

Schemers Are Marching On Littlefield

The schemers are marching on Littlefield! Some have already passed through, obtaining what they were able to garner in their brief sojourn. Perhaps there are others among us as this statement of facts is being written. In other words, it is a season on Littlefield. Please as long as you are here, smile. The schemers are marching on Littlefield with a great zeal to be of service to the citizens of Littlefield, some of the schemers even have the nerve to advise us that without them Littlefield will go straight to the bow wows. Strange, isn't it, that Littlefield manages to struggle along most of the time without the important assistance of these very bright men and women? We haven't heard of any of them trying to maintain our city and county by the paying of taxes. The schools are a little short of funds. How about a check, boys? You per-brain men wouldn't miss the money. Of course, the visits of the opportunists is not peculiar to this fall and winter; they have been coming here for a number of years. But, we are glad to relate, the climate is becoming increasingly chilly hereabouts for the opportunists; in fact, the freeze is so great this year that the crop for the opportunists is almost a total failure. That's something we got the "repression" to thank for. EMPLOY MANY METHODS The ways and means the opportunists use to make easy money are as numerous as the men and women who foster them. Of course, there are a few popular stunts—and you can depend on it that the business concerns of the city are not overlooked. The merchants, especially, are pestered; some of the opportunists work all kinds of schemes to play one merchant against another; in other words, make it appear that if the particular merchant being approached on the subject doesn't get right in there and pitch that the volume of his business will be seriously impaired. The facts in the matter are that only the schemer's business will be impaired. That would be too bad? ? ? Of course, all opportunists do not confine themselves to the business concerns. You know, folks, there are all kinds of opportunists. Many of them work among the

LOST, A DOG

The little son of M. L. Walraven, living on Route 2, Littlefield, has lost his dog. He came into the Leader of the Wednesday to insert an ad in the "Lost" column, and amid his tears explained that the dog was a black collie with a brown on him, and offering reward for the return of his pet. Now folks, let us all help this little man find his "chum," and if you see a dog answering the above description, either let the owner know, or get in touch with the owner.

Arnold Vereen, food dispenser at Club Cafe, balanced 40 dishes, more or less on one arm and started down that well worn path toward the Club's kitchen. He passed in front of the stool which was occupied by M. B. D., meanwhile swinging the dishes in graceful and down motion just like a ball on the pavement. How those food dispensers can play around with an armful of dishes is something we have never been able to understand. We have just about concluded that as soon as the "repression" is over and we don't owe Club Cafe any money for sink and coffee, that we will have friend Arnold instruct us in how to handle dishes gracefully and

You know folks, Arnold is a kind of ours; he once took our check for a meal before he knew anything about us. We didn't know we looked that honest. You would realize that Arnold's act was an expression of confidence. We don't think you should try to get on Arnold now; you see the "repression" is with us. But here's probably the reason Arnold took our check: He had checked cows for a long time becoming a food dispenser and had lined no little amount of experience in picking out good critters. Most men who are judges of horses and dogs also know how to handle the applause for a job well done. Here's personal mention to the editor to overlook the

BANKS OF LAMB COUNTY TO EACH TAKE 100 BALES OF COTTON FROM MARKET

Co-operating with the cotton holding plan of the Federal Farm Board and the banks of the South, all Lamb county banks will each take 100 bales off the market. If economic conditions improve, additional cotton will be taken from the market by the bankers of this county. Under the plan, the cotton will be held by the bankers until prices rise appreciably or until July 31, 1932.

Littlefield Cats to Play Spring Lake

Those fighting Wildcats of Littlefield High School lost a hard fight to the Slaton Tigers last Friday on the local gridiron. The Cats fought the Tigers on fairly even terms during the first half, allowing them only one touchdown but the superior weight and experience of the visitors wore down the resistance of the local team and allowed them two more touchdowns during the last half. Slaton is a Class A school and the game has no bearing on the percentage of the Wildcats in the District race.

The most important game on Littlefield High School's football schedule for the 1931 season in Sub-district No. will be played Friday at Spring Lake at 3:00. It will be remembered that Littlefield went down before the furious passing attack of the Spring Lake squad in the first game between the two teams last year and in the second game was barely able to eke out a 27 to 24 victory. Coach Tucker's squad is going into the game fully prepared for the hardest game of the season and the opinion of the Phelps Avenue "Coaches" is not at all unanimous in predicting a Littlefield victory. There will probably be at least 100 loyal fans who will accompany the team to Spring Lake. The proper sideline backing will spell a victory for the Cats Friday.

Littlefield Is Becoming Large Concentration Point For Cotton; Receipts Gain

Littlefield is fast becoming the central cotton concentration point of the territory west of Lubbock. This season cotton is coming to Littlefield for compression and shipment from points as far west as Portales, New Mexico, and as far north as Bovina, Friona, Earth, Flag, Pumpkin Center, and Olton. The Littlefield Compress is working long hours into the night to handle the heavy receipts. Cotton is coming into Littlefield at a rate in excess of 1,000 bales per day, and moving out compressed at the same rate. It is estimated that the local compress will handle 75,000 bales of cotton this season. Littlefield gins also are working far into the night.

Mr. Doss has announced that there will be plenty of good music and plenty of seating capacity. There was a large attendance at last Thursday night's match, which was between Chief Stine and Bomar Moore. The decision went to Moore.

LITTLEFIELD DAIRIES ARE GIVEN GRADE 'A' AFTER INSPECTION

H. E. Hargis, district sanitary engineer of the state department of health, Dr. J. R. Coen, city health officer, and W. P. McDaniel, city marshal and city sanitary inspector, have just completed a survey of the dairies serving milk in Littlefield. This inspection was the first official inspection made of the dairies, and was for the purpose of giving grades to dairies under the Standard Milk ordinance passed by the city commission on July 7, 1931. The grades are based on the sanitary conditions of the dairies, including a concrete floor to milk on, a barn that is painted and kept clean, a milk house with a concrete floor and screened to prevent the entrance of flies, a protected sanitary water supply, and a fly proof toilet. All the cows in the dairy must be T. B. tested, and the operators of the dairies must have a certificate showing they are free from disease. The milk must be cooled to at least 50 degrees to prevent the forming of dangerous bacterial organisms. After complying with these items of sanitation, the dairies must have a test made of their milk to see that it is clean, and this test on four samples has to average less than 50,000 bacteria per cubic centimeter. The following dairies have been given Grade "A": E. C. Cundiff, G. C. Vaught, N. V. Wright, and O. L. Cantwell.

Littlefield Chamber of Commerce Acts: Committee to be Named

Action was taken at a luncheon meeting of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, whereby it is hoped to obtain increased representation in congress for West Texas. One of the chief steps to be taken at this time will be the interesting of the press of Texas in the fact that West Texas is entitled to greater representation. The Texas legislature failed to pass the congressional re-districting bill, but three congressmen at large will be elected next year, and it is hoped that one of these men will be a West Texan. The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, as indicated by talks made at Tuesday's luncheon, believes that Governor Sterling should call an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of passing the re-districting bill, but in the event that this is not possible, the organization is of the opinion

Leader Leads In Giving News; Among First Newspapers To Announce Freight Rate Cut

The Lamb County Leader takes pardonable pride in the fact that this newspaper exerts a special effort to give the people of Lamb county the news while it is news. The Leader's latest achievement was the announcing of the new freight rate on cotton to gulf ports, many hours before it was published in many daily newspapers. This was accomplished last Thursday. Copies of the Leader for Littlefield subscribers were already in the post office, and the copies for the routes and various cities and towns to which the Leader is sent were about to be run off the press when Clay Pumphrey, Littlefield Santa Fe agent, informed this newspaper that he had just received a wire announcing the rate for the Littlefield section. When last minute news is to be what is known as "make over." This was accomplished in a few minutes, with the result that all copies of the Leader for the routes and the many cities and towns to which the Leader is sent, carried the news of the reduction in freight rates on cotton to gulf ports.

IT'S THE SPIRIT THAT COUNTS

After all is said and done, there's only one thing that is responsible for the growth or decline of any community.

That is the spirit of the people. If the people are discouraged, blue, disheartened, pessimistic, growling, snarling, kicking, complaining, whining and weeping, the community is on the toboggan and sliding backward.

If the people can smile through their tears, show their spunk, keep pegging away, keep cheerful, live within their means, appreciate one another, consider the future, have hope for better times, determine to "see it through" at any cost, that town is on the upgrade, and will get somewhere.

Two men looked at a worn-out farm. One man turned away, said it was hopeless. The other man said he'd try it. He bought it for a song, and everybody called him a fool. He smiled, and began studying soil culture. He read everything he could find on soil building. He came to be known as an expert on soils. He put his theories into practice, building back into the farm the fertility that had been taken from it. The result, now he has a farm that is the envy of the community.

What wrought the change. It was the spirit of the man. It was his determination that turned the trick.

Emerson said: "What a new face courage puts on everything. A determined man, by his very attitude and the tone of his voice, puts a stop to defeat and begins to conquer."

It's the spirit that counts.

A NORTHEAST HIGHWAY

There has been considerable discussion relative to the necessity and advisability of a satisfactory highway, connecting Littlefield, Hale Center and Plainview and the country to the northeast. This matter appears to be of sufficient importance to the Littlefield section to be worthy of special study at this time with a view to taking some action. All towns served by such a highway would be very materially benefitted.

The highway is paved from Plainview to five miles beyond Hale Center, but from there on into Littlefield it is a dirt road with turn after turn that is confusing to the driver who is not familiar with the route.

Experience is a great teacher. The editor of this newspaper had occasion to visit Plainview late Saturday, and decided to make the return trip by way of Hale Center. When we started asking questions about the route to take after leaving the pavement, a resident of Hale Center commenced shaking his head and feeling very sorry for us, if we were determined to make the trip without knowing the route, and especially after dark. He told us that if we made one wrong turn we would find ourselves in the sand hills, stuck in the sand without a ghost of a chance of doing anything else but remaining there all night.

We turned the car and took a short route to the Plainview-Olton pavement, reaching the pavement a few miles west of Plainview.

Such a condition should not exist. There should be a good highway between Littlefield and Hale Center.

The Plainview Herald reports that bids as high as 50.5 cents per bushel for No. 1 wheat have been received by farmers of that territory. Did we heary somebody say that financial conditions are not improving?

EIGHT YEARS AGO IN LITTLEFIELD

(Exerpts from Littlefield Leader)

Rev. J. W. Saffle of Plainview will be here Sunday and preach at the Baptist Church both morning and evening.

Messrs. B. L. Dublin, Pat Dunn, S. A. Ramsay and C. W. Ramsay, all of Eastland county, have shipped in three carloads of lumber, which will be used in erecting four cottages on their four tracts of land southeast of town, recently purchased of the Littlefield company.

Progress is the order of the day, and change marks the footsteps of every advancement. With this issue of the Leader its name is changed from Littlefield Leader to "Lamb County Leader".

Four months ago, when this newspaper was established, the county was only beginning its real development. Since then the advancement has become phenomenal. Hundreds of new settlers have come in to establish their home, and hundreds more, having purchased lands or lots, will be moving in during the coming months. Littlefield is more than double what it was a few months ago, both in population and business.

Monte Bowron of Lorenzo last week installed a new Delco lighting plant in the Littlefield hotel.

Monday morning Mrs. Casper Yeasel, mistook a bottle of carbolic acid for face cream, and was severely burned about the face and neck.

J. B. Porter and J. A. Parker of Eastland county are here making improvements on land recently purchased of the Yellow House Land company.

H. E. Pharies of Falls county last week purchased the Van Winkle place of 95 acres, four miles north of town, the transaction being made through the Littlefield company. Mr. Pharies expects to make this his future home.

L. A. Shook of Anson has purchased two 5 acre blocks of land adjoining the townsite on the west. He will move here shortly.

Leonard Wright returned from Slaton Saturday, and will accept a position with the local station as assistant agent for the Santa Fe system in Littlefield.

J. J. Welf, formerly employed at the local depot, has accepted a position as utility clerk in the dispatcher's office of the Santa Fe at Slaton. He left last Friday.

J. C. Whicker returned Saturday from Terrell, where he went to sell 354 acres of fine land lying about four miles southeast of Littlefield. J. L. Dow was the purchaser, and he expects to move out here within the next thirty days, establishing his residence on the land, erecting a nice home and making other permanent improvements.

PSYCHOLOGICAL AND MONETARY BENEFIT TO RESULT FROM GOVERNMENT TAKING COTTON AS COLLATERAL FOR LOANS

"Miracle Woman", Emotional Drama, To Be Shown Here

In the hands of an actress with the temperamental quality and histrionic genius of Barbara Stanwyck, the title role of "The Miracle Woman" becomes a flaming portrait of a woman's soul tormented by love. It is a magnificent interpretation in a story that has been brought into vivid, vital life by the clever direction of Frank Capra.

"The Miracle Woman", which will be shown at the Palace theater Saturday midnight matinee, Sunday and Monday, this picture provides emotional stimulation. It is sheer drama, taking a sensitive young girl, smarting from an injustice, and letting her fall into the hands of a trickster who sees big money in her oratorical powers—capitalizes her faith and purity.

The louder her exhortations the deeper the conviction grows in her soul that she is a hopeless sinner—and then comes a blind boy who falls in love with the beauty that he senses in her. How his love for her—his belief in her power—leads to a showdown with her manager and her open confession that she is a sham makes "The Miracle Woman" startling drama, and provides a spectacular fire climax. It is an adaptation of a stage play by John Meehan and Robert Riskin, splendidly acted by Miss Stanwyck, David Manners, Sam Hardy, Beryl Mercer and others. It was produced by Columbia Pictures.

A State Charter has been granted to the Sudan Grass Seed Growers Co-operative Association of West Texas and New Mexico. The delegates of the Organization Committee, Duggan and Manglesdorf, also conferred with officials of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, Houston, Texas, with the object of securing financial assistance in marketing the present crop of sudan grass seed. The Secretary and Chairman of the organization committee of the Sudan Grass Seed Growers Co-operative Association, reported the results of the conference as being "Highly encouraging and hopeful of definite results." The Federal Bank officials have promised to render a definite decision within thirty days regarding the extension of financial aid to the association.

action as a valuable addition to the co-ordinated program of other agencies to stabilize cotton prices. By releasing some of the farmer's cotton to be sold for the payment of other obligations or for use to meet living expenses, the move will have a tonic effect upon business generally, they predicted.

With a slight rise in the price of cotton at announcement of the plan, immediate additional advances were forecast. The benefit from the new arrangement was regarded as psychological as well as momentary. Combined with the plan of Southern bankers and the Federal Farm Board to withhold 7,000,000 bales from the market, it was believed the benefit from the new plan will be substantial.

Census Report Shows Small Percentage of Illiterate in County

Only 1.3 per cent of the inhabitants of Lamb county over the age of ten years can neither read nor write, according to figures recently released by the bureau of the census.

The 1930 census, on which this percentage is based, gives Lamb county a population of 17,452. A total of 13,182 are over 10 years of age and only 167 are illiterates.

The percentage is greatly increased by the negro population in the county. The report shows that the white population over 10 years of age in the county is 12,452, with 70 illiterates. The negro population in the county above 10 years of age is reported at 275, with 37 illiterates.

HOBO PARTY GIVEN BY YOUNG PEOPLE IS GREAT SUCCESS

The hobo party given Friday night by the young people of the First Baptist church was a howling success, figuratively and literally, for we were a decorous crowd of happy "tramps" and though all of us had "seen better days," we were still full of pep and enthusiasm, and ready for all the wholesome fun in store for us. As we were a hungry bunch, that which refreshes the inner man was our first consideration. A large iron kettle surmounted a roaring camp fire, and around the cheerful blaze about forty young hoboes were gathered, watching the concoction of a mysterious viand. (We cannot remember the name, but the flavor would have tempted even a yellow robed fanatic of India), and that hot chocolate—we have always stoutly maintained that we did not like that beverage. Now we "take it back", we do—when Mrs. Mack brews it over the coals of a crackling camp fire. While we consumed the appetizing hand-outs in true hobo style, we sang, joked and told stories until dull care banished and depression for us was only a myth.

Next came the contest for "lie-counter's" crown. Joe Mabry was proclaimed the unrivaled King of the "devotees of leisure," but there was a diversity of opinion as to which of the many deserving claimants should be crowned queen. This supreme honor was finally conferred on Miss Georgia Lucas.
Many of the costumes were ludicrous enough to provoke a wooden Indian to mirth; and the older folks who had gathered at the church to see the parade start laughed with as much gusto as a crowd of children just released from school.

The marching song led by Misses Olga Henson and Prudence Courtney was "Hallelujah, I'm a Bum," which was indeed appropriate for the occasion. Miss Lillian Hopping, a hobo from Lubbock, aided by Tramp Fern Hoover, beguiled the company with a strumming guitar, and many crooning hobo songs.

Our young people enjoy these social hours, but they are of minor importance compared to the great interest they are evincing in their Sunday school and church work. If you are not working somewhere else come and join us. You will be cordially welcome.

Miss Irene Meador, Popular Bride-Elect, Showered With Beautiful and Useful Gifts

One of the loveliest social functions of the season was given Friday evening, October 23, at the Cogdill home on East 8th St., when Mesdames B. L. Cogdill, W. C. Thaxton, G. S. Glenn and J. T. Elms were hostesses at a shower, complimenting Miss Irene Meador, bride-elect of Rev. Marvin Boyd.

After the guests had assembled in the entertaining rooms, Mrs. Cogdill called their attention to a letter which had just been received from the "Missionary and Gossip Society, Punkinville, Texas," which told of a "Missionary Barrel" they had sent to the bride-elect, thinking that she might come to them as their new pastor's wife. The "missionary barrel," which was decorated in pink and silver, was brought in, and the honoree was asked to unpack it. Much merriment was afforded the guests when the contents of the barrel revealed a mock trousseau complete, even though someone's window must have been deobed to furnish the veil. Miss Meador was requested to dress herself in her newly received clothes, which she did, only to find herself the bride in the cleverly planned and amusingly performed wedding of "Rosebud Delicatessen" and "Archibald, Hercules Headlight." To the straining of "The Fight is on," the following wedding party entered:

The bride—Irene Meador.
The Groom—Mrs. Maud Neyland.
The minister—Ruth Courtney.
Best Man—Glady's Porter.
Maid of Honor—Eva Gertrude Chisholm.
Flower Girls—Dahlia Hemphill, Floeta Eagan.
Ring Bearer—Addie Mae Hemphill.
Bride's Father—Mrs. Clarence Grow.
Bride's Mother—Mrs. W. H. Gardner.

Groom's Mother—Mrs. T. S. Sales.
The "happy" couple departed from the scene to the strains of the wedding march. When the "bride and groom" returned, they found the same "missionary barrel" filled with many lovely gifts.
After the gifts were opened and displayed, the guests were invited into the dining room, where Mrs. J. T. Elms presided, serving fruit punch, delicious pink cake and toasted nuts in miniature pink and silver "Missionary Barrels."
The following guests enjoyed the evening with the honoree and hostesses: Mesdames F. E. Beard, J. E. Chisholm, W. H. Walker, J. J. Eagan, A. G. Hemphill, M. P. Reid, B. M. Harrison, T. Wade Potter, D. G.

VIEW HOME DEMONSTRATION WORK IN RECENT TOUR OF LAMB COUNTY

BY RUBY MASHBURN
 Lamb County Home Demonstration Agent

On Tuesday, September 29, at 9 a. m., a group of club women, county officers and other, left the home demonstration office to see some of the outstanding things done by home demonstration club women in Lamb county.

Our first stop was with Mrs. Charlie Harmon at Amherst. She had ready for our inspection a 4-H pantry with 36 varieties of canned and preserved fruits, vegetable, and meats. There were ten varieties of cured beans and peas, some of which are new in Texas, having been brought here from other states. Mrs. Harmon also has a good fall garden.

Mrs. A. Clark of the Ruby Club was happy to show us her improved living room. One of the outstanding things that Mrs. Clark did was to re-finish 7 pieces of furniture. Mrs. Clark and her family had pleasant surprises in a desk and table. After removing several coats of paint and varnish it was found that both were of solid wood and had a lovely grain that finished beautiful in the natural state.

A hot bed built by August Clark was shown us here. Mrs. Clark explained that this same bed was used last year and furnished three servings a week of lettuce, turnip greens, and spinach for her family. In the early spring the hot bed was used to grow tomato, cabbage and pepper plants for the spring garden. Mrs. Clark not only had enough plants for her own use but furnished many of her neighbors plants for their gardens. The spectators also learned that they could cut down on their canning budget by having a winter garden in a hot bed.

Mrs. V. B. Pierce of Lum's Chapel had improved her entire house and gladly explained each thing done as: closets built in each bed room, kitchen cabinet built, cracks filled and floors painted, walls were papered and wood work refinished, one window added to living room. This work was all done by Mrs. Pierce and her family with the exception of one room that was papered in a demonstration. Her own story of this work will appear elsewhere.

Mrs. M. L. Walraven of Lum's Chapel has an ideal chicken house that accommodates 150 hens. The house is well ventilated, easily cleaned, and furnished plenty of light. Mrs. Walraven has made an unusually good record on both her chickens and turkeys this year.

Mrs. Millard Phillips of Fieldton improved her already pretty living room, she explained, by refinishing her floors and rearranging the furniture and lining the draperies. Mrs. Phillip's 4-H pantry contains 750 quarts of vegetables, fruits, etc. Home canned peanut butter was first seen on these shelves. In the cured products we found peanuts, pepper, pop corn and wheat.

Mrs. J. L. Adams of Fieldton showed the group over a flower yard and garden that had been beautiful from early spring. Mrs. Adams had many plants well arranged for screening and foundation plantings. A number of shade trees have been put out and will soon furnish ample shade as well as a lovely background and frame for the house. In the front yard there is an East Texas Red Bud that will be one of the first things to bloom next spring.

Mrs. L. V. Fent of the Sand Hill club has a 4-H pantry containing 36 varieties of fruits, meats and vegetables prepared in 70 different ways for the table. She has ten varieties of cured beans and peas stored for winter use. In addition to these there are plenty of pumpkins and kershaws.

Mrs. Fent's fall garden contains an ample supply of the following: mustard, turnips, swiss chard, English peas, parsnips, carrots, salsify and onions.

Mrs. R. A. Applewhite of the Circle club shared not only the hospitality of her pretty, enlarged, and improved living room with the guests present, but the bountiful goodness of her culinary arts as well. She gladly explained how she had moved a porch, changed all windows and doors in the room, moved a partition, scraped and refinished the floor, papered the walls, and also made a table for her little daughter, music stand and magazine rack, and a combination book case and writing desk.

After this Mrs. Applewhite and her sister, Mrs. McCarty, served cake and cream to a group who thoroughly enjoyed it and felt much refreshed and rested afterward.

Mrs. N. G. Bairrett of the Center club explained how she had fed and cared for her flock of poultry and made enough from the flock to pay the grocery bill since last December. Mrs. Bairrett's living room was also viewed with pleasure by the group.

Mrs. H. M. Packard of Springlake had a large, thrifty flock of pure bred turkeys to show. She carefully told how she set 230 eggs, of which 206 hatched and 200 are still living. Mrs. Packard explained to all present how she fed and cared for her flock and to what she attributed her success.

Mrs. A. C. Barton of Spring Lake has a flock of White Leghorn hens that have made a good profit each month since last November. The profit has been from $4.50 to $29.00 per month.

Mrs. H. K. Irwin of the Sod House club has made an enviable record from her garden this year. We learned with interest that from 16 varieties of vegetables she had gathered 2142 pounds, all of this from two small gardens. These fresh vegetables were used at home or sold at market prices to local merchants, hotels, and cafe. The cash value so far is $150.00.

Mrs. Irwin has canned from this garden a supply that is adequate in every respect for a family of five. That is very conveniently arranged on shelves for an excellent 4-H pantry.

Miss V. O. White of the Sod House club has a 4-H pantry that fairly glistened with good things to eat, many of which may be served on a few minutes notice. There are 1097 containers of a variety of fruits, vegetables, and meats. The variety here included Indian relish, crystallized fruits, fruit juices, and soup mixtures. The pantry also included its share of the cured beans, peas, pumpkins, kershaws, potatoes, etc.

Mrs. M. M. White of Sod House club happily told of her living room which was improved more than a year ago. The room is just as pretty today as it was the day it was finished. Mrs. White says that the room and furniture are easily kept and is a source of satisfaction and pleasure to each member of the family.

Mrs. V. E. Russ of Friendship had ready for the group her poultry record from November to the present time. She showed by accurate record how she had made a nice profit each month from her White Leghorn hens by producing infertile eggs.

Mrs. H. C. Dennington of Friendship had a cozy little house with all of the essentials of a livable living room and explained how she did this with a very little expense and quite a bit of planning and work.

Mrs. Dennington's 4-H Pantry contains plenty of food for her family for six months. On this pantry she has an emergency shelf that contains well balanced meals ready to serve almost instantly. In addition to this she has canned corn on the cob and cake filling.

Mrs. H. L. Byrd of Friendship has an ideal 4-H pantry and as you viewed these rows and rows of canned goods you wondered how such a small woman could grow, can and preserve the splendid variety of fruits, vegetables, etc., to make such a large pantry.

Mrs. J. H. Bradley of the Blue Bonnet club has a 4-H pantry that will make most any one sit up and take notice. It is very attractively prepared and arranged and contains all of the canned and stored foods to furnish an adequate diet for her family.

SOUTHWEST NEWS

By Lucille Scheuer, Correspondent.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Troy Gay, a baby girl, Billy Joe, recently. The mother and babe are getting along nicely.

Miss Lilly Mae Montgomery attended the wedding Tuesday morning of Miss Rose Scheuer.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Kopp and son Max Joe, Mrs. William H. Brininstool and son Walter of Carlsbad, New Mexico, who attended the wedding of Rose Scheuer, left Thursday morning for their homes.

On Saturday night, October 17, the friends of Miss Rose L. Scheuer gathered at the home to give her a shower. Each brought her a beautiful and useful present.

Mrs. Max Touchon gave a very appropriate reading, after which presents were opened by the bride and groom to be. Rose and Brooks thanked all for their remembrances. Afterwards refreshments were served to the crowd. Everyone left for their homes wishing Rose and Brooks a happy and long life together.

to Mesdames Harold Welch, Harry Bennett, and O. G. Wagner. At the close of the games lovely refreshments were served to those present.

Saturday afternoon Rogers Willett celebrated his ninth birthday with a party. An enjoyable time was had by all, and the little host received many nice gifts.

SUDAN

A 44,000 bushel grainary is being built by Mr. P. E. Boesen on his farm adjoining town on the west.

D. L. Brown, Santa Fe station agent, reports a reduction in cotton freight rates to Houston, Galveston and Texas City from $1.00 to 78c, effective at once.

Shipments this season are estimated at 20,000 bales of cotton and 2000 cars of grain, which if estimated correctly, will be the largest in the history of Sudan.

Mrs. L. T. Hunt entertained a number of girls at her home Tuesday afternoon of last week, honoring her daughter, Margaret, on her eleventh birthday.

Several indoor games were enjoyed, after which refreshments of cookies and hot chocolate were served to the large number of guests.

MULESHOE

At a meeting of the Muleshoe City Commissioners held Monday night it was unanimously voted that the tax rate for the city should be reduced from $1.00 to 85 cents on the $100 valuation.

A feeder and rancher meeting was held in the County Agent's office at Muleshoe at 1:30 Saturday to discuss cattle feeding. An arrangement whereby feeders may deal directly with ranchers for cattle, and work out a satisfactory plan for feeding, was fully discussed.

The local agent of the Santa Fe was advised Thursday of last week that the freight rate on cotton shipments from Muleshoe to Houston, Galveston, and other gulf ports, had been reduced to 84 cents, effective at once.

PEP PARAGRAPHS

The hail and rain of Tuesday did considerable damage in the community in places, beating out in the neighborhood of one third of the open cotton, which was yielding from 1-2 to 3-4 of a bale per acre. Uncle Joe and Chas. Burt were caught in the hail some three and a half miles west of Littlefield, and as a result have some 70 holes in the top of their car.

Quite a number of good farmers of other sections of the state and from Oklahoma have come to Pep in search for rent places. Some of them have had an eye on Pep for some time, and are very much disappointed when they find that there are no places here for rent with large enough houses to accommodate a good size family (excepting a few which have permanent renters). There are still hundreds of acres of 100 per cent tillable soil in grass. We would like to see the owners investigate then perhaps they would improve these fine farms.

Mr. M. A. Burt boasts of being the first cotton buyer to pay 6c per pound for a bale of cotton in Pep this season, it being of the long staple variety.

Mr. Dalmont of Littlefield spent Tuesday night with G. C. Keith.

Messrs. J. O. Allison and J. U. Biggers drove to Lubbock Friday night urday the Pep gin ginned 40 bales of cotton.

Mr. J. E. Stengel and daughter Blanche, took Mrs. Stengel's brother, Mr. Albert Frerich, home to Wilson Saturday. Albert had spent several days here. Mr. Stengel also attended to business in Lubbock.

Friday Mr. Cread Rhea of the Rhea Hardware So., of Levelland came over to get a belt for the Pep gin. Saturday the local Taxidermist, and arranged to take the leopard and some mounted birds to use in decorating his gun and ammunition window.

The Catholic church will hold services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. They extend a cordial invitation to everyone to attend and most specially to the non-members of this church.

The Church of Christ will hold services at 3 o'clock Sunday evening and about 8 Sunday night. They extend a cordial welcome to all.

598 yearlings are now on feed in the Pep community and all will be within a mile of Pep. Mr. C. C. Hughes is feeding 20 0heifers. The balance are steers, of which Mr. G. C. Keith is feeding 88 hen, L. H. and J. F. Albus 100 head and J. F. Gerik, J. E. Stengel and M. J. Demel 110 head. Most of them are now on a grain and cottonseed feed and grazing on feed lands.

Mr. Eugene Nichols of Munday, Texas, was in Pep Sunday evening shaking hands with his friends.

The Pep school will continue closed for another two weeks that the children may aid in picking the cotton.

Miss Elizabeth and Gene Lupton, both teachers in the Pep School, and who are spending the cotton picking vacation with their parents at Shal-lowater were in Pep Sunday evening.

ANTON

The three gins at Anton up until Thursday of last week had ginned 2100 bales of cotton. Some estimates of the crop place the possible ginning figures at from 10,000 to 12,000 bales for the Anton three gins.

Wednesday night of last week while prayer meeting was being held at the Baptist Church here members of the slick fingered gentry stole the battery off W. E. Harper's truck. Reports also are to the effect that another party lost a coat, and two others a sweater and articles out of a grip.

ent sections of the state; say—one candidate who resides within the bounds of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce; another who lives within the territory of the South Texas Chamber of Commerce, and a third residing in the Area served by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Such a plan would be fair to every section of Texas."

 homes of the city. They go from door to door, in virtually all cases peddling merchandise that the stores of the city offer for sale, and telling wonderful stories about how much more advisable it is to buy from them. They have nothing to offer that cannot be purchased at equal, if not to better advantage from a Littlefield merchant.

KEEP YOUR MONEY AT HOME
 Before buying from peddlers, or buying from out of town concerns, we should all think of the fact that the business concerns of Littlefield are not opportunists; they are with us 365 days in the year; they pay taxes, supporting the city, the county, and the school system of the Littlefield district; they also contribute to all institutions of a civic character. Your child enjoys a good school system because you and the business concerns of Littlefield are paying taxes.
 Does the peddler help to maintain the city and the school system?

He does not.
 Does he build a business building in Littlefield, giving employment to workmen?
 He does not.
 Does he support our churches?
 He does not.
 And so on down the line.
 Every dollar that goes out of Littlefield goes to the bow wows as far as building and maintaining this city is concerned. Every dollar that is spent in Littlefield passes from one individual to another, and is used in the paying of financial obligations, and in the purchasing of the necessities of life, and possibly a few luxuries.
 Does the dollar that is spent at home do you any good?
 Think it over.

URGE PRESS TO ACT—

joion that West Texas should get one of the congressmen at large, who will be elected next year.

Committee to be Named

The matter was brought before the chamber by R. E. McCaskill, and a special committee will be appointed to carry out the suggestions as made by Mr. McCaskill, chiefly that of interesting the press in the fact that West Texas is entitled to greater representation in congress.

A letter to the press of the state has been drafted, and will be forwarded to the newspapers and the chambers of commerce of Texas, in order that the need of this section of the state in the matter of representation in congress may be presented to the voters.

The letter says in part, relative to the election of the three congressmen at large, that the "fair thing is for every section of the state to be represented by these new congressmen. Unless something is done about it, though, it is not at all unlikely that all three may be elected from the same part of the state.

"We are wondering if your good newspaper will assist in doing something about it, by calling the attention of your readers to this matter, advocating that each and every voter next year vote for one congressman at large, who lives in differ-
