Despite drought and lower prices bank deposits in Lamb county held firm last week, then jumped two million dollars in the first few days of the new year.

On the north side of the county, where nearly all the irrigated land is irrigated, deposits were up about a million dollars at the end of the year and increased another million in the past two weeks.

On the south side, where the majority of the farms have no irrigation water available, deposits dropped approximately one million dollars during the year. But they have made up this loss since the first.

One banker attributed the sharp increase of the past two weeks to farmers holding their cotton until after the first of the year for income tax purposes.

As might be expected, banks are also carrying less local loans on their books. They are down by several hundred thousands as farmers have used the proceeds of the largest cotton crop in the county's history to reduce their debts.

Local cattlemen have been hurt by both the drought and the liquidation of the nation's despite cattle population. And in 1953 non-irrigated fields generally made the poorest crop in three years of poor crops. But the bumper crops on irrigated farms more than made up for the losses suffered by the others.

Despite cotton quotas and the lack of moisture so far this winter, most local bankers are optimistic about the economic health of the county during the coming year. They are expecting more growth in their deposits and at least one is planning a large expansion in capital structure to take care of expected growth.

O. Griffin President Of Country Club

C. O. Griffin has been elected president of the Littlefield Country Club for the year 1954. Griffin was one of four new directors elected at a membership meeting of the club held at the club building Monday night.

Other new directors are Jim Ferguson, Boyd Roberts, and Alvin Clements. After election of directors by the membership, the board of directors elected Griffin president and Jim Mangum vice president. Other members of the board are Bill Hiley, C. A. Duffy, and George Cronin.

Board members plan to promote more activities for non-members at the club and to provide a bit of free entertainment in the building for club members, Griffin said.

L. C. Hewitt was retiring as president, and retiring board members were J. H. Lee, Alvin Webb, and Frank Rogers. Charles S. Smith Jr., club secretary, will serve until the next meeting of the board, when a new secretary is to be elected and committees for the year are appointed.

Sports Arena Changes Ownership

Tony Bernardi, a wrestler and wrestling promoter for 35 years, has purchased the Littlefield Sports Arena from H. R. Vaughn and T. J. Clay, who operated the arena the last year.

Bernardi took over management of the arena Saturday night. Vaughn and Clay, both Hereford residents, said they sold the arena to devote full time to business interests there. Vaughn operates a cleaning business and Clay operates a Studebaker dealer and repair shop in Hereford. In addition, Vaughn recently purchased a farm near Hereford.

Bernardi comes here from California, where he operated the Huntington Park Stadium for eight years. He also owns a wrestling arena in Clovis, N. M., but will make his home here. He and his wife and 8-year-old daughter, Tonya, are living at the Plains Hotel.

Bernardi wrestled for 20 years before he went into promotion work 15 years ago. During his wrestling days, he won both the middleweight and heavyweight championships.

Principals re-elected were Ralph Schilling, senior high; Claude C. McDougal, junior high; D. C. Lindley, Central school, and Paul I. Jones, primary.

Permission was granted to the Texas company for three wells to be drilled, if and when the company decides, on school property. Well sites were north of the Senior high school building, behind the Junior high school building, and on the football practice field.

Another meeting of the board has been set Monday night to discuss tax valuations.

Southern Assn. Grants Approval To Local School

Littlefield School District's membership certificate in the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and colleges was received Tuesday morning by Supt. Hailds Pearce.

The association, which is a regional accreditation association, includes the top 20 percent of Texas schools. Littlefield's acceptance into the association means the school ranks among the 150 best highschools in the state.

Credits earned by students in Littlefield schools will be acceptable in any college in the United States, Pearce said.

Farm Bureau Meets Thursday

Increased cotton allotments for 1954 seem very certain, says Jack Yarbrough, president of the Lamb County Farm Bureau. The U. S. Congress is giving the bill to increase the acreage top priority.

The position of the Texas Farm Bureau is as follows:

"Whereas, under existing law it is mandatory that the Secretary of Agriculture set a quota not to exceed 10,000,000 bales, the equivalent of 17,910,488 acres, adjusting the supply of cotton to normal in one year; therefore, be it resolved, that the Texas Farm Bureau endorse and approve a compromise plan to amend the present law in the next session of Congress, immediately upon its convening, to spread the period of adjustment to normal over more than one year, and to increase the 1954 National Cotton Allotment from 17,910,488 to 21,500,000."

Mathematically figuring the increase should be about 30,000 more acres to Lamb county. Yarbrough says this could mean several million dollars to the farmers and businessmen. "We ought to know about the acreage increase," Jack says, "well before planting time."

Charge Filed In Biggest Liquor Raid

Leon Gray, Spade farmer, this week was charged in county court with "possession for purpose of sale" of the $2,950 worth of liquor seized by sheriff's officers in a raid Dec. 20.

Gray has not yet been arrested. County Attorney Curtis Wilkinson said. Wilkinson said raiding officers found 414 pints, 96 half-pints and 24 fifths of whiskey, 12 fifths of wine and 22 cases of beer in a shack behind Gray's farmhouse, 2 1/2 miles west of Spade. It was the largest haul of tax paid liquor ever seized in Lamb county.

In another liquor law violation case, S. H. Chaney, Earth farmer, was charged with possession for purpose of sale of 38 pints of taxpaid whiskey. Chaney pleaded innocent to the charge in county court and was released under $500 bond.

Wilkinson said Sheriff Dick Dyer and liquor board agents found 38 pints of whiskey in the ceiling of Chaney's home northwest of Earth, during a raid Saturday.

In other county court actions this week, Gene Haynes of (Continued on page 7)

Sheriff Hires New Office Man

Marvin Ray went to work Monday as office deputy in the Lamb county sheriff's office, replacing Fred Thurman, who resigned to go into farming.

Ray, a Littlefield resident since 1935, has worked for the last three years as day officer and meter man for the city police force. Elson McNeese, former night policeman, has replaced Ray on the day shift and Frank Royal has been hired to take McNeese's place as night officer. Royal formerly worked for McCormick service station.

Highway Patrolman Clayton Culp has spent the last few days in Fort Worth, where his grandfather died Monday evening. The sheriff's office has been investigating accidents in the county during Culp's absence.

The new polio prevention program which is being launched this year is proving so costly that it has become necessary for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to revise the keystone of its financial policy, distribution of March of Dimes funds.

In the past, the money was divided evenly between county chapters and national headquarters. Under the new system, one-third of all March of Dimes receipts will be contributed by chapters and headquarters to the polio prevention program. The balance of funds will be split evenly as in the past.

It's estimated polio prevention will cost an added $26,500,000 this year, White said. "That's why we must raise more in '54. This is the additional cost over and above the National Foundation's traditional programs of aid to patients, professional education and scientific research," White said.

A part of this research and prevention program in 1954 is testing of a trial vaccine in 200 counties, including five in Texas.

Although it's hoped Lamb county will raise $10,000, no quota has been set. The fact that the chapter never knows in January how many cases it will be called upon to assist during the rest of the year poses the biggest question mark the March of Dimes faces, White said. This is the reason no local March of Dimes quotas are set.

The county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis gave financial aid for treatment of five polio victims during 1953.

'Oil' Wells Still Producing Mostly Salt Water, Gas

Two Littlefield oil wells are still doing nicely. The Union Compress No. 1 and the Ida Dalmont Hewitt No. 1 are pumping a little less than 100 barrels of oil and a few barrels of water each day. But the pool's three problem wells showed no improvement this week.

The Duggan and Lingnau wells are still pumping a great deal more salt water than they are oil. And the Hewitt No. 2 is still blowing off gas, despite the packer which was installed this week.

The Texas Company placed a packer in the hole below the point where they thought the gas might be coming from, and above where they hoped the oil would come from. Tubing runs through the packer to bring up the oil under it.

After the packer was in place the well was acidized with 1500 gallons of acid and opened up Wednesday to see what it would do. After the first few hours it was still blowing considerable gas and flowing out a part of the acid water. If the gas pressure goes down sufficiently, the operator expects to go in with a swab and pull out the balance of the acid water, and then maybe some oil.

George Livermore, operator of the Lingnau well, reports that it is still producing three or four barrels of water and half a barrel of oil per hour. He plans to pump it several more days and await developments before deciding whether to attempt to cement off a part of the water.

No new applications for drilling locations have been reported, but the Texas Company appears to be planning on considerable more development of their large block of leases here.

The Lamb County Electric Cooperative, Inc. took in $270,135.78 during 1953, and had a total expense for the year of $217,261.59, leaving a profit of $52,874.19, Manager J. H. Carl announced this week.

A financial statement which will be mailed to all members shows the local Co-op sold electric service amounting to $264,697.68, had other sales and income amounting to $4,457.82, and collected $880.28 in penalties on electric bills.

Electric power cost the Co-Op $47,301.12; operating and maintenance expenses were $92,403.99; estimated depreciation during the year was $50,032.14, taxes were $4,658.46, and interest payments totaled $22,865.88.

The report shows the cooperative now has cash in the bank amounting to $85,973.53; additional cash for construction, $78,734.27; government bonds valued at $195,087; due for current sold to members, $21,909.16; due for materials, $537.22; value of stock of materials and supplies, $25,496.71; advance payments on insurance, meter cards, etc., $3,763.36; special deposits, utilities, etc., $65; investments-dividends, $4,077.41.

Total cost of the system is $1,506,755.49 and estimated depreciation is $366,290.44, leaving a net value of $1,140,465.05. That makes the total owned by the cooperative $1,556,038.71.

The amount borrowed from REA, including interest, was $1,552,547.20. The local co-op has paid back $303,377.82 and still owes $1,249,169.38. It owes $6,391.42 for taxes, power bill, etc. Contributions made in aid of construction totaled $213.79, membership fees paid totaled $19,020, and excess receipts to Dec. 31, 1953 were $281,244.12. Total value of the co-op share of enterprise is $300,264.12.

Future Homemakers Will Form Two Separate Clubs

The local Future Homemakers of America club members voted at a meeting Tuesday to organize two separate clubs, one for Senior high school and one for Junior high students.

This decision was based on several advantages to the club including being allowed more representatives at area and state meetings, and the opportunity to develop leadership among the younger girls.

Miss Elizabeth Pace, sponsor of the clubs, said that both organizations will make the out-of-town trips such as the fall trip to the South Plains fair and the spring trip planned for Feb. 13 to Boyer Ranch.

Members of the organization also decided to sell boxed greeting cards to help raise money for their summer camp. On the committee making arrangements for the summer camp are Doris Byrd as chairman, Beverly Yohner, Letta Merle Roberts, Mary Cameron Haise, Nancy Burks, Virginia Rodgers, Patsy McCain and Jean Foust and Johnita Gallini.

On the committee for the F. H. A. and F. F. A. chicken-spaghetti supper to be held this week are Anona Williams, Doris Byrd, Beva Jean Ray, Alice Orr, Virginia Rodgers, Patsy McCain and Jean Bryan.

The club will be in charge of an assembly program for Senior high school Feb. 17.

Mrs. T. J. Jones, the other sponsor of the club, read a letter to the group thanking them for the kitchen shower gifts they sent a Gorman family for Christmas.

The degree committee of the club, headed by Doris Byrd, will prepare a list of local members eligible for candidates for area offices. The club will select from this group one girl to begin her campaign for an area office.

A display of pictures in the showcase of the Senior high school depicting club activities will be placed in the chapter's scrapbook.

The club president, Wanda Webb, has received her official F. H. A. jacket and other members are placing their orders for the red poplin jackets which feature the official emblem on the front of the jacket. The jackets were designed for Future Homemakers of America by Vogue.

Mrs. Jean Smith Appointed Local Draft Registrar

AUSTIN, Jan. 14.—Mrs. Jean Smith of Littlefield has been appointed registrar for the Bailey-Cochran-Lamb county draft board in the Littlefield area.

Boys who reach the age of 18 can register in Littlefield by calling on Mrs. Smith at the district clerk's office in the courthouse.

A registrar is maintained in the area so that men will not have to travel to the draft board office at Muleshoe.

A local board is maintained for the three-county area because one board can take care of the work. The state director of Selective Service says that "a board in each county in many areas would prove to be a waste of government money."

School Problems Discussed At Meeting Of P-TA

"What's On Your Mind?" an open discussion for school problems led by Principal Claude C. MacDougal, was the main portion of the program at a meeting of the Junior high school Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday afternoon.

Problems discussed included excess amounts of home study, homework during holidays, and the value of workbooks to the student.

Mrs. Oscar P. Wilemon, president of the group, presided over the meeting. Members of the "Purs" staff, junior high school publication, presented a portion of the program with each student telling the group of his or her responsibilities on the paper. Mrs. Lynn is sponsor of the Journalism staff.

Home rooms winning the attendance prizes, which are awarded on a percentage basis, were Mrs. L. L. Massenbill's ninth grade room, first; Mrs. Bonnie Crosby's eighth grade room, second; and Mrs. Earl Hutchinson's seventh grade room, third.

Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state director of the draft system, expressed public appreciation of the services of Mrs. Smith.

"People of the Littlefield area should appreciate the services she renders to them," General Wakefield said, "as she is doing this work without pay as a public service to her country."

All males are required to register under the draft law on their 18th birthday or within five days thereafter. Maximum penalties that can be applied for failure to register are $10,000 fine, or five years in prison, or both.

Approximately 1,200 Texas school administrators who attended the conference heard discussions of the different problems in running a school, the most important of which is the new accreditation system which goes into effect next fall.

Pearce said that the general consensus of the administrators Texas teachers would agree to the $402 yearly raise now under study by a committee set up for that purpose. A subcommittee of six is now working on details of the committee's recommendation with the general committee Jan. 20. Then the raise depends on the committee's recommendation of it and on whether Governor Shivers will call a special session to have it passed by the state legislature.

David Eaton Is Principal Speaker For Garden Club

"We have so little good soil that it is up to us to conserve what we have," David Eaton, County agent, said at a meeting of the Littlefield Garden Club held at the home of Mrs. Hamp McCary at 10 a. m., Wednesday. Eaton, main speaker for the meeting, was introduced by Mrs. Albert Miller, program chairman. "Top soil in this part of the country is between three and six feet in depth and if we should lose three feet we would have a barren country," Eaton said. "A rain here and has taken off as much as 12 inch or our top soil."

Eaton gave some suggestions for restoring soil including restoring by planting legumes and crop rotation. For the practical use of Garden club members he suggested the use of composted cotton burrs, which also cuts down weeds. He commended the home owners who have watered their yards during the winter months, stating that yards should be watered once each month in order for the water to feed the roots of the grass. September is the best time to fertilize yards for the winter.

Following his talk on "Conservation In Yards" Eaton answered the questions of individual members pertaining to yard care and soil analysis.

Mrs. McCary, hostess, was assisted by Mrs. G. L. Straub and Mrs. Tom Hewitt. They served finger sandwiches, donuts, tea and coffee. Mrs. Straub poured the tea and coffee. Centering the refreshment table was an arrangement of Dutch Iris and Acacia.

During the business meeting, members of the club voted to give the Garden club's share of the cash wards receive from Texas Federated Women's Club to the Chloe Reese Cancer Memorial fund.

Next meeting of the club is Feb. 10 in the home of Mrs. C. O. Griffin. Groups of floral arrangements will be made at the March meeting.

WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

Q. Although I seem to be perpetually emptying ashtrays my house often contains a stale cigarette odor. Do you know any way I can alleviate this unpleasant smell?

A. Yes, here's a trick you'll find most helpful. Sprinkle a little dry baking soda in the bottom of each ashtray. Soda not only helps reduce stale cigarette odors and makes ashtray cleaning easier, but it quickly squelches those half lit cigarette stubs — prevents the danger of fires.

EPHESIANS 2:18 — "Through Him (Jesus Christ) we have power to approach the Father in the fellowship of one Spirit."

We have the Feast of the Trinity because men feel deeply about God. The Trinity it seems to me is an attempt at a description of how God is using the Christian Church. The purpose of the Christian Church is to make men Christlike. As we turn to Christ our hearts turn to His Father and our Father. We come to that trust expressed in the 23rd. Psalm because of Christ. As we become Christlike we can say Father, "Our times are in Thy hands."

When the Christian Church is a fellowship of people working for the goodness of others, themselves and the world in which they live, God's Spirit is at work there. It was of such a fellowship that the old Hebrew Psalmist said, "How beautiful and gracious a thing is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

"I love Thy House, O Lord, and the place where Thine honor dwelleth" and again, "Because of the House of the Lord, our God, I will seek to do thee good."

Federal Tax Cases Charge 2 Countians

Two Lamb countians are among seven West Texans, charged in government income tax cases, who are scheduled to appear before a federal grand jury in Dallas Monday.

Lamb county men charged in cases accusing them of filing false and fraudulent returns for 1947 are J. B. Haire, Littlefield farmer, and E. L. Caraway, Spur auto dealer.

Caraway has declined to discuss his case but Haire has said, "I'll fight it till hell freezes over . . . it's an unjust thing."

The government claims 1947 gross income of Haire and his wife was $50,711, which would call for a tax payment of $21,255 tax. The government said Haire's return for 1947 showed a gross income for the two of $1,293, with no tax due.

Caraway is accused of evading $3,284 in 1947 taxes. The government claims Caraway and his wife paid $4,919 on a reported income of $19,462 that year, when they should have paid $8,023 on $29,235.

No Arrests Made An Associated Press dispatch from Dallas said warrants have been issued for each of the seven West Texans charged but that none has been jailed. The AP quoted Asst. U. S. District Attorney Warren Logan as say-

Littlefield 1954 Football Schedule

Mr. H. H. Pomeroy, Superintendent of Littlefield Public Schools, announced the 1954 football schedule this week for the Wolfpack football team.

Announced, Trenton, Nashville and Littlefield are the only to play at their own schools. There will be only four games played at home during the 1954 season which will be scheduled with seasons being played at Littlefield.

It is definitely that Littlefield is not on the Littlefield Schedule. Mr. Pomeroy says that he will only have and hold a 1954 open for a long time before a game with Littlefield here in Littlefield this year.

Other defeated Littlefield last fall for the SAA District Football League and the game was played in a capacity, visited by other visiting teams to Littlefield. The Littlefield football team was through out in the same conference last year, the game would have been a sell out.

Littlefield and Littlefield have used to arrange dates particularly in both of these for some time. This year they have agreed to have a game in Littlefield here in Littlefield. The game will be played in the same conference last year, the game would have been a sell out.

Mr. Pomeroy says that Littlefield will take another game on either of the two open dates, but it is not sure which school that would be willing to come to Littlefield first and take a better game next year.

Littlefield will be a homecoming, the district with teams from Denton, Fort Worth and Andrews. All seven schools from Littlefield will be in the ball game and Littlefield larger crowd than a conference game of any other year.

The schedule is as follows:

September 5	AT HOME	HOME
September 12	AT HOME	HOME
September 19	AT HOME	HOME
September 26	AT HOME	HOME
October 3	AT HOME	HOME
October 10	AT HOME	HOME

GIRLS' GAME

Many Lamb County schools are dropping the girls' basketball game. There are advantages and disadvantages to the schools having girls' teams.

One of the reasons for dropping the girls' basketball game is the cost. It is expensive to maintain a girls' team, especially in a school with a limited budget.

Another reason is the lack of interest. In some schools, there is not enough interest in girls' basketball to justify the expense of having a team.

However, there are also advantages to having a girls' basketball team. It provides a good outlet for girls' energy and helps them develop their skills.

It also helps to build self-esteem and confidence in the girls. They learn to work as a team and to overcome challenges on the court.

In the end, the decision to have a girls' basketball team should be based on the school's resources and the interest of the girls and their parents.

It is important to weigh the pros and cons carefully before making a decision. The goal is to provide the best possible experience for the girls.

Sport Shots

Associated Press Sports Editor
The football season is over but one parting shot is necessary.

The Southwest Conference had a great campaign and resumed its high place in the nation after a year of up-and-down football in which its inter-sectional record had suffered.

What's in store for 1954 which annually good, sometimes larger than Littlefield's (referring to Brownfield and Abernathy games).

Week after next we'll point out a way to improve their annual tournament. They have a good thing in their annual affair.

LITTLEFIELD TOURNAMENT
Littlefield could get more interest in basketball gathering more fans get bigger gate receipts throughout the year.

If they promoted a tournament next year, I haven't talked to Coach Simpson about it. It would be too tough a project for him this year, being new to all the schools and inheriting no background traditions of a tournament here in Littlefield.

The New Year's week is the best time. Littlefield ought to have one next year. It is work for coaches and administrators, but it is worth it. In three years the crowds would warrant an annual tournament in Littlefield.

Getting good teams, running on schedule, making the brackets equal and good advertising would help the cause of America's biggest and best sport here in Lamb County.

AN EXCEPTION
A rumor says the Lubbock paper carried an article on a Lamb County school boy being fined for driving drunk in Lubbock. We have been told that the boy's coach lets all players smoke in and out of season.

The boy won't get kicked off the team. A fan asked me, "What kind of coach is that who won't kick a boy off the team for such a public offense?" I have no answer of criticism. If it was in my hometown, I'd go to that coach first and talk with him.

Not So In Littlefield
Littlefield coaches are of good reputation. They expect their players to be also. They demand their keeping training rules and being honest about it.

They have expected boys to play fair with their teammates. Once a Littlefield boy was found out breaking training rules throughout the football season. The coach left it up to the boy as to whether he should quit athletics for the season.

The boy decided to quit. The coach's attitude has been changed. The whole deal floored him. A collegiate football star told him to not let it break him, but make him. Naturally, he thought at first he had gotten a raw deal.

Some of his friends encouraged this by pointing out little things, etc., and saying, "It should have been done this way," etc.

The lad's attitude is changed now. He wants to make it good to his school, his former teammates and coaches.

Good coaches not only enforce their policies fairly, and indifferently, but also give kids second chances, when they warrant them.

COMMENTING AMHERST
Amherst is a good sports town. They follow their teams and attend the games well even when they have teams that are not taking their conference in a whirlwind. Amherst boys' basketball team has lost all but one game so far this year yet the crowds over in Amherst are to realize that the newspapermen can't buy to them to read and approve every sentence and stand in the game and events. They should know that newspapermen get no interest.

A former coach at Amherst turned to hating sports writers. He said they never wrote up a game right and quoted everything he said. He finally clamped shut to all reporters. He didn't realize the public value his opinion. They wait the morning issue to see what the coach has to say about the events. The public knows that the coach knows what he is talking about and the public wants his opinion. The public is gaining interest in the players' comments after games. That's good reading material. The papers want it. The public expects it. The sports demands it.

Joycees Call Off Golden Gloves

The Golden Gloves tournament which was scheduled to be sponsored here by the local Joycees has been cancelled.

The Joycees have been cancelled because of a lack of interest. It was announced this week. B. D. Fisher was chairman of the committee in charge of the tournament.

The inter-sectional card is more terrific than ever. Well, you can put the city of Texas down right now as the favorite to win the championship and to make a splash inter-sectionally.

Texas has the material for a great team indeed and it's an opportunity. Because the Longhorns play Louisiana State, Notre Dame, Washington State and Oklahoma, Washington State might not be so tough getting Notre Dame at San Benito, Ind., and Oklahoma at Dallas are things to think about.

The Longhorns are favored in that they will have a year under their belts before meeting Notre Dame. However, that LSU and the Tigers could be as tough as they come. Oklahoma State had a great team in 1953 last year.

Texas has 24,193 letterman back and it also has one who lettered in 1952. The Longhorns to put it mildly, are stacked. Thirteen of the returning letterman are seniors and 11 are juniors.

Here is the lineup for the benefit of the fans and opposing coaches in the Southwest Conference next fall: Parks-Howard; Moon; Pat Finckson; and Malcolm Kirkens; seniors; Mennan Schreier and Don Jones, juniors.

Tackles-Buck; Lansford; Ken Harlow; seniors; Herb Goss and Langford; Shedd, juniors; Guards-Don Miller, Jimmie Rosser, Don McGraw and Ed Flinn; seniors.

Fullbacks-Bill Long and Ed Taylor; juniors. And there are some top prospects up from the freshmen, including Ben Woodson, the great tackle from Brownwood; Gary and Opton, the fine quarterbacks from Baytown; Jackie Pitzer, halfback from Gliding; and Fred Ernst, fullback from Baytown.

The good thing about Texas is that it's going to start the season on a change without having to worry about who is going to play quarterback. They've had to develop them at Texas each season but when Charley Brewer came to Texas from Lubbock he solved the problem.

Brewer stepped in last season and was one of the finest quarterbacks in the country. He should be something to see next fall.

This is no attempt to put Texas on the spot but is a plain statement of facts. The Longhorns ought to be the real thing next campaign. Watch out Notre Dame, watch out Oklahoma. And watch out other members of the Southwest Conference.

Officials Set Same Pay

Commissioners court set salaries of Lamb county elective officers at the same figure as a year in a meeting Monday. County Judge Robert Kirk, chairman, said.

The court also approved rough budget estimates for the collector's and sheriff's offices, and hired a coyote trapper to work in the county for the next few months.

The trapper, A. L. Findt, will work here under supervision of U. S. department of interior's fish and wildlife service.

His salary will be paid in part by the federal government and in part by the county.

County Agent David Eaton, his assistant, Lonnie Cole, and Farm Bureau President Jack Yarbrough met with the court to ask financial assistance in sending representatives to the cotton acreage meeting in Waco Wednesday. The court voted to pay expenses of one delegate.

The court discussed equipment for the two courtrooms in the new courthouse with a salesman but made no decision.

The commissioners also paid routine bills. The court will meet again on Jan. 30.

They were brought to the hospital in two cars by Mr. and Mrs. Richardson of County Line and by Miss Clea Vandever of Abernathy. ### Foiled Again!

All through 1953 there were a lot more people than usual predicting a recession just around the corner. Some just thought it was time for a let-down. Others were hoping it would happen to embarrass the new administration.

But despite all the pessimistic talking and thinking, no recession developed. Instead the nation enjoyed the highest income in its history and with much less inflation than it has known for most of the last dozen years. Living costs went up only one per cent during the year. Income is up much more. That means the standard of living went up. Even Lamb county folks struck by drouth and lower farm prices increased their bank deposits and reduced their debt during the year.

This should indicate at least three things to the pessimists: (1) It is not fear of depression that causes depression. (2) Depressions do not run on a time table. They are not inevitable every few years. Busts do not necessarily follow booms. (3) We do not have to make a choice between inflation or depression. It is possible to have neither.

As long as nothing happens to diminish the quantity of money in circulation, I think it highly doubtful that depression can occur. And I cannot conceive of any administration run by any party ever again letting our money supply diminish when it is so easy to unbalance the federal budget and flood the country with new money, if necessary. It should not be necessary.

So I thought the pessimists were wrong at the close of World War II and they have been wrong ever since, and I hope and believe they will always be wrong.

The only thing that has me worried right now is the fact that most of the pessimists have disappeared and are predicting that 1954 will be a pretty good year. Since they have been wrong so long, I am a little bit apprehensive about this.

Controversial

"Some American statesmen," says Robert M. Hutchins, formerly the stimulating head of the University of Chicago and now associate director of the Ford Foundation, "have concluded that a country is not safe, unless it is united, which is true, and that a country cannot be united unless everybody in it agrees with everybody else about everything, which is false."

Controversy is one of the best features about democratic society. A society that does not permit controversy is on the way to death. When a subject is said to be controversial it means simply that it is alive and people are arguing about it. The word should not be used as a term of reproach, but rather as a compliment. Engaging in controversy is one of America's most useful as well as enlivening indoor sports.

County Agent David Eaton Explains Cotton Acreages

By David Eaton
Lamb County Agent

A number of farmers have been asking about the percentage of cotton acreage cut that Lamb county received for the 1954 cotton acreage allotments.

The nation's acreage was set on the basis of a 10-billion bale crop. Since the national average yield per planted acre for 1948 through 1952 was 268 pounds or about one-half of a bale, the 10-billion bales was divided by 558333 which gave a national allotment of 17,910,448 acres. Texas received 7,376,858 acres or nearly six times the amount received by any other state.

Lamb county received 193,657 acres. This was based on the acreage planted to cotton in the 5-year period 1947-1952. 1949 was not used because that was the year that the government asked farmers to plant less cotton and passed a law that the 1949 planted cotton acreage would not be used to compute any future cotton acreage allotments.

The cotton acreage for Lamb county for this period was:
1947-223,693 acres
1948-222,000 acres
1950-128,795 acres
1951-377,000 acres
1952-365,000 acres

This gives a 5-year average of 268,298 acres. The state gave Lamb county 66% of the 5-year average or 173,713 acres and added 19,944 acres for trend. Therefore, Lamb county received 193,657 acres, which is 73.55% of the 5-year average for the county. To obtain the acreage allotment factor for the farm, the county committee divided the 193,657 acres, less a small reserve for new growers, appeals, and corrections, by 478,068.9 acres of crop land, which gave a factor of .3828 percent of crop land.

There is a movement in Congress at the present time to increase the national allotment by 3 million acres. In 1950, the last year of cotton allotment, Congress increased the National acreage allotment to 21 million acres, but applied the 40-45-60 amendment.

This amendment provided that no farm could receive an acreage allotment smaller than 40 percent of the highest year or 60 percent of the three-year average, whichever was smaller. In 1950 Lamb county did not receive any of the increase because the county factor was 41.2% which was larger than the 40 percent of the crop land. So, if Congress increases the national acreage Lamb county does not stand to gain very much acreage per farm—if any.

How to Make Lnsconscious Mayonnaise

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Don't ever believe anyone who tells you mayonnaise is hard to make. Use the following recipe for Never-Fail Mayonnaise and you'll come up with a batch of melt-in-your-mouth dressing.

In Paris recently, we were reminded of how good homemade mayonnaise tastes. We loved the small luncheon sandwiches—chock-full of mayonnaise—in one tiny restaurant. (In this particular cafe you could walk around and choose the varieties of sandwiches you wanted—the nearest we came in France to an American cafeteria.) The sandwich fillings—except for an occasional truffle!—were the same as ours; tongue, cheese, ham and chicken (sliced or chopped) and a cooked vegetable combination. But the white bread for the sandwiches was sliced very very thin, trimmed of crusts, and no lettuce or other greens appeared. The filling and the mayonnaise were pre-eminent. And so detectable!

If you like garlic, you might enjoy the famous Aioli Sauce served so often in France with hot or cold fish. To make a quick version of Aioli, just add lots of crushed garlic to some of our Foolproof Mayonnaise. Offer the Aioli with cold boiled shrimp as a first course.

Then there's the French Green Sauce. To concoct it, you mince watercress leaves and parsley very fine and add it to the mayonnaise. Or you may wilt the greens in boiling water, drain, then rub through a fine sieve before you add them to the dressing. Try this on cold salmon.

Another wonderful sauce is achieved by adding tomato puree visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Watson, of Hale Center Sunday.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitchell last Thursday night were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Palmer and daughter, all of near Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stafford of Anton visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Stafford Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cook and Mrs. B. D. Morgan accompanied Pvt. Howard Cook to Virginia.

Mrs. McQuatters III Mrs. Roy McQuatters Jr. has been in the Scottish Rites hospital at Temple for treatment.

Gloria Gray and Mildred Stevenst were Sunday dinner guests of Betty Byars.

THICK CREAMY MAYONNAISE — Make with Portable Mixer
ree, finely chopped green pepper, chopped chives (or onion) and a bit of tarragon to Never-Fail Mayonnaise.

Remember that this Never-Fail Mayonnaise is a basic dressing. You can tone it up as you will. Add a little chilli sauce, grated onion, minced pimiento-stuffed olives to it—and you have Russian Dressing for hearts of lettuce.

For Tartar Sauce add minced pickles, capers, onion and green olives to the mayonnaise and serve with golden-brown fried scallops of filets of sole.

One of our favorite Sunday night supper menus is a first course of a hearty soup, then toasted finger rolls that have been split and mixed with a combination of lobster, celery and mayonnaise. A fruit dessert and lots of hot strong coffee make a perfect ending.

If you have one of those wonderfully useful little portable mixers (pictured here) you can make this mayonnaise in no time at all. Here's the method.

NEVER-FAIL MAYONNAISE
Ingredients: ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 3 tablespoons cider vinegar, 1 egg, 2 cups salad oil.

Method: Put salt, sugar and mustard in mixing bowl; mix thoroughly. Add 1 tablespoon vinegar and stir well. Add egg; heat until blended. Continue beating and add oil, a quarter teaspoon at a time, until mixture thickens. Then add about half of remaining oil, a teaspoon at a time. Make absolutely sure that each addition of oil is thoroughly blended before next is added. Beat in gradually 2 remaining tablespoons vinegar and mayonnaise. A fruit dessert and lots of hot strong coffee make a perfect ending.

Refrigerate but do not allow to get near freezing temperature or mayonnaise will separate.

Grace And Faith Save The Race

By Tommy Williams, Minister

Every Bible reader is familiar with the story of Noah and the Ark. It is the story of the salvation of the human race from complete destruction. It portrays with unmistakable clearness the broad principles upon which God's dealings with man are based. GRACE. "Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord" (Genesis 6:8). Grace is the favor of God which includes his unbounded love. Without it there could be no approach to God. FAITH. "By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house." (Hebrews 11:7). Notwithstanding God's loving favor, man has no approach to him without faith. Read Hebrews 11:6. ACITIVITY. Faith so impelled Noah that he "prepared the ark." Without this act of obedience, neither grace nor faith would have saved Noah and his house from the flood. As God's love is manifested through acts of grace, man's love for God is shown through acts of faith. On these three great principles, with love pervading them all, the whole history of communion between God and man is based. "In Christ Jesus, neither circumcision availeth anything nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love" (Galatians 5:6).

HERE'S HOW:

Bride Takes A Lesson On How To Entertain

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

WHEN THE BRIDE hangs that "at home" sign on her door, it is her turn to entertain. She has been basking in the glow of showers, parties, and the wedding reception. Now the turn is hers.

Bridal etiquette has been tapered to fit our less formal conditions, smaller quarters, lack of domestic help and career girl bride. But the hostess still isn't relieved of her duty to family, those who entertained her before marriage and those who gave her even a token present.

The bride's first party should be the small dinner given to her own parents and the parents of the groom. This should be within two or three weeks after the honeymoon. This party should not be served buffet style no matter how busy the bride is. But it can be a very simple meal prepared in advance. Important because the bride's first dinner can be a frightful experience.

She can really impress the family, however with a well appointed table. Her parents will be thrilled to see their daughter used elegantly. And her fine crystal, the appropriate thoughtful gift of the groom's family, should be displayed in glory. Wines may be essential for a dinner party of this type. This gives an opportunity to christen the champagne glasses. A lovely centerpiece should grace the table, and, of course, are a must for dinner-party glamor.

THE BRIDAL PARTY is next on the list. A dinner or luncheon may be given, depending on the number of attendants. Set a buffet table, but have two or three bridge tables at which they may eat in comfort. Use wedding present linen gifts given to you by the members of the group.

AN OLD CUSTOM that seems to have remained in vogue as bridal etiquette is concerned, is entertaining during the months those who entertained you before your marriage. Give them a gift of your more than a token present. These people, times grouped together at a cocktail party, but this doesn't do well as a rule. Anyone who has made the effort and expense of giving a wedding gift will certainly enjoy a gift with the bride and groom at home.

Small get-togethers such as bridge, lunch, brunch or conversation can be accomplished inexpensively and provide a pleasant surprise. It gives the bride the opportunity of showing off her new look, and breaks the ice as far as her social life is concerned.

Designed as a versatile light duty truck which also takes the family to town in town, this sturdy new 1954 Ford F-100 Series pickup offers a choice of Ford's most powerful 130-horsepower overhead valve Power King V-8 or the new 115-h.p. OHV Clipper 6-cylinder engine. Its smart new grille and "driverized" cab are combined with 65 cu. ft. of unobstructed loadspace—all-bolted construction pickup box for superior strength and longer life. Fully automatic Fordomatic transmission, I-Rest tinted glass and boosted power brakes are available at extra cost.

Ford Trucks Feature Power, Comfort

The 1954 line of trucks, including five new ultra-modern short-stroke, low-friction, economy truck engines and the first tandem axle truck built by Ford, went on display in dealers' showrooms all over the country Wednesday.

The new truck lines, including the new 130-h.p. V-8 and more than 220 models, range from 4,600 lbs. to 14,000 lbs. rated gross vehicle weight. They again feature famous "driverized" cabs which last year helped increase over the year. And Master-Guide power steering now is available on all light duty trucks.

With each engine having a compression ratio of 7.2:1, the new Ford engines include: 115-h.p. Cost Clipper Six; 130-h.p. Power King V-8; 138-h.p. Power King V-8; 152-h.p. Cargo King V-8 and 170-h.p. Cargo King V-8.

Horsepower in the Cost Clipper Six has been increased this year from 101 to 115-h.p. The new Power King engines with 130 and 138-h.p., replaces the former L-head 106-h.p. V-8 and the 112-h.p. Big Six. And the Cargo King engines have been increased from 145 to 152 and from 155 to 170 horsepower respectively.

All of the new engines are of the ultra-modern short-stroke, low-friction design with new deep-block construction for greater structural rigidity. Their pistons travel up to 30 per cent less distance in each revolution and frictional horsepower waste is cut as much as 33 per cent. Thus Ford trucks produce more usable hauling power from every drop of gas. They are all rated as having greater economy, smoother performance and longer engine life.

Ford is presenting 5 truck lines in 1954, conventional (F); tandem axle (T); cab forward (C); school bus (B) and parcel delivery (P). The five lines include a total of 24 basic Series (such as F-100 and T-700 tandem axle).

In addition to Ford's "driverized" cabs, which provide the driver with better seats, greater visibility, and new upholstery, including woven plastic seat and seat back which "breathes" like cloth, Ford in its 1954 line is making available Master-Guide power steering on all Big Jobs.

Fordomatic drive is available at extra cost on all light duty models—F-100, F-250, F-350 and P-350. And power braking is optional on F-100 and 500 Series at extra cost and standard equipment on Series 600 models and up.

In the new Ford trucks, the "driverized" cabs are only the beginning with many mechanical and body components improved as part of Ford's attention to the human factor in modern trucking. Gear shifting is synchronized on all trucks for driver ease.

Ford's Big Jobs have, as a Ford exclusive, a de-popper valve which uses engine vacuum to stop downhill backfiring at its source. This feature is especially important because many cities now have laws that make elimination of this objectionable noise mandatory.

One of the greatest aids to the truck driver is Ford's Master-Guide power steering, which reduces steering effort as much as 75 per cent. With it a driver can turn the wheels of a modern tractor-trailer combination, fully loaded on a dry pavement, with ease.

Crushed butter-crunch candy, folded into valinna pudding, makes a delicious dessert.

TEEN TALK

AP Newsfeatures

Wanna know how the other 99 per cent live?

Well—as part of a plan to conduct coast-to-coast hookups on our teen-age friends for this column's readers, let's tune in to Boston today, and see what AP reporter Richard Sinnott says . . . The high school set in Boston has borrowed a bit of bop in its '54 edition of slang.

No matter who you are or where you are, you're certain to be addressed as "Dad" by those who make the lexicon rules.

"I dig you the most," means we're in complete accord. If a he, she or it is described as the "end," the "greatest" the "over-all," "real cool" or "kee-razy," why, Dad, that means it's just about the ultimate.

Dorchester High School recently went co-ed after some 30 years of having separate schools for the boys and girls. The majority of the students think this stroke of good luck is simply "the mostest."

Some of the more studious lads consider the invasion of the "frills" a gross injustice. The dissenters are referred to as "toads," that is, they belong in the "tough all over department."

At Brookline High School Joe Sylvano is a "real Something" or a "3-D." On Friday nights Joe often "drags a doll" to a dance.

Cutie Connie Snider, also of Brookline High has "frosting on her forehead." She has a hair-do with bangs.

In nearby Newton if a girl is being "tracked by an elephant," she's dancing with a lightweight who's not so light . . . on her feet.

At Quincy High anyone who makes the honor roll is known as a "slurper." The announcement that a glad lad has won public commendation is usually accompanied by a refrain of, "Night and day he's been slurping around."

Seventeen-year-old Ann Dahibo is a "druell." The beautiful senior at Milton High is the girl all the boys want to go "nogging" with. A "nog" is that kiss you build a dream on.

Betty Muldoon, also a senior at Milton High, comes up with a definition of a boy that's the "greatest." "A boy," says Betty, "is a disappointment."

At Hyde Park High School, the principal's office is termed the "pentagon." If a "wailing sheet" is passed out, forget your handkerchief and remember your notes . . . It's exam time.

Dick Keddy, 17, of East Milton, has a girl friend, so he belongs in the "L-H-O" category. That, dolls, means "it's hands off."

About once a week Ronnie Romano of Boston Latin gets the "wheels" (car) to take his "chick" to the "snack-pit" (a drive-in restaurant).

On the South Shore, football

George Williamson is thought by the girls to have "perdynooks." Unraveled, this means Gerge has a combination of personality, dynamite and good looks.

Dave Cleary of Dedham High is described as "in a super stupor" (he's just in love).

White shirts (father's) and bow ties (brother's) are the most popular items of female classroom dress. The boys are going in for loud, plaid, flannel shirts. White buck shoes are popular, but have to be dirty to be stylish.

Model T's are painted in plaids and convertible car tops are bought in plaids. Bill Jaunbrun says, "Dad, you're really sad without a bit of plaid."

Music-wise, the "big band" craze seems to have died out around the Beantown. Many nickels still find their way into the juke boxes.

The girls' favorite singer is Julius LaRosa. Most of the boys seem to like Joni James as their favorite femme. But at Medford

High School, both boys and girls cast their vote for Cindy Lord as their tops in pops vocalist. Cindy, you see, attended Medford High.

FARM CORNER

Baby chick season is just around the corner, and we are wondering if you are planning to lose 10 to 20 percent of your next batch of chicks? That's exactly what could happen if the young birds become infected with infectious bronchitis. Caused by a virus, infectious bronchitis is an extremely contagious respiratory disease of chickens. It does not affect turkeys and other domesticated birds. While no effective drug treatment has been discovered, poultrymen can take steps to help prevent the spread of the disease.

The symptoms of this disease are difficult breathing, gasping, sneezing, rattling and in some cases, a thin watery nasal discharge. It may affect any age bird, but does not cause a nervous condition similar to Newcastle disease.

Mortality among chicks less than five weeks old varies widely, but usually 10 to 20 percent. It does not cause any significant death in older birds. When the virus strikes, a four to five day drop in feed consumption is noted and oftentimes broilers are delayed two weeks in getting ready for market as a result.

An attack of infectious bronchitis in laying flocks shows up as a rapidly spreading cold. Egg production drops sharply and some hens stop laying altogether. Usually it takes four to six weeks for a flock to return to its former production rate.

During the outbreak soft shell, small and irregular shaped eggs are common. Even on the conservative side the loss from the disease in commercial flocks is $1 per bird. The loss is greater in hatching flocks.

All birds on the farm become infected regardless of sanitary or quarantine precautions once the virus begins. It may "jump" long distances during an active outbreak.

Infectious bronchitis also is spread by mechanical means such as clothing, poultry crates and equipment. Birds which recover may remain carriers.

A laboratory diagnosis is necessary to isolate infectious bronchitis from other poultry diseases such as Newcastle disease or chronic respiratory infection. If the disease is suspected, at least five chicks or three adult birds showing the symptoms should be submitted to a reliable laboratory as soon as possible.

As far as control measures are concerned, increasing the brooding temperature slightly may help among young chicks. Any means of increasing feed consumption will help get a laying flock back into production. Certain dusts and sprays which may aggravate the disease are not recommended.

This disease respects not sanitary barriers, but to help prevent it: Purchase only day old chicks and never introduce started chicks into a flock. Obtain chicks from a reliable hatchery.

Either pick them up or have them delivered to the farm by private conveyance. Chicks should not be purchased from a hatchery that keeps started birds in the same building where incubators are located.

Birds should never be returned to the farm after a poultry show. Do not allow buyers to bring a partially loaded truck onto the premises, prevent any contact between young and old birds and discourage visitors in the poultry yards and houses.

There is a program of immunization that will protect laying hens from infectious bronchitis. The program consists of inoculating the birds with a known strain of the disease when the birds are six to 12 weeks old. At this age, the disease causes no mortality and the slight retardation in growth is quickly overcome.

Many factors must be considered before this type program is undertaken, and interested poultrymen should contact the nearest pathologist.

C-A-C
Spring flowers will be harder and earlier if you prepare beds now with soil conservation techniques accepted by those who know. "Whether you live on a corner lot or a 100-acre farm, you can get a good soil conservationist."

Spade the soil now, leaving it rough to absorb more winter rain or snow. This is another means of making the flower bed soil more productive. Add super phosphate of acid phosphate fertilizer for they will not wash as easily as nitrogen. Spade deep into the soil. Phosphate is necessary for a good crop of blooms on spring flowers.

An easy way to do fall preparation, is to cover the flower bed with several inches of leaves, straw or other decayed vegetable mulch, add acid phosphate or super phosphate at the rate of a half to one cup per 25 square feet and spade the area to a depth of eight to 12 inches, leaving the surface rough.

While planning to simplify your work, arrange to have one or two large flower beds rather than several scattered plantings. This will save many hours of work later when it is time to water, spray, dust, or gather flowers.

A winter cover crop of legumes, oats or other green manure will be as beneficial when turned under in a flower bed as a cotton or corn field.

Fieldton News . . .

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Aldridge visited this week with their son and family at San Antonio, and with other relatives in East Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bondlett and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eason and Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Ward returned last week to their homes in California after being called here by the illness and death of their mother, Mrs. Vickie McCain.

Mrs. Jack McCowen and baby son are visiting with her parents at Lamesa. Her husband is in the armed forces, stationed in Korea.

Mrs. W. D. McDuff and son, who had been visiting here with her mother, Mrs. May Chaney, went to Dallas last week to visit her husband, who is undergoing medical treatment at a hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Scivaly have moved back to their farm south of Fieldton.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Bundick, former Fieldton residents, are the parents of a new daughter, born last week at the Payne-Shotwell hospital. This is their first child and the first grandchild of Billie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bundick. Billie is in the Navy and has been on overseas duty several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick McCowen and children visited here last Wednesday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berry Ball, and his mother, Mrs. McCowen. They live near Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bush and family have moved to a new home in the Spade community.

Mrs. May Chaney visited Friday and Saturday, near Clovis, with her father and his sister, with whom he makes his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Hill took their son, Benton, to Lubbock hours of light daily to maintain top egg production.

While the layers aren't especially concerned with the situation, light influences a secretion from the pituitary gland. This glandular stimulus makes the birds consume more feed and water. The result is extra eggs and a profit from the lighting system.

One 40-watt bulb for each 200 square feet of floor space is sufficient. Shallow reflectors make the lights more effective. Commence using light now and increase the lighting period as the days become shorter. Perches, feeding hoppers and watering troughs should also be lighted.

We recommend early morning lights. All lights are satisfactory, but egg production is not increased after 14 hours.

wants to. He drinks nearly two quarts a day."

Not Like Water
No wonder Freddy doesn't eat! He is filled up on milk. Milk is not just a liquid like water. As soon as milk gets into the stomach it becomes semi-solid like cottage cheese. A stomach partly filled with milk clabber prevents its owner from feeling hungry, so of course he is not interested in eating. To want to eat, a child must come to his meals with an empty stomach.

A quart of milk a day is too much for a child. A glass of milk at each meal is about right. Since a glass can vary anywhere from six to eight ounces, "a glass" gives us quite a leeway to take care of big children and small ones. This means not only the milk that the child drinks, but also the milk used on cereals, in milk soups and in milk junk and custards.

Between 18 and 24 ounces of milk a day (a quart contains 32 ounces) will supply all the necessary food elements a child needs from milk. It will give him adequate calcium, supplement his protein, and above all, it will leave room for some meat, eggs, fruit and vegetables that all children need.

Glass Each Meal
Of course when a child gets into adolescence he can consume a quart or maybe even two quarts of milk a day and still come back for four helpings at dinner. But in the years before adolescence, children will have a more rounded diet, if they do not consume more than a pint or a pint and a half of milk a day.

If your child is taking too much milk and not eating his other food, first stop giving him milk in any form except to drink and to put on his cereal. Don't give him milk soups or milk desserts. If he still gets too much milk, give him his glass of milk with each meal, let him drink it anytime during the meal that he wants it, but let him know very firmly that when it is gone there will be no more milk until the next meal. He may have all the water and fruit juices he wants with his meals, but no more milk. And above all, don't let him have extra milk between meals.

G. I. Questions and V. A. Answers

Q—I've been contributing money to my mother each week for several years. Would that be considered proof that she's dependent on me? I want to claim her as a dependent when I enroll in school under the Korean GI Bill.

A—The fact that you've been making contributions to your mother is not conclusive evidence in itself that dependency exists. But VA will consider it in connection with all other evidence showing that she actually is dependent on you.

Q—My deadline for starting Korean GI training is August 20, 1954. I want to take a correspondence course. Will VA consider that I started in time if I simply enroll in the course before the deadline?

A—Enrolling in the correspondence course before the deadline is not enough. VA will consider that you started in time if the school sends you your first lesson before the deadline date.

Q—I'm leaving my National Service Life Insurance dividends at the VA so they'll draw interest. Could you tell me how the VA credits interest to my account?

A—Interest will be computed and credited on the balance of dividend deposits remaining the day before the anniversary date of the policy.

Q—Will I have to pay income tax on disability compensation payments I receive from the VA?

A—No. VA benefit payments are not taxable. In fact, they need not even be reported as income, for tax payments.

It was certainly a relief to everybody when the Shaws didn't move out of the district. Especially to grade school and high school basketball girls.

Now, if only the Kings would decide what they're going to do! We surely don't want to lose Margaret and Herbert.

YOUR CHILD TODAY

Quart Of Milk Daily Too Much For Small Child

By Dorothy V. Whipple, M. D. AP Newsfeatures

Milk is an excellent food and should be included in the diet of all normal children, but even good things can be overdone.

Children need other foods besides milk. If a child fills up on milk, he doesn't eat enough meat, eggs, fruit and vegetables to give him a well-balanced diet. He is apt to become pale, tired, irritable and suffer from constipation.

Mrs. Stark brought Freddy in to see me recently.

"He just doesn't eat a thing, doctor," she complained. "He just nibbles at his food."

"How much milk does he drink?" I asked her.

"Oh, he loves his milk, doctor," and Mrs. Stark brightened as she went on. "I keep a bottle of milk on the bottom shelf of the refrigerator and Freddy helps himself whenever he action-adventure on the screen should be up to 54 percent action. Director Budd Boetticher, whose Technicolor film for Universal-International is "Wings of the Hawk," filmed entirely in menson and starring Van Heflin and Julia Adams. The film opens Saturday night at the Palace theatre.

he insists, "Just because you don't have lots of words, it doesn't mean you don't have lots of drama. Movies have always been the great medium for dramatic action; now with 3-Dimension there's hardly a limit to what the screen can do with action alone."

at premise goes double for a spectacular 3-D outdoor picture as "Wings of the Hawk," Boetticher. Set against a rich background, the story here Heflin discovering a mine, fighting a pitched battle with corrupt troops, being rescued, falling in love with the queen Julia Adams, and ending off a series of spectacular explosions all in breathtaking succession.

film, fresh from the stage, he started "Wings of the Hawk" admitted it was quite a bit of a "misunderstand."

Junior Hi-Life

The first week back in school was certainly a murderous one. All the teachers have been giving advice on what to study for mid-term exams Thursday and Friday.

Due to Mrs. Watson's leaving, we have a new teacher in Junior or high school. Mrs. Lynn has taken Mrs. Watson's place, and our new teacher, Mrs. Donnelly, has taken Mrs. Lynn's place. Mrs. Donnelly has lived in Littlefield for eight years and has had 17 years of teaching experience.

The ninth grade basketball team played a game with Carol Thompson of Lubbock Friday night. The score 41-35 in their favor. In the starting line-up were Orvill Newton, R. L. Graham, Max Brown, Johnny Thompson and Veryl Cutshall.

The eighth grade also played Carol Thompson that night. The score was 27 to 20 in Littlefields favor. The starting line-up included Buddy Jones, James Shaw, David Modrecai, Johnny Clix, Miles Stephens, and Duane Griffith.

On Tuesday, Dec. 22, the band

Lipstick Logic

Weight-wise women, back to normal eating after the holiday spree, are inclined to look back over the past few weeks—or down at their spreading silhouettes—and say "Wha' happen!"

Months of careful living, of by-passing the candy counter and the pastry recipes, simply went by the board between December 25 and January 2. Now we are aghast at what we've gone and done to ourselves.

The edicence is hard to ignore: We see it when we slip into the green gabardine we haven't had on since Thanksgiving; when we try on a spring-cotton in the usual size; when we glance guiltily at a show window as we hasten along; when we unexpectedly walk head-on into a mirror.

Now there are three stages in getting through this crisis: First, we admit to ourselves that something must be done. That's fairly easy. Then we figure out what to do. And third—sometimes—we do it.

At the moment we're still in the second stage. We read everything that comes to hand: "A good foundation girdle means a good figure," "Better grooming gives slimmer lines," "It's not how much you weigh, but how it's distributed," and so on. Trough all the dodges we can think of, we evade the issue. Once we bring ourselves to look squarely at facts, the worst is over.

Tomorrow we're going to tell ourselves the whole truth: "Now look here," we'll say. "It's not rolling, it's not posture, it's food. Cut down on how many bites you take, choose the food you do bite into, and bite less of it."

Simple, isn't it? But so hard to say!

presented Beryl Harris, band director, with a Christmas present consisting of several ties, shirts, socks, trousers, and a pair of shoes. They were presented to him by John Crosby, band president, at the annual Christmas concert.

Recently the Bell milk company presented the band with a check for $100. The accompanying letter said the check was in recognition of the unsung heroes of the football games. The band is truly grateful for this generous gift.

See you next week. Donna Sue Goertz and Gay Douglas.
