Rains Brighten Outlook

The long awaited rains finally came to Lamb County and the Littlefield area Monday dropping about 4 inch of moisture in the Littlefield area and amounts ranging up to approximately .7 inch in the Olton area. Scattered rains had fallen in certain sections of the county previously but Monday's was the first to cover the whole general area.

The Littlefield area received another small shower Tuesday evening but the hoped for night long rain did not materialize.

Lamb County Agent Bill Kimbrough stated "the rains were of much more help to the irrigated lands than to the dry farmer. The rain was enough to wet down the tops of the beds that had started to dry up. The underground soil in the irrigated areas were still wet and the rains will hold down the top soil."

He added, "The dry land farmer still needs a lot more rain before he can plant, what is needed right now is at least a three inch rain for the dry farmer." The rains Monday only wetted down the soil and settled the dust on the dry land farms.

Farmers with irrigated land have already planted maize and in the southern part of Lamb County a few farmers have planted their cotton Kimbrough said that many more farmers north of the Sand hills in the Springlake, Earth and Olton areas have planted cotton compared to the southern part of the county.

"Most of the cotton planting is done starting around the tenth of next month" stated L. D. Aten, ASCS, and with most of the farmers now planting delinquent seed they are only waiting for the ground temperature to increase before planting. They are now able to plant their seed when the ground temperature is about six degrees less than necessary prior to the delimiting."

When asked about other crops, Kimbrough stated that the irrigated small grain wheat looks to be in fine shape but that the rain came too little and too late to help the dry land wheat which in all probability will have to be abandoned.

Police Activity Slow For Week

Littlefield police activity was light this week as only one accident was reported during the first three days. In addition four arrests for DP and five tickets for traffic violations were the only other actions.

The one accident occurred at the intersection of Highway 54 and Westside when a 1961 Ford driven by Lloyd Elms was struck in the left side by a car driven by Richard Wright, Enochs.

The police reported that the Elms vehicle, which was traveling North of Westside had stopped at the stop sign, then proceeded to cross the intersection and Elms stated he did not see the Wright vehicle approaching.

Two hundred dollars damage was done to the Elms car and the 1962 Ford driven by Wright suffered $175 damage.

County Court Bonds Set

Lamb County Judge J. B. Davis in County Court action this week set bond at $1,000 each for two persons who appeared before him.

The bonds were set for Henry Drews for violation of the liquor law as he was charged with selling liquor. The other bond was on a driving while intoxicated charge levied against Clement Fletcher.

Three other persons appeared before the County Judge but were set free on posting of bonds. One other person is being held in the county jail at the present time waiting for Muleshoe authorities to pick him up.

UP GOES THE CURBING-- The downtown Park and Shop project is moving at a rapid pace as the contractors have completed removing the curbs on XIT and are shown above tearing up.

Producers List Six Point Program Concerning Cotton Legislation

There are still some specifics concerning cotton legislation on which producers across the belt do not agree. But, here is general agreement as to the major principles any new cotton law should contain.

The accord which has been reached to date is the result of meetings held recently by producer delegates to American Cotton Producers Associates and other producer representatives from every section of the cotton belt. Attending the meetings from the High Plains were Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.; W. L. Edelman of Friona, Chairman of the PCG Legislative Committee, and J. D. Smith of Littlefield, Vice President of PCG.

Donald Johnson said the six points as listed by producers at these meetings were as follows:

1. Continuation of the Agricultural Act of 1964 for at least two more years with modification of the domestic allotment section to achieve the objective of reducing cotton production on a voluntary basis. Liberalizing incentive payments of the domestic allotment section will provide cotton with its own cropland adjustment opportunities and it is estimated that plantings would be reduced by approximately 2,000,000 acres.

2. Continued recognition that export markets are essential for U.S. cotton and that action be taken to regain a fair share of world markets as provided under Section 203 of the Agricultural Act of 1956.

To achieve this:

- (A) The Commodity Credit Corporation should be required to establish a specific export goal of not less than 7 million bales per year.

- (B) The Commodity Credit Corporation should be required to use flexibility features in sales programs to attain established goals.

The results would be broadened markets, a substantial recovery of funds now tied up in cotton to increase dollar earnings abroad, and sizeable reductions in carrying costs to the government.

3. Maintain at least the 16 million acre minimum national allotment.

Cotton acreage in this country has been reduced from around 28 million acres in 1953 to 16,200,000 acres in 1965. The U.S. cotton producer has been called upon repeatedly to make the supply adjustment for the entire world. At the same time, foreign production has been encouraged by various U.S. economic development and transfer of technology programs. Further reductions in the U.S. national cotton allotment would be quickly reflected in an expansion of production abroad and would represent a wasted effort by U.S. cotton farmers. The 16,000,000 acre national allotment represents the minimum acreage necessary for the achievement of efficiency on cotton farms in the United States.

4. Oppose any further reduction in the Commodity Credit Corporation loan level for cotton. Farmers have already sustained a $17.35 per bale cut in price supports within the past two marketing years. Accumulative increases in costs of items that farmers must buy to make a crop and higher costs for labor caused by the termination of Public Law 78, together with the increasing competition for workers from rural industries make it possible for farmers to absorb further price cuts at this time.

5. Strongly oppose the substitution of direct payments to cotton farmers as basic income supports in lieu of non-recourse CCC loans.

6. Urge full implementation of the cotton research section of the Agricultural Act of 1964 was released from a meeting April 20 of the Cotton Producers Legislative Committee; "The Agricultural Act of 1964 was passed in April of 1964, and became fully effective on August 1. At the time of passage, the cotton industry was suffering from a rapid erosion of markets, largely due to inroads of man-made fibers and to the rising tide of foreign textile imports."

"As originally conceived and presented, the Agricultural Act of 1964 was designed as a four-year program. It was fully recognized that time would be required to reverse the market loss trend and to bring the carryover down to a manageable level. Instead of a four-year program, however, the bill was amended to limit its life to two years. It has now been fully effective for only eight months.

"In spite of this short period of time, the Agricultural Act of 1964 has shown remarkable results. Under the stimulus of competitive prices in the domestic market through an in-kind equalization payment made in the channels of trade, the loss of domestic markets has been checked and reversed. Estimates indicate that consumption of cotton by U.S. mills during the current marketing year will exceed that of last year by between 800,000 and 1,000,000 bales. The program has restored confidence in the future of the cotton industry and has helped to meet competition of foreign textile imports. It has also made possible an increase in textile wages, reductions in prices for cotton yarns and greys goods and an unprecedented expansion in investments for modernization and expansion programs by the U.S. textile industry. Further increases in domestic consumption are limited only by current mill capacity and the uncertainty of a continuation of the program."

The requirement is necessitated by the Texas Legislature voting for House Bill No. 437. Secretary of State Crawford Martin emphasized that the Notaries Public should not send their requests for re-appointments or commissions directly to the Secretary of State. The law specifically requires that the County Clerks approve notary bonds.

The Secretary of State further pointed out that each person applying for a commission as a Notary Public must be at least 21 years of age and a resident of the county for which he is appointed. In Lamb County the exact name and permanent address of the applicant must be furnished to County Clerk Charles D. Jones. Jones stated that any person not now a Notary Public who desires an appointment has an extra five days to apply. May 20 is the deadline for new applications to assure that the appointment will be made in sufficient time for the applicant to qualify at the beginning of the new term.

Band Leaves For Corpus Christi

A hundred and thirty two Littlefield band and choir members left in three chartered busses at six a.m. this morning to participate in the Buccaneer Festival at Corpus Christi tomorrow and Saturday.

The trip is a reward for the band winning sweepstakes honors at the recent band competition at Seagraves and the choir winning District one award earlier in the year.

The band will perform in the concert portion of the competition early Friday morning and also again later on Friday for ratings with other 3A schools.

The choir will perform in competition Saturday morning and the students will return to Littlefield Sunday evening.

The Buccaneer Festival is recognized as one of the outstanding musical festivals in the state and draws bands from throughout Texas and eastern New Mexico.

The band will be under the direction of Don Hayes and the choir under the direction of Don Thorp. Professor Hayes has scheduled a practice session for the band members this afternoon at a San Antonio high school during a two hour layover. He stated "that the difference in altitude will affect the band's playing and with them scheduled early Friday the workout is needed today.

The uniforms were taken to Corpus Christi in a small trailer and station wagon.

MINUTE INSTRUCTIONS -- Littlefield Superintendent Glenn Reeves gives last minute instructions to the Littlefield High School band and choir members prior to their leaving for the Corpus Christi Buccaneer Festival at 6 a.m. this morning.

Pony League Opens Friday

The seven team Pony League will open play this weekend with one game Friday night and two scheduled for Saturday evening.

The opening game will be played in Littlefield with Roden Drug meeting KZZN at 8 p.m. on the Pony League diamond.

Radio & TV Lab will open their season Saturday night at Sudan while Ware-Richey travels to Amherst to open their season on the same night. Both games are set to start at 8 p.m.

Amherst is the defending champion while this is the first year that Sudan has an entry in the League. The other team in the league, Dairy Queen who finished in the runner-up slot last year will open their season the following week.

Bobby Short, president of the league stated that the opening games are the start of a 63 game season that will see each team meet each of the other six teams three times during the season due to be concluded the middle of July with an All Star team being picked for district competition.

He also announced that there will be opening ceremonies prior to the opening game with a flag raising ceremony and the traditional throwing out of the first ball to open the season.

sions to visit with our good friend Hugh Bledsoe who is contractor for the downtown project, and have been amused at some of the tales relating to his work here he has passed on. If you would like to be royally entertained, just find a chance to visit with Hugh when he has a water line problem. Seems as how the other day his crew was removing curbs in the 500 block of LFD, and ran into a line splitting it seven ways, and having water going in all directions before the line could be capped. No one knew where the cutoff was, according to Bledsoe. Each effort to cap the spewing line resulted in a new hole popping in right behind the plug. This went on for about four attempts before the line was finally brought under control. We only wish we could have seen this show, according to the description, it would have been worth the price of an admission ticket.

Removal Work To Move To Phelps Today

Amidst the sound of sledge hammers, tractors, and earth moving machinery, the work on the Littlefield 'Park-and-Shop' project will make its way to Phelps Avenue this week and the west side curbs and sidewalks, in the 500 block are expected to be removed before work is ended for the week.

Hugh Bledsoe, contractor, has indicated the work is progressing at a good pace and still feels the entire project can be completed in the 100 day estimated period.

The biggest block in the way of the workmen is broken water lines. Bledsoe said his crew has been slowed considerably by the lines servicing buildings, most of which are unexpected, and do not show on any city or utility map. The contractor said when his crew hits one of these lines they either have to stop until the line is repaired or move to another location while repair work is going on.

Pioneer Natural Gas, the first utility company to move in behind the removal crews, is currently laying a new 6 inch main on XIT and should have the new facility in place by the week's end. Charlie Duval, Pioneer manager, said work is ahead of the anticipated schedule and he hopes his meter crews can start with the installation of the new curb mount meters the first of next week. Southwestern Public Service and The General Telephone Company have been at work on their portions of the project for several weeks, and both hope to move their activity to the primary streets in the near future. Both Ken Rotan of Southwestern Public Service and Jim Flower of General Telephone have said their crews need to work in other areas of town in order to make preparations for the downtown construction.

Barring adverse weather conditions all the streets in the downtown area of Littlefield will be under construction by the first of next week, and work on the utility end of the construction will be in the shopping area also.

Area Scouts To Participate In South Plains Circus

More than 125 Littlefield Boy and Cub Scouts will participate in the 1965 Boy Scout Circus which will take place in the Lubbock Coliseum on Friday, April 30 and Saturday, May 1.

Boys from Troops 638 and 643, as well as Cub Scouts in Packs 666 and 667 will have boys in the circus both nights. They will all be represented in the grand entry on both nights, as well as certain events throughout the evening.

The theme this year is "Breakthrough for Youth" and thousands of boys and leaders from the South Plains Council will show scouting skills in various events such as: Before Columbus-The Redman, Wilderness 1965, Cub Breakthrough, Cubs on the Moon and many others.

Lamb County Superintendent C. Roy Stevens announced this week that May 28 is the deadline for students to transfer schools for the 1965-66 school year.

The deadline applies both to students transferring from one school to another within the county and students transferring to schools outside Lamb County.

Guild Of Piano Teachers Holds Auditions May 6-8

Littlefield Center of the Guild of Piano Teachers will begin the 1965 piano auditions in the Elementary Music room on May 6 through the 8th.

Adjudicator will be Leta Smith, Lawton, Oklahoma, piano teacher with a Degree from Oklahoma State for Women, Chickasha, Okla.; M.A., Teachers College of Columbia University, New York City, N.Y.; and a year of study at the Matthay Pianoforte School, London, England.

In addition, Miss Smith has conducted Teacher Workshops and Master classes conducted by Maer, Hans Barth, Clark, Fernando Lares, Roper, Frances Clark, etc.

Her past President, Oklahoma Federation of Music Teachers, Past President, South District President of the Oklahoma Federation of Music Clubs and as Secretary, Inspiration Point Arts Colony, Eureka Springs, Ark. Also, she is Vice-President, Lawton Philharmonic Society; Corresponding Secretary, Lawton Schubert Club; Organist at Sheridan Chapel, Fort Sill; and teaches piano privately for a living.

The surest means of inducing pupils to practice and progress is to stimulate their interest by placing goals and awards before them. Therefore, the basic aim of the National Federation of Piano Teachers has to establish definite goals and awards for piano pupils of grades from the earliest beginner to artistic adult performers.

Goals for the slow pupils as well as the gifted. These goals are attainable through measurement of individual progress and not in competitive examination contests. These goals give to music study a definite plan and prevent aimless drifting. Our entire system of academic education requires this need for goals, and such such milestones or measurement of progress in the form of examinations, of grades to higher grades and of awards. Guild goals do exactly this but go further by awarding pupils of private teachers, schools and colleges out-of-schoolers to win. The Guild has 42 points which the participants are awarded for special commendation that need more attention.

Each participating teacher is graded and is given a detailed report on the good as a teacher and the needs as estimated by the judge.

The certificates are an award showing the level, or grade, earned by the performer. In addition, each performer is given a pin in the shape of the United States bearing the year of the word "Pledge", "Local", "District", "State", "National", or "International", depending on how many authorized pieces and membership phases have been prepared for auditioning. This is the fraternity pin issued by the National Fraternity of Student Musicians, the National Federation of Piano Teachers, and the American College of Musicians may be worn for the year of the next year's auditions.

There are two classifications of programs not memorized. The Guild offers Diplomas for Elementary Music and High School, College Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior as well as the Master Diploma.

Piano Study has a 5-fold program of chemicals, enters wherever into the manufacture of every article we touch cotton diapers to bronze sets.

Young Drivers In Accidents

Youthful drivers, those under 25 years of age, represent about 15% of all licensed drivers in the country. Yet, they were involved in more than 29% of all highway deaths and more than 25% of all non-fatal mishaps in 1964.

The figures are contained in a report by the Travelers Insurance Companies compiled from a country-wide survey of state motor vehicle departments.

Older drivers, those over 65, were involved in 7.7% of the fatal crashes, and represent about 7% of the driving population.

A clock that gains or loses one-hundredth second a day is not accurate enough for some scientific purposes.

Weeping juniper, so named for the drooping characteristics of its branches, is found in the Big Bend area of Texas. It has not been reportedly found in any other state.

Approximately 40 per cent of all wild forest fires in the pine-hardwood area of Texas occur during the months of February and March.

In 1923 the Texas legislature enacted the first regulatory law providing that persons who willfully or negligently set forest fires would be subject to prosecution for a misdemeanor.

Highway Motorists Is Wasted On Littering

Texas motorists waste many miles of new highway last year. But they need to build.

Governor Connally sized this point in his first of a quarter-million bags given to the Texas Department by the vestition Chamber of Commerce and the Galveston Chamber and Tourist Bureau.

The bags will be distributed to motorists at each of the Tourist Information Centers at points of entry highways of the State's Capitol rotunda.

"The Texas Highway Department is charged with the construction and maintenance of the State's superb highway system," Governor Connally said. He added, "But the truth is that more than $1.5 million of new highway is being built each year to pick up the thrown along the right of way by careless motorists. Money could better be used to build more miles of highways, and to provide taxpayers' $4 billion investment in our existing system."

The bags were donated by Galveston Chamber of Commerce to encourage litter control among out-of-state motorists. They also bear a message of invitation to visit Galveston Island resort. D.C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, pointed out that approximately 12 million motorists come to Texas each year. "These visitors represent an industry of more than a billion dollars a year," he said. "We hope that this will become conscious of litter problem and help to sent a 'clean house' by paying guests."

The Texas Highway Department has distributed litter control bags for many years. However, this is the first time that any organization donated such a large number of bags for free distribution.

Some 400 thousand motorists visited the Information Center last year. Besides litter, nearly two million people travel-oriented literature handed out. In addition, information Center personnel encouraged motorists to set their trips to visit other scenic and historical sections.

HOW IT BEGAN

You might think that the detachable collar was invented by someone in the quill-tine business, but actually it was thought up by a woman in Troy, New York. Her husband, a blacksmith, soiled so many collars she didn't know what to do. Finally, she detached them. Today, at least 25 different styles of shirts and collars are offered by famous brand manufacturers.

Would you mind wearing a tie half as much if you thought it was a protection against what ails you? In the 17th century, soldiers started wearing long strips of muslin or lace tied at their throats as a magic protection for their hearts. This style was introduced into "polite" society by Louis XIV, not for protection, but for decoration. Today, brand names conscientious apparel manufacturers vie with each other to offer a selection of ties that would have dazzled the court of King Louis.

ACCENT ON HEALTH

Light from a single window breaks the dark expanse of a five-story building. Inside the room is a research scientist pouring over a pile of notes, trying to piece together bits of evidence which could possibly lead to a significant breakthrough in the battle against cancer.

Miles away in a small town, a secretary unlocks the door of the local health department and starts filling out requisitions for needed supplies. She is no scientist and the researcher hates the trivialities of order forms.

Yet both of these people have much in common. They are both engaged in a health career.

In the growing competition among industry, the professions, education, government service, welfare and the health services for skilled, competent personnel, a career dedicated to serving fellow man through the health services can be rewarding both career-wise and personally.

Health careers include callings that care for the ill and the injured; and they include callings that help to prevent illness.

Training varies from about a high school education for some workers in a hospital to more than eight years of college for a physician.

The entire spectrum of working talents are offered in health fields including biologists, food service workers, housekeepers, statistical clerks, machinists, administrators, engineers, writers, artists, chemists and photographers. The list goes on and on.

A health careerist can be his own boss as a private physician or consultant or he can work as a skilled member of a highly organized team in a local or state health department, hospital or health agency.

However, high standards are demanded regardless of the precise job performed. Many Texas colleges and universities offer courses designed to train students for the various health careers.

The health sciences are just beginning to enter on a new threshold of achievement. Atomic medicine is providing better diagnosis and treatment of such ills as cancer, and thyroid diseases and epidemiology procedures in public health are solving more and more communicable disease problems.

High school students should consider a health career seriously.

Home gardeners by the hundreds and thousands emerge with the coming of warm spring weather to spade beds, plant seed, spread fertilizer, mow grass -- and the other countless minor tasks attendant to keeping the lawn neat and attractive.

And gardening is excellent therapy for both mind and body. For those who enjoy digging in the dirt, gardening offers good exercise, fresh air and sunshine after a winter of being cooped up indoors.

Remember, though, to follow a few safety pointers and precautions and your gardening will be a healthier, happier experience.

First, don't let your enthusiasm carry you away your first time out. Take it easy, at least for the first few sessions. Don't try to work a 10-hour day at hard manual labor on the first warm weekend. Take frequent rest breaks and work at a pace that isn't too tiring. As the season advances, your muscles will limber up and toughen, and you will be able to do more with less discomfort.

Cuts, scratches and bruises are the fate of most gardeners. Usually they aren't serious. Clean minor cuts with warm water and soap and cover with a light bandage.

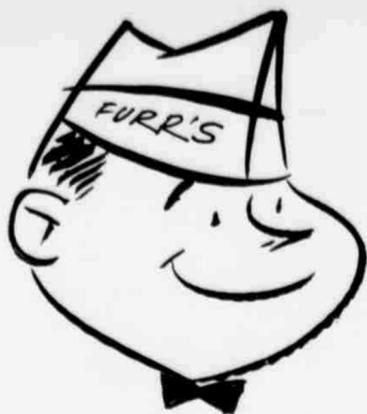

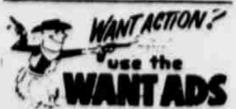

Tetanus lurks in the soil. If your immunizations are not up-to-date, see your doctor about a booster shot of tetanus toxoid at the beginning of the gardening season.

Stop and think about safety -- before handling garden tools, especially power equipment such as lawn mowers. Always turn off the mower when you leave it, even if it is only for a few seconds. Always turn off the mower, saw or whatever when you add gasoline to the tank.

Never use electric equipment in wet or damp grass. And always read the safety instructions that usually accompany power tools.

Pesticides can be a gardener's best friend if he uses them wisely, but careless use and storage of pesticides can cause serious accidents. Always read the instructions on the package carefully and obey their safety warnings. Pesticides are safe, if properly used and kept away from children.

Don't let carelessness rob you of the enjoyment gardening can bring you this spring.

65' Insurance Deadline April 30

H. Lewis Rietz, president of the Texas 65 Health Insurance Association reminded senior citizens today that the deadline for enrolling in Texas 65 during the current enrollment period is midnight April 30.

Texas 65 is open to any resident of the state over the age of 65, without the necessity of a physical examination and regardless of past health condition.

Husbands and wives of those over 65 who purchase the voluntary insurance may also qualify for Texas 65 though they may not have attained the age of 65.

Coverage may also be purchased by sons and daughters in behalf of their parents and relatives without the necessity of the insured signing the application form.

"Even if a form of Medicare does become available," Rietz said, "we are told it will be July of 1966 before our senior citizens could be covered under it. Considering the fact that the average age of the Texas 65 enrollees is 73 we feel that our senior citizens want and need the protection of health insurance now, and certainly their sons and daughters desire the peace of mind that comes with knowing their parents have health insurance coverage. Thus, we are making Texas 65 available again," he concluded.

Over 20,000 Texas 65 enrollees have received medical payments totaling well over $4 million since the program went into effect in November of 1963.

Three plans of health coverage are available under the Texas 65 program. The basic plan pays a maximum of $12 per day for a hospital room up to 31 days, part of the costs of doctor's hospital visits, surgical fees up to $200 and miscellaneous charges up to $125. Monthly payment for the basic plan is $9.

The major medical plan costs $10 per month and covers hospital expenses up to $5,000 during any calendar year, or about 80 per cent of all hospital, surgical and nursing home expenses after the first $75. This plan is designed for those who have some basic coverage, such as the basic Texas 65 plan who are financially unable to pay the costs of basic coverage. The third plan is a major medical plan and costs $12 per month.

The basic or major medical plan may be purchased totally or in combination with the other two plans.

Texas 65 will be available until midnight April 30. Insurance agent licenses for health insurance in Texas

Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Coupe—one of two bucket-seated beauties for '65.

People who buy other big expensive-looking cars get one thing you won't (big expensive-looking payments)

It looks like a big car. And is—by almost any standard you want to apply. Width? Nobody builds a car as much as one inch wider. Length? It grew three inches this year. Roominess? Every closed model's got three inches more shoulder room, front and rear, and more leg and foot room up front too. Luxury? Nice little touches like the look of mellow walnut across the Impala's instrument panel. And big touches. Like the fineness of the same Body by Fisher workmanship that makes some of America's most expensive cars look so expensive. How about the ride? Chevrolet engineers took the Jet-smooth one and smoothed it out even more this year. Also made it more stable by widening the wheel stance. Custom features? You can personalize your Chevrolet all you want because there are nearly 200 custom features to choose from. Price? That's where Chevrolets fall way short of the other big expensive-looking cars. But we wouldn't have it any other way. Would you? One last question: How soon can you make a good spring buy on a Chevrolet? One last answer: Just as soon as you can get down to your Chevrolet dealer's.

Questions & Answers

Q -- I mailed my return in just under the deadline. How long will it take to get my refund?

A -- You should receive it by the end of June if your return is complete and accurate, and is not selected for audit prior to the allowance of the refund. This is several weeks longer than it takes to process refunds when returns are filed early in the filing season.

The reason for the delay is the sheer volume of returns we received at the same time. The final week of the filing season produced more returns than any other in the year.

Q -- In the rush to get my return in the mail, I forgot to enclose my W-2 forms. What should I do, bring them into your office?

A -- No, please hold them until we contact you. You will be asked to supply these forms and any other information needed for processing your return.

Q -- I forgot all about my casualty loss deduction when I filed my return. Is it too late to claim it for 1964?

A -- No, you may still claim whatever deduction you are entitled to for 1964. Take another copy of Form 1040 for 1964 and mark it "amended" at the top. Then fill it in showing all the information required as well as the deduction you forgot on your other return. File the amended return as soon as possible. In computing any refund due to you, take into account any refund on your first return.

Saturday Will Dramatized Loyalty

Loyalty Day, Saturday, May 1, is to be co-sponsored in Littlefield by John Henry Chapman, Post 4854, Veterans of Foreign Wars in cooperation with other organizations. Loyalty Day is intended to dramatize citizens' fervent rededication to the patriotic defense of American freedom ideals.

Ed Trimmer, Commander of Post 4854, explained today the significance of Loyalty Day as he and his staff members formulated plans for citywide observance of the special day. Loyalty Day has been given official recognition by the United States Congress and President and it has been lauded by state governors and hundreds of mayors across the nation.

"The Veterans of Foreign Wars created Loyalty Day to counteract Communist demonstrations against our American way of life," Trimmer declared. "The Reds were using May Day for special celebration of their revolutionary drive against all freedom principles. It was their number one day on which to shout hatred for our ideals -- and to wave their hammer and sickle flag under our noses."

"The 1,300,000 V.F.W. combat veterans became fed up with those un-American demonstrations. Then the veterans said 'Let's get these strange characters off the street. Let's run up our own Stars and Stripes flag and substitute our own demonstration of Loyalty for Americanism.'"

"That is what the war veterans did. They staged their own parades, with the Stars and Stripes flag flying briskly. They reaffirmed pride of citizenship. They proclaimed loudly their undivided loyalties to the United States -- and their willingness to defend our liberties."

"The public responded enthusiastically all along the line. The people liked the Veterans' frontal attack. They had been looking for a vigorous patriotic cause so they welcomed an opportunity to put some real action into their deep-felt convictions for God and country. That was the beginning of Loyalty Day -- and that is the reason for it today."

Trimmer said that the Loyalty Day program has developed wide public participation in special parades, flag ceremonies, essay contests and patriotic speeches. He added that citizens in all walks of life are and educators, politicians, ministers and inspired unattached individuals.

"All this emphasis upon American ideals is wholesome and popular," Commander Trimmer continued. "In Littlefield the Veterans of Foreign Wars is being joined by many other groups to make the Loyalty Day celebration a vigorous, positive patriotic occasion."

Using a stored feeding program -- feeding livestock from storage the year around -- reduces acreage and labor requirements, according to a report by farm management specialists in New Holland's Grassland News.
