Issue Decided By Election Held Saturday, March 9

Official Canvass Gives Littlefield 4294 Votes Out of Total 6327 Cast

Littlefield is the County Seat of Lamb County.

Wednesday morning the Commissioners Court canvassed the returns in the County Seat election of March 9; the official order moving the Court House from Olton to Littlefield was entered, and Sheriff Sam Hutson was ordered by the Court to take charge of the Seals and Records of Lamb County and remove them to the new County Seat.

From then on things began to happen thick and fast. Soon the Court House had trucks all around that structure, and moving operations got underway. The County Clerk's office was the first to be moved, and the moving of other offices will continue until the transfer has been completed.

Littlefield was expecting the announcement that the County Seat was to be moved Wednesday, but became definitely aware of the important activity with the continuous sounding of the fire siren at City Hall, now Lamb County's Court House, through a lease to the County of the $50,000 structure at $1.00 per year.

When the fire siren was sounded large trucks hurried through the street, enroute to Olton. They were joined by large numbers of citizens who went to Olton for "Moving Day."

Moving operations, according to County Judge I. B. Holt, were carried out in an orderly manner without any unpleasant instance. Mayor A. C. Cheshier and a large number of other citizens met the advance group of the returning trucks in a "welcome to Littlefield" informal reception.

Included in the reception group were two fire trucks, and as the records moved through Phelps Avenue everyone smiled and cheered.

At the new Court House, Lamb County officials are settling down, and it will only be a day or two before it will be "business as usual."

The official canvass of the election returns showed a total vote of 6327. Of this total Littlefield received 4294 votes; Amherst 794 votes; and Olton 1234 votes. There were five write-ins.

Swimming Pool Plans to be Ready by March 25

Mayor A. C. Cheshier announced Monday that he had been advised by Engineer Harry Roberts that the plans on the Swimming pool would be ready about March 25.

The Committee in charge of this project include Charles Signor, Arthur Duggan and Durwood Howell.

The project will include a wading pool for children, swimming pool for grownups, fencing of the swimming pool, and beautification of the park, in which the swimming pool will be located.

It was argued by early day Christians that the world must necessarily be flat, because otherwise when Christ returned, He would have to make his appearance twice—once for the benefit of those living in each of the two hemispheres.

Quality Dairy Products

The Texas Dairy Products Association are sponsoring a series of seven district meetings of Texas dairy farmers, manufacturers, milk and cream buyers, and all others engaged in producing and marketing dairy products, Texas agricultural workers, Home Demonstration Agents, County Agents and Vocational Agricultural Teachers are also attending.

Purpose of the meetings is to acquaint the dairy industry throughout the state with new regulations recently issued by the State Board of Health covering production and marketing of milk and cream. It is generally conceded that the future of Texas dairying depends wholly upon the production of quality products. It is felt that strict observance of the new regulations will serve as a guide toward the attainment of that goal. It will, at the same time, serve to place Texas dairy farmers more firmly in the dairy business rather than force them out of business.

Another purpose of the meetings is to more fully acquaint the industry with problems confronting it during the current year.

Each of the meetings is being presided over by a chairman selected from the local district and acquainted with its conditions. The Texas Dairy Products association is being represented by M. E. McMurray, manager of the organization. Accompanying him is M. L. Raines of the State Board of Health, who will interpret the new regulations. It is felt that the series of meetings are of extreme importance to Texas dairying.

Scheduled meetings, places and dates are: March 19, Plainview, Hilton Hotel Ballroom; March 21, Abilene, Wooten Hotel; March 22, Denton, City Hall Auditorium; March 26, Sulphur Springs, Chamber of Commerce Auditorium; March 27, Waco, Chamber of Commerce Auditorium; March 28, La Grange, County Court House; March 29, Alice, District Court Room, County Court House.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION EXERCISES WEDNESDAY EVENING MAY 15

Baccalaureate Sermon to Seniors Sunday, May 12

Central School to Have Exercises Tuesday, May 14

Supt. Fred Miller announced Tuesday that the Graduation exercises for the Littlefield High School were scheduled for Wednesday evening, May 15, in the school auditorium.

The graduating class of the high school is expected to be the smallest in years, with about 46 members, while the Central Elementary graduating class promises to be the largest in the history of the school, numbering about 140 pupils.

Last year sixty high school pupils graduated with the 1945 class.

The Central school graduating exercises are scheduled for Tuesday night, May 14.

The Baccalaureate sermon for the

Olton Cleanup Campaign Underway

The Olton clean-up campaign got under way Monday.

The campaign is being sponsored by the Lions Club and the City of Olton.

Four or five trucks were engaged to haul the rubbish to a dumping place.

The sponsors have asked that everyone in the city clean up all your rubbish, and burn all tree limbs, old boards, paper, rags and everything else that will burn, and pile the cans and other rubbish in the alley, or some other convenient place so the trucks can conveniently get to it to load. There will be no charge to anyone for hauling off your rubbish. The sponsors have secured a place to dump this rubbish for one week only.

Certain bacteria multiply at such a terrific rate that if not destroyed by natural enemies, they would dominate the entire earth in less than a year's time.

high school is scheduled for Sunday night, May 13, opening at 8 o'clock. The speaker has not yet been announced.

Builds New Home For Olton Enterprise

Plans are underway by Bill Smith, Publisher of the Olton Enterprise, to construct a new building to house the newspaper. Construction is to start soon on a tile structure.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have a three year old daughter, Hazel Beth.

Resourceful always — Smith without any newspaper or mechanical training took over editing and composition output of his plant back in 1937 after six Linotype operators had come and gone in six months—the combination editor-devil right now has more circulation than his paper ever had before, and is preparing to "dress it up" by changing over from six wide columns to seven standard columns.

Recently he acquired a four-page press from the Hereford Brand, and he is adding other equipment which will be moved into the 25 by 60 foot plant, which will almost triple his floor area.

Veterans Urged To Attend Meeting Tuesday, March 26

Session Called For Purpose of Signing Up For Classes

The plans and course of study as drawn up by J. Ernest Jones, Lamb County Supt. of Schools, and submitted to the Veterans Administration for approval, have been officially approved by the Veterans Administration; for the establishment of The Lamb County Vocational School.

This is to be a Vocational School for honorably discharged veterans of World War II, who are not able to go off to college or some full time Vocational School, and wish to take advantage of the provisions of the G. I. Bill of Rights for further educational training.

Veterans attending this Vocational School and doing satisfactory work can draw the $65, per month if single without dependents, or $90 per month if single with dependents or married. A veteran having been in active service for 90 days or more is entitled to receive one year's schooling plus the number of months that he was actually in service, not to exceed 4 years.

Three main units will be established in this Vocational School; A. Agricultural Unit for all veterans working on the farms; B. Mechanical Trades Unit for all veterans engaged in any form of Mechanical work including Auto Mechanics, Sheet work, Wood Work, Radio, Electricity, Refrigeration, etc; and a Distributive Education Unit will be established for veterans engaged as clerks, or in any business in which they are distributors of goods.

At a meeting of the Lamb County School Board on Monday, March 18, Stilwell Russell was hired as the Coordinator of the Agriculture Unit, providing there is adequate demand for a course in Agriculture.

It is hoped that classes can be started in this Vocational School by the first of April, 1946.

Lamb County is one of the first counties in West Texas to be approved for such a school.

A meeting is called for ALL VETERANS OF LAMB COUNTY who are interested in this Lamb County Vocational School for next Tuesday night, March 26, at 8:00 p. m. in the Littlefield High School Auditorium. They will sign up for the different classes at that time. The School will be discussed thoroughly, and definite instructions will be given the veterans qualifying for the school at that time. THE PUBLIC IS CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND.

Overton Chapel Methodist Church, Lubbock, Opens First Revival with Rev. Kirk Preaching

Overton Chapel Methodist Church in the Suburban Homes addition, in Southeast Lubbock, opened its first revival meeting Sunday with Rev. Luther Kirk, formerly of Littlefield, in charge. The church, shown above, is one of the newest in the Northwest Methodist conference. E. L. Campbell will lead the singing. Rev. Kirk is Pastor of the First Methodist Church of Slaton. Rev. W. A. Appling is Pastor of the Overton Chapel.

Early in the year 1944 Dr. M. C. Overton-deeded three lots in the Suburban Homes addition to the First Methodist church with the understanding that the church would construct a building for Sunday School purposes. In September of that year services were held for the first time. S. Duane Bruce, an assist. pastor at First church, was placed in charge of the new chapel. Dr. L. N. Lipscomb preached on that occasion and dedicated the building. The response of the community was so great that it was soon determined that the chapel should be enlarged to its present size. Rev. Chas. Lutrick an assistant pastor at First church, was in charge of the chapel during the time the plans for enlargement were made. When the building neared completion in the latter part of 1945, it appeared evident that the chapel was in need of a full-time pastor, and Rev. W. A. Appling was assigned as pastor, and a new Methodist church was added to the list of the Northwest Texas conference, one of the 500 new churches planned in Methodism's Crusade for Christ.

In the four months that Rev. Appling has been pastor the Overton Chapel Methodist church has continued to grow and at the present time, with very little assistance from the parent organization, it is paying its bills and promises to be one of the stable churches of the city. The total cost of the project has been about $12,000, with $10,000 of this paid by First church and $2,000 by the Board of Church Extension.

IN MEMORY OF Phyllis Diana Waldo By Mrs. H. E. Lacy Our Dear Heavenly Father planted this little flower in one of his earthly gardens. It was tended with loving hands and tender care, and gave promise to bloom into a full grown flower. But our Dear Heavenly Father came to earth again gathering buds for his Heavenly garden, and plucked this little Bud. Now she is at home with him in Heaven. We must not question the wisdom of our Heavenly Father for He giveth and He taketh away. Dear Father, Mother, Brother and Sisters, weep not for this little one. She won't come back to this sinful world, but you can go to her, where there will be no more parting, no more tears, no more pain and death, and what a grand reunion when all are gathered together over there.

The word "planet", which means "wandered" was given to the earth by the Greeks to distinguish our globe from other astral bodies which they viewed as "fixed stars."

Aluminum Garage Door Is Now In Production

Wm. Cameron and Co., have announced that a new, overhead-type, aluminum garage door, made from war stock-pile aluminum, and including construction principles developed during the war in the aircraft industry, is now in production. These new-type Berry Garage Doors are being received in the Southwest in carload lots and are obtainable through any retail lumber dealer.

The door is being mass produced, and is priced sufficiently low for low-cost housing.

The unit is of radical new design, with an inbuilt, counterbalanced operating mechanism. The complete door weighs only 60 lbs. for a full 8 x 7 ft. size. Particularly adapted to multiple installation because no dividing posts or pillars are required, the door can be installed in garages where the ceiling is flush with the underside of the opening. It requires no tracks for operation. The door opens outward and locks in place to form a canopy under which automobiles can be washed or repaired.

Littlefield, Lamb County, Texas

Lamb County's First Judge Recounts Early History of This Section

Judge and Mrs. H. R. MILLER

In the Sunday edition of the Avoca Journal, that newspaper published the following item of interest regarding the first judge of the County Court of Lamb County:

"The boys who beat the South Plains brush for news might not say that former County Judge H. R. Miller of Olton is the most typical oldtimer of the section — but they will agree that he'll do for the designation until one more typical comes along.

"A catch-as-catch-can conversationalist who mixes in a variety of language that for want of a less euphemistic term might be called scenic, the white-thatched pioneer in the riotous colored shirt is as much a part of Olton as the courthouse or the surrounding rolling cotton and wheat land.

"Miller's face is mobile. Scenes shift there when he alternately discusses the old and the present times; the time when he and Mrs. Miller came to this section and there were only about seven other families in what now is Lamb county; the time when he as first county judge in 1908 had to appoint two commissioners because there were not enough persons living in those commissioners' precincts to hold an election and when he had to change a precinct boundary line prerequisite to another commissioner's appointment, "because that was the only way he could save anyone at all living in it"; and about the time Mrs. Miller was "so mad because I had been elected county judge that she wouldn't even go to the barbecue held after the election. She wanted me to give more time to farming than to politics."

"Judge Miller appointed the late Walter Sullivan, George Arnett who was foreman of the Spade ranch, and Claude Halsell as commissioners. The county had just been organized, after having been attached to Castro county for judicial purposes.

"My wife cooked a tubful of chow for the barbecue, though," said Judge Miller and he and his official family went about building Lamb county's first courthouse. It cost only $2,800, and was two stories tall, Judge Miller recalls, even though he seems to remember it as approximately 40 by 80 feet in size.

Luther Williams, now of Albuquerque, N. M., was the first tax assessor, the late Herb Dickson was sheriff, G. T. Galloway, who lives here in the summers and goes south for the winters, was county-district clerk, and Fred Schriener was treasurer. Judge Miller's salary was $65 a month, he recalls. His duties included serving as county school superintendent. He served three terms.

"The old courthouse burned the last day of May, 1922. Guy Willis, now an abstractor who has an office in the present courthouse, was county clerk at the time. R. C. Hopping, now of Lubbock was county judge. Under his administration the present courthouse was erected in 1923.

"When the Millers moved to this section "Uncle" Charlie Keenan, "Doc" Powell and his father, W. D. Wicker (whose wife lives at Hale Center), Ed Burrus (who later served three terms as county judge and who still lives here), George Gullup and their families, perhaps another or two Judge Miller has forgotten, were here. The Millers had married near Dallas, moved to Quanah in 1891, then to Memphis and in 1900 to Lamb county. They lived in a combination dugout and one-room shack two miles northeast of what later became Olton. Those were days when the cattle outfits used the land, before the farmers migrated here. The Mashed O ranch was in the western part of the county. Halsell was owner, and the late Will Rogers worked there awhile. Arnett bossed the Spade in the south part of the county.

"There were bad prairie fires—one of them jumped Running-water draw—and vicissitudes of weather and economics, but the settlement began to grow, and the county with it. The first school was started in 1905, a mile and a half north of the present town.

"It was called Burro college, on account of a donkey freezing to death standing beside its wall during a blizzard," Judge Miller laughed. The school was moved to Olton in 1908, when a building was erected. "We hauled lumber from Canyon after 1903, Plainview after the Santa Fe railroad hit there in 1907."

Mrs. Miller, a gentle woman with a capacity to bridge over the verbal antics of her teasing mate, also could recall much of that early Lamb county history. The first postoffice, she could remember, was opened three miles north of the present town, in the "Doc" Powell residence. It was named Olton in honor of an infant in the Powell home. The postoffice was moved a mile and a half southwest to the T. F. Brown residence. The mail was brought in from Hart by mule team, after 1908 by mule from Plainview to a postoffice that was moved to the present site of Olton.

"There were about 30 "legal" voters on the petition for incorporation of the county, Judge Miller said, grinning. Land speculators, or some of them, also stoned. Springlake sought to dispute the designation as county seat, but Olton had two committees and Springlake's one committee could not watch both. Olton got the election.

"The first church, a union institution, was built in 1908, "and we ribbed the ministers as coming here 'just to practice on the cowboys.' W. P. Sosh began selling out the great Slaughter acreage and the 'Yankees' paid $15 to $30 an acre for it and started farming. In the 20's the land values climbed to around $80 and acre, and sudan and cotton and wheat and stockraising got new emphasis.

"The Millers gradually sold off the two sections they had homesteaded and several years ago sold the "home place," which was a large residence surrounded by a big orchard. They moved to Olton, where they had several rent houses.

"Right now, to follow the whimsical shift of Judge Miller's conversation, "we are here in this second hand place where we don't make any money, but have a lot of fun buying stuff from the townspeople and repairing it and selling it back for what we gave for it."

"Mrs. Miller, holding her 3-year-old granddaughter, Johnnie Bell Miller, showed pictures of her seven sons, six of them still living and one of them, Samuel Arza Miller, a Clovis, N. M., mechanic, having been the first child born in Lamb county.

"Changed in age, the Millers nevertheless have not changed in the ways of the frontiersmen.

"We have an extra bed — why don't you stay all night?" they asked a newspaperman who called at their place for an hour's visit last week.

Girl Scout Meeting Called for Tonight

The following members of P. T. A. and girl scout committees met at the Hilton Hotel, Lubbock, March 19. Mrs. A. B. Haynes, Mrs. Ray Hulse, Mrs. F. E. Conner, Mrs. C. C. Bartlett, Mrs. Manci Hall, Mrs. A. H. Stewart, Mrs. J. E. White, Miss June Wren, and Mrs. Roy Wade. At this meeting, Mrs. Gretchen Kidd of Dallas, Girl Scout Field Adviser, explained girl scouting, and made a schedule to visit different town in order to assist with local organization. Mrs. Kidd will come to Littlefield on Tuesday, March 26th, and spend two days here assisting in any way possible.

In the way of an advanced preparation for Mrs. Kidd's visit, and in order to find out if we do have mothers and daughters who are interested, the committee has called a meeting of all mothers and daughters who are interested in the organization of girl scouts and brownies, to meet at the American Legion Hall on Thursday, March 21st, at 4:15.

On next Tuesday night, March 26, the committee is calling a community meeting of all interested citizens at the High School Auditorium, 8:00 o'clock. The following persons and organization representatives are being especially invited: The Junior Study Club, Women's Study Club, P. T. A. members, Chamber of Commerce, Red Cross, Ministers of all Churches, School Superintendent, School Principals, Bank President, The Mayor of Littlefield, The Rotary Club, the Lions Club, The newspaper Editors, The Boy Scouts and their committees, the Legion Organizations, Teacher in our public schools, and all interested parent and community leaders. At this meeting, Mrs. Kidd will be a special speaker, and Mr. A. C. Cheasher, the Mayor of Littlefield, will preside.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Kidd will appear before the regular meeting of Primary P. T. A., at which time members of both P. T. A. groups are especially urged to hear her.

Although the P. T. A. organizations have thought this a worthwhile project to promote, it is necessary to have the full support of the citizens before it could be a successful organization in Littlefield. At this meeting our citizens, who are interested in youth, will decide whether it is advisable to organize Girl Scouts in Littlefield.

Manless Tractor In Operation at Sudan

A large delegation, including Mayor A. C. Cheasher, and a number of other citizens of Littlefield, attended a luncheon at Sudan Tuesday as the guests of F. O. Masten, and later witnessed a demonstration of a manless tractor.

The luncheon was held at the City

Cafe, and the demonstration was at the F. O. Masten farm just north of Sudan.

The special occasion for the luncheon was the visit of a cameraman, W. W. Kirkland, representing Life Magazine. The automatic plow has received national publicity.

All that is necessary is to plow one or two rows and set the automatic equipment, and this plow function through a guide attached to the front wheels, and which is the plow in place. Two-row equipment will plow 25 acres in 24 hours.

One man can operate as many as four tractors.

Swing of Southwest Farm Markets

(USDA)—Except for livestock and grain, most Southwest farm producers showed a downward trend last week, according to USDA's Production and Marketing Administration.

Cotton prices took a downward turn this past week and averaged a little under the 22-year high established earlier in March.

Meager grain supplies, failed to satisfy demand and prices remained firm at ceiling. No. 1 hard ordinary wheat brought $1.83 to $1.85 per bushel, bulk, in carlots at Fort Worth and Galveston; sorghum grains $2.70 per hundred, including all permissible markups; and No. 3 white oats 89 to 91 cents a bushel in Fort Worth and 91 to 93 cents in Galveston. Warmer weather brought no let up in the strong demand for feed and hay. Supplies remained tight and prices at ceiling.

Southwest egg markets developed easiness on large production this past week. Current receipts brought 29 to 31-1/3 cents per dozen, New Orleans; and mostly 31 cents, Dallas, Fort Worth and Denver.

Light receipts of poultry moved at stronger prices as demand continued fair to good. Heavy hens brought 27 to 29 cents per pound, New Orleans; and 22 to 24 cents, Dallas, Fort Worth and Denver. Fryers were in extremely short supply at some markets, and sold mostly at 30 to 31 cents per pound with some producers asking 33-1/2 cents, the ceiling.

Southwest hog markets saw no change this past week. Prices held firm at ceiling with receipts well under trade needs. Top butchers brought $14.50 per hundred pounds, Wichita; $14.55, Oklahoma City; 14.65, Fort Worth and Antonio and $14.80, Denver. Medium and good stocker pigs realized $12 to $13.50, San Antonio and Fort Worth mostly $13, Oklahoma City; $13 to $14, Wichita and $14, Denver.

Active trade at Southwest lamb markets last week took small fresh receipts at mostly steady prices. San Antonio quoted good spring lambs at $13.50 per hundred pounds. Fort Worth sold good and choice woolled and spring lambs at $13.75 and $14. Oklahoma City saw $14.50 as the week's top on native lambs and Denver quoted good and choice trucked in lambs at $14.75.

Cattle prices were fully steady to higher at most Southwest markets last week. Active trading cleaned up light receipts each day. Medium steers and yearlings brought $13.50 to $14.50, Houston and $14 and $15, Fort Worth. Medium and good light stock steers and yearlings realized $12.50 to $14, Wichita. Common to low medium steers ranged from $11.50 to $13.60 at San Antonio and medium to good steers sold at $12 to $15.25, Denver.

Most South Texas vegetables found fair demand at steady prices last week. Louisiana sweet potatoes remained at ceiling with demand greater than supply. Colorado Irish potatoes continued to move slowly in a dull market at prices set early in the week.

Sudan Conducts School Census

Martin M. White, Sudan School tax collector, is still at work on the scholastic census for 1946-47. His task is to enumerate each child due to reach school age by Sept. 1.

Parents living considerable distance from Sudan may call at the school, if convenient, and list their school children with White. This cooperation will be appreciated, and will facilitate his work by eliminating the necessity for long trips into the surrounding countryside to obtain this information.

It was suggested that parents find it possible to stop at the white, in town shopping.

Levelland, March 20 — (Spl.) — Everything is set for the featured matched roping between Troy Fort, Lovington, N. M. and Jiggs Burks, Comanche, Okla., Sunday afternoon, March 24, in the Levelland Rodeo Arena, according to W. J. Robertson, president of the Levelland Rodeo Association.

Rev. C. T. Jordan Returns to Earth As Baptist Pastor

Rev. C. T. Jordan, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church at Earth, Texas, and who has been in the service 2 1/2 years, returned to the pastorate of the church at Earth March 1, succeeding Rev. McGraw.

Mr. McGraw was called to the pastorate of the Baptist Church at Dayton, Texas.

Rev. Jordan saw action in Africa, Italy and France, spending a year in Naples, Italy.

Mrs. Jordan underwent two major operations while her husband was in Naples, and it was for this reason that he received an emergency furlough home and also a discharge in May of 1945.

Although Rev. and Mrs. Jordan have been married 17 years, their first child, a daughter, "Mary Charlotte" was born while Rev. Jordan was overseas, and she was nearly a year old when her father first saw her.

Rev. Jordan was pastor of the Earth church four years, when he left in December, 1940, going to Austin, where he was pastor of the Hillcrest Baptist two years.

Rev. Jordan and daughter were welcome visitors at the Leader office Friday, when he entered his subscription to this newspaper.

An ordinary passenger train going night and day without stopping would need five-sevenths of a year to reach the moon. The same train would travel for 75,000,000 years before reaching the nearest star.

Contract Will Be Awarded for Work Soon After July 1

According to announcement made by Congressman George Mahon, plans are now being drawn by the Federal Works Engineer, of Public Building Administration, Dallas, to provide for office space in the basement of the Littlefield Post Office. This improvement will provide offices for such Federal Agencies as Resettlement Administration, Federal Bureau of Employment, Rationing Price Board, and Selective Service offices.

The completion of the basement to provide it with suitable office space has been estimated to cost $8,000.

In recent letters from Congressman Mahon to Mayor A. C. Chesher, Postmaster W. D. T. Storey, and E. C. Cundiff, Chamber of Commerce Secretary, Mr. Mahon, after stating that plans were being drawn for this improvement added:

"I am now authorized to say definitely that action will be taken toward a contract for this work after July 1, 1946, the beginning of the next fiscal year. I am sure this improvement will be of great benefit to the city and county."

PLANES FOR FARMERS

WASHINGTON—The airplane will benefit the farmers of the United States as much in the near future as did the railroad in the last half of the 19th century and the automobile in the 20th century, according to surveys reported by the Air Transport Association of America.

The Department of Agriculture estimates that at least 3,000 post-war surplus planes may become air trucks to transport produce. Already air delivery of several varieties to markets over long distances has proved feasible. Present plans of the airlines call for the encouragement of farmers in all sections of the country to raise vegetables and crops which heretofore have been confined within a market radius of 200 miles. Henceforth distances are likely to become a secondary factor.

Air parcel post, if and when adopted, as provided in a bill before Congress, will greatly increase the rural value of the airplane, not only to ship produce, but also to bring back manufactured articles, including machinery parts. The extension of parcel post to the airlines would mean that more than 42,000 postal offices would be added to the 23,000 express offices now delivering air express.

Possibilities appear limited only by individual ingenuity. Uses foreseen for the airplane include the transportation of flying doctors and medicine, and of patients to hospitals; the flying in of grain and feed to farms isolated by floods or blizzards; spreading of germicides, dusting, inspecting and checking crops, cattle, sheep and fences, shooting coyotes, wolves and other pests, fertilizing, and seeding.

Over 400 rodeos are held in the United States each year.

Thrifty Housewives Engage in Extensive Salvaging Program

War-time need for salvaging much "trash" has brought many thrifty housewives to useful salvaging in peacetime, too, says Mrs. Bernice Claytor, specialist in home improvement for the A. and M. College Extension Service. Mrs. Claytor has several suggestions on what is "useful trash" and she says the rest should be collected and discarded promptly.

Articles usually thrown away often can be saved and used again if there is room to keep them, says Mrs. Claytor. A drawer or a rack may be used to hold wrapping paper and string. An upper shelf may be dedicated to jars and glasses which may prove useful in home canning.

Magazines often are allowed to pile up and fill needed space until the housewife finally decides to throw them out or burn them. A much better plan, says Mrs. Claytor, is to pass them on regularly to the many hospitals, recreation centers or other institutions in need of reading matter.

Many such wastes as papers, cartons, old clothes and rags also can be turned in for peacetime salvage.

Covered storage places need to be arranged for different groups of salvage materials. A waste basket or other holder in every room will save much time. Garbage should be kept tightly covered and disposed of as promptly as possible, and other trash should be burned regularly or kept in a covered container until carried away, concludes the specialist.

Exempt From Income Taxes on Army Pay

Enlightened men of the armed forces are exempt from payment of income taxes on their Army pay and if they have paid any since Dec. 31, 1940, refunds are retroactive, L. B. Barkley, chief deputy collector of the Office of Internal Revenue, Lubbock, pointed out.

He cited section 22 (B) 13 (B) amendment 141A of the revenue act of 1945 which reads:

"All compensation received during any taxable year, beginning after December 31, 1940, and before the termination of the war, for service in the military or naval forces of the United States by an individual below the grade of a commissioned officer is excluded from income. All enlisted personnel would have no income-tax liability with respect to service pay, and would be relieved of filing returns, with respect to such pay."

Other income of the serviceman such as rents, dividends, pay of his wife, etc., are taxable just like any other income, Barkley pointed out.

Regarding officers, only base pay, flight pay and overseas pay are taxable. Subsistence allowances for officers are not taxable, he said. Officers are allowed $1,500 exemptions besides their regular family exemptions and other deductions in making their reports.

How would you CHART YOUR COURSE?

Pictured here are the records of four "life lines" of our business—four things which largely control the destiny of any business whether it be a farm, a factory or a store. They are Wages, Materials Costs, Prices, and Profits. Suppose these were pictures of what is going on in your own affairs. How would you chart your future course from these facts?

What about wages?

Wages have risen steadily for five years. Before the strike which began on January 21 in ten of our plants and which has choked off nearly all farm machinery production, earnings of employees of these plants averaged $1.15 1/2 an hour, not including any overtime. The Union demanded a 34 cents per hour increase and a Government board has now recommended a general increase of 18 cents an hour, which would make average earnings $1.33 1/2 an hour. Weekly average would be $53.40.

What about materials?

No one seems to know how high materials costs will go. The Government has increased steel prices as much as $12.00 a ton, with an average increase for all grades of 8.2%. Steel is the most important material we buy, but prices on other materials are also increasing.

What about prices?

There has been no general increase in our prices since they were frozen by the Government in 1942. Since then a few small increases have been allowed where particular machines were substantially changed in design.

What about profits?

Risk is part of the American profit and loss system, so we do not, of course, ask either our customers or the Government to guarantee that we can be certain of profits each year. The chart tells the story of our profits during the war. Although Harvester produced more goods than ever before, it had no desire to get rich out of war, so our rate of profit has steadily gone down. What our 1946 profit will be is extremely uncertain.

What is the next step?

As you can see, our present situation is that with frozen prices and declining profits, we are asked to pay higher materials costs and to make the biggest wage increase in the history of the Company. Can we do this? Wages and materials consume all but a few cents of every dollar we take in. If our prices continue frozen, and cost of wages and

What about future prices of farm machinery?

The judgment of Harvester's management now is that we cannot reasonably make the huge wage increases recommended by the Government until the Government authorizes adequate increases in the price of farm machinery to cover the resulting increased costs. That is not a judgment that makes us happy. The Company does not want to raise prices, but we prefer to lower prices when possible, and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We produced at 1942 prices, and we could continue to do so if we have delayed seeking general relief in the hope that it could be avoided. Now we are convinced that it cannot be avoided longer. The price question will be settled. Until it is settled we do not see how we can settle the wage question. Until the price question is settled we do not see how we can resume production and begin turning out the machines which we know our farmer customers need. Because of the important nature of this controversy, we are bringing these matters to the attention of today's conditions. Through the chart we are trying to chart a course that will be fair to our employees, to our customers, and to our stockholders.

4-H Club Girls Have Outstanding Record of Achievements

The year 1945 shows record achievements of the 45,139 4-H Club girls in Texas, according to Lorene Stevens, 4-H Club specialist of the A. and M. College Extension Service. Food production, food preparation and preservation, home improvement, community recreation, home marketing, home nursing and first-aid, and wildlife and nature study are just a few of the activities they carried to "to make the best better."

Miss Stevens reports that 24,804 girls planned and served 563,443 meals and canned 1,889, 007 quarts of fruits, vegetables and meats.

In the sewing line, 30,922 club members made or renovated 115,201 garments, including underwear, dresses, suits, coats and accessories.

Interior home improvement was a project of 12,302 club girls last year. Their work included re-papering, finishing woodwork and furniture, adding windows, re-arranging furniture for comfort and convenience, or otherwise improving their homes by adding drapes, window shades, or bed linens. Miss Stevens says that 7,710 made nearly 25,000 articles for their homes.

The much-needed home food production was carried on by 24,459 club girls last year who helped provide their families with fruits, vegetables and poultry. Nearly 2,000 carried on phases of livestock production.

These are results that can be tabulated. The development of leadership and personality through club work is also very important, says Miss Stevens. Demonstrations, exhibits, achievement events, club publicity work and organization all contribute to these less tangible results of 4-H Club work, she concludes.

Urges Use of Phosphate Fertilizer

Pastures treated with phosphate fertilizer will produce more, and more nutritious forage will provide more protein per animal and will carry more animals on fewer acres. All this, according to M. K. Thornton, is in addition to grass of better bone building quality.

Bone building was all that was once expected of phosphate as a pasture fertilizer, he pointed out. On the basis of data connected by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station on an experimental plot near Beaumont, Thornton calculated that: Cows on pastures fertilized with 160 pounds of 20 per cent superphosphate consumed 165 more pounds of protein—the equivalent of 383 pounds of cottonseed meal—in 300 grazing days than did cows on adjacent unfertilized pastures.

The fertilized pastures produced 4,570 pounds of dry forage per acre as compared with 2,062 pounds per unfertilized acre, an increase of 2,508 pounds.

Protein equivalent per fertilized acre was 477 pounds as against 171 pounds per acre in the unfertilized plot.

One and two-tenths acres of the phosphated pasture carried one cow—based on a consumption of 25 pounds of dry forage per day for 300 days—while it took 3.67 unfertilized acres for one cow.

These figures, Thornton said, bear

Demonstrate Manless Tractor at Sudan

A cameraman from Life Magazine visited Sudan Tuesday to take aerial photographs of the new "automatic plow," being used on the F. O. Masten farm just north of Sudan.

Representatives of the pictorial magazine arrived at Amarillo Monday, according to the News Globe, which co-operated in arrangements, flying to Sudan from Amarillo.

During the wartime shortage of manpower, a device was invented which permits tractors to operate automatically, without drivers. By having a man stationed at each end of the rows, to turn them around, these tractors can plow and plant a farm by themselves, it is reported.

Masten had had the automatic machine working at his Wellington farm during the past three weeks, where they attracted interest of the local paper there. Later, radio station WFAA at Dallas picked up the story, and subsequently a national radio network described the manless tractors on one of its broadcasts.

Time and Life magazines both sought information for stories on this new addition to labor-saving farm equipment.

While the land at Wellington was being plowed, the tractors ran all night, Masten disclosed. They plowed 400 acres, between 12-14 inches deep all at one time, except for servicing stops.

These tractors averaged 25 acres in 24 hours, he said.

A nationally-known tractor manufacturing company has obtained a patent on the manless tractor, according to Masten.

Because of mesquite grubs in his farmlands at Sudan, he is not using the new type of tractor here as yet, he said, although they were used Tuesday morning for the photographers' benefit.

The same machine can be used for planting. The tractor itself is similar to regular models, but has an added device to make it self-operating. Masten adopted them as an experiment, he said.

LET'S WORK FOR INDUSTRIAL PEACE

Men want to work.
 Management wants to produce.
 The public wants to buy.
 The country wants prosperity.
 Yet good times have been held up by an agony of strikes.
 Strikes breed bitterness . . . hunger . . . and economic stagnation.
 For the sake of our country, let's change this! Change it fast. Time is running out!
 Let's work out a way to get — and keep — industrial peace and prosperity.

THE FIRST STEP

Isn't a sound national labor policy . . . one that treats workers and management exactly alike and above all one that is fair to the public . . . the first step toward that peace?
 Sincerely believing this to be so, we offer this program for peace and production and prosperity:

1. Make employers and unions equal in responsibility under the law.
2. Let Congress set the rules for genuine collective bargaining, free from coercion and violence, and then let government enforce these rules with strict impartiality.
3. Provide safeguards for the public against strikes or boycotts arising from disputes between unions.
4. Insure against strikes until all orderly procedures for settling disputes have been exhausted.

Your representatives in Congress have the power to establish this pattern for an enduring and a fair labor peace. Let them know how you feel about it. Urge them to act promptly on legislation to include these four points.

Time alone won't bring industrial peace. Doing nothing won't bring it. Positive action is the only way. For your own sake and for the future of our country, let your voice be heard!

FREE! A timely, authoritative booklet entitled "The Public and Industrial Peace," gives full details of this program, including specific suggestions for legislation. It is a useful handbook for every citizen, program chairman, or group leader. A postcard brings it. Address: National Association of Manufacturers, 14 West 49th Street, New York 20, N. Y.

Road Bond Election Goes Over Easily

A district 6 election for the issuance of $150,000 in road bonds carried easily Saturday on the basis of unofficial returns, it is reported. The vote at Earth was 176 for and four against; at Sod House, 26 for and none against; one precinct, Pleasant Valley, with 42 votes, had not reported late Saturday night. The district plans 17 1/2 miles of paving running from north of Earth to connect with highway 84 at Amherst. Votes were canvassed Wednesday.

Sgt. Donald Britt Arrives Home Discharged

Sgt. Donald Britt, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Britt of Amherst, who spent 21 months overseas with the Engineers and was in the service 30 months, arrived in the States the first week in March and was discharged March 11 at Fort Bliss. He arrived home Wednesday of last week. He was awarded the Meritorious Unit Award, Asiatic-Pacific ribbon, and two campaign stars for outstanding service on Guam and Okinawa. Sgt. Britt was sent to Camp Knight, a debarkation camp, where he had the pleasure of seeing his brother Pfc Roger Britt the first time since he had left home for service. Pfc. Britt is stationed at Camp Knight, Oakland.

Pfc Roger Britt has been in the service nearly two years, and spent five months in the European theater of operations. He was with the 87th Division of the Third Army overseas, and is now with a Transportation division.

Sgt. Donald Britt stated in an interview with the Leader recently that he probably would go into the building material business, possibly at Lubbock.

SIDELIGHTS FROM WASHINGTON

By CONG. GEO. MAHON

Some real progress is being made toward reducing Government spending and recapturing funds appropriated before V-J Day but not actually spent. This week the House passed a bill providing for the recovery of six and one-half billion dollars in unexpended Government funds in the hands of the Army and Navy and other Government agencies. This brings the total sum of money recovered since the end of hostilities to fifty-seven billion dollars, a sum greater by almost one-third than we have ever collected in Federal taxes in a single year.

We have not taken back from the Army and Navy certain unexpended funds required for rounding out the construction of bases in the far Pacific, but we have called for a clearer policy and no duplication of effort in the construction of these bases. After the peace treaty is officially agreed to, it might be difficult to complete fortifications without the charge being made by certain foreign powers that we were making aggressive threats against them.

There will be further recoveries of funds from the War and Navy Departments and other agencies following additional investigations which are now in progress.

The reports which Senator Connally and Senator Vandenberg have made to the Senate following their return from the first meeting of the United Nations Organization in London have been well received here. They talked not of war but of peace. Their emphasis was upon better understanding among the Nations. They spoke of tolerance and mutual respect, while advocating a firm and definite American policy.

The Senate has not permitted partisan politics to play a part in efforts which are being made to promote the success of the UNO. This significant fact was made clear by the report of Senator Vandenberg, the Republican leader in the Senate in foreign affairs matters. We cannot afford to fritter away a victory which was won at so great a cost.

The question of whether to permit the Navy to use 90 American ships in an atomic bomb test in the Pacific was not an easy one for the House to decide. However, upon the insistence of the Navy, the House voted to permit the test.

Undoubtedly, it is very important to our security to have accurate knowledge at an early date as to just what an atomic bomb will do to Naval ships. Naval officers point out that there is little comparison between the relatively fragile and inflammable Japanese cities and heavily armored ships of the Navy. The Navy insists also that a few modern ships be used in the test if necessary knowledge is to be gained. The argument was made that in the event of a future war the lessons learned from the tests might result in saving millions of dollars and thousands of American lives.

A bomb, other than atomic, will sink a single ship, but no one actually knows what an atomic bomb will do to a formation of Naval vessels. Before proceeding with post-war plans, the Navy wants to know if an atomic bomb will sink the Navy. Naval officers apparently do not think so.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED

Marion A. Elms, Jr. Y 2/c, of Littlefield, was March 12th honorably discharged from the United States Navy at the Naval Personnel Separation Center in Shoemaker, Cal.

Recent week end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lane were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Crump and daughter, Carolyn, of Friona, Tex.

Applications for Paving Received

According to Mayor A. C. Cheshier, a number of applications for paving of city streets have been received at the City Secretary's office. He stated that in order for the City to consider paving, that property owners on both sides of the street must sign up; and that when one property owner in a certain block wish paving done, he should get all the other property owners on that street to sign up. In this way the project can be put over.

Pavement assessment will be levied against the property for paving, and all those interested should get in touch with the City Secretary as soon as possible.

"Spots" Convinced There's Nothing Down Drain

Denton, Tex.—Spots, North Texas State College's sewer-watching dog has finally been convinced that there is nothing down the hole, and has lost interest after staring down the college sidewalk drain since Jan. 20.

The dog, who has been featured in leading newspapers throughout the nation and who was Life Magazine's picture of the week on March 4, watched Denton firemen flush the sewer-hole this weekend, in the presence of more than 150 visitors on the campus.

When firemen poured gallons of water into the sidewalk drain, the mongrel dog had to be restrained as he attempted to crawl down the sewer. Later firemen and college officials led the dog to the far end of the drain where it emptied into a flat basin near the college power house and allowed him to inspect the contents.

Spots interestedly watched the procedure about 15 minutes, then, disgusted, walked away. College officials had the drain cleaned following requests by telephone, wire and letter from all sections of the United States, Canada and Mexico. The drain held nothing—and now even Spots is convinced.

This week, college officials noticed the dog at the hole only occasionally and then he only hesitated, then passed it by. Spots has a home now, and although the gypsy dog prefers to roam the campus and belong to the student body in general, he finds his way to his new home at meal-time and is beginning to put on weight.

Pockets in Women's Clothes Can Be Both Practical, Decorative

Pockets may be practical as well as decorative, Mrs. Dora Barnes, clothing specialist of the A. and M. College Extension Service, reminds homemakers. House dresses, aprons, play suits and garden or work clothes will be more convenient and satisfactory if pockets are made fully useful.

On the skirt, pockets should be placed where the hands slip in naturally, says Mrs. Barnes. Pockets on readymade dresses and patterns are often too high. Because arms differ in length, the location of the pocket needs to be tried out before final stitching is done. Pockets slanted slightly toward the side are more convenient and also safer, because they are less likely to catch on handles and door knobs.

Since the primary purpose of a pocket is to hold things, Mrs. Barnes suggests that skirt pockets be roomy enough for a clenched fist to go in and out easily. This requires cutting the pocket large enough and then placing it on a loose part of the garment.

To make pockets durable, reinforce top corners where the greatest strain comes. A strip of tape, basted on the underside of the dress across the top pocket line, can be stitched on with the pocket to give corner strength. A double row of stitching across the top of the pocket itself gives added strength against pull at this point.

Million Home Gardens in Texas Is 1946 Objective

The goal of three quarters of a million home gardens in Texas, previously announced for 1946, has been upped to a full million by C. R. Heaton, horticulturist of the Texas A. and M. Extension.

The upward revision points out the need for home production of vegetables at a level equal to that of the war years and reflects the critical world food situation.

The appeal to Texas home gardeners to plant an additional 250,000 gardens came after M. L. Wilson, director of the federal Extension Service, called upon Texas Director Ide P. Trotter to again put into effect wartime policies of home food production.

Dr. Trotter has instructed all county agricultural and home demonstration agents to make home gardening a major activity. He said recent developments in the world food situation are such that food will be as critical an item, if not more so, than during any year of the war.

Reasons for Growing More COTTON in '46

GROW MORE FEED . . . IT'S NEEDED!

Increased cotton production is the surest way to supply the increasing need for protein feed. Added to your own need for protein-rich Cottonseed Meal or Cake is the need of other farmers and ranchmen . . . More acres and higher yields of Cotton are "feed insurance" for '46.

Denton, Tex.—Because a button popped off the jacket of GI Frank Gioviale in an Irish cafe during a match shortage, an Irish bride and her year old daughter are on their way to make their home in Vet Village on the North Texas State College Campus.

When Gioviale, a senior music major at NTSC, started to unbutton his jacket before the fireplace in a bus station cafe in Belfast, North Ireland, about two years ago, a highly polished button popped off his jacket.

A few minutes later, when a nurse at a nearby table asked him for a light, he inquired whether she had a needle and thread. She, admiring his highly polished button, wanted it for a souvenir, not knowing that with the button went tall, wavy-haired Frank Gioviale of Texas.

The Irish nurse, then Miss Tillie Charlton of Cookston, North Ireland, is now Mrs. Frank Gioviale, soon of Vet Village, Denton, Tex.

After a year in Ireland, Gioviale "toured" France with a medical unit. Daughter Ruth was born while he was in France and it was after V-J Day when he first saw her, and now he has received word that the two from Ireland will leave for the States soon.

Gioviale, whose home is in Beaumont, says that Texas will seem warm to his wife compared to her native North Ireland, and he is now busy getting his Vet Village prefabricated home ready to become an Irish lassie's first Texas home.
