes Connally, there'll be cameras on both sides of the Amphitheatre.... They know about your right profile.... No, I can't promise they won't take it from the left.... Give all the cameramen a pair of handmade boots.... Send in my secretary, please, and tell her to bring the records of all the city's past meetings. I can't remember for the life of me how come we ever offered the Democrats $900,000 to convene in Chicago!"

Journey To The Past

BY EVALYN PARROTT SCOTT

posts to provide the family's living. The decision of going to Oklahoma, to file on land, was made.

Gertrude has told the story, of their move to Indian Territory, in 1895, to her children many times.

"With a nice bunch of cattle, saddle horses, and three covered wagons, we made up our own wagon train. The lead wagon was drawn by a yoke of oxen, the second by a team of large horses. The third was pulled by a span of small mules. This third wagon was called the "pickup" wagon and it was used to haul the little calves.

It took us the biggest part of the spring to make the trip. We would have to stop for several days at a time to let our stock rest and graze. There was lots of open range in those days and if we could just find a stream of water and some fire wood we were sitting pretty. Everything was exciting to the children. There were three boys and three girls in our family at this time and after the move to Oklahoma Territory four more boys were born. We were called the "Little Rangers", while on this trip, and the name stuck with us years to follow.

When crossing one of the rivers, the oxen waded in, and began swimming toward the ford on the other side. A cowboy was standing near, and saw that they were going to miss the ford, so he rode his horse into the river and guided the oxen onto the ford, where they pulled the wagon up the bank and into the road again.

The further we went, the more we heard of the Indians, and terrible things happening, but nothing stopped us. Late one evening, we sighted a one room house. As we approached, we could see a nice well, and a fenced yard. It was only a little distance from a small stream of water which ran through the farm with huge cottonwood and elm trees along its banks. There was a horse, with a saddle on it, tied to the front gate of the yard.

We stopped everything and papa went to the house. We knew someone was there, for the smoke was curling out of the chimney.

He was fairly a young fellow, and was cooking his supper. He had staked this farm when the "Big Race" was on two years earlier. He had one more year to homestead, all by himself.

Papa offered him $200 for his claim and his belongings and he said, "You have yourself a place. My girlfriend won't marry me and live here close to the Indians". He fed us, and the next morning he packed his two horses with his personal belongings. As he rode away, leaving it all behind, he said, "Oden, this is a great place to raise those kids."

We soon found this to be true, but the Indians were suspicious of us. They rode by the next day and gave us a looking over. By night, their Chief, Elk River, and the missionary from the Redmoon Reservation school came. Papa explained everything to them, and when the Chief learned that we were from Texas, this seemed to make it right. Indians became regular visitors, and very good friends, and purchased butter, eggs, and milk from us.

One night there were three young white men who had been drinking. They shot into a tree-pee. A young Indian Squaw was almost killed and trouble was on hand at once. Papa and my oldest brother were away from home at work. Chief Elk River came to our house and sat down in front of our door. Mother asked him if he wanted something to eat. He said, "No trouble, me sit here". He sat there all night and when morning dawned, three lawmen rode by and told the Chief they had caught the fellows who did the shooting. He arose, and told Mother, "me go now".

Gertrude and her oldest sister, Lillie, helped do the cooking and dishwashing in the Redmoon Indian Reservation School for quite some time. This was a missionary school to teach civilization to the Indians.

It has been thought Oden began to sense trouble between the Indians and the white people and in 1906, he returned his family to Texas. They drifted back across the cedar country, cutting cedar post as they drove along. They landed near Brady and Menard, but moved further on through Coleman, and on into Abilene. They camped on the Abilene and Anson road near the Elm Creek bridge, two miles southeast of the Daniel Ray farm.

Edd was riding his saddle horse from Abilene Christian College, where he was attending school, when he approached the covered wagon camp of the Odens. This was where he met the one who later became his beloved, "Mrs. Pioneer".

Edd told Oden, if they were looking for work he was sure his father could use them. They helped with the gathering of the crop, that fall. Then Oden settled his family on the Dr. Gizzard farm northwest of Abilene. (To be continued in approximately three more sections.)

Scouts Attending Camp Post

Boy Scouts and leaders from 11 different Scout troops in the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America, are in summer camp this week at Camp Post, near Post, according to Camp Director Warren Green.

Among troops attending are Troop 615 from Post, sponsored by St. Phillips Catholic Church, and Troop 634 of Sudan, sponsored by Sudan Rotary Club. Upon their arrival Sunday, the Scouts were given a medical re-check and a classification swim test. They set up their troop campsites and prepared for a week of tent-living.

During the week they are engaging in swimming, rowing, canoeing, life-saving instruction, cooking, hiking, pioneering, conservation, rifle marksmanship, skeet shooting, archery, bait casting, fishing and the outdoor skills required for a Scout to achieve his second class and first class ranks. The troops' Scoutmaster will be supported by a twenty-four man central camp staff, Green said.

Friday, parents are invited to eat supper at Camp Post with their sons at 7 p.m.

They can do so by making paid reservations by noon Thursday either at the camp or at the Boy Scout Service Center.

Clayton Will Represent Texas At Water Meet

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake will represent Texas at the Southern Water Resources Conference, being held in Miami Beach, Florida, Wednesday through Friday of this week.

Clayton, who is chairman of the Interim Water Committee of the House of Representatives, was designated to attend the conference by House Speaker Ben Barnes.

The Southern Water Resources Conference is affiliated with the Council of State Governments and Interstate Conference on Water Problems.

Barnes said the conference is especially important to Texas because much of its business will be devoted to assessing and meeting water needs of the future and maintaining water quality, both of which are becoming of major concern to the state.

Any tree surgeon who'll go out on a limb is in the Yellow Pages

(Part of 4 sections, written by Edith Alexander Williams as told by Edward N. Ray.)

Edward Newton Ray and Emma Gertrude Oden were united in marriage Dec. 16, 1909, in Abilene.

Edward, better known to Lamb Countians as "Edd", was born June 29, 1892, in San Saba County.

He is son of Daniel Lufkin and Elizabeth Dallas (Ples) Ray. Daniel was born Jan. 10, 1871, near Jackson Gap, in Talapoosa County, Ala., the oldest son of Silas Marion Benjamin Ray and "Fannie" Frances (Moran) Ray. Daniel was reared on his father's farm in Alabama. He learned to like farming, probably because of the pass-time hours he spent doing the hobbies he liked best, hunting O'possums, racoons, squirrels, and fishing for yellow channel cat.

Elizabeth was born June 17, 1866, in Talapoosa County, Ala. She is daughter of George and Sarah (Lloyd) Ples.

Mr. and Mrs. Ples moved to Coosa County, Ala., and farmed near the Coosa River, when Elizabeth was a young lady. She ran the ferry boat, near Hoaks Bluff Ferry, across the Coosa River. During her childhood, she recalls lots of hard times and sickness, such as typhoid fever, chills, whooping-cough, and pneumonia.

Daniel and Elizabeth were married April 27, 1890, in Talapoosa County, Ala. In the fall of 1891, they moved to Hill County, Texas, by train. The spring of 1892 they moved to Lampassas County, and on to San Saba County, that summer, where they made their home on the Hillside Lloyd Ranch, owned by Elizabeth's uncle.

"Edd" relates that they were living in a tent in this area when he and his mother were trapped in a flood. He said he could remember when his mother sat the trunk upon the bed and stood him up beside it as the water rose higher in the tent floor. Her uncle, Hillie, swam a mule across the flow of water to rescue them. All three had to swim back across on the mule.

Due to a terrific drouth in 1896, Daniel decided to try the "old states" again. He sent his wife, and little son "Edd", to the old home by train. Daniel, along with his brother-in-law, went by covered wagons, pulled by two mules. A third mule was hitched to "Jigger-Pole", to help the team pull the wagon. When they reached the home town, 59 days later, a colored man said, "Looky dare, dat man done got a mule to pull de brake on dat wagon." Person after person began to gather around the wagon to see how he had made the invention for that third mule to pull the brake on with.

Not being able to find land for sale on the old state, Daniel and Elizabeth were unhappy with renting, and decided to return to Texas again. In 1899, they settled on the Merrill Ranch, four miles north of Abilene. In 1902, he bought a farm, across Elm Creek from the ranch.

"It was while living on this little farm near the creek that we owned one of the largest dogs I have ever seen. He resembled a shepherd, but was a lot larger. Evidently he had been owned by someone who did not speak English. When he learned and understood our commands, he would obey. He could drive the cows and calves almost as well as a person. He would go get the milk pen calves every morning.

One morning he only brought one back, but would return and try to bring the other one in. Again, he would return with no calf, and would look back at the pasture. My father told me to go with him and see what the trouble was. I found that the calf had gotten in a ranch pasture with about 300 head of steers, and refused to try to come away.

Finally I told "Shep" to go get him. "Shep" did, as he was commanded. He threw the calf, and it began bleating. I don't believe it was two minutes until every steer was bellowing and running. I ran to the corner of the fence and stood by the side of the big corner post.

The herd ran about eight miles and jumped off of a good high bluff into the clear fork of the Brazos River, where some were killed. About fifteen minutes after they started running, it looked just like a big sand storm coming from the north-west where they hit that river. It was about 11-2 miles south-east of where Hawley now is. The dog returned home about one o'clock, but the calf didn't make it in until nearly sunset."

RAY HILL
The spring of 1905 the Daniel Ray family moved upon a hill, on the Abilene and Anson road. The hill became known, (and probably still is) known as Ray Hill. This was due to the fact that a number of Ray families lived in the vicinity.

"Edd" says, "It was in 1906 and '07, I attended Abilene Christian College. One of the meanest horses I ever rode, was the saddle horse I rode to school while attending the college (was then Children's Classical Institute). Many times I have hunted, and shot prairie-dogs, out of the "bald-faced-prairie", between the town of Abilene and Simmons University. "I use to tie my saddle-horses to a hitching rack, near the Federal Post Office, on what is now Pine Street in Abilene where a three story building now sits."

In 1925, Daniel and Elizabeth Ray ventured, still further, west. They acquired a goodly number of acres of land near Portales, N. M., and also 160 acres of land at Sayre, Okla. Their children, Edward, Frank, Joe, Eula, and Alma, still hold the mineral rights of the Oklahoma property.

The couple celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, in the home of their son Frank, on April 27, 1940. Burial for them was made in Portales, N. M. Elizabeth's death was April 1, 1941, and Daniel's was April 27, 1947.

THE ODEN FAMILY
Emma Gertrude (Oden) Ray, was born Dec. 15, 1888, near Stephenville. The night of her birth is marked by "The Big Fire," of the Stephenville Commission. She is daughter of William Vinson Oden, born Oct. 26, 1854, and Rosalia Corine (Morton) Oden, born Jan. 9, 1861.

William and Rosalia were married Dec. 26, 1875. In later years, William was a cattleman in Erath County. He became an invalid and was unable to work for a long time. His wife, Rosalia, and the older children cut and hauled cedar

"Nothing in this Section shall be construed to amend, modify or repeal Section 31 of Article XVI of this Constitution; provided further, however, that such medical care, services or assistance shall also include the employment of objective or subjective means, without the use of drugs, for the purpose of ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye, and fitting lenses or prisms to correct or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of vision. City Council Okays Two-County Proposal

The Littlefield City Council has accepted an offer for eligibility in a two-county community action program, City Manager Jim Shearer has announced.

The council has accepted a proposal of an application and agreement for the city of Littlefield to be included in a proposed community action program which would combine and group Lamb and Hale Counties under a community action agency which would plan, conduct, administer, and evaluate local anti-poverty programs for both counties.

The City Council received an invitation from Hale County officials to join them in the application for organization of a bi-county unit. This does not mean that the City of Littlefield has any current plans for pursuing any phases for a Community Action Program. It does mean that the City would be eligible in the future to organize and conduct various activities which are available to local communities under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, as amended.

Eligibility does not mean recognition and funding of any OEO programs, but by exercising the option to combine with Hale County at this time, many obstacles would be removed for further participation if the community so desired.

A reduction of long distance rates goes into effect for General Telephone Company of the Southwest customers today as a result of the recent ruling by the Federal Communications Commission which ordered the American Telephone and Telegraph Company to reduce interstate long distance rates by $20,000,000 annually.

The reductions will be 3 to 10¢ from the charge for the first three minutes on daytime weekday station-to-station calls. These are calls placed between 7 A.M. and 5 P.M. Monday through Friday.

This is the 23rd time interstate rates have been cut since coast-to-coast service began in 1915. During that time, the cost of transcontinental calls has dropped to as little as $7.75 (station-to-station) from $20.70 in 1915.

VALUABLE LOOT RECOVERED--Property valued at $700, stolen in a series of eight thefts in Littlefield has been recovered by city police. Five male juvenile suspects, all of them from Littlefield, are under investigation in the case which took place over a period of several weeks.

Life In Australia 'Is Very Colorful'

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sanderson of 1001 W. 5th recently received an air mail letter postmarked Toowoomba, Old Australia, July 1.

Rev. and Mrs. Johnny Wilson, former Littlefield residents who pastored Sunset Avenue Baptist Church, have been serving as missionaries for the North American Baptist Missionary Association in Australia for a year.

Among interesting items written to the Sandersons, Mrs. Wilson began her letter with "I'm sitting in front of the fireplace, trying to keep warm. It has been cold for about a month now and I wish I'd kept track of all the broken weather records since we've been here".

"April was the hottest April on record and May the coldest!"

"The girls were surprised the other night to find I had cooked supper on the wood cook stove, instead of the gas one."

Mrs. Wilson says groceries are high in comparison to salaries and "the two food items that are cheaper are meat and wheat products. Hamburger meats 25 cents to 30 cents a pound and the very best steak is 60 cents a pound. A two pound loaf of bread is 22 cents and milk is about 63 cents a gallon--only it comes in 20 ounce glass bottles at nine cents, instead of gallon containers. Fresh fruits and vegetables are reasonable, but most anything in cans is as high as it was here. We pay 49 cents for a 16 ounce jar of Kraft Salad Dressing, and this isn't imported. "Clothes and dry goods are equally as expensive.

"We can't figure how the average Australian makes it but they all seem to have money and always looking as anyone. Rent seems to be from $12 to $24 a week, cheaper to buy if you have down payment."

"We've finally gotten of encouragement (in the church work). We've started a Club on Thursday afternoons here at the house. We had children the first week and this past Thursday. This helped our Sunday school, yet, but it is a chance to tell others about Jesus--which is reason for being here."

"Sometime ago, we sent some copies of the recipe cornbread, at the request of a grocer, to leave in the People here have never had cornbread, corn meal or pop corn for the most part. The daughter of the lady next door got one of the recipes and telling me how glad she was to get it. She said her husband like it much the first time she cooked it, but the next time added more sugar and the coconut on top of it."

"How does that sound?" she asked. "The next time she tried putting nutmeg in it. She said it's lovely, but really preferred coconut. I just stood there with my mouth open. I finally said never tried it that way and assured me I should try it. No less so say when I told just we had a great big laugh."

Another portion of her letter went into detail about a trip family made west to Ipswich southwest to Warwick.

As they were camped one night, they saw seven Kookaburras (birds) come from several directions--all lit on the limb and when they finished settling, "the only daylight had been seen between the trees. Next morning, about 4:45, they gave their most wonderful laugh and by daylight were gone. That morning were on our way again on Australian supper highway--lane bitumen (pavement) counted the places where people had had to stop and knock out their windshield (windshields). When you stop, each pulls of the night and then the rocks begin to fly. We drove over 1,900 miles together."

Along the route they saw several emus, large wallabies which are similar to the wallaby; eight kangaroos; many lads, a large pink and grey fox; the cockatoo family; a few common colored cockatoos, small brightly colored goannas, large lizards, sometimes range up to 8 feet length. Mrs. Wilson says, "Before we came to Australia, I heard about the big lizards, really thought someone was joking. They aren't, we've two-foot lizards in our backyards. They look like an overgrown horned toad, and are called "bearded-dragon".

Canadian Student Is Olton Guest

Olton-Brian Shantz of Ayr, Ontario, Canada, has been housed by Mr. and Mrs. Raymon and their son Billy while attending Wayland College the summer session.

Shantz is a senior at Grace College at Lamoni, Iowa, and is a member of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Shantz is a physical education major with a minor in history. He stated that he enjoyed the time at Wayland, as the instructor "made history live".

Shantz plans to teach physical education and history in Canada and receives his bachelor of science degree.

Canada students become eligible to teach in elementary schools after having completed year of study in a teacher's college.

Shantz has one sister who is attending to be an elementary teacher, while his other sister is preparing for a career as a nurse.

The first eight grades are taught in public schools in Canada. Following this, students have a choice of studying four years on a commercial or a biological course or remaining in high school the fifth year.

As there is no draft law in Canada, volunteers provide the members of the Army and Navy. They volunteer for a period of five years and usually remain in the military service as a career. A large Army or Navy is not required.

That country has three major political powers—the Liberal Party, Conservative Party and New Democratic Party, whose members vote with the Liberal Party or the Conservative Party—the ones whose candidates or platforms are most preferred.

Shantz thinks the plains of West Texas are beautiful, but he prefers to live near Ayr, which is a wooded region.

This fall he plans to resume his studies at Graceland College.

OLTON 1st, LITTLEFIELD 10th

Coaches Rate Teams

Olton's mighty Mustangs have been given the nod as the team most likely to succeed in the quest for the District 3-AA returning starters, should challenge Olton as they did last year. Behind the leaders the poll of coaches indicated Abernathy, Friona, Floydada, Lockney and Hale Center should be the order of finishing.

District 3-AAA was enlarged to 11 schools by the University Interscholastic League last spring, and the teams will play 10 straight conference games without leaving the loop. First Wildcat game is Sept. 10.

Sweetwater was the choice of 3-AAA coaches to win this conference this fall. They have eight offensive and five defensive starters returning.

Main purpose of the meeting is the election of 1968-69 officers, according to outgoing president Robbie Sexton.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m.

Area Netters Lose Matches At Plainview

Olton and Littlefield tennis players found competition from the larger Panhandle and South Plains cities a bit too tough over the weekend as they competed in the Plainview Open Tennis Tournament.

Local players, feeling they probably from lack of practice as much as anything, won very few matches in the meet.

Almost all the three-day tourney winners were from Lubbock, Amarillo or Plainview.

Anton's Troy Tidwell and Paula Whitfield lost to Roland Ingram and Alice Nichols, both of Amarillo, in the semifinals of the mixed doubles.

Tidwell also teamed with Plainview's Ricky Riddle in a losing effort against Amarillo's Winn Carter and Bruce Tilley, 6-1, 6-2. Carter and Tilley won both doubles brackets for Boys 16 and Boys 18.

Tommy Thrash and Steve Webb of Littlefield lost in the men's doubles 3-6, 6-0, 6-0 to Roland Ingram and Jerry Foster, of Amarillo.

Webb lost to the Boys 18 singles champ Gene Lard 6-2, 6-0.

Thrash, playing in the men's singles, lost in the second round after defeating Lubbock's Benge Daniel, 6-2, 6-4.

Ingram was the tourney's big winner, taking the men's singles; and teaming with Jerry Foster to win the men's doubles.

Olton went undefeated through its regular 10-game schedule last fall, but lost to Denver City in the bi-district clash. Denver City, by the way, got the nod for 4-AA title repeating as well.

"Olton had a fine team last year, went undefeated until losing to Denver City in bi-district," said Don Williams of Abernathy in describing the seven-team 3-AA. "And Don Beck has most of those kids back."

"He shows seven offensive and six defensive regulars returning. He lost this kicker and linebacker, but he has this (Benney) Akin back. The senior half-back is a fine runner, at 198-pounds (up about five pounds from last year.)

"And Eddie Hooper (195) is a fine guard," Williams said. The Abernathy mentor reported Dimmitt, sporting seven

All Eyes On Robin Tonight

Texas A&M coach Gene Stallings will get a firsthand look at one of his future linemen this evening at TCU's Amon Carter Stadium.

The Aggie mentor will be in the audience viewing the annual high school all-star football game held in conjunction with the Texas High School Coaching Clinic in Fort Worth.

And he'll be seeing Sudan's fine Robin Davis, who has signed to attend the Bryan school this fall.

Davis, all-everything as far as honors are concerned by all the sports writers over the state, has been ticketed by the North coach Merrill Green of Abilene Cooper as his starting left guard.

Among the other starters with the former Hornet will be Reagan Young of Palestine at tailback, Mike Bagley of Seagraves at fullback, John Dampier of Kermit at right tackle and Steve Burks of Dumas at slotback.

Davis is one of the few small school players in recent memory to be a starter in the annual game that probably carries tremendous state-wide interest.

SPAIN'S COAL OUTPUT
Spain produces about $12 million tons of coal a year.

DEBORD of Littlefield was the only County entrant in Saturday's Soap Box held in Lubbock. Sponsored by the Leaders, David was eliminated in his first heat. After spending weeks of hard work constructing the good-looking vehicle, David's 33.9 - second racing season for 1968 ended rather quickly.

POPULATION HAS DECREASE

Area Not Short Of Dove

STIN--Mourning doves should find plenty of when the season opens, as an indicated 12 per cent rise in the breeding population, according to Ted L. biologist in charge of the dove project for the Texas and Wildlife Department. Clark says he finds the decrease "significant," but hunters should still be able to find doves.

doze populations because absolute accuracy cannot be claimed in dove census work," he said.

In determining dove populations, census takers use the "cove count" to determine relative nesting activity. Doves heard calling and doves seen are recorded along a 20-mile route with listening stations one mile apart. Call counts begin one-half hour before sunrise and continue for two hours.

Routes are designed to be run four times each during the census period. Counts made in 1966 were at five-day intervals during the period from June 5-25. This year's census was taken between May 26 and June 7.

HE'S OUT--Littlefield Pony All-Star first baseman Danny Estrada tags the base after a toss from pitcher Doug Cummings in Saturday's semi-final district tournament game at Hereford. But several other Borger runners beat out such throws, and went on to end the tournament with a 12-0 no hit victory over the Littlefield club. Only three locals reached the bases, two on wall's and the other on an error. Following Karis Reeves, who allowed the first four batters a double, a home run, a double and a home run, and in that order, were relief pitchers Cummings, Gary Edwards, Ron Risinger and Roger Bellar. Littlefield won two games and lost two in the tournament. Borger has won the title seven straight years.

When others talk about car deals too fantastic to be true, that's exactly what they mean.

See your Chevrolet dealer. He'll give you sound, straight year-end savings on any Chevrolet—a car worth owning. For example: special savings on Power Disc Brakes and Power Steering. Also on popular V8's, and automatics on big Chevrolets and Chevilles.

You get the biggest year-end savings just where you'd expect to.
