Emmanuel Lutheran Church Elects Trustees

Warm weather did not discourage the voters of Emanuel Lutheran Church from assembling at 417 West Third Street last Sunday afternoon for the third quarterly voter's meeting of the congregation. Among the many things which were passed was the resolution of the congregation to stand 100 per cent behind its first Vacation Bible School to be held at Emmanuel Lutheran from August 1st thru August 19th. In order to put more good books within the reach of more of its people, the congregation decided to establish its own library, and asked Miss Mary Helen Hill to serve as librarian for the present. Newly elected trustees include A. O. Lueck of Amherst, Walter Peters and John Stockinger of Littlefield. Of greatest interest to the majority of people in this community was the decision on the part of the voters to pay for the entire broadcast time of the Lutheran Hour, rather than to have these Christ-centered, timely messages discontinued. Previously the broadcast was partially paid for the general office of the Lutheran Hour. The Lutheran Hour will continue to be broadcast over KVOW every Sunday night at 8:30 p.m.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL TO BE HELD

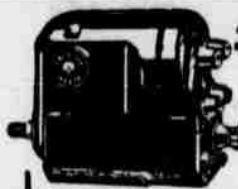

Last Friday night, July 8th, a group of consecrated, willing workers met in Emmanuel Lutheran's school house where the organizational plans for their first Vacation Bible School were laid. Advance information in regard to this school sets its dates from August 1st thru August 19th. The Bible School will meet five days a week, Monday thru Friday mornings, from 8:30 to 11:30 a. m. Emanuel Lutheran is conducting this school for the benefit of any children in the community who may be interested in attending, provided they fall between kindergarten (four years of age) and eighth grade graduates. Bible stories, taught by competent instructors, will receive chief emphasis. Visual aids will be freely used. Handwork projects will help drive home the points of the lessons. For more information about this Vacation Bible school contact Rev. H. A. Heckmann, 421 West Third Street, or call 57-J.

Hear Lutheran Chorus

Last Wednesday night, July 13th, Emmanuel Lutheran's pastor and family, the Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Heckmann and children, had the privilege of hearing the Lutheran Hour Chorus present a program of sacred music at Amarillo's College Music Hall. This group, which ordinarily provides the music for the regular Lutheran Hour broadcasts which originate in St. Louis, has toured the United States, east of the Mississippi during the past six weeks. A part of this talented organization is the brother of the Rev. H. A. Heckmann.

The Veterans Land Bill

By Mrs. L. M. Brandon
Executive Secretary

We received an interpretation this week of the Veterans Land Bill passed recently in Austin and for the benefit of those Veterans interested we will pass it on.

According to the Veterans Affairs Commission, a veteran to be eligible under this act must be honorably discharged and residing in the State of Texas at the time of enlistment or induction and who at present is a legal resident of the state. Also, he must have served between September 16, 1940 and Dec. 31, 1946.

A veteran with a service-connected injury will be given a 90-day priority in purchase of this land.

The maximum is $7500 with 5% down and the remainder at 3% interest over a period of 40 years. The veteran can pay the balance off, however, at any time within the 40 years at no penalty. The exception to the $7500 maximum is provided in an amendment to this bill which states that a veteran may purchase land to a total of $10,000; however he would have to provide the $2500 or difference between $7500 and $10,000 in cash, plus 5% of the $7500, or a total of $2875 in cash. This was done to enable veterans who have some cash to purchase land in excess of $7500.

So far as we know no land has been set aside at this time for purchase by veterans.

For any additional information that the veteran may desire he may communicate directly with the Veterans Land Bank in the Lamo Office Building, Austin, Texas.

At the Red Cross office we will be glad to assist in any way possible in obtaining information or filling out forms. So far as we know there are no forms yet.

BY THE LIGHT OF THE FLASH BOMB . . . This is how Manhattan Island's lower tip looked under the light of a series of 50-million-candlepower flares dropped by the U. S. air force to test its new system of night photography. This picture was taken from Governor's Island. The jagged silhouette of the sentry at the left was caused by different angles of illumination coming from flares which were dropped three seconds apart as the plane went up the river.

City Sprayed With DDT For Third Time In Anti-Polio Drive

In support of the anti-polio campaign, which the Littlefield Jaycees are sponsoring, a house to house campaign for funds with which to finance the drive, got underway by the group Monday. It is the plan of the Jaycees to continue the campaign each afternoon.

A total of $177.00 was secured Monday. All the streets and alleys in Littlefield were given a third spraying of DDT early Tuesday by two fog machines hired by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as a part of the anti-polio drive.

The machines, hired from a local concern, are working in conjunction with the city commission. In the past month the town has been completely sprayed three times.

Alleys are being cleaned up and weeds cut down as part of the campaign. The spraying is to continue all summer until the danger is past.

Governor Jester Dies In Sleep Enroute From Austin To Houston

BEAUFORD H. JESTER

ALLAN SHIVERS

The remains of Gov. Beauford Halbert Jester, 56, were returned to Austin Monday in a flag-draped casket airborne from Houston, where he was discovered dead in a sleeping car berth at 7:30 A. M. Monday. He had died sometime Sunday night on a train between Austin and Houston.

He was Texas' first Governor to die while actively in office. Death came in his sleep while he was on his way to Galveston for a physical checkup and vacation.

Death was attributed to a coronary occlusion, bloodclot.

A silver C-47 National Guard Plane—the Bluebonnet—in which he had flown thousands of miles on state business, bore him back to the capital. Twenty other military planes escorted it.

The body of the lawyer and gentleman farmer of Corsicana rested overnight in the Governor's Mansion. Tuesday it lay in state from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. in the Senate Chamber.

At 2:30 p.m. Dr. Edmund Heinsohn, pastor of the University Methodist Church of Austin, conducted services. Chief Justice J. E. Hickman of the Texas Supreme Court spoke.

The same airplane which brought the Governor's body to Austin then carried it to his home, Corsicana.

There at 11 a.m. Wednesday in the First Methodist Church, of which he was a lifetime member, funeral rites were conducted by Dr. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, pastor. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery.

In the cemetery he was laid to rest in the family plot beside his father, George T. Jester, who was Lieutenant Governor in the 1890's.

The Governor's 88 year old mother, Mrs. Frances Gordon Jester, attended the services.

Allan Shivers, as lieutenant governor, automatically steps to the state's highest executive post on the death of Governor Jester.

Mr. Bell has recently returned to Littlefield, which he has called home for a good many years.

Muleshoe's forfeiture to Amherst Sunday, after winning 5-1, topped reports in Capitol Baseball League. The visitors team easily outscored the home team, but had to forfeit because of an ineligible player.

The Earth-Springlake game scheduled for last Sunday was postponed because of inclement weather. Results of the Sudan, Olton contest at Olton have not been received.

Anton invaded Needmore Sunday afternoon and walked off with a 12-2 victory.

Teams entering the final play-offs are: Anton, Amherst, Muleshoe and Springlake. First games of the wind-up will be played Sunday, July 24.

HANDS MAKE THE GOLFER

Golf, as a game, is as different with every person as his own personality. You can never successfully force your style or form on any pupil. There are, however, a few fundamentals in the game that everyone must observe to play the game well. Just one tenth of a second could stand between you and par.

... this tiny fraction of time can determine whether you shoot par or over 100. The average golf swing takes a fraction less than two seconds from start to finish. The very first motion of the swing, therefore, is of great importance. WATCH YOUR HANDS! It's your hands that start the swing, control it and finish it. Control your hands properly and you'll control your swing correctly. Golf couldn't be simpler than that. Everyone, regardless of build or physical equipment, is best able to control his hands whether for eating, writing, dressing, washing or any other simple daily routine. Because your hands are called into service more, they are easy to control. To finish well, you must start well... so WATCH THOSE HANDS.

School Election

A tentative contract with the firm of Acheson & Atkinson, architects of Lubbock, for consultation and preliminary estimate and drawings. In addition, the advice of outstanding bond men of the state has been sought for the financial aspect.

To Cost $500,000

The maximum cost of $500,000 was established to include the cost of the building, complete equipment and architectural fees and on the basis of such an amount of additional bonds, it is estimated that the annual school tax will be increased one-third.

The bond issue carries, the new high school building will front on First Street with the east front of the building on North Lake Avenue. The plant will occupy the site where the present band hall, school cafeteria and school store now stand. Such a new high school would allow the present high school structure to be converted to Junior High, housing the 7th, 8th and 9th grades, where the new high school would take care of grades 10, 11 and 12.

To Send Taxpayers Second Letter

The school board sometime ago mailed to the taxpayers a letter stating the needs of the school, and in a second letter mailed this week, sets out the cost of same.

In this letter the School Board also stated as follows:

Much Needed

"A new high school building has been a need of long standing of Littlefield, and observant citizens have known for a long time that the Littlefield system had reached its peak, educationally speaking, and was headed for a lower scholastic level if crowded school room conditions were not eliminated, and more adequate facilities and equipment provided.

"All of the planning and work of your school board, architects and bond men has not created a single item of cost to the district unless you, as a patron and a voter, decide that this new building is needed and you feel that the additional increase in taxes is money well spent to guarantee a good education for our children."

Jaycees Repay Portion of Indebtedness

homa, both friends of his, were on the Public Lands Committee, and gave the group from the South Plains a nice reception. He also said that Cong. Mahon and Representative Worley have been very active and influential in helping to get the water project through.

The House Public Lands Committee Monday approved legislation to authorize the $5 million dollar development, and it is now ready for the Appropriations Committee.

The measure contemplates construction of a 27 million dollar dam near Sanford, Tex., and 54 million dollar aqueduct to pipe water to 11 cities in the Panhandle and High Plains area.

The full committee amended the bill approved by a subcommittee.

One change provides that the reimbursable portion of the project cost amounting to approximately 79 million dollars, be repaid at an interest rate, not to exceed 3 1/2 per cent, determined by the Secretary of the Interior. The subcommittee bill simply called for repayment of the funds over a 50-year period, without reference to interest charges.

The full committee also amended the bill to provide that the project cost be set forth in the exact amount of $85,388,000.

Jaycees Urge Residents To Assist Financially in Anti-Polio Drive

As announced by Otha (Skipper) Smith, president of the Littlefield Junior Chamber of Commerce, good progress has been made in the cutting of weeds over the city, but less than $150 has been contributed to the fund for taking care of this anti-polio cleanup drive underway by the Jaycees, and that at least $1000 is needed to complete paying for mowing that has been done, buy DDT, and pay for spraying, and to continue the mowing program.

Mr. Smith stated Monday that residents have been slow about responding to the call for funds, and that the Jaycees were planning a house to house drive for funds. In this plan residents may contribute any amount they wish. Too, if they wish weeds cut, they are asked to notify the Jaycees and at the same time contribute enough to pay for getting them cut.

The Jaycee president stated that the "more money we can get, the better job we can do", but, adding "we have to have funds, otherwise, we will have to quit".

BULL LAKE PHILOSOPHER SAYS A FOUR-ROW CULTIVATOR IS JUST AS TIRING AS ONE-ROW CULTIVATOR

Editor's note: The Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Bull Lake seems to be about normal this week, the following letter reveals.

I was out here the other day watching things grow and listenin to the drone of tractors runnin on my neighbors' farms and wonderin if my cark was goin under from the pull of a fish big enough to be worth the effort of yankin up on the pole, ain't no use exertin yourself unnecessarily in this kind of weather, and I got to thinkin what my neighbor, the energetic one, had to say yesterday about farm machinery.

"What will they bring out next," he wanted to know, still admirin and covetin a set of four-row tractor equipment he'd seen in town that mornin.

"First they had a walkin plow, and I can remember when they brought out the one-row ridin plow and I thought a man with one of them really had somethin," he went on.

"Then when they brought out a two-row ridin cultivator, the fellow with th one-row outfit looked up and said the other fellow really had somethin.

"Then when they brought out tractors, with three-row equipment, the fellow with the two-row mule-drawn stuff was really envious.

"Now they got tractors with four-row equipment. What do you reckon they'll bring out next?" He walked off in a sort of a dream, like he thought manufacturers was devotin their lives to makin farmin a snap.

Now understand I pride myself on bein progressive, ain't never yet stood in the way of anybody who wanted to work harder, ain't never envied my neighbor's flashy car or 18 months time-payments, but my suspicions is that cost folks are kiddin themselves about progress.

The way I look at it is, if you're workin from sun-up to sundown with one-row equipment or four-row equipment, you're still workin from sun-up to sun-down. There may be some folks who can get some satisfaction out of goin up four rows and down another four, but to me there ain't no basic difference between that and goin up one row and down another. One may be producun more stuff than the other, but both is equally tired when they climb off the seat at sun-down, and if the bottom falls out of the price, which ain't unheard-of in farmin, one ain't much ahead of other. Now if you used a four-row tractor to get through quicker and go fishin, it might be different, but everybody I know with four-row outfits has to work more land to justify the added expense and wind up puttin in the same hours as the one-row farmer.

Most folks, includin those in town, have lots of conveniences and contraptions, but in the final analysis the total amount of work necessary to make a livin and pay for the contraptions ain't been reduced very much by gadgets.

For a year in year out proposition, to get the maximum out of every day, I like my system better... just let things slide.

Your faithfully, J. A.

New Business To Open At Sudan

Adding to the endless chain of new business ventures being started in Sudan, was the announcement there last Thursday by O. L. Shannon that construction work had started on a 40-acre tract of land acquired from John Dean adjoining the Shannon Granaries for a power Compress Plant. The new business will be known as the Shannon Compress. The compress to be erected will be capable of baling 100 bales of cotton per hour.

To Employ 25 to 30 Men

According to Mr. Shannon a working force of between 25 and 30 men will be required to operate the new compress with additional men to be put to work as the need arises. It is planned to operate the plant during cotton season on a 24-hour schedule.

Complete equipment for the new business has been purchased and is arriving daily in Sudan. "The plant will be completed by the last of September in plenty of time to take care of the company's customers in this area for the currently expected bumper cotton crop," said Shannon.

The Union Compress & Warehouse Company operate in Sudan one of the largest and finest compress storage plants on the South Plains although they are not equipped to do actual compress work.

MAIL AND FEMALE . . . This lass is Barbara Ann Grosshreis who, at 22, is the youngest postmaster in New Jersey and possibly in the nation. She has been nominated for the job at Crosswicks, N. J., but has served in the position on a temporary basis for the past year.

"HE'S A BUM" . . . Umpire Jim Henchik slows down Washington catcher Al Evans who, slightly exasperated, wanted to hang one on Indian Manager Lou Boudreau. Boudreau had accused the Washington pitcher of deliberately trying to hit a batter.

FAVORITES OF FATHER TIME . . . Luke Appling, ancient but able shortstop of the Chicago White Sox, takes a lesson on how to play his "position" from Willie Hoppe, billiard wonder, who was a world champion before Appling was born. Still the world's three cushion titleholder, Hoppe won his first world's crown in January, 1906. Lascious Luke Appling has been with the Sox for 10 years, and is still going strong.

We're Building to Meet

Your Natural Gas Needs

To keep facilities and service abreast of the rapid development of West Texas, we are continuing an accelerated improvement and expansion program.

This year West Texas Gas Company will invest over $2,225,000.00 in new facilities to maintain good gas service and also extend gas service to new customers.

Shown above is the new home of Mrs. O. C. Higgins. She is one of many new customers now enjoying natural gas service, at a saving over former fuel costs.

The 1949 improvement and expansion program is in addition to the more than $2,280,000.00 we invested in 1948 in new facilities to maintain good gas service, high in quality, low in price . . . the best bargain in the family budget.

Windy Sure "Stopped The Show"!

The other night a bunch of us were over at Judge Cunningham's watching a swell vaudeville program on his new television set. It came in fine, but just once, the screen got a little streaky.

Before the Judge could touch the knob to bring it into focus, old Windy Taylor starts fooling around with the antenna connection. "I can fix that!" he says.

Windy fixed it all right. He "stopped the show" for us, and Buzz Ellis had to come over and do a $20 repair job. I understand Windy feels so bad, that he's paying the bill and has apologized to the Judge for acting so smart.

From where I sit, it pays to practice a little restraint whenever we get the urge to meddle. Whether it's television or a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of sparkling beer now and then—let's get a good clear "picture" of the real situation before we cause more harm than good.

This photo (just one of thousands) was made as they strolled under an archway at Aly's Chateau de l'Horizon after their civil marriage ceremony. They were wed by the Communist mayor of Vallauris, a little village about two miles from the Mediterranean coast.

West Texas Cities To Take Water Fight To National Congress

A campaign to take the West Texas municipal water fight to the National Congress has been activated by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, with a series of letters to national and local officials, Chamber of Commerce Managers and editors.

The letter accompanies a report just made by WTCC Manager D. A. Banded on the West Texas water shortage damage, under publication of the Hoover Commission domestic water recommendations.

"In support of your Recommendation No. 1 on priority of use of multi purpose reservoirs—as contained in your Commission's report to the Congress on Federal Business Enterprises—the enclosed analysis and report on 'West Texas Water Shortage Damages and Application of the Hoover Commission's Domestic Water Recommendations' has been made' Banded wrote to Mr. Hoover. "The report is an effort to show that lack of domestic water is truly a menace to public welfare equivalent to flood damages and that the adoption of your recommendation would certainly contribute greatly to the welfare of our people everywhere, including municipal corporations.

"There is widespread and militant support in this West Texas territory and all of Texas of your municipal water priority formula and our purpose is to campaign in Washington for the adoption of your commission's majority recommendation."

To other officials Banded pointed out that although the WTCC report expresses the organized thinking of West Texas territory on surface water problems, it now is expressing a national viewpoint because of the Hoover recommendations.

In activating the program local chambers have been asked to study it and pass resolutions calling upon a revision of the federal dam building criteria, which would permit construction of dams with municipal water as the motivating factor.

As chairman of the WTCC Water Resources Development Committee, R. F. Wagstaff has called on all West Texas mayors to give support to the program. Wagstaff was one of the authors of the Wagstaff-Woodward bill passed in 1931, giving domestic water users first priority in Texas.

"This is a challenge to you to give us your personal and official endorsement of this report and do something big for your town," Wagstaff wrote the mayors.

NEW GYMNASIUM

Anton High will have a new 2,000 seat gymnasium for its home basketball games next season.

A contract for the $99,000 structure, to be made of tile with fire-proof brick on the outer surface, has been let, and construction will start within a few days.

The contracting company, Midland Home Loan Finance corporation, has agreed to have the gymnasium ready for use within 120 work days.

Rodeo Scheduled At Monahans July 27, 28, 29 and 30

Grandstands were going up this week as the $50,000 Monahans rodeo arena gets the final touches in preparation for the World's Championship event scheduled here on July 27, 28, 29, and 30. All shows will be night performances.

The stands, when completed, will seat 7,500 people with enough additional parking space to accommodate an over all crowd of 12,000, "Tex" Sumner, chairman of the local publicity committee, said.

The Monahans organization is affiliated with the Rodeo Cowboys Association of America and will be managed by Frank Mariani of Ranger, former holder of the World's Championship Cowboy title.

Mariani supervised the construction of the chutes, pens and corrals and they are designed along the lines best suited to riders and stock alike.

One of the best rodeo shows ever produced has been lined up by Mariani for the initial Monahans event.

It includes Don Wilson of Tulsa, Oklahoma and Billy Buschbom of Topeka, Kansas in trick roping events; Paul Bond of Carlsbad, New Mexico and Don and Virginia Wilcox and Ruth Mariani, trick riders.

Buschbom's Golden Horse act, also on the program, is said to be one of the top rodeo attractions of the country.

Johnnie Miller of Vernon will stage his famous bull fight and other clown acts are included. Dittman Mitchell will handle the announcing over the public address system.

fact that Army medical officers, as a result of the present shortage of service medical personnel, are required to be on duty more hours per day, in many cases, than is normal, as well as to perform more than normally arduous duties.

"It was also announced that the Surgeon General will be placed directly under the Chief of Staff," said Sgt Cutshall. "This re-emphasizes and facilitates his direct access to the Secretary of the Army and to the Chief of Staff in order that these officials may be kept constantly informed on the critical medical situation. General Omar N. Bradley, Chief of Staff, said this same organizational pattern is being implemented throughout the Army so that all medical officers will have direct access to their respective commanders."

Roden-Smith Fountain Is Outstanding In

Design and Finish

One of the leading features of the Roden-Smith Drug Store — The Walgreen Agency in Littlefield — is the fountain service. Seating accommodations on the stools at the fountain and in the comfortable booths is provided for 37 patrons.

Manufactured by Bastain & Blessing, the fountain and back bar are the very latest obtainable, and are of stainless steel construction.

It is the most sanitary and modern fountain obtainable," said Don Gladman, manager of the store.

The fountain is 23 feet long, is designed for quick, efficient serving, and is sparklingly beautiful in finish and pleasing to the eye in design.

Mr. Gladman announced that a complete fountain service will be offered, with tasty sandwiches and appetizing breakfasts.

Many Departments At New Drug Store

The new Littlefield drug store—the Roden-Smith Walgreen Agency is a completely departmentalized store.

These departments include a complete photographic department, featuring Eastman products, a candy department featuring Whitman and Russell Stover's candies of Denver; a tobacco department complete in every detail; a prescription department stocked with the best and freshest in drugs; a veterinary goods department; household goods; bristle goods; gifts; leather goods, and baby department.

Walgreen Chicago Laboratory Is Busy On Numerous Projects

Lipstick making is intriguing to the visitor who sees an edible looking mixture poured from a large vat into moulds and set into a box on dry ice, where it hardens. It is then prepared for wrapping and insertion into cases sold in stores. Powders and rouges, as well as lipsticks, are wrapped by trimly uniformed girls in a special room where extra caution is exercised to prevent the intrusion of foreign odors of particles by means of special glass enclosures.

The aspirin manufacture is a drawing card, officials say. Two compact, powerful machines are used in this department to compress and bottle approximately 459 aspirin tablets a minute each. Here the Walgreen company produces over a million packages of pure aspirin a year.

Pharmaceuticals

Particular attention is devoted to the pharmaceuticals of medicines Walgreen buys for prescription purposes. (continued on back page)

Some Insect Damage To Cotton Reported

According to Assistant County Agent Gilbert Simmons, insects are causing some damage to cotton over the county. These include flea hoppers, climbing cut worms and careless weed work. However, Mr. Simmons stated that the damage as a whole had been rather slight, but he urges farmers to keep on the lookout and report any infestations to County Agent's Office, so that the proper control measures may be taken.

David Eaton, County Agent, and Mr. Simmons have checked approximately 4000 acres of cotton and found some damage, some of which was not enough to necessitate taking any control measures.

RODEN-SMITH DRUG STORE

Walgreen Laboratory

The vast array of drugs not only teaches a lesson in practically unpronounceable Latin names but geography as well, for side by side on the shelves rest menthol crystals from Nippon and strange rare oils from South America. Herbs and potions from all over the world have been gathered here to fill Walgreen's high medical standards.

Another huge room is a forest of 500-gallon and 1,000-gallon tanks in which materials are processed for products varying from shaving creams to mineral oil. Rows of heavy steel barrels near the tanks contain witch hazel from New England, olive oil from Italy and codliver imported directly from Norway. Russian mineral oil and eucalyptus are also present.

Research scientists occupy an exclusive section of the building, and working continuously at devising and making tests of the effectiveness of products made and sold by Walgreen agencies. Not only raw materials but the finished products, too, are put through rigid tests as every product has to measure up to specifications before it can be certified and put on sale at a Walgreen store.

More than 1,500 nationally known drugs and toiletries are produced in the Walgreen Laboratory, located in the heart of Chicago's modern central manufacturing district.

In the past few years, thousands of visitors have toured the laboratory to see the amazing size and scope of its activities, report officials here for the opening of Roden & Smith Walgreen Agency Drug Store.

Conducted Tour

A tour of the Chicago laboratory reveals:

A perfume vault, where side by side on endless shelves are stored the ingredients of Walgreen's perfumes — oils from the romantic gardens of Cathay, the flowering slopes of the Balkans, Kashmir and the scented terraces sloping to the sunlit Mediterranean. Exotic essences by the score . . . Ylang, Liang, Patchouli, Boubarita de Laire, Rose Attar, Petigrain, Francaise, Musk Ambrette, etc.

Tons of creams are transferred from huge glass-lined tanks into jars suitable for milady's boudoir. The famous air flotation test is applied to Walgreen products in the cold cream room. If every grain is not so light in weight that it will float in the air, the powder is remilled until floating texture is reached.

GIN OPERATORS CARRY OUT EXPANSION PROGRAM OVER SOUTH PLAINS AREA

Included in the gin expansion and modernization program over the South Plains is the Straw-Burrow gin at Olton, costing in the neighborhood of $100,000; the Caudle gin at Halfway (east of Olton in Hale County) costing $140,000; the Haire and Son gin at Bainer, $100,000; improvements to the Caudle Gin at Hale Center, the Round-up Co-Op, the Springlake Co-Op and many others.

The Shraw-Burrow expansion follows the construction of a 5-80 stand Continental gin last season. The plant now being erected is a 4-80 Continental and is directly adjacent to the original gin. A Fox-Wellborn burr burner is being constructed to take care of the trash from both gins.

Jack Straw and his partner, Brent Burrow, have faith in the wisdom of their venture.

"We consider it a long term investment," Straw said, "rather than something to capitalize on this year's expected high yield."

Most of the other ginners feel the same way. The consensus is that ginning capacity, even including the expanded program is not too much for an average year. That it will be used to maximum output this year is accepted as a foregone conclusion.

The new Straw-Burrow plant will gin some six bales per hour on the new element and about seven bales per hour in the first battery. Operating on a 24-hour basis at the height of the season they will turn out some 312 bales per day.

The Straw-Burrow gin will have a double overhead burr extractor, a newly developed cleaner and a drier. This equipment helps to upgrade cotton picked by mechanical means.

Down the road toward Plainview, Bob Caudle is erecting two batteries of four stands each. The machinery is of Mitchell manufacture and each stand has the 80 saws typical of most gins. The project is one of the most extensive in the area and also one of the most unusual.

Caudle placed his order for the machinery and the building at the same time. The machinery began to arrive from Dallas but because of some fabricating and material difficulties the steel building was delayed.

Caudle went ahead with his plans and poured the concrete foundation and floor. Still the building material did not arrive. To save time Caudle and his right hand man, Robert Bynum, started to mount the machines on their foundations and this week the gin is rapidly nearing completion in the open air.

"We expect our building to arrive next week," Caudle said. "In the meantime we do all we can in the daylight hours and cover the machines at night with tarps. We have plenty of light to work by this way but sometimes it does get a little hot."

Caudle's new gin is also an addition to an existing four stand gin and burr burner. The Caudle family has been in the ginning business for many years and they see a continued expansion in cotton production in West Texas despite threats of restrictions.

At Roundup, the Roundup Co-Op gin, owned and operated by "Sleepy" Bailey, is constructing a modern concrete block, fire-proof burr burner.

"A fire last year taught me that it pays to be careful and a few dollars spent on such a burner will more than pay for itself," Bailey said.

The burner is being erected more than 100 feet from other parts of the gin and has a pit more than 20 feet deep, 20 feet wide and 30 feet long. It is being erected by C. L. Carlisle and D. L. Boyce and will be completed next week. Carlisle estimates that the pit will take care of the trash from 1,000 bales.

At Bainer Station, southeast of Littlefield, the Haire and Son gin is almost ready for a test run. More than $100,000 has been spent on this modern 5-8 stand plant. It is the second gin constructed by the Haires at Bainer. Murray machinery is being installed.

FIRST BAPTIST BOYS ATTEND R. A. CAMP

The Junior Boys of the First Baptist Church left the church about 2:00 o'clock Monday afternoon for the annual R. A. Camp at Ceta Glen, accompanied by Rev. Lee Hemphill, pastor, and other sponsors. They took along their bedding, and for the Monday evening meal each boy carried a picnic lunch.

The plumbing has been completed at the Church cabin, so that shower facilities are available. Twelve men from the church deserve credit for having given their time to put the Camp house in condition for this year's camp.

The Junior boys returned Wednesday afternoon, and the Intermediate Boys left at 4 p. m. of the same day, and will return Friday afternoon.

OFFERINGS REACH $1227.95

As announced in the First Baptist Bulletin for Sunday last, the Sunday School attendance was 401, and the offering $1227.95.

For sometime the offerings of the church each first Sunday in the month have been set aside toward the church's building fund. The goal is always $1000, and most times total over $1000. Hence, the offering for the first Sunday in July totaled $1272.95, which goes to the building fund.
