Billy Gage In Training With Lubbock Hubbers

Billy Gage, 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gage of Whitharral is being given a tryout for a pitcher position with the Lubbock Hubbers in their spring training quarters at Uvalde.

Gage pitched for the Junior American baseball team in Littlefield last year before he was hurt in a motorcycle accident. He was acclaimed as an excellent pitcher by every team that the locals played.

If Gage makes good in spring training, he may be signed as a rookie pitcher by Hubber Manager I. B. Palmer for the coming season. Gage graduated from Whitharral High school at mid-term.

Local Man Is Killed Instantly In Tragic Accident Monday

A tragic accident, with the exact cause still unknown and undetermined, and so far as investigation has revealed thus far had no eye witness, caused the death of Johnnie James Williams, 27, married and the father of five children, at Littlefield Union Compress and Warehouse, about 4 p.m. Monday afternoon, as Williams, plant engineer was engaged in some repair work on the press.

With him at the time of the accident was another employee, but he was momentarily engaged elsewhere when the accident occurred, and was unable to state with certainty, what happened. He was said to be the first to discover the accident.

Fred Underwood, son of Arch Underwood, of Lubbock, who heads vast compress holdings, of which the local unit is a part, and who manages the local plant told a manager reporter that a full investigation conducted Tuesday morning determined that the unfortunate victim of the accident was mashed between the lifting arms of the press attachment, while he was jacking on the struts. The press was inactive at the time, and it was necessary to get up steam in the boiler, before the press could be lifted to release the body. It re-

Three Youths Narrowly Escape Death In Tire Blowout Tuesday

Three Lamb county youths narrowly escaped death Tuesday night, when the car they were riding in, turned four flips, after a rear tire had blown out. The victims were Wayne Williams of Amherst, driver of the 1949 Hudson sedan, Miss Martha Carr, 14, daughter of Mrs. Elton Pace of Littlefield, and Alfred Crowder, 17, also of Littlefield.

The accident occurred a few miles east of Littlefield, on the Lubbock highway. They were all rushed to Littlefield Hospital, for emergency treatment.

Williams was believed to have suffered more serious injuries than the other two. Hospital authorities were to make x-ray pictures Wednesday morning. He is believed to have suffered a possible fractured pelvis. His front teeth were said to have been completely broken off.

Miss Carr received a sprained shoulder and also suffered a back injury. She too was to have x-ray pictures made Wednesday.

Prize Winning Band To Go To Regional

High school band will make their appearance at band clinic, known as Band Concert Festival to be held at Canyon on April 25, the complement of new uniforms having arrived from the manufacturing tailors Monday of this week.

Band director Don Hayes and his 1951 prize-winning band, which went even further in the contests the previous year and won sweepstakes award, will be out, and all-out (in their new uniforms) to repeat one or both previous records.

The band now has 90 members, and is rated one of the crack organizations for the entire state of Texas, not only in musical performance, but in marching and sight reading.

The new uniforms are indeed a thing of beauty, and colorful to the nth degree. The uniforms are of full military design, and are a flashy maroon color whipcord material, 100% wool, with white trim, and brass buttons on the long-coats. The hats are of West Point style, known as Shaka, are also maroon color, and are embellished with a tall white plume—maroon and white being the local school colors. White leather Sam Browne belts add chic to the colorful uniforms.

The new uniforms are being distributed to band members this week, and Littlefield citizens who have contributed generously to the uniform fund, will be given a preview of their newly-tailored band, in a marching, and short concert appearance, one day next week to be held down town on Phelps Avenue.

Details for the annual band festival at Canyon are being worked out now. It has been announced however, that the local group will compete in the Class A competitions, and are scheduled to compete in each concert playing, sight reading and march. The local group expects to enter 36 of their members in solo musical instrumental competitions, and will be entered in at least nine ensembles.

Prizes will be also awarded to student band directors in competitions, and Larry Rice and Freddy Briggs will represent the local school band in this event.

A large number of local band parents and band enthusiasts have already announced their intention to accompany and applaud their home town band. The marching contests are expected to be especially colorful, and will be staged at West Texas State College football stadium, under the flood lights.

They Read The Sign And Went To A April Fool Dinner Party

Forty-two neighbors of the Oklahoma Flat Community saw the sign, "Free Lunch Two Miles North," April 1—but they didn't think about it being April Fool's Day—and they followed directions, which led them to the home of Mr.

and Mrs. C. E. Jones. Mrs. Jones had just returned from the laundry, and she didn't have a thing prepared for lunch, when the 42 guests arrived.

However, they "pulled" a pretty clever April Fool joke on her—they all brought well-filled baskets, which they had left in the car until they had had time to regale their hostess "flustered."

A delicious dinner was spread—and group pictures were made of the women, men and children attending.

This party really began, with signs spotted around over the neighborhood, directing each to another's home, and all joined in. It was no "dress-up affair—and 'the fool' who started it, have not revealed their identity.

Those present for the foolish good time were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Solesbee, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lichte, Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Renfro, Mr. and Mrs. Ples Helms, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Carol, who is the daughter of a Presbyterian minister, recalls that she became interested in gardening when she lived in the country, tended her mother's tulip bed, and started lovely pansywillows merely by putting a twig in the ground. She loved growing pansies and zinnias.

Another youngster—Susan Eastburn—won a prize for a large sweet potato plant. She started it three months ago by taking "a good fresh potato" and putting the sprout end in about an inch of water. Then she put it in a dark place for a few weeks, adding water occasionally. When leaves appeared she put it in a sunny window.

Paving Contract Awarded To Local Construction Company

Contract was awarded by city commission Friday night to the Travis Jones Construction Company of Littlefield for approximately 47 blocks of paving which is expected to get underway in the next few weeks.

Successful bidder secured a contract for $99,300.01, which was lowest of the three bids which had been submitted. Other bidders were Ken Middleton of Lubbock, $101,774.37, and Dalley & Hollifield of Amarillo, $102,379.97.

Bids on the project were called for several weeks ago. It is probable that several additional blocks may be paved, if others contemplating paving sign contracts before the work is completed. Cost of the paving is borne by property owners, although the city bears the expense at intersections.

At the same meeting of the commission, two members of Littlefield Chamber of Commerce safety committee met with the commission, and recommended installation of a traffic light at the intersection of 9th and Farwell streets replacing the present blinker, and removal of the blinker to the three-way intersection at 9th-10th and Littlefield Drive. Commission accepted the recommendation.

SCHOOL CHORUS RECEIVE HONORS AT REGIONAL MUSIC CONTESTS

Littlefield high school chorus and the junior high chorus, walked off with coveted honors at the annual district choral competitions held at Canyon last Friday and Saturday, both groups accompanied and directed by Bob Irby, vocal instructor for the schools.

The senior chorus was awarded first place in concert singing and second in sight reading on Friday. The junior choir placed second in concert singing and second place in sight reading.

The latter group's quartet rendition of "Prayer Perfect," rendered by Carrie Ivey, Nancy Garrett, Minyon and Clarabeth Theford, which placed second was said to have been outstanding.

The local groups bettered their last year's competition record made at Canyon, when they placed second in concert singing and fourth place in sight reading, while the junior chorus trailed in the competitions. Last year's quartet, however, won first place.

The singing was in different classes, with the larger schools taking a different classification from the smaller. A total of six first placements were awarded in concert singing.

The meet brought school singing groups from throughout the entire area.

Arrangements are being completed for an inter-change of choirs among several schools in the near future, which will result in giving Littlefield opportunity to hear some of the other school's choristers, and the local group to make one or more out-of-town appearances.

Roden-Smith Drug Store, Walgreen agency located at the corner of Fourth and Phelps streets, which has been closed the first three days of this week, will re-open for business this Thursday morning, after a complete re-vamping of the entire interior of the 27x75 foot store, and removal of the soda fountain.

The completely, newly-fixture store, is the ultimate in modernistic, and has been fixture, arranged and designed as a self-serve drug store, with every facility provided to make drug shopping easy and convenient.

A representative of the Bulman Manufacturing Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan, is here making the installation of the new fixtures. He stated that this is the first store on the entire South Plains to be equipped with these modern new fixtures.

The new fixtures are of all-steel construction, bonderized, and vermin proofed, and includes 500 feet of steel display self-service fixtures, including shelving and islands. The color scheme is harmonious, in colors of pastel pink and grey.

The conventional drug store is able to carry and display 20,000 to 25,000 items, while this new modern store, will be able to carry 35,000 and 40,000 items. This modern type of store, is said to now predominate in new installations, both in the east, and on the west coast.

The store will lay emphasis on their nationally advertised line of cosmetics, as well as the large drug stocking of items, according to K. T. Roden, who manages the local store. Mr. Roden, himself is a registered pharmacist, and Dan Stagg, a registered pharmacist is also on the staff, making it possible to have a registered pharmacist on duty at all times.

In conjunction with the opening, every visitor to the new store will be asked to register, through Saturday, and a drawing will be conducted at 6 p.m. Saturday evening, when $500 in merchandise will be awarded in prizes.

Saturday, favors will be given to every visitor, including flowers, cigars and balloons.

Lion Club Hears Report On Soil From County Agent

David Eaton, Lamb county agent, was guest speaker at the Lions club luncheon Wednesday noon.

The county agent spoke on the erosion, and how farmers were combating the problem. Deep plowing and the formation of the soil was explained to the membership.

Mr. Eaton explained that only 15 percent of the population of the United States were farmers. This small percentage of the people are producing more and more products each year.

The farmers are doing everything possible to step up production to meet the demand. Deep plowing is one answer to this problem, according to Mr. Eaton.

In giving a report to the sponsoring club of the Boy Scouts, Houston Hoover told of the work of the 33 members. Mr. Hoover stated that he had secured the help of several men to help with the scouts.

The Lions club also discussed the sale of advance tickets to the Wallace Brothers Circus which will appear here April 14. The membership receives 40 percent of the admission price on advance tickets.

It was decided that a booth would be placed on main street to sell tickets. Each member will work for two hours to sell the tickets.

The booth will be open all day Saturday and Monday. It will also be open each afternoon from 12 until 6 o'clock during the following week.

Local Man Is Killed Instantly In Tragic Accident Monday

A tragic accident, with the exact cause still unknown and undetermined, and so far as investigation has revealed thus far had no eye witness, caused the death of Johnnie James Williams, 27, married and the father of five children, at Littlefield Union Compress and Warehouse, about 4 p.m. Monday afternoon, as Williams, plant engineer was engaged in some repair work on the press.

With him at the time of the accident was another employee, but he was momentarily engaged elsewhere when the accident occurred, and was unable to state with certainty, what happened. He was said to be the first to discover the accident.

Fred Underwood, son of Arch Underwood, of Lubbock, who heads vast compress holdings, of which the local unit is a part, and who manages the local plant told a Leader reporter that a full investigation conducted Tuesday morning determined that the unfortunate victim of the accident was mashed between the lifting arms of the press attachment, while he was jacking on the struts. The press was inactive at the time, and it was necessary to get-up steam in the boiler, before the press could be lifted to release the body. It re-

high school band will make their appearance at band clinic, known as Band Concert Festival to be held at Canyon on April 25, the complement of new uniforms having arrived from the manufacturing tailors Monday of this week.

Band director Don Hayes and his 1951 prize-winning band, which went even further in the contests the previous year and won sweepstakes award, will be out, and all-out (in their new uniforms) to repeat one or both previous records.

The band now has 90 members, and is rated one of the crack organizations for the entire state of Texas, not only in musical performance, but in marching and sight reading.

The new uniforms are indeed a thing of beauty, and colorful to the nth degree. The uniforms are on full military design, and are a flashy maroon color whipcord material, 100% wool, with white trim, and brass buttons on the long-coats. The hats are of West Point style, known as Shaka, are also maroon color, and are embellished with a tall white plume—maroon and white being the local school colors. White leather Sam Browne belts add chic to the colorful uniforms.

The new uniforms are being distributed to band members this week, and Littlefield citizens who have contributed generously to the uniform fund, will be given a preview of their newly-tailored band, in a marching, and short concert appearance, one day next week to be held down town on Phelps Avenue.

Details for the annual band festival at Canyon are being worked out now. It has been announced however, that the local group will compete in the Class A competitions, and are scheduled to compete in each, concert playing, sight reading and march. The local group expects to enter 36 of their members in solo musical instrumental competitions, and will be entered in at least nine ensembles.

Prizes will be also awarded to student band directors in competitions, and Larry Rice and Freddy Briggs will represent the local school band in this event.

A large number of local band parents and band enthusiasts have already announced their intention to accompany and applaud their home town band. The marching contests are expected to be especially colorful, and will be staged at West Texas State College football stadium, under the flood lights.

Lovely gifts were attractively displayed in a guest bedroom and also in the den. The hostess gift was an electric Mixmaster.

The bride-elect's chosen color, pink, was attractively used in carrying out the decorations. The tea table, laid with a white linen cloth, was centered with large gold wedding rings, and pink candles with nosegays of pink sweetpeas at the base. The same arrangement was used at either end of the table. Fluff punch with an assortment of dainty cookies and nuts were served.

Plate favors were tiny rings tied with a pink ribbon, and tily of the valley, which were attached to a miniature paper doily.

More than 100 guests called during the entertaining hours from three to five o'clock, from Lubbock, Anton, Spade and Littlefield.

Those attending from here were Mesdames Jack Farr, Hugo Kibler, W. C. Thaxton, Allan Hodges, John Price, Ira E. Woods, M. M. Brittain, Van Clark and L. C. Hewitt.

The wedding is to take place April 10, at 8 p.m. at Ford Memorial Chapel, Lubbock, with Dr. Great, pastor, performing the double ring ceremony.

They Read The Sign And Went To A April Fool Dinner Party

Forty-two neighbors of the Oklahoma Flat Community saw the sign, "Free Lunch Two Miles North," April 1—but they didn't think about it being April Fool's Day—and they followed directions, which led them to the home of Mr.

and Mrs. C. E. Jones. Mrs. Jones had just returned from the laundry, and she didn't have a thing prepared for lunch, when the 42 guests arrived.

However, they "pulled" a pretty clever April Fool joke on her—they all brought well-filled baskets, which they had left in the car—until they had had time to really get their hostess "flustered."

A delicious dinner was spread—and group pictures were made of the women, men and children attending.

This party really began, with signs spotted around over the neighborhood, directing each to another's home, and all joined in. It was no "dress-up affair"—and the "fool's" who started it, have not revealed their identity.

Those present for the foolish good time were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Solesbee, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lichte, Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Renfro, Mr. and Mrs. Ples Helms, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Davis, Mrs. Rosy Mary McNeese, Mrs. Rex Matthews, Mrs. Ruby Cobb, Mrs. Monica Myers and three children, Mrs. J. P. Tomlinson, Minnie Davis, Edna May Stewart, Ruth Miller, Waldene McKinney, and Mrs. Sid Pace.

You've all heard that from little acorns big oaks grow. But you'd probably be surprised that from seeds left after your breakfast grapefruit or from dinner cucumbers lovely plants grow.

You don't need an acre of land to have fun growing things, says Carol Huenick, 12, of Staten Island, N.Y. Carol, who is the daughter of a Presbyterian minister, recalls that she became interested in gardening when she lived in the country, tended her mother's tulip bed, and started lovely pussywillows merely by putting a twig in the ground. She loved growing pansies and zinnias.

Another youngster—Susan Eastburn—won a prize for a large sweet potato plant. She started it three months ago by taking "a good fresh potato" and putting the sprout end in about an inch of water. Then she put it in a dark place for a few weeks, adding water occasionally. When leaves appeared she put it in a sunny window.

tained basic information. The book documents Feininger's many talents. His photos show he is a thorough craftsman. His home-made telephoto cameras show his inventive, technical and mechanical abilities. His writing shows them thinking that is at once scholarly, analytical and provocative. They all add up to intelligent, imaginative pictures. He thinks most photographers can do as well if their thoughts are turned in the right direction and if they use their minds as well as their cameras.
To get down to cases, let's assume you must photograph a subject. In almost all cases, there is one "obvious" way to shoot it. Undoubtedly it will be adequate, but usually it will not be outstanding. Instead of shooting it the easy way, Feininger advises a systematic questioning of every picture-making factor, along these lines:
"What else can I do? How would my subject look from a different angle... from higher up or lower down? How would it look taken with a telephoto lens from further away or with a wide angle lens from much closer? Could I use different background, different props or accessories, different pose or different light?"

Undoubtedly better pictures will result if photographers took to thinking like this instead of snapping automatically. And anyone who can think that-a-way is just the guy Feininger had in mind when he wrote this book.
Contest Note: The "Pets Are Fun" photo contest for youngsters 19 and younger is on the last lap. The deadline for mailing entries is April 26, with the winner getting a choice of some mighty exciting trips.
If a boy wins first prize he can choose a 15,000 mile flight to Africa plus a jungle safari or a two-week, all-expense air trip to New York or Hollywood. In a case of rank discrimination, if a girl wins first prize she has her choice only of New York or Hollywood. No jungle safaris. In either case, first prize provides the same expense-paid adventure for a companion-chaperone selected by the winner.

Paving Contract Awarded To Local Construction Company

Contract was awarded by city commission Friday night to the Travis Jones Construction Company of Littlefield for approximately 47 blocks of paving which is expected to get underway in the next few weeks.

Successful bidder secured a contract for $99,300.01, which was lowest of the three bids which had been submitted. Other bidders were Ken Middleton of Lubbock, $101,774.31, and Dalley & Hollifield of Amarillo, $102,379.97.

Bids on the project were called for several weeks ago. It is probable that several additional blocks may be paved, if others contemplating paving, sign contracts before the work is completed. Cost of the paving is borne by property owners, although the city bears the expense at intersections.

At the same meeting of the commission, two members of Littlefield Chamber of Commerce safety committee met with the commission, and recommended installation of a traffic light at the intersection of 9th and Farwell streets replacing the present blinker, and removal of the blinker to the three-way intersection at 9th-10th and Littlefield Drive. Commission accepted the recommendation.

SCHOOL CHORUS RECEIVE HONORS AT REGIONAL MUSIC CONTESTS

Littlefield high school chorus and the junior high chorus, walked off with coveted honors at the annual district choral competitions held at Canyon last Friday and Saturday, both groups accompanied and directed by Bob Irby, vocal instructor for the schools.

The senior chorus was awarded first place in concert singing and second in sight reading on Friday. The junior choir placed second in concert singing and second place for their quartet.

The latter group's quartet rendition of "Prayer Perfect," rendered by Carrie Ivey, Nancy Garrett, Minyon and Clarabeth Theford, which placed second was said to have been outstanding.

The local groups bettered their last year's competition record made at Canyon, when they placed second in concert singing and fourth place in sight reading, while the junior chorus trailed in the competitions. Last year's quartet, however, won first place.

The singing was in different classes, with the larger schools taking a different classification from the smaller. A total of six first placements were awarded in concert singing.

The meet brought school singing groups from throughout the entire area.

Arrangements are being completed for an inter-change of choirs among several schools in the near future, which will result in giving Littlefield opportunity to hear some of the other school's choristers, and the local group to make one or more out-of-town appearances.

SQUIRE EDGE GATE — Lots of Diplomacy

CYRUS I OVERHEARD MR. BLINKS ON THE STREET CAR TALKING TO A LADY AND HE WAS CERTAINLY BRAGGING ON HIS WIFE.

THAT'S THE KIND OF A MAN I LIKE TO SEE HE WAS TALKING ABOUT HIS WIFE ALL THE TIME "LAUDING HER TO THE SKIES TO THAT WOMAN — I FELT LIKE SHAKING HANDS WITH HIM FOR GIVING HIS WIFE SO MUCH CREDIT"

MOST MEN FORGET THEIR WIVES WHEN THEY TALK TO OTHER WOMEN.

THAT'S A GOOD JOKE — BLINKS WAS PLAYING HIS HAND WELL.

THAT WOMAN HE WAS ESCORTING ON THE CAR IS THEIR PROSPECTIVE COOK — AND HE'S USING EVERY ARGUMENT TO GET HER TO ACCEPT THE POSITION.

Roden-Smith Modernized; To Operate As Self-Service: Grand Opening Today

Roden-Smith Drug Store, Walgreen agency located at the corner of Fourth and Phelps streets, which has been closed the first three days of this week, will re-open for business this Thursday morning, after a complete re-vamping of the entire interior of the 27x75 foot store, and removal of the soda fountain.

The completely, newly-fixture store, is the ultimate in modernistic, and has been fixture, arranged and designed as a self-serve drug store, with every facility provided to make drug shopping easy and convenient.

A representative of the Bulman Manufacturing Company of Grand Rapids, Michigan, is here making the installation of the new fixtures. He stated that this is the first store on the entire South Plains to be equipped with these modern new fixtures.

The new fixtures are of all-steel construction, bonderized, and vermin proofed, and includes 500 feet of steel display self-service fixtures, including shelving and islands. The color scheme is harmonious, in colors of pastel pink and grey.

The conventional drug store is able to carry and display 20,000 to 25,000 items, while this new modern store, will be able to carry 35,000 and 40,000 items. This modern type of store, is said to now predominate in new installations, both in the east, and on the west coast.

The store will lay emphasis on their nationally advertised line of cosmetics, as well as the large drug stocking of items, according to R. T. Roden, who manages the local store. Mr. Roden, himself is a registered pharmacist, and Dan Stagg, a registered pharmacist is also on the staff, making it possible to have a registered pharmacist on duty at all times.

In conjunction with the opening, every visitor to the new store will be asked to register, through Saturday, and a drawing will be conducted at 6 p.m. Saturday evening, when $500 in merchandise will be awarded in prizes.

Saturday, favors will be given to every visitor, including flowers, cigars and balloons.

Lion Club Hears Report On Soil From County Agent

David Eaton, Lamb county agent, was guest speaker at the Lions club luncheon Wednesday noon.

The county agent spoke on the erosion, and how farmers were combating the problem. Deep plowing and the formation of the soil was explained to the membership.

Mr. Eaton explained that only 15 percent of the population of the United States were farmers. This small percentage of the people are producing more and more products each year.

In giving a report to the sponsoring club of the Boy Scouts, Houston Hoover told of the work of the 33 members. Mr. Hoover stated that he had secured the help of several men to help with the scouts.

The Lions club also discussed the sale of advance tickets to the Wallace Brothers Circus which will appear here April 14. The membership receives 40 percent of the admission price on advance tickets.

It was decided that a booth would be placed on main street to sell tickets. Each member will work for two hours to sell the tickets. The booth will be open all day Saturday and Monday. It will also be open each afternoon from 12 until 6 o'clock during the following week.

quired about fifteen minutes to fire the boiler to create the necessary steam power.

Dr. Ralph Maurer was immediately summoned, but the victim was dead before his arrival, evidently died instantaneously.

Mr. Underwood, saddened, as were all of the compress employees, stated that every precaution is taken to insure the safety of workers, and said that this is the first time an accident has resulted in death for any employee, throughout the years that the company has operated the large network of compresses which it owns in the state and area.

The victim of the accident had been employed at the compress for about a year past, but had also formerly worked at the local plant, prior to his present term of employment.

The Hammons Funeral Home was placed in charge of remains, and funeral services were conducted from Missionary Baptist church in Littlefield at 2 p.m. Wednesday, with Dr. Weldon B. Meers, officiating, with interment following in Littlefield Cemetery.

Johnny James Williams was born June 24, 1924 at Weimert, Texas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Williams. He had lived in and around Littlefield for the past 23 years, and he attended the Sudan schools.

Surviving are his wife, who was the former Miss Odessa Pierce, and the five children, Mary 7, Janice 6, Bubby 4, Troy 3 and Eddie Weldon 2; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Williams, 149 Austin Ave., and one brother, J. L. Williams of Littlefield, and six sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Gee, Littlefield, Mrs. Roberta Williams, Levelland, Mrs. Opal Taylor, Mrs. Lois Swagerty, and Mrs. Faye Fenton, all of Littlefield and Miss Tina Williams of Albany. All were present for the last rites, as well as a large number of other close relatives.

Funeral bearers included Elmo Gee, Roscoe Taylor, Elijah Williams, Ray, T. L. and Burton Pierce.

NOT STYMIED AT ALL

MIAMI (AP) — The famed race horse, Stymie, ran as a juvenile 13 times before he won a race. The first offspring of Stymie, however, fared much better. Our Cricket, a filly, won in her first start recently at Hialeah. She belongs to Mrs. E. D. Jacobs who also owns Stymie.

JUNIOR CARRIES THE MAIL

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Johnny Cooney, Jr., 25, son of the Boston Braves' first base coach, is a mailman here where his dad lives in the off season. Young Cooney quit baseball in 1949 when he tore a knee cartilage while playing with the Miami Sun Sox. He was a third baseman.

Mrs. E. D. Garland Jr., and Mrs. J. Don Eagan were in Lubbock Monday.

WILDCATS LAUNCH SPRING BASKETBALL TRAINING MONDAY

Approximately 30 boys reported to Coach Forrest Martin in the high school gymnasium Monday afternoon at 2:45 for the first practice session of the Spring basketball training that is now underway at the school.

The Wildcats lost only three players off this season's team so prospects are looking up for the locals. Co-Capt. Joe Walden, Freddy Howard and Frank Frye are the three that will be lost to the Cats. Co-Capt. Keith Streety will have one more year to play for the locals as will regulars, Garland Thornton and R. L. Rhoten.

The spring football training was postponed for two weeks, hoping that the winds will stop somewhat if early April brings any rain.

Football training will start as soon as the two weeks basketball period comes to an end. The grid training will be allowed thirty days of training instead of just two weeks.

Workouts are from 2:45 to 4:45 each day. Coach Martin has no assistant Coach during Spring training but Coach Hester will probably help next season when regular play gets started.

trict 4-A track meet at Texas Tech. This was one of three first places won by Buhrman, who paced the Mules to the championship as the meet high scorer. M.

C. Northam of Littlefield, extreme right, was nosed out for second by Lackey of Morton, shown to Northam's left. Hyles of Tahoka was fourth.

Streak-Stopping A's May Surprise Again

By FRANK ECK
AP Newfeatures Sports Editor
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.— Following Jimmie Dykes' round a golf course is one of the easy things in life. He takes few extra strokes and shooting in the mid-70s is pretty good for a 55-year-old manager, as even Dykes admits.

For instance, take the first hole at one of the municipal courses here. It's about 500 yards, a par 5. Dykes made the green with his second shot. He needed a 20-foot putt for an eagle. He just missed. "Nice birdie," said John Hillerich, the Louisville bat man.

"But I was putting for an eagle," replied Dykes. "Let's talk baseball."

A Real Education

Walking nine holes with the former infielder is an education in golf and baseball. Reminded that his Philadelphia Athletics had the third best winning percentage in the American League for the last 77 games of 1951, Dykes came back with one of his usual gems.

"They must be pretty good ball players," said Jimmie. "I saw some of the letters they wrote in before they signed. Of course, I can't say too much. I used to write the same kind of letters myself."

The boys really clicked the last half. Everything worked. This year with some breaks we can finish fifth, maybe even crash the first division. We're much improved. This is not the same club that lost 10 straight games last spring.

"We're weak at third and second. Hank Majecki can hit but he can't move around third base the way he used to. I'll start with Bill Hite on second with Zeno Suder in reserve."

Hitchcock, incidentally, had his best hitting year at 33, hitting 306 in 77 games. He even hit his annual home run.

The A's will have a colorful club this year. Ferris Fain, the first sacker, led the league with 344. Gus Zernial, the outfielder paced the circuit in homers with 33 and in runs batted in with 129. Little Bobby Shantz, the left-hander, won 18 games and looks like a sure 20-game winner his fourth year up.

Eddie Joost, at 35, looks like he can play short for another year, especially since 1951 was his best year with the stick. He hit 289 and smacked 19 homers.

Dykes likes his outfield of Zernial, Elmer Valo, a .302 hitter, and Allie Clark, obtained from Cleveland last May. Joe Astroh, Joe Tipton and Ray Murray form an adequate catching staff.

The Athletics, the streak-stoppers of 1951, are the dark horses of '52. They were only two games back of fifth place Detroit and unless Lou Boudreau can whip together a stronger Red Sox team, the A's could get as high as third place.

DISTRICT TRACK MEET HELD AT LUBBOCK SATURDAY . . .

Wildcats Fail To Gain Any First Place Honors

Muleshoe, paced by sensational Max Buhrman, walked off with the District 4-A track meet at Texas Tech Saturday, rolling up 47 points to beat five other schools.

The Mules beat Levelland, closest pursuers, by nine points. The Lobos had 38 points, while Brownfield was next with 27 1/2. Morton was fourth with 20 1/2. Tahoka picked up 13 and Littlefield brought up the rear with eight points.

Buhrman raced to firsts in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, added another first in the broad jump and picked up a point and a half by finishing on the second place 440-yard relay team and the mile relay team.

Altogether, the busy Buhrman picked up 16 1/2 points. Lackey of Morton was second with 12 1/2 points. Langford Sneed, Levelland's great athlete, picked up 10 1/2 and George Branch, another Lobo, was fourth with 10 points.

But the biggest upset and surprise in the entire meet came late in the day when Bob King, running most of the time in Buck Johnson's shadow, came through with a first place in the mile.

King, who ran for the Mules at Big Spring because Johnson was ailing, overtook his teammate in the back stretch and put on a great finishing kick. It carried him past the tiring Johnson and across the finish line with his first triumph over his rival.

Levelland took an early lead in the meet, piling up points on a one-two-three finish in the shot put, won by Sneed with a heave of 48 feet, 3 inches. Campbell was second and Branch came in third. Levelland also finished the same way in the discus, with Sneed winning on a toss of 128 feet. Branch was runner up and Bentley came in third.

By winning 10 of the top 28 places, the Muleshoe squad qualified the highest number of trackmen for the regional meet, which will be held April 18 or 19. Muleshoe also qualified two relay teams, while Levelland had eight cindermen and one relay team; Morton, four cindermen and one relay team; Brownfield three trackmen; and Tahoka two men for the regionals.

Lloyd Williams was the only Wildcat that qualified for the regional meet. He won second place in the 440 yard dash. Only first and second places are eligible to go to the regional meet. M. C. Northam won first place in the 100 yard dash in the morning preliminaries, but paced only third in the finals.

Track results: 100-yard dash—won by Buhrman, Muleshoe; second, Lackey, Morton; third, Northam, Littlefield; fourth, Hyles, Tahoka. Time—10.2.

220-yard dash—Won by Buhrman, Muleshoe; second, Halamicek, Tahoka; third Hyles, Tahoka; fourth, Hinson, Brownfield. Time—22.8.

Shot put—Won by Sneed, Levelland; second, Campbell, Levelland; third, Branch, Levelland; fourth, Rhoten, Littlefield. Distance—48 feet, 3 inches.

WAY OUT IN FRONT—Don Harrison of Muleshoe, leading the 180-yard low hurdles in this picture, finished second to Jackie Stockton of Brownfield, already past the photographer. Max Black of Brownfield finished third and Keith Davis of Littlefield was fourth. Muleshoe won the District 4-A meet at Texas Tech Saturday, piling up 47 points in beating Levelland, Brownfield and Morton, which finished in that order. Stockton and Harrison were well ahead of the pack when this picture was taken at only the second hurdle jump.

Mexican Labor . . .

The President has signed the new immigration bill which paves the way for the opening of negotiations between the United States and Mexico for a new contract for the importation of Mexican agricultural laborers into this country.

Texas farmers and ranchers, big users of the labor from south of the border, hope for a better agreement this year than the one under which they had to operate last year and under which they still are operating.

The agricultural interests of Texas and Mexico recently have agreed on the need for a simple and workable program.

The agreements of the past few years have been smothered in red tape, making it almost impossible to hire the needed labor and the farmers have had little recourse. The days of illegal Mexican labor, the "wetbacks," are over. Farmers and ranchers realize that, and they want to proceed in a legal manner, but they don't want to be hamstrung by a law.

Since the farm leaders of the two countries have agreed as to what will be needed, it should not be asking too much to have their ideas included in the negotiations for the new contract.

After all, the laborers are coming from farms in Mexico to work on farms in Texas and the farm leaders from Texas and Mexico should be well qualified to determine what kind of agreement will work best both for the worker and the farmer who depends on the Mexicans to help him harvest his crops.

Easter Cards Sing Serenades To Spring

This year's cheery Easter cards are rippling with Springtime gaiety. Their richly colored designs sparkle like the rainbow after a sudden April shower—as if to remind us that Easter Sunday, after all, does fall on April 12!

Easter card verses, generally speaking, are paying warm-hearted tribute to what has always been "the season of romantic sonnets and bright new bonnets." As one card addressed "To You, SWEETHEART, at Easter" happily confesses, winter is definitely on the run, and—

It's wonderful to be
In love when Spring
Is on the way . . .
When Easter bonnets
Fill the shops and Hearts are light and gay!

More than half the cards are radiant with gay floral scenes. A band of playful cherubs frolic in a garden of yellow jonquils. Rich red roses lift their heads above the brim of a small wicker basket. Orchids and tulips are delicately reproduced on perfumed satin puffs. And a few of the de luxe Easter cards are enhanced with artificial corsages that may be detached and worn—to brighten milady's new ensemble.

Easter card designers have found the annual Easter Parade is surprisingly rich in subject matter for their creations. Smartly clad little chicks and bunnies vie with human figures in a frivolous "dress rehearsal" of fashions both zany and demure. Pointed reminders to look your best on Easter Sunday are versified like this—

When we "parade" on Easter
I'll be puffing up with pride,
"Cause the sharpest guy
In town will be . . .
The fellow at my side!

Spring fever, alas, seems to have caught up with the generous Easter Bunny. He's shown dozing in the trunk of a tree—blissfully unaware of a jaunty little duckling who cocks one eye, then quips—

Easter's coming, Yes-sirree!
Hope yours is all

It's quacked up to be!

Most beautiful of all the 1952 Easter cards are those inspired by the Resurrection. Guardian angels in white robes stand before the opened tomb on one typical religious greeting. Two of Pontius Pilate's soldiers kneel in awe before the Risen Saviour on a plastic-covered card, colored in the familiar style of stained glass church windows.

Modern churchgoers are pictured as they listen attentively to surpliced choirs singing Easter hymns. There are cut-out Easter cards in the form of Bibles, altars, and the symbolic cross. Many of these religious greetings are coupled with scriptural quotations.

Actually, only 100 years have gone by since the people of Northern Germany began exchanging quaintly cluttered drawings, with religious scenes and Biblical texts—the first of all Easter cards!

By 1880 the Easter, card custom had spread throughout Europe, and was firmly established in America. Surrounded with luxurious silk fringes, our first Easter cards were rare models of painstaking craftsmanship. Many were mounted on brightly-hued velvet or satin fabrics, with a silk cord and tassel attached to hang them on the wall.

In recent years, a definite trend toward this old-fashioned mode of elegance has been observed by designers. Many of our modern Easter cards are decorated with lace scrim, tiny pressed flowers, satin ribbons, and illuminated manuscript lettering.

Public preference, nowadays, is pretty evenly divided between the truly reverent, the nostalgic, and the serenade-to-Spring types of Easter cards. Most of us, however, are asking for, and getting, greetings with a sincere, heart-to-heart quality.

Something like—"Nothing fancy, DAD, just Happy Easter" or "Hi, SISTER, Enjoy your Easter" or a romantic "Happy Easter to My LOVEABLE WIFE." Ministers and priests, neighbors and in-laws, teachers and even "the boss" all rate these individualized Easter cards. This year, moreover, there are distinctive "Easter Greetings to YOU in The Service" for the first time since World War II!

end of the artery and the beginning of the vein.

Since the waste ingredients from one organ may be food for the next, the process of feeding and picking up waste from one organ and taking it to the next goes on throughout the body.

Eventually the blood stream gets to the kidneys, the filtering system for the whole body. Here the needs of all organs are taken into consideration and only that material which no organ needs or can use at that time is eliminated from the body.

The kidneys sit like two boxing gloves, one raised a little higher than the other, in the back of the body around the waistline. The big artery of the body and the big vein come down between the two kidneys, sending off branches which enter at the spot that would be the palms of those boxing gloves. Each globe may be considered as the outside of the kidney, the cortex.

To see inside a kidney you have to take the glove off. If you would tilt your hand sideward, the palm of the hand would serve as the basin of the kidney, which is called the pelvis. There are five tubes sticking out from the pelvis, in finger fashion, which carry waste material into the pelvis, and from the pelvis the waste material, urine, goes into a tube that looks very much like the arm curving downward from the hand.

Those five tubes that stick out from the pelvis are called calices, and in the kidney they look like the first joints of the finger sticking out from the palm. From the first joint they flare out into many tiny cubes called glomeruli, spread through a pithy material which forms the medulla of the kidney. The blood flows past all those lit-

Will Address Tech Graduates

DAN K. THORNTON

It will be old home week May 26 when the class of 1952 at Texas Tech, Lubbock, graduates.

Gov. Dan K. Thornton, governor of Colorado and an ex-agriculture student at Tech, will give the commencement address. He is the second ex-student to speak to the graduating class at Tech.

The ceremony starts at 8 p.m. in Jones Stadium.

the glomeruli, where the ingredients that be used again are separated and sent on back to the veins.

The rest, the waste material, enters those tiny glomeruli, flows on through the larger stumpy tubes known as the calices, into the palm-like basin called the pelvis, on out the kidney and down the thin arm called the ureter into a stretchable ball called the bladder. Here the urine collects until the bladder is full and the urine is then expelled from the body through another small tube called the urethra.

The Latin word for kidney is renes, which becomes renal in medical description. The adrenal cortex is the cap that sits on top of each kidney, regulating that kidney in some fashion. The Greek word for kidney is nephros; through the years words of Latin origin have become standard to name the different parts of the body, while words of Greek origin have become standard in describing diseases of different parts of the body. Thus kidney disease becomes nephritis when the disease is due to inflammation in the kidney, or nephrosis when the disease is due to a change in the structure of the kidney such as the hardening of some portions or scarring.

The amount of blood and the water content of the body are regulated by the kidneys. There is not a great deal of difference between the plasma part of the blood and the urine that is eliminated from the body. The kidneys function as a regulator of the quantity of blood and also of the quality, being charged with keeping the proper balance between the acids and the salts in the blood stream.

There are certain conditions which may be considered as creating extra work for the kidneys since they increase the amount of urine in the body. These are an increased intake of fluids, a jump in the blood pressure due to activity or to a high blood pressure condition, cold weather, certain drugs including caffeine, emotion, and a form of diabetes.

The conditions which are often responsible for a decreased amount of urine include diminished intake of fluid, low blood pressure, congestion within the kidney, fevers, some types of Bright's disease, and an increased loss of body fluids by other means, such as sweating profusely in hot weather, loss of blood by hemorrhage, and loss of fluid by diarrhea.

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Q—What is the best finish for, hardwood veneer furniture?

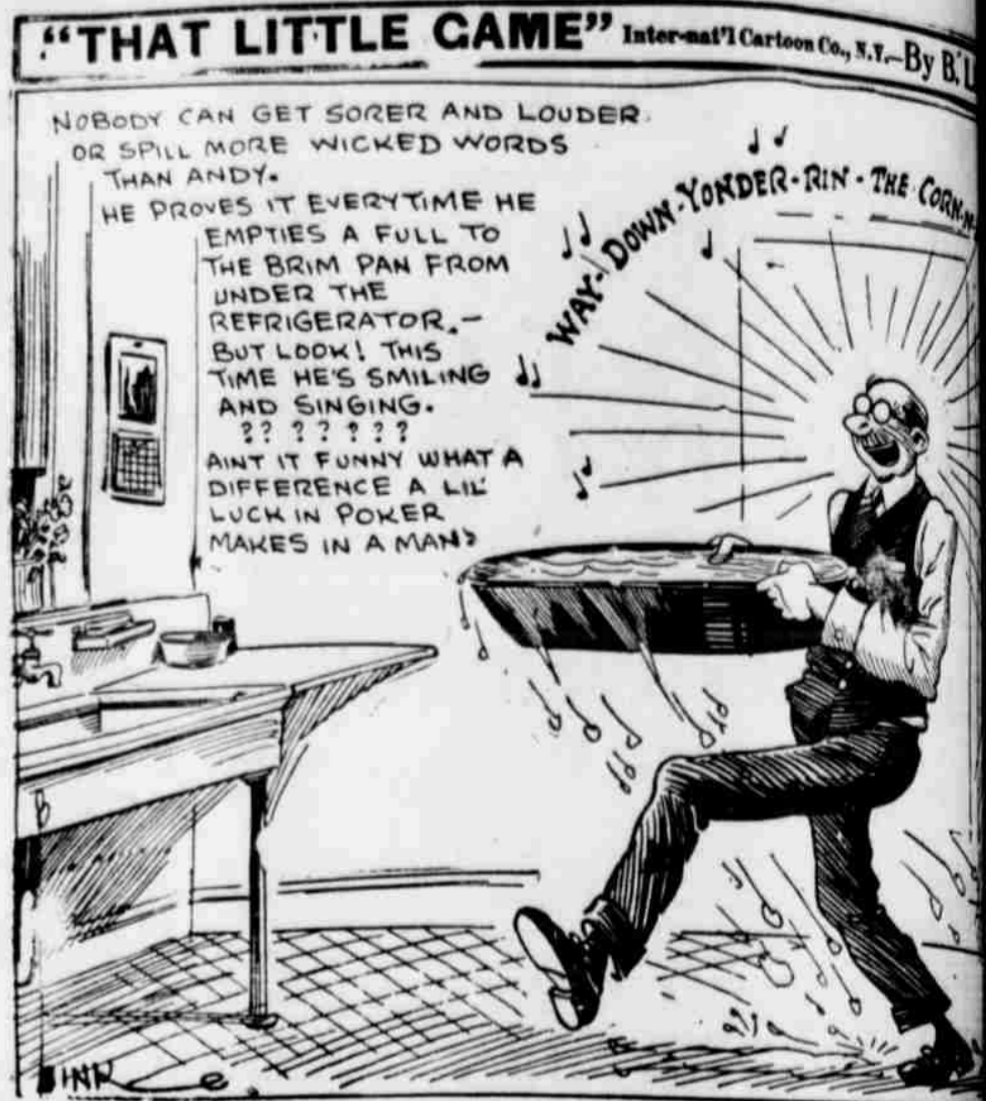

A—No single finish is best for every species of wood and for all kinds of furniture pieces. If there is a rule to follow it is that a natural-looking finish is always desirable. The only reasons for finishing furniture are to enhance the natural beauty of the wood and to protect it from dirt, grease, liquid stains, and heat. Thick or extra shiny finishes should be avoided.

Q—What preparation is necessary before repainting hot-water cast-iron radiators?

A—First, remove loose particles of rust, paint and dust by rubbing vigorously with a wire brush. Then wash with turpentine to remove all traces of oil and grease. Any oil paint or enamel can be used for the new finish, but flat wall paint usually is more resistant to blistering and peeling than other finishes.

Q—Is it necessary to provide a base for a concrete walk?

A—If there is good natural drainage and the soil is loose enough for the water to sink, the concrete can be poured directly on the earth. There should be a six-inch foundation of clear gravel or cinders where drainage is poor and water is likely to collect under the walk.

Local High School Invited To Take Part In Annual 'Play Day' At Portales

Girls from more than 30 high schools in New Mexico and West Texas have been invited to participate in the annual "Play Day" May 3, sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association of Eastern New Mexico University at Portales, N.M.

The program will include individual and team competition in volleyball, softball, track and field events, badminton, tether ball, and tennis—as well as group stunts and "mixer" games.

Ida Williams, Encino senior, is president of the Women's Athletic Association. Miss Fae Witte, assistant professor in physical and health education at ENMU, will supervise the activities.

New Mexico high schools receiving invitations include Forrest, Rogers, Floyd, Dora, Elida, Ranchvale, House, Tatum, Hobbs, Causey, Ft. Sumner, Melrose, Portales, Tucumcari, Roswell, Lovington, Carlsbad, Grady, Texico, Clovis, Jal, Eubank, Artesia, Roy, Mosuero, and Cloudcroft.

Texas high schools include Levelland, Littlefield, Denver City, Muleshoe, Farwell, and Friona.

Southwestern Cattlemen at Fort Worth fired a blast at price controls and governmental regulation as they closed their meetings at the 75th annual convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association. More than 2,000 members and guests from the southwestern beef-producing area were in attendance at the convention which was held in Hotel Texas March 17-19. New officers were elected during the session.

Married Blonde Other Girls How

By BUR MARTIN

Betty Cooper, blonde of 39 who has been married 11 different times, says she has this advice for a girl who has just married: "Honey, be something you can't change people, and that's why I married the rocks."

When Attorney Gabriel Nahas filed petition for divorce for Betty against Joe Calamusa, bottling company route manager, machinery company executive, bottling company route manager and an undertaker.

Words roll out of Betty's scarlet lips with machine gun rapidity.

"Now, Honey, I don't want any more publicity. I didn't get married for publicity and I don't get divorced for publicity. I got married every time, thinking 'This is it. You don't get married unless you think it's going to work.'"

No shrinking violet, Betty says she likes to have a good time.

"I like to dance and have company and when you marry and are told 'you can't do this' why then things just don't work out."

Betty, about five feet, seven inches tall and the "right weight" won't talk about her former husbands. Says she:

"They're all nice boys. That's why I married them. If things didn't work out. Maybe it was me, some."

She is reluctant to talk about herself, saying:

"I've got a good job (selling costume jewelry) and I don't want to take a chance on doing anything that would hurt me on it. Besides, all this publicity might hurt me the 13th time."

Reminded that she had been married 13 times already, she said, "Oh yes!"

Is there any secret to attracting men and marrying?

"Just be yourself," says Betty, adding:

"I'm like any other girl. I was raised in a good family, have a good job and a nice career opportunity and go to church."

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Eagan and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foust and daughter Judy, are planning to leave today (Sunday), for Dallas, where Mr. Eagan and Mr. Foust will attend the annual state winners convention. Mrs. Eagan plans to stop at Olney and visit relatives, and Mrs. Foust and daughter will visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Arnold and family, who live in Dallas. They are former Littlefield residents.

boxing champion, a star athlete, FBI agent, shoe man, band leader, automobile distributor, machinery company executive, bottling company route manager and an undertaker.

When Attorney Gabriel Nahas filed petition for divorce for Betty against Joe Calamusa, bottling company route manager, machinery company executive, bottling company route manager and an undertaker.

Words roll out of Betty's scarlet lips with machine gun rapidity.

"Now, Honey, I don't want any more publicity. I didn't get married for publicity and I don't get divorced for publicity. I got married every time, thinking 'This is it. You don't get married unless you think it's going to work.'"

No shrinking violet, Betty says she likes to have a good time.

"I like to dance and have company and when you marry and are told 'you can't do this' why then things just don't work out."

Betty, about five feet, seven inches tall and the "right weight" won't talk about her former husbands. Says she:

"They're all nice boys. That's why I married them. If things didn't work out. Maybe it was me, some."

She is reluctant to talk about herself, saying:

"I've got a good job (selling costume jewelry) and I don't want to take a chance on doing anything that would hurt me on it. Besides, all this publicity might hurt me the 13th time."

Reminded that she had been married 13 times already, she said, "Oh yes!"

Is there any secret to attracting men and marrying?

"Just be yourself," says Betty, adding:

"I'm like any other girl. I was raised in a good family, have a good job and a nice career opportunity and go to church."

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Eagan and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foust and daughter Judy, are planning to leave today (Sunday), for Dallas, where Mr. Eagan and Mr. Foust will attend the annual state winners convention. Want a lot of mileage for your money?

WE'LL admit that the price tags of automobiles—all automobiles—are not what they used to be.

But it's just as true today as ever before that some price tags are lower than others, and some cars cost less to own than others.

So let's see how a Buick SPECIAL fits into the picture.

Take first cost. If you put the price tag of this Buick against price tags of cars that have always been tagged as belonging in "the low-priced field"—you'll find that, in actual dollars, a Buick's surprisingly close to these cars of lesser size and horsepower.

But that's just the beginning.

What you're getting here is Buick quality—this SPECIAL comes down the same assembly line as SUPERS and ROADMASTERS.

Its heft tells you it has extra sturdiness in frame and structure.

Its Fireball Engine delivers extra power. It is an eight, a valve-in-head, with high compression, and the miles you can get from a gallon of gas make it a thrifty performer.

You get Buick's Million Dollar Ride, which protects you—and the car—from jars and jolts.

Even the tires are bigger—which, any tire man will tell you, lengthens their wear.

And if you pay a bit extra for Dynaflo Drive* you're easing the strain on the engine, the rear end, the tires—and eliminating clutch repair bills.

So when we talk about "mileage for your money" we're talking about the miles you'll get from your car—including the unused miles that are what you have to sell when you trade it in.

Maybe that's why Buick's doing so well in the present market. Why not come in and see what a great car this is for you?
